FINAL STAGE OF LORIMER WRANGLE

The Defense Weakens Rather Than Strengthens

RAPS TAFT AND ROOSEVELT

For Over Three Hours Illinois Man Keeps the Floor of the Senate and Strongly Denounces What He Calls Newspaper Enemies

WASHINGTON, July 11.—For the second time in 18 months William Lorimer took the floor in the senate today to defend his title to a seat in that body as the junior senator from Illinois. For three hours he inveighed against his newspaper and political enemies; dissected the influences that had been exerted against him; and dealt with the attitude of President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt toward him and his associates in Illinois politics.

The senate did not force him to a conclusion of his speech. His emphatic delivery of the denunciation of his opponents weakened him physically and at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon the senate recessed until 10 tomorrow morning when Mr. Lorimer will resume. It is expected that he will conclude his defensive speech in a few hours tomorrow and that before the end of the session of the senate will take its final vote upon Senator Luke Lea's resolution of expulsion.

Before Mr. Lorimer had spoken an hour the galleries which were half empty when he began, had filled to overflowing; the senate floor was well filled with members giving their close attention to him and around the walls of the senate stood scores of members of the house. From a position at the rear of the chamber in the middle aisle, he delivered his speech with dramatic gesture and in a voice that frequently rose to flights of passion that carried far through the capitol corridors.

Contrasted to the picturesque appeal of February, 1911, when Senator Lorimer gave in detail the circumstances which he claimed had influenced the votes of 53 Democrats for him in the Illinois legislature, his speech today was an attack rather than a defense.

He scarcely touched the charges of bribery in the Illinois legislature while he held the floor.

Chicago newspaper owners and publishers, Governor Deneen, state's attorney Wayman and others who have been active in the prosecution of the Lorimer case in Illinois were the chief objects of his shafts and he sought to show that back of the prosecution was a conspiracy of newspaper and corporate forces to punish him because he could not be controlled.

At the close of the afternoon, he furnished a sensation by introducing affidavits made by delegates at the recent Republican convention at Chicago to the effect that they had been offered money to vote in support of the Roosevelt forces in the convention. The names attached to the affidavits included J. M. Schumpert, A. Buckley, D. W. Sherrod, R. B. Butts and William Jones, of Georgia, and other Southern delegates.

These affidavits came after Mr. Lorimer had dealt in detail with the letter of President Taft to Col. Roosevelt and made public with the International Harvester company correspondence during the pre-convention campaign. In this letter President Taft had stated his desire to see Mr. Lorimer ousted from the Senate.

Senator Lorimer declared he did not seek to prove anything in his own case by the affidavits; but that he wanted to "show the hypocrisy unning rampant through the country."

Col. Roosevelt's friends, he declared would have secured his nomination if possible, by the corrupt use of money. While Col. Roosevelt himself was declaring he would destroy every political corruptionist. As to his support of President Taft, Mr. Lorimer said he had supported the principle of constitutional government, for which the President stood. He declared the President would not have received as many votes in Illinois as he did in North Dakota in the primary campaign if the men with whom I am associated in politics had not voted for him.

THE HOUSE WILL IMPEACH ARCHBALD

By a Vote of 222 to 1 Adopts Articles

WILL AGREE ON TIME OF TRIAL

The Only Vote Against Impeachment Was Cast by Representative Farr of Penn. Archbald Used Influence to Enrich Self

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The house of representatives today adopted by a vote of 222 to 1 articles of impeachment against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States Commerce court. Representative Farr of Pennsylvania, cast the single vote against the bill of impeachment.

Mr. Farr is a life long friend who has all along voiced confidence in Judge Archbald's integrity.

Of the total membership of the house in their seats only nine voted present. These were former Speaker Cannon, Representatives Burgess, of Texas, Dazell and Olmstead of Pennsylvania, Dwight of New York, Johnson of South Carolina, Faran of Maryland, Rucker of Missouri and Sharkman of Florida. Only three members had spoken in the judge's defense. They were Representatives Farr, Bowman and Forcht, all Republicans of Pennsylvania.

The scene now shifts to the senate, which will sit in judgment in the case. While there has been a disposition voiced in the senate to postpone the trial until the autumn, Chairman Clayton, of the home committee on the judiciary and one of the prosecuting managers declared today his conviction that the senate would take up the impeachment soon.

Senator Clark, of Wyoming, Republican, chairman of the senate judiciary committee and Senator Simmons of North Carolina, the Democratic leader, expressed the view tonight that the senate would acquiesce with Judge Archbald's wishes as to having an immediate trial or being allowed time to prepare his defense. Among some of the Republican leaders it was suggested that while the case probably would be formally presented to the senate it might not do more now than to determine the date of the trial that the senate might recess until November, then proceeding with the hearing with a probability of completing the case before the Christmas holidays. The impeachment grows out of charges that while occupying a federal bench Judge Archbald was connected with negotiations for valuable clum bank properties in Pennsylvania and with other alleged questionable financial transactions and with using his official position to attempt the enrichment of himself and certain friends.

Important Discovery Helps Wireless

PARIS, July 11.—Baron Zepel, now experimenting with wireless telegraphy aboard the yacht, "Hirondelle," belonging to the Prince of Monaco is said to have discovered new principles which will revolutionize the system.

