FIRE DESTROYS EQUITABLE LIFE INS. CO. LDC.

Approximate Loss Said To Be Six Million Dollars

TIES UP THE FINANCIAL DISTRICT

House of Equitable Totally Destroyed by Fire—Harriman's Biography Burned—Fireproof Vaults Save Many Million Dollars in Securities—Two Valuable Libraries Lost.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The immense marble and granite home of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, covering a whole block of lower Broadway, a historic landmark of New York's early period of skyscraper buildings, was today destroyed by fire, with a loss of six lives and probably $6,000,000 in property. A dozen persons were injured.

Valuable records, including the biography of E. H. Harriman, and two priceless libraries, which cannot be replaced, went up in flames, and the fate of hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of securities, stored in safe-deposit vaults, was tonight in question, although it was believed that fireproof construction would save them from damage.

Fought in the heart of the financial district, the fire upset the financial machinery of Wall street, and business was practically suspended throughout the day.

The great structure, which besides containing the main office of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was the home of the Merchants Trust Company, the Equitable Trust Company, the banking house of Kountze Bros., August Belmont and Company, the Harriman railroad lines, the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company, the Lawyers' club, and many of the city's most prominent law firms, stands tonight a shell of ice-coated granite, with its once magnificent interior completely gutted.

STANLEY COMM. ON STEEL TRUST

Findings Of the Committee Still Going On

CARNEGIE TO TESTIFY BEFORE IT

Corporation Officials Are Blamed by Committee for Delays—Representative Levy Declares 25,000 Men
Have Lost Their Jobs.

Threats of Chairman Stanley, of the "steel trust" investigation committee, to issue subpoenas at once for everything he wanted from the United States Steel Corporation, and personalities in debate over his fight for $9,000 additional appropriation for the inquiry, gave the house an exciting half hour late yesterday. The house finally voted the appropriation to supplement the original $25,000.

Mr. Stanley declared he had reached the end of courteous treatment of the steel trust officers. Representative Levy, of New York, a Democrat, who said he opposed the inquiry as an interference with business stability, was assured by Mr. Stanley that he "need not lose any sleep," even though Mr. Levy had "J. P. Morgan as one of his constituents."

Representative Bowman, of Pennsylvania, questioned Mr. Stanley's statements that steel rails had sold uniformly at $22 a ton since the steel trust's formation.

"The committee has been subjected to a scientific and tantalizing system of delay," said Mr. Stanley. "I have been uniformly courteous to the officials of the steel corporation but they in turn either do not let our experts see their records, or delay us unreasonably. I intend to issue subpoenas for what I want, and I will get it or know the reason why."

U. S. GOVERNMENT ORDERS TROOPS TO THE ORIENT

AMERICAN SOLDIERS TO GUARD R. R.

Chinese Capital Hears That the Revolutionaries Are Destroying the Pukow Railroad—American Troops Again to Invade China After a Lapse of More Than Ten Years.

After a lapse of more than ten years American troops are again to invade China. They are to aid in keeping open the railroad from Peking to the sea. In the course of eight or nine days 500 regular infantry will be disembarked at the little Chinese port of Chinwankao. The movement was ordered after mature consideration of the policy involved in landing American troops in a foreign country under the peculiar conditions now existing in China.

Several days ago Mr. Calhoun, the American minister at Peking, intimated that some of the powers were looking to the United States to contribute a quota of troops to meet treaty obligations to keep open communication between the capital and the coast. It required the intervening time to develop the exact needs of the situation, and it was not until yesterday that Minister Calhoun was able to inform the state department that 500 troops would suffice to discharge the United States' obligation.

It was when the close of the official day when the state department's request for the dispatch of troops reached the war department, but a cablegram to Maj. Gen. Bell was dispatched with in a few minutes after it had been approved by Secretary Stimson and signed by Maj. Gen. Bell, chief of the staff, instructing him to dispatch the force, together with a hospital corps detachment. It is understood the fifteenth infantry will be called upon to supply the troops, who will be embarked on the transport Thomas.

