

PITT COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

First Term in the Handsome New Court House

PRESIDED OVER BY JUDGE WHEDBEE

Grand Jury for First Term—Judge Whedbee Delivers Excellent Charge And Commends People of the County—Solicitor Abernethy Also Makes Some Commendatory Remarks.

The first term of Superior court in Pitt county's handsome new court house, commenced promptly at 10:00 o'clock this morning with Judge H. W. Whedbee, resident judge of the district presiding, and Solicitor C. L. Abernethy representing the state. This term of court, according to the prescribed calendar, would have been held by Judge Frank Carter, but the honor of holding the first term in our new court house being asked for Judge Whedbee, the courtesy of an exchange between the judges was made with the consent of the government.

When Judge Whedbee entered from the judge's retiring room and walked on the stand there was applause from the large audience which he acknowledged with a bow and ordered the crier, Mr. L. W. Lawrence, to open court. Quite a number of ladies were in the audience to hear the charge of Judge Whedbee.

The first business was the calling of the jury list for the term, and the following were drawn as grand jurors for the term: D. G. Berry, foreman; J. S. Spain, J. D. Smith, John W. Venters, R. Hyman, James Evans, H. Bryant Hardee, Frank Edwards, Robert Smith, Jr., J. E. Forest, W. H. Smith, L. B. Garris, J. J. Gray, Furney Gaskins, R. J. Little, J. B. Stocks, J. S. Fomes, W. L. Best.

This first jury in the new court house was drawn by Master Howard Moye, little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Moye.

In beginning his charge Judge Whedbee said he was not unmindful of the saying that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country and among his own people." Neither was he unmindful of the fact that what he said would be listened to by some for the purpose of criticism, as he was at home. I want my first public utterance in this beautiful temple of justice which the people of Pitt county have builded through their representatives, to be an expression of appreciation to the people of my county for the honor they have conferred upon me. Without the almost unanimous approval and support of my people I would not now be judge. I hope the day may never come when I will forget the loyalty of my people to me in this, my first public office.

Judge Whedbee then addressed the grand jury, defining their duties and calling their attention to the various offenses that they were to consider. We shall not attempt to give a synopsis of the charge, but will say that the people of Pitt county never heard a better one. It was clear, comprehensive, explaining fully the law and the duties of the grand jurors.

In reference to lynching Judge Whedbee said that not in his memory had a lynching occurred in Pitt county, and knowing the temperament of the people as he did, that they were a people who waited for the law to take its course, he did not think one would occur, but nevertheless, he wanted to give a few words for future bearing. Lynching, he said, is murder, and it matters not how deserving of death the victim might be, those who engage in a lynching are murderers. When a mob assembles for such an act there are some good men in it and some bad men. The good men place themselves forever at the mercy of the bad men lest they be informed upon as murderers. They may also afterward be summoned to serve as grand jurors of their county, in which case the oath that they take, to report all criminal violations in their knowledge, would make them perjurers.

On prohibition he said the people of North Carolina by popular vote had said it shall be a prohibition state, and it is a violation of law to sell anything that will intoxicate, except cider, which a man makes from apples raised by himself, and wine from

SPEECH OF WELCOME AT PITT COUNTY FAIR

BY PROF. W. H. RAGSDALE.

A Gem That Should Live Always In The Hearts of the People.

On Friday, educational day at the Pitt county fair, after the school procession had taken place and all were assembled in the Star warehouse, County Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale delivered the address of welcome. This was so beautiful and full of genuine feeling, that we are sure that the people will take pleasure in reading it. Prof. Ragsdale said, Ladies and Gentlemen, Boys and Girls:

A few years ago I had the privilege and pleasure of standing in a great art gallery of our national capital. As I stood there amid the sudue tones of the great crowd present I gazed in wonder at the beautiful exhibition of the works of art as they hung on the tinted walls. I felt that I was in the presence of the productions of the great artists of the world, looking upon pictures that cost years of thought and years and days in their production. To me the scene was beautiful and inspiring.

As I stand here today, however, let me say in truth that there spreads out before me a scene far more beautiful and inspiring than this was. There I saw the beautiful, but the pictures were complete. They had no life, they moved not, neither could they speak. They inspired largely by what it took to produce them. We recall and remember the artists. In this scene here there are living pictures, they move, they talk, they think, they act, they are filled with throbbing, pulsating, sympathetic hearts and minds capable of unlimited development. Yes, they have powers, latent though they may be now, which can reproduce the other scene and even surpass it. Yes, these boys and girls are the untold resources of our land.

