Officers and Ex-Committee of State Assn. in Session

MEETING PLACE FOR CONVENTION

Bids for The Convention Were Put in by Wrightsville and Wilmington Through C. N. Evans—Convention to be Held June 26-28—Many Cities Wanted Convention.

ROCKY MOUNT, Feb. 23.—In the assembly hall of the Ricks hotel this morning at 10 o'clock the officers and the executive committee of the State Bankers' association, met in called meeting, Mr. J. C. Braswell, of this city, who is president of the association, presiding.

The meeting is for the transacting of several items of business referred to the committee at the last annual meeting at Lake Kanuka, but the one of greatest interest to the public generally was the decision relative to the place for the holding of the state convention this year. The officers and directors of the association who were present today were Mr. J. C. Braswell, president, Rocky Mount; Mr. W. A. Hunt, secretary, of Henderson; Col. John F. Bruton, of Wilson; Mr. L. S. Covington, of Rockingham; Mr. W. A. Shaffner, of Winston; Mr. H. McKinnon, of Clinton; Mr. Thomas E. Cooper, of Wilmington; Mr. M. J. Grant, of Littleton; Mr. A. B. McMillian, of Fayetteville; Mr. J. W. Norman, of Hertford; Mr. A. G. Meyers, of Gastonia; Mr. T. H. Shipman, of Brevard; and Mr. J. F. Watlington, of Reidsville; and Mr. George A. Holderness, of Tarboro.

Congressman from the Eighth District Does Not Favor Holding the Senatorial Primary on November Election Day—No Opposition to His Re-Election to Congress.

WINSTON-SALEM, Feb. 23.—Congressman R. L. Doughton, of the Eighth district, was here yesterday en route from Washington to his home in Alleghany county. The "farmer representative" as many of his constituents delight to term him, goes home to look after some private business matters. He will return to Washington the middle of next week.

Mr. Doughton, during an interview, expressed the opinion that the present session of congress "would not close before the last of May or the first of June. He said that the house committees were moving slowly but surely.

"What about that enormous pension bill, will the large appropriation passed by the house get through the senate?" the reporter asked.

"In my opinion it will be cut at least half," replied Mr. Doughton.

Grain Men Don't Like New Ruling.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 23.—While protesting that the new conditions tend to create confusion and an abnormal condition of marketing grains, a mass convention of grain producers and handlers here today at the same time discussed plans to meet the requirements of the recent ruling of the bureau of chemistry in regards to the conditions under which grain must be shipped and marketed. The grain men are inclined to find fault particularly with the interpretation concerning the liability incurred in the shipping of corn for interstate commerce. They declared that the law as interpreted by the bureau of chemistry renders it most hazardous for buyers and shippers of corn to purchase for shipment in interstate commerce a large proportion of any of the recognized standard grades of corn.

Nevada Legislature Meets.

CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 23.—Called together in special session by proclamation of Governor Oddie, the Nevada legislature met today for the purpose, according to the proclamation, of providing for a state loan and a state tax levy. There is nothing in the law to prohibit the governor from calling other legislative business to the attention of the lawmakers and it is rumored that measures may be introduced to make prize fights unlawful in Nevada and also to put a quietus on the Reno divorce industry. But it is regarded as more likely that the work of the special session will be confined to the specific objects mentioned in the official call, especially since the governor has intimated that the session is to last but a few days.

To Promote Industrial Education.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 23.—A hundred or more men and women interested in the subject of vocational work in the public schools assembled in Buffalo today for the third annual convention of the New York state branch of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education. The opening session was held at the Hotel Statler this afternoon, with George H. Forbes presiding. Among those in attendance were many persons of prominence in civic and educational affairs. The sessions of the convention will conclude tomorrow.

