GIRL STRIVES TO SAVE FATHER FROM GALLOWES

MURDERED GERMAN FARM HAND

One of The Most Substantial Men in Benton County.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 11.—Not for many years has a murder trial caused so great a sensation and attracted such general interest in this section of the state as the trial to begin here in the Tippecanoe Circuit court next Monday, of John W. Poole, a prosperous Benton county farmer, who is charged with having murdered Joseph Kemper, one of his German farm hands, in December, 1909. It is not morbid curiosity alone or a desire to have an opportunity to listen to the revolting details of a brutal crime that cause this general interest. The feature which more than any other appeals to the heart and sympathy of the people is the brave fight which Grace Poole, the daughter of the accused man is making to save her father from the gallows.

Grace Poole alone of all the members of the Poole family faithfully stands by her father, out of her meager earnings as teacher in the Wheatfield public school, defrays the cost of defending her father in the coming trial. Poole's wife and his other daughter have turned against him and have absolutely refused to contribute to the fund of Poole's defense. His son, Emory Poole, who has been the prime accuser of his father and has left literally no stone unturned to find evidence against the old man, continues to maintain his attitude of extreme hostility and has openly declared that he would not rest until his father had been hanged.

John W. Poole was one of the most substantial men in Benton county. He owned several prosperous farms but, owing to some financial trouble a few years ago, transferred the title to his property to his wife. Joseph Kemper, with whose murder Poole is charged, worked for Poole during the summer and fall of 1909. He was last seen alive on December 10 or 12, 1909, and since then every trace of him was lost. It was supposed that he had left the farm to find work in the lumber camps of Michigan.

Nobody suspected that Kemper had been murdered, until Poole's son, Emory, informed the authorities of his belief that his father had killed Kemper and buried his body somewhere on the farm. The elder Poole was arrested on March 18, 1911, and charged with the murder of Kemper, but he was discharged on the same day, because there was absolutely no evidence against him at the time beyond the mere accusation of Emory Poole.

Young Poole, apparently convinced that his suspicion was well founded and determined to find the necessary proofs for the guilt of his father, continued to search for Kemper's body, exploring every part of the grounds with that object in view. His perseverance was apparently rewarded. In the middle of a big corn field, about half a mile from the Poole homestead, young Poole found the decomposed remains of the human body, mingled with the remains of a hog's carcass. He notified the authorities and although the remains of the human body were far beyond identification, insisted upon his charge that the body was that of Joseph Kemper, whom, he accused his father, of having murdered.

John W. Poole was again arrested and brought to Fowler, Ind., where he was arraigned before Justice L. B. Stephenson on May 4, last. The charge was preferred by Emory Poole, who submitted practically all the evidence. Poole pleaded not guilty and was held to the grand jury without bail on a charge of murder. In due course of time he was indicted and his trial was set for next Monday.

Although Poole continued to maintain his innocence of having committed intentional murder, he is said to have confessed that he accidentally shot and killed Kemper and then buried his body for fear of the consequence of his deed. Poole, it is said, claims that while he climbed over the fence of his orchard to hunt rabbits, his shotgun was accidentally discharged and the full load struck Kemper in the head at close range, killing him instantly.

Elmore Barce has been engaged to defend Poole and it is believed that he will make a plea of insanity for his client. Fifteen years ago Poole was tried for having tried to shoot

ANOTHER WHO LIKED PITT COUNTY FAIR

PRAISES GREENVILLE PEOPLE.

Wants The Fair to Continue Along The Same Lines as the One Held.

FARMVILLE, N. C., Nov. 11, 1911. Editor Reflector: Our fair was indeed a roaring success, thanks to our wise selection of a president and secretary, who were enthusiastic and hopeful and wise, and prudent. I hope this fair will grow and last as long as the old county musters that my friend, G. T. wrote about last week. These musters were a necessity when first introduced and were always helpful.

I want to add a word of praise for the people of Greenville. It seemed to me that the whole town did its very best. The people came Thursday and stayed all day, or if they left it was one at a time, and the space allowed for exhibits was never empty. The good women prepared dinner and invited their country acquaintances and kinsfolk to dinner, but I was glad to see that some fell in with my suggestion and carried dinner with them. On Thursday, as none of my family were present but myself, I did not take any dinner with me, so I accepted an invitation to dine in town. That was about the nicest and best dispensed dinner ever. The hostess and her fine husband were at their best and it made you wish they would give a dinner every year and that you would be fortunate enough to be there. Others fared equally as well. The whole family were pressingly invited Friday, but as we had dinner with us, we ate it and saved our welcome for another occasion. Hurrah for Greenville and the people of Greenville!

