HOW EASY IT IS TO FOLLOW ERROR

A MISPRINT IN S. S. SERVICE.

And Preachers, Through Force of Habit, Offer Strange Prayers.

HANRAHAN, N. C., Sept. 27.—How few of us, even those who read, ever stop one moment to think on what we have read.

In the Methodist literature each month has an opening service laid down. The opening service for August among other things had a verse, a couplet of this verse read something like this:

"If I can cool one ache or pain,
Then I shall not live in vain.

Evidently the author of these lines wrote, or intended to say, soothe one ache or pain, but, a typographical error made him say cool instead of soothe. During the past month I attended several Sunday schools that used this opening service, and each and every one read it just as printed. "If I can cool one ache or pain." Without a wonder the Methodist Sunday school of your city read this for the whole month of August without once thinking that a pain is not something to be cooled.

A while ago I heard a preacher get up and preach a powerful sermon, urging sinners to repent and be saved just now and made much effort to impress all who had not accepted Christ that now is the day to accept Him and to be saved. And then he called the congregation to prayer and made a most feeling prayer and wound it up by asking God for Christ's sake to at last save us all in heaven. When he had closed his service I asked him when a man was saved? He said when he confessed Christ and accepted Him as his Savior. Then I said why do three-fourths of your preachers always wind up your prayers by asking God to save us at last? He said "force of habit; we did not think." Just as many who are called on when the husband has been taken and a widow left, I have heard preachers of note pray that God would be a Father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow; God cannot be, and has never promised to be a husband to the widow. He can and has promised to be a Father to the fatherless and a friend to the widow, but not a husband.

So in my last, my bad copy and not the operator, made me say that "only dudes and other creeping things existed where once stood a town built up entirely of the aristocracy of that county." I meant to convey the idea that that town was entirely depopulated by all human beings, and that only doodles, little insects that live in the sand, and other creeping things now inhabited that once proud and beautiful town. And not that the offspring of those people were dudes and creeping things. The Rev. S. B. Pattisholl, of the M. E. church, south, closed a series of meetings at this place last Sunday night. He reorganized a church, reclaiming part of the old members that were scattered like sheep without a shepherd when the church went down. He also received four who had never been connected with any church. Quite an interest through his earnest preaching had been aroused among our people, but he had to close his meeting here Sunday night to begin a protracted meeting at Gum Swamp. May much good be accomplished.

U-KNOW.

[The way we got dudes out of doodles was you put "u" instead of "oo."—Opr.]

HIGH PRICES.

Foxhall Has Highest Average of The Season.

Yesterday the average made at the Star warehouse was unquestionably the highest made during the present season. The entire sale, including scrap, averaged nearly 15 cents. I challenge any warehouse in the state to beat this.

Elsewhere in this paper, you will see an itemized list of a few of the sales which we made, and which we are making every day. Come on with your next load, for you know that the Star beats them all when it comes to getting the most for your tobacco.

GREEN MANURING NO. 9.

Necessity of Organic Matter in The Soil.

We have now attempted to explain the phenomenon called "souring of the soil" and to point out a practicable remedy, namely: roll the green manuring crop; disc it a number of times in the opposite direction to the rolling while yet green and sufficient in order to cut it into small bits; plow it under; disc it once or twice after plowing, depending on the amount of material on the land; with the disc set at a slight angle in order to pulverize and mix the cut-up vegetable matter with the whole soil stratum; and allow the land to settle a few weeks and receive one or more good rains.

We shall now take up in succession and discuss the value of a number of humus-forming materials, other than animal manures, and then point out methods of handling them in connection with different crops.

In a previous chapter we gave the average chemical analysis of a large number of samples of green rye in which we found this material to contain 10 pounds of nitrogen, 5 pounds of phosphate, and 14 pounds of potash per ton. All of these constituents are taken from the soil by the roots, built into the tissues of the plant and given out again to a succeeding crop when the rye decays.