Wilson Draws First Blood in Oklahoma

GREAT RECEPTION OF WILSON IN KANSAS

The Real Test in the Oklahoma Convention Came When Method of Selecting the Various Committees When Wilson Won by a Great Majority—When Put to the Aye and Naye Vote Wilson Plan Prevails.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 23.—Supporters of Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, as the Democratic presidential nominee won in the first skirmish on the floor of the Democratic State convention yesterday afternoon.

The test came in deciding the method of selecting the various committees. Adherents of Speaker Champ Clark and Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, suggested that the representation be by counties, while the Wilson men demanded representation by judicial districts.

The motion came first from the Clark forces but quickly leaders of the Wilson faction offered a substitute in turn followed by a motion by a Clark man to table the substitute.

The first ballot was announced as a victory for the Clark contingent, 333 to 323, but the vote was challenged and a second ballot showed an even vote, 293 1-2 for each. By an aye and naye vote it was then decided that a tie vote does not table a motion and in selecting the committees the Wilson plan prevailed.

Judge Thomas Doyle, of the Criminal court of appeals, an avowed Harmon man, was selected as temporary chairman of the convention by the state central committee, and his selection was unanimously approved when the convention was first organized this afternoon. After the appointment of committees a recess was taken until 8 o'clock.

ASHEVILLE HEADQUARTERS OFFICERS FOR FORESTRY ASSN

GREAT WESTERN N. C. ASSN.

HEAD QUARTERS OF THE GREAT WESTERN ASSOCIATION WILL BE OPENED IN ASHEVILLE.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 23.—The headquarters for the Greater Western North Carolina association will most likely be opened within the next few days. D. C. Waddell, Jr., has donated a room for this purpose in the Electrical building, it being the former quarters of the Asheville board of trade. This room will be finished in white and put in shape for the association at once, after which headquarters will most likely be opened before Manager Cohen returns from his proposed trip to Florida.

The room adjoins the building occupied by the offices of the Southern Railway company and as the latter has donated the use of one of its rooms provided the association needs it, it is likely that the two rooms will be connected.

The committee soliciting funds in Buncombe county has collected about $4,000 and a strenuous campaign is being made to raise the amount to $5,000 as early as March 8, when the next meeting of the association will be held in Asheville.

Pacific A. A. Indoor Meet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 23.—Star athletes representing clubs and colleges throughout this section trooped into San Francisco today to compete for honors in the big indoor track and field meet arranged by the Pacific Athletic Association. TOPEKA Has Not Had Such an Important Gathering of Democrats Since William Jennings Bryan Spoke There in 1905—Wilson Gets Oration in Kansas Democratic Clubs—Spoke on the Relation of Business to the Government.

TOPEKA, Kas., Feb. 23.—The coming of Woodrow Wilson to Kansas and his speech last night at the banquet of the Kansas Democratic Clubs, brought out one of the largest gatherings of Democrats here since the visit of William J. Bryan in 1905.

Governor Wilson arrived yesterday morning and the entire afternoon was spent in holding an informal reception. The banquet was held at Masonic hall, one of the largest halls in the city, and it proved too small to accommodate all who came to hear the speaker.

Democratic leaders were present today from all over the state and though many meetings and conferences were held, no movement for the endorsement of any candidate for the Democratic nomination for president had taken place late this afternoon.

Governor Wilson spoke tonight on "The Relation of Business to the Government." He said in part:

"The cry of the hour seems to be that business has grown so formidable in its independent organization as to have it set up in rivalry to the government itself and that it herefore must be so regarded; that the whole force of the government must be bent to the restraint of business. I venture to suggest that what we are really after is not the restraint of business, but the restraint of individuals who are putting business upon a false and selfish footing."

Simmons Faces Bitter Fight.

RALEIGH, Feb. 23.—With the senatorial primary fight in North Carolina but a few months distant, outward and visible are abundant that the contest for the seat of Senator Simmons is to be hard fought and exceedingly bitter. Senator Simmons term of office will expire one year hence and he is a candidate for reelection. His principal rival for the toga appears to be Governor W. W. Kitchin, who has already taken the stump and delivered some vigorous attacks on Simmons political record, particularly his vote in the Lorimer case. A third candidate for the senatorship is former Governor Charles B. Aycock and a fourth is Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the State Supreme court. It is believed that a second primary confined to the two leaders in the first primary will be necessary to settle the contest.

