

PITT COUNTY'S GREAT FAIR

Crowning Success of the Endeavors of Her People

EDUCATIONAL DAY A FEATURE

Schools of the County Give a Parade
That is The Admiration of Thousands—Great Through Going Through The Exhibits—Everybody Proud of The Fair.

The second day and closing of the Pitt county fair doomed bright and beautiful, with enough crispness in the air to make it delightful. People began arriving early and the first trains brought great crowds. The schools that arrived early had an hour or two to look at the exhibits before the parade, and it was a great revelation to the children to see what their county is doing in the way of products.

At 10:00 o'clock the schools began assembling on Five Points in readiness for the parade, and people gathered along the streets designated for the line of march to view them as they passed. The following schools were represented:

East Carolina Teachers Training school, Winterville High School, Farmville graded school, Griffon graded school, Bethel graded school, Ayden graded school, and about forty of the district schools, the names of all of which could not be learned. They embraced between twelve and fifteen hundred children, and made a procession about a mile in length. The head of the line had gone around and nearly back to Five Points in time to see the rear leaving there. It was a great procession.

Headed by the officers and board of governors of the fair and the band, the procession moved off at 10:30 o'clock with the Training school first in line, then the schools from other towns in the county and the country schools, the Greenville graded school being at the rear. The procession was greeted with much applause all along the line of march, many declaring it the finest spectacle they had ever seen in Pitt county.

The march was along the streets previously indicated, and arriving at the Star warehouse the following program was carried out:

Music by band.
Words of Welcome, by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale.
Song—"America."
Introduction of Speaker, by Gov. T. J. Jarvis.
Address—Hon. J. Y. Joyner.
Song—"The Old North State."
Friday afternoon, 2:30—Band Concert.

President J. L. Wooten called the gathering to order and introduced County Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale, who extended a word of welcome. This he expressed most appropriately, congratulating Pitt county on what she had accomplished and especially on this magnificent educational showing. He commended the teachers of all the schools for the faithful work they are doing for Pitt county, and bid them and their school a hearty welcome.

The vast assembly then joined in singing "America," led by Miss Muffy and the Training school choir. Ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis introduced the speaker, expressing first his great pride in Pitt county. He referred to the exhibits of the farmers and the products of the farms, and said that while he was proud of these, but even prouder was he of the product of our schools exhibited on this occasion. He said no other one man in North Carolina is doing more for the children of the state than Hon. J. Y. Joyner.

Mr. Joyner said as he arose that this was indeed a memorable day and he felt proud of facing such an audience and especially proud of the fact that he has the honor of being a grandson of Pitt county. He was proud to feel that he was among his people, and he had with pleasure watched the educational progress of Pitt county led by such a man as Prof. Ragsdale, and his introduction by that noblest Roman, Governor Jarvis, whom God had spared to do so much for his county, was an honor indeed.

He said the great procession of school children that had just taken place was a scene to fill any heart with pride and inspiration. As he watched that army of children he felt that North Carolina should take them to her great heart and be ready to hear all their cry for education. Mr. Joyner referred to the wonderful educational progress North Carolina has made in the past decade in building a school house a day and quadrupling the appropriation to her public schools. This progress must not stop here, and our elementary schools, our high schools, our training schools must lead to the schools that fit the children for their respective vocations in life through the farm life schools.

After the address "The Old North State" was sung with spirit.

In the afternoon at 2:30 the band gave another concert followed with a speech to farmers by Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham.

Notes of the Fair.

East Carolina Teachers Training school's exhibit of canned goods, basket and other work done by the students was something interesting, and shows that this school is training its pupils to help the home folks and make the farm pay better.

The negro graded school of Greenville had a splendid exhibit of various fancy work and baking done by the pupils.

Mrs. R. R. Cotten's exhibit of Chinese and other foreign curios attracted much attention.

One of the most remarkable exhibits was by Floyd Dixon, a 10-year-old boy of Ayden. These were a knit shawl, a baby sack, a dress and other articles which he made entirely by himself.

Two speeches were made at the fair Thursday that were not mentioned in the paper that day. Mr. I. O. Schaub, of the state agricultural department, spoke interestingly on the boys corn clubs and the girls tomato clubs. Congressman John H. Small was here, and just after the band concert in the afternoon he was called on for a speech and paid high compliment to Pitt county for the splendid showing made at this fair.

THE CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

Holds Annual Meeting With The Church At Ayden.

The 67th annual Christian Missionary convention of the state met Tuesday with the church at Ayden, and adjourned Thursday night. A very large delegation was present. The opening program of the convention was as follows:

Welcome Address—W. O. Winfield, pastor; Response, D. W. Arnold, minister at Dunn.

