SOME VITAL NEWS FROM WASHINGTON

Why the President Vetoed the Tariff Revision Bills

THE GAG RULE PUT ON EMPLOYEES

Philippine Independence to Come After Nine Years — President Brooks Promises Relative to the Statehood Question.

(By Clyde H. Tavenner).
WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—On his swing around the circle President Taft will tell the people it was necessary for him to prevent a reduction of the cost of living by vetoing the tariff bills, because the tariff board hadn't reported.

Here is some tariff board history that the president will probably not refer to:

The tariff board was created Sept. 26, 1909. On June 7, 1911, twenty-one months later, congress called for whatever data the board had collected on the cost of manufacturing wool, and was informed the board had nothing to report. What was the tariff board doing during these twenty-one months?

Soon after the appointment of the board, its chairman, Henry C. Emery, established headquarters in the private residence of Frederick Hale, son of ex-Senator Eugene Hale, of Maine, who has been known for years as one of the most powerful defenders of ultra protection.

In October, 1910, it was announced that "the work of the tariff board" was to be "boomed" at a series of banquets. Then for three months the banqueting campaign occupied the time and attention of the board. The two most important banquets at which the members of the board were wined and dined were given by the Arkwright club, the leading association of high protection manufacturing of the country, and the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, the wards of Schedule K. The plan adopted for estimating costs is the plan which, at the dinner given by the beneficiaries of the wool schedule, Emery was advised to adopt. That plan practically amounts to this: The tariff board will supply the wool manufacturers with a sample of woolen cloth and a card, and the manufacturers will patriotically jot down their version as to the cost of manufacturers will patriotically jot down

It was a year after the board was created before it started to investigate the manufacturing end of the wool tariff. And this is the board for whose report all tariff revision must be held up.

Government by Stealth.

The Taft administration is even unpopular with the army of government employees in Washington. While they are not saying anything publicly, the government clerks are bitter because of the many rules inaugurated under Mr. Taft, which interfere with their personal liberty and deprive them of rights guaranteed to all citizens by the constitution itself. If the clerks should protest against their conditions, even to congress, they would lay themselves liable to discharge. The object of the administration in resorting to these harsh gag rule methods is to prevent a leakage of information injurious to the Republican party such as occurred in the Ballinger case.

The following official order, signed by George Otis Smith, director of the geological survey, gives an idea of Russian-like censorship attempted in one department: "Rule 2. That no interview shall be granted without securing from the person soliciting the same a promise that he will, before submitting the material to his publication office, present a copy of his manuscript to the director for approval." So far as is known among newspaper men in Washington, nothing so drastic as this in the way of press censorship was ever attempted before in America.

Taft's Opening.

Senator Cummins of Iowa, has formulated a bill of particulars wherein President Taft has offended. Some of the president's offenses cited are: His position on the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, his position on the bill for the further regulation of interstate common carriers, his position on the change made in the postal savings law, his attitude on the con-

ODD FELLOWS GATHERING.

200,000 Members of the Fraternity Will Be in The City.

INDIANAPOLIS Ind., Sept.—Odd Fellows from all parts of the United States, Canada, and Mexico gathered in Indianapolis today for the eighty-sixth annual communication of the sovereign grand lodge, which will be opened on Monday. Today many of the delegates went to Greensburg to visit the I. O. O. F. Home there.

It is estimated that by Monday 200,000 members of the fraternity will be in the city. Addresses of welcome by Governor Marshall, former vice-President Fairbanks, U. Z. Wiley, past grand master, and John B. Corkrum, grand sir of the sovereign grand lodge will mark the opening session Monday morning. The parade Wednesday night and the military ball Thursday night are principal features of the week's programme. Auxiliary organizations will meet during the week. These include the Rebekah Assembly and the Patriarchs Militant.

Negro To Be Host of Whole Town.

MASSILLON, O., Sept. 16.—In celebration of the 48th anniversary of his release from slavery, Gilbert Porter, one of the best known negroes in Start county, has arranged to give a monster barbecue tomorrow and Monday, to which he has invited all the people of Massillon and vicinity. Several oxen, a dozen sheep and pigs and countless chickens will be roasted to furnish free dinners to the crowd.

Control and disposition of our public domain, his position on the proposed income tax law, his position on the Canadian reciprocity bill, his work for the peace treaties, his vetoes of the woolen schedule, the free list bill and the resolution admitting New Mexico and Arizona as states. This list embraces nearly everything in which the president took part.