Farmville school had the prettiest banner and the only drum and the best drilled students. Next time other schools will do as well.

It is the wish of your humble servant that the fair should be conducted upon the same line, that is, educational and social. Don't let's try to have too big a thing, but let us content ourselves with a Pitt county exhibit and do not let us runaway after patronage. Next year we should have a grand stand before which the horses at least should be judged.

It seems to me that a list of those who drew prizes should be published in The Reflector. So I will mention a few with your permission:

Mr. Joseph Pollard received first on pigeons, turkeys, guineas and best buggy horse, in fact, I think Mr. Pollard received more premiums than any one.

Mr. J. B. Tucker received first and second on yellow corn; first on Berkshire boar and sow.

Mr. J. B. Speight hadw the best stalk of cotton.

Dr. Jenness Morrill received first on yearling colt.

Proctor Bros. received first on Poland China hogs. Mr. Hardy on Duroc Jerseys.

Mr. Barfield exhibited a mule footed horse, which attracted much attention.

Mr. Heber Mumford beat me on Plymouth Rock chickens, because my rooster had shed his tail.

Mr. Dump Patrick exhibited a fine horse and I think got first premium. I hope some one who knows will publish all the names of the successful exhibitors.

A. J. MOYE.

(The entire list is being prepared for publication soon.—ED.)

W. H. Harvey, who acquired fame in the first Bryan campaign as the author of "Coin's Financial School," recently declined to accept a congressional nomination in Arkansas, to which State he removed from Chicago some years ago.

a man named Quidly. The jury decided, however, that Poole was insane and he was sent to an asylum in Indianapolis, where he remained several years.

Grace Poole, the prisoner's younger daughter, came near losing her position as teacher in the Wheatfield public school where she has been doing good work for several years. Many of the parents objected to her because her father had been accused of murder, but the brave girl called a meeting of the parents and won their sympathy and support when she explained to them that it would be impossible for her to help her father should she be deprived of her position.

Biggest and Best Offer of Contest Closes Tonight

Opportunity Came and is Now Going; Did You Get Your Share?—All Contestants Striving to Maintain Their Positions in Daily Voting List.

MANY IMPORTANT CHANGES WILL BE RECORDED MONDAY

Watch the List Carefully and Act Accordingly—Show Your Friends That You Are Out to Win!

FOUR WEEKS FROM TODAY YOUR EFFORTS WILL BE REWARDED IN THE MOST LIBERAL GIFT DISTRIBUTION EVER ATTEMPTED IN THIS PART OF THE STATE.

Tonight at nine o'clock closes the biggest and best offer in the Daily Reflector contest of energy. This means that those that have taken due advantage of the liberal offers made during the past two weeks will have had a wonderful opportunity of maintaining their position and laying up a big reserve force which will eventually prove the biggest asset when the final count is made on Saturday December 9th.

That The Daily Reflector appreciates the efforts of those contestants who entered the race to make a name for themselves in the world of energy, is proven beyond doubt by this most liberal opportunity given them to show their worth. By the number of votes issued throughout the latter part of this week, it should be said that the Daily Reflector contest has reached a height of popularity that will make history in Pitt county. All day yesterday and up to the time of going to press, subscriptions and votes poured into the office of the Contest Manager, until it seemed that the contestants in the piano race were going to make it their red letter day. They were brought to the office and every mail brought its share of votes and subscriptions. And they were right. They all realized that the best period of the contest was coming to a climax and they did what was expected of them.

That the best offer of the contest is fast drawing to a close does not mean, however, that the contest itself is nearing its finish. Far from it.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Trial of Cases on the Criminal Docket.

The following cases have been disposed of since last report:

Ben Cannon and Alonzo Smith, highway robbery, guilty of robbery, Smith sentenced to 5 years in State prison and Cannon 2 years on the roads.

Arthur Jones, larceny, pleads guilty sentenced 12 months on the roads. In another case against same defendant judgment was suspended.

Stan Kennedy, disturbing religious worship, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs. In a case for carrying concealed weapon against same defendant a fine of $25 and costs was imposed.

Charles Green alias Robert Cox, larceny, guilty.

James Turnage, affray, guilty, sentenced 4 months on the roads.

William Atkinson, and Mike Atkinson, larceny, Mike Atkinson not guilty, William Atkinson, guilty.

Joe Langley, embezzlement, not guilty in two cases.