You all remember the story of Cornelia, the mother of Garci. In a vine-covered summer house in a beautiful garden two boys were standing, they were looking at their mother and her friend, a lady with her whose hands and neck glittered with beautiful diamond rings and chains. Boys, the mother said, I have something to tell you. You are to dine with us here today in this beautiful garden and then our friend is going to show us that wonderful casket of jewels of which you have heard so much.

The meal was over, the casket was brought and when opened how those jewels dazzled the eyes of the wondering boys. There were ropes of pearls white as milk and smooth as satin; there were heaps of shining rubies red as the glowing coals; there were sapphires as blue as the sky that summer day, and diamonds that flashed and sparkled like the sunlight. The boys looked at the gems. Presently the younger one whispered, "If our mother could only have such beautiful things." At last, however, the casket was closed and carried away.

Is it true, Cornelia, that you have no jewels? asked her friend, is it true as I have heard it whispered that you are poor? At this moment Cornelia drew her two boys to her side and with her arms about their neck, said: "Here are my jewels, they are worth more than all your gems." Their after life proved how true were her words that day.

Yes, fathers and mothers, these are our jewels. Let me go further and say, Pitt county, State of North Carolina, these are your jewels, they are worth more than all your gems.

No one knows how I would like to utter the thoughts now crowding my brain and the feelings now chasing each other in my heart as I stand here after twenty years of service in this work and see what I now behold.

But, I must forbear and poorly and inadequately perform only the part assigned me on this program, that is a few words of welcome to these dear boys and girls and those who have gotten them here. To me the task is pleasing, but difficult; yes, hard because poor cold words cannot convey the feelings of our hearts today.

The interest in this educational day has been largely increased by the fact that interested in it are the state, the private and denominational and the county public schools.

JUST PLAIN EVERY-DAY AMERICAN THRIFT WILL MAKE YOU A WINNER

It Costs You Nothing to Try; You Can't Lose--Every Worker Will Win Something--Remember There Are Seven Valuable Prizes.

OPPORTUNITY TIME WILL CLOSE ON THE COMING SATURDAY NIGHT

DO YOUR BEST BETWEEN NOW AND THEN AND LET THE END TAKE CARE OF ITSELF.

SPECIAL TO CONTESTANTS.

A large number of inquiries have been received regarding sending in renewals to the paper. In taking a renewal, receipt for the money in the regular way, and for whatever amount is paid will be credited to the account of the subscriber for whom it is received. Under no circumstances will two papers be sent to a subscriber by his sending in his renewal before his present subscription expires, but it will be added right on to the end of his present subscription. Get all of your friends that are getting the paper to pay up a little further in advance, for votes are issued on these just the same as in any other subscription. It is not necessary for a subscriber's time to have expired before he can renew his subscription.

Within a day or two the Gordon & Son Piano, which constitutes the first grand prize in the Daily Reflector's big voting contest will occupy a place of honor in the Sam White Piano Co.'s new and commodious show-rooms.

The piano is an absolute high grade instrument and is full worth every cent paid for it. The young women who have seen it at the Pitt county fair have told us that they are fully satisfied that we have not exaggerated the value and worth of it one bit, in fact, the price quoted, $300.00, is far too low for an instrument of this character.

The management of the Daily Reflector and the Sam White Piano Co. make a special request that all of the contestants and their friends go to the store and not only see, but try this beautiful instrument, which is offered absolutely free to the young lady in the whole contest who possesses sufficient energy and push to stand highest at the finish of this grand race.

The Victor Victrola.

In this age of mechanical devices, the Victor Victrola stands for the highest word of mechanically produced music. Anybody listening to the Victrola would never guess that the beautiful sounds emitted from its sounding box are not efforts of human talent. Those who were fortunate enough to hear this "perfect" substitute two nights ago at the Galety, were unanimous in their expressions of approval of the Victor Victrola. Contestants are invited to go and see and hear this instrument in the store of A. B. Ellington & Co. Mr. Ellington will be more than glad to demonstrate the real value, both musical and as an artistic ornament, of the Victor Victrola, to whoever wishes to get acquainted with this, the second grand prize in the Daily Reflector contest.

