77 AVIATORS KILLED IN 1911

Many Noted Airmen Have Died During This Year

A HEAVY TOLL OF THE LIVES

BECKLESSNESS IS MAIN CAUSE OF ACCIDENTS. DEFECT IN AVIATORS COMES NEXT IN ORDER.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The progress in the science of aviation during the year now drawing to a close has been costly in human life. Beginning with the death of Lieut. Thomas E. Selfridge, the first person killed in an aeroplane, in 1908 the list of fatalities has rapidly increased, especially in the present year, when the deaths more than doubled the combined number for the three preceding years. In 1908 one man lost his life, in 1909, four, in 1910, thirty-two, and to date for the present year, seventy-seven persons have been killed.

In 1911, as in preceding years, France has contributed by far the largest number of victims her list totaling 25, including one woman, Mme. Deniz Moore, who fell at Etampes, on July 21, last.

German airmen who lost their lives this year number 14, English 8, Russia 4, Italian, Austrian and Japanese 2 each. Serbia, Spain, Belgium, Brazil, Peru, and Cuba, contributed one each to the death roll of the year.

Whereas in the earlier days of the science of aviation only the most fitted, mentally and physically, dared flights; nowadays great numbers of amateurs do so. As a consequence the deaths for the present year included a number of aviation pupils. Double fatalities, in which rider and passenger were killed, also were common, while on June 18, last, three Frenchmen, Capt. Princetau, T. Le Martin, and H. Landron, were burned to death in midair as a result of the aeroplane motor.

While aviation has been carried on almost as extensively in Canada as elsewhere, it is interesting to note that no fatality was recorded in that country during the present year. In striking contrast is the record of the United States (including Porto Rico), in which a total of 15 aviators have met death in 1911.

The complete list of American victims for the year is as follows:

April 25—William G. Purvis, died at Baton Rouge, La., as result of a fall on March 5.

May 10—Lieut. George E. M. Kelley, U. S. A., killed by fall at San Antonio, Texas.

May 17—A. V. Hardie, an amateur, killed by fall at Los Angeles.

July 13—P. A. Kreamer, killed by fall in biplane at Chicago.

Aug. 15—William R. Badger, crushed to death by his machine at Chicago.

Aug. 15—St. Croix Johnstone, fell into Lake Michigan from height of 1,000 feet at Chicago aviation meet.

Sept. 1—J. F. Frisbe, killed by fall at Norton, Kas.; went up in crippled machine, because spectators called him a faker.

Sept. 19—John W. Rosebaum, killed while making a trial flight at De Witt, Iowa.

Sept. 22—Frank W. Miller, burned to death in midair at Troy, Ohio, as result of explosion of gasoline tank.

Sept. 22—"Dare Devil" Castellans, killed by fall from height of three-quarters of a mile at Mansfield, Pa.

Sept. 25—Dr. J. C. Clark, an amateur, killed by fall at the international aviation meet on Long Island.

Oct. 2—Cromwell Dixon, killed by 100-foot fall at Spokane, after having made successful flight across the Rocky Mountains.

Oct. 19—Eugene B. Ely, one of the foremost of American aviators, killed by 50-foot fall at Macon, Ga.

Nov. 1—Prof. John Montgomery, noted as the inventor of an aeroplane glider, killed by fall near Edenville, Cal.

Dec. 3—Tod Schriver, well known American aviator, killed in an exhibition flight at Ponce, Porto Rico.

More than twice as many American aviators were killed this year than in the three preceding years. Up to January 1, 1911, the American victims numbered only six. They were Lieut. Selfridge, killed at Fort Myer, Va., Sept. 17, 1908; Eugene Speyer, a

FORECAST FROM CENTRE OF POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IN WASHINGTON NEXT WEEK.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 16.—The near approach of Christmas will see the customary lull in political and public affairs. Little real work is expected of congress, which will adjourn at the end of the week for the holiday recess.

President Taft will take advantage of the slowing down of the official machinery by running over to Brooklyn to deliver an address before the Young Republican club of that city Tuesday night.

Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, will celebrate the golden jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood on Thursday, and it is expected the anniversary will be made the occasion for a signal manifestation of the love and esteem in which the venerable prelate is held by Americans of all creeds and classes.

