Greenville Mecca for Confederate Veterans

Aged Survivors Gather in the Court House to Hear Maj. Graham Address Them--Movement on Foot For Soldiers' Monument Here.

Confederate veterans of the Bryan Grimes Camp found their way today to our town and basked in the sunshine of a perfect day recorded deeds of days when youth and the energy that goes with it was theirs. It was a moving scene to witness these stalwart pillars of the South as they willingly answered the call to form into line and march to pay their respects to those of their comrades that had answered the other call: the call of the Almighty. Aged men, handicapped by the infirmities of late years and the strenuous work in the battlefield; yet eager to remember the penuries experienced and bravely gone through in the gruelling fight for a cause.

Since the early morning from cross roads and villages veterans and their families began to pour into Greenville and gather around the court house. The beauty of the day, the balmy atmosphere and the hearty invitation of the people of Greenville, caused a great number to turn out. The meeting of the Bryan Grimes Camp took place in the court house, Commander E. A. Moye, Sr. presiding. Business of the organization was discussed and transacted and many resolutions passed. Chief amongst them being the one to push the movement for a Confederate Veterans' monument to be erected in the court house square. In connection with this resolution many good talks endorsing the project were made by several of the attendants and it was agreed to place the matter before the county commissioners, in order to obtain the necessary funds to build the monument. The business meeting over, the bugle was sounded outside the court house and the veterans fell into line, preparatory to visiting the cemetery. A great number of citizens followed them there and graves of those that will never be forgotten were decorated with floral tributes by those who will soon answer the call.

Back from the cemetery and again in the court house Major Graham, commissioner of agriculture, talked to the men on the subjects closest to their heart. Of their brave stand when the south was in danger. Of the abnegation for the cause. Major Graham paid a magnificent tribute not only to the men he was addressing but to all those that contributed with their lives, their property and their magnificent and indomitable energy to the upkeep of the fight the South made.

From the court house those of the veterans who could march headed for the Gum warehouse, where a dinner was tendered them. Those whose infirmities made it impossible for them to form in line were conveyed to the warehouse in motor cars, kindly supplied by their owners. The heartiest spirit of companionship and good humor reigned during the dinner.

Few Will Seek Berths in This League.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., May 10.—The ranks of organized baseball will receive a new recruit tomorrow, when the Federal prison league will begin its first championship season. The league comprises three teams, each of which is made up exclusively of inmates of the Federal prison here. There is a white team, an Indian team and a negro team. A regulation field has been laid out within the enclosure of the prison. A grandstand has been built for the accommodation of the prison officials, guards and the families. On the opposite side of the field are bleachers for the convict fans. The three teams have been practicing daily for several weeks and the managers are reported as optimistic over the outlook for a close pennant race. A good attendance is assured for the early part of the season, but force of circumstances may cause it to diminish later. All prisoners have been given season tickets, entitling them to attend all games during good behaviour.

Accuses Judge of Serious Charges

Archbald is Being Examined by the House Committee on Judiciary. Implicated in Deal With Erie R. R. Was in Partnership With Agent.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Charges against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the commerce court were unfolded today before the House committee on judiciary, which is to determine if impeachment proceedings shall be brought against the jurist.

How Judge Archbald, in partnership with Edward J. Williams, a Scranton coal dealer, while deliberating a judge on the "lighter cases," to which the Erie Railroad was a party, is alleged to have negotiated an option from that railroad for 42,000 tons of clum dump property to be sold at a $12,000 profit, was related to the committee by Williams himself.

Judge Archbald, accompanied by his two sons and his counsel, A. S. Worthington, heard the testimony and occasionally looked at photographic copies of letters bearing on the case. One of them a letter in which the judge told of his connection with the clum bank negotiations in his own words.