According to stories coming from Toulon, Zepel's apparatus sends and receives in almost absolute silence whereas the ordinary variety produces a noise like rifle shots. Also, though his outfit is compact and very small, it has a sending force equal to that aboard France's biggest battleships. By means of a keyboard the notes of a bugle can be transmitted when other forms of wireless are rendered useless by weather conditions and those, arranged in code form, would be utterly incomprehensible to outsiders.

Alabama Bar Meeting
MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 12.—The thirty fifth annual meeting of the Alabama State Bar Association began in the senate chamber of the capitol today. The attendance is unusually large and the program one of the best ever prepared for a meeting of the association.

OFFICERS TRY TO CONNECT FORMER GREAT SLASHING CASE

SIMILARITY OF CRIME COMMITTED IN MOUNT VERNON MAY LEAD NEW YORK SLEUTHS TO THE MURDERER OF LITTLE JULIA CONNORS IN GOTHAM. CLUES OF MORE OR LESS VALUE KEEP POLICE ON STILL HUNT. MONSTER MAY BE WEAK-MINDED YOUTH UNDER OBSERVATION.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The best that can be truthfully said of the police efforts to find the Bronx slasher whose crime against little Julia Connors stamps him as one of the worst products of human nature ever known in America, is that the police are sincerely and constantly active.

There is, however, no concentration in their search. They have not found clues sufficient to warrant their taking summary action in any one direction.

Acting Captain Price disappeared early yesterday afternoon from the scene of the crime at Third avenue and One Hundred and Seventy third street and from his headquarters at One Hundred and Thirty sixth street station.

It was learned he had gone to Mount Vernon to find and question a man known to have lived there up to a year ago, with the idea of forcing him to give a detailed account of his whereabouts last Saturday from night fall to dawn the next day—the time in which Julia Connors was met and turned aside from her plan of meeting her mother and father at the Crotona park baseball field, entrapped, drugged and murdered.

Captain Price had learned there was in Mount Vernon a man who had been arrested something over a year ago for a crime peculiarly similar to that committed against the little Bronx girl. He had held up a child, dragged her to a wood and inflicted a number of slashes upon her body with a knife, without, however, killing her. The man was arrested. It was urged in his behalf he was insane and no prosecution followed, his family agreeing to keep him in absolute restraint. If this man had broken this restraint, and if it were shown he was in the vicinity of the crime last Saturday night, there is no doubt Captain Price would immediately place him under arrest.

Then, again, every policeman and detective in the Bronx was yesterday asked to search for another crazy creature whose name is withheld but of whose existence there is ample other evidence. This man was caught last autumn scaling a balcony at St. Joseph's Deaf and Dumb asylum and seeking to peer into the young girl's dormitory. Detectives were there awaiting his coming, it being his second attempt as a "peeper". The Catholic sister had reported the matter to the police and the detectives were concealed in the balcony. He was found to have a long, keen bladed dirk in his possession. When captured he turned out to be a middle aged Pole.

100 W. VA. MINERS CAUGHT

Panama Mine Collapses After An Explosion

So Far It is Known With Certainty That 7 Men are Dead, Rumor Has it That 100 are Still Entombed

WHEELING, W. Va., July 11.—One hundred miners are entombed in the Panama mine at Moundsville, 12 miles south of here as result of an explosion, according to a report received here today.

Officials of the Ben Franklin Company have investigated the mine explosion and announced seven deaths and two seriously injured. Rumor persisted that there is one hundred men in the mine but the number is still uncertain.

Government and state-rescue crews have been rushed to the scene of the accident to investigate the causes. Rescue work is difficult.

Moundsville, W. Va., July 11.—Six killed and three dying as the result of the Panama mine explosion. Manager McCabe of the Fort Pitt mine was seriously burned in rescuing David Brooks, a dying miner.

Two bodies have been recovered. After damp makes it impossible to recover other dead bodies today.

Gastonia Mill Employee Is Killed By Train

GASTONIA, July 11.—Lewis Perkey, 18 years old and an employe of the Lorey mill, was instantly killed by a Carolina and Northwestern railway train this afternoon and Miss Ada Gibble, about 17 years of age, suffered a broken leg. Perkey and Miss Gibble had been to the country on a blackberry hunt and were returning to the city and walking the Carolina and Northwestern trestle across the Anthony branch about half a mile from the Clara Manufacturing Company and just outside of the incorporation limits of Gastonia, when they were run down by the Carolina and Northwestern northbound mixed train which is due to arrive here about 5.30 o'clock.

Perkey was instantly killed and knocked off the trestle, his head being crushed and his body badly torn and mutilated. Miss Gibble jumped from the trestle with the result that a leg was broken. She was immediately taken to a local hospital for medical attention.

N. C. MILITIA IS IN ALABAMA

Marching and Counter Marching Real Thing

North Carolina "Army" Eight Hundred Strong are put Through the Paces in Sham Battles

CAMP PETTUS' ANNISTON, Ala., July 11.—The North Carolina soldiers, a body of nearly 800 sturdy fellows, after resting on their "arms" for a few days, began work in earnest yesterday in a sham battle some five miles from camp. Today the regiment went on a practice march and tomorrow the men will go on a big hike lasting until Saturday night at which time they will be put through a test of their knowledge of the real thing. Officers and enlisted men are busy discussing the general situation of the important part they are to play in the state of war to exist between the Reds and Browns. The Red brigade based upon Chattanooga has been operating in North Carolina according to orders collecting and destroying military supplies. This brigade has collected at Cane Creek Springs a large herd of live stock and a wagon train of supplies. A Brown brigade has been detached from the Brown division at Montgomery and ordered to Anniston by forced marches.

