THE PRIMARIES IN ARIZONA

A HEAVY VOTE IN PHOENIX Men Go To The Polls Today for the First Time in Their Lives.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 24.—Men who have lived from youth to old age in Arizona, some of them having resided in the territory for nearly half a century, went to the polls today and for the first time in their lives expressed by ballot their choice for governor and other executive, judicial and legislative officials. The occasion was the general primaries for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at the first state election in Arizona, which is to be held in December. New Mexico, which was admitted to statehood at the same time as Arizona, held to the convention plan of nominations, but Arizona adopted the direct primary system and put it into operation for the first time today. Owing to the large expanse of territory covered by the new state and the remote locations of many of the communities the results of the primary elections may not be definitely known until late tomorrow.

A heavy vote reported in Phoenix and in other of the chief cities gives evidence of the keen interest the people of the new state are taking in their first effort at self-government. The citizens of Arizona have always elected their own county officers and their legislators, but the president has named the governor and other executive officials, including the judiciary, and congress has always had veto power over the territorial legislative enactments.

Now for the first time they are to exercise the power of all other sovereign states, and on December 12, next, will choose all their own officials, from governor to constable, and including representatives in congress and a legislature that will choose two United States senators. Heretofore Arizona has been allowed one "delegate" in the house of representatives, but this delegate had no vote. He occupied a seat and was permitted to make speeches and serve on committees, but had no voice in legislative matters so far as voting was concerned. Now the new state is to send a full fledged member to the house and two members to the senate.

In today's primaries nominations were made for governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, corporation commissioner, United States senator and representative and three judges of the state Supreme court. The ballots contained complete tickets representing the Republican, Democrat and Socialist parties.

The Republican candidates for the nomination for governor are E. W. Wells, of Prescott, and George W. Young, of Phoenix. Three Democrats aspire to the governorship. They are Dr. H. A. Hughes, of Phoenix; George W. P. Hunt, of Globe; and T. W. Weedon, of Florence. P. W. Galentine of Globe has been unanimously endorsed by the Socialist party for governor.

The contests for the two United States senatorships are regarded by the people as of even more interest and importance than the fight for the governorship. If the Republicans win in the first state election the two United States senators will be Ralph Cameron, of Flagstaff, and Hoval A. Smith, of Bisbee. Cameron has been in congress for several years as the territorial delegate from Arizona. Smith is a prominent young mining man and has served as Republican territorial chairman.

That the Democrats are sanguine of controlling the first state legislature is evinced by the fact that there are more than three times as many aspirants for the United States senatorships on the Democratic side as on the Republican. The most prominent of the candidates are Col. H. L. Pickett, of Tombstone; Eugene S. Ives, of Tucson, attorney for the Southern Pacific railroad, and Eugene Brady O'Neal, of Phoenix, brother of the famous "Duckey" O'Neal, who met death in Cuba as a captain of rough riders. The other Democratic aspirants for the senatorships are J. H. Roberston, of Phoenix; M. A. Smith, of Tucson, and H. F. Ashurst and R. N. Ling, of Prescott. The Socialist candidates are E. D. Elmonton, of Globe, and E. Johnston, of Globe. The Republicans have united upon John S. Williams, of Bisbee, as their

MANITOBA MAN HUNT RECALLED

Brown Will Have to Stand Trial For Attempted Murder.

MORDEN, Mann., Oct. 24.—As a sequel to the Manitoba man-hunt that attracted attention on both sides of the international boundary a few months ago, George Brown, the alleged assailant of the Riverdale school teacher, will be placed on trial at the fall assizes which began here today.

Brown's alleged victim was Miss Gladys Price, a member of a prominent family and a young woman of excellent reputation. According to the testimony given at the preliminary hearing Brown appeared at the country school where Miss Price was engaged as a teacher a short time before she had dismissed her scholars for the day. The man was in an intoxicated condition. After overpowering the young woman he dragged her into the woods and kept her a captive there for thirty-six hours. Only after the man had fallen into a drunken stupor was his victim able to escape and make her way to a neighboring house. She was in a pitiable condition and for several days it was feared she would not survive the shock.

