NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

A BUSY WEEK IN PROSPECT.

Third Meeting of the National Conservation Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—A busy week is in prospect for President Taft. After making a number of short stops in Missouri and Kansas on Monday, he will arrive in Kansas City in time to address the National Conservation Congress Monday evening. On this occasion it is probable Mr. Taft, in course of his remarks on the general subject of conservation, will make clear the administration's future attitude in Alaskan affairs.

From Kansas City the president is to go to Hutchinson to speak at the state fair and the Kansas semi-centennial celebration. Topeka, Atchison and Leavenworth will be embraced in the Wednesday itinerary. The next two days will be given to Iowa, with stops at Council Bluffs, Fort Dodge, Waterloo, Des Moines, Ottumwa and several other points. Another swing across northwestern Missouri is scheduled for Saturday and thence the route will lead to Omaha, where the president will spend Sunday.

The third meeting of the National Conservation Congress, to address which President Taft is to visit Kansas City, promises to be the most notable gathering of its kind yet held. A number of subjects dealing with the conservation of natural resources will be discussed during the three days' session, but especial attention will be given to the question of soil fertility and its maintenance. Secretary of the Interior Fisher, former Secretary Garfield, Gifford Pinchot and many other men of note will be heard.

Primary elections in two cities at opposite ends of the country will attract public attention during the week. In San Francisco a primary will be held Tuesday for the nomination of candidates for mayor and other city officials. In Philadelphia a similar primary will be held Saturday. Both cities have witnessed strenuous campaigns. In a broad sense the same issue prevail in both cities, being a fight of the better element of the citizens to wrest the control of municipal affairs from the office holders and politicians alleged to be guilty of the grossest kind of political corruption and graft.

Massachusetts will have its first practical experiences with the direct primary law on Tuesday, when all parties will name candidates for governor and other state officers to be voted for this fall. A spirited three-cornered fight is on for the Republican nomination for governor. Governor Foss is assured of re-nomination by the Democrats.

The consecration of Rev. J. R. Winchester as bishop of Arkansas will attract a distinguished gathering of Episcopal clergy and laity to Little Rock on Friday.

A conference of United States and Canadian government health authorities and the state and municipal health boards along Lake Erie is to be held in Chicago Friday to plan an international crusade against pollution of lake drinking water.

Other notable conventions and conferences of the week will include the National Eucharistic Congress in Cincinnati, the National Blue and Gray Reunion in Memphis, the convention of the National Association of Military Surgeons in Milwaukee, the annual meeting of the American Manufacturers' Export Association in New York, and the semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers at Manchester, Vermont.

Artist Conant 90 Years Old.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Alban Jasper Conant, the well known artist, will celebrate his ninetieth birthday anniversary tomorrow. Mr. Conant, who is best known for his portrait of Abraham Lincoln, was born in Chelsea, Vt., Sept. 24, 1821. For a number of years early in his career he was curator of the University of Missouri. Despite his ninety years, the venerable artist may be seen at work almost any day in his studio in West Tenth street.

Don't place too much confidence in yourself; there is no one you more frequently deceive.

NORTH CAROLINA HAPPENINGS

GATREBED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Stated for The Reflectors Busy Readers.

In Graham county Superior Court last week, Dow Cornsilk, an Indian, who was tried for killing John Smoker, another Indian, was acquitted.

The Farmers' union cotton gin, here, is nearing completion. The buildings are ready and a part of the machinery is installed. The only drawback is the railroad is slow in delivering some of the machinery.—New Bern Sun.

It is understood on very good authority that the preliminary work on Washington's public building will commence in the next few days. The work of driving the piling will be started next week and the remainder of the work pushed as rapidly as possible. Messrs. John G. Unkerfer & Co., contractors and builders of Milner, Ohio, have the contract for this building, and when completed it will be one of the handsomest and most ornamental in the state.