Gastonia Political Pot Simmering.

Gastonia.—The county political pot is beginning to simmer just a little. It is expected to begin boiling at a pretty lively rate ere long. So far there are in the field only three men who are avowed candidates for office. Two of these, Mr. Carl Finger, of Stanley, and Mr. Clyde C. Craig, of Dallas, are after the Democratic nomination for the office of county treasurer and Mr. Wiley H. McGinnas, of Kings Mountain wants to be register of deeds. None of these have made formal announcements of their candidacy in the papers, but all three are actively at work among their friends.

Conference for Education in the South Convenes April 3.

Durham.—The conference for education in the South will be held at Nashville, Tenn., April 3, 4 and 5. The conference is noted especially for the live discussions pertaining to educational problems in relation to the social and economic life of the South. There is probably no other meeting held in the Southern States so widely attended and containing such a wide interest as the conference for education in the South. It was really begun in North Carolina at Winston-Salem in 1901, and from that state until the present time it has exercised much influence.

TRIP HAMMER CASE ENDS

DEFENDANT AWARDED DAMAGES

MOORFIELD GETS DAMAGES TO THE EXTENT OF $2,500. HE SUED FOR $5,000. JURY WAS OUT 24 HOURS.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 22.—Greensboro's famous "trip-hammer" case was finally decided in so far as damages are concerned, in Superior court late yesterday afternoon when the jury returned a verdict after being out nearly 24 hours, finding for the plaintiff and awarding damages in the sum of $2,500. The case was entitled J. R. Moorefield vs. The Standard Machine and Boiler Company and grew out of the operation by the defendant company of a certain boiler-riveting device known as a trip-hammer. The complainant, who, upon the institution of the cause, secured before Judge Allen an injunction restraining the defendant from further operation of the hammer, maintained that the noise made by the trip-hammer was destroying the peace and happiness of his home; that it was having a damaging effect upon the health of members of his family and that his children were being rendered deaf as a result of the noise.

TAFT OPPOSED TO GOVERNMENT OWNED TELE.

If Public would Receive Service Cheaper He Might Agree

President Taft Favors Increased Postal Rate For News Papers And Magazines, Asks Congress That Second Class Matter be Raised From One Cent to Two Cents Per Pound.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22.—President Taft today informed Congress that he did not approve of Postmaster-General Hitchcock's suggestion that the government buy and operate all telegraph lines as an adjunct of the postal system. Mr. Taft said that if he could be shown that the public would benefit by receiving service at a less price that is now paid, he might think differently of the plan, but that he was not convinced such would be the effect.

After referring to the practical wiping out of the postal deficit and other features of Mr. Hitchcock's administration of affairs, Mr. Taft, in transmitting the postoffice department's report to Congress today, said:

"There is only one recommendation in which I cannot agree—that is one which recommends that the telegraph lines of the United States should be made a part of the postal system and operated in conjunction with the mail system. This presents a question of government ownership of public utilities which are now being conducted by private enterprises under franchises from the government."

"I believe that the true principle is that private enterprises should be permitted to carry on such public utilities under due regulation as to rates by proper authority rather than that the government should itself conduct them. This principle I favor because I do not think it in accordance with the best policy thus greatly to increase the body of public servants.

Mr. Taft approved the adoption of a parcels post, recommended by Mr. Hitchcock; said that the placing of assistant postmasters in the civil service should be followed by placing under the classified service of postmaster and commended the postal savings system. Preparations are being made, he said, to establish this system at about 40,000 fourth class offices.

Kinston Christian Church Will Build $30,000 Edifice.