A crop of green rye weighing eight tons to the acre is easily grown on the average farm in North Carolina. This amount of green rye incorporated with the first ten inches of a ten acre field would furnish to the soil of this field, in a readily available form, 800 pounds of nitrogen, 400 pounds of phosphate and 1120 pounds of potash.

This is as much nitrogen as would be furnished by 20 tons, of an 8-2-2 fertilizer or 100 loads of fresh cow manure. The phosphate in this amount of green stuff is equal to that contained in 1 1-2 tons of an 8-2-2 fertilizer or in 200 tons, or loads, of fresh horse manure. The potash contained in this material is equal to that found in 28 tons of an 8-2-2 fertilizer or in 150 tons of fresh horse manure. Sufficient rye to seed the ten acres will cost around $10, whereas, it would cost $75 to haul and spread the 150 tons of stable manure.

In the above we have mentioned merely the plant food constituents rendered available by the rye and have not taken into account the vast amount of humus for holding moisture and improving the texture of the soil. Be sure to sow quantities of rye this fall for plowing under next spring before planting. Next week we expect to discuss the use of wheat straw and green corn as manure.

Davis, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of the state, will visit Greenville next Sunday night and address the people of this community at a union service to be held in the Memorial Baptist church. NORTH CAROLINA HAPPENINGS

GATREBED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Stated for The Reflectors Busy Readers.

Rev. A. J. Mancrief has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist Tabernacle in Raleigh to accept a call to Barnsville, Ga.

GREENSBORO.—The postoffice at Stoneville, which is located in the store of Mr. T. P. Poole, a well known merchant of that place, was entered Saturday night and robbed of between $700 and $800 in cash and postage stamps. About one-half of the amount was stamps and the other half cash.

FAYETTEVILLE.—Suit has been instituted in the Superior courts of North Carolina against H. R. Lacy, state treasurer, and Major J. C. Vann, of this city, to determine the identity of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, the second oldest infantry organization in the state. The suit is entered by Co. F. Second regiment, North Carolina National Guard.

CHARLOTTE.—Adam Sigmon, colored, cut off both hands of Will Link and his wife, Eldora, and butchered them fearfully during the midnight hours Sunday. Link and his wife are at the Good Samaritan Hospital, where everything is being done in hopes that they may live. The crime is one of the most atrocious and unwarranted that has been recorded in Mecklenburg county for years. It is believed Sigmon was full of cocaine.

While out with an engine and flat car near Vaughan, searching for an engine that had been stolen Sunday, Engineer Harry Dean Latham, of the Johnson Lumber Company, received injuries yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock that caused death an hour later, while he was in the baggage car of the shoofly, being brought to Raleigh for treatment. The engine occupied by Mr. Latham ran into the missing engine, which had been left on a curve. Mr. Latham was badly mashed.—News and Observer.

BENEFIT SHOW

Thursday Night For The Public Library.

The ladies of the public library have arranged through the management of the Gaiety Theatre to run a benefit show Thursday night.

No doubt but what the people of Greenville will take much interest in this event, in as much as it is for the exclusive purpose of the library. They have arranged a special programme for the occasion in the way of vocal solos, together with special pictures for that night.

This is for a most worthy cause and it is to be hoped that the people will turn out that night and give them a liberal support.

Cotton Manufacturers Meet.

MANCHESTER, Vt., Sept. 27.—Opening this evening with an address of welcome by Governor Mead and the presidential address by Franklin W. Hobbs, of Boston, the twenty-first semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers will continue its sessions over tomorrow and Friday. Many important papers on cotton manufacturing have been prepared, dealing principally with the technical side of the industry.

Dry Farmers in Convention.

ABILENE, Texas, Sept. 27.—The second annual meeting of the Central West Texas Dry Farming Congress opened here today with several hundred men interested in raising grain and vegetables with little rainfall present. The session will last two days, during which time a number of agricultural experts and practical farmers will explain to the convention what dry farming methods can accomplish under seemingly adverse conditions.