Bummer Bureny, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, fined $50 and costs.

Jim Robinson and John Hardison, affray, guilty, judgment suspended.

John Hardison, carrying concealed weapon, guilty, sentenced 6 months on the roads.

Jim Robinson, carrying concealed weapon, guilty, sentenced 5 months on the roads.

Cleveland Moore, selling liquor, guilty.

Herbert Rowe, larceny, sentenced 2 years in State prison.

Four weeks yet have to elapse, before the fateful night, when the handsome piano and the six valuable prizes will be awarded to the young ladies who are highest in the contest. Four weeks of important activities and vote getting canvass, have yet to pass before the final count is made.

Bear in Mind.

That the fight for supremacy is now on, and that every contestant must bring into play every bit of strategy that will make her sweep the enemies' camp and give her victory. Of course, this fight for supremacy will only be of the good natured kind which has been characteristic of the contest so far. It should be ever remembered that so far it would be a mighty risk to point out the winner. Although important strides have been made in the campaign of practically every contestant, we would not as yet buy the chances of any of them to win, for the proverbial old song. There are still four weeks left in which to make sure of earning the prize after which each contestant started.

None But The Brave.

Will deserve the piano, the Victor Victrola, or one of the beautiful gold Waltham watches that the Daily Reflector is going to award on Saturday, December ninth, to the young ladies standing highest in this contest of energy. The sum and total of this is, that only the brave young ladies who value an opportunity to earn valuable and useful prizes, will receive a reward fully fitting their efforts. Most of the contestants have shown so far that they are all brave and it is entirely up to them to keep up their good work and retain that name.

Ed Harris, larceny imposed sentenced 2 years in State prison.

Lena Little, affray, not guilty, similar verdict against same defendant for carrying concealed weapon.

Mack Harris, murder, plead guilty of manslaughter, sentenced 12 months on the roads.

FAIR PREMIUM LIST.

It Is Not Quite Ready For Publication.

Some days ago The Reflector stated that the list of premium winners at the recent Pitt county fair would probably be published one day this week. The preparation of the list has proven a greater undertaking than was at first anticipated, and the president and secretary of the fair association have both had many things to hinder them this week from getting the list ready. Another thing that may slightly delay publication of the list will be submitting it to the state department of agriculture for approval. Those interested in seeing the list need not be impatient as it will be published as soon as ready and the premiums paid accordingly.

Niece of Governor Dix Is Bride.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Miss Dorothea Douglas, daughter of Curtis W. Douglas and niece of Governor and Mrs. Dix, was the bride this afternoon at one of the largest and most fashionable weddings that Albany had seen in a long time. The ceremony was performed in St. Peter's Church and was followed by a large reception.

MEETING GROWING IN RELIGIOUS INTEREST

FIVE PROFESSIONS FRIDAY NIGHT

Excellent Sermon and Soul Stirring Singing—Three Services Sunday.

There was a large congregation at the meeting in the Baptist church, Friday night, and the service was marked with much interest. The song service preceding the sermon, led by Prof. Blankenship, was entered into with enthusiasm and spirit by the congregation. Special songs were another beautiful solo by Mrs. Blankenship and an equally beautiful duet by Prof. and Mrs. Blankenship.

Evangelist Holcomb's text for the evening sermon was "For Their Hearts Were Not Right With God. Prepare to Meet Thy God." The children of Israel filled hundreds of thousands of sepulchers in the wilderness and did not cross the border into the promised land because their hearts were not right with God. And so it has been through the succeeding ages of the world—men fail to reach heaven because their hearts are not right with God. A man may be right in every other respect, but if his heart is not right he can never see God in peace. The heart is made right only by the cross for the sins of the world. This is done through simple belief and trust in Him, not mental belief but a belief that comes from the heart. Prepare to meet thy God.

The sermon was one of power, and through the guidance of the Holy Spirit awakened much interest. There were five professions of faith at this service.

Three services will be held on Sunday—regular services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., and a special service for men at 3:30 p. m.

FINEST IN THE WORLD.

Hammerstein's New London Opera House.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Monday night next, with the opening of his new London Opera House, the irrepressible Oscar Hammerstein will enter upon his career as a manager of grand opera in the British metropolis. Whatever the artistic or financial success of the undertaking may be, it is certain that Mr. Hammerstein has given to London one of the finest and best equipped theatres in the world. Designed and completed in twelve months, the magnificent structure in Kingsway is a model opera house in every respect and if thoroughness and attention to every requirement mean success, the New Yorker is going to be eminently successful.

