

CONGRESSMEN FACE VERY BRISY SESSION

Congressmen After Recess Resume Work

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS AT ISSUE

Democrats, Who Intend to Cut Down Presidents' Traveling Expenses, Will Have to go Against The Constitution—Panama Canal Acquiring Inquiry Will Be Started.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—A busy session was in prospect for congress when it convened yesterday after the holiday recess. The deliberations may run well into the summer, without halt even for the presidential nominating convention.

With the Russian treaty abrogated, the pension bill and urgent deficiency appropriations out of the way in the house, tariff legislation is expected as soon as the ways and means committee can send out the revised schedule. The iron and steel schedule probably will come first, and is expected within ten days.

Tariff legislation, however, is by no means all that is on the legislative program, for heads of many important committees are certain to exert pressure for the consideration of numerous important bills.

Democrats of the house who contemplate eliminating this year the $25,000 appropriation for the president's traveling expenses probably will find the Constitution of the United States a stumbling block to their plans.

Even some of the Democratic leaders are of the opinion that this extra compensation, once given, cannot be taken away from the chief executive during his term of office. The constitution says:

"The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States or any of them."

T. R. THREATENS PRESIDENT TAFT

It Seems That Roosevelt Seeks Nomination

TAFT'S SUPPORTERS ARE UNEASY

Well Founded Rumors Have It That Senator La Follette Is Secretly Working Up Sentiment in Favor of Roosevelt—Senator Sure of Defeat If Taft is Re-Nominated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Will Theodore Roosevelt be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president at the Chicago convention?

Political events, moving rapidly, seem to justify an answer to this query in the affirmative. The action of the convention of the progressive Republicans in Ohio on Monday, the growing unrest among senators hitherto loyal to the administration, the spread of insurgency, the antagonism to the president manifested particularly throughout the northwest and on the Pacific slope, and, above all, the refusal of Theodore Roosevelt to be put out of all political calculations, are causing uneasiness at both ends of the avenue.

That this condition exists is manifest. The president naturally must see it. His closest political and personal advisors are hard at work endeavoring to keep the opposition to him within the small group that is fighting for Mr. La Follette, personally. Organization Republicans realize that if combined opposition embraces the principle to which Col. Roosevelt has given his adherence and the former president assumes an attitude of willingness, the harder will be the fight of the president for nomination.

Don't worry about not having genius or talent if you have the ability to do hard work.

GOV. OSBORN URGES TAFT TO GIVE UP

Same To Apply To Senator La Follette, Of Wisconsin

LA FOLLETTE DOES NOT REPLY

Governor of Michigan Asks His Followers to Support Roosevelt or Beveridge—Even Prefers President Taft to Wisconsin Senator—"Discussing Issues, Not Men."

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 4.—Governor Chase Osborn today took charge of a meeting of progressive Republicans that had gathered to hear Senator Robert M. La Follette, who failed to appear, and delivered an address that he had prepared to introduce the senator, thereby causing an outburst of complaint from some of the auditors, who objected to the governor's remarks in referring to Senator La Follette.

The governor said that as between Taft and La Follette he preferred Taft as the presidential nominee, but asked both Taft and La Follette to withdraw from the race and join in nominating former Senator A. J. Beveridge, of Indiana, or former President Roosevelt.

When the governor adversely criticized some of Senator La Follette's acts and drubbed him in politics, who looked out for himself primarily, persons in the audience called out that Gov. Osborn had no right to make such remarks in a hall rented by supporters of the Wisconsin senator.

Willing to Pay for Hall.

"Well, what did you people expect when you asked me to preside?" replied the governor with emphasis. "You knew where I stood. Did you think I would allow you to censor my remarks? I am more sorry than you that the senator was not here, but I am more than glad to pay for the hall if that makes any difference to you."

