ALL DECLARE FOR FIFTEEN CENTS

THE FARMERS AND MERCHANTS.

And Others Declare Cotton Should be Warehoused and Held.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 14.—Five hundred farmers and as many bankers, congressmen, United States senators and business men, representing every cotton-growing state, declared in convention today that the farmers' cotton is worth fifteen cents a pound and resolved that the farmer should hold his cotton for that price. The resolution followed a committee report that the crop in America would not exceed 12,500,000 bales.

For financing the crop of this year a resolution was adopted to the effect that the farmer should deposit his cotton in a warehouse and use his receipt as collateral until he could sell his product at not less than fifteen cents. There was also a resolution that the several state legislatures provide a system of bonded warehouses.

Declaring that organization among farmers and co-operation among them with the bankers and financiers was the solution of the problem, the convention resolved itself into a permanent organization to be known as the Southern Cotton Congress and adjourned to meet in Atlanta at the call of the president, E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture of South Carolina.

The meeting in Montgomery is to be followed by a similar convention in every Southern State, to be called by the commissioner of agriculture of each state. By these conventions the action of the congress is to be ratified and re-inforced by further steps to await a better price for cotton.

BUNCO KING IN TROUBLE.

Caught At Last—Made Over $1,000,000.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—S. A. Potter, alias George W. Post, who with his confederates is alleged to have operated various swindling games which netted him $1,500,000 in the last few years, was still held in custody today while Federal officials were searching for Edward Starkloff, reputed to be his chief partner. It is probable Potter will be arraigned in the United States District court tomorrow. Meantime the officials refuse to accept a cash bond of $50,000 for his release. Detectives are working in the hope that Starkloff will soon surrender. It is said to be an agreement between the men that if one is captured the other will give himself up to make a joint defense. When Potter was arrested in New York several years ago, Starkloff surrendered.

HUSSEY GETS 18 MONTHS.

Pleads Guilty of The Charge Against Him.

TARBORO, N. C., Sept. 13.—E. B. Hussey, the assistant cashier of the defunct and despoiled Bank of Tarboro, when arraigned for trial pleaded guilty of the charge against him. His speculations began seven years ago, when J. J. Green was cashier. Judge Ward felt for the families of the young man and gave him a light sentence of eighteen months in the penitentiary.

Veterans of Army on Potomac.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 14.—Distinguished visitors from many sections of the country have arrived in Providence for the fortieth annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Potomac. The reunion will begin tomorrow and continue over Saturday. Among the notable participants will be Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, Gen. Horatio C. King, Gen. John E. Black and Edwin Markham, the poet.

Colorado Elks in Reunion.

OURAY, Colo., Sept. 14.—Gaily decorated with flags and bunting, this famous mining camp and mountain town gave a hearty welcome today to the visiting Elks assembled from all parts of Colorado for their annual State reunion. The convention headquarters are at the Elks home here. The gathering will last three days, during which time the visitors will be handsomely entertained by the local lodge of the order.

Being in love is a delightful torture.

MAN STRUCK WITH BEER BOTTLE

Fight Grew Out of Change Returned on Purchase.

On Wednesday at the store of Mr. W. W. Moore, just beyond the town limits out Dickinson avenue, a difficulty occurred between him and Mr. Charles Galloway. Mr. Galloway was struck a severe blow over the eye, which he says was inflicted with a beer bottle.

According to Mr. Galloway's statement, he went to the place of Mr. Moore and purchased two half pints of whiskey and two bottles of beer. He says he handed over a $5 bill to pay for the purchase, while Mr. Moore claims that it was only a $1 bill and returned change accordingly. The fight grew out of the dispute over the amount of the money.

Two warrants were issued for Mr. Moore, one for assault and one for selling liquor. The trial was set for Friday.

GAIETY THEATRE.

Exhibiting Excellent Pictures to Large Audiences Every Night.

The Gaiety theatre, better known "Greenville's most popular place of amusement," continues to exhibit an excellent class of pictures nightly to large crowds, and those Wednesday night were of the best and most instructive ever shown here. The pictures of the Oasis of Sahara Desert and of Mexico were especially instructive, giving one a fair conception of life in these places, which could only be gained by an expensive trip.

There is no better class of pictures exhibited than what the people of Greenville are now getting, and in return they are receiving a large patronage showing their appreciation of a well managed theatre.

