

EIGHT HUNDRED PERISH IN FLOOD

Dam Breaks and Water Rushes Down Valley

CARIES DESTRUCTION WITH IT

Two Towns Almost Swept Away—People Deluged While Trying to Flee to the Hills for Safety—Houses Crushed Like Shells And Many Killed in Collapse.

COUDERSPORT, Pa., Sept. 30.—With a roar that could be heard for miles the great dam of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company, at Austin, Pa., 14 miles from here, went out at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Forty bodies had been recovered from the ruins when darkness came this evening, and it is estimated that fully 400 are unaccounted for and are believed to be dead.

The dam, which is 530 feet long and 49 feet wide, was 32 feet thick at the base, and held back more than 500,000,000 gallons of water. For the first time since its construction, two years ago, the water was running over the top today and many persons went out from Austin a mile and a half away, to see the unusual sight.

They were horrified when a section of about 200 feet in width gave way on the west side. A great volume of water poured through the hole and the alarm was quickly sounded. People ran for their lives to the hills nearby, but some were caught in the flood and whirled down the valley. A moment later another break occurred, this time on the east side. It was much greater than the first and permitted the bulk of the water behind it to rush in a mighty volume toward the lowlands.

Harry Davis, a locomotive engineer of this place, reached a telephone and notified the operator at the exchange. She called as many persons as possible. But the time was short. The raging flood tore down the little valley carrying death on its debris-covered crest. Hundreds of women and children, the men being away at work, were caught in their homes and drowned, or crushed before they knew what had happened. Houses went down before the mighty rush of water and gas pipes, bent and broken, released their dangerous fluid. Before the water had passed on its terrible course through the town a dozen fires were burning in as many places and the cries of injured and imprisoned persons joined in the terrible thunder of the flood.

Much of the debris lodged against the shops of the Buffalo and Susquehanna railroad and there the fire raged fiercest. Many men were caught here and it is believed that few, if any, escaped with their lives.

The course of the flood was through the business center of the little village. A majority of the buildings were of wood and those which were not immediately wrecked by the torrent were soon in flames.

So sudden was the onslaught of water that many persons had no time to flee to the hills, but others received the warning, and, believing it was fire, hastened to the center of the town, only to be caught in the flood and swept away.

The flood passed quickly, leaving desolation in its wake. Houses had been crushed and tossed about like toys, while hundreds of bodies had been carried down on the crest of the surging torrent.

With the passing of the water, these who has fled to the hills hastened to their ruined homes in search of relatives and friends. Here and there bodies had been cast up along the path of the torrent, and about 40 bodies were recovered in a short time. Some of them had been so badly battered by the tossing debris that they were beyond recognition, while others had been carried along with no apparent injury. Many were caught in burning buildings and it will be days before the real extent of the calamity will be known.

It is thought that not less than 400 persons perished and some estimates are higher.

NUTMEG TOWN ELECTIONS.

Connecticut Towns Hold Meetings Today for Election of Officials.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 2.—Almost all the towns in Connecticut hold their annual meetings today for the choice of town officials for the coming year. The occasion is usually referred to in this state as "Little Town Election Day," and in years gone by, when a presidential election was to follow, some significance attached to the way the parties lined up. In recent years the political significance of these elections has disappeared, but this year a new interest has been aroused in them by the referendum vote on two proposed amendments to the constitution, one to give the lieutenant governor larger powers in case of death or disability of the governor, and the other to the effect that "the general assembly adjourn sine die not later than the first Wednesday after the first Monday in June, following the organization." The complications following the death of Governor Lilly showed the necessity of the first of the proposed amendments, and the unusually long session of the legislature this year, out of all proportion to the results, the latter.

JEWS OBSERVE YOM KIPPUR.

Considered Most Important of All Mosaic Holy Days.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The Jewish people throughout the world today celebrate Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, the most widely observed of all the many feasts and fasts in the Hebrew calendar. This fast day is considered the most important of all the Mosaic holy days. With its observance the penitential season which began with the new year comes to an end, and the Jews then look forward with joyful anticipation to the celebration of Succoth, or the Feast of Tabernacles, the harvest festival of the ancient Israelites.