In consequence of a nightmare, a member of the crew on the U. S. S. Elfrida, is today suffering from effects of two dislocated toes. The young man last evening was lying in his hammock and while slumbering away he dreamed he was being electrocuted by becoming entangled with some live electric wires, lost control of himself and fell to the deck of the ship and as a result of the fall he misplaced two of his toes.—New Bern Sun.

TARBORO.—Two strikes are on here now. The negroes employed on street paving struck because while willing to pay for their labor, were unwilling to work the last half of Saturday, no matter how much the people of the town were inconvenienced. One of still greater importance was the refusal of those who have been picking cotton to pick, although the fields are white, when in no time in their lives have they been able to gather so much cotton in a given time in a given space.

DURHAM.—Tom Linthicum twenty years ago, one of the city's most popular, and, perhaps, its handsomest dressed young man was found dead late this afternoon by Constable Raymond Hall, who had gone to John Sheppard's home to arrest him. Linthicum was lying on the floor of the house which was otherwise unoccupied. He was about 47 years of age and never married. His father was a successful contractor. He built one of the big factories here, and left Linthicum a fortune of twenty odd thousand dollars. The dead man has one brother known well over the State as an architect. There is no evidence of foul play.

TAFT'S BUSY DAY AT ST. LOUIS

Keeps Him on The Move Almost Every Minute.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 22.—Upon his arrival in St. Louis this morning President Taft found prepared for him a programme calculated to keep him on the move almost every minute from the time he finished his breakfast at the Mercantile club until the conclusion of his address at the Coliseum tonight and the resumption of his westward journey. On the arrival of the special train at the Union station, where thousands of cheering people gathered, a special reception committee of leading citizens made a passageway to the street, where automobiles were in waiting to convey the visitor to the Mercantile club. A trip over the boulevards was taken after breakfast. The chief features of the programme for the remainder of the day and evening include luncheon at the City club, attendance at the National league baseball game, dinner at the Jefferson hotel, and the night address at the Coliseum.

In Memory of Roger Q. Mills.

CORSICANA, Texas, Sept. 23.—Life-long friends of the late Roger Q. Mills will unite in paying tribute to the memory of their distinguished fellow townsman at memorial exercises to be held in the public library in this city tomorrow afternoon. The Navarro County Bar Association has charge of the arrangements for the memorial meeting and has secured a number of prominent speakers.

SAN FRANCISCO'S LIVELY CAMPAIGN

ENDED IN SAN FRANCISCO TODAY

Both Parties Unite on James Randolph, Jr., for Mayor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—As bitter a political campaign as was ever witnessed in any American municipality was practically ended in San Francisco today. On Tuesday a primary election will be held for the selection of candidates for mayor and other city officers, including police judges, district attorney, sheriff, coroner and supervisors.

Patrick M. McCarthy who was elected mayor by the labor organizations two years ago and under whose administration, according to the declarations of his opponents, the city has been disgraced in the eyes of all decent citizens, is the big issue of the campaign. Every form of graft is charged against the administration, though the protection of vice is the charge upon which the foes of the McCarthy regime place most emphasis.

Mayor McCarthy is a candidate for re-nomination and has the solid support of the political machine which he has built up since he came into office. The denizens of the underworld, who are said to have increased by hundreds as a result of the wide-open policy of the past few months, will, of course, do their utmost to aid in McCarthy's re-election. It is not believed, however, that he will poll as large a union labor vote as he got at the last election.

The Republican and Democratic and Good Government parties have united on James Randolph, Jr., for mayor. Mr. Randolph is a well known business man, free from entangling alliances with any political ring. In announcing his platform, Mr. Randolph said he would make no hampering pledges, would make no appointments for political reasons and would recognize no faction in the community. He expresses himself in sympathy with the labor organizations, so long as they are law abiding, and declares that if elected he will use the whole moral influence of his office and his utmost personal effort to show both employer and employed that their interests and the prosperity of the city depended on that justice to one another which alone insures industrial peace.