A notable wedding of the week will

COUNTY CORONER WRITES TO REFLECTOR

IN REGARD TO ALFORD CASE IN BETHEL TOWNSHIP

People in Community of Tragedy Should Investigate

With pleasure we print below a letter sent us by Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, coroner of the county. We are glad to see that our coroner corroborates with us in regards to this matter and with him also hope that the authorities of Bethel township will see fit, as they must, a close investigation into the facts appertaining to the death of E. C. Alford. As we said in our news story printed in our issue of Thursday, the 14th, a boy was found dead with a bullet wound through his head. No matter what were the circumstances previous to his death, the fact remains that as the coroner said in his deposition, E. C. Alford came to his death by a gun shot wound in the hand of a person or persons unknown. We agree with the coroner in everything that appears in his letter, nevertheless, we must say whatever may be the results of an investigation, such an investigation is necessary as soon as it can be made.

We thank our coroner for his remarks, and here wish to assure him that we understood perfectly that as far as he was concerned his duty was performed as he ever did perform his duties in his official capacity.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Dec. 15, 1911.

Editor, Reflector:
Greenville, N. C.

My dear Sir:

Referring to your article in yesterday's daily relative to inquest of E. C. Alford, let me say; the fact that the coroner's jury brought in a verdict that E. C. Alford came to his death by a gun shot wound in the hands of a person or persons unknown does not put the word "FINIS" to the further investigation of the case.

Any man has the right to bring the matter up again before a justice of the peace or the grand jury.

The coroner's jury could not have done differently under the circumstances. It took all the testimony that could be procured and brought in a verdict that will prompt rather than hold back further investigation.

Local self government decides questions of this kind. No neighborhood is any better or any worse than the men and women make it who live there. It is the hope that the good people of Bethel township will look most carefully into this matter and if they find that the cause of E. C. Alford's death was due to anything or anybody other than an accident, the laws of the county and state will be most prompt in placing the blame where it belongs just as soon as evidence can be furnished as to make such action possible.

Very truly,
CHAS. O'H. LAUGHINGHOUSE,

LICENSE TO TRUSTS FROM CORP. BUREAU

Attorney Wickersham Recommends Such Measure

SUPPORTING TAFTS' SUGGESTION

REPORT TO CONGRESS SHOWS THAT MANY TRUSTS AND CORPORA- TIONS ARE TO BE PROSE- CUTED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Pursuing President Taft's recommendation that an executive bureau be created to supervise corporations chartered under a federal incorporation act, Attorney General Wickersham, in his annual report submitted to congress today, suggests that the bureau of corporations be raised to that dignity, even in the absence of the proposed federal incorporation statute.

This branch of the department of commerce and labor, the attorney general urges, should be brought into closer relation with his department and adds that it might well be "availed of as the nucleus for an administrative board under whose supervision consolidations or mergers for lawful purposes might be formed."

In enforcing the Sherman anti-trust law, the attorney general points out that the department of justice and the courts are confronted by economic, rather than legal, problems, when it comes to working out methods of disintegration after a corporation has been declared an illegal combination. The department enlisted the assistance of the bureau of corporations in the dissolution of the tobacco trust, and it would be of great value to the legal branch of the government, Mr. Wickersham says, if the functions of the bureau should be so enlarged that it could be called officially to make investigations and report its conclusions with respect to plans for the voluntary or enforced disintegration of monopolistic combinations.

The attorney general reviews the record of a year of intense activity in federal prosecutions and points out that the department of justice financially sustained itself as the result of the contribution of $4,204,115 to the United States treasury in the shape of fines collected, customs duties, recoveries, etc. The expense of the department, including the office of the attorney general, all of the district attorneys and assistants throughout the country aggregated $3,223,773.

BURGLARS STILL VISITING WILMINGTON

Systematic Work Kept Up By Robbers

GROWING BOLD WITH THEIR SUCCESS

WILMINGTON LADY CLEARLY SEES ONE OF THEM—POLICE UNABLE TO LAY HANDS ON NIGHTLY VISITORS.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 15.—Seventh street from Chestnut to Red Cross and around the corner in the vicinity of Eighth and Walnut streets, were the localities selected last night for his work by the bold burglar who continues his visitations with faithful regularity every night. The residence of Mr. N. E. Perry, at Seventh and Chestnut streets, was entered and attempts were made to effect an entrance to Mr. William Nestle's drug store and residence at Seventh and Red Cross streets and the grocery store of Mr. E. B. Snipes at Eighth and Walnut streets. At both of these places the man was frightened away.