SUPPLY OF BEEF NOW VERY LIMITED

Packers Methods To Be Disclosed By Government

RESTRICTION FOR OVERSHIPPING

Statistical Bureau Will Regulate Shipping For One Period—Firms Exceeding Allotment Will Be Fined Accordingly.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Documentary evidence that the price of meat was fixed and the business apportioned on a non-competitive basis by the packers at their weekly meetings was introduced by the government today at the trial of the ten Chicago packers before United States District Judge Carpenter.

Special counsel Pierce Butler read several letters received by W. D. Miles, manager of the Armour Packing Company, Kansas City, in June, 1897, in which the amounts of beef to be shipped to certain Eastern markets were given, and the price to be changed, based on a margin of 50 cents, on the uniform test cost estimate used by the packers, was named.

The letters also flatly refuted the statement of Henry Veeder on the witness stand that no meetings of the packers to fix prices and apportion business were held between April, 1897, and January, 1899, during which time a "statistical bureau" was maintained to compile records of meat shipped and prices obtained at different points. Miles, who severed his connection with the Armour interests in 1903, will, it is said, be one of the star witnesses for the government.

Arrangements For The Coming Primaries and State Convention.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 4.—The Democratic State Central Committee met in this city today to issue the call and make other arrangements for the coming primaries and state convention. The primaries will be held in March at which time candidates for state office and a legislature that will elect the successor of United States Senator Jeff Davis will be named. Senator Davis is a candidate for re-election and is opposed by former Congressman Stephen Brundidge of Searcy. The contest for the governorship is between Governor Donaghey who desires a third term and Congressman Joseph T. Robinson. Statewide prohibition and taxation will figure as the chief issues of the state campaign.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 4.—Memorial exercises for the late Judge Francis C. Lowell of the United States Circuit court were held in the federal court room here today. Judges Colt and Putnam delivered eulogies and eminent representatives of the Boston bar responded.

Prepares for Ocean Flight.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Dr. Paul F. Gans, who plans to cross the Atlantic in his dirigible balloon, the Suchard, sailed for Europe today on the Kronprinzess in Cecille. After a short visit with his family at Munich he will go to Berlin where the airship

Suchard has been completed and equipped and will superintend its packing and shipment to Tenerife, from which point he expects to begin the flight across the ocean early in March.

Possibly Both Vessels Will be Constructed in Government Yards.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4.—Bids were opened at the Navy Department today for the two battleships authorized at the last session of congress. There is a possibility that both vessels will be constructed in government yards, since the private shipbuilding firms declare that it is out of the question for them to engage in the work profitably under the new eight-hour law.

The two new vessels will be named Oklahoma and Nevada and will be the most formidable fighting machines in the American navy. They will have main batteries of ten 14-inch guns and will be "near" sister ships of the Wyoming and Arkansas. The last named vessels are of 27,000 tons displacement, but it is understood that the Oklahoma and Nevada will be slightly heavier.

Ice Meet Opens at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 4.—The winter harness meet of the Ottawa Driving Club opened on the half-mile track at Lansdowne Park today and will continue until next Wednesday. A liberal purse offering has attracted many of the fastest horses of Canada and the United States.

New Bern Cashier Paroled.

NEW BERN, Jan. 3.—J. R. B. Carraway, who was convicted of embezzlement at the April term 1910, of Federal court in this city, and sentenced to a term of five years in the Federal prison at Atlanta, has been paroled and has returned home. It is understood that he will be employed by a local firm and will remain here.

Carraway was cashier of the National Bank at the time of the embezzlement and his shortage, it is claimed, amounted to more than $100,000. So far he has not been seen in public, but there is no doubt of his presence in the city.

Man Shoots Brother-in-Law.