Pres. Wright of E. C. T. T. S. Appeals to Greenville Folks

Asks Them to Throw Open the Door of Hospitality to Enable Teachers to Perfect Their Education

The success that has met them can not make arrangements for these summer term at the E. C. T. T. S. is best explained in the letter we print below. This seems to be a record year for the big institution in the hill and already Pres. Wright has more applicants for this summer term than he can accommodate within the school. He appeals to the people of Greenville and the appeal should meet a ready answer.

Letter follows here:
To the People of Greenville:
We have on file for our Summer Term, about sixty applications more than we can accommodate in our dormitories. Most of these are for four weeks. A few of them are men. I hope the people of our town will open the doors of their homes to these teachers as you have so generously done in the past. The school cannot make arrangements for these pupils in private homes and boarding houses and become responsible for their bills.

If you will take students for the Summer Term, please give me the following information. (Do not tell it to me over the telephone, but write it.)

How many can you take?
Do you prefer men or women?
What will you charge per week or per month of four weeks?
How many minutes walk is your home from the school?
I would like to have this information by Monday, May 13th. I will send each applicant a list of the places and charges and ask them to write to you direct.

Delegates at Large For Roosevelt Constabulary

KANSAS WILL SEND FOUR TO CONVENTION

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., May 9.—Adopting resolutions favoring the entire progressive movement, the Republican state convention today named four delegates at large to the national convention and instructed them for Roosevelt.

William Allen White of Emporia, was endorsed for national committeeman.

The Taft strength in the convention was 104, the Roosevelt strength 790.

When the resolutions committee brought in a report endorsing the record of Senator LaFollette the candidacy for Mr. White for national committeeman to succeed David W. Mulvane and instructing the four delegates at large to vote for Roosevelt, Stephen Walker of Columbus, a Taft delegate moved that the portion of the resolution endorsing Senator LaFollette be cancelled, that Mr. Mulvane be endorsed for national committeeman and that the convention instruct the delegates for Taft.

Walker's motion was lost 790 to 104 and he report of the resolutions committee was adopted as read.

A. M. Harvey, of Shawnee, former Lieutenant Governor of Kansas and a Taft delegate, in a speech to the convention said:

"When President Taft is renominated at Chicago I ask you fellows who have defeated us today, to get out and work and vote for him."

"No, no, we won't" shouted a delegate. Amid the uproar that followed, Governor Stubbs managed to make himself heard.

"Never mind boys, we will fix that matter up at Chicago when we nominate Roosevelt," he said.

Pitt County Fair Association Meets

The board of governors of the Pitt County Fair Association met this morning to further the plans for the fair to be held next fall.

Major A. W. Graham, commissioner of agriculture, was present and addressed the meeting for a few minutes. He complimented the county upon the fair held last fall and said it was the best county fair he had ever seen in the state considering the time given to getting it up. He was glad the organization is being kept up with a view of holding county fairs annually. He gave some good suggestions as to exhibits and premiums for the next fair, also as to increased production of acreage and cooperation in marketing. He wanted to see Pitt county have a good fair next fall and again promised the aid of the state agricultural department to that end.

After Major Graham's talk the board of governors took up the discussion of matters pertaining to the next fair.

Thursday and Friday, November 14 and 15 were selected as the date for the holding of the fair this year. The executive committee was given authority to change the dates if it was found to conflict with any engagements of the department of agriculture to the detriment of the fair.

It was decided to increase the premium list for the next fair to $500 including the special premiums by the state department of agriculture.

No admission fee to the fair will be charged nor for making exhibits, everything being free.

The Star and Liberty warehouses both being tendered to the association for holding the next fair, both were accepted and the manner in which the exhibits will be divided between the two houses was left with the executive committee.

The following heads of departments were elected, the heads to select assistants as needed:

Womens' department, Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Poultry, J. B. Tucker, J. J. Jenkins, M. H. White.

Field crops, J. Mc. Dixon, J. H. Cobb, J. L. Pekins.

Stock, Carl Turnage; H. G. Munford, W. E. Proctor, W. H. Dail, Jr.

Music, J. F. Evans.

Educational, W. H. Ragsdale.