Although as to whether the man doing the burglarizing in this city now is white or black was dispelled by his visits of last night. He was clearly seen by a lady in Mr. Farrow's residence. She states that the man is a low "chunky" negro with a rather fat face. The man stood clearly in an electric light and the lady is sure she could identify him if she were to see him again.

It was about 4 a. m. when the negro entered Mr. Farrow's residence. He must have gone in Mr. Farrow's room first. He followed his usual method of taking the gentleman's trousers from the room, to the bottom of the steps. Here he searched them leisurely. Mr. Farrow had only a small amount of money in the trousers, about $2, and the burglar secured this sum. A few minutes later a lady who resides at Mr. Farrow's home was awakened and discovered a burley negro busily engaged at his nefarious work. The man was standing in front of a dresser and was removing articles from the piece of furniture, in the evident search for money. The lady stated that she looked at the negro several minutes and that she could easily identify him if he were caught. If she had a pistol she stated that she could have shot the negro while he was at work. There was an electric bulb burning in the room and the light shone in the negro's face while he was in the apartment. The lady called out to Mr. Farrow and the negro then hastily made his escape. The lady noticed that the intruder did not have on his shoes.

The man next visited the drug store of Mr. William Nestle, at Seventh and Red Cross streets. This was about 5 o'clock this morning. The residence adjoins the drug store and the man was heard fumbling at the back entrance. Persons in the house were awakened and the man was frightened away. Mr. Nestle stated that he telephoned the police station immediately and that officers were at the scene within eight minutes.

Only a few minutes after the visit to the drug store, someone passing Mr. Edgar B. Snipe's grocery store at Eighth and Walnut streets saw a man trying to break into the place. The passerby immediately went to Mr. Snipe's home on Red Cross between Sixth and Seventh streets and informed him of the matter. Mr. Snipes armed himself with a pistol and hurried to his store. As he got in sight the burglar rapidly made off, followed with a bullet from the pistol. However, it is not believed that the shot wounded the man as there was not let up in his rapid pace.

The police were telephoned last night that a burglar had visited the residence of Mr. Thomas Norris near Sixth and Church streets. An investigation was made by the police but no clue was discovered.

Save The Time.

The days are too short to waste time going from store to store looking at random for Christmas goods. Just read The Reflector before you start on a purchasing trip and it will tell you which stores to visit and what they have. By doing this you can save the time and money as well.

SIX DAYS BIKE GRIND IN PROCESS AT NEW YORK

FIVE TEAMS NOW LEFT BEHIND— EIGHT TIED IN LEAD.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—A badly battered lot of riders were pedaling their weary way around the saucer track at Madison Square Garden today, but eight of the original 15 teams still were on equal terms for the big prize in the six-day bicycle race and five teams had a fighting chance. The succession of accidents and consequent delays had left the contestants at 8 o'clock 14 miles and 1 lap behind the record.

Just after 8 o'clock Karl Saldow, of the German team, struck a beer bottle, dropped by a careless waiter, who had been running across the track. Saldow was thrown against the inside fence and picked up unconscious, but he soon revived and it was said he would be able to resume the race.

The 2 o'clock score, the 86th hour, showed eight teams at 1,674 miles and 2 laps. Four teams were at 1,674 miles and 1 lap, and Calvin and Wiley 1,674 miles. The record is 1,681 miles, 5 laps, made by Lawson and Demara in 1909.

ANOTHER JACK THE RIPPER AT WORK IN ALBANY, N. Y.

AS IN OTHER CASES, WOMEN THE VICTIMS OF MURDER.

Entire Family Brutally Murdered by Unknown Parties.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 15.—An entire family, Mrs. Mary A. Morner, a widow, her daughter, Edith, aged 20, and Blanche, aged 17, and a son, Arthur, aged 28 years, were murdered Tuesday on the Morner farm, near DeFreesville, five miles from Albany. The bodies of the three women were discovered late last night near a barn, where they had been hacked with a hatchet and battered with a stick and thrown into a refuse pit. A searching party this morning found the body and the son with the throat cut and otherwise mutilated, under the barn floor, the boards of which had been ripped up and replaced after the murderer had secreted his victim.

