STILL PURSUING OUTLAWS

MOUNTAIN FIGHT IS UNFOUNDED

RELATIVES OF ALLENS SCORN OFFERS OF REWARD FOR INFORMATION

Hillsville, Va., April 4.—Another day's pursuit of the court house assassins still at large had brought no news of success from the posses in the mountain late tonight.

Jordan Edwards, one of the Allen kinsmen arrested yesterday, charged with giving aid to Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the only two outlaws of the band who have not been taken, got a grilling at the hands of the detective chiefs today in the hope that he might tell the whereabouts of his kinsmen. The mountaineer was firm and did not betray them. He scorned an offer that the $1,500 offered for the men should be his if he gave them up. It developed that he is in Sidna Allen's debt. Detectives have found a great many others in this country in the same plight who fear being suspected of aiding the officers.

A change of venue for the trials of the murderers seems certain. Clerk Goad, the only officer of Carroll county court who was not killed in the assassination of March 14th, is the principal witness for the prosecution. The Allens probably will be tried in a court where one of its officers was a prosecuting witness.

A long distance telephone message was received today from Mt. Airy, N. C., quoting a rural mail carrier as saying he had been told by negroes on his route that a battle had been fought this morning at Volunteer Gap, Va., between mountain detectives and the two uncaptured outlaws who assassinated court officers at Hillsville, Va. The story was that the fugitives, Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards and two detectives had been killed.

This being good Friday there are no market reports.

Ex-Governor Aycock Dies Suddenly in Birmingham

Sudden Death of Old North State's Distinguished Son Mourned by Whole State—Was Delivering Address in Southern City

Beloved and Respected by all Tar Heels

The news of the sudden death of Ex-Governor Charles Brantley Aycock were flashed to the country last night in the following bulletin:

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 4, (MIDNIGHT).—WHILE SPEAKING AT A LOCAL THEATRE TONIGHT FORMER GOVERNOR CHARLES B. AYCOCK, OF NORTH CAROLINA, FELL DEAD.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 4.—Ex-Gov. Charles B. Aycock, of North Carolina, while speaking on "Universal Education, its Necessity and Benefit," at the Jefferson Theatre, suddenly staggered back and fell to the floor. His fall was so sudden that those that were on attendance on the stage were unable to reach him before it happened. He was hastily carried to the wings and water sprinkled over his face. Attempts to revive him were futile and he expired almost immediately.

With Mr. Aycock on the stage were several famous southern educators and men of note. Governor O'Neal of Alabama had just preceded Mr. Aycock with an address on "Some Educational Problems". The North Carolina ex-governor had hardly delivered a fourth of his address when the sudden end took place.

Mr. Aycock was in the midst of a phrase when he reeled back and fell dying. His last words were:

"WHILE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA I WAS CALLED UPON TO DELIVER MANY ADDRESSES. OFTIMES I WENT TO CHURCHES ON SUNDAY AND WHEN I TALKED I ALWAYS TALKED ABOUT EDUCATION . . ."

The last word had hardly left his lips when the ex-governor was seen to totter backwards. The five thousand teachers in attendance at the theatre thought the movement as part of his speech, but they soon realized their mistake. They soon learned that the notable visitor had spoken his last words to them. The realization of the tragic event casted a gloom over the city as can not be recalled in the annals of Birmingham.

The first to reach the side of the stricken statesman was Governor Emmet O'Neal of Alabama, who a few minutes before had introduced Mr. Aycock as "The Educational Governor of North Carolina".

Yesterday morning the famous son of the Old North State had addressed 5,000 teachers on the subject of "Universal Education, its Necessity and Benefit". He was in a perfect understanding with his audience and had created a great impression as an educational orator.

His remains were carried to the establishment of a local undertaker awaiting arrangements for its shipment to North Carolina.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 5.—Gloom pervades upon the city on account of the tragic death of Ex-Governor Aycock, of North Carolina. The local press devote columns of obituaries relative to the active and useful life of one of the best known and thought of sons of the South. The news of his sudden death spread like wildfire and were carried by the five thousand teachers who had assembled in the Jefferson Theatre to hear the great statesman and educator.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 5.—Ex-Governor Aycock seemed to be in the best of spirits when he left Raleigh on Wednesday afternoon to attend the meeting of the Alabama State Teachers Association in Birmingham. He went there in response to a special invitation from Governor O'Neal of that state. A few moments before his departure, while in his office he exchanged pleasantries with some of his friends and his sudden death came for this reason as a greater shock.

Some days ago on his return from Philadelphia, where he had gone to undergo a treatment to enable him to better stand the strain of the senatorial campaign which he was to open the 12th of this month, he seemed to be in perfect physical condition.