Kinston.—At a congregational meeting of the Christian church Sunday morning, the trustees of the church were directed to purchase a lot belonging to Mrs. A. J. Loftin, located on Gordon street, only a half a block from Queen street, the principal street of Kinston. The consideration is $6,500. Plans for the erection of a handsome new church edifice are already in hand and it is contemplated that work will begin early in the spring. The cost of the building will be approximately $30,000.

The Storm in Rowan.

SPENCER, Feb. 23.—The heavy winds of Wednesday night did considerable damage in this section, blowing down a house in the course of erection in Spencer, the property of E. H. Stewart, of Richmond. The wind blew a gale and it was with difficulty that any sort of travel was kept up. In some instances ladies were forced to abandon return trips home until after the storm.

Telephone Lineman Killed.

Durham.—Bob Rigsbee, a 17-year-old young man, a lineman for the Inter-State Telephone Company in Durham, fell 23 feet to the ground from the top of a telephone pole here this afternoon. His head struck the brick pavement and he died almost instantly. It is thought that he came in contact with a live wire at the top of the pole and in an effort to free himself lost his hold.

ADVERTISING
 No. 4.

In closing our yesterday's editorial on Advertising we made mention of a certain class of advertisers, which are called "foreign" by newspaper publishers.

Publications with an established circulation and standing are eagerly sought by these advertisers. In fact the local publisher need never go out of his way to look for such business. Foreign advertisers, even though they have the "best product of its kind on the market," (as was explained in the excerpt from the letter we published yesterday) are not contented with manufacturing or having for sale that best product. They believe in having it known and even if their capital is limited they have enough faith in newspaper advertising to invest what little they may have as they are thoroughly convinced that results of the worth-while-kind will be forthcoming.

With such an example it is hardly to be understood why the local man will persist in neglecting that almost important branch of his business.

It stands to reason that good quality and right prices will draw an unending line of customers to the merchant's door. But, how is the merchant going to let it be known that he has such an excellent line of goods and that his prices are just right unless he tells the people about it? And, how is he going to do it unless he commits it to the local paper. If the paper is the natural medium, it should suggest itself to the merchant immediately. Reasonable beyond a doubt, as may appear, yet it is a positive fact that in many towns the size of Greenville, business is not given the necessary "push" just because the merchants seem to lack that faith in advertising which their more enterprising brothers of the "foreign field" possess.

Advertising results are to be obtained through persistent efforts, like results to be obtained in any other endeavor. The firm of N. W. Ayer & Son, of Philadelphia, has for its motto, "Keeping everlastingly at it brings success." It is a very good motto, and we have had occasion to refer to it sometime before. However, a paraphrase of this motto would not simply say "Keep going without looking around to take advantage of the means offered you for the betterment of your business." It means more than that. It means "keep going along the lines of progress suggested by the times, and keep going." Make use of every means within your reach to accomplish what you set out to do, but keep going. In a few words, if something happens along your march, that threatens to make it come to a close, cast your eye around and find some means of overcoming that difficulty. If your business has fallen into a state of lathargy, which brings you close to a standstill that spells failure, don't stop because your end seems impending, but pull yourself together and catch onto a something that may offer itself to you and give yourself another impulse. And if the means does not offer itself to you, you had better go out and offer yourself to the means. But for your business sake, for your own sake, find your level and keep going.

The signs of hard times are only the result of ignored opportunities, and although you may hear that opportunity only knocks once at a man's door, forget it. The chances are that opportunity will call again. Everything that goes up must come down. And if opportunity went up the street, she'll come down again. If she does not notice you on her way down, come out to the middle of the street and get hold of her. She is not so elusive, after all.

LAW ENFORCEMENT.

The meeting of New Bern citizens, held a few nights ago, closely following the Bryan murder case and a result of the verdict rendered by the jury that tried the case, has begun to make history.