The District Prizes.

When it is said that a watch is a

Waltham, a long way has been gone towards saying that this watch is the best on the market. The American public is the most critical public on earth when the commodities of life are concerned. And nobody can deny that a good watch is one of the necessary commodities of life. For this reason, when the Daily Reflector decided to give away five gold watches for district prizes, there was no hesitation in the selection of the Waltham watch. The engraved designs which ornament their cases make them most attractive. Contestants and their friends are welcomed to come and see these watches now being displayed at Mr. W. L. Best store. He will be glad to show you the watches whenever you call.

Perseverance, Not Luck Will Win.

Don't you know that the people who do things are the ones who are on the alert and watching for every opportunity that presents itself? Half of the battle is knowing when you have an opportunity and the other half is in rushing in and seizing that opportunity and hanging on like grim death until you succeed, and never admitting defeat, but in forcing success from the everlasting cobbles that block your way and give you a bounce as you go by.

If you belong to the "never-try" class, you don't know what this means and you couldn't understand it. Some one would have told you that it didn't pay to try, that you haven't a chance, and you believe them and forget it.

If you belong to the "do-things" class, you have been thinking about this great contest ever since it started and figuring just what your chances would be of winning, and you have already mailed your nomination blank or have it all ready to mail. The contest is just getting under way so join the activities and go out to win.

There are prizes, seven of them, and you can win just which ever one you want by simply getting out and doing things. Every single one of your friends will help you. Just GO IN AND WIN.

Extra Vote Offer.

On each set of five six months subscriptions to the Daily Reflector turned in before nine o'clock Saturday night will be given an extra vote ballot, good for 25,000 votes in the contest, in addition to the regular votes issued on these subscriptions. It is not necessary that they be all six months subscriptions for a yearly subscription counts the same as two six months, and a two yearly as four.

It is not necessary that a subscriber's time should expire before he can renew wagain. No matter how far ahead his subscription is paid if he wants to help you in the contest by paying a little more he can do so and the amount will be credited to his account and will be added on to the end of his present subscription. See all your friends RIGHT NOW, they will surely help you, and see how many of these sets you can secure before Saturday night. THERE IS NO LIMIT, A CONTESTANT CAN HAVE JUST AS MANY EXTRA VOTE BALLOTS AS SHE CAN SECURE.

ASSAULT CASE UP.

Case of Harry Ulrich, Accused of Assaulting Booker T. Washington.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Many curious persons visited Part V. of the Court of Special Sessions today in the expectation of hearing some interesting testimony when the case of Harry Ulrich, accused of assault on Booker T. Washington, the negro educator, was called for trial. The alleged assault occurred on the night of March 19, last, in front of Ulrich's house in West Sixty-third street. At the time of his arrest, Ulrich said the he had mistaken Dr. Washington for a burglar, and also that the negro had annoyed his wife. This Dr. Washington denied. He said that he was looking for the residence of the auditor of the Tuskegee Institute, of which he is the head.

INDIANA AS AN APPLE STATE.

Apple Show Opened Today and Will Continue Until End of Week.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—Apple pies, baked apples, apple sauce, apple butter, apples raw and apples in every conceivable form (except in the form of apple jack) are displayed in Tomlinson hall, where the Indiana Apple show opened today, to continue until the end of the week. Indiana has had a banner year in her apple orchards, putting forth the greatest crop in the state's history. The yield has given both country people and city manufacturers opportunity to make up immense quantities of butters and other products, and the apple in all its preserved forms, as well as the natural state, is to be seen at the exhibition.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

PRESIDENT LEAVES HOT SPRINGS

Governors To Be Elected In Five States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—Governors and legislatures will be chosen in a few of the states next Tuesday and there will be some local elections of decided importance. Governors are to be elected in five states—Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi and Rhode Island. The Democrats are certain of Mississippi and appear almost equally confident of winning Kentucky, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Maryland may be classed as doubtful, with the chances favoring the Republicans in the two New England states and the Democrats in Maryland. Of almost equal interest with the state elections are the contests in Philadelphia and New York. In the first-named city it is a fight to overthrow the Republican "ring," while in New York it is a repetition of the old, old fight to down Tammany hall.