Col. J. N. Craig, of the third North Carolina infantry, has been ordered to take command of the Brown army consisting of troop H 118 U. S. Cavalry, 34 South Carolina infantry, 3rd Alabama infantry, 34 North Carolina infantry, field hospital and ambulance, North Carolina Troop B., Tennessee cavalry, company A, signal corps Tennessee.

During the two days like the soldiers will carry their shelter tents and field rations to be prepared by company cooks after camp is pitched. So far there has been very little sickness among the Tar Heel boys. They are getting more genuine instructions here than ever before in the history of the guard. Colonel Craig, Colonel Minor, Adjutant Scott and all the officers are doing their best to make this trip count for knowledge, in military tactics, but they are arranging the orders so the enlisted men may also have a good time. No orders have yet been received for breaking camp.

Orangemen Celebrate in Belfast
BELFAST, July 12.—The Orangemen of Belfast and civilt men of Belfast and vicinity held their customary celebration today to mark the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne. The parade was one of the largest in recent years.

GREAT BRITAIN OBJECTS TO BILL

Does Not Want American Vessels Favored

SHOULD PAY PANAMA TOLL

Diplomats in the Capital Believe That all American Ships Should Pass Free. Argument May be Submitted to Hague Tribunal

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The lines were drawn tonight for a great diplomatic struggle between the United States and Great Britain over the question of whether this country may discriminate in favor of American vessels in the administration of the Panama canal. The wordy war may terminate in the submission of the question to the Hague tribunal.

A series of diplomatic and legislative conferences today developed the fact that the forces in the American government which favor allowing American ships free passage through the canal are in control. These forces take the position that there is nothing in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, under which the canal was built to prevent this concession.

The diplomatic struggle, precipitated by the note received today from Mitchell Innes, in charge of the British embassy, is expected will be fought along the following lines:

Great Britain will take the position that the Hay-Pauncefote treaty provision which forbids discrimination in favor of the interests of any nation, in the conduct of the canal, would operate against the provisions of the Panama bill now under consideration in the senate. This provision will be supported by a lengthy argument now on its way from London by mail, which will be presented to the state department and transmitted to Congress immediately upon its arrival.

The United States will hold that so long as the ships of all foreign nations are accorded the same treatment in the use of the canal, the United States may pass American ships free, or rebate the tolls charged them. This position was taken by the house, when it reversed the report of the house interstate and foreign commerce committee, which would have prevented free passage to American ships, and passed the present bill.

The ultimate passage of the measure now before the senate seems assured. The men behind the bill in the senate said today that the British note would not prevent consideration of the measure whenever it could be reached in the ordinary course of business. But the position of Great Britain will strengthen the opposition to the free provision.

To the Democratic Voters of Pitt County

We, the undersigned citizens of Pitt county, having information that Mr. W. M. Moore, the present Register of Deeds of Pitt county, will not be a candidate for reelection, we take this method of recommending to the Democratic voters of Pitt county, Mr. J. C. Gaskins of Grifton, as a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds of Pitt county, subject to the action of the Democratic convention of our county.

Mr. Gaskins is a citizen and native of Pitt county; has resided in his native county all his life and has been active for the progress of his county and the good of the Democratic party. Mr. Gaskins is in the prime of life, is a man of superior intelligence and adaptability, is competent and efficient, and has all the good qualities necessary for making an efficient and thorough county official and we earnestly recommend him to the voters of Pitt county and endorse his candidacy and hope that he may receive a large and full support from the Democracy of the county.

27,000 ACRES BRINGS $216,000

Wilmington Sand Hills Sold to New Yorkers

WAS OWNED BY D. L. GORE

Real Estate Deal May Lead to Development of Lands in Other Parts of North Carolina. Ten Years ago Worth $1 per Acre

ROCKINGHAM, July 11.—One of the biggest real estate transactions ever made in this section of the state was put through today when D. L. Gore, of Wilmington, sold to Ralph Page, of New York city 27,000 acres of the now famed sand hill lands. The consideration was $216,000. It is understood that Mr. Page, who is the son of Walter H. Page, the publisher, was acting for New York capitalists.

This immense tract of land lies in one body in the counties of Richmond, Scotland, Hoke and Moore and was purchased by Mr. Gore less than 10 years ago for considerably less than $1 per acre. The increase from less than $1 to $18 per acre pretty accurately represents the change of opinion of knowing farmers of this section as to the value of the sand hills.

It has been clearly demonstrated that after a process of three or four years of proper cultivation and up blinding these once barren wastes not only are finely adapted to the growing of peaches, grapes, dewberries and cantaloupes but are capable of producing one bale and a half of cotton to the acre. There are such lands on the good roads highway between Rockingham and Hamlet that have been performing this feat for several years that could not now be bought for $100 an acre.

The plans of the New York capitalists in reference to this fine body of land have not been disclosed. That its value will be more than doubled in the course of a few years no one doubts, for people generally are just beginning to realize the opportunities here. It is probable that the tract is to be cut up into small farms and put on the market.