WILSON, Jan. 3.—The preliminary examination into the shooting of Dr. W. D. Crocker at Lucama on Saturday, December 23rd, by Cleveland Smith, was set for this morning at ten o'clock in the court house here before Squire W. R. Wood. A letter was received from Dr. Crocker that he would not appear; that he had no inclination to prosecute the matter further and asked that the matter be kept out of court. Of course this being beyond the trial justice, the hearing was waived and Mr. Smith's bond was reduced from $500 to $100. In justification of Dr. Crocker's absence will say no subpoena had been served on him up to this morning. Defendant's counsel is sure that his client was justified in his action toward Dr. Crocker; that it was a case of self defense.

Plumbers Strike.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 3.—About 25 journeymen plumbers are on a strike in this city, having refused to go back to work unless the master plumbers agree to pay them $4 a day of eight hours. They have been working nine hours and receiving $3.75 a day. The strikers have indicated to the master plumbers that they are willing for arbitration, but this has not yet been accepted. The strike means that the master plumbers of the city are practically without help. They say that before they will accede to the demand of the striking plumbers they will bring help here from elsewhere.

Winston-Salem to Get New Plant.

WINSTON-SALEM, Jan. 3.—The Mengel Box Company, of Louisville, Ky., which is constructing a mammoth plant here, has decided to establish also a large veneering plant near the box factory. The product of the veneer plant will be used in the manufacture of boxes for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and other manufacturers in this line. The combined plants will give employment to several hundred operatives.

Bryan to Speak in Raleigh.

RALEIGH, Jan. 3.—The people of Raleigh are awaiting with special interest the coming of William Jennings Bryan to Raleigh Saturday night where he will fill his long delayed engagement to deliver one or another of his noted addresses here. He is returning from a South American trip and is bounded for Washington for the Jackson day Democratic dinner and concluded to stop here for his long promised address. He will speak in the big new auditorium.

It Does The Work.

A man stopped us to say that he is a firm believer in The Reflector. He put it this way: "I wanted to get rid of a goat and The Reflector found a purchaser. I wanted to sell a horse and The Reflector sold him. I lost my overcoat and The Reflector found it." There is nothing more sure of bringing results than telling it through this paper.

W. J. BRYAN IS HAILED AS THE CHIEF

Ohio's Progressive Democratic League Takes Stand

BRYAN—"ABLEST TO REPRESENT"

Gov. of State Only Mentioned Indirectly at Meeting in Columbus—Great Applause Follows Words on Bryan—Representative J. J. Lenz Was Appointed Chairman.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 4.—The progressive Democratic League of Ohio came into being today at a conference of Democrats from nearly every county in the state. Although many of the conferees had entered the gathering with the avowed intention of declaring against the avowed intention of declaring against the presidential candidacy of Governor Judson Harmon, the executive's name was mentioned only indirectly, and the organization satisfied itself with the adoption of resolutions urging the members to work against the choice of any delegate to either state or national convention who had not proved himself a tried and true Democrat.

The name of William J. Bryan, heralded as "ablest to represent the progressive ideals in any party," was received with applause, and speakers who fanned the Democratic ardor while awaiting the report of the resolutions committee made adherence to him the final test to a title of the progressive democracy.

J. J. Lenz Heads League.

The conference, which had been called by W. W. Durbin, chose former Representative J. J. Lenz as chairman. Mr. Lenz later was elected president of the newly formed league. The resolutions adopted follow:

"We, the representatives of the pioneer progressives in the Democratic party in the State of Ohio, in conference, realizing that the never-ending

ATLANTA WARDEN ANGERED BY MORSE

One Thousand Dollar Present From Morse Refused

STOCK DEAL NETS MORSE $2,000

Banker Convict From Cell Directs Stock Deal Which Nets Him $2,000. Offers half of Profits to Warden William H. Moyer. Personal Controversy.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 3.—A heated personal argument between a newspaper editor and Warden William H. Moyer of the Federal prison here resulted today in disclosing that Charles W. Morse, convicted banker, made $2,000 in a shrewd Wall street deal through the courtesy of Warden Moyer. It was brought out that in the spring of 1910 Morse made the money by selling "short" on gas stock by means of a cipher message Moyer allowed him to send.