Philippine Independence.

Philippine independence in nine years! This is the definite promise contained in a joint resolution fathered by Judge Cyru Cline, of Indiana, which resolution Speaker Champ Clark declares will in all probability be passed by the house this winter. Judge Cline's plan provides that the Filipinos shall be permitted to elect the upper branch of the Philippine legislature in 1915, adopt in 1917 a constitution to be approved by the United States, and then comes the definite promise that by July, 1920—nine years hence—the United States shall withdraw sovereignty over the Philippines and permit the Filipino people to establish an independent representative government.

Democrats Keep Promise.

Last November Maine elected a Democratic legislature pledged to state wide primaries. That promise has just been fulfilled, exactly as the Maine Democrats promised it would be.

Three years ago the Republicans of the nation elected William H. Taft to the presidency on his personal pledge that he would revise the tariff downward. President Taft has turned down two opportunities to keep his word.

The Democratic legislature of Maine did after election what it promised to do before election. Mr. Taft has but exemplified the old Republican rule of forgetting promises as soon as an election is won.

A Change of Heart.

Just why President Taft broke a promise made to five members of congress on the statehood question has never been explained.

In the early days of the extra session five members of the committee on territories visited the president and laid before him the draft of a resolution admitting New Mexico and Arizona into the union as states. The resolution provided that the recall proposition should be submitted to the people of Arizona and that the majority should decide whether it would be wise to retain it in the Arizona constitution or not. The bill was so framed that neither congress nor the president would have to go on record as to the merits of the recall. President Taft gave every congressman present to understand he would sign this bill. The committee, Republicans and Democrats alike, left the white house with a definite understanding to this end.

These members made the statement on the floor of the house that the president had agreed to sign the bill, and it was passed by both houses of congress. But the president changed his mind and vetoed the bill. He has not yet explained why.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

PRESIDENT TAFT IN MICHIGAN.

Reciprocity Campaign Ends Next Thursday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16.—President Taft plans to spend the first four days of the week in Michigan, speaking in Detroit, Pontiac, Bay City, Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette, Grand Rapids, Battle Creek and Kalamazoo. He will fill an engagement Friday at Peoria and from that city go to St. Louis, where he will remain over Sunday.

In Canada forces for and against the proposed reciprocity pct with the United States will enter on the closing week of the campaign Monday. Activity on both sides will be at the high-water mark for the remainder of the struggle, which will end with the election on Thursday.

Of interest to society on both sides of the Atlantic will be the wedding of Miss Margaret Rutherford, daughter of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, and Ogden L. Mills, son of Ogden Mills of New York, and nephew of Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid. The wedding is to take place Wednesday at the chateau of the bride's mother in Normandy.

The football season of 1911, which is expected to be one of the most important in the history of the gridiron game, will be ushered in Saturday. Among the prominent elevens which will be seen in action on that day are Pennsylvania, the Carlisle Indians, Virginia, Lafayette, Holy Cross, Bates, Western Reserves, University of Maine and Ohio Wesleyan.

Representatives of Southern exchanges, commercial organizations, bankers and others interested in the handling of cotton will meet in conference in New Orleans Monday to consider the phases of the Liverpool bill of lading plan and to devise measures for the protection of the mutual interests of those engaged in handling and financing the Southern cotton crop.

Much interest is being manifested in the International Municipal congress and exposition, which is to open in Chicago Monday and continue until the end of September. It is believed that through this municipal exposition, making possible comparisons between various communities with reference to their systems of government, their notable accomplishment of the past and their plans for the future, there will be created a spirit of rivalry and civic pride that will do much for the advancement of municipal betterment in America.

Other important gatherings of the week will include the annual communication of the sovereign grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Indianapolis, the annual convention of the American Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents at St. Paul and the annual meeting of the International Association of Fire Engineers at Milwaukee.

NEGRO SLAYER TO DIE

In Sing Sing Prison for the Killing of Policeman Michael.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Early in the coming week John W. Collins, a negro, will be put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison for the killing of Policeman Michael J. Lynch in this city on July 1st last. The policeman was killed just as he was entering the negro's rooms in Twenty-seventh street to learn the cause of two revolver shots which the negro had fired out of a window. Collins had been drinking heavily, and on the night of the murder entered the house and fired two shots at the janitor. Later he left the house and returned with a bottle of gin. After drinking most of the gin he fired two shots in the air, and told a woman who was with him to lock the door. Instead she ran into the street shouting for help. Policeman Lynch appeared and Collins shot him in the head. The negro made his escape across the roofs of the houses, but was captured within a hour. His trial, conviction and sentence to death followed within less than sixty days.