President Taft will leave Hot Springs, Va., Monday night for Cincinnati, where he will vote at the local elections the following day. Wednesday will be spent in Louisville and from there he will go to Frankfort and Hodgenville to participate in the dedication of the Lincoln Farm Memorial. Saturday he will pay hurried visits to Nashville, Sewanee and Chattanooga, before returning to Washington.

The 100th anniversary of the battle of Tippecanoe, fought near LaFayette, Ind., will be celebrated Tuesday with exercises on the battlefield. Governor Marshall, Senator Kern and other public men will speak.

King George and Queen Mary and the members of their suites are scheduled to sail from Portsmouth Thursday to attend the great Dubar to be held at Delhi, India, in December. The royal party will make the trip in the new Peninsula and Oriental liner Medina, which will be escorted by the cruiser Defence.

A special election is to be held Thursday in the tenth congressional district of Tennessee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gen. George W. Gordon. The election of Hugh McKellar, the Democratic candidate, is regarded as assured.

The case of Harry Ulrich, indicted for assault as a result of the attack made on Booker T. Washington, the negro educator, in New York last March, is on the docket for trial in that city next Monday.

The formal inauguration of Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Brown as chancellor of New York University will take place Thursday and will be made the occasion for a great gathering of representatives of the foremost educational institutions of America.

The annual meeting of the American Society for the judicial settlement of international disputes will begin in Cincinnati Tuesday and will have President Taft as one of the speakers.

Another notable convention of the week will be the annual meeting of the national organization of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The meeting will be held in Richmond, Virginia.

N. Y. U. INAUGURAL WEEK.

The Inauguration Proper Will Take Place Thursday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The formal inauguration of Elmer Ellsworth Brown as chancellor of New York University this week will be the occasion of a very unusual gathering of distinguished scholars, educators and public men from many parts of the country. Several hundred delegates representing universities, colleges, and learned societies will attend the ceremony. Reunions and festivities in connection with the inauguration will occupy the entire week. The inauguration proper will take place Thursday morning in the auditorium of the library building at University Heights. The installation will be followed in the evening with an alumni dinner at the Hotel Astor, at which the speakers will include Secretary of the Interior Fisher, Presidents Lowell, of Harvard; Hadley, of Yale; Schurman, of Cornell; and Butler, of Columbia; and Senators Root and O'Gorman.

One of the compensations of being a fat woman is to have her friends tell her she is getting thin.

CAN WE REALLY STOP WORRYING

To Say "Worry Not" Does Not Mean "Rust Out." (Number 7)

I well remember hearing some one say: "An imaginary worry may be unreal, but a worried imagination is very real." And this is true. The basis of our worry may be entirely false and unreal, but the final results of the worry upon the mind, soul and health are in every sense real and highly injurious.

Where we really want to get in this whole matter of worry is at the place where we strike an intelligent balance between the dangers which threaten us on the one hand from too much work and the friction and worry attendant thereon; and on the other hand from too much rest and the rest of character which is sure to follow. We do not want either to "worry out" or "rust out," but to possess that wisdom which will enable us to lead the normal, rational life which promises deliverance from the threatened dangers of both these unnecessary extremes. We must be able to strike a practical balance between friction and rust.

Both mental idleness and physical inactivity predispose people to worry. Those who would cease from worry must constantly guard against intellectual inactivity. For if it is true that Satan finds mischief for idle hands it is even more true that he is apt to find worry for idle minds; and worry obscures our outlook on life, both for this world and the next. It throttles the higher powers of the mind; it beclouds our view of life and distorts our appreciation of the duties thereof. We should always remember one salient point, and it is this: mental work never kills. It is mental work plus worry that is so highly destructive to strength of brain and health of body. Mental work coupled with unusual worry and its resultant insomnia presents conditions which will more quickly destroy the physical health and break down the mind than any other possible combination of mental vices and physical sins.

SAND-CLAY ROADS.

In the discussion of building good roads in Pitt county you have heard the expression by those trying to create opposition to the movement that it was a waste of money to put it in sand-clay roads, the kind we would build down here. But listen to this expression from the Charlotte Observer:

North Carolina is rapidly coming around to an appreciation of the value of sand-clay roads as a permanent form of building material. The old system of macadamizing is gradually losing in popular favor, and, strange as it may appear, experiments are teaching that the best substitute for this improved method is, after all, the cheapest. It is calculated that the sand-clay roads now being constructed in Cleveland county cost only $250 a mile, while the average cost of a mile of macadam in Mecklenburg, which has more than 200 miles of the improvement, is roughly estimated at $4,500. For elasticity and for permanency, the sand-clay variety is regarded as vastly superior to the macadam.

