SPENT AFTERNOON LOCKED IN STOCKADE

And the Three Hours Seemed Like Weeks

THE DOOR WAS SHUT AND BARRED

Some Towns, Like Individuals, Allow The Door of Opportunity to Be Closed Against Them—Ordained That Poor and Rich Dwell Together.

HANRAHAN, N. C., Sept. 15.—And the door was shut, securely locked and barred. Once I was in the state prison, or on Cledonia farm, for that is where the authorities send most of the common clod hoppers because tilling the soil is more in harmony with what all such were intended for. But I was a trusty from the time I reached there until I left. They even allowed me to eat at the same table and to occupy at night the same building with the superintendent of that farm. In fact, in some cases my edict was more rigidly obeyed than was the command of the superintendent. But I tried never to abuse my privilege because they allowed me some freedom. So day after day I went on enjoying the freedom of all that surrounded that vast farm with its 100 mules, its fine cows and pictures of hogs. I watched the clover grow, the vast acres of cotton spring from that fertile soil and take on its different stages of development; the corn, how proudly it leaped up, spread out its long green blades and waved its golden tassels in the sunlight, then the white and red hair or silks shot out from where the blade joins on to the stalk. Beauty! Yes, if any one could look on such a farm and not sigh for a life of liberty, I can't understand his make-up.

But, alas, this was a place where to most of these men there was only a dream of the past. Day after day I had seen those men in their striped clothes march out at the first glimpse of the sun in the morning, and at noon march back to eat their meal and rest one hour, and then at the tap of the bell march back to their work twenty in a squad, ever watched and strictly guarded. At night in the same manner they were marched back, and into the stockades they went and the gate was shut. Then to his bath each one must go, after which each in regular order repaired to the table and partook of his meal without a word. If he wanted more food his hand went up and it was given him. Supper finished, then to the stronger walls each one must march, and there they were counted and the door was shut, securely locked and barred. This looked to me as though it was hard to bear, but I did not, nor could I, realize what it meant until one afternoon I was real busy in the ward and did not think about its being the warden's afternoon off. It was his business to see that all the prisoners left in were locked up before he left. So when I finished my work and went to the door to make my exit, behold the door was shut and locked. It was then that I was more anxious to get out than I had ever been; not that I had any special business outside or that I was afraid of any of the prisoners, but I was locked in and knew that I must stay there until the warden returned. Miserable I was for three hours that seemed like weeks to me, except the shadows of night did not hover about me while in there securely locked.

Since then I have thought how many men, towns and communities allow the door of opportunity to be shut, and barred against them, yea, and their children, because the warden, which is the hand of progress, warned them that unless they get out and get a move on them the door will be shut. And still they heed not the warning, many afraid that if they move forward they might help some one else; others refusing to move out because they were born crying and out of sorts with the whole world around them; others hold the two dollars, the first they ever made, so close to their eyes that they cannot see a stack of gold if it were just in front of them.

I have in mind one town, or at least it might have been a town, for tall and broad mansions and even palaces were built, and almost, if not all of the aristocrats of the county

HOW HUSSEY GOT THE MONEY

HE MAKES A FULL STATEMENT. Began By Taking Small Sums, Because His Salary Was Small.

Reflector readers are familiar with the bank defalcation at Tarboro, with the suicide of Cashier L. V. Hart, and the arrest of Assistant Cashier E. B. Hussey, who was tried at Tarboro this week and got eighteen months in the penitentiary. At the trial Hussey made a full confession which is taken from the Tarboro Southerner, as follows:

The defendant then made a statement which in substance was about as follows:

He admitted telling Mr. Shackelford that he was short $12,500, and that when he did so he felt better than he had in three or four years, that the disclosure of his defalcations would have been told before had not the cashier, L. V. Hart, prevailed upon him not to do so, telling him not to show the white feather, that he would take care of him, that he was able to do so and could.

He began service in the bank on the first Saturday in September, 1897, as runner and had remained in its service till the collapse.

His speculations began seven years or more ago when J. J. Hines was cashier. That before L. V. Hart was promoted to cashier, Mr. Green going to Tennessee, he was then found $2,000 short, part of which was due to speculating in cotton. His speculated altogether three times. First time with Green and lost $1,700 or $1,800. The second time with L. V. Hart, and lost $575, and the third time with Green, and lost between $700 and $800.