BANKER ESCAPES A FIERY TOMB

Rescued From a Vault in Equitable Fire

ACCIDENTALLY LOCKED IN VAULT

President of Safe Deposit Co. Had Accidentally Locked Himself Up
With an Assistant in One of the Vaults of the Equitable Bldg—
When Fire Broke Out—Rescued by Firemen.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Locked behind the "mob" door of the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company, in the Equitable building, William Giblin, president of the company, was rescued just as the roof fell in, after having been penned in the burning Equitable building for three hours. He had been given up for dead, after the last rites of the church had been administered to him through the bars of his prison by Father McGean, a fire department chaplain. The firemen struggling in vain, it appeared, to save him and a watchman could see Mr. Giblin prone on the floor, and they thought him dead.

When Mr. Giblin was pulled out upon the sidewalk, his first thought was for the watchman, William Sheehan, who had been locked in with him. He told the firemen the man was still in the vault, and the rescuing party went back. Under the blazing wreckage where the floor had caved in they found the man, held fast by his right hand.

Dr. Orr, of the Hudson Street Hospital, had to amputate the man's hand at the wrist before he could be freed. He was hurried to the Hudson Street Hospital, where it was said he probably would die from shock.

Grand Lodge of Masons.
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 10.—William B. McKoy, Esq., of Wilmington, tonight will be elected Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons to succeed Hon. R. N. Hackett, of Wilkesboro. This seems to be the unanimous sentiment of the six hundred delegates here this afternoon.

Commutes Death Sentence.
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 10.—Governor Kitchin yesterday commuted to life imprisonment in the penitentiary at hard labor the death sentence of Cleveland Garner, convicted in Wayne county. The commutation was recommended by the trial judge the solicitor and others on the ground that the circumstantial evidence was too weak to take the man's life. He had two brothers, it is said, mixed up in the affair. Garner was sentenced to die in the electric chair next Friday for the murder of a negro girl.

Hog Ordinance Killed.
GREENSBORO, Jan. 9.—Judge N. L. Eure of the municipal court this morning held that Greensboro's "hog-pen ordinance" is unconstitutional and that a man may not be prevented from keeping a hog or hog-pen in the city unless it is proved in a case against him that the particular pen, or, in legal language,

"the locus in quo," is itself a nuisance. This was the ruling of the court in holding in the case of State and city against R. F. Rice of Goose Grease liniment fame, with the defendant in a motion to quash an indictment against him for keeping one pig in violation of an ordinance preventing the keeping of hogs within the city limits or within a quarter of a mile of the same.

Some fifty cases have been tried in the city court within the last week of similar character to the case against Mr. Rice. In all of these cases the court held the defendants guilty and taxed them with the cost. No one attacked the constitutionality of the law until Mr. Rice employed counsel and undertook it. Probably one hundred and fifty people are now keeping hogs in the city or within the range prescribed by the ordinance, and they are naturally interested in the outcome. Nearly $200 in costs already collected is dependent upon the outcome of the case; if Judge Eure is upheld by higher courts, the costs will be returned to the hog-owners, who have been brought into court and tried.

Three New Corporations.
RALEIGH, Jan. 9.—Three new corporations were chartered today; The S. M. Maddox Company, Greensboro, capital $25,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed by J. A. Pitts, S. M. Maddox, L. L. Maddox and Lelia Pitts, for mercantile business; the Wallace Brothers Company, (Inc.), Cartage, capital $10,000 by O. D. Wallace, B. C. Wallace and others; and the Krescent Company, Concord, capital $10,000 by Julius Fisher, Luther Sappenfield, A. F. Goodman and others.