The police are searching for an Italian far mhand known as Ed Dennis, who had been employed by the Morners since last summer. Little is known concerning him.

The tragedy was not discovered for more than 24 hours after it occurred, when a neighbor remarked the failure of Arthur Morner to bring to him, according to daily custom, milk for shipment to market.

A blood-stained hatchet and a four-foot bale stick were found in the pit near the three bodies, and with these the murderer first felled and then murdered his victims, the police believe.

The body of Arthur Morner, mutilated and with the throat cut, was found early today under another part of the barn floor.

FAIR PREMIUMS.

Checks Now Being Sent To The Winners.

Checks are now being mailed to those who were awarded premiums on exhibits at the Pitt county fair that was held in November, in accordance with the list of premiums that was recently published. Two premiums that were not published with the others because a decision had not been reached at the time, were for the largest Pitt county family attending the fair, which has been awarded to Mr. T. E. Langley for having nine present; and for the best article written on the Pitt County Fair which was awarded to Miss Florence Blow. Persons who receive these premium checks must sign the receipts attached to them, and should have them cashed promptly so they can come back to the treasurer.

ANOTHER RUNAWAY.

Buggy Turned Over But Not Very Much Damage Done.

This afternoon Mr. C. D. Harrington came to town. While riding down Third street one shaft of his buggy became unfastened which frightened his horse and carried the animal to run away. The buggy was overturned throwing Mr. Harrington out and bruising him somewhat. The horse with only a pair of shafts hitched to him, ran on and turned in to Smith's stables. The worst damage was to the buggy.

THE JACKSON DAY DINNER

Democratic National Committee to Celebrate Meeting

MANY CITIES WANT CONVENTION

MAIN THEME TO BE DISCUSSED AT MEETING, CITY IN WHICH NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CON- VENTION WILL BE HELD.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—With the meeting of the Republican national committee now a matter of political history, interest in the capital centers are in the approaching meeting of the Democratic national committee, which will convene January 8.

Democrats identified with national politics are already making great preparations for the important event, which will fall, by arrangement, on Jackson Day. Coincident with the meeting of the national committee, which is to select the time and place of the Democratic convention, the followers of Jefferson and Jackson will hold a great banquet at which orators from all sections of the country will sound the battle cry for 1912 and will urge party harmony.

Speaker Champ Clark, Representative Oscar Underwood, (both of them receptive presidential candidates), Representative James T. Lloyd, Governor Judson Harmon, Governor Simeon Baldwin, and others of equal prominence are expected to deliver "get together" speeches.

It has not yet been definitely learned whether former Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, will attend the Jackson Day dinner. Through some oversight it appears that Governor Folk was not included in the list of invitations originally sent out by the committee on arrangements. Inasmuch as Mr. Folk has a presidential boom of his own the oversight immediately caused comment, and the committee hastened to send the former governor a telegraphic invitation.

A few days later the Missourians showed up in Washington and asserted that he did not intend to be present at the Democratic feast. Chairman E. A. Newman, of the committee on arrangements, however, says that he thinks the former governor will be among those present.

Outside of the misunderstanding, it is expected that the meeting of the Democrats will be harmonious, and that there will be no clouds as for a time obscured the work of the Republican national committee. There is no insurgency in the Democratic party such as exists in the G. O. P. and the main work of the Democratic committee will be the selection of a place for the convention and the naming of a date for the quadrennial gathering.

There will be, of course, talk of presidential preference primaries, but there are no factions in the Democratic ranks pulling this way and that on the primary question, and no split is expected in the national committee meeting.

There is bound to be a lively fight among the various cities seeking the Democratic convention of 1912. Chicago has been selected by the Republicans. The same city is willing also to accommodate the Democratic hosts, but it is not making a spirited fight for the honor.

On the other hand, Baltimore, Denver and St. Louis are squarely in the running and Kansas City also wants to entertain the Democratic convention. The Democrats met four years ago at Denver, and the Colorado city with its auditorium, high altitude, and fine climate made a hit with the delegates. It would not be surprising if Denver receives the nomination.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1911.

Let the coming Christmas be a sane Christmas.

The cold weather that started a few days ago seems to have side-tracked to let something sultry down the line.

Suffragettes in Germany demand compulsory military service. Not a bad idea. It simply means another chance to get into action.

