PITT COUNTY FAIR THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

LARGE EXHIBITS COMING IN.
Every Department Will be Well Represented.

The outlook today is that the Pitt county fair is going to a great success. All day exhibits have been coming in, and workmen are busy getting the Star warehouse in readiness for the fair. Everything will be in good shape before the opening hour tomorrow morning.

A strong feature of the fair is going to be the poultry and stock exhibits. Mr. F. S. Puckett, of the state agricultural department, came in Tuesday night with a large list of farm exhibits.

The exhibits of field crops, poultry, live stock, pantry and dairy supplies are going to be large.

The women are taking great interest in their department and it is going to be very attractive.

Mrs. R. R. Cotten is going to make an exhibit of curios and mementoes from foreign countries, and many others have indicated that they will bring rare relics.

All together it is going to be a county fair well worth seeing, and the formal opening will take place Thursday at 11 o'clock.

Friday, educational day, is going to be the big day of the fair, when the schools of the county will be here and have a parade. Superintendent Joyner will deliver an address that day.

Let everybody do his best to make this first Pitt county fair a great one. The people of Greenville should go out, mingle with all the visitors who come, and make them feel at home.

INSTALL COLLEGE HEAD.

Taft Heads The List of Distinguished Visitors.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 1.—With President Taft heading the list of distinguished visitors, the inauguration here today of Dr. Thomas E. Hodges as president of West Virginia University proved a red-letter day in the history of the institution. Among the noted educators present were President Alderman, of the University of Virginia; President Thompson, of Ohio State University; President Perry, of Marietta College; President Welch, of Ohio Wesleyan University, and President Sparks, of Pennsylvania State College. The attendance included also many alumni and other friends of the university from all parts of the country.

President Will Rest at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Nov. 1.—President Taft will be a visitor in Hot Springs for five days, beginning tomorrow and continuing until next Monday, the day before election. While here the president will reside at Mrs. Seth Barton French's villa, which he has leased for a short period and where Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft are already established. The president is coming to Hot Springs to rest. Since he left Boston on September 15 he has traveled almost 15,000 miles and has averaged four speeches a day. A few days spent on the golf links and in riding over the Virginia hills and he expects to be in physical trim to complete his tour and return to the capital and dispose of the accumulated business before congress assembles next month.

Ready to Race at Jamestown.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 1.—The Jamestown Jockey club will begin its fall season of racing tomorrow, when the gates at the track will be opened for a thirty-day meeting. Many thoroughbreds seen recently at Pimlico, Laurel, and elsewhere are now quartered at the Jamestown course, and applications for additional stable room are being received daily.

A number of valuable stakes are to be decided during the meet, the most notable among them being the Monticello handicap at one mile for all ages, the Exchange handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, for three-year-olds and over; the Lynn Haven handicap, a three-quarters of a mile dash for two-year-olds; a Thanksgiving selling race of one mile and a furlong for three-year-olds and over, and the Merchants' selling race, a six and a half-furlong affair for all ages.

A call on a new neighbor is much like a call in a poker game; it's to see what he's got.

LARGE SCHOOL GROUND NEEDED

An Opportunity to Procure This is Present.

Editor Reflector: In looking to the future for Greenville we must consider the interest and opportunity of our schools. There is one vital defect, it appears to me, in our system, one for which neither the board of trustees nor the superintendent is responsible.

There is nothing so essential to the life of a child in its normal growth as an opportunity and a place to play for the development of his physical make-up and his social instinct.

The school ground for our graded school is so small that the children have to line up in the public street for marching to the recitation rooms. It has occurred to me that the advertised sale of the Sutton property adjacent to the school ground was an opportunity for enlarging the school ground, not only for beauty and attractiveness of the school site, but for play room and further for the opening of a way that would keep the children off the main thoroughfares of the town, permitting them to pass from Dickinson avenue up Sutton lane and to the school yard.

I am not familiar with the financial condition of the school board, but it appears to me that it is an opportunity that should not be overlooked. It is certainly to be hoped that property will never be any cheaper in the town of Greenville.

TOWN SURVEYED BY LINCOLN

Illinois Town Aroused by Sunrise Salute.

BATH, Ill., Nov. 1.—A sunrise salute aroused the residents of Bath today, when, with hundreds of visitors from all over the county, they celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of the laying out of the town by Abraham Lincoln, then a struggling young surveyor. Elaborate preparations had been made for the event, and early in the day the streets were thronged with visitors. Stores and residences were brightly decorated with flags, bunting and appropriate pictures and mottoes. The anniversary exercises were held in a large tent, where the crowd listened to addresses by Congressman Henry T. Rainey and other speakers of prominence.

California Club Women.