His stealing began when he was receiving only $12.50 per month. By taking $5 and $10 at the time, averaging $5 per month. That when his salary was doubled he continued in his wrong doing. To Judge Ward's inquiry why he stole, he said that because he did not think he was being paid enough salary.

He said he had been engaged in a few enterprizes and lost money on each venture. These were cotton, timber and land ventures.

He had turned over to the bank every piece of property that he owned, except his household goods, amounting to between $7,000 and $8,000.

His actual abstractions were $11,900, the other $600 he had charged up for interest on the money he had taken.

The women suffragists up North are planning to raise $100,000 for use in the coming political campaign.

moved there and money was lavished to beautify and adorn each home. A town where only those who lived in luxury and ease were allowed to dwell. Horny hands of toil were excluded from what the dwellers therein supposed was an ideal place to dwell. But their dream of happiness and bliss was of short duration. Soon envy and strife sprang up among them as to which could outshine the other, and then one by one they began to look for other parts, until the last vestige of that once aristocratic place had vanished and today only duds and other creeping things therein dwell. The door was shut and they were miserable. Why? Because God ordained that the poor and the rich should dwell together in brotherly love and each be a support for the other. It takes the mud sill to build a structure for a mill. It takes the grimy faced miner to dig the coal to warm the king's palace. It takes the brown, sunburned, horny-handed farmer to produce the luxuries with which to furnish the financier's table. The factory girl can be a lady and still go daily to her loom to weave the cloth that must clothe the rich and the poor. Yes, the man of wealth is a great necessity. So let's each and all join hands and march with one step in the same direction, that of mercy to our beast and comfort to our fellow man.

Would you be merry and happy each day?
Then get in the throng to build our highway.
Would you 'gainst misery continue to butt?
Growl at progress, till the door is shut?

NORTH CAROLINA HAPPENINGS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Stated for The Reflectors Busy Readers.

John McIlmore, the negro, who was struck Tuesday night by No. 12 and seriously injured, having an ear torn out by the roots, will likely recover. It may be necessary to affix an artificial ear, provided the other can not be made to grow back.—Greensboro News.

Mr. J. Crooks Lippard, of Concord, recently submitted to an operation whereby blood was transferred from his body to the of his sister, Mrs. A. W. George, of Elkin, who has been dangerously ill at St. Leo's hospital in Greensboro for some time. Mrs. George is said to be improving rapidly.

FARMVILLE. — Three negroes, Prince Boston, Hubert Brooks and Charlie Green were arrested by Conductor Jerome on the night express of the Norfolk Southern last night they being suspected of robbery of a store at Sharpsburg, Tuesday night. They boarded the Norfolk Southern train at Walstonburg. They were sent back to Sharpsburg today.

Mr. J. K. Bryant, of Washington, D. C., miraculously escaped death by electrocution in Greensboro this morning. He was at work on a Western Union cable near the passenger station on South Elm street when by some inadvertence he received the full shock of the power wire, 2,300 volts of electricity passing through his body.—Greensboro Record.

NEW BERN.—Walter Coker, a white man, about thirty years of age, killed himself this afternoon at the home of his brother-in-law Mr. Levi Jones, at James City, by shooting himself through the throat, with a gun loaded with number eight shot. Several weeks ago Mr. Coker, who was half witted, attempted to end his life by cutting his throat with a razor.

There are a few folks who appear to place a higher estimate upon an ordinary hound than they do upon families. We have learned of a certain family composed of a father, mother, six children and six dogs. There are no chickens, pigs or cows on the premises and the dogs are fed and cared for whether the children have sufficient food and clothing or not.—Lenoir Item.

WILMINGTON.—The fifth mass meeting called for the purpose of further considering a recall of mayor and councilmen, the special purpose being to receive the petitions which are in circulation, was held in the courthouse tonight with not over one hundred present. There was little enthusiasm compared with the first few meetings when the attendance numbered at least seven hundred.