United Brethren Conference.

CANTON, Ill., Sept. 27.—The sixty-sixth session of the Northern Illinois annual conference of the United Brethren church met here today with a large attendance of church leaders. Bishop George M. Matthews, of Chicago, is presiding.

The man who loafs is least satisfied with his pay.

STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE

WILL AID PITT COUNTY FAIR.

With Liberal Donation To The Premium List.

President J. L. Wooten, of the Pitt County Fair Association, has received a letter from the State Agricultural Department, advising that the department will come to the aid of the county association in making a donation to the premium list of the county fair. This donation from the state promises to be a liberal one, and still further assures the success of the county fair to be held on the 2nd and 3rd of November. In addition to the donation by the State Department of Agriculture for the general exhibits at the county fair, they make a special donation for exhibits in the women's department.

At the meeting of the governing board of the county fair to be held on Friday, the premium list will be revised to include the donation of the State Department of Agriculture. In the meantime the people of the county should be getting something ready to exhibit at the fair. Do everything you can to help make this first fair a success, and to show what Pitt county can do in the way of a display of farm products, stock, poultry, pantry supplies, fruits, vegetables, and woman's work.

ADJUST BAPTIST DIFFERENCES

Between The Two Great Divisions of The Baptist Church in America.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., Sept. 27.—To adjust certain differences that have arisen between the two great divisions of the Baptist church in America, a joint conference was begun here today by representatives of the Northern Baptist Convention and representatives of the Southern Baptist Convention. Difficulties growing out of recent New Mexican organizations form the principal matter in dispute. Some New Mexican congregations withdrew from the Northern Baptist Convention, and joined the Southern, with it, it is claimed, "the co-operation of some Southern leaders. The action has produced considerable friction, which it is hoped will be removed by the present conference.

PURE FOOD CRUSADE.

Another To Be Conducted on Broader Plans Than Ever.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Another pure food crusade, to be conducted on broader plans than any of the similar movements of the past, is soon to be launched by the National Civic Federation. At a meeting held today at the New York Board of Trade and Transportation the new Pure Food and Drug department of the federation was formally organized and preliminary plans discussed for the proposed campaign against alleged food and drug adulterers, misbranding and short weights. Seth Low, president of the federation, presided at the meeting.

To Accompany Taft on Iowa Trip.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 27.—Upon the arrival of his special train here early tomorrow morning President Taft will be met by Governor Carroll, Senator Kenyon and several of the members of the Iowa congressional delegation. The entire party will accompany the president on his Iowa tour, which will occupy two entire days and include stops in half a dozen or more of the leading cities of the state.

Association Train.

On next Sunday, October 1, trains on the Washington branch of the Atlantic Coast Line will make stops at Manning siding for the accommodation of people attending the Kehukee Association at Flat Swamp. Manning siding is about half way between Parmele and Oakley and is within one mile of Flat Swamp church.

Genesee M. E. Conference.

LEROY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The Genesee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church met in annual session here today, with Bishop Joseph F. Berry, of Buffalo, presiding. The conference will continue over next Monday.

Popularity is won by the very quality that lose us friends.

TAFT LAYS CORNER STONE.

Finds City Profusely Dressed in Patriotic Attire.

TOPEKA, Kas., Sept. 27.—When President Taft arrived this morning in Topeka, the first important stop on his day's schedule, he found the city profusely dressed in patriotic attire and an enormous crowd on hand to do him honor. A party of distinguished representatives of the state of Kansas accompanied the president from Hutchinson, while another party of state and city officials and leading citizens of Topeka was in waiting at the station to greet him when he stepped from his special train. After the welcome formalities had been concluded the president was taken in charge by the reception committee and escorted by a parade through the gayly decorated streets of the downtown district. At the conclusion of the parade the president delivered a brief address at the laying of the corner stone for the State Soldiers' Memorial Hall to be erected in this city. At the conclusion of the programme the presidential train left for Atchison and Leavenworth.

