

DEMOCRATS JOIN HANDS AT JACKSON BANQUET

Champ Clark Welcomes The Guests To Dinner

W. R. HEARST IS CHEERED WILDLY

Various Names Are Mentioned for Presidential Race—Gov. Harmon Not Amongst Probable Mentioned at Dinner—Hearst Says That La- Follette is Really a Democrat.

The lions and the lambs of the Democratic party lay down together at the Jackson day banquet at the Raleigh Hotel last night and roared and bleated their approval of Jacksonian and Jeffersonian Democracy.

Williams Jennings Bryan and Woodrow Wilson, who had been pictured as being each near the other's throat over the now famous Joline letter, had a love feast, in which each vied with the other to show the greater affection.

The tremendous reception given to Woodrow Wilson, the manner in which his speech was cheered, and the obvious approval of Mr. Bryan, bestowed publicly on Gov. Wilson, were the sensations of the banquet.

When Gov. Wilson, shortly before midnight, had concluded his speech, in which he defined the great issues before the country as he sees them, Mr. Bryan rose from his chair, joined in the cheers, reached over and grasped the hand of the New Jersey executive, and shook it warmly.

"That was splendid," he exclaimed. "Splendid."

The indorsement of Mr. Bryan was fair exchange for the laudation that Gov. Wilson gave the Nebraskan.

"There have been times when some of us have differed," he said. "We differed, however, as to measures and methods, but not as to principles. Through all the rise and fall, the ebb and flow of opinion and beliefs, we have all been following the one fixed goal—the goal pointed out by the principles and preachings of William Jennings Bryan."

MAN FOUND FROZEN IN HUT

Was Willing Recluse And Possessed Fortune

DIED OF HEART DISEASE IT SEEMS

Schaeffer Had Made a Fortune in Real Estate—Had Refused to Min- gle With Neighbors for Years and is Only Survived by Grandchildren.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The frozen body of John Schaeffer, 70 years old, a wealthy recluse, was found in a rudely built shanty in the rear of 1247 New Hampshire avenue northwest yesterday morning by Paul Posner, a tailor, who occupies a shop in front of Schaeffer's hut. The aged man had refused to mingle with his neighbors, and received no visits from his family.

Schaeffer was last seen on Saturday afternoon by Posner, hurrying toward his hovel. He made no response to Posner's invitation to warm himself in the tailor shop. Coroner Nevitt issued a certificate of death from heart disease. Dr. Nevitt said the aged hermit did not die from cold, but that the body had been frozen after death.

Schaeffer formerly owned a store in Georgetown, but gave it up about ten years ago to enter the real estate field. He is said to have accumulated a small fortune.

He owned the premises on which he died, and the building in which the Posner tailor shop is located, and several structures in Georgetown. He was born in Germany, and came to Washington about 45 years ago. He married here, but his wife and children are dead. Three grandchildren, living at 2620 K street northwest survive him.

TORPEDO BOATS MISSING AFTER ATLANTIC STORM

Mayrant, McCall And Drayton Are Still Unreported

BATTLESHIPS SCOURING THE OCEAN

Greatest Fears Are Entertained as to the Fate of the Three Missing Tor- pedobats and Government is Con- ducting a Search for Them—Miss- ing Craft May be in Some Port of Refuge.

NORFOLK, Jan. 8.—The United States torpedo boat destroyer Terry disabled in the storm of Friday night, is safe, and is being towed to Norfolk by the cruiser Praire. The Roe is also safe and on her way here under the convoy of the Salem.

Fears, however, are felt for the destroyers Mayrant, McCall, and Drayton, which are still missing and scouring the seas in all directions and half the battleships and cruisers of the Atlantic fleet searching for the little craft.

The battleship Connecticut, Louisiana, Ohio, and the cruisers Washington and Birmingham are strewn along the coast, from Norfolk to 500 miles beyond Hatteras in their searching. With a fog enveloping the coast as far as Beaufort, the battleships are using every search light they carry to penetrate the darkness and mist in the hope of seeing something of the missing boats.