Here in Pitt county where sand and clay are both abundant and easily obtained our roads can be built at an average cost not exceeding $250 per mile. Mecklenburg regarded her macadam roads at $4,500 a good investment, and if we can build roads nearly twenty times cheaper, it certainly would pay to get busy quick building roads in Pitt county.

MAKING MONEY IN THE SOUTH.

As an instance of how easily money can be made farming in the South, the Charlotte Observer cites this:

Two years ago a young machinist from a northern state, who was forced by ill health to give up the work for which he had been trained, bought a little place with borrowed money within a short distance of Asheville and went to farming. This was in June, 1910. In October of the present year he had made enough on his little farm to pay every cent that it had cost, had $1,000 on deposit in one of the local banks, and had, besides, a great deal of produce, ready for sale to waiting buyers. The profits on this little farm yielded its fortunate owner a net profit of $100 the acre last year and is expected to make at least $150 the acre next season. This is only one of many, a thousand, cases of where land that could be bought for $20 the acre has yielded a fair return; land that would be worth a thousand dollars in other parts of the country. The best the money lenders can make is from 6 to 8 per cent on their loans; in the southeast the farmers are doing a rather poor business if they do not make 10 per cent.

This occurring in the mountain region of the state we take it for granted that the farmer raised no cotton. In fact we believe most any crop that the farmer grows, and down here in the east they can grow almost anything, will pay better than cotton.

The Reflector would like to have expressions from farmers and business men from different sections of the county as to what they thought of the recent county fair, together with any suggestions they may offer for the fair contemplated for next year. We believe to print short letters of this kind will do good in awakening still more county pride, in leading the farmers to make greater effort to excel, and to keep an interest in the next fair before their minds. The last fair was a success that anybody can afford to talk about it, but the one next year can be even larger and better if we all work right for it.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. Its the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, phills and debility. 25 cents at all druggists.

The grand jury of Iredell county Superior court made presentment against the board of commissioners of the county for failure to improve the county home as recommended by the previous grand jury. Iredell is too great a county to afford to be neglectful in a matter of this kind.

The Greensboro Record is advising to put 'em on. Too late, we were already in 'em.

Just as well make up your mind that there is going to be some cold weather.

CONCORD.—The Cabarrus county cotton warehouse at Harrisburg, containing one hundred and twenty bales of cotton, was destroyed by fire this morning. The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Fate McChartney, who lives only a short distance from the warehouse, which is located near the railway station. The alarm was given and practically the entire citizenship of the little village responded, but without the assistance of fire-fighting apparatus, they were unable to cope with the flames. The building was not insured. It was erected in 1907 and cost $300. There was $5,500 insurance on the cotton, which fully covers the loss. The staple was owned by farmers in various parts of the county.

25,000 Extra Votes

Here's

How

On Every Set of Five Six Months New Subscriptions to The Daily

HERE'S THE PLAN:

Between Monday, October 30th and Saturday, November 11, thousands of free votes will be given away absolutely free to the candidates in The Daily Reflector Big Voting Contest. Everyone who turns in a set of FIVE SIX MONTHS SUBSCRIPTIONS between these two dates will be given an extra ballot good for 25,000 EXTRA VOTES. During this offer a yearly subscription will count the same as two six months subscriptions, or a two-year subscription will count the same as four six-months subscriptions and so on. Three and four months subscriptions do not count on this offer and votes will not be issued on them.

Candidates can secure just as many sets as possible. These extra votes will be good at any time during the contest and can be reserved just the same as any subscription ballot. Turn your subscriptions in just as fast as you can secure them and a careful count will be kept at this office, and as soon as a set has been received the extra vote ballot will be issued. This applies to subscriptions turned in by subscribers for candidates, just the same. Secure just as many sets as possible, for this big offer will not be repeated during the contest.

Turn in Subscriptions as Fast as You Secure Them

Until further notice no contestant will be permitted to poll more subscription votes on any one day than will place her 10,000 ahead of the leader of the day before; for example, if the leader today has 25,000 votes to her credit, no contestant may poll more votes for the list tomorrow than will make her total 35,000.

"THIS IS MY 68TH BIRTHDAY," Martin A. Knapp.