To show his gratitude or for some other reason, Mr. Moyer said Mr. Morse subsequently offered to share the profits with him. This alleged act on the part of Mr. Morse so prejudiced the warden against the former banker, in the opinion of Editor Seely who publishes the Atlanta Georgian that he subsequently subjected Morse to disciplinary treatment characterized today by the editor as "reprehensible."

Warden Stirred to Answer.

Mr. Seely is a personal friend of Mr. Morse and has visited him frequently in the prison. Last Thursday he printed in his paper a story hinting at a congressional investigation into Morse's treatment in the penitentiary, citing an instance in which he was alleged to have been placed in solitary confinement in a dungeon for "giving a sick boy about to be discharged a paltry sum of money."

THE U. S. NEED TRUSTS SAYS NAGEL

Is In Favor of Combines With Proper Supervision

"PUBLIC MUST BE GUARDED"

Head of The Department of Commerce and Labor Praises Sherman Law, But Says That in View of Decision of Standard Oil and Tobacco, Other Steps Must Be Taken.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—"The mere breaking up of large combinations into a number of separate parts by no means meets the whole trust question," says Secretary Nagel, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, in his annual report, transmitted yesterday to President Taft.

Secretary Nagel declares that the Sherman law beyond all doubt has proved to be an effective statute, and that a degree of combination of capital is quite necessary, but he adds that the Supreme court decisions in the Standard Oil and tobacco cases have demonstrated that the next step in the control of great industrial corporations will be the creation of a permanent Federal agency.

Does Not Suggest Solution.

How much control shall be exercised, whether by commission, Federal incorporation, or other means which have been advocated recently by Judge Elbert H. Gary, George W. Perkins, and other financiers before the senate committee which has been conducting hearings to determine what changes would be desirable in the anti-trust law, Secretary Nagel does not definitely say.

He favors, however, a development of the powers and scope of the bureau of corporations.

"A certain degree of combination of capital is admittedly essential to the carrying on of our great business enterprises," Secretary Nagel says. "To control properly such necessary combinations we must have some administrative Federal office or commission which shall make this work its business."

CROSS OF HONOR FOR AMERICAN HEROES

To Encourage Deeds Of Courage In America

NATION WIDE SOCIETY TO REWARD

The Large Railroad Towns To Be Distributing Headquarters Of The Medals Earned In Deeds of Valor.

That all the large cities and railroad systems in the United States united in forming a society to confer medals for bravery is the proposal just advanced by the American Cross of Honor, an organization devoted to encouraging the saving of life, through its president, Thomas H. Herndon, of 1215 Harvard street. He proposes that an annual convention be held in Washington, when the medals earned during the year could be awarded by the president or some other high government official.

Mr. Herndon said yesterday that he had secured promises of support for the movement from several of the largest cities and from heads of a number of railroad systems, and that he is expecting the rapid spread of the idea.

Would Stimulate Ambitions.

He pointed out that if the mayors of the principal cities and the president of the big railroads could be persuaded to gather here each year and join in honoring the heroes of the country great encouragement would be given to all men and women to be heroes.

Gifford Pinchot is a near candidate for the Annanias Club. Some days ago he announced that Roosevelt was not a candidate. Perhaps.

1911 was marked by more school legislation than any other previous year. That is more legislation in favor of schools. This is something worth while.

Harry N. Atwood, the St. Louis-New York flight fame aviator, intends to cross the Atlantic in a specially constructed aeroplane next April. He may get there way ahead of Vaniman at that.

North Carolina was one of the four states in the South that did not have any lynchings during 1911. However, three other states came up strong—Georgia and Florida, with Oklahoma, had 21 among them. That is two-thirds of all lynchings in the Union.

Gov. Osborn, of Michigan, is quite candid. He wants either Roosevelt or Beveridge for our next president, and therefore sees no reason why Taft and La Follette should not retire from the lists and let either of his champions have a walk over.