They are keeping up constant appeals by wireless asking any ship that might hear their calls for news of the destroyers. Many have heard their calls, but none of them have seen anything of the Mayrant, McCall or Daryton.

CHINESE REBELS RENEW FIGHTING

Mongolia Has a Friend in Russian Government

CHINESE WILL KEEP ON THE FIGHT

Although the Czar Has Declared Him- self in Favor of Mongolia, Russia Will Only Look After its Territory —America to be Advised by Minis- ter Calhoun.

PEKIN, Jan. 8.—Two important developments today intensified the interest in the situation of China. These were a renewal of hostilities and the demand of the Russian government that China recognize the independence of outer Mongolia.

Revolutionaries from Shansi and Shensi, having recaptured the town of Shechow, are advancing on Honan, while reinforcements have been dispatched to the imperialists. The armistice has not been renewed and there is a deadlock in the peace negotiations.

In addition to requiring China to recognize the Kutuktu of Urga as monarch of outer Mongolia, the Russian government has notified China that the independence of outer Mongolia must be recognized as concerns internal affairs.

The note adds that Russia will assist the Mongolians in maintaining order and intends to build a railway from Kiakhta, Siberia, to Urga. Henceforth, China will not be permitted to maintain military forces or send colonists to outer Mongolia, but may retain control of external relations. To this note China has made no reply.

To the other powers, however, the Chinese government today communicated the substance of the Russian demands. Undoubtedly a strong protest will be made by the Chinese government against the action of Russia, but China is unable to defend herself with reference to Mongolia.

A conference of Progressive Republicans of Alabama is to meet in Birmingham next week to organize for the furtherance of the progressive movement.

NEWS THROUGHOUT THE NORTH STATE

North Carolina News : : : In Brief

Honor Memory of Former Governor, Raleigh, Jan. 10.—A marble bust of Governor Samuel Johnson, one of the earliest governors of North Carolina, was placed in the rotunda of the state house here today. Bids Were Refused.

Messrs. J. Bryan Grimes and J. Y. Joyner returned last night from Durham, where they went yesterday to attend a meeting of the committee, which met for the purpose of awarding the contracts for the new buildings at the University. The dormitory committee opened the bids received and found that all were too high. They were refused and a new lot of bids will be called for. All the bids received for the construction of the Peabody Educational building were refused and the plans and specifications ordered revised. After the revision new bids will be called for.

Kills Father and Son.

RALEIGH.—Governor Kitchin announces a reward of $200 for Jess Upton, who is wanted in Swain county for a double murder on Christmas Day, when he shot George Brendle and his son, Manly Brendle, and fled to Georgia. There had been an old grudge between Upton and the elder Brendle and Christmas Day Brendle met Upton and suggested that they bury old scores and be friends again. Whereupon, Upton fired upon Brendle killing him instantly and then fired two shots into Manly Brendle, resulting in the latter's death within three hours. The reward is at the request of the sheriff of the county and Solicitor Felix Alley of the sixteenth district.

New Recorder for Durham.

DURHAM.—M. Paul C. Graham was elected judge of the Durham recorder's court at a joint meeting of the boards of aldermen and county commissioners called for the purpose at noon today. The opponent of Mr. Graham was Mr. R. H. Sykes, who has held the position for several years. The election ends a hard fought political battle, which has been in progress for more than a month. Mr. Graham was formerly mayor of the city and is well known throughout the state. The joint board also elected Mr. R. A. Harris clerk of the recorder's court. Mr. Harris secured the election in competition with Col. James A. Robinson, former editor of The Durham Sun. Mr. J. Ed. Pegram was elected substitute recorder and Colonel Robinson was elected deputy clerk.

North Carolina Federation of Women to Meet Here

Meeting of Council will take Place the First Week in February— Represents Nearly One Million Women from every State

Editor Reflector:

By invitations from the federated clubs of Greenville, the council of the North Carolina Federation of Women's clubs, will meet in our town the first week in February. In view of this event it may interest the people of Greenville to know more of the North Carolina Federation of clubs, its works and aims and the women who compose this council, so soon to have us with their presence.

