NEBRASKA POLITICAL CONVENTION IN SESSION

BRYAN NOT IN STATE FIGHT.

Republicans Badly Split—La Follette Supporters Busy Against Taft.

LINCOLN, Neb.—In accordance with the state primary law which requires that all of the political parties shall hold their conventions on the same day, the Republicans assembled in state convention here today while the Democrats and Populists met at Fremont. All candidates are selected in primaries, so that all that is left for the convention to do is build platforms and select the state campaign officers.

The conventions, nevertheless, are attracting the attention of politicians the country over. They are the first state conventions of the year to be held anywhere in the North or West. Furthermore, they are held in a state which has furnished some of the most conspicuous leaders of the "insurgent" movement in the Republican party and at the same time still interests the Democrats as the home state of William J. Bryan.

Unless all signs go astray the Republican convention in this city will furnish more interesting developments than the gathering at Fremont. The Republicans are badly split. The "regulars" and "insurgents" fought and the "Nebraskan Progressive Republican League" was the outgrowth. Then the latter party split and the "Reformed Nebraskan Progressive Republican League" resulted, the latter consisting of those insurgents who have returned to the support of President Taft, while the "Mid-Road Progressives" are still fighting the administration.

La Follette emissaries have been busily at work in Nebraska for some time and have succeeded in working up considerable sentiment favoring the Wisconsin senator for the presidential nomination. If the La Follette supporters succeed in preventing the convention from endorsing President Taft they will be satisfied. If the president is endorsed they will probably lose little time in organizing a La Follette league and beginning the fight in earnest.

Victor Rosewater, the Omaha editor, is leading the fight for Taft, while Governor Aldrich is an avowed supporter of La Follette. A successor to United States Senator Norris is to be chosen before long and this tends to still further complicate the situation in the Republican party. Congressman Norris, one of the foremost "insurgent" leaders in congress, is an aspirant for the senatorship and his friends will not stand for any action on the part of the convention that might militate against his interests.

As Governor Aldrich has been approached by Victor Rosewater with a view to bringing out the governor as a candidate for senator, the Aldrich and Rosewater interests are to some extent in sympathy. At the same time, however, Rosewater is an ardent supporter of Taft, while Aldrich leans toward La Follette. Senator Brown, no longer beloved of Rosewater, is supporting Taft, thus opposing Aldrich, whose support he would like in the senatorial fight.

While the Republicans are thus badly mixed up the Democrats, on the other hand, appear to be working in more perfect harmony than for a number of years past. For the first time in more than a decade they are approaching a campaign with a thorough organization behind them. Mr. Bryan seems to have been eliminated, or to have eliminated himself, from Nebraska politics. He has refrained from making any comment or expressing any views on the local situation. Whether or not he will support the candidates selected by the party is a question, but it is certain that he has not endeavored in any way to influence the choice of candidates or the construction of the platform.

GAIETY THEATRE

Continuing to Please The Large Crowds.

Again last night the Gaiety Theatre was packed and standing room was at a premium, eager to witness the program of motion pictures.

The management of this place of amusement is certainly giving the people of Greenville their money's worth and too much praise cannot be said of their excellency in high grade service.

TRIAL MARRIAGE IN GERMANY

Ancient Custom of Making at a May Fair Still Exists in Some.

An ancient custom of holding a May fair for selecting brides and bridegrooms on trial still exists in some villages of the Eifel district in Germany.

On the day of the fair the young men and women who have been notified stand in groups on adjacent hillsides, their names being inscribed on a roll in the possession of the fair officials, who sit around a table between the groups. The ages of the young men are stated on the roll, but not those of the girls.

Males are then called forward by name in the order of their age, the oldest coming first, and one of the girls is called to meet him; if neither objects the young woman is presented with a wedding ring and the couple are declared duly wedded for a year on approval.

At the end of the year they may separate and each is free to marry again; or, if they are not quite sure whether they will be happy, they can arrange to separate for a day or two before the next fair and then be wedded again for another year. If a couple remain together over the year the marriage becomes binding for life, or if any family is born the union is also valid for life.