ABOUT THE WEEDS.

Is The Town Doing Its Duty to Tax Payers?

Editor Reflector:

We notice that the mayor calls attention to the sidewalks of our town and asks that the owners of the property clean the same of weeds. This is right and should be done. At the same time while many have complied with this request all the summer and have kept their sidewalks clean, the town has never been near with their men, the whole summer to touch the streets, to clean or to cut down weeds and in some places, in middle of streets weeds stand nearly as high as your head, left there to breed sickness and give fever. This is where people live and pay taxes or rather folks do, whose streets are kept clean of weeds. If the town does not know of such, they can go west of the A. C. L. track, on Fourth street. This or all other ought to be kept clear of weeds. In fact, it seems that the town care little about doing for that end of the town what is just and right to those who live there. No water for fire protection; end of Fourth street is left in darkness, no lights; no sewerage; yet we are expected to pay taxes to the town. It is right and just.

A WEST ENDER.

Watermelons for Taft.

WEBSTER CITY, Ia., Sept. 27.—The biggest and ripest watermelon ever seen in this section will be cut for President Taft when he stops off here tomorrow for the annual observance of Watermelon day. The President's stay necessarily will be a very brief one, but Webster City expects his visit to be one of the most memorable events in the history of the town. The watermelon feast will be held in the city park and it is expected the president will deliver a short address.

In Memory of Pioneer Methodist.

PLAINFIELD, Ill., Sept. 27.—The delegates to the Rock River Methodist conference in session at Joliet came to Plainfield this afternoon and assisted at the dedication of a monument in memory of Jesse Walker, a noted pioneer of Methodism in Illinois and the middle west. Bishop Hamilton, of Boston, presided over the exercises and Bishop Hendrix, of the M. E. church, south, delivered the oration of the day.

Worcester Music Festival.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 27.—Music lovers from all over New England are here to attend the annual Worcester festival, which opens tonight and will continue over tomorrow and Friday. The works to be produced this year include Bantock's "Omar Klayyam," the Beethoven Mass in D Major, and "The Nuns," the last named a new work by Max Roger, which will be sung for the first time in America.

Bishop Winchester's Consecration.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 27.—Several Episcopal bishops and clergymen have already arrived here to attend the consecration of Dr. James Eldout Winchester as bishop coadjutor of the diocese of Arkansas. Bishop Tuttle, of St. Louis, will preside at the ceremony, which is to take place Friday morning in Trinity Cathedral.

THE HAPPENINGS AROUND WHICHARD

COTTON PICKERS VERY SCARCE.

Hunting Contrary To Law—Grape Crop Large.

WHICHARD, N. C., Sept. 26.—There are plenty of white cotton patches around here and very few hands, so the farmers are having lots of trouble getting their cotton picked.

Mrs. M. A. Whichard, who has been visiting relatives in Norfolk for the past two weeks, returned home yesterday.

There was a crowd around here last Saturday who went fox hunting and they had a large trail, plenty of music from the dogs, but ended up with every body tired and "nothing caught."

Mr. J. L. Perkins one of our clever merchants at Stokes, has just installed a large boiler and engine to his fine plant which makes his power very complete.

The school at Briery Swamp will start next Monday with Miss Maude Mooring as teacher.

Mr. R. D. Congleton and family, Mr. T. M. Mooring and family and Miss Maude Mooring spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Whichard.

We are glad to note Mr. H. S. Congleton is making his usual visits to town again.

Mr. Frank Fleming, of Stokes, came down to see us Sunday for awhile.

A good many from around here attended the revival meeting at Oak Grove last week.

From the report of guns we hear some time, there must be lots of snakes in the woods, as our people are all law abiding and wouldn't shoot anything else.

