LAKES TO THE GULF DEEP WATERWAY

ANNUAL CONVENTION IN CHICAGO

Several States Represented by Governors and Other Prominent Men.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 11.—Prepared to renew its fight for a stupendous inland waterway system from Lake Michigan through the Mississippi river to the Gulf of Mexico, the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway Association will begin its sixth annual congress in Chicago tomorrow with what promises to be a record-breaking attendance. Secretary Thomas H. Lovelace of the association is in receipt of advices indicating that nearly 10,000 delegates and visitors will attend the gathering. Every state in the Mississippi Valley and most of the middle western states, it is announced, will be represented by large delegations, including governors and other state officials and committees representing the legislature, aside from the representatives of numerous commercial and industrial organizations which have committed themselves in favor of the great waterway project.

Western and northwestern states touching navigable tributaries of the Mississippi also will be well represented. The gulf states and the southwest, including Texas and Oklahoma, have shown a marked increase of interest in the project. Among the governors who have promised to attend the congress are John Burke, of North Dakota, Charles S. Osborn, of Michigan, Chester H. Aldrich, of Nebraska, Joseph H. Carey, of Wyoming, E. F. Noel, of Mississippi, Augustus E. Wilson, of Kentucky, C. L. Blease, of South Carolina, B. F. Carroll, of Iowa, Emmett O'Neal, of Alabama, J. Y. Sanders, of Louisiana, Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri, and Charles S. Deneen, of Illinois. A special invitation has been extended to Canada to participate in the congress and it is expected that several public officials of the Dominion and some of the commercial organizations will be represented.

At the initial session to be held in the auditorium tomorrow the opening address will be delivered by W. K. Kavanaugh, of St. Louis, the president of the congress. Among other notable speakers to be heard during three days' sessions are Secretary of the Interior W. L. Fisher, former Governor David P. Francis, of Missouri, Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, Congressman Underwood, of Alabama, former Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, Congressman Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, and O. P. Austin, chief of the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

The most important work of the meeting will hinge on resolutions and committee appointments, and it is proposed to organize an executive committee which cannot fail to command the attention of congress in the matter of deep waterways. The lakes-to-the-gulf project is the largest and most important scheme for an inland waterway that has ever been proposed in this country and would benefit directly more than one-third of the states of the union. An initial minimum of 14 feet depth is advocated for the Mississippi river and its tributaries with an indorsed desire for a final depth of 24 feet. The association wishes to furnish the central part of the United States with a waterway which will enable the movement of the largest freight and passenger vessels to serve the expense from the Rocky Mountains to the Alleghenies, 2,765,000 square miles. The region is among the most productive in the world, and, with water transportation to compete with rail, it will have the advantage of unequalled facilities. The Illinois and Mississippi rivers will be the main arteries of the proposed system, with the tributaries as laterals. In general, the plans provide for a great system of waterways to connect all interior states, with outlets on the great lakes and the Gulf of Mexico.

Overheard in Venice.

"Isn't it romantic, John, dear," said she, as they sat in the little Venetian garden, "to sit here and listen to these Italian troubadours singing their ballads bathed in the moonlight."

"Yes, dear," replied John with a deep drawn sigh. "But I sometimes wish they'd bathe in something besides moonlight, don't you? It might be less romantic, but it would be a darn sight more hygienic.—Harper's Weekly.

NEWS NOTES FROM STATE UNIVERSITY

WINS FIRST GAME OF SEASON.

Anniversary of Laying of Corner Stone to be Celebrated.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 10.—The formal inauguration of the student's council, the executive head of the system of student self-government in vogue at the University, took place last Thursday in Gerrard hall. President Venable made a short address in which he told of the necessity that in 1892 caused the students of their own accord to establish a system of self-government; of the slow growth and development of the system then established through years of trying vicissitudes till now it has come to be looked upon as a necessary part of life at the University; and finally, of the manner in which the council works in co-operation with the faculty. He then introduced the following men who will form the council for the year: R. A. Freeman, president of the senior class; O. Huffman, president of the junior class; C. E. Blackstock, president of the sophomore class; Richard Allison, president of the second year medical class; A. C. Webb, president of the pharmacy class; Cyrus Hogue, representative from the law class; C. E. Teague, representative from the senior class; and R. M. Hanes, '12 representative from the student body at large.

Next Thursday is a holiday commemorating the 118th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the University. The birthday of the state's educational plant will be fittingly observed. Exercises will be held in Memorial hall, many alumni and friends will visit the University and alumni associations all over the country will hold reunions. Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, once professor of English at the University, and now a teacher at the University of Virginia, who has won such distinguished fame in Germany where he spent a year as Roosevelt professor, will deliver the address of the occasion. A report of the condition of the University will be made by President Venable, and short addresses will be made by representatives from the academic and professional schools.