No Changes Expected in the Baseball Circuit.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 11.—The club owners and officials of the Wisconsin-Illinois baseball league rounded up at the Hotel Pfister today for their annual meeting. The league last year did not come up to the expectations of some of the magnates from a financial standpoint and for some time rumors have been current of possible changes in the circuit. A new man for president in place of Charles Moll also has been discussed. Statements made by several of the owners before the meeting began behind closed doors this afternoon indicated, however, that the league is likely to begin the season of 1912 with the circuit unchanged and that in all probability Moll will be selected to pilot the organization for at least another year.

SENATOR LORIMER TAKES STAND TO DEFEND HIMSELF

Appear As Witness For Himself For First Time

HE FLATLY DENIES BYING SEAT

In Defending His Right to a Seat in Senate He Declares that Gov. Deneen Suggested to Him to Become a Candidate—His Defense Last
Time Was as a Senator Speaking
From His Desk.

When Senator William Lorimer, of Illinois, yesterday took the stand before the senate committee that is investigating the charges involving his election, the most interesting stage of that inquiry was reached. Mr. Lorimer was not summoned at the previous investigation, and this was his first appearance under oath.

His defense in the former case was made as a senator speaking from his desk on the floor of the senate. In his testimony yesterday Mr. Lorimer was just as emphatic as when he exercised his rights as a senator in debate.

The fact that the Illinois senator was to take the stand in his own defense drew a large crowd, including many women, to the committee room.

The first question Judge Elbridge Hancey, Lorimer's counsel, put to the senator was a blunt and leading one.

"Did you ever pay anything of value to anybody for your election?" he demanded.

"I never did," replied Senator Lorimer.

Mr. Hancey then led the senator through a recital of political conditions in Illinois prior to his election. The evident inference from the drift of Judge Hancey's questioning was that he expects to accuse Gov. Deeneen of having been responsible for a political intrigue which resulted in the defeat of former Senator Hopkins.

Hidden He Asserts—Seattle Police Doubtful.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Bank robberies in Canada and Panama, murders in Columbia, South America, in Panama, Tulsa, Akla., and St. Louis, Mo., and other crimes were "confessed" and admissions of a further criminal record were promised here today by Frank Holloway, 32 years old, who had been arrested as a pickpocket. He has many aliases. His story is held in some doubt by the police, who are investigating.

Nearly half a million dollars is involved in the thefts he told the police he had taken part in, and he said if he "felt like it" he would give details of still more big robberies later.

Following is the crime record he told the police was his:

Aided "many other persons" in robbing the bank of Montreal, at Westminster, British Columbia, last September, getting $375,000 in gold and paper money. He share was nearly $85,000.

Was one of the gang of six who "busted" the safe of the Panama City Banking Company, at Panama, in February, 1910; got $84,000 all toll. In gun fight with fellow robbers near Panama shot and killed one Schaeffer in quarrel over division of spoils.

DEMOCRATS WILL HOLD CONVENTION IN BALTIMORE

On June 25th. Democrat Will Meet

ST. LOUIS BIDS $40,000 FOR IT.

Meeting in Washington Said to Have Advanced Woodrow Wilson's Candidacy for President—Harmony
Marks Close of Meeting—W., R.
Hearst is Mentioned as the 'Dark
Horse' in the Race.

With the backers of Woodrow Wilson jubilantly asserting that recent events had proved that the New Jersey governor would be the Democratic nominee for president, Baltimore selected as the scene of the convention, and June 25 fixed as the day, the meeting of the Democratic national committee came to a harmonious end yesterday.

There was none of the bitterness that marked the opening session. Representatives of Baltimore, St. Louis, Chicago, Denver, and New York presented the claims of their respective cities in efforts to obtain the convention, but, while many eloquent speeches were made, money proved the most persuasive talker. By exhibiting a certified check for $100,000, Baltimore captured the prize.

Arrangements of the kind never were conducted on a more business-like basis. The Democratic party refused to listen to the glowing promises of St. Louis and Denver, and intimated that it would like to see the color of the money.