From the quantity of grapes brought to market for the last few days it looks as if those who have grapes here will have to go lacking, as they will all soon be gone. They have brought a good price, which has done the farmers lots of good.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1911.

The aviation route takes them off as quick as any other.

It looks like September is going to make it hot for us to the end.

If the loafers cannot be induced to go and pick cotton, they might be sent to work the roads.

The Greensboro News on Tuesday was a "booster" edition of thirty-two pages. It boosted Greensboro and the many industries of that city all right, too.

Organized effort is being made to count for much in many towns in the state, but this is another rope that Greenville is slow to take hold of and pull for something.

The San Francisco millionaire who is having a big wall erected at his suburban home to keep out mosquitoes, should not forget that mosquitoes can fly and may go over the wall unless he puts on a cover as well.

Some folks get in a big hurry. They started the rumor that Judge W. J. Adams was going to resign, and notwithstanding he denied the rumor citizens of Lee county have selected a successor to recommend to the governor for appointment. That is going some.

With cotton at 15 cents per pound the cry of "Back to the farm!" is a good one, but with sugar and clothes at their present figures another good one is "On to the factory!"—Wilmington Dispatch.

But the trouble with this is that cotton is not 15 cents a pound, and sugar keeps soaring.

With the flour trust making us knead the dough all the more, the sugar trust robbing us of the very sweets of life, the ice trust melting us, the coal trust freezing us, the beef trust making life tougher for us, and the oil trust refusing to pour oil on the troubled waters, a fellow can well wonder if he will have anything left for Christmas.

Two Hundred Thousand Pounds
The tobacco market had another break that was all round two hundred thousand pounds today. You just cannot get ahead of the Greenville market anywhere. Tobacco is bringing high prices here, and the farmers bring it to this market knowing that they are going to be treated right. Watch The Reflector every day and see what the Gum and Star are doing for the farmers who sell at these houses, and you will not be surprised that Greenville is leading all other markets.

Be sure that you're right, and then be certain you're sure.

A Dreadful Slight.

to H. J. Barnum, of Freerville, N. Y., was the fever-sore that had plagued his life for years in spite of many remedies he tried. At last he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and write: "It has entirely healed with scarcely a scar left." Heals Burns, Bolls, Eczema, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Corns and Piles like magic. Only 25c at all druggists.

It Catches The Ladies.

Had you noticed that advertisement of J. R. & J. G. Moye about their ladies' and misses' coat suits? Look again on fourth page and see it. This firm has the goods, a line that cannot be surpassed, and you will find everything in their store just as represented.

Farmers Ought to be Flushed.

The large quantity of tobacco coming to this market and the high prices at which it is selling, indicates that the farmers will be flushed with money by circus day. This is to remind them that it might be well to call by and get a receipt from the newspaper man before they feed the elephant.

Burglar Proof Safe.

The Greenville Banking & Trust Company has just put in a large new safe that is guaranteed to be proof against burglars. It is what is known as the cannon ball safe, being almost round, and the compartments for keeping money are in a large ball that revolves on the inside of the safe. The weight of the safe is about 13,500 pounds. There are less than a dozen safes like it in North Carolina.

Pulley & Bowen's Opening.

The large advertisement in this paper calls attention to the fall opening of Pulley & Bowen (the home of women's fashions), which will take place on Tuesday, October 3. This firm has a beautiful line of the very latest in millinery, dress accessories and tailored coat suits. Special attention has been given to selecting just what is best, and the ladies can be assured in advance of seeing a handsome display at this opening.

Unique Window Display.

There is a display in one of the front windows of Hart & Hadley's hardware store that attracts all passers. It is a mechanical figure of a girl standing at table which she is polishing with liquid veneer. The girl holds a can of the veneer in her hand, gives it a shake, pours out some of the liquid on a cloth, wipes the top of the table, and then nods her head in satisfaction over the result.

Large Crowd of People.