The North Carolina Federation of clubs stands for the highest ideals, both personal and civic. It is a member of the National Federation of clubs, which represent nearly one million women, from every state in the union, all active in some form of good work.

The North Carolina Federation is only about ten years old, but has already accomplished many things. It has contributed one thousand dollars to the Stonewall Jackson Training school at Concord. It is keeping a girl at the Greensboro Normal College, to equip herself for usefulness as a teacher. It began the circulation of travelling libraries in North Carolina, and was instrumental in getting the state to take up that work, giving all its libraries to the state. These activities were recognized by the appointment of a representative from the federation on the library commission, when that commission was formed. It is co-operating with the State Literary and Historical Commission in the effort for university extension work, and with the board of health in the promotion of state-wide health. It has stimulated the study of music in North Carolina by prizes for original musical compositions, which has been so successful that it may yet discover and stimulate some musical genius in the state, which otherwise might never be developed.

As an organization the North Carolina Federation is composed of eighty (80) clubs from about forty (40) counties, with a total membership of more than 2,500 women. These clubs all pursue some line of elevating effort, either for personal culture or public benefit. Many of these clubs are civic leagues, working for the greater beauty, health and morality of the towns of these civic leagues live. Some of these civic leagues have many men as members, but their representation in the federation is based on the number of women members. As men are equally interested with women, in the improvement of their home towns, it seems most appropriate that they should join these civic leagues, and co-operate with the women in improving their towns.

The work of the federation is divided into departments representing literature, education, domestic science, art, conservation, health, libraries, music, and other important and improving lines of activity, all of which promote the general uplift of the various communities. Once each year delegates from all these clubs meet in a convention to report achievements planned and realized, and to discuss methods for increased usefulness and benefit. Once during the intervene between conventions, generally in mid-winter, the council meets to discuss and promote plans for the promotion of the work of the federation. These mid-winter meetings of the council take place in some smaller town, which cannot entertain so large a number of delegates as compose the federation. In February 1912, Greenville will be honored by this mid-winter meeting, by invitation from the End of Century and Round Table clubs jointly.

This council is composed of the officers of the federation and the chairmen of the aforementioned departments, into which the work is divided. These women represent all the cities of the state, and many small towns, Asheville, Raleigh, Wilmington, Goldsboro, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, High Point, Henderson, Carthage, and other towns. They are all women of brains, character, and energy, all devoted to the interest of their communities, and loyal to North Carolina.

Greenville will be proud to entertain these women, to show them its Training school, its court house, its graded school, its beautiful homes, its pavements and other public utilities, and above all else its hospitable citizens; and to show them that we are on the road of progress, and intend to rally ourselves, as a town, and as individuals, with the best and most progressive in the state.

ALLEGED B THIEF HELD IN NEW YORK CITY

Said to Have Robbed Canadian Bank of $375,000

"AUSTRALIAN MACK" LONG RECORD

Detectives Claim That Their Prison- er Committed the Robbery in the New Westminster B. C. Bank— Branch of the Bank at Montreal— Long Record of Crime Back of Prisoner.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—John McNamara, of San Francisco, known to detectives of half a dozen cities as "Australian Mack," was arrested here tonight by central office and private detectives on a warrant charging him with the larceny of $375,000 from the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, B. C., which was dynamited September 14. Eleven hundred dollars was found in his wallet, and detectives are searching the city tonight for $240,000 of the bank's funds, which he is believed to have brought to New York.

For ten days McNamara has been under surveillance by police here, after traveling over the United States and Canada for more than two months, it is said. Police headquarters here first learned of his arrival through a tip that some one was trying to exchange a large amount of Canadian money for American currency. Money brokers and the men who approached them were shadowed until the trial, they said, led them to McNamara's lodging. No money, however, was found there.

WILL BE TAXED TO HELP GOVERNOR

Harmon's Campaign Fund To Come From Taxation

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTEES TO PAY

It Has Been Officially Announced That all Harmon Appointees Will be Levied a Tax of 2 Per Cent on Their Salaries to Contribute to the Campaign Fund of Their Chief.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 8.—Curiosity as to the source whence Gov. Harmon's campaign fund is coming has been satisfied.