Information bureau, J. C. Galloway. The next meeting of the board of governors will be held on Friday, August 2nd, at which time all the township committees are requested to meet with them.

Bailey Leads Against Wilson

Allies No Longer Try to Conceal Pact to Defeat New Jersey Governor for Nomination.

WILSON STILL HAS GOOD LEAD OVER HIS OPPONENTS

WASHINGTON, May 9.—With South Carolina and Porto Rico to his credit Gov. Woodrow Wilson yesterday captured 24 delegates to the Baltimore convention, more than offsetting the election of 16 delegates in Maryland, committed to the candidacy of Speaker Clark.

Victory in the South Carolina county conventions was complete, insuring the selection of 18 delegates to the national convention instructed to vote for New Jersey governor. There were no instructions in any of the counties for other candidates. The delegates elected yesterday will meet in state convention the 15th.

Added to the South Carolina result are the six votes of Porto Rico, which gives Gov. Wilson 24 of the 40 delegates chosen yesterday to the Baltimore convention. This showing of strength followed the great victory in Texas—the biggest Democratic state in the nation—has immensely gratified the friends of Gov. Wilson who are more confident than ever that he will be nominated for the presidency at Baltimore.

With the 24 votes that he received yesterday Gov. Wilson now has 232 delegates elected to the convention, which is a very much larger number of votes than can be commanded by any of the other candidates.

It is interesting to note that Speaker Clark and Gov. Harmon supported the same set of delegates in Maryland, while the supporters of Wilson put up a straightout list of Wilson delegates. This latest display of team work on the part of the speaker and Gov. Harmon, illustrates anew the character of the fight that is being made to prevent the nomination of Gov. Wilson.

Senator Jos. W. Bailey, who is unquestionably the leader as well as the ablest of those conducting the allied campaign to prevent the nomination of Wilson, has frankly disclosed the whole game, making ridiculous the denials that there is an alliance to prevent the nomination of the New Jersey governor. This he did last week in a speech at McKinney, Tex., where he was campaigning in behalf of an instructed delegation for Gov. Harmon.

Senator Bailey not only admitted the alliance but justified it.

To Select Roosevelt Men.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 10.—The Roosevelt supporters in Alabama have completed arrangements for the state convention to be held here tomorrow to name a Roosevelt delegation to the national convention. The Roosevelt delegates will contest with the Taft delegates for recognition at the Chicago convention.

Mecklenburg Case Decided by the Supreme Court.

RALEIGH, May 8.—In F. W. Alley vs Charlotte Pipe and Foundry Company, the supreme court sustains the verdict for $6,000 damages for injury by being burned with molten iron through the bursting of a defective core. The supreme court find that the charge of the trial judge was a full, clear presentation of the case, as favorable to the defendant as could be reasonably expected.

FEATURES OF THE TORRENS SYSTEM.

The torrens system proposes once and for all to look up a title—to settle the question of the past and to assure the present owner that his title is good.

As matters now stand, every time a piece of land is sold or mortgaged a lawyer has to go over the same ground that was gone over the last time the land was sold or mortgaged. And every lawyer so doing gets his fee. We were looking up a title last week. We traced the title back to 1830.

We had to read some 20 deeds and examine about 40 mortgages; investigate judgments against six individuals; look into the settlement of two estates and see that the taxes had been paid for 20 years. A year ago this same land was mortgaged.

Some attorney did then just what we did last week. The year before the land was purchased. Some lawyer then went over the same ground that we did last week and the other lawyer did last year. The year before that, this land was purchased by another man. Again a lawyer had to go over the same ground. Every time it was mortgaged some lawyer went over the same ground. We suppose investigations of the title to this lot had cost all told about $200 and 20 day's time. The tax valuation of the lot was less than $1,000. In other words probably one fifth of the tax value of the land had been spent in title investigations.

What the torrens system proposes is to close up the past; to go over the title once for all and to put an end to the expense and waste of time required by this eternal procession of lawyers going over the same beaten path, each taking a fee for his work. One lawyer will not and should not take another's statement of title; but any lawyer will take the state's or county's judicial assurance of title.