Atlanta's New Tabernacle.

ATLANTA Ga., Sept. 16.—The Rev. Len G. Broughton will preach his initial sermon tomorrow morning in the new Baptist Tabernacle, which has just been completed in this city at a cost of $200,000.

THE GREAT PROBLEMS OF OUR CITIES

National Municipal Congress Meets in Chicago

HOW TO GET THE BEST GOVERNMENT

Many Questions for Consideration—Economy, Taxation, Schools and Many Subjects Before The Congress—Many Notable Men Present.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Official representatives of municipalities in all parts of the United States and Canada and a few representing large cities in several foreign countries are gathering here to attend the International Municipal Congress and Exposition which will open at the Coliseum next Monday. The congress, as its name implies, is an international character, is planned upon a large scale and promises to be the largest and most instructive event of this kind ever held in this country. Experts of worldwide fame and known ability in matters pertaining to municipal government will be in attendance at the congress and will deliver addresses on many subjects of vital interest to municipalities generally. The congress is considered the most comprehensive attempt ever made to bring together the most intelligent and capable educators in all lines of municipal endeavor.

As to the exposition of municipal methods and systems, which will be held at the Coliseum during the two weeks of the congress, it is believed that by making possible comparisons between various communities with reference to their systems of government, their notable accomplishments in the past and their plans for the future, it will create a spirit of rivalry and civic pride that will do much for the advancement of municipal reform and betterment.

Many of the large cities of the United States have made special efforts and will be represented by special exhibitions, giving a complete and highly instructive presentation of the organization of each municipality, its system of administration, the scope and arrangement of its working plan, the methods employed to insure the greatest efficiency at the smallest cost and with the minimum of friction; the manner of keeping books and records, of collecting taxes and statistics and scores of other matters of interest to every large or small municipality, be it in the United States in the Dominion of Canada or in some country across the sea.

The formal opening of the congress and of the exposition will be held next Monday noon at the congress hall of the Coliseum. There will be addresses by John M. Ewen, chairman of the exposition; John MacVicar, commissioner general of the congress; Harry A. Wheeler, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce; Mayor Carter H. Harrison of Chicago; Hon. Darius A. Brown, president of the league of American Municipalities and Mayor of Kansas City, Mo.; Hon. William J. Gaynor, Mayor of New York City; Hon. John E. Heyburn, Mayor of Philadelphia and Hon. James Fitzgerald, Mayor of Boston.

During the session of the congress there will be general meetings every afternoon while every evening there will be displays of moving pictures to illustrate talks on various American and European cities. The forenoons will be devoted to special department sessions which will be held in the First Regiment Armory.

In accordance with the program arranged for the two weeks of the congress one or more distinct subjects will come up for consideration and discussion at each of the meetings and experts and authorities on these subjects will present their views, as based upon their observation and experience. Among the subjects thus to be considered will be City Charters; Municipal Accounting and Efficiency. The Business End of a City Government; City Planning; Paving; Public Utilities; Taxation; The City for the People; Control of the Milk Supply; Advertising Value of a Healthy City; Protection of Water and Disposal of Sewerage; Police and Fire Service; Reduction of Fire Waste; Parks and Playgrounds; Building Codes; Public Schools; Public Libraries; Control of Sanitation and School Inspection; Yard Sewerage; Stables and Slaughter Houses; Equalizing Tax-

MRS. V. H. WHICHARD DEAD.

Aged Mother Of Editor Passes Away.

Mrs. Violetta H. Whichard died at 11:15 o'clock this morning at her home on Third street. For nearly a year she has been in feeble health, and last Sunday suffered a stroke of apoplexy. From this she never revived, but continued gradually to grow weaker until the end came peacefully almost without a struggle. Truly a good woman has passed from earth to enjoy that reward inherited by the righteous in the world beyond.