SPENCER.—A solid gold nugget, 99 per cent pure, was found on the mine of Geo. Troutman on Tuesday. The mine is located about five miles north of Albemarle and is operated by W. L. Cotton and A. C. Mauney. The nugget was picked up by Mr. Troutman. The mine has only been in operation for two weeks, but it is reported that nuggets are picked up daily from the size of an ordinary pea to two or three ounces. The nugget found by Mr. Troutman weighed 9 1-2 ounces and is valued at $300.

Appas David, Syrian merchant of Selma, through his counsel, submitted in five cases of selling cigarettes to minors. Mr. Harris, his counsel, expressed the hope that his honor would suspend judgment upon the payment of the costs. Judge Peebles stated that he could not take that course in such a case; that there was presentment made by the grand jury in March term under the charge of Judge Cook. Judge Peebles then fined the defendant $250, stating that he was about as big a "crank" as Judge Cook about selling cigarettes to minors.

Mothers Fight—Daughter Stabs Man

NEWPORT, Tenn.—While his wife and Mrs. Abe Reese were fighting, Joseph Davis was stabbed to death by Eutha Reese, a 17 year old girl, at Nough, Coke county, today.
Mrs. Davis was getting the better of Mrs. Reese, when the daughter of the latter ran up armed with a knife. Davis grabbed the girl and was stabbed in the heart, dying instantly. Both the Reese girl and her mother were arrested.

PRESIDENT TAFT OFF FOR THE WEST

WILL MAKE 13,000 MILE TRIP.

And Fill In The Time With 200 Set Speeches.

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 15.—President Taft bade adieu to his summer home this morning, and, accompanied by his secretary and assistants, departed in an automobile for Boston, where he makes his start tonight for his record-breaking speaking tour of the Middle and far Western States. Prior to leaving his home he spent more than an hour looking over and dictating replies to some of the many messages of congratulation that had poured in upon him on his fifty-fourth birthday anniversary.

From tomorrow morning until the morning of November 1, when his private train rolls into the station at Washington, the president will be kept constantly on the move, making speeches, attending receptions and dinners, reviewing parades, and traveling.

The trip will occupy forty-six days, during which the president will visit twenty-four states and travel approximately 13,000 miles. He is scheduled to deliver nearly 200 set speeches, in addition to innumerable impromptu addresses.

The first speech of the trip is to be made tomorrow morning at Syracuse. There the president will deliver an address to the farmers and others assembled at the New York state fair. Leaving Syracuse, he will go to Erie, and from that point he will head straight for Michigan, where he will spend four days. From Michigan he will go to Illinois and Missouri. After leaving Missouri, the states through which he will pass, in about the order of his crossing them, are Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana and Maryland.

Some of the larger cities and towns where he will stop, after visiting Syracuse and Erie, are Detroit, Bay City, Grand Rapids, Peoria, St. Louis, Kansas City, Hutchinson, Topeka, Waterloo, Ottumwa, Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings, Cheyenne, Laramie, Salt Lake City, Pocatello, Boise, Walla Walla, Lewiston, Spokane, Tacoma, Bellingham, Everett, Seattle, Centralia, Portland, Sacramento, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Butte, Billings, Livingston, Sheridan, Deadwood, Lead, Rapid City, Pierre, Arberdeen, Mankato, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Green Bay, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Chicago, and Pittsburg.

The itinerary, it is to be noted, covers the most of the states which may be regarded as debatable ground in the coming presidential contest, and the most attention will be paid to the sections where the support of the LaFollette-Bourne organization is supposed to be strongest. In his speeches the president will discuss five principal subjects, tariff, reciprocity, currency, the peace treaties, and conservation.

MEET AFTER 20 YEARS.

Father Locates Son Through Newspaper Accounts of His Arrest.

WESTCHESTER, Pa. Sept. 14.—An affecting scene occurred in the county jail here this afternoon when, after having been parted for twenty years, Captain John A. Berry, of St. Louis, greeted his son, E. C. Berry, who is charged with being implicated in the burning of Zock Walker, the negro, at Coatesville, on August 13.

The elder Berry said today he located his son through newspaper accounts of his arrest in connection with the lynching, and added that he will remain in Westchester until the young man is given a trial. He will engage counsel to defend him. The younger Berry is accused of murder, the state charging that he was one of the leaders of the crowd that burned the negro.