The news was received by telephone here about eleven o'clock. W. W. Kitchin, Chief Justice Clark and Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes were about the first to be informed of the sad end of Mr. Aycock. His family was advised by the family physician, Dr. Albert Anderson, a brother in law of Mr. Aycock.

It has not been decided as to when the funeral will take place, but in all probability it will be next Sunday. His remains are expected here today.

The Civic League Awards the Prizes For Clean Back-Yards

The contest for prizes offered by the Civic League closed Thursday. Edward and Waldo Austin won the prize for the largest number of tins. Estelle Cockrell for the best suggestions. How to keep Greenville clean. Mrs. M. E. Wilson for the cleanest back yard. May Rouse for the cleanest back yard among the colored people.

The yards were in such a beautiful and sanitary condition it was impossible for the committee to decide which was the cleanest, so to give to all justice, the names of the contestants were put in a hat and after several drawings by a disinterested person, the prize fell to Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. Alfred Forbes' small size farm in center of town was in excellent condition. It was quite a satisfaction to the committee to have had so many enter contest, it shows plainly that Greenville is waking up and taking interest in civic improvement. In behalf of the mayor and the Civic League we thank you for your cooperation.

AVIATOR MEETS DEATH

CALBRAITH P. RODGERS CRUSHED BY MACHINE

A TRANSCONTINENTAL FLYER

Rogers is the Twenty-Second American Aviator to Meet Death Conquering Air

LONG BEACH, Cal., April 4.—Calbraith P. Rodgers the first man to cross the American continent in an airplane, was killed here almost instantly late today when his biplane in which he had been soaring over the ocean fell from a height of 200 feet and buried him in the wreck. His neck was broken and his body badly mangled by the engine of his machine. He lived but a few moments.

Rogers for a week past had been making daily flights here and had taken up with him many passengers both men and women. Today he started from his usual place and soared out over the ocean, crossing the pier and then turned and dipped close to a roller-coaster in a beach amusement park.

Seeing a flock of gulls disporting themselves among a great shoal of sardines just over the breakers, Rodgers again turned and dived down into them, scattering the sea fowls in all directions.

Highly elated with the outcome of his dive, Rodgers then flew farther out to sea, all the time gradually rising until he had reached a height of about two hundred feet.

Making a short turn, he started at full speed for the pier, then suddenly dipped his planes and his machine began a frightful descent. Rodgers was seen by hundreds of persons on the pier to relax his hold on the levers and then, seemingly realizing that he was in danger, he made strenuous efforts to pull the nose of his machine into a level position.

Failing to do this, he managed to turn his craft further in shore, and in instant later, the craft crashed into the edge of the surf, not 500 feet from the spot where on December 10 last he had finished his ocean to ocean flight. Many men rushed to his aid.

ROW ON THE ELFREIDA

SEAMAN IS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

AFFRAY ON BOARD GUN-BOAT SENT TO ENFORCE FISHING LAWS IN SOUND

ELIZABETH CITY, April 4.—Fugh Robertson, son of Chief of Police James Robertson, of Edenboro, shot a regular United States seaman on the ship Elfreida last night about midnight as she lay at the dock here. Robertson is a deputy fish commissioner and was with the expedition which has been at Oregon inlet enforcing the fish laws. Last night Robertson was raising a disturbance on the ship and a seaman named Raymond Harney, attempted to quiet him. Robertson tried to get a knife to cut the seaman and Harney knocked him down. Then Robertson agreed to leave the ship, took his baggage and went ashore.

He took a pistol out of his suit case and returned to the ship. He opened fire on Harney, shooting five times. One shot struck him in the side and the ball entered his stomach inflicting a dangerous wound. Harney was taken to the naval hospital in Norfolk. Robertson was arrested and placed in jail. The latest reports from Norfolk state that Harney is still alive, but in a very critical condition.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1912.

EX-GOV. AYCOCK.

November 1, 1859—April 4, 1912.

The Old North State mourns today the death of one of its most illustrious and beloved sons. Charles Brantley Aycock, born to honor and give renown to North Carolina, was called to rest and when the call was made he was found discharging a self-imposed duty which hearts, such as Mr. Aycock possessed impose upon their bearers.

Gov. Aycock, the statesman, the orator, the exemplary citizen and above all the educator has been removed from the world of the living, but his work, the representative agent of his energy towards progress will live forever to receive the blessing of all North Carolinians and spur his successors towards the accomplishment of what redounds in the benefit of his native soil.

Mr. Aycock's life was full of activities which spell progress and success for North Carolina and the Old North State's present educational position will forever speak for the man who always stood for measures of good, clean, honest government and knowledge to all.