Mrs. Whichard was in her 77th year, being born February 20th, 1835. She was a daughter of A. G. and Mary Jordan. She was highly educated, taking her collegiate course at Murfreesboro Female College. On her twentieth birthday she was married to Mr. D. F. Whichard, who died in 1877. During the Civil war and for many years following she taught school in the old Masonic building, then on Second street. She was recognized as one of the best teachers in this section, and had a large school as long as she taught. Early in life she united with the Missionary Baptist church, and was ever true to her belief. Few women led a more active and industrious life than she, nothing giving her more pleasure in life than in doing something for others.

She is survived by four children, Messrs. J. R. Whichard, of Atlanta; D. J. and C. B. Whichard, of Greenville, and Mrs. A. F. Kennedy, of Littleton.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Miss Herndon Dead.

Telegrams were received here today from Durham announcing the death of Miss Jennie Herndon. She was one of the teachers in the graded school here and was greatly beloved in Greenville.

Michigan Ready for Taft.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 16.—Everything is in readiness for the reception of President Taft, who is due to arrive in Detroit at an early hour Monday morning for a four days' visit in Michigan. Early Monday morning he will go to Pontiac, returning to Detroit before noon of the same day for the opening of the States Fair. At luncheon he will be the guest of the Detroit Board of Commerce. A ride about the city will occupy the early afternoon and at 4:45 p. m. he will start for Saginaw and Bay City.

The Parade.

Too much cannot be said of the Mighty Haag Railroad shows parade which takes place daily on the public streets free for everybody and is one mile in length and introducing features never attempted by any other show for their street pageant. No parade is complete without a calliope and Mr. Haag has spared no expense in this everlasting feature of the parade. Not only have the Haag shows one of the finest calliopes in the world but have been fortunate enough to secure the services of Signor Lamont who is considered the premier of calliope players, and will certainly gladden the hearts of the children, and everybody as well with up-to-date selections. They will appear in Greenville September 29.

All Kinds of Leather Goods.

Trunks, valises, suit cases and hand bags are convenient and handy things to have, whether you stay at home or whether you travel. C. T. Munford can supply all your needs in this line, and they are the best to be had. In fact the big store was never better prepared than now to serve you with anything desired, and you make a mistake if you fail to go there before buying. Stock and prices will be sure to suit you.

The list of speakers scheduled to deliver addresses on various subjects under discussion includes many of the most noted and capable students and experts in the various branches of municipal activity, men whose names are known throughout this country and even far beyond the boundaries of the United States, where large cities are confronted with difficult municipal problems.

NORTH CAROLINA HAPPENINGS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Stated for The Reflectors Busy Readers.

Because of some unavoidable circumstances, the Barnum and Bailey circus will not exhibit at Goldsboro this season, and negotiations are being opened to sue the circus by the traction company, the billboard people and others who claim they have lost money by the date being cancelled.

The latest donation to the fund for erecting the new $25,000 dormitory at the Greensboro Female college comes from Col. Ashley Horne, of Clayton, in the form of a check for $500. He stated that he wished to have the honor of building one of the 32 rooms the new building will contain.—Greensboro News.

RALEIGH.—J. B. Parrish, a farmer who lives six miles from Angier, Harnett county, died at Rex Hospital at 2:25 o'clock this afternoon as the result of injuries received at 11 o'clock today when a two-horse wagon passed over his body. C. P. Massengill, who was also thrown from the wagon, was painfully, though not fatally injured, and will recover.

Attorney A. H. Price returned last night from Asheville, where yesterday, in chambers, he made a compromise with the Southern Railway for his client, G. W. Smathers, Esq., who was injured in the wreck at Majolica in July. The amount of the compromise was $5,500.—Salisbury Post.

BURLINGTON.—The cars for our electric railway have arrived and the wiring and overhead work is being pushed to completion. The track has all been laid with the exception of a few hundred yards on Front street and the special curve work.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1911.

In his thirty years as an editor, this writer has been called upon to write many sad words, but the bitterest came to him today when he must make the announcement "Mother is dead."

LOCAL PATRIOTISM.

We would like for Greenville folks to read this over two or three times, and then put it away to read some more. It sounds just like it might have been written for Greenville:

It is singular how so many people will yell themselves hoarse rooting for the home ball team, who would not give a dollar to establish a new industry here, nor would they bother to suggest to friends contemplating removal that this would be a good town to live in.