PLACERVILLE, Cal., Nov. 1.—Placerville is entertaining during the remainder of this week the annual convention of the northern district of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. It is the tenth meeting and from present indications it will be the most successful as well as the best attended ever held in this part of the state. The social program begins tonight with a reception in honor of the state president Mrs. Russell Waters, of Los Angeles.

Hearings on Full Crew Bill.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 1.—The State Board of Public Utilities Commissioners today began public hearings to consider the provisions of the so-called full crew bill. The bill provides that every passenger train having five cars or more, operating in New Jersey, shall have a crew consisting of one engineer, one fireman, one conductor, one baggage-man, one brakeman and one flagman. The railroads vigorously opposed the measure when it came before the legislature last winter and it was defeated. The senate, however, by resolution, directed the utilities board to investigate the provisions of the bill and report to the next legislature.

To Inspect Auto Factories Abroad.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A good-sized delegation representing the American Society of Automobile Engineers sailed on the Mauretania today to attend a joint meeting with the Incorporated Institution of Automobile Engineers. The meeting will be held in London next week and after it is concluded the American party will inspect many of the largest automobile factories in England and on the continent.

FREE VOTE OFFER BRINGING RESULTS

Special Vote Offer Is Cause of Increase in the Vote Totals--May Build Reserve Force.

OFFER IS BIG HELP IN BUILDING UP RESERVE FORCE FOR THE FINISH

From the outlook at the present time this week, from all appearances, thoroughly outclasses any previous weeks of the contest so far as real hustling and the display of energy is concerned.

With the announcement on Monday afternoon that for the next two weeks 25,000 free votes would be given on each set of five six months new subscriptions to the Daily Reflector, in addition to the regular votes allowed on each subscription, the right kind of hustling began. Each and every contestant who has any idea of winning one of the valuable prizes offered so liberally by The Daily Reflector has taken her little receipt book and has gone out into the field to work. Contestants, the crop is more than ripe and with the proper kind of a campaign you should all reap a harvest that will assure you of victory on the final count. By the way, if you have not that receipt book which was mailed you, be sure to phone the Contest Manager at once and he will see that you get one immediately.

The Special Vote Offer.

The special vote offer, which is outlined on another page of this issue, is as follows: To every contestant turning in five new subscriptions to The Daily Reflector, of six months each will be given a special vote ballot of 25,000 votes. It is not necessary that five subscriptions be turned in together, but it is essential that they be turned in before Saturday, November 11th, at 9 p. m.

There is no limit in this offer, a candidate can have just as many of these vote ballots as she can secure; if she can secure 100 sets of these subscriptions she will be entitled to 100 extra vote ballots of 25,000 free votes each. Then, too, a year's subscription to the Daily Reflector will count the same as two six months subscriptions and a two year subscription will count as four. It is not hard to make up a set in this manner and just think of how those ballots of 25,000 votes will count up when it comes to the final count on December 9th.

Another Big Helper.

We are going to give those faint-hearted contestants another chance to get in the race with the rest. In Saturday afternoon's issue of the Daily Reflector there will appear a vote coupon good for 100 votes, instead of the regular ten vote coupon. These coupons must not be polled before Saturday, November 11, and they will not be good after that date. If any of them are received by the Contest Manager before that date, they will be thrown out and not counted. In other words, they must be polled on Saturday, November 11, if they are to do any good.

Just think of it, it will take only ten of these coupons to make up a thousand votes and only a hundred to make up ten thousand votes. Ask all of your friends to be sure and watch for this coupon and save them for you. Full particulars regarding this coupon will appear in Saturday's issue.

Enlist Services of Friends.

There are a great many ways by which a candidate can secure the services of friends, the principal one of which is by personal calls upon them, or the use of the telephone. The leaders of the contest have many friends assisting them in different ways. They ask all of their friends to secure as many of the clipped coupons as possible each day. Others have each friend secure at least one subscription from some of their friends each day; others are organizing campaign committees, with the view to making a complete house-to-house canvass. Any of these different methods help to increase candidates influences and will give one a backing that can be depended upon for a great many votes before the race is over. It certainly pays to advertise one's candidacy.

Country and City Contestants.

Will have a chance alike to see the beautiful piano and Victor Victrola which constitute the first and second grand prizes in the Daily Reflector big contest of energy. They will be exhibited at the Pitt county fair, Thursday and Friday, November 2nd and 3rd. All contestants are invited to come and see for themselves what they are striving to win. The Gibson & Sons piano was purchased from the Sam White Piano Co., and it is the latest and best in piano construction, whilst the Victor Victrola, purchased from A. B. Ellington & Co. is a revelation to the world of music. Come and bring your friends to see these magnificent instruments. Try them and you'll be glad of the opportunity given by the Daily Reflector to make your own one.