DARED AND DIED.

Jeers Drive Aviator Into Flight That Ended Fatal.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 23.—Forced into the air by jeers of thousands who called him a coward, Frank H. Miller, aged 23, a Toledo, Ohio, aviator, shot into the air at twilight this evening and at the height of two hundred feet, was burned to death before the eyes of the terrified spectators on the Miami County Fair grounds at Troy, north of here.

Miller had circled the race track and was just starting on a spiral glide into a neighboring corn field when something went wrong. Suddenly the whirring of the propellers ceased. The craft then dropped like a shot for a distance of fifty feet. A tiny blue flame was emitting from the engine and in an instant the gasoline tank exploded.

The machine was wrecked by the impact and debris was hurled hundreds of feet in all directions. What remained of the machine and its driver burned almost to a crisp as they dropped rapidly to the earth.

SUFFRAGIST BABIES ON VIEW

To Refute The Arguments of The Antis.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—To refute the arguments of the antis that the suffragists do not give to the commonwealth the due number of babies, and do not care as much as they should for the food and housing of the grown members of society, the Woman Suffrage Party of this city has installed a baby show and a pure food booth at the Domestic Science Pure Food Exhibition, which opened in Madison Square Garden this afternoon and will continue until October 4. The proceeds derived from the suffrage exhibit will go toward a $100,000 fund that is being raised for political work.

One pugilist never offers to fight another just for fun.

CELEBRATE RAILROAD OPENING

RED-LETTER DAY IN ARBERDEEN

Afford Communication for Largest Timber Center in United States.

ARBERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 23.—This has been a red-letter day in the history of Aberdeen and all the surrounding country. In honor of the completion of the new $200,000 bridge of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company across the Chehalis river an all-day celebration was held and Aberdeen was filled with visitors from far and near. Commercial delegations came by special trains from Portland, Seattle and Tacoma to attend the celebration.

The completion of the bridge across the Chehalis means much to this section, from the viewpoint of commerce and industry, for it marks the inauguration of railroad communication with the outer world.

The bridge will be used by both the Harriman and the St. Paul roads as a part of the new lines just completed to afford communication for Aberdeen, the largest timber center in the United States, the port of Gray's harbor and several other thriving cities and towns in this section.

ADMIRAL HARBER RETIRES.

Will Be Placed on The Retired List of The Navy Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—By operation of the age limit law Rear Admiral Giles B. Harber will be placed on the retired list of the navy tomorrow. Admiral Harber comes from Ohio and was appointed to the naval academy soon after the close of the Civil war. He commanded the Jeanette search expedition to the Arctic in the early '80's, and was on the battleship Texas in the war with Spain. He was naval attaché at St. Petersburg and Paris for several years. In the famous world cruise of the Atlantic fleet he commanded the battleship Maine and later he was placed in command of the Asiatic station.

A SINGULAR DISCOVERY.

Boyhood Friends Find They Had Married Each Others Wives.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23.—A matrimonial tangle whereby two husbands who had been boyhood friends married unknowingly each other's wives when each had been divorced three years ago, was disclosed yesterday, when the two couples met by accident in a hotel lobby here and found by a comparison of dates that they had traveled across the continent together on the same train.

The principals in this tangle are Mr. and Mrs. George H. Richardson, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. William S. Holmes, of Boston. Mrs. Richardson was Mrs. Holmes, and Mrs. Holmes had been Mrs. Richardson.

The men had shaken hands cordially and each turned to his wife to proudly introduce her to his old friend when the women spied their divorced husbands.

"Why, Mary!" said Mr. Richardson. "On my word, if it isn't Edith!" exclaimed Mr. Holmes. The women giggled and laughed merrily.

WANTS ORDER.