Their program that appears elsewhere in today's paper speaks well for tonight's pictures. The people here make no mistake in visiting an amusement of this nature as we are now getting it.

Dancing For Veterans.

My wife was thrown from a buggy here in Sanford last week, and will have to lie flat on her back for weeks, if she gets well. The people who saw the runaway and the fall did not feel like dancing.

Those who read of it in the Gazette will not feel like dancing. The three doctors who took charge of the crippled woman did not feel that it was a "time to dance". As I look at her from day to day, lying so helpless, I do not feel like dancing.

As old soldiers meet and talk of the perils through which they have passed, the wounds they have received, the prison hardships they have endured, surely none but heartless, heathenish people would feel like dancing. I hope I shall never hear of another "Confederate ball".

I want my friends to ask God to let my wife stand on her feet and walk into his house to worship.

A. D. BETTS.

Home Makers' Association.

The "Back Home" movement of North Carolina has evolved into the "North Carolina Home Makers' Association." This is the result of the meeting of "Back Home" promoters in Charlotte. There was a good attendance, at the Charlotte meeting, of newspaper men, railway men and representatives of commercial bodies. Organization was effected, with Senator Lee S. Overman as president; W. C. Dowd as vice president, and Dr. I. N. Faison, of Charlotte; Fred A. Olds, of Raleigh, and James H. Calne, of Asheville, as executive committee. A board of governors, two members from each congressional district, was named, as follows: Congressman John H. Small, Washington; Dr. Charles Laughinghouse, Greenville; W. A. Finch, Wilson; Archibald McDowell, Scotland Neck; J. A. Westbrook, Mount Olive; C. L. Stevens, New Bern; Henry A. London, Pittsboro; Joseph Daniels, Raleigh; R. J. Reynolds, Winston-Salem; A. M. Scales, Greensboro; Joseph A. Brown, Chadbourn; C. N. Evans, Wilmington; H. C. Dockery, Wilmington; H. A. Page, Arberdeen; R. B. Clark, Statesville; R. A. Doughton, Sparta; W. A. Graham, Lincolnton; R. W. Vincent, Charlotte; N. Buckner, Asheville; and W. A. Smith, Hendersonville.—Raleigh Daily Times.

THE LAWYER'S OPINION.

Poor Printing and Cheap Paper Positive Detriments to any Business.

The "American Printer" assists the trade by smart suggestions for printers' advertisements; such as a series of "Think it over" paragraphs, of which the following is a typical one: "Think it over. Can any printing be too good, whether to advertise harmonicas or pianos, bolts or locomotives? Isn't the object to draw attention, interest, resolution and finally action—the act of purchase? Does the man advertising bolts desire less to sell them than he who makes pianos?"

The suggestion entitled "The Lawyer's Opinion" is well worth reproduction.

"A Kansas City corporation had a controversy with a firm doing business in an eastern city, and having received a letter threatening suit took it to their attorney for consultation.

"The lawyer, a plain blunt spoken man, looking at the sheet of paper on which the letter was written, said, 'Why will you do business with third-rate people, you ought to know that in doing so you are inviting trouble.' 'But,' answered the client, 'the firm is not third-rate; they are quoted as being worth a million dollars.' 'I don't care how they are rated,' replied the lawyer, 'they may have ten million dollars and I would still say they are third-rate in feeling, character and dealings, because their third-rate stationery tells on them. Look at it! cheap paper, daub printing. No business house of any self-respect would use it. You can generally tell the character of a concern by the stationery they use. Better settle and be done with them, and hereafter don't do business with such cheap people.'"

"The above is no fairy tale but an actual occurrence, and we could furnish the names of the parties to the transaction. We cite it only for the purpose of illustrating that poor printing, be it in catalog, booklet, folder or office stationery is a positive detriment to any business."—The Barnhart Flyer.

Pacific Fleet to Visit Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 14.—Four warships of the Pacific fleet, the California, West Virginia, South Dakota and Colorado, are to sail tomorrow on a cruise to the Hawaiian Islands. The four cruisers will be accompanied on the trip by eight torpedo boat destroyers. The entire fleet will return to San Pedro about the first of November for target practice.

The Real Key to the Situation.