The intense partisanship manifested in any athletic sports in behalf of the players indicates a large sentiment of home loyalty. It is an unselfish sentiment, excellent so far as it goes. The men on the bleachers do not get a nickel addition to their wages because home boys win.

Of course in some cases the cheering men may have money on the game. Yet our observation is that the bettor is too worried to cheer. It is the man who wants the home team to win from simple home loyalty that makes the noise.

Why is it that this most commendable sentiment is so abounding under such circumstances, and so lacking when there is still more vital need for its expression.

The cities that have grown populous, powerful, wealthy, that have become great centers of industrial life and cherished locations for residence, have become so because some small group of men loved the soil of those localities, longed to have them true to high ideals, had faith in their future, had the self sacrifice to keep pulling all the time for business and civic advances. And they had no time or breath to spend in mere criticism. The mainspring of this action is a home patriotism differing only from that of the crowd at the ball game, in having a bigger field for its expression.

We may not all of us do big things for this city. Not all of us can be presidents of boards of trade or land new industries. But if everyone of us took every possible occasion to say that this is a mighty good place to live and do business in, a wide spreading circle of home patriotism would be let loose, the final reach of which would be incalculable.—Concord Tribune.

The city should be run within its income, the same as any other large business enterprise. The people are the stockholders in the city and no large amount of money should be exended for any purpose without the people having some say so about it.—New Bern Sun.

But the trouble is public matters are not looked after as carefully as are private matters and are not likely to be until people are put in office who have to give their whole attention to what they engage to do. That is one reason why municipalities should have a commission form of government.

People raise a cry against Spanish bull fights because of their cruelty, yet have little to say against automobile races that kill scores of men. Likewise the government shows great concern over cattle ticks and hog cholera because of the animals they take off, yet encourages and fosters the liquor business that poisons and destroys human beings by the thousands, which shows that mere esteem is held for cattle and hogs than for mankind.

There are certainly some people who recognize the value of The Reflector as an advertising medium. For proof just watch the advertising columns from day to day. These advertisers would not be putting good money in it unless it paid them to do so.

The Durham Herald says if the Democrats do not win this time they will miss about the best chance they have had in years. It certainly looks that way.

Maine ought to pull herself together and put up a 40,000 prohibition majority like was done in North Carolina. Then the thing would be settled.

There are already enough candidates out for one thing and another to make it easy for picnic occasions to secure speakers.

A difference of a million bales in cotton crop estimates shows how far apart people can guess.

"Wit 'In Extremis."
Of the men of letters who lost their lives on the scaffold two at least died debonairly.

There was Montrose, poet and king's man in Scotland's king versus kirk business. On the morning of his execution Warristown, the covenant, went to his cell, doubtless to make himself unpleasant. Montrose was coming out his curia.

"Why is James Graham so careful of his locks?"

Montrose smiled and made answer: "So long as my head is my own I mean to see to it. When Warristown gets it he may deal with it as he likes."

At the scaffold Sir Thomas More asked the lieutenant of the tower to see him safe up the steps.

"Till shift for myself coming down," the poet promised.—Youth's Companion.

HIS TROUBLE NOT OF HEART

Real Facts In Regard To F. R. Huffman's Illness. Relief Obtained By Curing His Stomach Ailments.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mr. F. R. Huffman, of this city, says: "I suffered dreadfully with what I thought was heart trouble, and tried various medicines in vain.

After other remedies had failed, Theford's Black-Draught restored me to health. I would not feel safe without Black-Draught in the house. I consider it worth its weight in gold.

It cured my indigestion, and by this means I was restored to health. I can not express my gratitude for its benefits."

Good health depends on the condition of your digestion. Poor digestion and good health do not go together.

Theford's Black-Draught will thoroughly cleanse and set in order your digestive system.

It has done this for others, during the past 70 years, and is today the most popular vegetable liver remedy on the market. Try it. Insist on Theford's. Price 25c.

New Plumbing Firm.

A new firm to carry on the plumbing business here is Pender & Hicks, whose advertisement will be found in this paper. Mr. L. H. Pender has lived in Greenville for many years and is too well known to everybody here for it to be necessary to say more of him. Mr. S. T. Hicks, the other member of the new firm came from Winston-Salem, and is a plumber of wide experience. He came to do the plumbing in the new court house and liked Greenville so well that he decided to locate here.