President Gompers keeps calling the McNamoras ugly names in his speeches. Perhaps he would do better in letting the name alone. He was dangerously near to drowning once before and it is to be hoped he has not forgotten it.

Representative Underwood has recovered. Some had it that Underwood was only playing possum. He only wanted to see how many real friends he had. If that was his real intention he must have been gratified to find out that he did have many friends in the political world.

Warden Moyer, of the Atlanta Federal prison, asserts that Morse offered him $1,000 to allow him the privilege of a direct wire to his brokers. If this be true, such vaudeville sketches as "High Life in Prison" and "A Busy Day in Sing-Sing," are but mild portrayals of a bankers' life in the "cooler."

Judge B. F. Long, of Statesville, was recently mentioned as an aspirant for nomination as one of the associate justices of the Supreme court of the state. In a very frank letter to his home paper, the Statesville Landmark, he thanks his friends for the interest they took, but declines to enter the race for the Supreme court bench.

Within the next two weeks Roosevelt will break silence and "in no uncertain tones" will explain his stand as to the presidential race. So

WITH OTHER EDITORS

This is a sort of topsy turvy world. No one seems to be satisfied. One man is struggling to get justice and another is flying from it. One man is saving up to buy a home and another is trying hard to sell his dwelling for less than it cost to get rid of it. One man is spending all the money he can earn in taking a girl to a theatre or show and sending her valuable presents in hopes that he may eventually make her his wife, and his neighbor is spending all the gold he has saved trying to get a divorce. One man keeps a pistol to protect himself against burglars, while his neighbor doesn't keep one for fear of shooting himself or some member of the family. One man pays for his paper in advance because he can read it with a greater relish, while another borrows it four or five years without paying one cent for it, and enjoys it hugely all the while. Surely a queed old world this is.—Gaffney, S. C. Ledger.

Cotton is King.

Some may think that his majesty has had a fall, that like the gentleman spoken of in the old familiar say some of his particular friends. We know that the Col. can express himself in forceful words. What we are afraid of is that he may have coined a brand new lot of names for his political foes. It would not do to run "nature faker," mollycodde," etc., etc., for two reasons.

Would anybody be surprised to see the perennial W. J. Bryan run for president in the coming race? News comes from Ohio that the Progressive Democratic League sees in him the ablest man to represent Miss Democracy. Of course, Bryan, like T. R., would not ignore the call of his people and we would again enjoy the privilege of having Bryan represent Democracy.

Louis Tracy.

Louis Tracy, the author of numerous popular romances, was born in Liverpool, January 4, 1863. His life has been of the adventurous type. He early ran away from home to join the navy, but ended by going to college in France. While still a youth he went into English journalism and in 1888 sailed for India where he edited a newspaper and wrote a book on India. Three years later he returned to England to help T. P. O'Connor start the London Sun. Later he joined Sir Alfred Harmsworth and others in the purchase of the London Evening News. During the hard winter of 1894-5 Mr. Tracy organized a fund for the poor of London and gave away 1,500,000 free meals in six weeks, keeping the starving people supplied with food when eminent contractors failed in the task. Among his best known books are "Wings of the Morning," "The Pillar of Light" and "The Silent Barrier."

Humpty, Dumpty sat on a wall; Humpty, Dumpty had a great fall; All the king's horses and all the king's men Couldn't set Humpty Dumpty up again.

But he is still honored in this burg, be it known to all—cotton is still King in Rocky Mount and crowns our main thoroughfare.

Tobacco is no mean business in our estimation. But suppose the good dealers in the weed should insist on strewing it along our principal street? What a howl would be raised and how swiftly our city fathers would say: "Put it in warehouses where it belongs."

But not so with King Cotton. His majesty ornaments in the center of the town, decorates our main street that the tourists en route for the sunny clime of Florida may imagine they are passing through Podima, Sleepy Hollow, or some other country village instead of the progressive city of Rocky Mount, fastest growing city in the old North State.—Rocky Mount Morning Telegram.