The young woman's story aroused the entire surrounding country and within a few hours armed posses were in pursuit of the alleged assailant. The chase extended across the border to Hannah, N. D., where Brown was arrested and later, it is said, identified by Miss Price as the man who had held her captive.

Miss Price, who has since become Mrs. Frank Patterson, is expected to be the chief witness against Brown. In addition to the more serious charge Brown will have to stand trial for the attempted murder of William Adams, a Snowflake hotel proprietor, who was shot and seriously wounded in the man-hunt.

EDUCATION DAY.

At The Fair, Friday, November 3rd The Date.

Friday, November the 3rd, has been set apart by the Pitt county fair authorities as "Educational Day." I am writing this to request every teacher in the county to bring her school here on that day. It will be a school holiday and you will not be required to make up that day. If your school has not begun go to the district in which you are to teach and request the children to meet you in Greenville on Friday, November 3rd. The state superintendent, Prof. J. Y. Joyner, will speak for us, and we are all anxious that every teacher and pupil in the county shall be present and take part in the exercises.

Please have the children meet you at "Five Points" in Greenville that day at 10 o'clock, a. m. The line of march will start from this point. We would be glad for each school to carry a banner which will designate the school. This ought to be made a great day. If the teachers and pupils will only respond to the request made of them it will be, and I shall be disappointed if you are not here. I trust that all parents will make arrangements for their children to come. It will be an "Educational Day" in fact to all the children present. Remember the day and the request. Let every one who is interested in the educational progress of the county be present.

W. H. RAGSDALE,
County Superintendent of Schools.

Will Discuss Social Centers.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 24.—The first national conference ever held for the purpose of furthering the social movement will begin a three days' session at the University of Wisconsin tomorrow under the auspices of the extension division of the university and the Social Association of America.

The only kind of red hair a woman likes to have is not the real thing.

choice for representative in congress. The Democratic aspirants for representative are Mukford Winsor, of Yuma, Lamar Cobb, of Clifton and Carl Hayden, of Phoenix. John Halberg, of Jerome, is the Socialist candidate.

For each of the minor places on the state ticket, including treasurer, secretary of state, auditor and attorney general, the Democrats have two or more candidates, while the Republicans and Socialists have but one each.

CAROLINA CLUB DOWN TO BUSINESS

HELD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING. Adopts Suggestion of Committee to Add Business Features.

There was a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of Carolina club, Monday night, to consider the matter of adding a commercial feature to the club and making it more of a business men's organization.

At a meeting of the club two weeks ago a committee was appointed to address an appeal to the business men of the town and invite them to become members of the club and give it their influence. This committee took its work under consideration, and decided that with the club having only a social feature there was little in it to appeal to business men. The committee reported its conclusions back to the board of governors and recommended calling the club together to consider the suggestion of changing the club and putting it on a business or commercial basis, as well as a social basis, and let its object be the development and progress of Greenville as well as social pleasure to its members.

It was to consider this feature and act upon the suggestion of the committee that the meeting was held Monday night. The matter was discussed by several members of the club as well as some outside business men who were invited to be present, and the recommendation of the committee to add the commercial feature was unanimously adopted.

Another committee, consisting of Messrs. R. H. Wright, C. O. H. Laughinghouse, C. T. Munford, J. B. Higgs, and D. J. Whichard, was appointed to draft rules covering the change in the club and outline a plan of work for the organization under the new feature and report to another meeting to be held next Monday night, 30th.

After transacting this business part of the meeting, it seemed to resolve itself at once into a boosting assembly, and a number of good short speeches were made on Greenville's needs and what can be accomplished through organization. This turn in the meeting is but an index to what will follow in the club as a business men's organization. It shows that when you put something before men and have an object to work for, you can get them interested.

Now, remember the meeting next Monday night, and make that another enthusiastic gathering.

His Father Dead.

Mr. W. E. Haywood left Monday evening for Fayetteville, where he was summoned by a telegram announcing the sudden death of his father, Mr. T. J. Haywood. He received a telegram stating that his father had suffered a severe stroke of paralysis, and a little later another message came announcing his death. Only last week his father was in Greenville visiting him, and was then in apparent good health, and the news of his sudden death so soon thereafter came as a severe shock. His friends sympathize with him in this bereavement.