"Bloody Breathitt" Tired of the Reign of Lawlessness.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 23.—Tired of the reign of lawlessness that has existed almost continuously for many years and has made "bloody Breathitt" a by-word the country over, the citizens of Elkton, one of the towns of Breathitt county, joined in a mass meeting today to discuss plans to restore law and order throughout that section. The meeting was preliminary to a county-wide conference of the same nature which is to be held at Jackson, the county seat, early in October.

Banking on Chestnuts.

The hay is scarce and high, Irish potatoes so scarce out of the mountains that they are considered a rarity, except by the very wealthy, and then only as desert, but if old Jack Frost will hold off for a little while longer there will certainly be a bumper chestnut crop in this neck of the woods.—Watauga Democrat.

IRISH PLAYERS

To Open Boston Theatre Tomorrow Night.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 22.—The entire company of Irish players from the Abbey Theatre, Dublin, has arrived in this city to begin their American tour. The beginning of their local engagement tomorrow night will also mark the opening and dedication of Boston's newest playhouse, the Plymouth Theatre, which was recently completed for Liebler and Co. The Irish players are accompanied to America by Lady Gregory, W. B. Yeates, the well known Irish poet, and several others who are prominently interested in the movement to revive Irish literature and the drama.

Women to Fly on Long Island.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Attracted by a prize list aggregating nearly $30,000, a score of the foremost American aviators, with several from Europe, have assembled for the Long Island tournament which will open tomorrow and continue for one week. The tournament will be the first in America in which special events have been provided on the programme for women aviators. At least four women are expected to take part in the meet.

POOLING KENTUCKY BURLEY.

Millionaire Tobacco Grower Comes to Aid of Other Growers.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 23.—An official statement was issued by the legislative board of the Burley Tobacco Society today saying a contract between the society and J. B. Haggin, a multi-millionaire, of New York, by which the latter agreed to pool his tobacco and assist the society in financing a 10-year pool has been accepted by the board. The contract was entered into by the Burley Society in behalf of the producers of white burley tobacco in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

The contract provides that the pooling arrangement be started this year and a campaign with this object in view will begin October 1. It is further provided that a large manufactory be occupied in this city where ten per cent of the pooled tobacco will be handled every year, the remainder being sold in the open market.

Mr. Haggin is the largest producer of white burley tobacco in Kentucky and the Burley Society has been negotiating with him for several weeks in an effort to induce him to enter into a pooling arrangement.

TO FINANCE COTTON CROP.

European Syndicate to Furnish The Money.

As the result of a conference in Montgomery, President C. S. Barrett, of the Farmers' union, announced that a French-English syndicate has guaranteed any amount of money up to seventy-five million dollars to finance the South's cotton crop. The deal was made with the personal representative of the syndicate. The money is to be loaned at six per cent, and the cotton is to be put up as collateral. Details of the plan are to be perfected by a committee to be composed of one Southern banker and two members of the Farmers' union.

KANSAS CITY IN READINESS.

Delegates to The Conservation Congress Have Begun to Arrive.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 23.—The finishing touches to the preparations for the visit of President Taft and the meeting of the National Conservation Congress, which the president will address Monday night, are being put on today. The presidential party will be quartered at the Hotel Baltimore. The suite of rooms they will occupy has been especially decorated and hung with beautiful tapestries.

Delegates to the conservation congress have begun to arrive in considerable numbers. The downtown section of the city is taking on a gala appearance. Building after building is one great mass of color from sidewalk to roof and the national colors are everywhere in the shape of shields, bunting and countless numbers of flags.

Taft to See President Installed.

BALDWIN, Kas., Sept. 23.—This quiet college town is all agog in anticipation of the arrival of President Taft and party, who are to spend the greater part of Sunday here. The primary purpose of the president's visit is to speak at the inauguration of the new president of Baker University.

GUILTY OF MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

VERDICT AGAINST BRAD BAGLEY

Negro Who Assassinated Chief of Police White at Williamston.

WILLIAMSTON, N. C., Sept. 23.—The trial of Brad Bagley, for the murder of Chief of Police W. B. White, which began in the Superior court here on last Thursday, ended a little before noon today when the jury rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE.