So the sum of the proposition is that the state or county shall employ a lawyer to look up titles and so far as possible clear them of question (by judicial process, of course and have the land-owners pay the state once and forever for the service.

CLEAN UP ABOUT THE HOUSE.

While we are thinking over the blessings and beauties of warm weather, there is another side to it, not so attractive, but far more important and just as serious as the possibility of a short crop owing to the backward growing season. That is the diseases the summer time brings. The first thing we ought to think of right now is "clean up." Not so much the regular spring house cleaning—some of that might be very well dispensed with—but cleaning up on the outside. The mud holes left by the winter rains, the old tin cans or barrels with a little water left in them; all of them are breeding places for mosquitoes. Get rid of the piles of refuse around the house and barn that furnish a hatchery for flies. The slogan for farmers, "raise everything at home," is a good one, but don't think there is any use in carrying it to the extreme of raising our own flies and mosquitoes as so many of us do.

We country folk have the advantage of our town neighbors, in that we do not have to suffer much from anybody's dirt but our own. Town people, especially in small towns, where there is no strict enforcement of sanitary ordinances, may be ever so clean on their own premises, and yet have to endure the flies and disease germs of their neighbors on either side.

TAKE CARE OF THE WOODLANDS.

At a recent North Carolina forestry meeting Mr. Alston Grimes explained how he became interested in the better care of his timber. "A few years ago," he said, "I was talking with a neighbor who had bought a tract of land eight years before for $500. In this time by careful management he had sold $3,500 worth of timber and still had his land—and it well timbered too. His plan was to go over his woods each year, mark the trees he wished cut and have no other touched, nor any unnecessary waste in getting at the marked trees." Mr. Grimes now follows the same policy, allows no hunters on his place to carry an axe, permits no night hunting and has a written agreement with each tenant that five dollars will be charged for each acre of land the tenant allows to be burnt over.

Mr. Grimes also has it understood that a charge at the rate of five dollars per acre will be made for ditch banks, fence corners and old fields that the tenants burn over. He is determined not only to save timber but also to save the humus, the decaying vegetable matter, without which we can never make or keep our soils fertile.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

A hearty greeting to the old Confederate soldiers who are in our midst today. The number of these gallant heroes grows less and less as the years speed by and while the remaining ones are with us we should do everything possible for their pleasure and comfort. Death has laid his hand upon the ranks of Bryan Grimes Camp since the last annual reunion and taken several of the comrades, among them being the commander, Major Henry Harding, and they are sadly missed. May the years that remain to those still left be filled with peace and happiness and "may there be no moaning at the bar when they put out to sea."

Next Sunday will be observed as "mother's day". Every son should wear a white rose bud in memory of mother and if she is still living every absent son should write her a loving letter.

Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, is a candidate for one of the delegates at large from North Carolina to the national convention in Baltimore. If service to the party counts for anything, he certainly is entitled to election.

Congratulations to:

The Prince of the Asturias, the future king of Spain, 5 years old today. Rt. Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador at Washington, 74 years old today. James Gordon Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, 71 years old today.

Immigrants Who Go Through Ceremony Before Sailing.

Marriage by proxy it still permitted in some countries and is recognized still with royal sanction. Thus it is that when in due course Maria Johanna Lifeman of Amsterdam comes to this country to meet Moses Plimenter of Boston, she will feel that she is coming to her husband, although there is every likelihood that the immigration authorities will refuse to allow her to land until they have been married according to the laws of this country.

As the parents of the bride did not wish to have their daughter leave them until she was married to the man of her choice, Moses sent through the Dutch consul of this city the necessary papers for his marriage to Maria by proxy, and with the consent of the Queen of Holland his brother Isaac represented him in a marriage ceremony performed at the Amsterdam city hall.