Bishops at Missionary Conference.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 24.—Six bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church are here to take part in the annual council of the Second Missionary Department, representing the various dioceses in New York and New Jersey and the missionary district of Porto Rico. The council opens tonight and continues in session over Wednesday and Thursday.

Kentucky Medical Society.

PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 24.—Many prominent physicians and surgeons of Kentucky are here attending the annual meeting of the State Medical Society, which convened today for a three days' session. A leading feature of the programme will be an address by Dr. John B. Murphy, of Chicago, one of the most distinguished surgeons in America.

Postponed to Suit Taft.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 24.—To fit in with the schedule of President Taft, who is to be one of the chief speakers at the annual meeting of the American Mining congress in this city, the opening of the congress originally fixed for today has been postponed until Saturday.

NOTES FROM THE STATE UNIVERSITY

PRIZES OFFERED STUDENTS. Old Bell Ringer Gets a Fall—Church Steeple Condemned.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 24.—The first university sermon of the year was delivered in Gerrard hall, Sunday morning, by Bishop Rondthaler, of Winston-Salem. Taking as his text, Timothy 4:8: "But Godliness is profitable for all things having promise of the life which now is of that which is to come," the bishop presented a practical and interesting discourse of the power of Godliness in overcoming harmful habits, developing the man and inspiring a clear conscience. The discourse was especially appealing and helpful to young men.

The students have a large number of prizes offered them to encourage independent work on their part in different fields. Three of the most valuable of these come under the control of the department of history. The North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames offers annually a first prize of $100 and a second prize of $50 for the best papers dealing with the Colonial period of North Carolina history. This prize is open to any student of the University, and each year a number of students enter the contest. Another prize is offered annually by the Lake Mohonk Peace conference to that student of a college or university in the United States who shall write the best essay on International Arbitration. The university has a very complete library on the subject, and doubtless a number of students will try for this prize. There is in addition a third prize offered this year by the Good Government League for the best essay dealing with the problem of city government. The prize is worth $100.

It will be of interest to every graduate of the university during the past twelve or fifteen years to know that Horny-handed Henry, the veteran bell ringer and faculty messenger has happened to quite an accident. While coming away from the president's home a few days ago he in some way slipped and fell to the ground, painfully injuring himself. The faithful old negro with his stumbling, sorter drop-stitch shuffle, and his notorious "waterbury" always three minutes ahead or behind time, has long been one of the principal objects of interest around the campus. The old man's injuries were not serious.

The steeple of the Methodist church in Chapel Hill has been condemned by contractors as unsafe. A large crack was discovered in the wall sometime ago and contractors were sent for, who when they came made an examination with the above result. Services will be suspended in the church for two weeks while the necessary repairs are being made. The church was built in 1883.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 24.—The eighth annual exhibition of the Mississippi State Fair Association, one of the most notable exhibitions of its kind in the South, opened its gates this morning and will continue until November 2nd.

THE QUESTION IS: "DO YOU WORK; OR DO YOU REALLY DO THINGS?"

Perseverance, Not Luck, Will Win in this Big Contest. Your Own Efforts Will Place You in the Lead and Make the Prizes Yours.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS BUT ONCE AT EVERY DOOR

It Is Not The Lack of Time, But The Lack of Energy That Will Keep You From Success.

The publication yesterday afternoon of the representative list of women who have been nominated by their friends to compete for the seven valuable prizes offered by the Daily Reflector, brought to this office many expressions of the high standard that had been universally maintained by the entire public.

Energy Is Best Asset.

The purpose of the mammoth contest should not be confused. It is not a popularity contest in the single sense of the word. When the public nominated its friends and acquaintances, and themselves, they did not attach any particular popularity to the campaign, but simply saw a chance to do their most deserving friends a good turn.

It is a contest of energy and activity. Of course having a lot of friends help, yet at the same time the candidate that is energetic and gets out and pushes her own campaign is the lady who is going to win.