Among the orthodox Jews Yom Kippur is kept as a solemn fast, and for twenty-four hours no food or drink or nourishment of any kind is allowed to pass the lips of the pious and observing Jew. From this observance none is exempt except the sick, children under age, very old people whose health would be affected by abstention from nourishment and nursing mothers. The reformed Jews join with the orthodox in the celebration of Yom Kippur, but as a rule they do not fast, nor are the services in the reform temples continuous on the day of celebration.

COATESVILLE LYNCHING CASES.

Chief of Police of Coatesville to be Tried for Manslaughter.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 2.—The term of court which convened here today will be made memorable by the trial of the persons accused in the lynching of the negro Zach Waylor, who was burned to death by a mob at Coatesville on August 13, last, following his arrest for the murder of an officer. It is expected to commence the trials this week. In addition to those against whom a charge of murder has been made for alleged complicity in the actual lynching, the chief of police of Coatesville and one of his subordinates are to be tried on a charge of manslaughter, growing out of their alleged failure to take any steps to prevent the lynching.

To Help The Weak.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Oct. 2.—Humane treatment of children, and animals will be discussed by men and women from all parts of the country at the thirty-fifth annual convention of the American Humane Association, which meets at the St. Francis hotel for three days this week, beginning tomorrow. Among the delegates are some of the most prominent workers in the cause of child and animal protection in the world. One of the most notable features prepared for the entertainment of the visitors will be an elaborate banquet to be given in honor of the Chinese merchants of the city.

is between 400 and 500 persons. A survivor reached Austin at 10 o'clock tonight. He said that there was hardly a sign of life in Costello. Whether most of the citizens of Costello perished in the flood or have fled to the hills the man could not say. He believes, however, that two-thirds of the population are dead.

WHISKEY SHIPMENTS GROWING LESS

Forceful Address by Rev. R. L. Davis Sunday Night

INTER-STATE SHIPMENTS UNFAIR

States That Have Prohibition Should Be Allowed to Seize Shipments That Cross Its Borders—Statistics Show Great Falling Off of Amount Coming Into State.

Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of the state, preached in the Methodist church here Sunday morning, and that night addressed a large audience at a union service in the Baptist church on prohibition and the enforcement of the prohibition law of the state.

Mr. Davis said that as a preacher he was so much in the habit of taking a text that he would use one now, and his text for this address was: "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." There are two kinds of work connected with the establishment of Christ's kingdom—destructive and constructive—but now he wanted to talk on only one of these, the destruction of the works of the devil. No one was going to take issue with him in declaring that the sale of liquor and the drinking of liquor is the work of the devil. It is not the work of the Holy Spirit that induces a boy to turn the first bottle of beer or the first glass of wine to his lips—it is the work of the devil starting out to make a drunkard of that boy.

The Anti-Saloon League is the servant of the church, and is doing its work through and by the direction of the church. It is not the work of politicians or any political party, but the work of the churches united in the movement to remove the curse of liquor traffic and liquor drinking.

National legislation, law enforcement and total abstinence are three things needed to make prohibition effective. The inter-state commerce of the government is very unfair to prohibition states. Here in North Carolina we adopted prohibition by a majority of over 44,000, yet the government says that liquor may be shipped in the state. Sentiment against such unfairness is growing rapidly, and such pressure should be brought to bear upon senators and representatives in congress to correct this. It is coming very soon.

You hear it said that prohibition in North Carolina is not effective. Such statements come from people who want to drink liquor, or who are directly or indirectly interested in the sale of liquor.

Statistics have been provided by some one showing that 3,000,000 gallons of liquor were shipped into North Carolina last year. That sounds like a big lot of whiskey to come into the state, and so it is, but when you remember that previous to prohibition there were 20,000,000 gallons, it shows we have cut off 17,000,000 gallons, and that is certainly gaining ground. And as soon as we can get the interstate shipments stopped by national legislation, which is coming, you will find the other 3,000,000 gallons cut off. Before it took great freight trains to handle the liquor but now it is handled mainly through the express offices where the people see it more readily, and because they see this they think as much is coming in as ever. The figures show differently.