No Limit To Uncle Sam's Fortune

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—Uncle Sam doesn't know how rich he is in lands and mineral resources. He has been trying to find out for three years, with a board of experts but the stock taking is still unfinished.

The classification board has just made a preliminary report, showing that up to date it has classified as coal lands, acreage valued at $721,856,656,16,174,200 acres in all. It has picked 52,000,000 acres as non-coal land and tentatively withdrawn, as possible coal bearing land, 68,926,497 acres. Oil lands have been withdrawn to the extent of 4,744,182 acres, phosphate lands over 3,000,000 acres and power sites nearly 2,000,000.

Governor Wilson Big Favorite
NEW YORK, July 11.—Real money was wagered in the financial district yesterday on the presidential election.

From somewhere $1,000 or more appeared to be placed against Governor Wilson and it was immediately covered at odds of 11 to 9, the Wilson contingent taking the long end. The recorded wagers were $550 to $450, $275 to 225, and two bets later of $300 to $200.

NILES, O., July 12.—Twenty five thousand dollars has been subscribed towards a fund of $100,000 which it is proposed to raise for the building of a magnificent memorial here in honor of the late President William McKinley, who was born in Niles. The memorial will take the form of a public auditorium. Associated in the movement for its erection are Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio and now ambassador to France; James Boyle, who was for some years Mr. McKinley's secretary; J. C. Schmidlapp, the Cincinnati banker and John G. Milburn, an intimate friend of President McKinley and in whose house he died.

Our Special Washington Letter COMMENT ON CURRENT EVENTS

WASHINGTON, July — Cabinet officers and other public and prominent men in the city are turning their minds and their attention to the question of a summer vacation.

Usually the exodus being when Congress adjourns. This year, however, Government officials are compelled to stay in the city because the long drawn out session of Congress.

Practically all men in the public sphere of life spent a part of each year in the country. President Taft adheres to this habit. He will again return to the country place at Beverly, Mass. where he has spent the last two years. With him will go part of the executive force at the White House and all official business will be transacted there until his return in the early part of the first month. He will occupy the big Douch colonial mansion, leased from the estate of the late Henry W. Peabody.

The President will be able to continue his favorite line of sport,—gold on the Myopia Gold Links, or at the Essex and Magnolia Country Clubs, on the old Bay State's north shore, a convenient motor distance from Beverly.

Speaker Clark of the House of Representatives has signified his intention of returning to his home at Bowling Green, Mo. Here Mr. Clark assumes a roll of the country gentleman. He has a small farm and takes great delight in the running of his estate.

Vice-President Sherman, whose home is in Utica, N. Y. is another public official who takes a practical interest in husbandry, during the vacation period. During parts of the summer the Vice-President devotes some of his time to camping in the Adirondacks or fishing in the St. Lawrence.

Perhaps one of the finest estates owned by any of the President's officers, is that owned by Secretary of State Knox. It is a beautiful spot on the old battlefield of Valley Forge, Pa., where General George Washington camped. The estate is provided with golf links and bathing pool, besides the Secretary's own stock farm. The House is built on the line of an old rambling English home.

Situated in a beautiful forest of 400 acres, the home of Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh, at Duplin, N. H., is one of the most inviting spots in New Hampshire Hills. From the piazza of the house, the shimmering waters of Lake Monadnock can be seen, as well as the green sloyes of the mountains. The Secretary intends to spend the months of July, August and September away from his offices in the Treasury Department.

Secretary Stimson, of the War Department has as a near neighbor, to Col. Roosevelt. His home is at Golf Springs, L. I. Only a little peninsula separates the country homes of these two men.

Secretary Nagel, of the Department of Commerce and Labor although a native of St. Louis, Mo., will spend his vacation period in his roomy colonial home near Marion, Mass., a beautiful house that he purchased some years ago. It occupies an ideal spot near an arm of Buzzard's Bay and spark of Virginia forest.

Attorney General Wickersham of the Department of Justice is making plans to occupy his home at Marshfield on Jamaica Bay, Long Island.

Chief Justice White of the Supreme Court of the United States prefer to spend his summer in his home near the town to Thibodeaux, upon the Bayou La Fourche, La., the estate has been in Justice White's family since 1799 before Louisiana was purchased by this government from France.

Associated Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes has a beautiful estate on the Massachusetts coast near President Taft's summer home. Justice Huges a noted fisherman, spends his time usually in a summer resort within easy reach of good fishing grounds. Last year he summered at Mt. Clement, Mich.

Secretary of the Navy Meyer, will be a neighbor to Attorney General Wickersham, when he returns from a short ocean trip. Mr. Meyer, who has lately suffered from a mild attack of typhoid fever, will summer at his home on Long Island.

Admiral Peary, the discoverer of the North Pole left Washington early in the spring for his home at Eagle Island, Maine. Many of his trophies gathered in the far North are used for decorative purposes about the house.

Senator Newland of Nevada, and Senator Nixon of the same state have country homes on the outskirts of this city. Except occasional visit to the Seashore or to the mountains, Senator Newlands spends most of his time here.

Senator Wetmore, of Rhode Island summers in his million dollar home at Newport. His colleague, Senator Lippitt also summers in Newport.