Despite assurance on the part of the head of the administration that officeholders under him would be entitled to enjoyment of their full salaries, and that no assessment should be made against the same, a letter has just come to light, which shows that the high-sounding phrases of the governor were meaningless, or else that he has no control over his subordinates.

A campaign assessment, for the furtherance of the governor's ambition to secure the nomination for president, of 2 per cent of the annual salaries of all employees of the administration has been ordered. By whose authority this ukase went forth, it has yet, been impossible to determine. Significantly, however, the letter bears date of December 23, which was about the time that numerous statehouse officials gathered in the executive chambers to assure the governor of their support in his ambition.

American Society of Equity.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Jan. 10.—Nearly every county of Kentucky was represented at the opening here today of the state convention of the American Society of Equity. The discussion of the co-operative movement and other matters of great importance to the farmers promises to make the meeting one of unusual interest.

NEBRASKAN GETS FIRST DEFEAT FROM THE PARTY LEADERS

Col. Guffey And Mountcastle Are Elected Committeemen

NEAR BLOWS IN PENNSYLVANIA ROW

Col. Bryan Denounces Col. Guffey as the Representative of Plutocracy in Pennsylvania—Democratic Party Lid Blown Open by Nebraskan— Guffey Calls Palmer a Liar—Se- rious Trouble Averted.

Col. James M. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, and R. E. L. Mountcastle, of Tennessee, were declared entitled to their seats as national committeemen.

Col. Guffey won by a vote of 30 to 18. There was only one dissenting vote in Mountcastle's case. W. J. Bryan was the chief opponent of Col. Guffey and the vote was regarded as a severe setback for the Nebraskan.

Col. Guffey hurled the charge of "liar" at Representative Palmer, who was contesting his seat. More serious trouble was averted when Col. Guffey apologized.

Selections of date and place for the convention was deferred until today Baltimore seems to be in the lead.

William Jennings Bryan literally blew the lid off the Democratic harmony barrel at the meeting of the Democratic national committee yesterday by denouncing Col. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, as "the direct representative of the plutocratic interests" and as a man "unfit to be a Democrat." Col. Guffey, however, was seated by a vote of 30 to 18.

The exhortation of Col. Guffey by Mr. Bryan was said by many of those present to have been the most sensational speech made by the Nebraskan since his famous "cross of gold and crown of thorns" address in the convention that first nominated him for the presidency.

OFFICERS FEAR HAY ARMY BILL

Will Ruin Nation's Fighting Force, They Say.

CRITICAL SITUATION IS BEING FACED

Leaders in Army Circles Assert That the Hay Army Bill is the Most Serious Proposition the War De- partment Faces and That it May be Ruinous to Fighting Force.

That a most critical situation confronts the army of Mr. Hay, chairman of the house committee on military affairs, to force the reporting out from the committee of the radical military measure which bears his name within the next few days is the openly expressed opinion of the line officers of the army stationed here.

The entire fighting branch of the army is aroused in opposition to the pending legislation; but the adroit move of Mr. Hay in attaching the measure as a rider to the army appropriation bill confines the battle ground to the committee room, and the opponents of the measure, being soldiers, recognize the strategic strength of the enemy's position.

It is pointed out by the army officers that every section of the bill but one is so drawn that it comes under the Holman rule, which prevents a point of order being raised against it, and thus prevents any effective attack on the floor of the house.

The more important sections of the Hay bill provides for the increasing of the term of enlistment from three to five years; the cutting off of increased pay for foreign service; the consolidation of the quartermaster's subsistence, and pay department into a supply corps; the merging of the adjutant general's and inspector general's office with the general staff, and the abolishing of the statutory office of chief of coast artillery and chief of the division of militia affairs.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1912.

We have Mr. Bryan's word for it that he is not a candidate.

Whether Roosevelt gets it or not he is giving the rest of them a scare, Taft included.

The plumber is entitled to his day, and he gets it when the freezing weather comes.