I am told that at a railroad station in your county several barrels of whiskey were recently put off bearing the name of (he called the name), and upon examining the records I find that the government issued license to a man of the same name in your county. You can draw your conclusions whether that man paid $25 for a government license and gets that much whiskey for his private use. Some who ship liquor into this state advertise that "Uncle Sam is in business with us."

We have laws on the books against stealing and against murder, but these laws on the books are useless unless they are enforced. The same is true as to the law against selling liquor. We have officers to execute the laws, but they can't execute the laws without the help of the people. The citizen has the solution of

OUR ANSWER TO ALL CRITICS.

And Our Appeal to The Tobacco Farmers for Their Support.

The Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company wishes to inform the tobacco farmers of Pitt and adjoining counties, that the average made on its warehouse floors at Greenville, N. C., during the month of September, was $11.84 per hundred, and that the average made on the floors of its competitors was $10.99 per hundred, which shows that for every thousand pounds sold on the Consolidated floors, the farmers received $8.50 more than the farmers who sold on the floors of its competitors based on these averages. This, of course, is not a revelation to the farmers who are aware that from year to year, the Consolidated Tobacco company has led the Greenville market in high averages, and who know from knowledge and test, that the Consolidated leads them all. These facts and figures cannot be disputed, because they are from the secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade, who is in no way interested in any warehouse on the market.

A further analysis shows the startling fact that the farmers who sold on the floors of our competitors received $10,397.79 less than they would have received at the averages made by the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco company. This gives us a just reason to feel a pride in our business, and to be conscious of the fact that we are giving the farmers the highest market price for their tobacco, and is our answer to all critics, and our appeal to the tobacco farmers for their patronage and support.

Manager Foxhall at the Star and Manager Gentry at the Gum know their business and are anxious to give all the tobacco farmers the benefit of the highest sales. Try them with your next load.

AUTOMOBILE BREAKS DOWN.

Occupants Walked Several Miles to Call Help.

On Sunday Dr. C. O'H. Laughlinhouse with Messrs. Tom Dupree and Norman Warren, with his colored chauffeur, started out to Flat Swamp in his automobile to attend the association. About eight miles from town one of the rear axles to the automobile wrung in two and dropped the car to the ground. The chauffeur stopped so quickly that no one was hurt. The party had to walk several miles to reach a telephone and send in a call to town for help. A team had to be sent out to bring in the disabled car.

Architects Meet in Rome.

ROME, Oct. 2.—The ninth international congress of architects assembled in Rome today with an attendance of eminent representatives of the profession in many countries. The American delegation, numbering nearly 150, will make an effort to secure the next convention for Washington.

West Point Educator Retires.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2.—Prof. Samuel E. Tillman, for more than thirty years an instructor at the West Point military academy, was placed on the army retired list today on account of age. Prof. Tillman is a native of Tennessee and graduated from West Point in 1869.

Carnival Week in Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 2.—Omaha is filled with visitors for the annual fall carnival, known as the Ak-Star-Ben festivities. The programme for a succession of street pageants and other festivities, including a great industrial parade to illustrate the variety of extent of Nebraska manufactures.

the problem, and it is the duty of every citizen to give the officers his moral support.

Mr. Davis spoke for about an hour and a half, and of course said much that cannot be given in this report. It was an address that put his hearers to thinking, and it ought to bear good fruit toward the enforcement in this county of the law against selling liquor.

OPENED FOR SETTLEMENT.

The Remainder of the Rosebud and Pine Ridge Reservations.

RAPID CITY, S. D., Oct. 2.—With the opening of registration today for the remainder of the Rosebud and Pine Ridge reservations Uncle Sam started the ball rolling in one of the largest land lotteries he has ever conducted. A total of 466,562 acres is thrown open to settlement, comprising some of the finest agricultural and grazing lands in South Dakota.