Under his guidance, the state sailed close to a course that made its passage not only calm but beneficial; when the treacherous rocks of internal disruption threatened to sink the craft.

Aycock is dead—Aycock lives forever.

SHOULD WE TAKE THE HINT?

Stores Close Early.

Scotland Neck, April 3.—The retail merchants association held their regular monthly session Monday evening, with an unusually large attendance. The merchants agreed to close their stores at seven o'clock during the summer months, beginning with yesterday and continuing until September 15. This has been a custom with the merchants of Scotland Neck for several years.

Above notice explains itself, yet quite a little could be said and will be said on the subject of early closing in Greenville.

The kind of weather is already with us that invites early rising and the commission of most of our activities whilst the sun is still up. Shopping comes under this heading of activities and no doubt the majority of the people in this community will from now on do most of their store buying before dark.

What's the matter with our home merchants getting together and agreeing to close at a certain time during the warm weather months? It seems that some agreement could easily be reached whereby the store clerks will be able to go back to their work the following morning with a mind for work and not tired out and "fagged" as is the case when such clerks have to keep on their feet till well into the night to return the next morning. Apart from the humanitarian point, this change ought to be welcome to store owners, who as a rule put in as much, if no more, time in their stores than their employees.

The step taken in Scotland Neck is worthy of copying and we would be glad to see our merchants follow it.

ABOUT THAT HOSPITAL.

On our issue of Tuesday last we had something to say about an insinuation that we need and could well support. It was suggested to us by one of our leading business men that a hospital would be a most beneficial addition to Greenville and we could not but readily agree with the gentleman.

The question will in all probability be put to the business men who gather monthly at the Carolina Club. In fact, we think the matter would have been mentioned last Monday night, but for the scanty gathering which caused the meeting to be postponed until the coming Monday.

It is to be hoped that the attendance at the coming meeting will be representative and that the only business organization which we have will give the matter the attention it deserves. The business men in the membership roll of the Club are able to do a great deal when they set their heads to it. Witness the Proctor hotel issue. So it would not be out of the way to say that should the members realize, as we do, the need of a hospital, they will not retard the launching of this project.

We can hardly think of something that would be more to the point during the present agitation for a better Greenville. It would be shameful to acknowledge that we were behind other neighboring cities in this one respect. More so when it lies within our means to erect and maintain that which we need so badly.

CLEANING UP.

Greenville's cleaning up. The very Heavens are helping in the undertaking by the warmth and smile of God's sunshine. The air today is better than champagne. It puts push-ahead thoughts in the mind, cooperative proclivities in the soul and the do something for every body spirit in the muscles.

If you are not glad you are living today, it's your own fault.

Come on, get the Greenville spirit, everybody. Exercise your civic pride and your loyalty to all of Greenville's interests. And give such a welcome to strangers as to make them know that this is "Our Greenville, Theirs if They Come".

The next legislature could hardly do a better thing for North Carolina than to establish a stock law embracing the entire state.

Richmond and Baltimore wholesale liquor dealers are suing some of Wilmington's citizens for failure to pay for liquor shipped to them.

One of Durham's banks runs a two page advertisement in the Sun. We bet it is a good investment, too.

Mr. Roosevelt says he won't balk. But he has before said things that he went back on.

Things often go by opposites. For instance the dryer the times the tighter money gets.

"Democrats sweep Chicago," is a headline. Guess the city needed sweeping had enough.

The season has opened with fatal aeroplane accidents.

Easter Heads

Next Sunday will be Easter Sunday and the Easter bonnet, the most significant incident of the occasion to many sweet-spirited persons, will be in evidence—if it does not rain. It is wholly proper, in view of the coming display, that we should make some more or less appropriate comment as to the proper thing on that day of general refurbishing after the rather gray and gloomy days of the penitential season through which we have been passing. The Easter bonnet of the present year of grace is not, as we hoped it would be, a low-brimmed affair, but a construction, or concoction, or confection, which turns up wildly and is so eccentric in decoration and shape that it is impossible for it to escape general notice and masculine condemnation. At least, we are indebted for this more or less accurate description to the esteemed writer of The New York Tribune, the Hon. Whitelaw Reid, now temporarily detached for service at the court of St. James. The Easter head piece in this the 136 year of American independence has no sheltering brim. It is wide; it is flaring and daring and turns up at all sorts of angles; and unless it be accompanied by some sort of veil, it affords little or no protection to the human face divine. The proper way to wear the new Easter bonnet is to wear it and get used to it. "At first," says Mr. Reid, "it is a like an untrained broncho, needing a little training. We shall undoubtedly get accustomed to these odd shapes and find that wearing what now seems to be an inverted and enlarged shaving brush, trimmed with small pincushions in variegated shades, will become as a matter of course."