Martin A. Knapp, for many years chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and now one of the justices of the Commerce Court of the United States, was born in Onondaga county, New York, November 6, 1843. He was educated at Homer academy, Homer, New York and also at Cazenovia Seminary, and then took a course at Wesleyan University, from which he was graduated in 1868. Mr. Knapp was admitted to the bar of New York the following year and located in Syracuse, where he soon rose to a prominent position among the members of the legal profession. He was made corporation counsel of the city of Syracuse, a position which he filled for six years. In 1891 he was appointed by President Harrison a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission. This position he filled with such distinctive ability that he was reappointed by President Cleveland in 1897, and again reappointed by President Roosevelt in 1902 and 1908. In 1908 he was elected chairman of the commission and continued to hold that position until his appointment a year ago to the newly-created Commerce court.

Mr. Ernest Gorman went to Richmond today.

Farmers, Listen!

Here is what gentlemen say that buy tobacco for different firms upon the Greenville market:
We, the undersigned buyers of the Greenville tobacco market, do hereby state that we pay as much for tobacco of the different grades and types upon one warehouse floor as another in Greenville.
Signed:
E. B. Ferguson, buyer American Tobacco company.
Geo. B. Cooper, buyer British American Tobacco company.
R. O. Jeffries, buyer Imperial Tobacco company.
Hughes, Meade Tobacco company.
E. B. Ficklen Tobacco company.
W. I. Ekiner, buyer Imperial Tobacco company.
T. A. Person & Co.
The above statement was made by the tobacco buyers of the Greenville market.

All of those misleading reports about getting $0.85 per hundred pounds or $8.50 per thousand pounds more than any other house in Greenville is deceiving and does not appeal to the fair-minded, intelligent farmers of Eastern Carolina.

Here is What We Say.

If you are not selling your tobacco at the Liberty, just bring us your next load and we will prove to you that we will sell it as high as any warehouse in Eastern Carolina.

Interest Is Growing In It Again—Increased Attendance.

There was a still further increased attendance at the meeting of the Men's Prayer League in the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, which shows that interest in the organization is growing again. The subject for that meeting was "Beware of Covetousness," and Messrs. B. B. Sugg, R. M. Hearne, A. B. Ellington and M. W. Wallace all made splendid talks on it. The subjects discussed at the meetings of the league are always interesting and helpful. As there is to be a special meeting for men next Sunday afternoon in connection with the revival in progress in the Baptist church, the league will not hold its regular meeting that day.

Saved Many From Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by all druggists.

MEN ARE HELPLESS AS CHILDREN.

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here is a Common-sense Safeguard.

Big, strong man is as a helpless infant when he is suddenly ill. The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self-control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions. For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening. Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him, and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomach. A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets might have given him relief—might have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and ward off indigestion.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets relieve stomach troubles by aiding nature to supply those elements, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They tend to aid the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Sold only at our stores or by mail. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Noyes Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

Washington, D. C., has 35,000 union members.

North Carolina has 125,000 cotton mill operatives.

The first British trade union congress was held in 1868.

A Scandinavian lodge of machinists has been founded in Boston.

Cleveland, Ohio, will soon have a union owned and operated bakery.

The cotton industry of England employs many more women than men.

Almost 536,000 workmen are killed or injured every year in American industry.

Many Japanese factory workers work sixteen hours a day for seven days and week and hardly ever get a holiday.

The Illinois Federation of Labor has resolved by referendum vote against the proposal to form a strictly labor political party.

For the use of immigrants a two-story hotel with sleeping accommodations for 2,200 persons has recently been opened at Buenos Aires.

A movement for a national pension for firemen was launched at the fourteenth annual convention of the National Firemen's association.

The United Textile Workers at their recent convention in New York City, voted in favor of affiliating with the International Textile Workers' Alliance of Europe.

Officials of the Chesapeake & Ohio company, including President George W. Stevens have formed a model town company and will erect a village for workmen at the new C. & O. stop-town, Silver Grove, Ky., about 13 miles from Cincinnati.

Not less than $5,000,000 was paid for the relief of the unemployed members of trade unions, out of the money in the union treasuries last year. These expenditures do not include several million dollars paid in strike and lockout benefits.

The wages board act, now law in Australian states, whereby the union nominates three, the employer three and these six appoint the seventh their chairman, thus creating a legal board which fixes wages and hours for two or three years, was obtained by unions.