The registration is being conducted at the land offices in Gregory, Chamberlain, Dallas and Rapid City. The applicant is required to appear personally at one of the registration points and swear before a notary public to his qualification to take a homestead. The sealed affidavits will be mailed to Judge Witten at Gregory, where the drawing will commence on October 24. On that day the metal cans containing the sealed envelopes will be dumped on a large platform at Gregory. A child will be selected to go on the platform and pick up the envelopes one by one. The first envelope will be numbered "one" and the person who filed it will have the privilege of making the first selection from all the lands subject to entry and may choose for his homestead the finest level farming land at $6 an acre or the roughest grazing land at 25 cents an acre. The second envelope will be numbered "two," and so on until the number of 160-acre tracts is exhausted.

To Show How New York is Run.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Visitors to New York's second budget exposition, which opened today and will continue until the end of the month, may learn from the numerous charts and illustrations many interesting things concerning the metropolis. For instance, the figures show that in New York City there is a birth every four minutes, a death every seven minutes, and a marriage every eleven minutes. Moving pictures illustrate the work of the various city departments and show how is spent the immense sum of $174,000,000 that is required to run the city for one year.

North Dakota Rate Cases.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 2.—Master in Chancery R. D. Hoskins today began the hearing in the revived North Dakota coal rates cases. The cases involve lignite coal rates in North Dakota. In the previous litigation the United States Supreme court decided adversely to the railroads, but at the same time ruled that the cases might be reopened if the rates should be found confiscatory. The present hearing results from an application of the Sco road, which asked for a reopening of the case.

Taft in Nebraska Capital.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 2.—A reception committee headed by former Senator Burkett met President Taft upon his arrival here from Omaha this morning and escorted him to the Lincoln Hotel, where the distinguished visitor was entertained at dinner by the Omaha Commercial club. Following the dinner the president delivered a speech at the auditorium. Governor Aldrich presided at the meeting.

California Labor Federation.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 2.—Bakersfield was today the mecca for representatives of organized labor throughout California on the occasion of the opening of the twelfth annual convention of the State Federation of Labor. Discussion of the McNamara defense and other subjects of interest to the labor world will keep the delegates busy until the end of the week.

Banquet at Hastings.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 2.—Hastings has put on her best bib and tucker in honor of President Taft, who is scheduled for a four-hour visit here this evening. Five hundred guests, among them many of the most prominent men of Nebraska, have been invited to attend the banquet in Fraternity hall, which is to be the chief feature of the programme.

Choctaws to Wind Up Tribe.

TUSKAHOMA, Okla., Oct. 2.—A special session of the Chickasaw and Choctaw Council assembled here today to make recommendations as to the disposition of tribal property and to wind up the affairs of the tribe. The disposition of the segregated land presents a complicated problem, owing to the valuable mineral deposits.

A BAD RUNAWAY SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Five Men, Three Horses, and Two Vehicles Involved

TWO OF THE MEN BADLY BRUISED

One Horse Permanently Injured And Buggy Splintered—Almost Miraculous That No One Was Killed.

On Sunday Messrs. O. F. Clark, D. C. Beach, W. W. Martin and Howard Barnhill, went out to the association at Flat Swamp. They drove a pair of horses to a double-seated open surrey. Late in the afternoon as they were on the return home they stopped to get water. Messrs. Beach and Martin got out of the vehicle and went to the well near by. Mr. Clark, who was driving, also got out and was standing between the wheels holding the reins. Mr. Barnhill remaining on the rear seat of the surrey.

Without any warning whatever, and with apparently nothing to frighten them, the horses jumped. Mr. Clark, standing between the wheels, was knocked down by the rear axle and was dragged some distance by the reins before he would turn them loose. When the horses had run about half a mile Mr. Barnhill jumped out. The others left behind started running after the horses. They came up with Mr. Barnhill where he had jumped out of the surrey, and while he was badly bruised he was able to join them in following the horses.