STANDARD OIL CO. A BIG BONANZA

HAS PAID $752,000,000 DIVIDENDS.

No Wonder Rockefeller Had Millions To Give Away.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Stockholders of the Standard Oil Company today received checks representing the last dividends that will be disbursed by the great corporation. Under the recent decision of the Supreme court of the United States ordering the dissolution of the company, the old organization must be broken up before the end of the year. Consequently the dividend for the year will not be paid by the old company. In the dissolution of the parent concern the stockholders are to receive stock in the subsidiary companies equivalent to their holdings in the old corporation. It is not considered likely that the stockholders will suffer any loss of income with the change in organization.

Since the organization of the Standard Oil Company in 1882 down to the final dividend paid today, the stockholders have received dividends amounting to the enormous sum of $752,000,000. For the past eight years the company has paid to the holders of its $100,000,000 of stock an average of $40,000,000 per annum. In 1900 and 1901 it paid $48,000,000 and in the year following $45,000,000. The dividends, however, were much less than the total earnings. The original value of the property has been increased greatly by the reinvestment of a large share of the earnings for the extension of its business and the acquisition of securities.

Although the Standard Oil Company never issued an annual report, or made other returns regarding its business further than publication of its dividend, investors never lacked confidence in its ability to pay dividends, and the high rate maintained made the company's stock sell at from four to six times its par value. The highest price ever reached was in 1901 when it was paying 48 per cent per annum. The stock then sold up to $842 a share.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 15.—Today marked the beginning of the annual celebration of Mexican Independence Day. Not In The Trust.

The Mighty Haag Railroad shows, which will exhibit in Greenville, on September 29, are not in the show trust. Several inducements were made to Mr. Haag to join the show trust, but he refused all offers, and will continue to give the public the same high class shows, only this season will be enlarged in every department, as the show now travels on its own special trains of cars.
The trust magnates advised Mr. Haag to obliterate the street parade, but he refused positively, and this year has enlarged his street pageant so as to make it two miles in length, with plenty of music, pretty ladies, fine horses, funny clowns and massive open cages of animals and takes place daily on the public streets free.

The Bills.

O! the Bills!
Dreaded bills!
How they make your spinar column grow icy cold with chills,
How they mount up, mount up, mount up
Every mail brings more and more,
Till one simply cannot count up
How he'll even up the score.
How they pile,
All the while,
Though we pay, and pay, and pay, and pay, we still owe just the same.
Till they drive our reasons far away,
and leave us quite insane.

O! the bills!
Clothing bills!
How they stir up household strife—
Make a man jaw at his wife—
Make him swear that she and others are in league to have his life!

O! the bills!
Grocers' bills!
How they sting, sting, sting,
Us for every little thing—
What a shame they can't put eatables in pills!

O! the bills!
Awful bills!!
Ain't it funny how they grow
And pay comes in so slow,
Awful slow
And we haven't got a show
To get even with those bills, bills, bills, bills, bills,
With those never-ending, always-growing bills!

"This Is My Birthday." Sir William Whyte

Sir William Whyte, who has just retired from the vice presidency of the Canadian Pacific Railway company, was born in Fifeshire, Scotland, September 15, 1843. He entered railway service early in the employ of the North British Railway company and came to Canada in 1863. He began as a freight clerk for the Grand Trunk at Coburg, Ontario, and rose steadily in the service of that road until 1883, when he was made general superintendent of the Credit Valley railroad.
In the next year he became general superintendent of the Eastern and Ontario division of the Canadian-Pacific and in 1886 went to Winnipeg as general superintendent of the western division. Since that time he has been the western head of the railroad.
Early in the present year Sir William was one of the several Canadians to receive coronation honors at the hands of King George V. He has done much to develop the industries of Canada, particularly in the great Northwest. In 1901, in furtherance of a plan for the development of Canadian trade, he made an extensive trip through Russia and Siberia.

Hawaiian Music.