All British trade unions concerned in the recent great national sympathetic strikes have added to their membership as a result. To give one example, during the six weeks ended September 9, the London Carmen's Trade union established a record. In that period they enrolled 16,000 new members.

Not since the days of the gold rushes has there been such a general strain on the labor market in Australia as exists at the present time. In two states—New South Wales and Western Australia—Royal Commissions are investigating the subject of labor scarcity, and from each of the other states employers, organizations are loudly bewailing their inability to produce sufficient hands to cope with the large amount of work that is waiting to be done.

Didn't Understand Divorce Law.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 6.—A peculiar matrimonial mix-up is furnished in the case of Mrs. Sophia McLeod whose action for the annulment of her marriage with Alfred McLeod, superintendent of one of the subway companies in New York City, came up in court here today for trial. Mrs. McLeod was married in 1877 to Augustus Doull, in Prince Edward Island, and lived with him until 1890, when they separated. She came to Cambridge to live in 1897 and sued for divorce in Rhode Island the next year and received a decree. She was not informed by her Rhode Island attorney, she declares that residence in that state for a year was necessary to give her a right to sue for divorce there. Believing her decree was valid, she was married to McLeod in 1900. Last April she was informed by McLeod that there was doubt as to the validity of her divorce decree. She refused to live with him until the point should be settled. McLeod then left Cambridge and went to New York, where he has since resided. Mrs. Leod now seeks to have the Rhode Island decree set aside and her second marriage annulled.

INTEREST IN ELECTIONS.

Returns From Rhode Island and Massachusetts Are Anxiously Anticipated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—Official Washington is displaying more than an ordinary amount of interest in tomorrow's elections for an off-year. The returns from Massachusetts and Rhode Island are anxiously anticipated, for national issues have figured most conspicuously in the contests in those two states, and as a consequence the results will be regarded as some indication of the drift of popular opinion concerning the parties. It is possible that these results may leave the outlook no clearer than it is at present, but if for any reason one party should show decided gains in the voting the fact will be classified as an indicator of what may happen in the national election next year.

SPEECH OF WELCOME AT PITT FAIR

To the Faculty and Teachers of East Carolina Teachers Training School: We would say you always add grace and charm by your presence any where. We appreciate more than we can express the kindly spirit and manner in which you have entered into our exercises and from the truest recesses of our souls, we welcome you here today. The best we have will always be yours, and our joy will ever be complete when you are with us.

Faculty and Students of the Winterville High School: Thrice welcome are you. Your school in the beginning of our educational awakening, was the Mecca from which many of us gathered our inspiration for the talks which then seemed too much for us. Never should we mention educational progress in Pitt county without at the same time naming you as the source of our greatest help. Again, in the name of the public school forces of the county, bid you a glad welcome. May this day be yours, as well as ours.

Fathers and Mothers of these children who now sit before me, and men and women, friends of education the county over, let me say from the heart, we welcome you here today. It is not often you have a privilege like this. We are glad you have availed yourself of it and are here. Teachers, you to whom more than all others, is the future development of these boys and girls committed, a glad, glad welcome we give you. You are our captains in command. May your company be your pride.

But especially, boys and girls, do I come to you with the truest words the mind can think, and the warmest words the heart can suggest and say, we are glad you are here, this day is for you and belongs to you. May every moment of it be filled with only joy, and may its recollection always be a pleasure. Again, with thanks to the Pitt County Fair association, who have made this day possible; again, I say, dear boys and girls, our hearts gladdest welcome is hereby tendered you. You have come and we are glad, "Greenville is yours," enjoy everything to the fullest extent. Jewels of Pitt County, North Carolina, the South, Dixie Land, we welcome you, and may each and every one of you have a life blessed with earth's best, and in the end, life eternal in that land where pleasures are forever more.

grapes grown on his own premises, and this to be sold in sealed packages and crated on the premises. Many good men in Pitt county did not vote for prohibition and do not think the law is right, yet you and I are officers of the law and we would be unfit for our duties if we let personal opinions influence us. You should consider the prohibition law just as you would any other law, exactly in accordance with the evidence before you.