The University defeated Wake Forest College in the first game of the season last Saturday by the score of 12 to 3. The game was a fierce battle from start to finish and the University team was taxed to its limit to defeat its rival. Captain Winston and Will Tillet played great ball for Carolina; Utley and Joyner starred for Wake Forest. A large crowd saw the game, about two hundred Wake Forest students coming over in a special to cheer their team.

GREENVILLE LEADS.

In Pounds As Well As In Prices Of Tobacco.

The Reflector has all along been telling the public that Greenville had the best tobacco market in the state. If any further proof is wanted it is given in the following item taken from the report of the department of agriculture:

Raleigh, Oct. 10.—According to statistics gathered by the department of agriculture and made public today, 12,328,637 pounds of leaf tobacco were sold on the various markets in North Carolina during the month of September. Greenville heads the list with over two million pounds, Kinston is a close second and Wilson comes third, these three markets being in a class with more than a million pounds sold.

Circus Music.

The most entertaining feature in an otherwise perfect and most praiseworthy circus program is the continuous excellent melody throughout the entire performance by the big John Robinson shows band of thirty soloists, at each and every exhibition, while the audience is being seated, this famous coterie of instrumentalists will be heard in a concert program of half an hour's duration that cannot be surpassed for exquisite and harmonious melody. This musical feature is quite in keeping with the strong circus acts that follow.

The big shows come here Thursday, October 19.

A woman has done a big days' shopping when she has spent a tenth as much on it as on her car fare and luncheon.

JOHNNY J. JONES CARNIVAL NEXT WEEK

ENGAGEMENT FOR GREENVILLE.

The Great Exposition Shows With Many Startling Attractions.

The Johnny J. Jones Exposition Shows will exhibit here the week of Oct. 16th, with a constellation of new top notch sensations, features, acts and novelties. All brand new for the return engagement to our city. Nothing better in the way of high class and refined tented amusements will appear here this season. Grand galaxy of the greatest trained wild animals in the world today. The JOHNNY J. JONES SHOWS are regarded everywhere as the acme of success, honesty, reliability and respectability. The exposition shows are larger and better than ever before and need no introduction. The feature attraction is the wild animal show—without a doubt the best on tour today. In the out pouring of breath arresting events none is more wonderful than the performance of a groupe of lions, tigers, leopards, pumas, jaguars, polar and brown bears, introduced by the youngest and most successful of all animal trainers, Master Charles Huston. Zoologists of note have contended for years that it was an impossibility to subdue these monsters of the jungles, let alone instruct them. The fallacy of such a conclusion is readily apparent by the presentation of a group of these jungle terrors, fearful in aspect, in what is universally admitted to be the most remarkable animal act in the world today. No hasty choice of words is adequate to accurately describe their performance. Truthfully it may be said that they do everything but talk. Without noticeable suggestion from their trainer, these huge beasts assemble in imposing pyramids, the most thrilling and awe-inspiring spectacle ever seen. The shows are, all new and peedless, to say, clean, moral and instructive. The aggregation is composed of 12 high class attractions, two of the most thrilling sensational free acts in the country and two brass bands, including the famous Royal Italian Band, without doubt, the best musical organization in this country today.

The sensational free acts will be given on the grounds daily at 3 and 8:30 p. m. Royal Band concerts every afternoon and evening on the public square.

TO CUT IT OUT.

Anti-Saloon League Trying to Stop Shipments of Booze.

The Anti-Saloon League of America has issued a call for a national conference to meet in Washington in December to be in session from the 12th through the 14th, for the purpose of taking steps to secure congressional legislation to regulate or to prohibit interstate traffic in liquors. The "call" issued by the league has been signed by a long list of influential men throughout America, the signers being especially numerous from eight prohibition States of the Union.

It has been found in the prohibition territory that the greatest obstacle to the enforcement of the State law prohibiting the sale of whiskey has been the looseness of the interstate traffic laws, which allow the shipping of any quantity of booze into the dry territory and making the State powerless to prevent this. The name of Governor W. W. Kitchin heads the list favoring the conference and among the other North Carolina signers are T. W. Bickett, attorney-general, J. Y. Joyner, superintendent of education, R. B. Glenn, ex governor, F. P. Venerable, president of the State University, L. L. Hobbs, president of Guilford College, Henry Louis Smith, president of Davidson College, W. C. Newland, lieutenant-governor, and Walter Clark, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

The leaders of the great temperance movement believe that in this move lies great power for good in doing away with much of the evil of the sale of whiskey in dry States and local option sections where the saloons are not allowed to exist. The league urges all temperance societies and other organizations to send representatives to the conference.—Greensboro Record.