It is not an unusual thing for the writer of a book or play to visit the country in which he desires to locate the plot of his work, but for two song writers to do so in order to be able to write a song true to nature is going some. For this reason Percy Wenrich and Edward Madden, the writers of "Rainbow" and "Silver Bell," published by Jerome H. Remick & Co., spent two weeks in Honolulu getting the atmosphere and color for their new Hawaiian song, My Hula Hula Love.
That they will be amply repaid for the time, trouble and expense incurred is already assured, for the song at once became a phenomenal success in New York, Chicago and Boston, where it has been introduced by some of the big vaudeville stars. The music is wonderfully sweet and catchy and Mr. Wenrich claims that it is similar in some of its measures to Hawaiian music. Since Hawaii has become one of the possessions of the United States, very little of its music has been heard here, but Messrs.
Madden and Wenrich have made a collection of the music and legends of that wonderful country and intend to embody it in a new comic opera shortly to be produced in New York by a syndicate. The chorus of My Hula Hula Love embodies a few words of language of the Hawaiians, which adds to its novelty and attractiveness.

CHORUS.

Hula, oh Hawaii Hula, smile on your own Zinga Zula.
Moon shines above, sweet jungle dove;
For you my love song is ringing, for you my holo is swinging.
Come be my Hula, Hula love.

How To Get More Out Of Your Hay Crop

WHETHER you feed or sell your hay, it should be baled.
Baled hay takes up much less room and nets a better price than loose hay. It is always ready for any market at top price, while loose hay must be sold near home, at whatever you can get.

I C H HAY PRESSES

have many points of strength, simplicity, and convenience found in no other presses. They are equipped with a compound lever and a toggle joint plunger, which gives them great compressing power. A 500 pound pull on the sweep of a 16x18 I H C press gives 76,800 pounds pressure in the bale chamber.

The bed reach is only 4 inches high and very narrow. The bale chamber is very low—easy to reach over to tie the bale.

If you examine an I C H hay press you will appreciate its value as a money saver and money maker.

Molasses Killed Fish.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.—Dead shrimp by the million and fish by the thousand are floating about on the waters of Lake Pontcharitrian near the bulkheads at the entrance of the new basin as a result of a diet of molasses which found its way into the lake from the city sewers when 600,000 gallons were recently let loose in the streets when a storage tank burst. The molasses contained about 2 1-2 per cent. potash to the gallon. Unless the tides carry the dead fish away it is predicted that the odor will be so great that the residents will be forced to move from the West End.

Quarter Million Pounds Today.

The tobacco sales today were the largest of any day since the present season opened. Every one of the four warehouses had big breaks, running from 300 to 400 piles, the aggregate being estimated by Supervisor E. H. Thomas at over 250,000 pounds. And the prices held up just as well on this large break as on the smaller ones.

STATESVILLE.—D. A. Ingle, a citizen of Fallstown township, was given a hearing before Justice J. C. McLain in Mooresville Tuesday afternoon on charges of embezzlement preferred by Miss Jennie Alley, of Davidson township. As a result of the hearing Ingle was required to give a $200 bond for his appearance at the next term of Iredell Superior court. The allegation is that he sold property of Miss Alley and appropriated the funds to his own personal use.

How It Hails in Michigan.

"Some of the hailstones were picked up and weighed from ten to eighteen ounces and many measuring from twelve to seventeen inches in circumference, although it was a very serious affair and many being scared almost to death, it was a sight worth seeing when they were dropping into Sand Lake, the water splashing from eighteen to twenty-five feet high, one hailstone coming through the air if weighed would weigh at least twenty pounds, when it struck the water it made a splash fully ten feet wide, and when it came down resembled a half cake of ice, cattle in fields ran wild in all directions, and it was almost impossible for man to take any chances. In many cases the hail dropped through the roof of buildings making a hole large enough for a child of four years to crawl through.—Sand Lake Herald.

Psoriasis—A Violent Form of Eczema.
Blanche, N. C., July 16, 1913
Milam Medicine Co., Danville, Va.

Gentlemen—I have been afflicted with a torturing skin disease pronounced by the physicians to be "Psoriasis," and have had it for ten years. No treatment of the physicians ever relieved me and I continued to grow worse and was unable to do my work. By the advice of my physician I commenced to take Milam on March 5th last. I am now far on the road to recovery and feel that I will be entirely cured. I am now at work and feel no inconvenience from it. I take great pleasure in giving this certificate and think Milam it a great medicine.
Yours truly, J. W. PINCHBACK