Without doubt Gulfport never has seen such a crowd of people as were here to see the Mighty Haag Railroad shows. Both in the afternoon and evening the tents were crowded with people, and in the afternoon hundreds could not secure tickets as the ticket wagon was closed long before two o'clock. Every train during the day brought people to see the show, and long before time for the parade to make its appearance on the streets they were crowded with people anxiously awaiting it, and not one was disappointed, as Mr. Haag has spent plenty of time and money on his parade, making it second to none. Never in the history of Gulfport have there been as many pretty girls, funny clowns and good music in one parade. The Gulfport Times is sure it voices the sentiment of the people when it says, give us more shows like Haag.—Gulfport Times.

The Mighty Haag shows will be in Greenville Friday, Sept. 29.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Greenville Citizens Show The Way.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of serious kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that these ills can be cured. Read what a Greenville citizen says:

Mrs. Fannie Moore, 214 Pitt street, Greenville, N. C., says, "I feel very grateful for the relief I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills which I obtained from the John L. Wooten Drug Company. Backaches annoyed me and there was much lameness and weakness through my lions. My kidneys did not do their work as they should and the kidney secretions bothered me. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief from these symptoms of kidney complaint and improved my condition in every way."

Why Lawyers Go To Heaven. Or, Rather, Why They Don't Go Elsewhere.

Knowing that there has been considerable doubt, in the minds of laymen at least, as to the future condition of the legal profession, I am herewith repeating to you, as well as I can from memory, a few lines on that very interesting subject, which were composed by an old friend of mine at the time of his admission to the bar in the state of Michigan some forty years ago.—J. A. Markham, of the Independence, Wis., Bar:

The devil came to the earth one day, And into a courtroom took his way, Just as a lawyer, with very grave face, Was proceeding to argue the points in a case.

Now a lawyer his majesty never had seen, For to his dominion none ever had been;

"Tis the fault of my agents," his majesty thought, That none of these lawyers have ever been-caught."

And for his own pleasure he had felt a desire To come to the earth and the reason inquire.

Now, when the first lawyer had come to a close, The counsel opposing him fearlessly rose,

And heaped such abuse on the head of the first, That he made him a villain, of all men the worst.

Each claimed he was right and the other was wrong. They sparred and contended and argued so long.

That, concluding he'd heard enough of the fuss, "Old Nick" turned away, and soliloquized thus:

"They have puzzled the court with their villainous cavil,— And I am free to confess they have puzzled the devil.

My agents were right; let lawyers alone. If I had them, they'd euchre me out of my throne."

Notice of Occupants of Lots

Weeds on side walks must be removed. Many complaints have been made to me because of side walks being grown up with rank weeds and grass. This condition must not continue to exist. Your consideration for your neighbors; your pride in your premises should compel you to remove such weeds and grass. This notice is given in the paper, that a reminder only, is needed. If more is needed, with just a little co-operation it will be given those who neglect this duty.

Hon. Michael Esdras Bernier, one of the veterans in Sanidian public life and at present a member of the Dominion board of railway commissioners, was born at St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, September 27, 1841, and received his education in his native city and at Montreal. In 1865 he married the daughter of Simeon Marchessault, who in 1837 was a leader in the Rebellion, and subsequently was exiled to the Bermudas. The general election of 1882 marked Mr. Bernier's entrance into Federal politics. In that year he was elected to the house of commons, to which body he was re-elected at each succeeding general election until 1900. In the latter year he was appointed minister of Inland Revenue in the Laurier administration. His present position as one of the board of railway commissioners he has held since 1904.

Gentlemen:—

My niece suffered for many years with a trouble pronounced by her physicians to be uric acid rheumatism and although he treated her, she never obtained relief.

Being well acquainted with Milan and knowing it had been used successfully very frequently in similar cases, I determined to put her on it. She took six bottles with the happiest results. I regard her as entirely relieved and will always take pleasure in recommending Milan for uric acid troubles.