Now, that the contest has actually started, we wish to impress upon the public that everyone connected with the contest will receive the same impartial treatment, and the contest will be conducted fairly throughout, so that the ladies who secure the most votes will be declared the winners by the judges to the rules of the contest.

Cast Votes Every Day.

The ladies whose names appear on the list stand ready to be voted for by the public, either by the use of ballots printed daily in the paper, or by paid-in-advance subscriptions.

When paying your subscription be sure to look over the list and vote for some one of these worthy young ladies.

If there should be no one of them whom you should care to vote for, nominate a candidate of your own and vote for her. Any lady residing within the territory of the contest can enter at any time up to the close of the contest.

Many Already Working.

Many of the candidates are already busily engaged gathering up the subscriptions of their friends, and the ten vote coupons, so it behooves all who are thinking of entering the race to send their nominations in today, or as soon as possible.

From now on the names and votes each one has will be published daily. All votes will be counted up to 10 o'clock each morning for the afternoon issue of the paper.

Schedule of Votes.

The prize of the Daily Reflector and the number of votes allowed on all paid-in-advance subscriptions and arrangements is as follows:

3 months.	$ 0.75	3,000
6 months.	$ 1.50	7,000
1 year.	$ 3.00	20,000
2 years.	$ 6.00	50,000
5 years.	$15.00	150,000
Weekly:
6 months.	$ 0.50	2,000
1 year.	$ 1.00	5,000
2 years.	$ 2.00	12,000
5 years.	$ 5.00	35,000
10 years.	$10.00	100,000

Be sure to ask all of your friends to see that they get their subscription vote coupon when paying their subscription at the office.

10,000 Votes Free.

Don't overlook the special subscription ballot which appears on another page of this issue. Read the rules regarding it carefully and then get out after that yearly subscription and be sure to have it here before Saturday night. Just think what a nice start 10,000 free votes will give you. You will need every vote you can get in order to win, so better make the most of every opportunity offered. Of course there is only one of these, go to a contest, but bring in your subscriptions as fast as you can get them and have the vote coupons issued.

Start now—don't wait till tomorrow.

It doesn't require an axe to cut an acquaintance.

TRAINING SCHOOL Y. W. C. A.

Report of Asheville Y. W. C. A. Conference.

The Y. W. C. A. delegates to summer conference at Asheville gave exceedingly interesting reports at the Sunday evening services. Miss Marguerite Davis told in an earnest manner of the spirit of the assembly, bringing out the purpose and the scope of the conference. She gave the general plan of the work of the day, including Bible and Mission study classes and instruction in the various departmental committees. She left with the audience the meaning of a real Y. W. C. A. "It is giving to every and any young woman what she needs most next, whether it be a kind word, a prayer, a cup of coffee or a good time."

Miss Willie Greene Day gave vivid pictures of the social side of the meeting.

The afternoons were given up to drives around Asheville, excursions to Biltmore, Black Mountain, and other places of interest and to receptions. "Association Day" was the most elaborate social affair. Each delegation had to perform some "stunt" which the manager defined as "an idea put into motion to amuse"

Miss Graham, the faculty adviser, gave various features of the conference that impressed her most. The representations were of the best type of young women, a happy, joyous, busy throng of about four hundred. Everything was conducted in a business-like manner. The platform addresses, by the foremost ministers of the South, were a power for good. She gave the central thought of each. She closed with suggestions gained from the conference that can be put into practice here.

These enthusiastic reports made those present feel as if they had been to the conference. Many a girl hopes she will be one of the lucky delegates chosen to go next summer.

GALEITY THEATRE

Noted Singer Coming for Tonight—Extra Attraction.

Those who witnessed last night's program at the Galety Theatre pronounce the pictures to be some of the best during the season.

The feature for last evening was "The Night Riders of Kentucky," which was more than gratifying to the audience and they well displayed their appreciation by the large crowds that attended.

The managers have secured for a two weeks' engagement an excellent singer, Mr. Carl Armstrong, who is well known to the entire South as an excellent tenor singer. He will be at the Galety tonight. During his engagement he will have different songs every evening.

Their program that appears elsewhere in today's columns indicate every feature of being an excellent bill.

A FORCEFUL SERMON.

God Blessing The World Through The Individual.