The opera house will accommodate 2,700 persons. It contains 43 boxes, including a handsome suite for the use of the King. The stage measures 90 feet by 60 feet, and is specially constructed with a view to magnificent spectacular effects. As in the Paris house, there are saloons, lounges, and foyers for every part of the house. The entrance hall is of unusual size and surrounded by a peristyle of Corinthian columns, the special feature of the frontage being the central window, 40 feet in height. Statues illustrative of music and art stand up on the corners and each end of the building is crowned with large groups of classic statuary.

Among the operas selected for production the opening week are "Norma," "William Tell" and "Quo Vadis." Among the principals in the casts will be Maurice Renaud, Orville Harold, who makes his London debut on this occasion; Arline Villardi, a favorite of the Paris Opera House Comique, and Nina Ratti, who comes from the Paris Galety.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

MANY EVENTS ARE SCHEDULED.

First Session of Canada's New Parliament Opens Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—The return of President Taft to Washington after an absence of two months will be the signal for a re-awakening of official life and political activity in the national capital. Though Congress will not meet for several weeks many of the members will be here for meetings of various commissions and official investigations. The President will begin work in earnest on his annual message and political leaders will drop in to consult him concerning the preliminary work of the approaching campaign, which it is generally agreed is to have an earlier beginning next year than is usually the case.

The progress of events in Tripoli and of the revolutionary movement in China, together with the McNamara trial in Los Angeles, may still be counted on to furnish first-page stories.

The first session of Canada's new elected twelfth Parliament will open Wednesday. The proceedings of the first day will be purely formal and of a routine character. The ceremonial opening by His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught will take place Thursday and promises to be an event of exceptional brilliancy. The duration of the parliamentary sessions and the extent and character of the business to be transacted are largely problematical.

Among the important gatherings of the week will be the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor at Atlanta; the annual convention of the American Road Builders' Association, at Rochester; the meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, at Kansas City; the convention of the American Association for the Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality, at Chicago, and the convention and exhibition of the American Apple Congress, in Denver.

Other events of more or less interest and importance will be annual banquet of the Canadian Club of New York, the dedication of the Massachusetts monuments on Petersburg battlefield and at Valley Forge, the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition in Chicago, the opening of the National Horse Show in New York, and the football game between Yale and Princeton, Michigan and Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin and Minnesota universities.

BEN McCULLOUGH CENTENARY.

Fought Under Three Flags and was Killed Under the Stars and Bars.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. Nov. 11.—One hundred years ago today saw the birth in this country of the redoubtable Ben McCullough, whose exploits as an Indian fighter and soldier of fortune rivaled the stirring deeds of Davy Crockett and other famous Western pioneers. McCullough fought under three flags. In his youth he followed the Stars and Stripes into battle against the Indians. Later, at the battle of San Jacinto, he fought side by side with Sam Houston for the "Lone Star" flag of the Texas republic. At the outbreak of the Civil war he joined the Confederates. He was commissioned brigadier-general and was killed while fighting under the Stars and Bars at the battle of Pea Ridge.

SUCCESS OF THE STATE FARM.

The papers have been talking recently about the success of the state farm this year, emphasis being given to the fact that on 1,500 acres there were raised 1,500 bales of cotton, and that in addition to this the farm produced a large quantity of peanuts and enough corn and forage to supply the farm for two years. At the same time the farm, buildings and stock have been improved and much work done on the river dykes that protect the lowlands from overflow.

In speaking of this success and comparing it with former years—recalling that it has been no great while since this state farm was talked about as a losing proposition and looked upon as a stench, when now it is operated with large profit to the state—the question naturally arises as to what brought about this marked contrast. We believe the reason can be given in one word—management.

In years gone by, and in the recollection of all of us, the state prison and farms have had as managers at different times a school teacher, a West Point graduate, a cotton buyer and two or three lawyers, neither of whom had any knowledge of how to conduct a farm, hence it is not surprising that under their management the farm proved a failure. The present governor had an eye to the fitness of things, so concluded that a real farmer was the right man to put in charge of a big farm if success was to come out of it, and in looking around for a suitable man for superintendent selected one in Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, who had already established his capabilities as a successful farmer. He carried his skill, his experience and his energy with him into the management of the farm, and to this the changed condition is attributable.

While the present success of the state farm is a cause of gratification to every citizen of the state, The Reflector feels an especial pride in it because the man who has brought this about is a Pitt countian, one born and reared among us, one who lived on the farm and made his farm a success. If the men for all places of responsibility were selected because of their especial fitness for the position, there would be more success in administration.