TUESDAY NIGHT'S REVIVAL SERVICES

CONTINUES WITH MUCH INTEREST

Subject Tonight, "What Is In Thy Hand."

Last night at the Christian church another good-sized crowd assembled to hear Mr. Boblitt and participate in the worship of the hour. The interest of the occasion was increased by the presence of Mr. R. V. Hope, minister of the Christian church at Washington, N. C. He conducted the devotional services. Miss Vernessa Smith sang a beautiful solo which added materially to the edifying strength of the service. The evangelist's subject was the very practical one "Carry your corner." The text was Mk. 2:3. The typical oriental scene of the "palsied man borne of four" on the pallet, for whom an opening has to be made in the roof that he might be gotten to Christ and healed, the crowd being so large and unyielding within and about the house, that they must take this unusual measure to reach Christ, was described well by the preacher. He said that one of the greatest things about the incident was the calling forth of Christ's sympathy. Pain and sorrow are universal, and Christ manifested universal sympathy toward it all. After these preliminary remarks Mr. Boblitt said that this miracle plainly teaches us the power of co-operation. Each one of the four that bore the palsied man had his corner to carry. There must of necessity be miserable failures in the home and in the church if there is not the right co-operation. Each member of the family must realize and meet his or her obligations, and emphatically the same in the church. A pastor may have all the virtues of John, Peter, and Paul rolled into one, but without the adequate co-operation of supporters, he will inevitably fail. And this co-operation must be in Christ, for He said "Come, and I will make you fishers of men," and He said to His fishermen—disciples when they had toiled all night without results, "Launch Out," and when they did so in faith, casting their nets, they were amazed at their success. We should envy no man of his corner, for God is just, and we should be intimately concerned in carrying our own corner well. The speaker cited an instance of a riot in Pittsburg when a few score soldiers held in check effectually a mob of 4,000, not because they were better armed, or more courageous, but because they were disciplined and orderly under an efficient captain. And all workers in their co-operation must travel in the same direction to a common good. How often is the contrary seen when one pulls one way, and one another way. The corners should be carried cheerfully, steadily, bravely and prayerfully. There are three classes of church members—workers, shirkers and jerkers. There are workers in all the churches of North Carolina, and there are shirkers who are willing that others do their church-going, church work and praying, and singing, and even the paying sometimes. There are also the jerkers who will work just all right for two weeks in a year, and will rest the other fifty. When you think they are becoming useful they fade away into idleness toward the great work of the church. In conclusion it was positively declared that the secret of power is prayer.

The Reflector loves to talk about its town folks, to print news items about them, but it is impossible to find out all unless some are told us. This is not said just to fill up space. Portland Welcomes Taft.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 11.—With a liberal display of flags and bunting, Portland is in readiness to extend a suitable welcome to President Taft, who arrives here early this evening and will remain until after midnight, when he will depart for the South. The local programme has for its chief features an automobile parade through the business section of the city, an informal dinner at the Portland Commercial club, and a public address at the armory.

MORNING TALK AT TRAINING SCHOOL

BY PRES. ROBERT H. WRIGHT.

Further Advice to Those Preparing Themselves to Teach.

I spent the morning hours last week stating our problem. From what I have said you see the State has established this school and is maintaining it to help you. Yes, but it is to help you to prepare yourselves to do a definite work that in its turn will help the State through the training you give the children in our schools. Your stay here is intended as a period of self-improvement along all lines that will help you to become the most efficient teachers possible. What then, should be your attitude toward the school? Should it be selfish? Should you assume that all we do is for your individual advancement, your individual happiness, your individual prosperity along all lines that tend to develop successful teachers? In other words, to use a quotation, should you be a "wretch centered all in self"? Granting the purpose of your stay here is a selfish one, you cannot benefit it by taking the highway of selfishness. The street to efficiency in teaching must be paved with deeds of helpfulness to others. Service for others alone will develop within you the spirit of the true teacher. Let the motto of this school, "To Serve", sink deep into your hearts and become a real factor in your lives. But you may say, There is nothing I can do except work for myself. If your school, when you begin to teach becomes a success you must love your school. If your school, while you are a student, becomes a success you must love your school and work for it.