If a maiden refuses the first man she is supposed to marry the next offered to her. But this rule is not rigidly enforced now, though formerly the names of candidates were taken haphazard by the head man of the community, who did not put up with nonsense about maidenly coyness.

Nowadays it is generally arranged beforehand to call together only those couples who have been courting. The system has worked with good results for centuries and will probably last some while yet, until the farming districts become crowded with factories and towns.

SIMPSON ITEMS.

Local Happenings of That Busy Section.

SIMPSON, N. C.—Mrs. Julius Strickland, of Wilson, came in Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyd.

Miss Elmo Tucker is spending the week in Greenville with Miss Rena Smith.

Miss Lula Paramore, of Scotland Neck, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jessie Clark.

Miss Alma Tucker, of Greenville spent the week with Miss Daisy Tucker.

Mrs. Robert Bright, of Charleston, S. C., has been visiting Mrs. Harvey Elks.

Quite a number of our people boarded the train Sunday morning for Morehead City.

Misses Lela and Della Bryan and Master Durward Tucker went to Grimesland Sunday.

There is a very interesting Spanish poodle seen around Simpson these days.

Messrs. C. O. Elks, Mason Edwards and Harvey Cannon left for Norfolk this morning.

Men's Prayer League.

The Men's Prayer League met last Sunday at the Baptist church with a small, but interested audience. The leaders, Messrs. Adrian Brown, E. H. Thomas and F. R. Stretch, made most interesting and helpful talks. This was one of the best meetings held. Those who do not attend these meetings miss one of the most beneficial influences which this community enjoys. It is an opportunity for men to meet together prompted by an earnest desire to help one another.

The Men's Prayer League meets next Sunday at the Methodist church, at 4:30 o'clock. Subject, "Faithfulness." Leaders Messrs. Burney Warren, A. B. Ellington and F. C. Harding.

Rev. R. W. Hines Dead.

REIDSVILLE, N. C.—Rev. Robert Watkins Hines, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Clearwater, Florida, died here while on a visit to his brother, Mr. H. W. Hines.

The deceased was about 52 years old and is survived by his wife and one small son, four brothers and two sisters.

He had been voted a vacation by his congregation in Florida, and came to North Carolina for a visit. (Mr. Hines is remembered here where he was once for a short while pastor and also served the churches at Falkland and Parmele).

TODAY'S EVENTS IN NATIONAL CAPITOL

THE HAYTIEN MATTERS ON.

The Carnegie Pool—President Taft Back From Beverly.

WASHINGTON. — Admission has been made before the steel trust investigating committee that a pool was formed between the Carnegie Steel Company and ten other concerns to control prices, by witness W. C. Woodland.

President Taft and his party arrived from Beverly at 10:30. The train was an hour late.

The Dr. Wiley charges will probably be taken up at the cabinet meeting today.

Senator Knox is to hold a conference concerning reports that German bankers are financing the Haytian revolution.

The house Democrats in caucus on the cotton revision bill decided to advocate sweeping reductions.

Last Rail Laid.

WILMINGTON.—Ploughing with a steam shovel night and day through a hitherto undeveloped, fastness of seacoast country in order to meet conditions of a bond issue of the town toward the completion of the line, contractors Saturday midnight completed the laying of rails for the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern Railroad to deep water at Southport, a distance of 32 miles from Wilmington, the last spike being driven by President Z. W. Whitehead, of this city, in the presence of a large assemblage.

A Pair of "Beauts."

WASHINGTON. — James Keeley, cross-examined in the Lorimer hearing today told how he was bamboozled by George O. Gloves out of six hundred dollars for proof that Lorimer and James Tawney, the former Republican whip of the house of representatives, were splitting up the lobbying fees. Kelley and Gloves were called a pair of "beauts" by the counsel for Lorimer.

At the cabinet meeting today no action was taken on the Wiley charges.

Cotton Center of U. S.

WASHINGTON.—The center of production of the cotton growing area of the United States in 1910 was located three miles south of Valden, Carroll county, Mississippi, according to the census bureau's statistics just issued.