Breaks Connection of Evening Trains at Kinston.

The local agent of the Norfolk Southern railroad requests the Free Press to call the attention of the public to the announced change in the schedule of the westbound evening passenger train, which has been leaving this city at 8:05. Effective Sunday, it will leave the Kinston station at 6:45 p. m.—Kinston Free Press.

This means that there will be no more connection between Atlantic Coast Line and Norfolk Southern evening trains at Kinston. Heretofore the Atlantic Coast Line train passing Greenville at 6:33 p. m., reached Kinston in time to connect with the Norfolk Southern westbound train. The railroads seem bent on making matters worse instead of better for the traveling public.

It is said of nearly every rascal that he belongs to a "prominent family."

After what Canada has done Mr. Taft may feel like cancelling the remainder of his trip and going home to weep.

The flies should take notice that summer has ended. If they do not get out of the way soon, Jack Frost will come along and bite their toes.

If no hitch comes before the time of execution, Warren county will be entitled to the premium for promptness and order in dealing with a criminal.

not want to pay anything. A judge before whom they were examined assessed them $2 each per week for their mother's support, and made them give security to pay it. Those two sons ought to have been sent to the chain gang.

Practical Results of Good Roads.
The construction of good road in any section will mean:

1. That the market value of the real estate situated on or near the good road will be enhanced in value and in many instances properties which could not be sold even at a low figure have found a market when they were connected with the neighboring town or city by means of a good road.
2. That rural free delivery will be extended as good roads are constructed and is practically dependent upon good roads, for which the construction of good roads there will be an increase in population of the earning capacity of the adjacent farms, which will mean a greater amount of mail matter to be delivered.
3. That farmers will be able to take advantage of market fluctuations in buying and selling.
4. That the farmer, fruit grower, and others will be able to economize time and force in transportation between country and market.
5. That the wear and tear on their horses, harness and vehicles will be reduced.
6. That tourists, capitalists, investors and others visiting any section of the state will be much more favorably impressed with the financial possibilities of any manufacturing enterprise, or any commercial value of any farm or timberland by driving to them over good roads. If these same places have to be visited over poor roads, they will lose more than half their value in the sight of the prospective investor, as his thoughts have been so entirely taken up with the bad road over which he has been compelled to travel.—Fayetteville Index.

Salaries of Pastors.
There appears to be an increase in restlessness among pastors. No doubt there is in most cases a good reason for much of it. Salaries, in very many cases, are inadequate. The support of a pastor with one or two children will not do so where there are more, and the time comes when his children must be educated. This state of affairs explains very probably why the minister who said recently in our hearing that he had received of late a call and already had three applications for his place. The hard experiences of many of our pastors who are often forced to live on a salary too scant are not known. When the day comes that his children have to be sent off to school—that sad day is not known either. So we find the occasion, if it is not on the surface, for seeking out another field and a larger salary.—Presbyterian Standard.

It's easy for any girl to get married; the hard thing is for her to get happiness out of life.

Love may not make the world go round, but it makes a lot of men go broke.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help."

I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical. Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui.

The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.

Looks like a wet Sunday ahead. The stores of our Hebrew merchants are closed today in observance of their new year.

More Court Next Week.

There has been quite a busy time at court this week on the trial of civil cases. The term will continue next week.

No Sales Circus Day.

The Greenville tobacco market will have no sales on next Friday, 29th, the day on which the Haag circus is to show here. Farmers should make a note of this and not bring in tobacco on that day expecting a sale.

Some Cotton Pickers.

The family of Mr. J. D. McCorkle, of Steel Creek, stands unchallenged as the champion cotton-picking family of the county, and, perhaps, of the state. The other day four members of the family picked 1,528 pounds of cotton, enough to make a heavy bale. The above amount was picked in one day by four of Mr. McCorkle's sons, namely, Roy, Ben, Cecil and Harvey. The quantity picked by each one was as follows: Roy, 429; Ben, 394; Cecil, 368; and Harvey 337 pounds.—Charlotte Chronicle.