The New Bern Sun, in its editorial column says:

"This morning many of New Bern's leading business men were much surprised to have an officer of the law to serve a warrant on them for violating a city ordinance. Most of the arrests were made for allowing trash boxes to stand on the streets overnight. It has been such a long time since the ordinance was enforced that many people did not know there was such a law on the books. Another bunch of boys and men were in court today for violating the bicycle laws, in that they were not provided with bells and lamps. This ordinance has also been a vagrant for some time."

We are glad to publish this editorial in part, because it seems to fit our own case so well. We seem to think that just because a law is a small one, we should not respect it as much as we do respect a larger size one. Capital mistake. It is just this disrespect for city ordinances that breeds contempt for more serious laws.

We allow trash to stand, not overnight, but in some cases over many a day. Delivery boys who make use of bicycles to cover their territory in a shorter time, are as guilty of the bicycle law in Greenville as the men and boys rounded up in the New Bern court were.

Surely we are not waiting for such a time, as the disrespect for such city ordinances will be a regular nuisance to have proper care taken of delinquents. The whole thing is a nuisance already, and it is to be hoped that the town authorities will not have to wait for a citizens mass meeting to wake up to the possibilities for comfort which are entrusted to them, together with the authority to make them effective.

And it would be very encouraging to have the town authorities join hands with our Civic League and cooperate in making a better looking Greenville.

Two days ago we published a letter from a citizen, who seems to be enthused over the prospect of having Greenville look as well as it might be made to look, were everybody to think about it, and do their share. In that letter he called attention to the amount of chickens, that, without having discovered the pole, as did "Doc" Cook, have been granted the "Freedom of Greenville" and are allowed to select their food in front yards and in some instances on the streets. Perhaps there is some ordinance about that nuisance, too. And if there is, we look upon the town authorities to have it enforced.

THE TWO EXTREMES.

The case of Brandt, the Swedish valet of millionaire, Mortimer Schieff, of New York, is nearly over, with a satisfactory result for the underdog. Brandt, for a charge of burglary which was never satisfactorily proven, was sent "up" for 30 long years. The sent "up" for 30 long years. The case was reopened at the instance of the New York World, and pardon seems now assured for Brandt. In any case, his 30 year sentence has been adjudged as inadequate by Justice Gerard. We are promised a thorough investigation of the case, and

WITH OTHER EDITORS

"First, Kill Wilson."

The men in Wall street who put up the money to organize to secure the nomination of Judge Parker, and afterwards made a deal through Harriman, by which they put up the money to elect Roosevelt are now engaged in the business of trying to prevent the nomination of Woodrow Wilson. Why? They believe if he is nominated he will be elected and that is why they are moving heaven and earth to prevent his nomination. They have not shown their hand fully as to what candidate they will favor. Their plan is to defeat Wilson and then to try to name the weakest man and do in 1912 what they did in 1910—put their money up to elect a Republican. The Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer understands the true inwardness of the fight on Wilson, and Editor Boylin says

"One reason the Messenger and Intelligencer favors Woodrow Wilson for the Democratic nomination for president is because it believes he can, and will, be elected. Harmon, Underwood and Clark are all right, but we have not the least idea either of them could defeat Taft, or Roosevelt. There is something about Wilson that appeals to the common people, and the signs of the times are that they will rally to his support, if he is nominated, with an enthusiasm not known in many a day in a presidential campaign. The fact that the "interests" and "classes" are against him only makes him the stronger with the people who constitute the backbone of the country."—Raleigh News and Observer.

It may, in some quarters, be considered as next to treason to even quote with approval anything said by James J. Hill. He is one of the foremost railroad executives in the United States, and has been given his full share of praise and abuse. He has been quoted as making a prediction of prosperity one week and of impending hard times the next. He has been called a tyrant and a person unduly fond of flattery. But whatever he has been called and whatever he has predicted, there are times when he utters things that are impressive. Andrew Carnegie and Elbert H. Gary have appeared before the committee that is "investigating" the United States Steel Corporation, and within two or three days Mr. Hill has also appeared before the committee. In addition to his testimony Mr. Hill was asked to express an opinion on certain subjects. The law of competition will linger, Mr. Hill said, together with the law of the survival of the fittest "until long after every statute has been swept away."