And some of the candidates for county officers are budding in readiness for the campaign this year.

And now it seems that politics are crowding every inch of space in the papers. So early in the season too.

At the Jackson banquet all Democrats joined hands and agreed. The exception this time being Gov. Harmon.

The man who has proper regard for his animal will see that it does not suffer from exposure to cold in this weather.

For nearly three days hardly anything has been heard from the Oyster Bay man. Perhaps he has decided to join the Oyster family and is going to "close up".

As Taft sees the white house slipping from under his feet it is to be hoped that he will not act like the ejected lodger who scratched the paper on the wall and carved his initials on every door and window frame.

If advertising is the key to business success somebody has gone away and taken the key with him. At that, it would be just as possible to have a new key made. There is no can't in Webster's and this is no exception.

Congratulations to those that wanted but could not find a rubber shoe to fit them. That money will come in handy next Christmas. That is, provided, somebody else does not get it before then.

Col. Bryan has suffered the first defeat of the season. The party leaders of Pennsylvania and Tennessee inflicted the first wound on W. J. Bryan who should confine his energies to the south where his qualities as a politician and speaker are most admired.

It is said that Richeson's confession will have effect on the McFarland case. If it is so, Uncle Sam will have many dollars which he will be able to use against the Beef Barons, the Steel Barons and all the other Barons. Which is about the same thing in the end.

The government is going to keep a watchful eye on the Shoe Leather Barons. The announcement that the price of shoes is to be increased is the cause for this extra watchfulness. It will be all right if the cost of keeping that watchful eye open does not cost tax payers more than the difference in the price of foot-gear.

Mr. Walter Poole, of this city, who has only one leg, tells of a very interesting circumstance which occurred to him last week. He lost his right leg when a boy on account of a white swelling and ever since has had to buy a pair of shoes to get the left shoe. He wears a number 5. One day last week he found a man had lost his left leg and wore a number 5 shoe. The two men had a pair of legs, right and left to suit the shoes, so they threw in and bought a pair of shoes together, purchasing the shoes for $3.50 and each paying $1.75.—Salisbury Post.

At last we have a tangible cause to shy at mothers-in-law. The probation officer of the Domestic Relations Court of New York asserts that 50 per cent of the martial trouble finds origin in the "third woman in the case". This will be gratifying news to those that always presented that as their excuse to leave their happy (?) homes.

This is to be truly an educational week in Greenville. The district association of county superintendents begins its sessions tonight at 7:30 and continues until Friday noon. This will be followed by a meeting of the association of state high school principals Friday and Saturday and a meeting of the county teachers association Saturday. Greenville is fortunate in having many visitors to these meetings.

If the government is as diligent as the parties entrusted to the surveying of the prospective new postoffice site we will have one very soon in Greenville. A new one, we mean. And it is to be hoped that when we do have it, the citizens will think well enough of it to make it possible for the mail to be delivered as in many other towns of our size. But of this, some more later.

At the same time he rose to high prominence in the Mormon church and in 1900 became an apostle of the faith. The effort failed and in 1909 Senator Smoot was elected for another term which will expire in 1915.

The Highway.

"Life is a highway wondrous, fair And we are but pilgrims journeying there. And it's here the rain and there the rain, But ever the sun comes out again; And it's over the hill and under the hill. NOTES FROM WAKE FOREST COLLEGE

Wake Forest, N. C., Jan. 8.—The spring term of Wake Forest College opened last Tuesday. The number of students registered up to this time is some over 420, and there are still a few students to register, who have not yet returned to college.

The spring term opening was good and every thing is now in fine running order. In every way this year bids fair to be the best year in the history of the college.

In spite of the bad weather and the ordinary joys of the holidays Dan Cupid kept his good work going. He is, indeed, a shrewd and busy fellow. Nothing hinders him. He works now, nothing for tomorrow, for it may not come. Thus during these days of rest three men of the student body were united in marriage to three of the south's queens. They, I suppose, found what Dan had for them in way of Christmas gifts, therefore, they must be happy.