Boston Ancients at Windsor

LONDON, July 12.—The members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts paid a visit to Windsor today under escort of their namesake organization of London. The chief purpose of the pilgrimage to the royal borough was to place a tablet upon the house which now stands on the site which Robert Keayne, member of the Honorable Artillery Company of London, and founder and first captain of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, lived in the 17th century as a boy.

Greenville People Receiving the Full Benefit

There have been many cases like the following in Greenville. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

James Hardison, 411 Fifth street, Greenville, N. C., says: "I had trouble from my kidneys and the kidney secretions passed too frequently at night. In the morning when I got up, there was lameness across my loins and I also suffered from backache. Doan's Kidney Pills which were procured from the John L. Wooten Drug Co., relieved all these symptoms of kidney complaint and restored my kidneys to a normal condition." (Statement given January 14, 1908.)

No Trouble Since

Later Mr. Hardison said: "I take pleasure in confirming my former statement in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy made a permanent cure in my case."

FOR THE FARMERS From HOME AND FARM

SHALL IT BE COOLIE OR FARMER Herbert Myrick Would Save $100,000,000 for Home Sugar Producers

The senate will not enact the free sugar bill sent up to it from the house. It is the Underwood scheme to reduce the price of sugar to consumers. But it would simply enable the refiners' trust even more perfectly to control the domestic market, and make still larger ill-gotten gains from coolie-grown cane sugar and from the bounty-fed beet sugar of Europe.

I want to say right here, says Herbert Myrick in Farm and Home, that congress will never be permitted to annihilate the domestic production of sugar, rather than a politico-economic one. So beneficial to agriculture and other industries is the production of sugar from beets that European countries do everything to foster it.

Chicks Need a Dinner Bell In every hatch there are usually some chicks which march right up to the feed and water and eat and drink without trouble; but there are always others which hold back and crowd in the corners of the brooder or stand around "peeping" and refuse to pay any attention to the food.

Then I scatter some of the feed over a shingle, says a writer in Farm and Home, and with one finger tap the shingle gently in the food, making a sound like the tap-tap of a chicken's beak.

A BULL-HEAD CROWD Rowan Commissioners Will Build $125,000 Court House in the Face of Protest of People.

At the recent Democratic primaries in Rowan, the present board of county commissioners were defeated for renominations. This action was brought about through no objection to the men composing the board, but because as a body they have decided to build a $125,000 court house which the majority of Rowanites say they don't want and stand opposed to such an exorbitant expenditure.

Sharon Lodge There will be a special meeting of Sharon Lodge No. 78 Friday night at 8 o'clock. Work in second degree. Members requested to be present.

For State Senate Having been endorsed by the anti-riding element of the Democratic party, I announce myself a candidate for the State Senate, subject to the action of a voting primary of the Democratic party under the plan of organization.

1. No extension of the stock law except by a vote of the people in the territory effected. 2. The repeal of the stock law legislation of the last legislature. 3. The improvement of the public roads without bond issues.

KANSAS THE MODERN UTOPIA

In the Gulliverian land of Laptuta, where the industrious inhabitants sought to make sunshine from cucumbers, there must have been a spirit which has descended upon Kansas.

For in that happy land the fly has been swatted, the roller towel abolished, the common drinking cup banned and now a campaign is on to rout the gourmand from the shadow of the Sunflower State.

Under the direction of indefatigable Dr. Crumline, the state board of health is at work on formulas to determine how much the Kansan should eat. These experiments, if allowed, will save the individual money, improve his health and add to his wisdom.

"One might as well take a five dollar bill and light his pipe with it as to burn up that money by wrong eating," says Dr. Crumline. Isn't it simple? It requires a certain number of heat units to keep man going at a normal gait; once that number is found for the various occupations all the Kansan will have to do is to visit the state with his index in his hand, pick up the food with the requisite sustaining power and go serenely on his way.

Banished will be the fiend of indigestion and the deadly grouch. We have long sought for Utopia in vain, but now we are turning our fevered gaze toward the West, toward Dr. Crumline and Kansas.

TO DESTROY THE HOOKWORM

Now for the hookworm! His case will be taken up in the fall at the fifteenth national congress of Hygiene, when experts will report that he has been run to his lair.

It is a large lair, embracing a belt of 66 degrees circling the globe. Fifty-four nations abroad are infected, though in Germany, Wales, the Netherlands, Belgium, France and Spain disease is confined to the mines.

In our own country eleven states, with a population of 20,000,000, are in trouble and of the total population of the world more than half a billion live in countries where the disease has a foothold.

The commission will show that millions of dollars are lost annually because of impaired efficiency of victims of the trouble. A campaign will be devised whereby the various nations may work together to wipe out what is now regarded as the greatest scourge of the human race.

We have dropped the hint several times that those who are expecting to make real estate investments in Greenville need not be holding back with the idea that property will get cheaper. You will not see the day when it will be any cheaper than now, but the price will be steadily advancing.

In the appropriation bill that passed congress the other day, was an item of $15,000 for commencing the postoffice building in Greenville. Good for our senators and representatives. We are hoping to see work commence on the building next spring.

The man who drinks whiskey when it is hard to get, does so because of the baseness of his nature. There is not the excuse now that he was led to drink by his friends around the saloon.

They not only run after the man reported to have money, trying to get some of it from him, but they also run after the man who hasn't any, trying to get what he has not.