Mr. K. John, of Washington, was here today.

Miss May E. Leitch, of Maryland, arrived today to accept a position as stenographer with H. A. White.

Misses Myrtle Warren, Margurite Higgs and Ada Komp, who have been spending the holidays here, left Wednesday evening for Raleigh.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. H. E. Austin, Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock.

At The Christian Church.

Dr. J. C. Caldwell, of Wilson, will occupy the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

Delightful Dance.

One of the most enjoyable functions of the holidays was a dance given in the Perkins opera house last evening, by the young men of Parkers' Cross Roads and Greenville. Owing to inclemency of the weather, the dance was moved from Parkers' Cross Roads to Greenville. The dance was managed by C. E. Fleming and L. A. Randolph, to whom very much credit is due.

Those dancing were:
Mr. C. E. Fleming with Miss Ada Wooten.

Mr. L. A. Randolph with Miss Mabel Vaughan.

Mr. J. B. Fleming with Mrs. Crawley.

Mr. Cecil Cobb with Miss Mary Smith.

Mr. Oscar Greene with Miss Lucille Cobb.

Mr. John Shelburn with Miss Lila May Willis.

Mr. S. E. Gates with Miss Vernessa Smith.

Mr. Willie Tyson with Miss Lizzinia Moore.

Mr. Carl Armstrong with Miss Ward Moore.

Mr. Edward White with Miss Roland Jenkins.

Mr. Matt Phillips with Miss Mears.

Mr. Alex Blow with Miss Mary Shelburn.

Mr. T. C. Hyman with Miss Allie Estelle Greene.

Chaperones—Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Outlaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Cdaule West, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Clark.

Stags—Don Gilliam, M. Bass, Norman Warren.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Pick-Ups And Hand-Me-Downs.

Cotton is coming in quite freely. Knights of Pythias meet tonight. My, how it rains, and then some. Let The Reflector do the talking for you while you sell the goods.

The river, creeks, mill runs, branches, canals and ditches are all full, as well as everything else that will hold water.

If January keeps on as it has started it is going to be a very wet month. The roads are something fierce to ride over now.

Yes sir; there will be something doing in Greenville this year.

If there is no snow soon it will be contrary to indications.

Hatch Stock Sold.

The stock of Hatch's 5 and 10 cents store was sold at auction Wednesday by the receiver, Mr. N. W. Outlaw. It was sold in a lump for $1,000.

A Fine Showing.

The comparative statement at the close of 1910 and 1911 shown in the advertisement of the National Bank, is a strong indication of the growth of that excellent institution.

The 5 and 10 Cents Store.

Mr. Farris Nassef, of New Bern, was the purchaser of the Hatch 5 and 10 cents store here, and has placed Mr. Peter Sherman in charge as superintendent. The store will be continued and new goods will be added at once to make it an up-to-date 5 and 10 cents establishment. An advertisement elsewhere in this paper calls attention to the special opening to take place on Saturday.

PITT COUNTIAN PROMOTED.

High Compliment To A Young Naval Officer of North Carolina.

Lieut. Commander Lyman A. Cotten, U. S. navy, has been ordered as naval attache to the American embassy, Tokio, Japan, and with Mrs. Cotten and their little son will sail from San Francisco January 23rd for his new post of duty. He will be there probably two years or longer. This assignment to such an important post is quite a compliment to so young an officer as Mr. Cotten, as this position heretofore has gone to much older officers and senior in rank. Lieut. and Mrs. Cotten have been spending the Christmas holidays at his old home—Cottontdale—with his parents, Senator and Mrs. R. R. Cotten, and the following members of the family: Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wiggin, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Timberlake and their daughter, Miss Agnes Cotten Timberlake, of Raleigh, Mr. Preston Cotten, of Norfolk.