This cotton producing area is about 1,500 miles long and 500 miles wide. The total area of the counties in which cotton was ginned in 1910 is approximately 625,000 square miles, or about 400,000,000 acres. Of this, only about one acre in every thirteen was devoted to cotton.

Favors Direct Tax for Roads.

FOUNTAIN, N. C. July 24, 1911.

Editor Reflector:

I saw in your paper of the 7th where one Major McKethan was writing on good roads. He gave it as his opinion that we could build the roads cheaper by bond than we could by direct taxation, but I don't think so. He says that his county has paid out $30,946.75 in three years, which he says is an average of $10-315.18 per year, while he says if his county would issue bonds to the amount of $200,000 that the interest would be $10,000 per year, which he says would be $315.18 less per year than they are now paying. Well, that much is all so, but I think if he would consider rightly he would be bound to say that it is cheaper to work them by direct taxes. Because when they are worked that way the debt would be paid, when if they bond their county to the amount of $200,000 they will have to pay that $10,000 as long as those bonds stand which would cost twice as much as it would to work them by taxation, provided they were paid in due time.

It is the same way to the people of our county. If we were to bond our county to the amount of $500,000 it would cost the people of the county $25,000 each year to pay the interest and if we have to be taxed to work the roads I had rather do it by a direct tax. Then we will have no bonds to be taxed to death under to the ruination of our county. And, furthermore, if we work them by a direct tax then the money will stay among us instead of sending it away.

MAN NEVER WORE CLOTHES

A North Carolina Story All The Way From Atlanta.

ATLANTA.—Word comes to Atlanta, via the North Georgia mountains of a strange man named John Castolow, who has grown to be 61 years old, hale, hearty and happy without ever wearing a stitch of clothing and without ever using a single word but the monosyllable, "Gee."

Says a traveler from Young Harris, describing the marvellous person: "He lives four miles east of Windsoor, in Bertie county, N. C., and his health is perfect, not having missed a meal in fifty years. When I visited him he was entirely nude. He is the strongest man I ever saw. His body is normal and well shaped, but his strength is prodigious. He can break a double plow-line as easily as if it were a cotton cord. He is gentle and has never been known to hurt a living soul intentionally. He cannot speak a word except the one monosyllable, "Gee," which he uses, in varied intonations to express all his desires and emotions."

Beatty Couldn't Wait

RICHMOND, Va.—"Say, kid, I've got to live with Louise as long as the old man lives; when he dies we will go away and live together," was the beginning of the confession of Beulah Binford in connection with the murder of Louise Beattie by her husband. She declined to say this was the motive for the crime.

HOT OR COLD MAN IS THERE

90 Degrees Below Zero in Siberia, 124 Above in Algeria.

Plants and animals cannot exist in temperatures far higher or lower than those to which they have become accustomed, while man moves from one extreme to the other with, for the most part, but little physical discomfort. Explorers will visit the sands of Africa and the bleakness of the Arctic Circle and return to normal environments even improved in physical condition.

Man inhabits about every part of the earth except a few island regions in the interior of continents and immediate vicinity of the poles. It is from dread of climatic conditions that his tent has found no more than a temporary resting place in some of these far distant spots. It is not thought that the heat or cold of any of the unexplored regions of the globe has a greater range of temperature than many regions now inhabited.

Science reasons that the lowest temperature at the earth's surface are not found directly at the poles but at some distance to the south of the North Pole and to the north of the South Pole. Likewise the greatest degree of heat is not, as might be supposed, to be found at the equator, but prevails at some distance to the north and to the south of that imaginary line.

The coldest place on the earth's surface of which there is authentic record is in Siberia. The lowest temperature ever recorded in the open air was 90 degrees below zero (Fahrenheit) at Verchajansk, central Siberia, on January 15, 1885.

The highest temperature of which there is an authenticated record is 124 degrees above zero (Fahrenheit) in Algeria, northern Africa, on July 17, 1879. These places of extreme heat and extreme cold give a range of temperature covering the whole inhabitable world of 214 degrees, or two degrees more than from zero to the boiling point.