J. BENJAMIN HIGGS.

OPENING OF COURT HOUSE.

Thursday Night, November 2nd, at 8:00 O'clock.

No more beneficial move has been made by the women of Greenville, than that to get the people together to study and discuss civic betterment. Many of us do not fully understand the absolute necessity we are under to maintain our premises in a harmless manner. But by coming together with a sincere desire to be instructed along the line of civic improvement and as well so far as each one is capable to instruct we shall soon fully understand that community health and attractiveness largely depend upon community cleanliness.

So believing the above to be a fact, we shall determine to meet together on Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the new court house to unite upon plans for civic improvements. And in so doing bear in mind the fact that:

That there is so much bad in the best of us.
And so much good in the worst of us.
It ill behooves any of us.
To talk about the rest of us.
But that it does behoove all of us
To educate ourselves along the line of civic improvement.

Therefore the Civic League invites the public to come out Thursday night and join in this rally for improving "Our Greenville."

Leave fault-finding and criticism at home; come with a patriotic love for your town and "let us reason together" as to ways and means of accomplishing the above.

Visitors to the fair cordially invited.

Off For Australia.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 1.—With the good wishes of a host of friends and admirers the American team which will try to bring back from Australia the Dwight F. Davis international tennis cup sailed for Sydney today on the steamship Valandia. The captain of the team is William A. Larned, of New York, seven times lawn tennis singles champion of the United States. The other members of the American challenging team are Beals C. Wright, of Boston, and Maurice E. McLoughlin, of California.

Wedding at Fort Sheridan.

To Promote Child Welfare.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1.—A Child Welfare exhibition, similar to the exhibitions held recently in New York and Chicago, was opened in the armory in this city today under the auspices of the Oregon Congress of Mothers. Simultaneous with the exhibition, which will continue five days there is to be held a conference for the discussion of the care of infants, the playground movement, settlement work and kindred topics.

EXTRA SESSION

Of Mississippi Legislature Convened Today.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 1.—In pursuance of the proclamation of Governor Noel the Mississippi legislature convened today in special session. The chief purpose of the session is to straighten out matters in connection with the state bond issue of 1910. The bonds, amounting to $800,000, were authorized at the last session of the legislature. Some were not disposed of until December, 1910, but their sale was with the understanding that interest would begin with the date of the authorized issuance, July 1, of the same year. The state Supreme court held that the payment of interest for the months preceding the actual sale of the bonds was not legal. To meet the state's moral obligations Governor Noel asks that the legislature appropriate an amount sufficient to cover the interest. In addition to this matter the legislature is asked for an appropriation to defray expenses of the state troops recently sent to McComb City in connection with the strike of Illinois Central shopmen.

The dollar that you borrow never seems so large as the dollar you have to pay back.

CAN WE REALLY STOP WORRYING

SOME POINTS ON THAT SUBJECT.

We Are Predisposed to Worry by Sleeplessness.
(Number 5).

There is another circle of sensitive souls who are worried throughout life by the imaginary hereditary legacies handed down by fathers and mothers in the shape of physical weaknesses and bodily deformities. Still others, owing to a weakened nervous system and overstrain, fall into a condition of nervous irritability that renders them very liable to anxiety and worry upon the least provocation. Such persons—in fact, all of us—are greatly predisposed to worry by sleeplessness. Sound sleep in a great preventative of the mental state that borders on worry.

The state of the physical health is not an infrequent occasion for worry. Many worry because of lingering illness or unusual affliction, while others grieve because of the sickness and suffering of their loved ones.

Another form of worry is the fear of "old age." As the years pass over as the arteries begin to harden, the memory gradually fails, the skin becomes visibly wrinkled and leathery, and the old age brings its peculiar worries to the majority of people. There is a tendency to undue anxiety on the part of the aged that is born both of the retrospective view of life and anticipation as to what the future holds in store. Especially is this true in the case of those who do not have sufficient means laid up properly and comfortably to care for them to a good old age.

When Worry Enters The Home.

With women I suppose that household problems are the greatest single cause of worry. The proper rearing of the boy, the successful training of the girl, the usual petty cares of the home, to which all women are subject, together with the modern servant problem—all serve to create anxiety and worry, together with the useless and unnecessary toil connected with the family life. Housewives are constantly worried over the proper performance of little things, that, as an actual fact, would in no way affect the family happiness if they were left alone.

Many a mother, when she wakes in the morning, begins the day in a state of anxious and nervous agitation; she feels herself already crushed under the weight of all the burdens she will have to bear. The little household cares and domestic trials which every mother has to bear are not to her simple annoyances; they are actual catastrophes, and she suffers every one of these calamities a score of times before they come. By noon her life is swarming with apprehensions, difficulties and troubles; worry reigns supreme on the throne of her mind, and distraction has come to possess the soul. At the close of the day this unhappy mother has borne a hundred sorrows which were wholly imaginary, produced entirely by abnormal emotion.