In a mass meeting Saturday Mgr. S. Turner, of the basketball team, presented his resignation, because of too much work. It was accepted, and another will be elected in a few days.

Coach Crozier says the prospects are very fine in basketball this year. He is now working his men hard. He expects to have just as good a team as last year, and in all probability a better one. Most all of the last year's team are back and they are doing fine work. Among them are: Beam, H. and Beam, G.; Holding, B., and Holding, R.; and others, also there is a number of new men, who are playing good ball.

The track team practice has already begun, however, the Mgr. and Captain have not yet arranged their work, so as to give it to the press.

In a meeting tonight of the Y. M. C. A. President W. C. Ellis will offer his resignation as he will leave college in a few days. Ellis is a very fine fellow, and we shall miss him. However, since he can not remain with us, he has our very best wishes.

Mrs. Jane L. Godwin, 416 Dickinson avenue, Greenville, N. C., says: "I feel justified in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in return for the benefit I received from their use. For a long time my back ached and I had dizzy spells and headache. The kidney secretions also annoyed me and I had pains through my loins. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from the John L. Wooten Drug Company, and their use as directed relieved me. I can now rest better at night and my condition has improved in every way."

Ambitious Effort to Make Charleston - Centre of Winter Racing.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 10.—An ambitious effort to make this city the real center of winter racing in America was inaugurated today with the opening of the seventy-five-day race meeting planned by the Charleston Fair and Racing Association. The management is pleased with the prospects for success. Hundreds of thoroughbreds are now quartered at the local course and additional applications for stable room are being received daily. Gathered in Charleston for the first time are many turfmen whose faces are familiar on the metropolitan tracks.

Thirty thousand dollars has been set aside by the promoters of the meeting to be expended in purses for stake events alone. The programme provides for twenty events of this character, fifteen for horses of the more mature division and five for the baby racers. The feature event of the meeting will be the Palmetto Derby, one mile and a quarter worth $3,000.

HOTEL OPENING.

Vanderbilt Hotel on Vanderbilt Old Residence Site.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—With the opening today of the new Vanderbilt Hotel another was added to the long list of palatial hostels for which New York is famous the world over. The hotel, which is of the skyscraper type, occupies the site of the old Vanderbilt residence at Thirty-fourth street and Park avenue.

So far as the exterior of the building is concerned it closely resembles other structures of the same class but inside the hotel is said to set a new high mark for costliness and luxury. The interior fittings alone cost 3-4 of a million dollars. In every salon of the hotel there is an oil painting copy of some old master. The rugs and carpets cost about $200,000 and the furniture is all of the new glass top pattern with satin or linen scarfs beneath the glass.

The structure is declared to be absolutely fireproof. There is not a bit of wood in the construction. The bedroom floors are all concrete and the baseboards are marble. The doors, window frames and sashes are steel. There are no wall papers used in the decorations the corridors being all of stone and the walls of the rooms painted and panelled.

The owner of the building is Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. He is not interested in the management of the hotel, though he has reserved one entire floor for the use of his bride and himself when they are in the city.

In October of the same year Johnson again won the decision. They fought again on April 22, 1904, at San Francisco, when Johnson won by a knockout in the twentieth round.

J. Clarence Fletcher, a young Canadian, heads the successful owners in Japanese horse racing, and used to find the right of sovereignty an embarrassing principal on occasions, for it was contrary to all etiquette to defeat the horses of the emperor. That situation was relieved when his imperial majesty withdrew from racing in his own name and colors.

In England and Prussia the ruling sovereigns take the other view, their horses being entered in many of the races.

To Elect Two Senators.

RICHMOND, Jan. 10.—The general assembly of Virginia convened today and organized for its regular biennial session. Early in the session will come the election of two United States senators. There will be no contest for either toga, however, as the result of the recent Democratic primary insure the re-election of both Senators Swanson and Martin. The former will get the short term and the latter the long term. Following the election of senators the legislature will elect a score of judges and various other officials.

The legislative business of the session promises to be of more than ordinary interest and importance. Over-shadowing all other measures will be those relating to taxation, the liquor question and the contract system of prison labor.