A little over a mile from where the horses started they came up with three horses, two vehicles and a man mixed up in a heap together in a ditch by the road side. The runaway team had run down Mr. Cornelius Barnhill who was riding along by himself, smashed his buggy almost into kindling wood, caught his horse on the pole of the surrey between them, and the three horses rolled over in the ditch together. Mr. Barnhill was caught under one of the vehicles, but fortunately escaped with no worse injury than some severe bruises. Two of the horses were injured, one so badly as to permanently disable him.

They all set to work to clear the tangle and managed to get the surrey patched up so that with the aid of Mr. Barnhill's horse the young men could come on to town in a walk.

It is almost miraculous that somebody was not killed in the runaway. Some other vehicles along the road at the time came near being run over, but escaped by turning out of the way of the running team.

Some people have to leave a community sometimes because they do not fit the environments, but you do not hear of many voluntarily leaving North Carolina these days.

Air routes seem to have as many side track obstacles to continuous travel as do the surface roads, and when it comes to jumping the track there is no comparison.

The Raleigh News and Observer of Sunday was an edition containing forty-four pages. It was a Richmond booster and carried twenty-one pages of advertising for business men of that city.

Not a few men have grown rich out of the sale of liquor, but it is wealth gained in a barter of character, manhood, virtue and human souls. And such men will have much to answer for in the next world where their wealth here will do them no good.

The horrible disaster that occurred at Coudersport, Pa., Saturday afternoon, in which eight hundred lives were lost by the breaking of a dam, recalls a similar calamity at Johnstown in the same state in 1889, when several thousand perished.

Here's hoping Wilmington will set a good example by seeing her army of blind tigers get the full limit on the roads. It is going to take punishment to break up whiskey selling, as a little fine and costs or suspension of judgment on payment of costs will not do it.

Of course it was hardly expected that President Taft could complete his journey without somebody starting a story of an attempt to assassinate him, so the reported finding of a bomb in Kansas that was intended for the president can be passed along for what it is worth.

It matters not what may be the personal feeling of officers toward a law, it is their duty to do their utmost to enforce the law. And when they absent themselves from a meeting in the interest of law enforcement, it is very noticeable and shows that they care very little for information that would help them in the performance of a sworn duty.

Insanity Plea For William Lee.

BOONEVILLE, Ind., Oct. 2.—William Lee, the confessed murderer of his parents and brother, was brought here from the state reformatory at Jeffersonville and arraigned for trial today in the Warrick circuit court. It is anticipated that counsel for the defense will make an insanity plea in an effort to save him from the death sentence. The triple murder occurred at the Lee homestead near here early last August. According to the alleged confession of the young man he committed the crime to obtain money with which to marry and set up a home.

Stop Nagging.

Other than just to be nagging because they don't like them, or rather their candidacies, we can't understand why some papers keep on gibing Governor Kitchin and Chief Justice Clark for not resigning from office because they are candidates for the senatorship. Just as long as they attend to the business of their respective high positions we don't see why they should resign. So far as we have been able to see they are filling the duties as imposed upon them not by a few people, and not by any body of men, but by a majority of the voters of North Carolina. It is time enough to call upon either to resign his position or give up his candidacy when he neglects his duties; otherwise it comes with poor grace to keep on prodding them, evidently for want of argument against them. We are certain such nagging does not count with the fair minded. The people elected them to fill a full term of office and want them to do so just as long as they are making faithful returns, which both appear to be doing. But that should not stifle the desire or the right of either one to aspire to the senatorship.—Wilmington Dispatch.

From The Experience of Greenville People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Greenville residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had. Mrs. Jane L. Godwin, 416 Dickinson avenue, Greenville, N. C., says: "I feel justified in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in return for the benefit I received from them. For a long time my back ached and I had dizzy spells and headaches. The kidney secretions also annoyed me and I had pains through my loins. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from the John L. Wooten Drug Company, and their use as directed relieved me. I can now rest much better at night and my condition has improved in every way."

The Cook's Basket.