COMMUNITY CO-OPERATION.

Which is the best man for your town: The one who invests his capital, energy and interest in the community as an adjunct to other businesses that all may profit by his being here, employing men who spend money for a living amongst you? or the one who gets his living from the business of your town and community, never adding one penny to its resources except his personal taxes, soliciting for mail order houses, which takes your money entirely away from the place, and forever working against established and home building enterprises? I think the former merits your unstinted encouragement, aid and support that he may continue to stay among you, and that the community spirit which allows the latter to exist is bad, to say the least. Co-operate with and help your established enterprises, thereby keeping all your business at home and your own prosperity will be much greater. We cannot build an ideal town and community while patronizing enterprises in other towns and communities. When one buys an article of merchandise, machinery, home building material, furniture, or anything that can be bought in ones own town, even though a few cents may be saved by doing so, it reacts upon the whole community, but most heavily upon the one who does it. He creates enemies of the ones who should be his friends and his monetary gain and more is loss. Community co-operation should be the watch-word ever.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Greenville Citizen Can Afford To Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the danger of dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands. Here's proof: James Long, Dickinson avenue, Greenville, N. C., says, "I am certain that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit and I do not hesitate to recommend them. HAVE HEALTHY HAIR.

Use Weyth's Sage and Sulphur—A Harmless Remedy.

What a pity it is to observe so many people with thin and faded hair and then realize that the most of these people might have a fine healthy head of hair if they would buse use the simple "sage tea" of our grandmothers, cmbined with other ingredients for restoring and preserving the hair. No one, young or old, need have gray hair, weak, thin or falling hair, dandruff or any trouble of the sort if they would buse use Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. On the contrary, it is possible to have healthy, vigorous hair, of perfect color, by a few applications of this remarkable preparation.

Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly removes dandruff, leaves the scalp clean and healthy, promotes the growth of the hair and restores the natural color of the hair which has become faded or gray. It is a clean, wholesome dressing, which may be used at any time and with perfect safety. Don't neglect your hair. Start today with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent, Moye's Pharmacy.

Victor Emmanuel 42 Years Old.

Rome, Nov. 11.—King Victor Emmanuel was 42 years old today and popular enthusiasm over the war caused the anniversary to be marked by national rejoicings upon an unusually extensive scale. The national colors and pictures of the royal family were displayed everywhere. Military reviews were held and dinners were given by the municipalities and villages for the poor. During the day all of the foreign diplomats resident in Rome called at the Quirinal and presented messages of greeting in behalf of the sovereigns and nations they represent.

of Greensboro, N. C.

One Day Only

Consultation and Examination Confidential, Invited and FREE

From a Late Snapshot

To see all of his regular Patients and such new Cases, as may wish to consult him, Dr. Packard enjoys a state wide reputation, among the profession and the Public of North Carolina, where for more than 25 years he has devoted his entire time to the Study, Treatment and Cure of Chronic Diseases. The Doctor has had wonderful success in his chosen work, that of curing chronic sufferers, Men, Women and Children. The Patients he has restored to Health after they had given up all hope of being Cured are numbered by the Thousands. He is a kind, generous, democratic gentleman to meet, of high scholarly attainments, and dignified personality. Coupled with a Brotherly interest, in all who seek his advice, He does not take a Patient for Treatment unless he can foresee a Cure of the Case. The most commendable feature of his work, and one that appeals to the ordinary sick person, is the fact of his charges being so reasonable and moderate as to make it within the reach of even the very poor. At no time do the charges amount to more than $7.00 a month or about $1.50 a week. He gives his own medicines, and there are no extra Charges. It takes him never more than from four to six Months to Cure a Case under Treatment. All Cases, even those who have been given up as Incurable or Hopeless, have been Cured and restored to perfect health by this Brilliant Physician and the wonderful methods he employs.

If you want to meet him and have him examine you, go to see him, and talk the matter over with him. It will cost you nothing if he does not put you under treatment. If he takes your case, it will cost you a very small sum to get well.

Remember the date, Saturday, Nov. 18, and come early.

Here Is Where The Draft Enters

The most perfect draft ever discovered is the patent Hot Blast Down Draft of the Wilson Heater. The only draft that secures perfect combustion and prevents waste.

This draft is found only in the

Wilson NOT BLAST Heater

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel.

In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 35 hours. We sell Wilson Hot Blast Heaters for either wood or coal.