Mr. Hill was right. He added that he did not think it was within the power of man to eliminate competition, and it is not. Competition is as necessary as food and exercise to the human family. People talk about competition giving way to co-operation but if the co-operative effort be studied closely a point will be found where there is competition with somebody of some interest, and it cannot be avoided. Possibly, as Mr. Hill put it, when we are translated we may get along without competition, but he intimated that he has doubts on the subject.

If there were no competitive effort, all men would lie back and let things go as they would. Such a day will never come, despite all that superficial thinkers and agitators may say. The laws of competition and of the survival of the fittest are an integral part of nature's structure and are immutable and unrepeatable.—Greensboro Daily News.

After completing his education at Ste. Marie College he embarked upon a mercantile career. In this he was eminently successful, becoming one of the foremost paper manufacturers in the Dominion, with large interests in many other industrial and financial enterprises. Mr. Rolland was mayor of Montreal from 1876 to 1879 and later served as member of the city council. He is one of the governors of Laval University and a former president of the Canadian Manufacturers Association.

no doubt that developments will not exonerate Judge Rosalisky, who passed the enormous sentence. Now it remains to be seen what will happen to Rosalisky for this "gross miscarriage of justice." Probably nothing will happen to the gentleman. Some few days ago a man was put on trial for life for killing another man. The case was clear against the accused, yet the jury after being out 90 hours brought in a verdict of "Not Guilty," and Bryan walked out of the court a free man.

What's the matter with justice? It looks as though the bandage has slipped from the eyes to the mouth, and where she was blind, she is now dumb.

A CONTRAST.

We wonder how many readers of The Chronicle have noticed how fast the Confederate veterans are going. The majority of them are around 80 and the infirmities of age are falling heavily upon them. There is no reason to doubt that the Confederate veteran death roll this year and the year to come will exceed all previous records. There will not be so many deaths after that because there will be fewer veterans to die.—Charlotte Evening Chronicle.

This is quite true, and it is sad to note the rapidly depleting ranks of the Confederate veterans who will all have passed away in a few years more. How remarkable this is in contrast with the veterans of the union army who, judging by the pension rolls, never die. The number of union civil war pensioners is now larger than the number of soldiers in the union army fifty years ago.

Harnett county is to vote for bonds to build good roads. There are people in Pitt county who would be almost frightened out of their wits at a suggestion like that. Yet they go on riding over bad roads and talk about how fearful they are.

If all blind tiger reports are true, there are some other candidates grooming for a spell on the roads when the next criminal term of court comes around.

Then a bright bit of sunshine comes gayly along
An' the old world looks most good as new
As it polishes up what is rusty or wrong—
"Forget it," it says; an' you do.

You jes' wastin' time with a grouch or a sneer.
You may nurse them with tenderest care,
But all of a sudden they'll just disappear.
And no one will know they were there,
Fer a bit of a bird sitting high in a tree
To warble a ditty or two
Keeps its argument up, till you can't disagree.
"Forget it," it says. An' you do.

Rook Luncheon.

On Thursday, at her attractive country home, Mrs. W. L. Hall entertained most delightfully at an informal rook luncheon, complimentary to Mrs. Wesley Martin, of Hickory, and Miss Katherine Staples, of Harrisonburg, Virginia. The guests arrived about noon and were cordially welcomed at the front door by the gracious hostess. They were then invited into the spacious library where three tables were placed for rook. The score cards and decorations were cherries, in keeping with occasion, Washington's birthday. In the midst of the game an elegant course luncheon was served. At the conclusion of the games the honorees were presented each a lovely embroidered handkerchief. The guests departed about 4 o'clock, declaring the day most ideal spent.