And so it will come to pass that what may seem altogether unsightly to the untrained and inartistic eye will before the close of the season be regarded as one of the most attractive of hideousities with which our beautiful women insist upon disfiguring themselves. The time will come, let us all pray, when the pretty face will insist, whatever fashion may say, upon a pretty setting, than which there is none so charming as the sunbonnet of the first of so-called Americans who were really the best.—Charlotte Observer.

As To More Judges

The Times is not opposed to the scheme for creating more judicial districts. It believes that something should be done to facilitate the disposing of criminal cases and civil causes—especially the latter—and any scheme having for its object this very thing is worthy of serious consideration by the legislature.

If we could have the assurance, however, that 24 judges would accomplish this end, we would feel more like supporting the plan; but what assurance have we that the new judges will not be like many of the sixteen judges now on the bench?—so painfully anxious to shut up the court-house and rush away to their homes. Would eight additional judges cure this real defect?

It has been our observation that superior court judges do not do their full part towards expediting cases on the calendar. Some lawyers prefer a judge with a certain "temperament" and others prefer a judge with another kind of "temperament" to preside when they have cases for trial. Numerous cases are continued, therefore, for one cause or another, and the judges too readily consent in order that they may reach their families earlier. Nobody blames a judge for wanting to remain at home as much as he can, but work and hardship necessarily accompany the honor, and when a man aspires to the office he should be willing to do his full duty by the state.

There have been times when a superior court judge, for the sake of getting home a day or two earlier, has forced the state into trial of a case on the last day of the week, despite the protests of the prosecuting officers. By such methods the evidence could not be developed properly and as a result of the proceeding of the presiding officer an orderly trial was impossible.

There ought to be some assurance that superior court judges and lawyers will do their work before the state is forced into paying salaries for eight additional judges and solicitors.—The Raleigh Times.

Thought For the Day.

The past? Well what of the past, I say:
 Poor outworn thing! can I mend it, pray?
 Do tears avail for the misspent days?
 Will pining straighten the crooked ways?
 Must yesterday's heart-break last for ay,
 And yesterday's must hide the sun today?
 Nay, life is life and the farer's toil,
 Is a hopeful heart, as the hours unroll,
 The path ascends! Each winding road Blooms at the touch of the blithesome mood.
 I will hold that the best is a bit beyond
 And dring a toast from the lily's frond—
 A toast in dew to the day that is done,
 And one to the better day begun!

HAIR HEALTH.

If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble, Accept This Offer.

When we promise your money back for the mere asking if Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does not do as we claim it will, you certainly have no reason for even hesitating to try it. We do not ask you to obligate yourself in any way.

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if it did not do all we claim. Should our enthusiasm carry us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

Therefore, when we assure you that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness, you may rest assured we know what we are talking about.

We honestly believe that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more than any other human agency toward restoring hair growth and hair health. It is not greasy and will not gum the scalp or hair or cause permanent stain. It is as pleasant to use as pure cold water. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store, Moye's Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

Additional Prizes for Boys Club Members

To all members of the Corn Club: I wrote you before that we should have additional prizes and I am now glad to announce two additional prizes in each district under the same rules as the first list I sent you. These new prizes are two free trips, in each district, to the national Corn Show which will be held in Columbia, S. C., in January, 1913.

The Southern Fertilizers Association has appropriated $500 for this purpose. The boys who win these prizes will each get $25 to cover all expenses for the trip. No boy will get the money, however, unless he takes the trip.

We expect five hundred prize-winning boys from all the Southern States to be at the Corn Show. Cots will be furnished and all the boys will stay in one building. The main feature of the trip will be a judging school. Two or three hours each day will be spent in judging corn, grain and live stock and in visiting the various exhibits of the exposition.

I believe these prizes the best offered in the State. The boys who go will have a great time, see the finest corn growing in the United States during 1912 and will get special instructions in corn judging. Each of you should do all in his power to win one of these trips.

We now have seven prizes in each district in the State. The two boys making the best records will get $25 each to pay his expenses to the National Corn Show, while the next five boys will get the cash prizes about which you have already received notice.

If you wish any further information, please let me know.
 You're very truly,
 I. O. SCHAUB,
 Special Agent in Exposition.

Almost a Miracle.

One of them ost startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all of our family thought he was going into the consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe and reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Organizations of labor have obtained free textbooks for the children in the schools of Birmingham, Ala., and Nashville, Tenn., and are conducting a lively agitation for the same purpose in Atlanta.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

Which Is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Greenville Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of the merit.