If you start around the block take along an umbrella. You will need it for either sunshine or rain before you get back.

Yes sir, we are proud enough of Greenville not to knock it and feel like kicking anybody who does knock it.

No, they never resign and seldom withdraw, but they are sometimes put out.

This is My Birthday

Newell Sanders, who has the distinction of being the first Republican to represent Tennessee in the United States senate since the days of reconstruction, was born in Owen county, Indiana, July 12, 1852. He graduated from Indiana University in 1873 and the same year engaged in business in Bloomington, Ind. Several years later he removed to Chattanooga, Tenn., where he began business as a manufacturer of plows. In this business Mr. Sanders was very successful and in the course of time became a man of wealth. He was a delegate to the national Republican convention of 1902 and has been chairman of the Republican state committee of Tennessee since 1904. When United States Senator Robert L. Taylor died last spring Governor Hooper of Tennessee appointed Mr. Sanders to fill the unexpired term.

Congratulations to:

- Prince John Francis, youngest son of King George and Queen Mary, 7 years old today.
Prince Louis, heir to the throne of Monaco, 32 years old today.
Dr. Winthrop E. Stone, president of Purdue University, 50 years old today.
Rev. Boothe C. Davis, president of Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y., 49 years old today.
Dr. William Osler, famous physician and educator who is said to have declared that sixty years is the limit of man's usefulness, 62 years old today.
England's Youngest Prince LONDON, July 12.—Prince John, the fifth son and youngest child of King George and Queen Mary, had a birthday anniversary today. Though the Prince is but seven years old and stands fifth in the line of succession to the throne, his birthday anniversary is marked by the firing of the customary salute in the Long Walk and all of the other official honors accorded to the older members of the royal family.

A WHISKEY BOTTLE

How should a whiskey drinker talk to his son? If he talked as he feels he would hold up the flat, brown bottle and say:

"My boy, you know that I am a poor man and have nothing to leave you or your mother.
"The difference between myself and the successful men who have passed me is this:
"I have gone through life with this bottle in my hand or in my pocket. They have not."

A man comes into the world prepared to do his share of the world's work, well or ill, as his brain and his physical strength may decide. Of all his qualities the most important practically is balance.

The whiskey in that bottle destroys balance, mental and physical. It substitutes dreaming and foolish self-confidence for real effort.

It presents all of life's problems and duties in a false light. It makes those things seem unimportant which are most important.
It dulls the conscience, which alone can make men do their duty in spite of temptation and struggle on to success in spite of exhaustion.

Keep away from this bottle and keep away from those who praise it. He who hands it to his fellowman is a criminal and he who hands it to a young man is a worse criminal and a villain.

It is a well established fact that in the usual order of events drunkenness would be handed down from father to son and hundreds of thousands of families would be ultimately wiped out by whiskey.

It is not true, fortunately, that the son of a drunkard actually inherits drunkenness fully developed. But a drunkard gives to his son weakened nerves and a diminished will power, which tend to make him a drunkard more easily than his father was made before him.

The great safeguard of a drunkard's children undoubtedly lies in the warning which they see every day in their home and in the earnest advice which the man who drinks will give to all young people if he have any conscience left.

If the man who drinks would save his own children from the same danger, he can do so better than any other. He need not lose their respect by telling them of his own mistakes, if these mistakes have been hidden from them. Let him simply tell them, without personal preference, what he knows about whiskey, its effects on a man's happiness, success and physical comfort.

Whiskey gives a great many things to men. Of these gifts here are a few:

Lack of friends, lack of will, lack of self respect, lack of nervous force—lack of everything save the hideous craving that can end only with unconsciousness and that begins again with increased suffering when consciousness is restored.

Fathers and mothers blessed with self control and with good children should use the picture of a drinking man as a useful, moral lesson in talking to boys and girls from seven to twenty years of age. Children are impressed most easily through their imaginations. An intelligent father or mother can produce upon a child's receptive mind an impression that will last for years.

With the fear of whiskey there should be impressed upon children sympathy and sorrow for the unfortunate drunkard.

One of the ablest men and one of the most earnest in America, said to his friends very recently:

"I never drink, as you know. But when I see a man lying drunk in the gutter, I know that he has probably made that very day a harder effort made that every day a harder struggle to control himself, than I ever made in my life. He has yielded and fallen at last, but only because all of his strength is insufficient to overcome the disease that possesses him."

Teach your children that drunkenness is a horrible disease, as bad as leprosy. Teach them that it can be avoided, that the disease is contracted in youth through carelessness and that it is spread by those who encourage drinking to others. Tell them that the avoiding of whiskey is not merely a question of morals or obedience to parents, but a question involving mental and physical salvation, success in life, happiness, and the respect of others.

"The Most Available Democrat."

The Ticket.

Wilson and Marshall sounds like a ticket that is sure to win. It sounds like Virginia was again to add to her children as "mother of presidents."

After a convention of unusual strenuousness in which merits of every one of the candidates were considered the delegates became gradually convinced that Woodrow Wilson was the most available candidate, and slowly, but surely the convention turned to him as the logical candidate. There was no deal about the nomination of Wilson, no political trading expedition but he was nominated by the absolute conviction of the delegates that he was the best man. That is the value of a convention, and a candidate named upon that basis is a candidate with his party behind him and in this year of grace a sure winner.