We need your help, your love and your encouragement. Don't let any occasion pass without saying a good word for your school. I have received many letters saying: "Miss — is so enthusiastic about the Training School that I have decided to send my daughter there." Miss — is interested in the school. Take an active interest in everything the school undertakes for your good. Get up enthusiasm for all kinds of school activities. Come to me and talk anything you and your school-mates are interested in. Come to me with it, for I am held responsible for the entire policy of the school. You will find that I am always willing to listen and if I do not agree with you, I am willing to tell you my reasons. I take it that you are young women with ideas that are worth considering. I do not believe in that war that often exists between students and the head of educational institutions. I believe in a hearty co-operation of the student body as well as the co-operation of officers and teachers. We have no secrets in this school; our policies are all open to you and the reasons for these policies are yours if you want them. Co-operation will make us the greatest school for you in the country.

Pear Tree Blooms Twice.

On the place of J. McCox, Jr. near Cox Mill, is a small pear tree that has budded, leaved and blossomed twice this year. The spring crop of leaves and blossoms came along in due season and shedded off some weeks ago. Now the tree is again full of new leaves and blossoms.

GOOD ROADS IN THE SOUTH

LESSONS IN ROAD BUILDING.

The Atlantic Coast Line to Operate a Good Roads Train.

The Atlantic Coast Line will handle the National Good Roads train over its system, starting out from Richmond, November 23rd. This train will consist of two coaches, one of which will contain models, operated by electricity, of road working machinery of various characters, and forms of various kinds of good roads. These will be displayed in an attractive way, and open to the public. The other coach will be equipped for lectures and stereopticon views. A private car will accompany the train for the accommodation of the lecturers.

Two government road engineers, and a representative of the American association for highway improvement, will accompany the train, as will also a representative of the Atlantic Coast Line.

The train will make from one to two stops in each county in the states of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama, through which the Atlantic Coast Line runs. Free demonstrations and stereopticon lectures will be given at each stop.

The object of this train, is to stimulate highway improvements, and give practical instructions in the building and maintenance of improved roads, with a view of reducing the cost of farmers in the moving of their crops to the railroads.

The public are invited to co-operate in every way, and to attend these conferences.

Notice of the itinerary of this train will be published in this paper later.

CAROLINA CLUB.

By a vote of almost two to one, or to be exact, 25 to 14, Carolina club at a meeting held Tuesday night to consider the question, voted down the proposition to place individual lockers in the club rooms. The matter had been agitated some days and after its defeat by so large a vote the club almost at once took a turn for new activity and increased interest. It was followed by discussions and interesting talks, in which many members took part, as to the best means of adding more members to the club and enlarging its usefulness. A commercial spirit was also awakened looking to better organization among the business men of the town for the purpose of bringing trade here, the establishing of more enterprises, and the provision of better accommodations and conveniences for those who visit the town. Something that doubtless would have done every business man in town good to hear, was the discussion of the lack of activity and co-operation and the want of hotel accommodations, by which much is lost to the town.

A large committee was appointed to make an early canvass among the business men of the town who are withholding their support, with a view of inducing them to become members of the club and unite with it in helping to advance the interests of the community. In addition to this soliciting committee, another committee was appointed to prepare a circular letter to the business men of the town calling attention to the need of the town and their duty to join with the club in helping to promote the welfare of the town.

It is certainly the duty of every business man in the town to do this, and the solicitation of the committees should meet an early response. Greenville is now at that stage when an united effort is needed to make the town go forward, and new life and enthusiasm in Carolina club can be made a great factor in this. The club has been of too great service to the town in the past for it to be allowed to go out of existence. The men of the town should rally to it and through it make things come to pass in Greenville.

A business man whose home is in Illinois was in Greenville Tuesday. He got off the train at Farmville and drove through the country from there. Talking to the Reflector he said the beautiful farming land he saw on this trip gave him a strong desire to come to this section and engage in farming. More people would feel just as he did if they could see and know what we have. One thing he did not like, however, was our country roads. If we would build good roads and advertise our country it would be no hard job to get people to locate among us.

Notwithstanding the fact that the people of Coatsville, Pa., in August lynched a negro for a crime, another of that race a few days ago attempted criminal assault upon a white girl of that community. The town was again aroused to intense excitement, and doubtless all that prevented another lynching was failure to find the guilty party.

Up in Guilford and Mecklenburg counties they are finding macadam roads a failure. They are all right for a few years then become so badly cut they can hardly be repaired. We believe sand-clay roads are the kind to build. They can be constructed much cheaper, are easier to keep in repair and will last longer.

The governing board and committees of Pitt County Fair Association will meet here on the 13th. At this meeting probably all arrangements for the fair to be held November 2 and 3 will be completed. There is every indication that the fair is going to a good one.

President Taft has expressed the opinion that the Panama canal will be completed and the first ships pass through it in 1913. We hope his prediction is correct.