It is unpardonable that this city should at the present time be filled with the idle negro men, while in the country farmers are finding it difficult to get enough hands to pick their cotton. How do these blacks live? As they have done ever since the war, by having "their women" bring them food from the tables of the whites. The cook's basket has become an institution in this city and in the South generally, and every cook's basket means or most of them do, that there is a lazy man sitting at home waiting for the female part of the company to supply him with necessities. The flood of blacks into this city means that the cook's baskets have been overfull since the storm, as so many housekeepers know to their cost. This explains the loafers in front of negro dives and the black look of the streets.

This is no time and there is no place for the black parasite. The vagrancy laws should be rigidly enforced at this particular period. Country negroes who have flocked here and are without work should be sent out of town, or put to work on the roads. And the housekeepers of this town should begin a necessary reform. They should make an agreement among themselves to prevent the carrying home by cooks of food. The economic drain is too much for any community to stand. Why should every kitchen that is presided over by a negro become the source of food supply for one or more lazy negro men? The evil should be stopped.—Charleston News and Courier.

Waiting.

The cost of living won't be high
When pigs in aeroplanes shall fly;
When things you need drop from the sky

No trust will dare extort;
When water is no longer wet,
When every man is out of debt,
By that time surely we will get
The Tariff Board report.

When lambs in Wall street safely walk

When mules quit kicking and won't balk

When Bryan shall refuse to talk.

When sermons are cut short.
When nightingales refuse to sing,
When Taft's at home, not on the wing,
Perhaps some one to him will bring
That Tariff Board report.

When Uncle Joe shall plainly state
That he is not a candidate,
When nations all shall arbitrate—
Abolish every fort.

When no divorcee dares to wed,
When white is black and black is red,
We ought to get, if we're not dead,
That Tariff Board report.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Pick Ups and Hand-me-Downs.

County commissioners met today.
Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. and
A. M. meets tonight.

Many town people went over to Flat Swamp Sunday to attend the association.

Help us make October a good month.

The openings come tomorrow.
October marks the beginning of meetings of the social clubs for fall and winter.

October made a pretty start in the way of weather.

At the Sunday morning service in the Baptist church two members were received by letter.

Amount of Cotton Ginned.

The government report on the cot-

up to September 25th, places the number of bales at 3,663,000.

MY GREATEST LESSON.

Having gone out into the world to obtain knowledge, I gather many important lessons. My text-books contain lessons which will be of great importance in life, which will assist in every undertaking, although I cannot appreciate these lessons and their value as I should. I know the greatest lesson which has come to me is not contained in my studies.

In this world where man must equip himself for the different duties and tasks, he cannot always be with his loved ones and enjoy every pleasure.

This world, as is it were, only a prep school, a preparation for the happy life to come.

Then, the greatest lesson that be-fronts us is the performance of Divine duty, whereby we can live together forever with the dear ones.

A FAKE STORY.

Causes Some Excitement Sunday Afternoon.

Some young men Sunday afternoon,
as a joke on another young man, told him that an automobile had run off the river bridge. They started in a run for the bridge, and the young man who was the victim of the joke spread the story as he went. The result was that some half hundred people, several ladies among them, went hurrying to the bridge, and finding it was all a joke they were mad enough to thrash somebody if they had just known who to thrash.

Revival at Christian Church.

Mr. H. C. Boblitt, minister of the Christian church, Rocky Mount, N. C., will arrive in the city this evening at 6:32 o'clock to begin a series of evangelistic services at the Christian church. Mr. Boblitt is quite experienced in evangelistic work and has already held some very successful meetings in this state, and his coming here has been looked forward to with much interest. The first service will be this evening at 7:45
p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Some Experience.

"Pshaw!" scornfully ejaculated the fond mother. "What do you know about babies?" "Very little," humbly acknowledged the bachelor who had ventured an opinion, "except that some years ago I had considerable practice
at being one."—Puck

THE HAPPENINGS AROUND WINTERVILLE

PERSONAL AND BUSINESS NOTES.