St. Louis spoke up bravely, with a promise to pay all expenses of the convention and throw in a bonus of $40,000, as a contribution to the campaign fund of the Democratic party. But the party shook its head, and kept its eyes glued to the $40,000 check lying innocently on the table.

ALL NATIONS AT WHITE HOUSE

MANY PRESENT AT FIRST FUNCTION

Brilliant Ceremony Mark the Opening of Capital's Season—Beautiful
Costumes and Jewels at White House Reception.

The first of the state receptions of the winter was given at the white house last night, when members of the diplomatic corps were the honor guests of the President and Mrs. Taft. About 1,400 guests were entertained, and the function was one of the most brilliant in the history of the Taft administration.

All the nations with embassies and legations at Washington, and both the great political parties of this country, were represented in the distinguished company that assembled in the east room at 9:30 o'clock, when the President and Mrs. Taft, followed by the cabinet ministers and their wives, descended the stairs and took their places in the blue room.

The brilliantly illuminated house flanked by its long terraces, sent pathways of light across the snow-wrapped park, making without a picture as beautiful as that within, where every room had its appropriate floral decoration, and where men in picturesque court dress and women in charming costumes, offset by the glitter of many jewels, congregated.

The long corridor connecting the two wings of the house, with its scarlet carpet and its many alcoves filled with palms, was used as a promenade. The Marine Band played in the entrance hall north of the state drawing rooms. Supper was served in the state dining room, and at the conclusion of the reception, just before midnight, the band moved into the east room and dancing began.

Remembering the Maine.

Every possible effort should be made by the navy department to send an entire division of the fleet to act as escort to the ship that conveys the remains of the heroes of the battleship Maine back to the United States. While this suggestion already has met with favor among the naval officers, it is understood that considerable difficulty has been encountered in the plan and that there is danger of abandonment.

All patriotic citizens will join in the hope that the navy department will find a way to surmount the obstacles and make arrangements for a division of the fleet to make the trip to Havana harbor. The honor would be none too great for the men who gave up their lives for their country and whose bones have remained buried in the deep for so long a time. A signal tribute paid to their sacrifice will not bring them back, but it will bring some poor measure of consolation to the relatives who mourn for them and will serve for all time as proof that the United States is appreciative of the sacrifice made in the name of the nation.—Washington Post.

Banking in the South.

Since March, 1900, eleven hundred and eighty-five national banks with a total capital of $75,591,500 have been organized in the southern states a greater number of banks and a larger capital than in any other main division of the country except the clemency for the prisoner. This shows that there are some kind people in the world. But it would hardly do to let murderers of Richeson's type go. A great Frenchman once said, "If the gentlemen who commit murders want the capital punishment abolished, let them lead." Which is absolutely right. If the too many Wolters, Richesons and Beaties want capital punishment abolished let them start the ball rolling. Justice will follow suit, which is exactly what she is doing now.

Today 325 lawyers, bankers and railroad magnates are without a business home. Fire which consumed the massive building of the Equitable Life Insurance Company routed them out and devoured documents that may cause many small panics. Important law suit papers, R. R. bonds, securities, etc., etc., were blown out to the street or burned up by the flames, and New York's financial district was tied up for many hours. New York with its most modern fire fighting facilities—New York where a fire engine, hook and ladder and all the paraphernalia that crowds a fire house, is put in rapid motion within 38 seconds from the sound of the fire alarm, has again been victimized by one of the elements. One of the strongest companies in the world mourns today the loss of an insurance library with no equal. A law library that in many instances cannot be replaced was caressed, fondled and finally consumed by the flames. A beautiful structure, a landmark in the busiest city in the world is today a mass of ruins. And again the loss of human life was heavy. Six persons met their fate within the burning Equitable home. All of them in the discharge of their duties. Perhaps the saddest incident of the fire was the heroic death of Fire Chief Walsh who with some of the fire fighters was in the fourth floor of the building. As the floor upon which they stood seemed to give way under their feet Fire Chief Walsh yelled to his men "save yourselves, men; don't mind me" and amidst the roar of falling timber and sweeping flames Walsh was carried down to a fiery grave. Doing his duty, perhaps, but a hero whose life was claimed by the big city. Many good men have been fighting the flames in New York for many years and in almost every fire of any importance the fire-fighters have had to mourn the life of a comrade. It is to be hoped that New York will know how to reward his widow and son who were unsuspecting witnesses of the spectacular fire which robbed them of husband and father.