In the United States the lowest temperature ever recorded in winter is 64 degrees below zero in North Dakota, and the highest ever recorded in summer is 115 degrees above zero in Arizona. This gives a total range of 179 degrees within about 1,000 miles.

There is an unauthenticated report from Aumale, an outpost of the Algerian bad lands, which gives a temperature record in the outer air of 172 degrees above zero (Fahrenheit). This if correct exceeds by 48 degrees that of the highest on record. It is also stated that the temperature at this place rarely gets down to 140 degrees. On one or two occasions it dropped to 120 degrees and the natives shivered with the cold. Strange as it may seem, the death rate of French soldiers stationed at this post is lower than that at more northerly places having equable temperatures.

People who inhabit these places of extreme heat and cold are found to be exceptionally healthy and live to a ripe old age.

While men in all parts of the world make their homes in these exceptionally hot or cold places and move from one to the other without any apparent physical discomfort, it is found that animals or plants which would flourish in one could not survive in the other.

In the United States the extreme range of heat and cold is not so great but one may live in comparative comfort in any section; yet the same conditions apply to animals and plant life as prevail throughout the rest of the world; animals and plants that survive the winters of the south could not endure the winters of the north.

The greatest of the extremes of heat and cold in this country are found in the Western States, from the Dakotas and Montana southward to Texas and Arizona. The temperature in the Northwest during the winter months frequently drops to 30 or 40 degrees below zero and occasionally runs below 60 degrees, while the heat of summer in the central West and Southwest touches 100 degrees or higher. Regardless of such extremes the climatic conditions throughout the entire Rocky Mountain range are delightful for ten months of the year.

The most equable temperature throughout the year in the United States is found along the seacoast. Nearly two-thirds of the entire population lives in seacoast cities. People may complain of a few blustery and unusually cold days in winter and of a few sweltering hot and humid days in summer, but with all things considered the Atlantic seacoast from Florida to Maine is about as desirable a place of residence as any part of the world.—New York Sun.

Left $300 But Got It Back.

One of the happiest reunions on record will be that of Mr. J. W. Johnson and a roll of $300 in bills, which he absent-mindedly abandoned Friday morning in room No. 1 of the Southern cafe. On the preceding night he took the money, bound with a rubber band, and placed it in the pillowcase. Next morning he arose betimes to catch the 7:15 train to Greenville, S. C. Just how it happened is a matter of conjecture, but somehow or other after he reached Greenville he remembered the wad he left behind him and decided he would just "as soon" have it back again. Consequently he called up police headquarters here on the long distance telephone and told his tale. Sergeant of Police Youngblood proceeded to the cafe, strode into the room, rescued the precious parcel from its solitary confinement, exhibited it before the astonished eyes of hotel attaches and walked away.—Charlotte Observer.

Fire in Fertilizer Factory.

A serious conflagration occurred at the plant of the Navassa Guano Company at Navassa this morning about 4 o'clock. Considerable damage was done before the fire could be extinguished by the efficient fire department maintained by the company. The flames started in a building where a large quantity of chemicals were stored. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion arising from the heat of the chemicals. The material was of very valuable nature. The loss of raw products, together with the damage done to the building will probably amount to $10,000. This amount is fully covered by insurance. Wilmington Dispatch.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help. I had almost lost my reason, but thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened woman's organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health. It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical. Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women. In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.