Convention Sermon—C. W. Howard, Kinston.
Address—"The Preacher and the Larger Vision," by J. H. Moharter, St. Louis, Mo., Corresponding Secretary National Benevolent Association. These sermons and addresses were all of a very high order.

Tuesday morning was devoted to the Rural Field. Many phases of the country church being discussed. Many very inspiring and helpful speeches were made, which will mean much for the growth and power of the country church.

The business session of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions was held in the afternoon. Mrs. M. E. Harlan, of Indianapolis, Ind., National Corresponding Secretary, was present and was frequently called upon to speak of the different phases of work. After the business sessions, Mrs. Harlan gave a most interesting and instructive address concerning the great Missionary Training school at Indianapolis.

The State Corresponding Secretary's report showed much progress made during the year, ending September 30th. With an average membership of 555 the offerings amounted to $2,400.70. All reports were encouraging, and judging from the work accomplished during the first months of the new year, from the plans for the coming year and the high aims set, the North Carolina Christian Woman's Board of Missions will accomplish much before the next annual convention.

The next convention meets with the Farmville church, Monday after the Second Sunday in November, 1912.

PUBLIC INTEREST ON THE INCREASE

General Interest in the Big Voting Contest is Rapidly Increasing---Many Strive to Gain Lead.

THE WORK OF THIS AND NEXT WEEK WILL BE OF TELLING FORCE AT FINISH

CANDIDATES USING EVERY POSSIBLE MEANS TO SECURE SUBSCRIPTIONS AND VOTES.

The aspect of the contest as viewed from the list which will appear tomorrow, is entirely changed. Many of the contestants have been playing a wary game and have been creeping up toward the top gradually, in an effort to cause commotion in the camps of their competitors. It does not pay to keep at the top all the time. On the other hand, one should see that their total increases a little every day. In this way one's friends will become interested and in a campaign like this friends are very valuable assets.

The Public is Voting.

Every day there are people in the Contest Manager's office who desire to pay up their subscriptions and vote for some lady in the contest. Some of these people don't care who they vote for, only so they give it to some lady who deserves it, and who is trying hard to win. As a result these people look over the list and vote for some young lady in their district who shows that she has a fighting chance. Very rarely they vote for the top-notch, but usually they pick out someone they know, or who is second, third, or fourth down the line. This only goes to show how important a small gain daily really is.

People are always anxious to help those that help themselves. Just let your votes grow a little every day in the paper if you would catch some of this promiscuous voting. Votes will come from some of the most unexpected quarters in the contest with the magnitude of this, for the contest is getting so hot that it is the main topic everywhere that people gather.

The Free Votes.

How about you? Have you used every possible means to secure some of the free votes that are being given away this week with every set of five new six months subscriptions to the Daily Reflector?

Just think what a help 25,000 votes in addition to the number issued as per schedule, will be to you in winning the Gordon & Son piano, the Victor Victrola, or one of the gold Waltham watches. Don't you think the offer is large enough to bother with? Or what is really the matter with you? There is one thing that we can say for you and that is that you are going to regret your slowness in not getting out and hustling during this offer before the contest is over.

Under no circumstances will this offer be repeated during the contest and there will be no 25,000 free vote ballots issued after Saturday, November 11. Now, get busy. Don't put off starting any longer. Get that receipt book of yours and start out today. You will never regret it.

HARVARD-PRINCETON GAME.

To be Played in Princeton, N. J. Tomorrow.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 3.—This quiet little village is teeming with excitement for tomorrow the local gridiron is to be the scene of the first football game that Harvard and Princeton universities have played in fifteen years. The town is gayly attired and the streets are thronged with the "early birds". The pennant peddlers are already here with their "winning colors" of either university. Practically all the tickets for the game are sold and a record-breaking crowd is assured.

While sentiment in favor of the local university runs strong, the betting odds indicate that the Harvard team will go into the fray a slight favorite. The Crimson has made an excellent showing from the start of the season and it is generally conceded that the Orange and Black will have the hardest kind of a fight to gain the victory.

CHICAGO AND MINNESOTA.

Football Game Between Chicago and Minnesota Universities.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 3.—With the championship of the middle West depending largely upon the outcome, interest in tomorrow's football game between Chicago and Minnesota Universities is intense. The game will be played on Northrop field and is expected to attract the largest crowd that ever attended a football contest here. The betting indicates that in the opinion of the experts there is little to choose between the two teams, either as regards condition or their respective records up-to-date.

FALLS OFF LOAD OF HAY.

And Sticks a Pitchfork Entirely Through Body.

A few days ago a 14-year-old son of Mr. W. B. Stocks, four miles from Greenville, fell off a load of hay upon which he was riding. He fell on a pitchfork which stuck through his body, one prong entering under his ribs on the left side and coming out under the right arm. At latest reports the boy was getting along well and it is thought he will recover.