How we enjoy meeting a man who talks only when he has something to say.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Famous Coffee That Conquered a Pirate

During the war of 1812, Andrew Jackson won the friendship of the daring pirate, La Fitte, who proved an able ally against the British. Tradition says the peace pact was concluded at the old French Market, where Jackson treated his fierce guest to the famous French Market Coffee. Even then, for over 100 years, this rare old blend had been a favorite in New Orleans. Society leaders loved to gather and discuss the gossip of the city over steaming cups of the delicious beverage.

Then, the genuine

French Market Coffee

could be had nowhere else, but now you may all serve it—daily—at your own table. For the old French blend is perpetuated by and we now deliver genuine old French Market Coffee everywhere in hermetically-sealed cans.

The Same Unique Hygienic Roasting Process

"There is only ONE real old French Market flavor."

All the delicious aroma and fragrance of the rare old French blend is preserved. You will be delighted with its flavor.

Get it from your grocer TODAY!

THE HAPPENINGS AROUND WINTERVILLE

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 16.—Mrs. A. G. Cox spent two days of this week in Kinston.

Have you ever noticed the striking difference between a minister and an undertaker? Well, the minister pleads with you to prepare to die, while the undertaker prepares for you to die. You can get a nice coffin or casket from the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company. They have made preparation to serve you. They furnish excellent hearse service also.

Miss Sallie Pickett Oldham gave a recital at the school building Thursday night, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by every one who attended it.

When you are ready to buy your porcelain lined enameled ware or grey ware for your cook room, just come and inspect Harrington, Barber & Co.'s 25-cent table and the bargain will be closed without further investigation.

Miss Olivia G. Cox went to Raleigh yesterday.

The Union Mercantile Company are opening up the nicest line of underwear you have ever heard of, both for ladies and gents, children and misses. Look at their line before buying.

We were glad to see Mr. J. B. Kittrell, of Greenville, in town Tuesday. John is one of our Winterville men.

Winterville is one of the best manufacturing towns in Eastern Carolina. It is a model home for the laboring man. The social privileges of the town are his, and there is no extravagant expenditures of the town to be met, and the every style of living is of the most economical plan. With these advantages the laborer can manufacture products and easily meet competition from other places. It is not wise to attempt business unless you have some advantage.

See the nice rugs at A. W. Ange & Co.'s. They are cheap.

Mr. C. S. Smith returned Monday from Raleigh, where he took Mrs. John Venters.

Just a word to the hunters. We carry a good line of loaded shells, smokeless or black powder, also we carry guns to shoot them with, Stevens' breech loaders. Come and see us for prices. Union Mercantile Co.

Mr. C. E. Langston left his week to enter school at Chapel Hill.

The best values ever offered for a dime are at Harrington, Barber & Co.'s store. Come and see them.

Mrs. R. W. Dall spent Wednesday in Ayden visiting friends.

Well, it just looks like every body is buying a Hunsucker buggy. Don't worry though, for fear that you won't be able to get one, for the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. has made extensive preparations for their manufacture. It would be wise to see them and let them know your wants before the big rush comes.

Miss Sarah Barber and "Laughing" Theodore visited Ayden Wednesday evening.

Lime and cement at A. W. Ange & Co.'s.

The Winterville High School boys went over to Ayden yesterday evening and played a game of ball with the Ayden boys, and left them counting 4 to 0 in favor of Winterville.

We still call your attention to our trade deal, for every 50 cents worth of cash trade we give you a ticket worth 10 cents, and a guess at the $30 watch. It's going your way, get your part of it while it is going. Union Mercantile Company.

Miss Sarah Barker left this morning to spend some time at Chocowinity.

If you look through a bank account you can always see prosperity ahead. A bank account opens the way to all things prosperous. Open an account today and you will lay the first foundation stone for a fortune. Bank of Winterville.

Several of our people attended the picnic at Johnson's Mills yesterday.

Get your paint from Harrington, Barber & Co. They have just received a large shipment and can furnish you in all the leading colors.

The Baraca class of the Sunday school will have charge of the services Sunday night. Come out and hear their program.

Governors End Conference. SPRING LAKE, N. G., Sept. 16.—The annual conference of Governors, which has been in progress here since Tuesday, concluded this morning with a session devoted to the consideration of the problems of prison labor.

If a man is rolling a barrel down hill he can growl because it isn't shorter.

A man fond of toasting health and wealth stands a better chance of losing both.