No one has ever questioned the intelligence or integrity of Governor Wilson, or that he was versed in statecraft, but as to his practical political experience many of the delegates favored other men. The convention as a whole feared the nomination of Bryan more than anything else and every time that remarkable gentleman got on his feet to speak there was a dread lest the convention should be carried by storm for him. His desertion of Clark and his attack on the New York and Virginia delegations did not increase his popularity, nor was it the dominant factor in the nomination of Wilson.

Woodrow Wilson was nominated out of the sincere conviction that he was the best man and the most available candidate before the Democratic convention. There was no question about that being the case and in the end that fact became a fixture in the minds of the delegates and for days his nomination was the only solution of the situation.

Wilson meets all the apparent requirements of the times that calls for progressive thought and action. His modification of the recall of the judiciary leaves him sound in all the problems that call for solution. He is mentally sound, stable in judgement and clear in conception of public duty. The atmosphere in which he has lived is that which produces desirable men for public service, and no man in years has so combined the needed qualities in a Democratic candidate.

"Staunton" furnished the big banner of the convention, and in Norfolk the first Woodrow Wilson club was formed, and Virginia will give Wilson and Marshall a rousing vote this fall. —Ledger Dispatch.

PRIZES ARE AWARDED

School Children Capture Prizes for Killing the Most Flies

The committee of North Carolina Sorrels which had charge of the campaign waged against the fly during the month of May has awarded to Miss Wood's room of the fourth grade of Union school the first prize of $5 for catching the largest number of flies during the period. The children in this room, as previously noted, killed 265,000 flies, according to the record kept to the slaughter. For the most original effective fly-trap the prize of $3 was awarded to Harris Newman, son of Mrs. Linda Newman, who was a pupil of the seventh grade of Hemenway school. Howard Handy also presented an original and very effective trap and deserves special mention.

While the campaign in Wilmington did not produce the results that were hoped for and are being obtained in other duties, yet the ladies feel that their efforts have been in vain, that a good start has been in a good start has been made, especially in the matter of educating the public to the importance of having a flyless city, and there is no doubt but that a similar campaign next year will be more fruitful.

The prize money awarded to the Union school children will be used next year in carrying forward the work of exterminating the fly which was begun by this year's class.—Wilmington Star.

BUILDING HIGHWAY

Work Begun on Kings Mountain-Sherby Road.

Today work begun on the sand-clay road of King's Mountain presnot beginning at the corporate limits of the town, on what is known as the King's Mountain-Sherby road.

It will be remembered that this precinct voted $25,000 road bonds some months ago, and under the direction of the highway commission, this amount will be spent during the next two years in the construction of about 30 miles of highway.

Work is now being pushed from Shelby to Buffalo creek on the above named road and the county of Gaston will, within two or three months, finish the fine macadam road from Kings Mountain to Gaston, thereby giving an up-to-date highway the entire distance from Charlotte to Shelby by way of Belmont, McAdenville, Gaston and Linwood College.—Cleveland Star.

Up to The Individual at Last

LAWMAKERS—NOT PRESIDENTS

Editor of Farm and Home Calls Attention to Choice of Men Who Will Make the Laws

The mistakes usual to a presidential campaign as being made. People are excited over candidates for nomination for the presidency, but are giving only slight heed to nominating for senators and representatives. These are the men who will make the laws. Chief attention should be devoted to selecting the best lawmakers. This is a matter of men, not parties. While political parties may break up individual character should never break up. Nominate for national and state legislatures men who can be depended upon to frame laws in the interest of public, not self; of justice, not privilege; of righteousness, not party.

Both parties in congress are equally responsible for going back on the people, says Herbert Myrick in Farm and Home. Both parties almost unanimously supported the reciprocity frame-up against domestic farmers. While Republicans advocated such reciprocity, now democrats seek to put sugar on the free list and thus destroy a new branch of farming that would put $200,000,000 a year into the farmers' pocket; otherwise that vast sum goes abroad for bounty-fed or coolie-grown sugar. Both parties are equally guilty of dodging parcel post, and thus again defeating the people's will.

It is vastly more important to the public welfare to elect the right men for lawmakers, than to governorship or presidency. Keep this fact ever in mind.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

William Henry Harrison was the oldest president of the United States, being 68 years old when inaugurated. Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest, at 42.

Five former Governors of Missouri attended the recent national Democratic convention at Baltimore. They were David R. Francis, Jos. W. Folk, Lon. V. Stephens, W. J. Stone and J. M. Dockery.

Twenty-five friends of former Congressman W. S. Cowherd have subscribed $100 each toward a fund to defray Mr. Cowherd's expenses for the campaign for the nomination for Governor of Missouri.

S. A. Rodenberry, who represents the Second Georgia district in the House, was a college professor when he was 21 years old, and member of the Georgia legislature before he was twenty-two.

The Women's Good Government League has been organized in Oakland, California, to oppose the proposed recall of city officials. The matter is to be decided in the general primary election in California early in August.

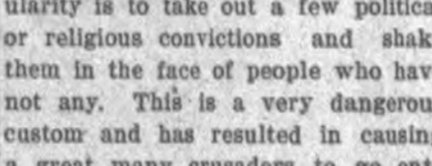

The present year may be aptly termed "Governors' Year" in Tennessee politics. Ex-Gov. Malcolm R. Patterson is seeking the nomination for the United States senate, former governor Benton McMillan and Jas. B. Frazier are numbered among those who are striving for the governorship, and another former governor, John I. Cox, is a candidate for a seat in the legislature.