There have been so many people here the last few days, and other things have occupied so much attention, that we could not look much after personal items.

The direct result of worry we know is disease, and there is where the crime of the matter comes in. The fact that certain nervous diseases are directly caused by worry admits of no doubt whatever. Take the general condition known as "neurasthenia," commonly called "nervous prostration." Patients suffering from this condition are usually spoken of as all "run down." The truth is that they are all "wound up," and, as a result of high tension coupled with mental anxiety, they have broken down.

Frank D. Millet.

Frank D. Millet, the noted painter was born in Matapoisett, Mass., November 3, 1846. After graduating from Harvard in the class of 1869, he studied for two years in Antwerp. He was secretary to the Massachusetts commission to the world's exposition in Vienna in 1873, and in 1877-78 was a correspondent for New York and London newspapers in the Russo-Turkish war. At the World's Columbian exposition in 1893 he was director of decorations. Mr. Millet is a scholarly painter of genre, and has received many honors, including medals at Paris, New York, New Orleans and Chicago and the Legion of Honor of France. In 1898 he again took up the work of a war correspondent, representing leading English and American journals at Manila. During the past few years Mr. Millet has devoted much of his time to mural decorations.

FOR BETTERMENT OF GREENVILLE

Opening of the New Court House
Thursday Night

A MEETING OF MUCH INTEREST

Civic League Enlists Co-Operation of
The Men in Their Work for a
Cleaner, Healthier, Better and More
Beautiful Greenville—Several Good Speeches Made.

Pitt county's handsome new court house was a picture of brilliancy Thursday night. The building was all lighted and for the first time was thrown open to the public. People of the town and visitors were out in large numbers, and after going through and inspecting the well appointed offices on the first floor, assembled in the spacious court room on the second floor for the meeting called for the furtherance of the civic pride and health interests of Greenville and Pitt county. Like the building in which they met, the assembly was one of which the county could well feel proud, for her citizenship are the flower of North Carolina.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor F. M. Wooten, who recognizing the appropriateness of Divine blessing upon the opening of this building for the first time, asked the audience to bow while Rev. C. M. Rock offered prayer.

Mayor Wooten then spoke of the campaign of health that has been awakened among the people. He pointed out the progress that had been made in medical science and how better hygiene and sanitation had greatly lessened the danger of disease. Still there is much more that needs to be done along these lines, and it is by discussing these before the people that attention is directed to evils and dangers that yet exist. He appealed to the pride of the people to each one help make Greenville the cleanest, the healthiest and the best town it is possible to have.

Prof. C. W. Wilson spoke next, and assured the women of the Civic League, under whose auspices this meeting was held, that he was in full sympathy with all their efforts to make Greenville a healthier and more beautiful town. He said that in addition to the advantage of having clean streets and clean premises, it would also advance health conditions to see that places where groceries and meats we eat are sold should also be looked after and kept clean.

Prof. H. B. Smith said that there is much yet to be done for Greenville's improvement. There are many things here that were not here when he came to the town six years ago, and the time is ripe now for even greater progress. He commended the work the Civic League has done, and offered suggestions as to other things that can be done. One thing he pointed out that ought to be improved is the lack of co-operation among the business men, especially the merchants. He told of the sanitation at the graded school, and suggested even more advantages he hoped to see there. He also expressed the hope that the Civic League would take interest in seeing that the street leading to the Training school is made one of the best streets in the town. Senator R. R. Cotten said that while he was not a citizen of Greenville, he was a citizen of Pitt county, and he felt an interest in all that was for the betterment of his county town. When the town improves the county improves. He advocated the building of good roads out in all directions from the town so that it may be easier for the people of the county to get here. The people of the county are interested in their handsome building here, and they are interested in the things that tend to advance the capital of their county.

Dr. Charles Laughinghouse said it gave him great pleasure to see this new court house begin its public use with such a meeting as this. He believed the Civic League could do more for the health, the happiness, the prosperity, the progress of the community than all the judges, lawyers, and officers that can ever assemble in this building. It is the duty of every one to pledge his individual support to the Civic League in their work. He told of a hospital in which

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1911.

This cold snap might have given us a little warning to put 'em on.

When it comes to a county fair Pitt county shows you how to have them.

Our bunch of pride for Greenville and Pitt county grows larger and larger.

Bob Phillips ought to have been here to see some of the pies at the Pitt county fair.

There is no questioning the fact that Pitt county folks can do things when they come together for that purpose.

Those people who think a fair cannot be held without horse racing, side shows, and clap-traps to catch people, need only to look at what Pitt county has done.

One good hint thrown out in that meeting Thursday night, is that it is better to do things for Greenville than to talk about them and then forget to do them.