Then when she arrives at Boston she will be again married "according to the laws of Moses and Israel" and at the same time according to the law of this land. It is interesting to note that the brother of the bridegroom was married recently in Amsterdam to the sister of the bride.

Miss Bessie Sulich, hailing from Russia, came to this country two weeks ago to get married without the formality of a proxy ceremony, but when she reached Fort Madison, Iowa, a marriage license was obtained by Paul Resnick, her lover, who had preceded her, and they were wedded at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Resnick. If they had wanted to, they could not have been married by proxy, as Russia does not permit this to be done.

A peculiar case recently before the courts was that of Mrs. Mae Wed of 214 West 110 street, who sought a divorce from Sigmund Weil on the ground that her husband was "over age." It is true that he is now 79 years of age, and that she is much his junior, but she was under no compulsion to marry him three years ago and she was certainly of sufficient age to know whether she should marry a man over 75 years old. While the husband interposed no objection to the divorce, Justice Newberger dismissed the complaint, saying that when a woman marries a man of 70 years and knows of his age when she marries him she is not, to his mind, entitled to the relief she seeks.—American Hebrew.

As To Mexico.

Because it is reported that Great Britain and Germany are dispatching arships to Mexico for the relief of citizens of those countries who may be in distress, there is no ground for apprehending that the English and Germans are intending to intervene in Mexico affairs. There is not the slightest chance of that. As for American intervention, it is unlikely now as it ever was. The President has sent an army transport to the west coast to take away Americans who may want to leave Mexico and in sending that kind of vessel instead of a warship he has shown the discretion that has marked every act of revolution against Diaz began.

There is no idea of intervention on the part of our government, and there is no fear of it among well-informed and thoughtful Mexicans. But idle rumors have been spread abroad among the ignorant Mexicans, and it is well that nothing should be done to give them seeming support. Of the precise measure of discontent on the west coast of Mexico there is no definite information. Certainly there is no audible demand for relief among the American residents of the east coast and the cities near it. "And I'll row ye so quick and I'll row ye so steady"

And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham town."

The ferryman's slim and the ferryman's young;

With just a soft tang in the turn of his tongue;

And he's fresh as a penny and brown as a berry.

And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham town.

"Aho! and O-ho! and it's I'm for the ferry."

(The briar's in the bud and the sun going down)

"And it's late as it is and I haven't a penny—"

O! how can I get me to Twickenham town?"

She'd rose in her bonnet, and O! she look'd sweet

As a little pink flower that grows in the wheat

With her cheeks like a rose and her lips like a cherry—

"It's sure but you're welcome to Twickenham town."

Aho! and O-ho!—you're too late for the ferry.

(The briar's in bud and the sun has gone down)

And he's not rowing quick and he's not rowing steady;

It seems quite a journey to Twickenham town.

"Aho! and O-ho!" you may call as you will;

The young is rising o'er Peter-small hill;

And with love like a rose in the stern of the wherry,

There's danger in crossing to Twickenham town.

—Theophile Marzials.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Red Men meet tonight.

The first of the graded school exercises take place tonight.

The Kinston ball team came over this morning to play a game with the Greenville team this afternoon.

They Come Too Thick.

School commencements at Bethel, Farmville, Greenville and Winterville all this week have certainly given the people something to get around to, and necessarily they could not attend all. Pity that the commencements could not have been arranged on dates that did not conflict.

Two Noted Visitors.

Tomorrow will be a day of interest in Greenville, as two noted men of the state will be here and make addresses. Gov. W. W. Kitchin will speak in the court house at 2:30 o'clock p. m. and at 8:30 p. m. Hon. Walter Murphy of Salisbury will speak to former University students with a view of organizing an alumni association of University students in Pitt county.

For the Legislature.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the House of Representatives, subject to the action and approval of the Democratic primary of Pitt county.

S. T. CARSON.

Travelling Men Meet.

DANVILLE, Ill., May 10.—The Illinois division of the Travelers Protective Association began its annual convention in this city today with an attendance of delegates and visitors from all over the state. The proceedings of the convention will last two days.