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

Greenville People Receiving The Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in Greenville. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

James Hardison, 411 Fifth street, Greenville, N. C., says: "I had trouble from my kidneys and the kidney secretions passed too frequently at night. In the morning when I got up, there was lameness across my loins and I also suffered from back-ache. Doan's Kidney Pills, which were procured from the John L. Wooten Drug Company, relieved all these symptoms of kidney complaint and restored my kidneys to a normal condition." (Statement given January 14, 1908).

No More Trouble Since.

On December 17, 1910, Mr. Hardison said: "I take pleasure in confirming my former statement in favor of Doan's Kidney pills. This remedy made a permanent cure in my case."

Serious Charges Against Doctor.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Jan. 4.—Dr. Thomas N. Rogers a prominent physician of this place and an unsuccessful candidate for lieutenant-governor of Michigan in 1906 was arraigned in court today to answer to charges growing out of the death of Mrs. James W. Black six weeks ago. The woman's death is alleged to have resulted from an illegal operation.

South Dakota Bar Meeting.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Jan. 4.—Aberdeen extended a cordial welcome today to the many prominent lawyers assembled here for the annual meeting of the South Dakota Bar Association. The programme, which covers two days, will have as its leading features the address of the president Norman T. Mason of Deadwood and the annual address to be delivered by Judge Charles A. Willard of Minneapolis.

P & O STALK CUTTER

The Parlin & Orendorf Co., Canton, Ills., made the first Stalk Cutter ever built, over 50 years ago; today they are building the best Stalk Cutter on the market

You need weight in a Stalk Cutter to do good work. You get it in this one—and with weight you get strength. The P. & O. is practically indestructible. Beware of light, flimsy stalk cutters—you will rue the day you buy one. This one will last a life-time. What do the manufacturers themselves think of it? "Back it up with an unqualified guarantee." That is putting it pretty strong—what more can you ask?

McFARLAND CASE FOR TRIAL

Parallel to the Richeson Case in Massachusetts

JOTH POTASSIUM POISON

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 4.—With more than ordinary interest the public is awaiting the opening of the trial next Monday of Allison MacFarland, charged with having caused the death of his wife by poisoning her with Cyanide of Potassium. The preparations of prosecution and defense are practically completed and no undue delay of the trial is anticipated. Prosecutor Wilbur A. Mott will represent the state while James R. McDermit and his brother, Frank M. Dermit will defend the accused. The case presents many unusual and interesting features which, in a measure, recall some of the features of the Richeson case in Cambridge, Mass. In both cases the victim died of poisoning by Cyanide of Potassium and in both cases the poison was taken while the person accused of having committed the murder was absent. When Mrs. MacFarland for whose murder Allison MacFarland is to be tried next Monday, was poisoned, the accused husband was not at his home in this city but in New York, accompanied by his six-year old son.

Allison MacFarland was born in Thomaston, Me., about thirty-three years ago. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John MacFarland of that city and received his early education in the Thomaston grammar and high schools. After two years in the high school Allison MacFarland went to Rockland, Me., where he attended a commercial school. It was there that he met Evelyn, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Crockett of Rockland. Allison frequently called at the girl's home and after a courtship of two years they became engaged. They were married at Rockland on October 3, 1900 and for a few years seemed to live happily together. MacFarland was not a steady worker. After one year in Rockland they went to Quincy, Mass., then to New York, then to Chicago, then to Michigan and finally to Philadelphia.

Allison MacFarland is a man of considerable inventive ability and while in Philadelphia invented an automobile tire. Several capitalists became interested in the invention and furnished a capital of $10,000 to put the tire on the market. Offices were opened and Miss Florence Bromley was engaged as stenographer. She was handsome and attractive blonde with a somewhat romantic past and Allison MacFarland soon became infatuated with her. This was about three years ago.