Country People Often Lack Fresh Air

To some it may seem superfluous to suggest that there is a lack of fresh air among dwellers in the country, for does not the country furnish an abundance and to spare of this commodity? It is of the poor use we make of our riches that I would speak. Many of the duties of the housewife require an attitude of body that does not admit of full lung expansion: sewing, sweeping, cooking. The housewife does not recognize her need or she would stop frequently throughout the day just to breathe full and deep, seeing to it that every part of the lung capacity is thoroughly rejuvenated. Many of the duties of the farm man, also, are performed in a stooped, cramped position, thereby limiting the lung capacity. When many of the day's duties are performed in this stooped, unnatural position it takes real courage on the part of the tired man or woman, despite badly fatigue, to assume a perfectly upright position and breathe full and deep just for the sake of health. Lungs that are stunted in the supply of fresh air offer a wonderfully inviting field to the insidious consumption germ. It is possible that some of us receive an adequate supply of fresh air during the day; but too many people in the country bottle themselves up at night in closed rooms. When are we going to free ourselves from the superstition that night air is bad air? The fact is, that night air is just a little purer than day air. There are fewer dust particles and consequently fewer germs floating in the air at night, which makes night air safer to breathe than the dust and germ-laden day air. Now is the season when it will be easy to join the great army of people who are campaigning for "out-of-door living". Is there not a protected porch than can be screened and easily and inexpensively converted into a sleeping porch? In some way or another let us begin now to plan out-of-doors sleeping quarters at least during the summer months.—Mrs. F. L. Stevens, in Progressive Farmer.

A Dramatic Incident.

History records the fact that Joseph Smith, the founder of the Mormon church, and the only man who ever found gold in western New York, was killed by a mob while a prisoner in jail at Carthage, Ill., on June 27, 1844, after he had undertaken to suppress a newspaper that had denounced his "revelations" regarding polygamy. One of the leaders of the mob was a man named Madison. On the 67th anniversary of Smith's death, his son, Joseph F. Smith, now the head of the Mormon church was in Washington, testifying as a witness before the sugar trust investigators. One of the members of the investigating committee is Representative Edmond H. Madison, of Kansas, grandson of the Madison who helped kill Joseph Smith, the elder. The manner in which fate brought together the descendants of the two men concerned in the tragedy at Carthage furnished a dramatic incident, in connection with the testimony of the famous Mormon, that was not overlooked by the alert Washington correspondents.—Greensboro News.

Another Germ Discovered

Dr. Smith of Washington, claims that he has discovered that cancer is germ disease. Being a germ disease it will be only a matter of time till an antitoxin for its prevention and cure will be discovered. Already the toxin for typhoid fever is being successfully used. By its use, 20,000 soldiers along the Mexican border have been kept free from a single case of fever.

A BANK ACCOUNT IS A BEACON LIGHT T'WILL GUIDE YOU THROUGH FINANCIAL STORMS

In the year 1626 Peter Minuit bought the whole island on which New York City—now worth four thousand million dollars is built. He paid $24 for the island. Had he put out that $24 at 4 per cent compound interest in 1626 it would now amount to as much as the present value of New York City.

chair, went back and killed it. It was a popular leaf and was almost two and a half feet long.

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair is First Sign of Age. Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggist to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, MOYER'S PHARMACY.

Greater Care About Milk.

A royal medical commission in London, appointed to investigate the question whether tuberculosis is communicable from the cow to human beings, has come to the conclusion that the disease is practically the same in either case, and can be communicated from one to the other.

A few years ago, Dr. Koch, the eminent bacteriologist, was in the United States, and at that time he positively held that man could not get tuberculosis from a cow, from either milk or meat. That opinion has been accepted generally, but the finding of the royal commission will overthrow the Koch ultimatum.

This being so there will have to be stricter vigilance over the work of the butcher and the milkman. We shall have to be more careful than even in preventing this possible source of the dreaded plague.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Horse Show at Long Branch.

LONG BRANCH, N. J.—Many famous winners of the show ring will be exhibited to horse admirers at the eighteenth annual exhibition of the Mammouth County Horse Show association, which is to open at Hollywood Park tomorrow. Fifty-five classes are carded, with the addition of four running races, one each day of the show, for money prizes, with polo ponies and gallyways as the contenders. In addition to the sporting and fashionable folk of the Long Branch colony, many other members of the smart sets of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and other places will see the events. The array of cups and prizes is unusually large. Among those offering special prizes are Senator C. W. Watson, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Paul A. Sorg and S. R. Guggenheim.

Recovering the Mastodon.

RALEIGH.—Curator H. H. Brimley and Assistant Curator Thomas Adicks have returned from Onslow county, where they have been working this week in the pit from which the remains of the giant mastodon was taken some time ago. Parts of the mastodon are now mounted in the state museum and the work was done in order to get some more of this giant of past days to be stored away in the museums where the public might see what once roamed the plains of North Carolina.