Speaking of the duties of the grand jurors in examining the offices and institutions of the county, Judge Whedbee said it made him sad to speak of our county home. There are not more than a dozen counties in the state that can boast of more material progress than ours. Pitt is the best county in the state—we have the best people, the best schools, and COURT HOUSE—TWO. . . IN. . . there are just two things in which we are badly behind even smaller counties, and one of these is our county home, which he must say with regret is a shame to the county. It really ought to be called a poor house as in former years until we improve it and so improve it that it is a home for the aged and infirm. He suggested that the commissioners consider this.

The other feature in which Pitt is behind many other counties, he said, was our public roads. It matters not what opinions are held as to how good roads shall be built, whether by bond issue or otherwise, they should be built, for our poor roads are costing the people of the county thousands of dollars annually.

As Judge Whedbee concluded his charge Solicitor Abernethy arose for a few words. He said he had just gone through this new court house and wanted to congratulate the commissioners and people of Pitt county for building the best court house in the state. It was even better than his own county of Carteret. Erecting such a building is an evidence of the prosperity of the people. He wished also to say to the people of Pitt county that Judge Whedbee was making a record on the bench that is a high credit both to his county and himself.

Before proceeding with the further business of the court, Judge Whedbee instructed Sheriff Dudley to collect $5 out of every man caught spitting on the floor, and if he needed the assistance of the court to help collect the fine to bring the offender before him.

The docket was then called ready for trials to begin.

MASS MEETING SATURDAY.

To Consider The Present Cotton Problem.

Under the auspices of the Farmers Union of Pitt county a mass meeting will be held in the court house in Greenville next Saturday, November 11th, at 10:30 o'clock, a. m., to discuss the cotton problem. Every farmer, every professional man, every business man and every interested citizen of the county is invited to attend this mass meeting and is urged to be present. What helps the farmer helps every other class, and all should show an interest in this meeting.

At 2:30 o'clock p. m. the same day the Farmers Union will hold its monthly business session.

TWO MULES CAUSE TROUBLE.

Colored Man Badly Hurt in A Run-away.
Today a colored man was driving a mule hitched to a buggy and leading another mule behind. When about to turn the corner of Second street into Evans street, the mule that was being led got tangled in one of the rear wheels of the buggy and turned the vehicle over. This caused the mule that was pulling the buggy to run away, throwing the colored man out and cutting a bad gash in his head.

PRAISE FROM HIGH SOURCE.

Minister Commends The Recent Pitt County Fair.

Before beginning his service in Memorial Baptist church, Sunday morning, Rev. C. M. Rock said that preachers, as well as other people, should take an interest in all that means for the progress of the community, and he desired to say a few words in commendation of the Pitt county fair held last week. When this fair was first announced with the statement that no fakirs or gambling of any kind would be allowed about it, he recalled a similar statement that had often been made in regard to fairs elsewhere, and concluded to say nothing but wait and see if it proved true. He wanted to say now that he had in his life attended many fairs and expositions, but had never seen a better county fair than the one held here. It was really a county fair, just what was intended to be, with all the fakirs and gambling schemes cut out. The people came together to learn, and they did this with a great uplift to both the county and town. He highly commended the board of governors and executive officers for giving the county such an excellent fair.

REVIVAL IN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Was Started Sunday Morning by The Pastor.

It is usually the case when revival meetings are held, by local or visiting preachers, or evangelists, that it takes several services to get the members and people awakened to the point of interest, with visible results not being shown till near the close of the series of meetings. Matters took a different turn in the series of meetings just begun in the Baptist church, for at the very first service Sunday morning there were two additions to the church.

Rev. C. M. Rock, the faithful pastor, has been doing earnest work and preaching preparatory to the meeting, and there is already much interest. He will preach each night this week until Thursday when Rev. H. R. Holcomb, of the Home Mission Board, and the singers, Mr. Blankenship and wife, will arrive. They will find the meeting already full of interest.

To Have Military Wedding.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 6.—St. Luke's church in this city is to be the scene tomorrow night of one of the most brilliant military weddings that has taken place here in a long time. The bride will be Miss Winona Derby, a leader in the younger social set of San Francisco, and the bridegroom Lieutenant Burgin, of the United States army. Lieut Ellery W. Miles, commander of the mine planter Ringgold, stationed at Seattle, will act as best man, and the ushers will be six brother officers of the bridegroom. The church ceremony will be followed by a large reception at the Officers' club, at the Presidio.

It isn't usual for a tactful har to have a contented wife.