Mrs. MacFarland soon learned of the relations between her husband and the pretty stenographer and a short time before the birth of her second child she returned to her parents in Rockland, where she remained nearly two years. In the meantime the company for manufacturing the rubber tires had failed and MacFarland went to Newark where he obtained a position with the Crocker-Wheeler Company, manufacturers of electrical appliances.

Not until last July did MacFarland make any effort to induce his wife to return to him. At his request she came to Newark with her daughter and her first born son and her parents believed that a perfect reconciliation had taken place between her and her husband. It seems, however, that MacFarland continued his relation with the pretty stenographer and made frequent trips to that city to visit Miss Bromley secretly. How well the kept under cover may be inferred from the fact that for several years the parents of Miss Bromley were entirely ignorant of the fact that she carried on a love affair with a married man right under their eyes and entertained intimate relations with MacFarland whom she met whenever he came to Philadelphia.

On Tuesday, October 17 last, MacFarland went to New York with his little son to take the boy to theatre. They remained in New York over night and did not return to Newark until Wednesday morning. When MacFarland arrived at his home he found his wife, dressed in her nightgown, dead on the bed. Instead of summoning Dr. Crowley, his next-door neighbor, MacFarland, who did not seem in the least excited, walked several blocks and called Dr. William V. Gale. The latter hurried to MacFarland's house and after a brief examination came to the conclusion that Mrs. MacFarland had died from cyanide of potassium poisoning. MacFarland admitted that he had a bottle with cyanide in the house and produced the bottle. The latter, which had been used for bromide which Mrs. MacFarland had been in

Big Things Behind the Norfolk Southern

That cat is out of the bag. The wind has been taken out of our editorial sails. The Chronicle, in fact, had knowledge a month ago that Mr. Duncan's railroad interests covered the Transcontinental, Col. S. A. Jones' great development, and that it would be the important western link. The road will be built from Charlotte to Sevierville, where it will connect with the road already in operation to Knoxville. There is much behind this western development that cannot be published until Mr. Duncan himself gives out the word, but it is sufficient to say that the Norfolk Southern plans are for the most comprehensive railroad development the state has ever known. It will bring us into direct connection with Cincinnati and the Western markets and with the coal fields and in turn the road will have three ports—Norfolk, Cape Lookout and Southport. There are bigger things behind the Norfolk Southern than has yet been dreamed.—Charlotte Chronicle.

DOC WHITE SIGNS CONTRACT.

Is First of Chicago Players to Affix His Signature.
CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Pitcher G. Harris White is the first of the White Sox to send in his signed contract for the new year 1912.

The famous southpaw's contract, properly autographed, was received by Manager Jimmy Callahan at the South Side ball park today, and has been filed away with other documents in the big vaults of the club. With the contract came the statement from the veteran left-hander that he is wintering better than ever before, and that he expects to make the season of 1912 the banner one of his already lengthy career.

BROOKLYN PLANS NEW PARK.

Ebbets Says Modern One in Flatbush Will Be Ready in June.
NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The Brooklyn National League baseball club will move to new grounds, with modern grand stand accommodations, in the Flatbush residential section of the borough next June, according to announcement with which President Charles H. Ebbets surprised the Brooklyn fans tonight.

Mr. Ebbets made his plans public at a dinner he gave to a number of baseball friends and newspaper writers. He said the new grounds would be located near Bedford avenue and Cedar place, on a plot 500 by 600.

Work will begin immediately on a magnificent new grand stand, a double-decked affair of concrete and steel, much like the structure on Forbes field in Pittsburgh. It will seat 30,000 spectators, and will be finished for the game of June 14. The old park will be abandoned, so far as baseball is concerned, and a garage erected there.

Ralcevieh vs. Romanoff.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 14.—Giovani Ralcevieh, the Italian champion, and Romanoff, the big Turk, wound up their training today for tomorrow night's big wrestling contest in Mechanics building. The match has attracted much attention among followers of the sport in this vicinity.