Carrie Reynolds has left John Cort's "Jacinta" company and will go into vaudeville.

Middle west. The average percentage of increase in deposits in the southern states in the last fiscal year was 15.62 per cent as compared with 4.07 per cent for the whole country and 5.35 per cent for the middle west. In deposits of all classes the southern banks also lead the rest of the banks in the country by a very comfortable margin.

"Corresponding increases on loans and discounts," says The New York Commercial, "show that these gains in deposits were used profitably in fostering business and in the percentage of increase in these items the southern banks are again in the front rank." "It is through the banks," says our contemporary, again "that the people of the south are now financing a large part of their own undertakings. The man that is able to get ahead deposits his surplus in a local bank and through the bank lends it to his neighbor, indirectly it is true, but to better advantage to all concerned than it could be done in any other way.

The south has made wonderful strides in the last few years. It lends now; it does not borrow. There has never been in the history of the world, we believe, so substantial and speedy recovery from the destruction of war and the evils of corrupt government as that made by the southern states in the last quarter of a century. "Southward the Star of the Empire takes its way."—Charlotte Observer.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands.

Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chatterbox Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Sacramento has signed a left-hander named Kohner, a former Santa Clara College pitcher. If he makes good in the Pacific Coast league he will be sent to the Boston Red Sox.

ASSOCIATION OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

WELCOMED BY MAYOR WOOTEN.

Prof. Harold Barnes, of Philadelphia, Delivers Splendid Address.

The superintendents of county schools for this district of the state began their meeting here Wednesday night in the auditorium of East Carolina Teachers' Training school. Nearly all of the counties in the district were represented at the opening meeting.

Much to the pleasure of all assembled in the auditorium the exercises began with a song by the pupils of the school. After prayer had been offered by Rev. C. M. Rock, the superintendents were cordially welcomed to Greenville in a neat speech by Mayor F. M. Wooten.

President Wright followed with some remarks in his happy style and introduced Prof. Harold Barnes, of Gerard College, Philadelphia, referring to him as one of the faculty of the Training school who, while belonging to us, had been loaned to another institution for the time being.

Prof. Barnes' subject was "Our State's Need of Trained Teachers and Trained Superintendents," and while his address was in the main technical it was none the less interesting. He said we people are filled with pride and feel that North Carolina is the only state in the union. He was glad to note that spirit, for we ought to feel that way about it. Referring to North Carolina's war record, he said she sent more soldiers according to population into the civil war than any other state, and he had often heard the quotation that she was "first at Bethel, furthest at Gettysburg and last at Appomattox."

Then taking up by contrast the educational condition of the state as late as 1890, when North Carolina was the lowest state in illiteracy save one, he pointed out the wonderful progress made since that time. That we may set the pace for even more progress and reach to even higher things, he named several requirements that should be in both teachers and county superintendents. These covered many good suggestions.

One thing he mentioned with emphasis was that in addition to his knowledge and qualifications a county superintendent should be an apostle of good roads. He said everything can be done so much more easily in a community where good roads exist, and while good roads mean so much to the people on reaching markets easily, they mean more to the children in getting to school.

After the conclusion of the address and the singing of the "Old North State" by the school, the association of superintendents held its first business session in one of the class rooms.

Huntington's total of 1,303 points, however, is 10 points under the record of F. H. Leslie, who headed the list last year, with 1,209.

IT GROWS HAIR.

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet requisite, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store.