Rev. J. H. Shore delivered a sermon of great excellence in the Methodist church, Sunday morning, from the text, "I will bless thee and make thee a blessing." The theme emphasized throughout the sermon was God and the individual working together. God blessing the individual that the individual might be a blessing to others. It should be "God and I" in all our relations of life. In the pulpit, in the home, in the store, in the office, in the factory, or in whatever avocation the individual may be, he should put God first, and working hand in hand with Him make the blessing He bestows upon each individual a blessing to the world.

D. J. Whichard, Jr. Reporter

The man who wins is an average man; Not built on any peculiar plan. Not blest with any peculiar luck; Just steady and earnest and full of pluck.

When asked a question he does not "guess"— He knows and answers "no" or "yes"; When set a task that the rest can't do, He buckles down till he's put it through.

Three things he's learned: that the man who tries Finds favor in his employer's eyes; That it pays to know more than one thing well; That it doesn't pay all he knows to tell.

So he works and waits; till one fine day There's a better job with bigger pay. And the men who shirked whenever they could Are bossed by the man whose work made good.

For the man who wins is the man who works, Who neither labor nor trouble shirks, Who uses his hands, his head, his eyes; The man who wins is the man who tries.

Mrs. M. A. Whichard, of Whichard, spent last night here and left this morning for Raleigh, to be present at the Whichard-Carroll marriage tomorrow evening.

Miss Nannie Bowling returned Monday evening from Buffalo Springs, Va.

Messrs. D. C. Dudley and J. H. Seiburn left Monday evening for New Bern, where they are witnesses in Federal court.

Mr. W. M. Lang of Farmville, was here Monday evening en route for Kinston.

Mrs. C. W. Wilson and her mother, Mrs. Mangum, left this morning for a visit in Rich Square.

Mrs. R. O. Jeffries left this morning for Richmond.

Miss Lottie Skinner left this morning for a visit in Henderson.

Mr. Albion Dunn left this morning for Meridian, Miss., to take a deposition in a legal proceeding.

Mayor F. M. Wooten went to Walstonburg this morning.

Mr. H. A. White went to Farmville this morning.

Mr. J. A. Brady, of Hillsboro, was here today.

Get a good supper tonight with the ladies of the Episcopal church in the Proctor building.

Hallowe'en Fair.
The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a Hallowe'en Fair Friday night, October 27th, in the store next to the old moving picture show, in Proctor building.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will furnish regular supper at 50 cents, tonight in the Proctor building. Extras: syllabub, chicken salad, cream and cake.

Society Meeting.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. H. B. Harris, tomorrow afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY.
October 24.
1683—Germantown, Pa., laid out.
1784—Sir Moses Montefiore, famous English-Jewish philanthropist, born. Died July 23, 1885.
1791—Second Federal Congress met in Philadelphia.
1807—Sir James Henry Craig appointed Governor of Canada.
1809—Eric Canal opened between Utica and Rome, N. Y.
1820—Little Rock became the capital of Arkansas.
1852—Daniel Webster, famous statesman, died at Marshfield, Mass. Born in Salisbury, N. H., Jan. 18, 1782.
1894—An equestrian statue of Gen. George B. McClellan was unveiled in Philadelphia.
1891—Marriage of Prince Henry of Naples (King Victor Emmanuel III. of Italy) and Princess Helene of Montenegro.
1910—A cloudburst and tidal wave, accompanied by a violent eruption of Mount Vesuvius, caused the loss of 200 lives in the vicinity of Naples.

A man takes his party politics so seriously that the Ten Commandments become a joke to him.

The Place To Save Money.
Come and let us reason together. Cotton is low—fully 5 cents a pound lower than it was a year ago—and the cotton-growing farmer has that much less money to spend. Therefore with less money to spend, it is to his interest to buy his goods where he can get them cheapest. And the cheapest place in Greenville is at C. T. Munford's big store. He has the largest store in town, therefore he makes large purchases. He occupies his own building, has no rent to pay, therefore it stands to reason that he can save you money when you trade with him. Go to Munford's, look over the goods, learn the prices and be convinced.