The present low price of cotton may prove a blessing later on, as some of the papers are predicting, but it is making conditions very hard just now.

Charlotte is to have a visit on the 30th from Col. Henry Watterson, the great editor of Louisville. It will be just like Charlotte to capture him when he comes and keep him there.

Dr. Hyde, often tried for the murder of Col. Swope, is to have another trial. His last trial was interrupted by the runaway of a juror, who declared he could not be "cooped in."

A driver in New York found $65 in the street and promptly returned it to the police. And just before Christmas, too. This will put a "kink" in those that say that honesty is a thing of the past.

If you want to send an absent Pitt countian an acceptable Christmas present, let it be a year's subscription to The Reflector. It will be a reminder of your thoughtfulness all the year.

The press dispatches say that Governor Kitchin is going to take his time in appointing a successor to Judge George W. Ward, resigned. So far three candidates have been announced for the position, these being Col. W. B. Rodman and Hon. H. C. Bragaw, of Washington, and Hon. A. O. Gaylord, of Plymouth. The plum will probably be given out in time to make the recipient happy for Christmas.

Another black eye on reciprocity. A score of Canadian geese spied their keeper in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, entangled in a wire fence and made for him. For half an hour they trained their bills on different parts of his anatomy, with a weakness for the head, and not until re-inforcements came to the rescue did the birds stop trying. This is a case where the referendum and recall had it all over any other manner of government.

be that of Miss Edith Pulitzer, daughter of the late Joseph Pulitzer, and William S. Moore. The wedding will take place Thursday at the Pulitzer home in New York city, and it will be a very quiet affair on account of the recent death of the bride's father.
Unless the governor of Illinois grants a respite there will be a quadruple hanging in Chicago Friday, the first that has taken place in that city since the execution of the Haymarket anarchists. The prospective victims of the gallows are the four young men convicted of the murder last October of a truck farmer.
Of interest in naval circles will be the presentation on Monday of a magnificent silver service to the battleship to the battleship Florida. The service is one of the finest ever presented to an American warship. Funds for its purchase were raised by popular subscription, aided by a generous appropriation from the state of Florida. The presentation will take place at Pensacola.

Social and Personal

What They All Want.

Mother wants a necklace,
Some silver and a table,
A costly rug, a fancy jug,
And then a coat of sable.

Millie wants a sunburst,
The most expensive make;
If Jack don't get a touring car
His little heart will break.

Alice wants a bulldog,
A ring and baby grand;
If Tom don't get that motor boat
He'll kick to beat the band.

Grandma wants a Bible
And a year's supply of snuff;
The servants must get money
Or they'll walk out in a huff.

No one thinks of father,
Poor old, faithful slave!
He'll be lucky if he gets
A hair cut and a shave!
—New York Herald.

Misses Mary Wright and Frances Lacy, teachers in Washington public schools, came in Friday afternoon to visit at the Training school.

Mrs. D. C. Dudley and sister, Miss Ella Brinkley, left this morning for Wilmington to visit relatives.

Mrs. G. F. Smith, who has been visiting Mrs. R. L. Humber, left this morning for Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Couch and child left Friday evening for Oxford. Greenville regrets to lose them.

Miss Myrtle Warren came home Friday night from school in Raleigh to spend the holidays.

Mr. Royce Tucker came in today from Philadelphia to spend the holidays.

Mr. E. B. Etallings, of the Raleigh News and Observer, spent today here.

With Mr. and Mrs. Wright At The Training School.

Friday evening from nine to eleven President and Mrs. Robert H. Wright held a reception at their residence in the Training school in honor of Prof. and Mrs. H. B. Smith, the bride being a sister of President Wright.

At the entrance Master Robert and little Miss Pearl Wright received the cards of the guests who at the door were received by Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Sugg and Miss Kate Lewis.

In the hall they were received by Mayor and Mrs. F. M. Wooten and Miss Orpah Dabney, and at the parlor door by Dr. and Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse and Mrs. Kate R. Beckwith.

In the receiving line in the parlor were President and Mrs. R. H. Wright, Prof. and Mrs. H. B. Smith, Dr. W. B. Murphy, of Snow Hill, (a brother of Mrs. Wright) and Miss Mary Wright, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hooker, Dr. R. L. Carr and Miss Frances Lacy, of Washington.

At the door of the punch room Misses May Muffly and Elizabeth White received, and punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wooten and Miss Sallie Joyner Davis.