Saved Many From Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it's the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by all druggists.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1911.

There is so much good in the world, and so many opportunities for doing good, that no man should want to get on the bad side of anything.

If the price of cotton should go back to 15 cents as the cotton conference says it should do, there would be a shout of rejoicing throughout the South.

Mr. Taft is getting his eyes open to the fact that the people do not want him to have another term as president.

There is quite a difference in doing a thing for the love of it or through a desire to serve others, and in being prompted by a selfish motive.

That man's make-up is radically wrong who takes wages from his employer and at the same time works, rather than for, the interest of his employer.

President Taft must have met with a considerable frost on his western trip. In a speech in Chicago he practically admitted that he looked for the Republicans to be defeated in the next National election.

One of the things now being looked forward to in the government circles is the complete control of all railroads of the country by the interstate commerce commission. When this comes about many of the state legislatures will lose one of their standing questions for argument.

As the purposes of Carolina club under its changed condition have been explained, the business men of the town should not wait for invitation or solicitation to become members. The club has resolved to start upon a campaign for Greenville's progress, and surely every man who feels any interest at all in the town should give his aid to a movement with object in view. Put two or three hundred men in this club and let them work unitedly together, and whatever Greenville asks for will be forthcoming.

That was a sad tragedy that occurred near Shelby a few evenings ago. A South Carolinian came over to visit relatives, making the trip in his automobile. He took several children out for a ride in his car and while going along the road met a farmer riding in a buggy. The farmer stopped ahead, got out of his buggy and advanced toward the automobile with a drawn pistol, saying he was going to kill the man who was driving the car. The latter tried to reason with him, but failing to stop the advance of the farmer and fearing an execution of the threat to kill, pulled a pistol from under the seat of the car and shot the farmer

Balked Cold Steel. "I wouldn't let a doctor cut my foot off," said H. D. Ely, Bantam, Ohio, "although a horrible ulcer had been the plague of my life for four years. Instead I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Heals burns, boils, sores, bruises, eczema, pimples, corns. Surest pile cure. 25 cents at all druggists.

dead. The coroner's jury that investigated the matter exonerated the automobilist, rendering a verdict that the killing was justifiable.

For Men Only.

A mighty good woman whose husband was engaged in building railroads once said he would not be in heaven three days before he would want a charter for a new one. Every few months we read of some effort being made to amend the Bible or some portions of it. More or less "brilliant" minds know they can do it. A Chicago minister, however, suggests a set of commandments that are tip top. He does not propose them in lieu of the ten given in the Bible, which makes them better. They are for men only, which shows the Chicago preacher is wise. Here they are:

"Thou shalt not neglect thy home for lodge, or club, or fraternity, or saloon, or any male meeting place of any kind whatsoever.

"Thou shalt not compel thy wife to ask for every needed penny; neither shalt thou dole out the same like sour-faced charity.

"Thou shalt not allow thy wife to become a household drudge, enslaved by cook stove, broom and babies.

"Thou shalt not smoke ten-cent cigars and wear silk socks while thy wife wears last year's hat and thy sons wear hand-me-down pants.

"Thou shalt not quaff the flowing bowl, sit in at poker or play the races, on pain of thy son's damnation.

"Thou shalt not neglect needful discipline, lest thy sons and thy daughters stray into crooked paths; neither shalt thou be a harsh and hardhanded tyrant, lest thy children despise these and thy teachings.

"Thou shalt not neglect the education of thy children in order that they, with immature strength and unprepared minds, may help thee bear the burden of support.

"Thou shalt not farm out the religious training of thy children to any minister, Sunday school teacher, religious zealot of any kind, or even to their mother. Thou thyself shalt instruct them in righteousness, and shalt lead them in the paths which growth brighter and brighter unto the perfect day."—Greensboro Record.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Among the amendments to the constitution of the state of New York to be voted on at the election next week is one providing for an increase in the salary of the governor to $20,000 a year. The present salary is $10,000.

The primaries for the nomination of a Democratic candidate for governor of Louisiana will be held next January. Several candidates have already announced their candidacy for the nomination. There is also a lively senatorial primary in progress, in which Senator Murphy J. Foster is seeking re-election, with Governor Saunders and Congressman Broussard as opponents.

Here Is Where The Draft Enters

The most perfect draft ever discovered is the patent Hot Blast Draft of the Wilson Heater. The only draft that secures perfect combustion and prevents waste. This draft is found only in the

Wilson
Heater

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel. In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 24 hours. We sell Wilson Hot Blast Heaters for either wood or coal.