Up around West End, Jackson Springs, Eagle Springs and other centers of population in the western end of Moore county a movement in real estate similar to that which has attracted so much attention in the lower end of the county is taking place. A large amount of land is being cleared up and a good many new farms are being developed. Just as soon as the northerly end of the county wakes up to the value of good roads and gets busy building them the boom will be felt in that section. No region which lacks good roads or the intention to construct them can ever hope to share in the prosperity of more progressive sections. Farms that cannot be reached easily and from which markets are not readily accessible will never find quick sale and good prices unless they are believed to have mining or other unusual possibilities. Of course a farm that has a gold mine or an oil well on it will sell anywhere, but if cotton, corn, fruit, truck or general farm product must be transported to market or to the railroad, the improved highway is the key to the situation. Then, too, in these days real live farmers do not care to settle where they must slowly toil through sand six inches deep when they can find farms elsewhere where they get to town in half the time and with twice the pleasure.

Some Spectacular Stories.

Among the score of magazine articles to be published in next Sunday's New York World will be "How Fred Stone, the Comedian, Lassoed Polar Bears in the Arctic Ocean," "The Strange Mystery of a $500,000 Rembrandt Painting," "Murders Will be Committed Before October, 1912," "How 'Duel' Has Come to be the 'Last Word' of Women of Today." Then there will be the words and music of "From a Confidential Source," a late song hit. Order next Sunday's World from your newsdealer in advance.

TRUE CAUSE OF GIRL'S DEATH.

Authorities Declare Unlawful Operation Killed Miss Hawkins.

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., Sept. 13.—Positive announcement was made tonight by Coroner W. R. Kirk, that Myrtle Hawkins, whose body was found in Lake Ocoala, Sunday, died as the result of an unlawful operation. The coroner's jury, which gave a verdict of death from "unknown causes," knew this fact at the time of the inquest, but made their findings indefinite in order to allay suspicion of the girl's slayer and make easier the detection of the criminal. Coroner Kirk stated tonight.

It was only after a storm of criticism from the general public that the coroner revealed the true situation and announced that another inquest would be held Friday. Miss Hawkins' body will not be exhumed, he said, as this is considered unnecessary. There were rumors tonight that an arrest would follow Friday's inquest at which additional evidence will be presented.

Coroner Kirk tonight admitted that the autopsy revealed the true conditions which led to the young woman's death. After a conference with Dr. A. B. Crafts, of this city, who assisted at the autopsy, it was decided then that an indefinite verdict should be given in order to lull into a feeling of fancied security the slayer of Miss Hawkins and thus assist in the capture.

In addition to the rewards already offered, the Henderson county authorities will offer $500 for the arrest of Miss Hawkins' murderer, and the citizens of Hendersonville will raise a fund.

A FOOL THERE WAS.

A fool there was, and he had a place, Where he worked each day at a printer's case. His fingers nimble, his movement quick, And the type flew quickly in his stick; His work well done, his case kept sleek; He drew a steady eighteen a week.

One day in the office he saw the boss Making an estimate; figuring cost; One dollar an hour for the compo's time

Went down on the sheet; said he, "that's fine, Eighteen a week is all I get; There's money made on that work, I'll bet."

So he said to himself, "I'll open a shop, To reap of the profits a larger crop, I'll count composition at half that cost; And land many orders the boss has lost. So he went to the bank and drew out his hoard And bought the best outfit that he could afford.

He worked with energy day and night At prices the poor fool thought were right; Forgetting that types wear out some day, And for their replacement there's money to pay;

That rent and fuel and light and power All add their share to the cost per hour;

That his plant grew less in value each day, And fire insurance was also to pay; That the money invested should interest bring,

As it would if invested in some other thing, That his pay-roll counted nine hours a day,

But only for six his customers pay. That the salary he drew was but pay for his work Which he surely earned now, for a loss he don't shirk.

A fool there was, and many perhaps, Of these deluded, and misguided chaps

Not only "was" but are today, Still grinding on in the same old way. With their nose to the stone, at a rapid pace

Losing the cash they'd saved at the case. But an end must come, and who can tell How soon the poor fool will be up in—well—

A fool there was and fools there be; Perhaps among them there's you and me.

—W. H. Richards.

THE PRICE OF PICKING COTTON.

Mr. E. E. Hilliard writes a timely article to the Scotland Neck Commonwealth in regard to the want of an understanding among farmers as to the price for picking cotton. He says:

Farmers should have a thorough understanding in each community concerning the price for picking cotton and should, under all circumstances, abide by it. It is altogether unfair for any farmer to send his wagons around where the cotton pickers live and make the offer of five cents per hundred more than others are giving and thus move a squad of cotton pickers from one man's field to another, and in the interest of community harmony, I offer the plea to the farmers of Scotland Neck and community, that they will all abstain from such course. If it becomes necessary and right to raise the price for picking cotton, let it be understood among all, and let all raise alike at the same time. Whatever be the price let us all pay the same thing together and thus be fair each to the other.