On June 3, at Boston, Mass., the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks will hold its annual convention.

Bethel Graded School Commencement

Beginning Monday evening and closing Thursday afternoon Bethel graded school held the most interesting commencement in its history.

Monday evening the commencement sermon was preached by Rev. Lee Starke of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Tuesday evening there was a splendid entertainment by the primary grades and Wednesday evening one by the grammar and high school grades.

Thursday morning there were contests for the declamation and recitation medals by the high school students.

Four boys, Burle Bullock, Roy Manning, Harvey Manning and Bobbie Whitehurst, competed for the declamation medal and five girls, Misses Fannie Andrews, Carrie Jenkins, Melba Speight, Lillian Ward and Joe Bert Whitehurst for the recitation medal.

It was a highly creditable display of proficiency and the judges, Rev. D. A. Futrell and Messrs. J. J. Harrington and D. J. Whichard, found it no easy matter to reach a decision where all had done so well, but after carefully considering each the decision among the declaimers was unanimous for Bobbie Whitehurst and among the reciters for Miss Melba Speight.

The medals were presented by Rev. Mr. Futrell.

Thursday afternoon the feature was the address of Dr. E. W. Sikes of Wake Forest College.

After an introduction by Rev. N. H. Shepherd, Dr. Sikes spoke on "The Master Passion."

In eloquent words the speaker declared that the master passion in the American heart today is not wealth, nor ambition, but human equality.

In emphasizing the latter with effective illustrations he showed how education gave all an equal chance and placed them on an equal footing in life and that those who neglected an education were bound to be subservient to those who took advantage of such opportunity.

Enlarged capacity for service to others should be an aim in every life.

What came almost as a benediction upon the commencement exercises, was when Superintendent Bivens called on Col. N. M. Hammond for some remarks and this silver haired veteran of education arose from his seat on the rostrum, gave some of his school room reminiscences, expressed his gratitude at the great educational progress of today and asked a blessing on every forward movement in behalf of the children.

Col. Hammond is now in his eighty-third year, yet he is vigorous and takes active interest in everything that tends to make mankind better and happier.

Twenty-five years of his early manhood were spent in the school room where he helped to lay the foundation upon which has builded Pitt county's splendid educational system.

Bethel has a fine school and the people are justly proud of it.

Superintendent Bivens and his efficient assistants have done excellent work there. It is regretted that he has decided to go back to the western part of the state and will not return to Pitt county next session.

During the year 1911 the Boot and Shoe Workers International Union paid $90,000 for sick, disability and death claims.

MADAME RACHELLE'S ADVICE TO BEAUTY SEEKERS

Mrs. Charles M.—Be careful of your diet. Nothing is so conducive to a muddy skin as rich, over seasoned foods. Drink plenty of water and massage the face with the preparation recommended below.

Miss T. F.—For the long standing cases of dark brown freckles, I recommend a regular nightly massage with a combined face bleach and skin food. The name of a good preparation is Wilson's Freckle Cream, which you may obtain at any good drug store for 50c the jar or direct from the Wilson Freckle Cream Co., Charleston, S. C. This is remarkably effective, guaranteed and I use it regularly with the most satisfactory results. Wilson's Freckle Cream is sold by Moye's Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

The Demons of the Swamp. are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength falls; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But electric bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. OLD AGE PENSIONS.

Proposed By Congressman.

To give every man and woman over 60 years old a pension from the United States treasury, is the surprising proposal of a congressman.

What most old people need is help in keeping up strength and vigor. Thousands of them know that the greatest help they can get is our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, called Vinol.

Mrs. Mary Ivey of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people you would be unable to supply the demand. I never took anything before that did me so much good as Vinol has done. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

Vinol renews the energy and strength of old people because it enriches their thinned blood and improves their appetite and digestion, and s—also so pleasant to take that they like to use it. We guarantee Vinol to give perfect satisfaction and pay back your money if it does not. Moye's Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix.