Those present were Mesdames W. L. Hall, Wesley Martin, T. M. Hooker, W. L. Best, S. T. White, F. J. Forbes, G. S. Forbes, J. G. Woodward, and Misses Hennie Ragsdale, Lissina Moore, Mattie Moye King, Vernessa Smith and Katherine Staples.

Tried for Trespassing.

Two colored men were tried before Justice Rountree, the other day, for trespassing on posted lands just across the river. They were fined $1 each and costs, with the admonition that the next offense will mean a term on the roads. It is a misdemeanor to hunt without permission on posted lands.

Almost Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the discovery. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

BLACKWOOD-ODEN.
Raleigh Man and Washington Lady Met Here to Wed.

A somewhat romantic marriage took place at the Baptist parsonage here at 6:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon, Mr. Ollie Blackwood, of Raleigh, and Miss Annie Oden, of Washington, being the contracting parties.
Mr. Blackwood is conductor on one of the Norfolk Southern freight trains and when his train came in yesterday he stopped here. He got in touch with Rev. C. M. Rock and arranged for the ceremony to take place at the parsonage after the 4:58 train came from Washington with the bride-elect. This train was late so that it was nearly 6:00 o'clock when the couple, accompanied by Miss Mamie Oden, also of Washington, reached the parsonage.
Some ladies were calling at the parsonage and these remained to witness the ceremony.
Mr. and Mrs. Blackwood spent the night here at the Taylor house and went to Washington on this morning's train.

When one woman speaks of another's clothes as rags it's a sign they claim to be good friends.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.

Look at Date on Your Paper and Let Us Have What is Due.

Since adopting the plan of printing the name of the subscriber on his paper, to avoid having to send statements to any who are in arrears. In fact it should not be necessary to send such a statement when all the subscriber has to do to know how much he owes for the paper is to look at the date after his name on the paper. Though we have called attention to this several times in the last few months, and asked those owing for the paper to send the money or come in and get a receipt, many have failed to do so. This is to remind them of it again, and those not heard from in a reasonable time will be sent a statement, and if they fail to pay them we will have to drop their names and take other steps to collect what is due. Every man who reads a newspaper ought to pay for it promptly, and we hope every one who reads this will look at the date and if he is in arrears attend to it at once. We do not like to print calls like this, but your failure to pay forces us to do so.

SCOUT MASS MEETING.

Will be Held in the Court House Tonight.

Beginning promptly at 8 o'clock tonight in the court house there will be held a mass meeting of the Boy Scouts, to which every man, woman and child in the county is invited. There will be several short talks. First the boys themselves will tell something of what they have done and intend doing, and these will be followed by Assistant Scout Master W. T. Lipscomb, Mayor F. M. Wooten, Mr. F. C. Harding, Rev. E. M. Hoyle and Dr. C. O'H Laughinghouse
The court house should be filled, as everybody interested in the boys and their work should be there.

Still Weak From Hot Spell.

Physicians say that the unusual and terrific heat of last summer did great damage to many people who do not even suspect it. There are many right in this town who are feeling weak, listless and discouraged, losing flesh and going into a decline on account of the strain of last summer.
A Red Bank, N. J., man, Mr. Walton Cullington, has found what to do in such cases. He says: "When I was badly rundown, growing weak and losing flesh, I took Vinol to build me up and make me strong. It has been perfectly satisfactory, and I would not take anything for the good Vinol did me. I am all right now."
It would be a great blessing of all who are in broken health, whether old-middle-aged or young, would know that Vinol is the one thing they need to make them well and strong again. We can prove by people you know well that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, is the greatest blood builder and strength creator known, and we guarantee it to give satisfaction. NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD.

The Tailors' Union, at Toronto, Ont., is demanding an increase in wages. Clothing prices may be advanced.

Persons who hold political offices, either elective or appointive, will be excluded from the Minneapolis Trades and Labor Assembly.