At the door of the dining room the receivers were Misses Mamie Jenkins and Mariah Graham and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen. Cream, cake and mints were served by Misses Fannie May Bishop, Ola Ross and Eugenia Cassidey.

At the exit were Prof. L. R. Meadows and Misses Daisey Waite and Elizabeth Pugh.

The decorations of the residence were mainly in green, in keeping with the Christmas tide, the festoons being of smilax (trailing vines and southern moss, while palms, ferns, and potted plants were arranged in pleasing effect. The punch table was beautiful with its wreaths of green through which peeped tiny electric bulbs of various colors, the bowl hung with clusters of grapes. The center piece on the dining table was a cut glass vase of huge white chrysanthemums.

At The Gaiety.

The world's baseball series will be shown at the Gaiety tonight and this should be a strong drawing card for baseball enthusiasts. The pictures are Essanay and that means that they are everything good in the moving picture world.

Crocias' orchestra is back in Greenville and the management of the Gaiety has secured their services for tonight's performance. This alone fully insures a good night's entertainment.

Club Members.

All members who wish to go so, please leave their orders at office of the secretary for private pool and billiard cues. An order is now being made up.

Monkeys and Gum.

In tropical countries the natives have many unique ways of catching monkeys. One of them, as explained by a traveler, is this: The hunters wait about in short boots in sight of the monkeys. Then they take the boots off, place some gum in the bottoms and leave them on the ground, withdrawing themselves to a great distance. Presently the monkeys come down from the trees and try on the boots, and when the hunters come after them the boots stick to the feet of the monkeys and they are unable to climb. Thus the imitative little animals are captured.

Just A Week Left.

That is all, only a week more to Christmas. But there are six trading days left in which you can take advantage of the special sale at C. T. Munford's big store and save nearly half on your Christmas purchases. By doing this you get something desirable and serviceable for any member of your family or friends and also have all that is saved for yourself. Make one dollar do the work of nearly two by going to Munford's. A look inside this store will convince you that he has the goods you want, and everything is marked in plain figures. By following this advice you will have more to make you happy when Christmas comes.

Big Sales Expected.

There being only four sales days left before the Greenville tobacco market closes for the holidays, big breaks are expected Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The farmers will want all the money they can get for Christmas and they know Greenville is the place to sell their tobacco for high prices.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Pick-Ups And Hand-Me-Downs.

Oranges by the car load is the way they have come to Greenville this week.

This was an ugly day, but there were many people on the street and about the stores.

Only a week left for Christmas shopping, and the business men who are going to advertise, should hurry about it.

The front windows of Gornto's shoe store, and Ricks' grocery store have also taken on pretty holiday attire that show with good effect.

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE.

Gray Hair Is First Sign Of Age—Harmless Remedy Restores To Natural Color.

Oslers isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that sage and sulphur will darken the hair. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't look old before your time. Get a bottle of Weyth's Sage and Sulphur today and see what an improvement it will make in the appearance of your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Moyer's Pharmacy.

majority of the votes in the national committee this time, although Baltimore intends to fight to the end. Just now Baltimore is embarrassed by the fact that the state recently went Republican, and that a Republican governor could hardly welcome the Democrats to the state. During the gubernatorial campaign in Maryland the Democrats quietly circulated the report that if the state went Democratic it would be a big aid toward securing the convention. The state went the other way, however, and now Baltimore is fighting against odds.

St. Louis, disappointed in not landing the Republican convention, will seek to persuade the committee that the Democrats ought to meet there, and similar claims will be made by Kansas City, both places having entertained the Democratic convention in the past.

The meeting of the national committee will bring to Washington practically every aspirant for presidential honors at the hands of the party. William Jennings Bryan is out of the country, but it is now expected that Champ Clark, Oscar Underwood, Woodrow Wilson, and Judson Harmon, all engaged in a struggle for the nomination, will be on hand.

The Democrats believe that with dissension in the Republican ranks the chances are brighter today for the democracy than they have been in years. The slogan will be "stand together, no matter who may be nominated, and let us have national success in 1912."

The Democratic convention probably will be held early in July, as the Republican date has been set for June 18. It is the custom in the Democratic party to hold the national conventions about ten days or two weeks later than the convention of the G. O. P.

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel. In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 36 hours.