A Day or Two Late, But Newsy, Just
The Same.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Oct. 2.—
Mr. J. D. Cox returned to Fairmont
last week after spending a few days with his better-half at home.

Harrington, Barber and Company's pant department is complete now and they will take pleasure in showing you through and save you some money
in making your purchases.

Rev. W. E. Cox of Wilmington, spent
Wednesday night with his mother, Mrs. E. E. Cox.

The Union Mercantile Co. carries
a line of Capital and Legear stock food. When in need of something that is good for your stock see them.

Miss Vivian Roberson left Friday evening for Robersonville to spend Sunday.

Harrington, Barber and Company have the latest styles in men's and boy's hats for fall and winter and you will do well to see them before you buy.

Mr. Harvey A. Cox returned home Wednesday from Winston-Salem. He will spend a while at home.

Don't forget that we are your friends, brother farmer, and that we have bought a lot of extra good shoes
for both Sunday and everyday wear,
we can fit up your whole family. Come to see us, brother.

UNION MERCANTILE CO.

Quite a lot of W. H. S. girls left Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday at home.

The cheapest and best line of rugs
ever brought to this town are on display at Harrington, Barber and Co's store. Come and make your selection while they last.

Mr. J. S. Ross, Ayden's clever insurance man, was in our town Friday.

When in need of underwear, neck
wear, hosiery, toilet powder, etc., etc.,
The Union Mercantile Co. will be glad to fix you up.

One of our young men complains
every Monday of his eyes being sore.
You all can guess the reason.

You can get your salt cheap now at Harrington, Barber and Co's store.
They have unloaded a car and in order to move same quick, will sell cheap.

Our Winterville correspondent fall-

ed to send in a letter Saturday as usual. He was out of place. Guess he was out squirrel hunting.

Mr. Roy T. Cox and nineteen others from here attended the Flat Swamp Association Sunday.

Mr. J. A. Jarrell, of Grifton, was in town Sunday.

Mr. Grover Manning has accepted
the bookkeeper's place with the Pitt County Oil Co.

Rev. M. A. Adams filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning and at night. At the night service several made a confession of religion.

We realize the most valuable asset
of a bank is that of public confidence,

If you are not a depositor, call and let us talk the matter over with you.
Bank of Winterville.

Bishop Strange held services at the Episcopal church yesterday evening and administered the right of confirmation to three young ladies.

A car load of salt just arrived at
A. W. Ange and Co's.

Mr. Elma Worthington and Miss Beulah Mumford, of Ayden, were pleasant visitors in our town yesterday.

See the ladies' and children's cloaks
at A. W. Ange and Co's. They are cheap.

Mrs. Levy Holliday, of Grimesland, is spending a few days with Mrs. B.
W. Tucker.

A nice line of hats at A. W. Ange and Co's.

The correspondent to the Pitt County News and Miss Esther Johnson were visitors in the country yesterday evening.

A Great Collection.

More than maintaining its high standard for exclusive articles of deep interest, the Magazine Section of next Sunday's New York World will contain "Advice of Mary Garden to New York Girls Abroad," "My Adventure
With Stolypin's Assassin," by Col.
James Persitz, of the Russian Secret
Police, "Discarded American Battleships,"
"New York Mansions, etc.,
'carved' to Fit Streets," "The American Girl Who Married a Duke and is Happy," also the words and music of "Little Fif," a new song hit, etc., etc.
Don't fail to order the Sunday World
in advance.

by hanging around the post office.

NORTH CAROLINA HAPPENINGS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Stated for The Reflectors
Busy Readers.

WILMINGTON.—Just before making its final report for the term, the grand jury tonight returned two indictments against six local fish dealers charging them with violating the anti-trust law of the state. One indictment alleges that on July 2, last,
the dealers entered into an agreement with each other not to buy fish in the city from fishermen and others selling fish, the intention being to prevent competition in buying fish;
that they did conspire or agree with each other with intent to injure another or other persons to put down and keep down the price of fish produced in the state by the labor of others.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner announces the retirement of A. J. Barwick as chief clerk in the department of education and secretary of the state board of examiners to take up the practice of law in Newton and the appointment of E. E. Sams, now superintendent of the Fitzgerald, Ga., city schools, in his stead. Mr. Sams is to take up the work as soon as the Fitzgerald board can supply the superintendency of the schools. He is a native of Madison county, a state University man and was superintendent of the schools at Marion and Franklinton before going to Georgia.