A Greene county farmer told us the farmers in his neighborhood have sold practically all of their tobacco in bulk to country buyers. Those farmers have lost money, and the country buyers will make enough out of the deal to live on a year. We do not understand why farmers will work hard to make a crop and then give away all the profit on it. About the best way we can imagine to stop this divorce business, is to give every couple one that wants it, but make it a penitentiary offense for either of them to marry again during the life time of the other. This will come very near putting an end to it.

Those merchants who have been intending to advertise for fall business and are yet putting it off, are missing a good opportunity.

The boy or girl going off to school will appreciate The Daily Reflector to give them the home news. Parents should send them the paper.

A Fable.

The hen remarked to the muley cow,
As she cackled her daily lay,
(That is, the hen-cackled): "It's funny how

I'm good for an egg a day,
I'm a fool to do it, for what do I get?
My food and lodging. My!
But the poodle gets that, he's the household pet,
And he never laid a single egg yet—
Not even when eggs were high.

The muley cow remarked to the hen,
As she masticated her cud
(That is, the cow did): "Well, what then?

You quit and your name is mud,
I'm good for six gallons of milk each day,

And I'm given my stable and grub;
But the parrot gets that much—anyway
All she can gobble—and what does she pay?
Not a dribble of milk, the dub!"

But the hired man remarked to the pair:

'You get all that's comin' to you;
The poodle does tricks and the parrot kin swear,
Which is better than you kin do.
You're necessary, but what's the use
Of bewallin' your daily part?
You're bourgeois; work's your only excuse;

You can't do nothin' but jes produce.
What them fellers does is Art."

"THIS IS MY 43rd BIRTHDAY."

Earl of Arran.

The sixth Earl of Arran, a versatile Irish nobleman who, besides having established a reputation as a successful business man, is known also as a soldier and a writer, was born September 14, 1868, and succeeded to the title upon the death of his father ten years ago. The earl is also Viscount Sudley, of Castle Gore, Baron Saunders of Deep, and Baron Sudley in the peerage of the United Kingdom. The family is descended from Gerald Gore, who was an alderman of the city of London at the close of the sixteenth century. The present bearer of the title was formerly adjutant and brevet major of the Royal Horse Guards. He served in the Egyptian Cavalry, and commanded the Royal Horse Guards Squadron in the Household Cavalry in last South African campaign. Under his title of Viscount Sudley he has been a frequent contributor to some of the leading English reviews and magazines.

THE HAPPENINGS ALL AROUND AYDEN

MILL AT RIDGE SPRING BURNED

Personal Items and Other Notes of Last Few Days.

AYDEN, N. C., Sept. 14.—Mr. R. E. Jones has returned from the hospital where he has undergone a 21 days' treatment for mad dog bite.

Mrs. J. J. Hines and two small children are away on a visit to Mr. Hines in Black Mountain.

Cotton is selling at the usual high price of 11 1-2 cents and upward.

Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock Messrs. Spain & Edwards at Ridge Spring lost their saw mill and grist mill by fire. This is serious loss to these gentlemen, besides the inconvenience to them and their patrons. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Hardware of all sorts and kinds, mill supplies, belts, etc. J. R. Smith and Bro.

Mrs. J. E. Cannon, who has been very sick of late, is convalescing.

Prof. Sawyer is the proud father of a baby boy.

Mr. W. B. Alexander is having his residence repaired that was damaged a few weeks ago by lightning.

I will gin your cotton, give you bagging and ties, buy your seed, or exchange them for meal. L. L. Kittrell.

Mr. Heber Sumrell has moved his family into the country.

Mr. Grover McLawhorn is very sick at his home, near Winterville.

Rev. J. W. Tyndall closed a series of meetings last Sunday at Rountrees with several additions to the church.

Hardware, lime, cement, belting, full stock mill fittings, cook and heating stoves. J. R. Smith and Bro.

Mr. J. W. Webb, of Kinston, has moved his family here, and will operate the lumber plant and merchandise store of Mr. J. A. Griffin.

Mr. E. A. Drepeau, who was for a long time sawyer here for the Ayden Lumber Company, but now has a good position near Wilmington, is here on a visit to friends.