Carolina club did the right thing in killing the proposition to put in lockers. Now let the club have the support of the people in doing something for the town.

CURED TO STAY CURED

How a Greenville Citizen Found Complete Freedom.

If you suffer from backache—
From urinary disorders—
From any disease of the kidneys,
Be cured and stay cured.
Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.

Greenville people testify.
Here's one case of it:
James Hardison, 411 Fifth street, Greenville, N. C., says, "I had trouble from my kidneys and the kidney secretions passed too frequently at night. In the morning when I got up, there was a lameness across my loins and I also suffered from backache. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured from the John L. Wooten Drug Co., relieved all these symptoms of kidney complaint and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. At the present time I am free from backache and I have no hesitation in giving Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for bringing about this change." (Statement given January 14, 1908).

No More Trouble.

On December 17, 1910, Mr. Hardison said: "I take pleasure in confirming my former statement in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy made a permanent cure in my case and during the past two and a half years I have had no need of a kidney medicine."

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

To a Deep-Sea Flower.

O, deep ocean's cumbent wave
O, dark the will beneath!
Yet thou didst live and thou didst thrive
And thou didst wait thy earth
And, dying, thou didst rise to give
A newer, finer breath.
Didst rise at word no man hath heard
To finer, final breath.

As if it were a little thing
To dwell beneath an ocean,
None come to admiration bring
Nor bear thee dreams of motion.
Where thou wast born thy foot did cling
Mud-loved in deep-sea bottom,
Till o'er thy breast the storm should sing
The song that stirs the ocean.

O thou whose pulses thro' the tides
Of vaster, master seas,
Stir thou the senseless silt that hides
Thy face from unlit leas
Move thou the muddy mass that hides
My soul in sunless leas,
Till from my breast thy mighty tides
A spirit frees.

And when to what unimagined sea,
On what weird wave I ride,
In midst of what vast mystery,
On swell of what new tide,
If one who waits by fotsamed sea
Should draw me to His side—
By that strange beach should stoop for me—
I shall be satisfied.

Japanese Party

In Honor of Mrs. Hoskins.

On Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock Miss Hennie Ragsdale entertained a large number of lady friends at a Japanese party in honor of her guest, Mrs. Bascom Hoskins, of High Point.

The home was decorated in chrysanthemums, evergreens and potted plants, the arrangement of color effects on chandeliers, walls and tables being most beautiful.

Upon arrival the guests were met at the door by Misses Willie Ragsdale and Mattie Moyer King, dressed in Japanese kimonos. In the hall cherry smash was served by Misses Lizzie Moore, Ward Moore and Hennie Whichard.

The guests then repaired to the parlor where the hostess and guest of honor received.

The game of the afternoon was progressive Rook, there being eight tables of players. At each progression the guests were presented with Japanese favors, these being tiny skeletons, crabs, parasols, fans, trays, lanterns etc.

At the conclusion of the game block cream and cake were served.

Francis L. Carter-Cotton.

Francis L. Carter-Cotton, who has been prominent in public affairs in British Columbia for many years, was born in Yorkshire, England, October 11, 1847. As a young man he emigrated to Canada and settled in Vancouver, where he has been editor of one of the leading newspapers for more than a quarter of a century. His first public office of importance was that of a member of the British Columbia legislature, to which he was elected in 1890. After being twice re-elected he was defeated in 1900, but again was a successful candidate at the general election three years later. Among the high executive offices which have been held by Mr. Carter-Cotton have been those of Provincial Minister of Finance, Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works and President of the Executive Council of British Columbia.

Is The World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. The Fuel Supply Needs Attention Only Three Times Each Day

The makers of Cole's Hot Blast Heater guarantee this stove to hold fire with soft coal 36 hours without attention. Your old stove and imitation stoves leak air and waste fuel because they are not air-tight, because they have putty joints.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

—by means of the patented Hot Blast Draft and other patented features which make it tight, doing away with the use of stove putty—requires less attention than any other heater made.

All fuel—Soft Coal, Hard Coal, Lignite, Wood or Corn Cobs—contains a large amount of gas. Fully one-half of the heating power (carbon) in soft coal is gas. This is the part of the fuel this wonderful heater saves, by burning it with the Top Hot Blast Draft. This makes Cole's Hot Blast Heater the most satisfactory, the most economical, the most convenient heater you can buy. Imitations and other styles of stoves allow this gas-half of the coal to pass up the chimney with the smoke, unburned.

Thousands of these stoves are in use and the sale continues to increase year after year.

This heater will give you more comfort than you ever thought possible by using any kind of a stove which uses soft coal for fuel.

Right now is the time to decide and select the size you should have. Come in and see our complete line of styles and sizes.