That meeting in the new court house, Thursday night, was of the kind that do good. Every citizen should desire to see Greenville cleaner, better and more beautiful, and all should work together to accomplish that.

The editor may have shown some short comings in his end of The Reflector the last few days, but as he was devoting much personal attention to helping make the Pitt county fair a success he feels an apology for his editorial short comings is not needed.

Maj. Hemphill has got tar on his heels at last and is now acclimated as editor of the Charlotte Observer. While he takes the helm, we are glad to see that those two splendid young men, Messrs. Klutz and Vincent are to remain on the editorial staff. The Observer is certainly well equipped to hold its place as the best paper in the state.

Former Pastor Here.

Rev. D. W. Arnold, of Dunn, came in this morning from Ayden and spent the day here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moye. Mr. Arnold was pastor of the Christian church here for some time and has many warm friends who are glad to see him in Greenville again.

he was once a physician where the first requirement of a patient was a good bath, and as he looked at Greenville he sometimes felt that the town ought to be a patient in that hospital. The Civic League can recommend cleanliness but must have the support of the people to enforce it. The water plant of Greenville has more than paid for itself in the prevention of typhoid fever in the town. More room for the graded school grounds was among the suggestions he made. No one can say he is a free and independent citizen. We are all dependant one upon the other. When we live elbow to elbow and our yards almost crowd over each other, our ills cross the way to our neighbor. We have the cleanest and most sanitary market house in the state, but we need an efficient food inspector to see that what comes out of that market house is wholesome.

Dr. John A. Ferrall, a member of the state board of health, being present was called on for some remarks. He said Greenville should be congratulated upon her sanitary market house which is not surpassed in the South, for he has inspected it and knows. He had listened to the many excellent suggestions made at this meeting with much pleasure, but a system of taking up one thing at the time and accomplishing that is best to follow. A definite purpose awakens more interest than going at random, and he believed that organization for one thing would bring the desired co-operation more readily.

Prof. H. E. Austin said we too often hold public meetings and forget the suggestions made in them as soon as they are over. He hoped it would not be so this time, but that the good suggestions made at this meeting would lead to a definiteness of purpose that will count for something. It should not be left to the members of the Civic League to plan and carry out the betterment and improvement of the community, but it is something that all of us should take a hand in.

Mrs. T. A. Person, president of the Civic League, thanked the gentlemen speaking for what they had said and the suggestions offered. She said the women of the league wanted to do all they could for the betterment of the town, but felt the need of the help of the men. She called for volunteers from the men as members of the Civic League, and many responded.

Dr. L. C. Skinner tendered to the Civic League his professional services to make a weekly or semi-weekly inspection of meats sold in the market house, provided the board of aldermen will give him authority to do this. Mayor Wooten pledged that this authority would be given.

If this meeting does not result in much good to the community we shall be surprised.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. Its the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills, and debility. 25 cents at all druggists.

Farmers, Listen!

Here is what gentlemen say that buy tobacco for different firms upon the Greenville market:

We, the undersigned buyers of the Greenville tobacco market, do hereby state that we pay as much for tobacco of the different grades and types upon one warehouse floor as another in Greenville.

Signed:
E. B. Ferguson, buyer American Tobacco company.
Geo. B. Copper, buyer British American Tobacco company.
R. O. Jeffries, buyer Imperial Tobacco company.
Hughes, Meade Tobacco company.
E. B. Ficklen Tobacco company.
W. I. Ekinner, buyer Imperial Tobacco company.
T. A. Person & Co.
The above statement was made by the tobacco buyers of the Greenville market.

All of those misleading reports about getting $0.85 per hundred pounds or $8.50 per thousand pounds more than any other house in Greenville is deceiving and does not appeal to the fair-minded, intelligent farmers of Eastern Carolina.

11 3-2t--fro-mon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moye, Sr., and little son and Miss Mary Johnston returned Thursday afternoon from Ayden, where they had been attending the North Carolina Christian convention.

Mr. A. W. Moye, of Cary, has been here a few days visiting his brothers, Messrs. J. R. and J. G. Moye, and taking in the fair.

Pessimism is the undigested fruit of experience.

Saved Many From Death.
W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Mrs. J. O. Proctor came in from Ayden Thursday afternoon and spent the night here with her sister, Mrs. D. S. Spain, enroute to her home in Grimesland.

Here Is Where The Draft Enters

The most perfect draft ever discovered is the patent Hot Blast Draft of the Wilson Heater. The only draft that secures perfect combustion and prevents waste. This draft is found only in the

Wilson
HOT BLAST
Heater

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel.

In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 24 hours.

We sell Wilson Hot Blast Heaters for either wood or coal.