The Ayden graded school will begin next Monday, September 20th, with Prof. Koonce at the helm. It is to be regretted that we have not a better equipped, up-to-date building, but we now have learned to submit to the inevitable, and keep trying.

Mr. J. S. Hines has returned from a visit to his son at Black Mountain.

We are jobbers in Geo. A. Clark's spool cotton. J. R. Smith and Bro.

Mr. Robt. Worthington is much improved from his recent illness.

We do all kinds of turned and scroll work, mouldings, repairing in wood and iron, gin, saw and grind. L. L. Kittrell.

Mr. Ola Kittrell is suffering with rheumatism, and not able to be at his post at the mill.

Arrived today, a solid car load of cook and heating stoves and ranges. Arrived yesterday, a solid car load of metal roofing, all lengths. Come to see us. J. R. Smith and Bro.

We do hope to see a few things materialize. First, the road opened from St. Abram's springs to Uncle Jerry-miah McLawhorn's. Second, a nice, up-to-date brick hotel, three stories high, with all modern convenience.

Third, that we may yet have as strong a tobacco market as we have cotton market. Fourth, that the Baptist Seminary will be to Ayden what the Training school is to Greenville, from an educational stand point. Fifth, that we may have a system of good roads all over the county, and Swift Creek may be dredged and drained from Vanceboro to the tributaries in Contentnea township, Pitt county.

We are glad to hear of the gradual improvement of Mr. H. B. Smith, who has been very sick with fever.

Mr. LaFayette Cox spent Sunday in Farmville.

There is quite a demand for cotton pickers. If Chief Smith will enforce the vagrant law, the demand would be more supplied, and less loafing.

The school at the Seminary has recently installed another new up-to-date piano.

Bring us your cotton, we will do our best to please you; buy or exchange your seed. L. L. Kittrell.

Mr. Zeno Meeks tells us the farmers in his section are paying 65c per hundred to have their cotton picked and haul hands to and from the patch.

Chickens, eggs, wax, hams and all other produce wanted.—J. R. Smith and Bro.

Our Masonic brethren had their regular communication and barbecue last first Thursday, with full attendance and work in the first and second degrees.

Prof. E. F. Mumford, of Morganton, who has been here a few days on a visit to his mother, returned, Tuesday.

Mr. Elias Baldree, of Winterville, has been spending a few days in town.

Most men like to hear themselves talk better than other people do.

THE HAPPENINGS AROUND WINTERVILLE

MANY GETTING OFF TO SCHOOL.

Items of a Social and Business Nature.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 14.—Mr. F. F. Cox left Saturday for Wake Forest, where he will spend a few days and from there he will go to the Columbia University of New York to finish his course in medicine.

Pay your bills by check, which makes the best kind of a receipt and thus avoid the worry and danger attending the carrying of large sums of money. Bank of Winterville.

Mr. J. B. Williams, of Snow Hill, was a pleasant visitor in town Sunday.

Our dry goods and notions are arriving daily. Come and look before you buy. A. W. Ange & Co.

Mrs. F. M. Crawford returned Monday from Stantonsburg, where she spent some time with her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Edmondson.

The wagon you contemplate buying, we know you want it to have strong wheels, and a strong gear. There is no wagon made that has stronger and more durable wheels than the "Tar Heel" wagon. Prices are right, too. Cart wheels are made of same material. Call on the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, Winterville, N. C., and they will show you more superior qualities about their "Tar Heel" wagons and carts.

Jail Recruit.

An officer from Farmville brought in a negro to be assigned quarters in the county "boys' dormitory" last night. The negro had been making too free use of a pistol.

Opened His Eyes to the Future.
"Dickie, I'm awfully sorry you use tobacco. I don't like it, and mamma simply loathes it. Will you stop when we are married?"

"Isn't that asking a lot, dearie?" asked Dick.

"I wouldn't care for myself," answered the girl, "but you know it makes mamma deathly sick."

"Well, then," he promised cheerfully, "I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll never smoke when your mamma is with us."

She threw her arms around him. "Darling," she murmured, "that's so good of you! I was afraid you'd insist on smoking once in awhile after we were married!"—New York Globe.

Modest Artist.

A lady who was enthusiastically describing the scenery of the Rhine said to a well known painter, "It was really for all the world like a series of your superb etchings."

"Yes," replied the artist, "nature is creeping up!"