Notice.

We wish to announce that our land is posted and to warn people not to hunt on it. We have stock in the grounds and have had several cattle shot, supposed to have been shot by stray bullets fired by people shooting at marks. Unless this shooting on our property is stopped, we shall have to indict all persons we can catch on it carrying or using fire arms.

DAUGHTER OF THE REVOLUTION

Woman Found in Georgia Lived in Three Centuries, Under Twenty-Five Presidents.

ATLANTA, GA.—Mrs. Mary Trawick Proctor, aged 111 years, a real daughter of the American Revolution a woman who has lived in three centuries, when stirring events were making the history of nations, has just been located in an humble one room cabin in Barlow county, Ga. Her sole companions are her daughter, Miss Mary Proctor, aged 90, and two great, great grandchildren, descendants of another daughter, all who are left of six generations of her family.

Mrs. Proctor was born in Wake county, North Carolina. She is the daughter of Wiley Trawick, who left North Carolina about 1800 and later moved to Alabama, where Mary was married to Hiram Proctor when she was nineteen years of age. She was Mr. Proctor's third wife. Her husband was a veteran of two wars, the Revolution and the war of 1812.

On a bed of straw constituting a mattress so thin that the rough plank slats can be seen, this daughter of the Revolution lies, her form emaciated, skin wrinkled, almost a skeleton. Her aged daughter never tiring of her feeble efforts to give her mother every possible comfort, administers to her wants and tills the soil in a small cotton and garden patch nearby. The measure profits from the labor she adds to a $12 a month pension Mrs. Proctor receives for the services her husband rendered in the war of 1812.

She was born but a few years after George Washington was elected President. George Washington was the only President who served before Mrs. Proctor became a native of North Carolina. She has lived under the administration of twenty-five presidents, including John Adams and William H. Taft.

Until a year ago when her mind became so feeble Mrs. Proctor would tell her great grand children of the epoch making incidents in eleven decades over which her life has spanned. Her stories were vivid kaleidoscopic pictures, treating of her personal knowledge of the early stages of the history of her own land.

The morning of her life she spent in the eighteenth century, when the United States government had just been established; the afternoon in the nineteenth century when brother fought against brother in the Civil strife of 1861, and now in the twentieth she hears of the discussions of world wide peace movements, of long journeys by airships, in striking contrast to the methods of travel when she was a girl and the modern methods of doing a thousand things in as many different ways so foreign to those employed a hundred years ago, when she was eleven years old.

A movement has been started in Atlanta during the past few days to raise funds that will be sufficient to care for the two old women the rest of their days.

Women and Cotton.

It is reported that Mr. Smith, President of the American Cotton Manufacturers Association said in a recent speech that:

"The present stagnate condition of the cotton mill business, however, is not only a question of over production and the result of high priced cotton, but we are also confronted with an underconsumption of cotton fabrics, and when 40,000,000 women in the United States stop wearing petticoats, and use only five yards of cloth to make a shirt instead of 12 to 15 yards, with which no sleeves are worn, and they use no braid or trimmings on their skirts then the braid mills suffer, the yarn mills suffer and the cloth mill suffer, and it is to be devoutly hoped that the fashion pendulum will swing in the other direction, and that a larger demand will be made by the women for the production of the Southern mills"

Impertinent? Yes.

Because they refused to tell their ages twenty-five teachers in the public schools of Patterson, N. J., will go on their summer vacations without their salaries for the month of June. On their return they will unite in an appeal to the courts. The city superintendent, Mr. Wilson, a few weeks ago prepared a list of questions which would furnish the department with a history of every teacher. Among the questions was "When were you born?" The younger teachers had no hesitation about answering, but many of the older teachers returned the blanks without answer to the question as to age, and were told they must rely or go without their salary. Several of the teachers answered under duress. The twenty-five who still refuse declare that the question is impertinent and unwarranted.—New York Herald.

When a man begins to sympathize with himself it's a sign he has outlived his usefulness.