The Textile Council of Pawtucket, R. I., will soon introduce in the state legislature a bill providing for a maximum working law of 54 hours a week.

Wages of factory employes and of common laborers, including domestic servants, are today 75 per cent. higher at Lehigh, Pa., than in the spring of 1909.

There are about one hundred and eighty thousand members of the four railway men's unions in England, and there is a movement on foot to unite these organizations.

A permanent commission has been formed in Mexico to settle industrial disputes and prevent strikes, the commission to work in conjunction with a government labor bureau.

The death rate among miners in Colorado is twenty times as high as that in Prussian mines. The American death rate among miners is much larger than the average abroad.

The strike record of the Canadian labor department shows that there were only eight trade disputes in existence during December of last year, being six fewer than in November and two fewer than in December, 1910.

The leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World plan a speech-making campaign in Vancouver, B. C., the speakers to megaphone their views from boats in the bay to meetings ashore, in order to avoid police interference.

The Dominion Labor Congress, to be held in Guelph, Ont., in the summer will probably be the greatest of its kind ever held in Canada. Members of the English unions and of the American Federation of Labor will attend the congress.

The British Parliamentary Labor party represents 2,500,000 trade unionists, and has forty-two members in the house of commons, and now proposes to wage a vigorous campaign to obtain a larger representation. Funds will be raised to finance a daily paper.

The New York theatrical stage employes have decided that they are entitled to 62 1-2 cents an hour. The new regulation also limits the regular working hours of a day, and after that period has passed the stage hand will receive double wage, or in most cases $125 an hour.

Shocking Sounds.
In the earth are sometimes heard before a terrible earthquake, that warn of the coming peril. Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape these dangerous maladies, dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see back-ache fly and all your best feelings return. "My son received great benefit from their use," writes Peter Bondy South Rockwood, Mich. MERCHANTS, TAKE NOTICE.

That the last legislature passed an act forbidding the sale of 22-caliber cartridges that are commonly used in 22-rifles, and can be used in 22-pistols, without paying a license tax. I have been informed that several merchants throughout the county are selling such cartridges and it is unlawful to do so. All who continue to sell them after this date will have to pay the required tax for selling pistols and cartridges.

Meet to Discuss Wage Demands.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Executive officials representing all of the large railroad systems in the eastern territory met in this city today to exchange views on the demands made by the locomotive engineers for higher wages. The engineers are uniting in a movement for a wage of approximately 15 per cent. Every road east of Chicago, north of the Chesapeake and Ohio and south of the Canadian border, is affected by the demand, and also the Grand Trunk of Canada.

The railroads, it is understood, are inclined to look upon the demands of the engineers as hardly justified by existing conditions. The engineers participated liberally in the general wage increases made in December, 1910, since which time the earnings of most of the roads have fallen off materially. A general strike in the near future is regarded as highly improbable. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers is one of the most conservative of labor organizations and has always displayed a disposition to be conciliatory before resorting to extreme measures. At the same time, the engineers are likely to stand firm in their present demands as, under the new federation plan of organization which is said to have been perfected, they probably can rely upon

To this end a number of well known religious workers and educators have been invited to deliver addresses. The sessions which were commenced today will be brought to a close with exercises in the Central Congregational church Sunday evening, when about 500 boys will take part in a devotional meeting.

Bishop Vincent 80 Years Old.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 23.—Bishop John H. Vincent, whose home is in this city, celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary today. Bishop Vincent probably is the most widely known of all the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church. For nearly fifty years he has been famous as a pulpit orator, and his work in starting the great Chautauqua movement has given him a world-wide standing as an educator. In addition, he had exerted unlimited influence through the international Sunday school lessons. He was one of the originators of the uniform lesson system, out of which grew the international series and was for a number of years chairman of the international lesson committee which selects and prepares the lessons which are studied weekly by nearly 25,000,000 scholars throughout the world.