HICKORY.—A mysterious disease
has just come to light in this city.
Hobson Sigman, young son of Mrs. A.
Y. Singman, had been suffering from a severe headache for several days, and could find no relief. He chanced to place his hand on the side of his head a few days ago and discovered that a large place seemed to be perfectly soft. Dr. Mezzines was called in and found that the bone had been eaten away in a considerable portion of his skull. The young man was sent to the hospital, where an operation was performed, but it is learned that this afforded no relief and that he is suffering intensely.

WILMINGTON.—Special Policeman
Alex. A. Nelms was arrested yesterday afternoon in a capias from the Superior court, following the return by the grand jury of a true bill against him for murder of Frang Davis, colored, whom he shot July 29th, last.

The shooting was investigated the day after it occurred by the coronor's jury and he was exonerated and a day or two later by the grand jury, and not a true bill returned. Therefore the action of the present jury occasioned no small amount of surprise.

Is The World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gold, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully. They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50 cents at all druggists."

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. W. Loughby, of Marengo Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Hobble Skit Dangers.

No one would have thought of a protest against hobble skirts from a cold and soulless corporation, but the fact remains that after having been compelled to pay damages for accidents at least one railroad is vigorous in its views on high heels and hobble skirts. An exchange says:

"The Pennsylvania railroad, groaning under the burden of compensations and compromises for accidents to women getting on or off their trains deploras the fate that fashion has imposed upon them thus to pay accident tolls to the confined skirt wearers and they of the French heel.

"This great railroad avers that even in their prize station in New York where the stairways are designed to minimize the possibility of such accidents, women fall victims to the high heels and hobbles. So that it is not merely a levitous matter for the scoffing standing by when the wearer of a hobble seeks to mount the station stairs or to mount the steps of a train. Every such performance brings trepidation to the hearts of the railroad managements, for in every one is a possible accident, with damages which cannot be avoided by placing the blame upon the style of skirts and shoes worn by the ladies, because the law of femine fashion is the highest law of the land."—Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.

Brief Extracts From Strong TESTIMONIALS

Mr. C. T. Berkdale, P. M., at Danville for many years, writes: My aches suffered for many years with uric acid rheumatism. I regard her as being entirely relieved.
She took six bottles of Milam with the happiest results.
Mr. R. L. Wallace, of Charleston, West Va., writes: I have been a sufferer from Catarrh for twenty years when I decided to take Milam. I bought three bottles and am now on my fourth. My catarrh is entirely gone and I have not felt so well in years.
C. H. Williams, Salesman for Cluett-Perbody & Co., Huntington, W. Va., says: You can keep your money. My face is entirely well. Am finishing my sixth bottle of Milam and think after 56 years of eczema am cured.
Rev. D. P. Tate, a Methodist Minister, of Danville, Va., writes: I took six bottles of your Milam which proved of incalculable benefit to me.

Mr. Green Williams, Manager Crystal Ice and Power Co., Danville, Va., Ex-Chief of Police, writes: For the past five years, following an attack of erysipilis my foot and ankle inflamed for several months at the same time every year. Last year, when the symptoms began to appear, I took some of your Milam and was entirely relieved. No return of the trouble since.
Mr. W. E. Crigg, Sec'y & Treas. Westhoke Elevator Co., former Cashier Bank of Danville, writes: About two years ago my eyeght began to fail. I consulted several specialists with no relief until about two years ago, was advised nothing else could be done. I consented to take Milam—did not think it could hurt me. About six weeks noticed improvement which has been steady ever since. No trouble in attending to my duties as executive of a large corporation.