He subsequently dramatized the novel, "John Chifcoate, M. P.," written by his wife, the late Katherine Cecil Thurston, which was produced with great success at the St. James Theatre in London several years ago. Other publications of Mr. Thurston which have met with success are "Traffic," "The Evolution of Katherine," "The Pealish," "Sally Bishop," and "The City of Beautiful Nonsense."

The programme of the meeting is limited to seven races daily, with $39,600 in added money, and provides as usual a splendid list of events to be run for during the seven days.

THE HAPPENINGS AROUND WINTERVILLE

PERSONALS AND BUSINESS NOTES

Winterville Beats Greenville at A Game of Ball.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 23.—Rev. C. M. Rock, of Greenville, was in town Wednesday.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing company have a good lot of wire fencing on hand. We notice the farmers are needing some fence along now about fencing off peanut patches for hogs, etc.

The Greenville boys came over Wednesday evening and played ball with the Winterville High school boys here and the result was 9 to 1 in favor of Winterville High school boys.

The Union Mercantile Company is still offering bargains in dry goods, notions, shoes, hats and caps. They have also just received a nice line of underwear of any kind or style for gents, ladies or children.

Mr. J. L. Jackson, of Greenville, was in our town Thursday and Friday.

A nice line of crockery just in at A. W. Ange & Co's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ange, of Jamesville, are spending a few days with their son, Mr. A. W. Ange.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing company has just opened up an extra nice assortment of buggy robes. Go down and select one before they are all picked over.

Mr. J. R. Smith, of Ayden, was in town Thursday.

A car of stoves, heaters and ranges just arrived at A. W. Ange & Co's.

Miss Evelyn Sutton returned Thursday from a visit in Greenville.

When you need that made-to-order suit, overcoat or pants, come to the Union Mercantile company and let them take your measure. They guarantee to fit you or your money back. They don't want your money until you are fitted and satisfied.

Mrs. J. R. Smith, of Ayden, spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McLawhorn, near here.

The farmers want carts and wagons to go to moving now. The A. G. Cox Manufacturing company has the reputation of making the best on the market. If you want a "Tar Heel" you had better see them and place your order.

Rev. M. A. Adams is holding a series of meetings at Ayden this week.

Remember the Union Mercantile company ticket proposition for cash trade. For every 50c of trade they give you a ticket worth 10 cents and they redeem the tickets in part payment on any of their jewelry. That ticket also gives you a chance at a $30 watch.

Miss Mamie Chapman returned Thursday from a visit to Miss Annie Carroll.

Have you been down and let your buggy wants be known to Hunsucker? Better do it before the big rush comes.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing company makes the buggy that will please you if strength, style and efficiency are pointers about a buggy.

Mr. W. R. Percival, a well known dry goods salesman of Virginia, was in town Friday. Everyone is glad to see Mr. Percival, even some of the "fire" boys.

Harrington, Barber & Co. have received a large shipment of rubber roofing. It is a good time to get it and stop the leaks in out buildings.

Mrs. W. E. Cox made a trip to Ayden yesterday.

A nice lot of rugs and blankets at Harrington, Barber & Co's.

Mr. H. A. White, of Greenville, was in town yesterday attending a meeting of the Pitt County Oil company.

Every man can't get rich, but every man can save something. No matter how small your income may be, if you make up your mind to lay up a part of your earnings every week, you can soon laugh at hard times and poverty. Bank of Winterville.

Mrs. B. T. Cox went to Ayden yesterday and returned this evening.

See Harrington, Barber & Company for your suit of clothes before you buy. They will save your money.

Mr. B. F. Manning, our clever cotton buyer, went to Snow Hill today.

Being good looking ought to stand in the way of a man's success, but it often does.