But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, A lame weak craching one, Would you experiment with it? You will read of many so-called cures, Endorsed by strangers from far-away places.

It's different when the endorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove local testimony. Home endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Read this case: James Long, Dickinson avenue, Greenville, N. C., says: "I am certain that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit and I do not hesitate to recommend them. When I was suffering from backache, pains in my kidney's and other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble, I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. It did not take them long to bring me relief." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MADAME RACHELLE'S ADVICE TO BEAUTY SEEKERS

Miss Jessie R.—A reddened nose is remedied by frequent bathing with alternate hot and cold water. Do not eat highly spiced foods.
 Mary Jones—A combination of crows feet and wrinkles at your early age is rather unusual. I could recommend for both a simple preparation known as Wilson's Freckle Cream. This is both a food and face bleach, and is highly satisfactory. Follow directions on the package for 2 weeks and you will be well pleased with the result. It is absolutely harmless, guaranteed, and may be obtained from your drug store or from the Wilson Freckle Cream Company, Boston, N. C.

The Danger After Grip

lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

ENJOYS EVERY MEAL.

Since Taking Vinol—Eating Was Punishment Before.

There are hundreds, even thousands of people right around here who have had no appetite for a long time and eat only because they must.

A Brooklyn man, Thos. J. Sinclair, says in a letter "For nearly five years I was trmented with stomach trouble. I had no appetite and I suffered so much and so long that it seemed as if I never would get any relief. Vinol proved to be just what I needed. It brought back my appetite, relieved the painful symptoms and now my digestion is perfect. I enjoy every meal now, where formerly eating was almost a punishment."

This delicoussod liver and iron remedy without oil is wonderful to stimulate the appetite and build up the body. All who are weak and run down from stomach trouble or other causes should try Vinol on our positive guaranty to refund the money if they are not perfectly satisfied. Moye's Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

Vermont Republicans Will Support President Taft.

BOSTON, Mass., April 5.—The first real test of the strength of Taft and Roosevelt among the Republicans of New England will come next week, when Vermont and Maine will elect their delegates at large and district delegates to the national convention.
These will be the first delegates named in New England to attend the Chicago convention. The recent visit of President Taft to Massachusetts and New Hampshire and the speechmaking tours of the same section by Colonel Roosevelt who also included Maine in his itinerary, give evidence of the fact that both candidates consider the New England states to be as interesting politically this year as some of the other states that have been known in the past as "doubtful."

Vermont is perhaps the least interesting of any of the New England states this year from the viewpoint of the Republican campaign managers. If outward and visible signs count for anything Taft can safely rely upon the support of the Republicans of the Gree Mountain State in his campaign for renomination and re-election. The progressive movement which has found fertile soil in the neighboring states of Massachusetts and New Hampshire appears to have made little or no headway among the Republicans of Vermont.

The situation in Maine, on the other, hand is entirely different. There is a vast amount of Roosevelt sentiment in the Pine Tree State, but the conflicting statements and counter claims have so confused the fight between the two candidates as to make an accurate forecast of the result difficult.

In the rural sections, especially in Aroostook county, the great potato-growing region, the feeling against the President on account of his reciprocity policy, which removed the duty from potatoes, is said to be very strong, although the Taft supporters say that this has been exaggerated.
The Taft sentiment seems to predominate in the cities, where the attempts to organize the Roosevelt supporters have not been very successful.

The Roosevelt sentiment is strongest in the country towns and it has been figured out that it is in the towns of 1,000 population or less which control the Republican state convention in Maine. As Aroostook is the strongest Republican county in the state and stood faithful two years ago when the state went Democratic, it may be seen that a Roosevelt feeling is something to be reckoned with.

It is generally conceded that the first district, which embraces the city of Portland, will elect Taft delegates, notwithstanding the fact that when the Roosevelt Club was organized in Portland several weeks ago a representative gathering was present and when Colonel Roosevelt visited the city a few days later he was given a cordial welcome.

The Roosevelt boomers in the first district are those who supported Colonel Frederick Hale, the son of former Senator Hale, for the Republican nomination for Congress against Asher Rinds and this fractional quarrel has overshadowed the main issue and enlisted the Hinds support for the president.

The Taft managers believe that a solid delegation from Maine is a certainty. On the other hand, the Roosevelt supporters with equal confidence declare that Roosevelt will sweep the state with the possible exception of the first district. One of the immediate results of a Roosevelt victory in Maine would be to give renewed energy to the efforts of the progressive Republicans to win out in the presidential reference primaries in Massachusetts on April 30.