FOR AGED PEOPLE.
Old Folks Should Be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine.
We have a safe, dependable, and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitutions who suffer from constipation or other bowel disorders. We are so certain that it will relieve these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we offer it with our personal guarantee that it shall cost the user nothing if it fails to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called REXALL ORDERLIES.
Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity. Three sizes, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Moyer's Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

LOCAL BRIEFS.
Pick Ups and Hand-me Downs.
Odd Fellows meet tonight. The leaves are falling now. Pitt county fair Thursday and Friday of next week. Get ready for it. Mighty close to frost this morning. Tell it to The Reflector, and we'll tell everybody else. Be careful about starting fires in this dry, windy weather. The wind actually felt chilly today. The thin-blooded wanted to find a fire today. The ladies of the Episcopal church will serve supper in one of the Proctor stores tonight. Do not put it off until the last day to get something ready to exhibit at the Pitt county fair. Every section of the county ought to have something to exhibit at the fair next week. Mr. Business Man: Greenville is going to be full of folks at the Pitt county fair. It will pay you to be doing a little talking to them in advance through The Reflector.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR
Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another fine scalp remedy. The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as presented. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent Moyer's Pharmacy.

You will enjoy your supper tonight if you get it with the ladies of the Episcopal church in the Proctor building. Regular supper 50 cents; extra for syllabub, chicken salad, cream and cake.

The French Market Coffee

Drinkers Could Not Be Fooled

Only the wonderful mountain-side coffee from Jamaica, blended with choicest berries from Guatemala, Venezuela and the Pan-American countries, would satisfy them. Cheap coffees could not be combined into that marvelously smooth and deliciously aromatic beverage that has been served for over a century at the French Market in New Orleans.

"Voyons! C'est le même que nous avons bu à Paris!"
("Behold! It is the same as we drank in Paris!")

one emigre would say to another as they sipped their coffee in the French Market.
Then—and for a century since—

HEALTH.

Morning Talk by President Wright at Training School.

I wish to talk to you this morning about health. Not so much your health as the health of your students when you begin to teach.

Until recently school authorities did not consider it a part of a school teacher's duty to take any real interest in the health of the children. That was the duty of the parent. The teacher's duty was to see that the child "learned his book" and "said his lessons." The parent was responsible for the child's physical well-being. "If he did not get his lessons flog him," was the injunction of many a parent too often about a child too ill to "get his lessons." The result for many a child was total ruin, mentally, morally and physically. Many, many a child is in prison today as a direct result of this method. And who is the real criminal?

Men who have given serious thought and study to the problem say all incorrigibles are physical defectives. Remove the physical handicap in time and you change the course of the life from the highway of evil to the path of uprightness.

Many a child is not able to see and does not know he cannot see objects at a distance. Many of these are thrashed for not doing their school work when they cannot find the duty to be performed. I could sight case after case of children who, some one by chance, discovered the defect and corrected the trouble in time to save the boy or girl. Others can not hear and are pronounced stupid. Who is stupid, child or teacher?

Others have hookworm, and can not work. Their life blood is being sapped out by these parasites, and parent and teacher ignore the conditions of the little fellows. They grow up into almost worthless citizenship. Who is responsible for this life's ruin, child, parent or teacher? Surely not the child, often not the parent for he is too ignorant to be held responsible. The teacher should not be allowed to undertake the training of the young if he is too ignorant to detect the worst cases. It will be upon you in many cases that the responsibility will rest.

Malaria is another of the diseases that saps vitality and reduces efficiency. This, too, is a preventable disease. Screens and quinine would reduce much of our suffering, increase the efficiency of many of our citizens. Smallpox can be eliminated by vaccination and typhoid is preventable. The time will come when it will be considered almost a crime to have any of these preventable diseases. The improvement of health conditions, fellow teachers, is in a large measure with you. Sanitation and hygiene are not to be taught any more than practiced. There is a sin against the physical, and the wages of this sin is often death. Many times it is more than death for it leads to a life that would be a blessing rather than to have to live. Too many of our outcasts are outcasts for the simple fact that some parent or some teacher has neglected his duty, has shirked his responsibility. May such never be charged against a student from this school.