Less than two months hence the eyes of the nation will be turned upon Vermont, which state holds its biennial election the first Tuesday in September leading the state of Maine six days. Both states vote for Congressmen as well as the state officers, so the national significance will be apparent in the returns, at least to those who still hold to the old tradition that Vermont and Maine are barometric.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES
By Howara L. Rann.

POPULARITY

POPULARITY is something which never deserts a man until he becomes a candidate for office. Nothing on land or sea will cause it to lose its hold except blocking the wheels of progress with a paving petition. One of the worst hindrances to popularity is to take out a few political or religious convictions and shake them in the face of people who have not any. This is a very dangerous custom and has resulted in causing a great many crusaders to go onto the siding with a subdued look. It is a harrowing thing to be unpopular, but it is worse to be so mentally crooked that nobody can tell whether you are for or against. There is a great deal of popularity in circulation which manages to be out of town when the time comes to stand up and be counted. This kind always books in on the winning side and demands the lion's share of the perquisites and other delicatessen! Some people are so anxious to be popular that they agree with anybody who expresses a blood-red opinion on anything from Wagner's orchestration to the birthplace of Cain's wife. Others do not care for popularity and drive away trade by stepping on their customer's pet theories with a set of debating tools. The best proof of popularity is to go up against the Australian ballot and come out without having to wait for the official count. Every now and then somebody will break out with an idea which has not been copyrighted and reduce his stock of popularity to the point where he can't get trusted for a bar of soap.

This is the fate of all reformers, who never become popular with anybody except posterity. The easiest form of popularity to attain is the society kind, which is propagated at heavy expense by a relay of six course dinners, bridge whist orgies and exhibitions of the light fantastic toe. No woman ever becomes popular in society without entertaining the heartiest eaters in the community on an average of three times a week and when this practice is discontinued she will experience a slump in her bathing average that will bring on an attack of heart failure.

Sweet Girl Graduate.

(Chicago Post.)

Observe the noble girl who has completed her college education. See her, with her dimpled chin resting in the hollow of her white palm, gazing out in the future with thoughtful eyes.

What problems may she now be solving? What mighty movements for the uplifting of the race may she be planning?

Back of her are the years of study and application.

The great minds of the centuries have given her of their best. All that science and philosophy can cull from the universe or mind or matter is hers.

And now she is ready for the future. There is a hopeful gleam in her eyes.

She speaks: "Some of those back numbers at home will sit up and take notice when I get off the train in this new panner skirt of mine."

Mrs. Maria B. McDonald, who for years has been prominent as a Socialist and suffrage leader, is the Socialist nominee for Congress from the 14th New York district.

Social and Personal

Home, Sweet Home.

This "home, sweet home," is good to sing—
For its a thrilling tune;
It stirs a man like anything
At midnight or at noon.
Around the board, beside the fire,
Beneath the sky's blue dome,
There's nothing mortals can inspire
Like that old "home, sweet home."

But it is not enough to yell
That "home, sweet home" refrain;
For men should practice it as well,
If home shall sweet remain.
It's not enough to loudly shout
The old familiar air;
It's something we must carry out—
Boost "home, sweet home" for fair.

I've heard a man who sang it loud
When'er he had a chance.
He loved to yell it in a crowd
And every circumstance.
But when a catalogue he met
With lowgrade goods for sale,
Then "home, sweet home" he would forget
And send for them by mail.

If all of us should do the same—
If many send their cash
To help the mail-order game—
The town would go to smash.
The grass will gather in the street,
The crops uncut decay;
And home, that once we sang as sweet,
Will droop and pass away.

Oh, sing that "home, sweet home" 'y stuff—
It thrills us through and through;
But singing songs is not enough—
There's something else to do.
Let's send no more our cash to roam
To make the millionaire;
Let's boost a bit for "home, sweet home"—
With "home, sweet home" be square!

Boy Accidentally Shoots Mother
Thursday afternoon Mrs. D. S. Spain, who lives in West Greenville, was accidentally shot by her son, Spruill. The boy had his shot gun after a rat and when he fired it several of the shots glanced from a post and struck his mother in the arm, neck and face. Mrs. Spain was not seriously hurt, though the wounds were quite painful.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Red Men meet tonight.
The Baptist choir will meet at the church tonight for practice.

Tomatoes this season are immense in size.
The members of St. Paul's Episcopal church choir are requested to be present at the church for practice this evening at 8:15.

It Wasn't a Fire
We hear that a man came to town the other day and gave The Reflector a roasting for what he regarded a failure to print the news. He saw the big pile of brick and rubbish where the buildings were torn down to make room for the Proctor Hotel, and remarked: "Gee, they must have had a big fire over there. When did it occur? I've never seen a word about it in The Reflector and I read the paper every day. I thought the paper gave us the news." So it does, but there wasn't any fire.

Mid Summer Fete.
There is an enjoyable evening for every man, woman and child in Greenville—something decidedly different from any performance ever given here, so do not fail to see it.

There will be an open air entertainment in Mrs. E. B. Ficklin's lawn next week, watch for the date. The amusements will be varied to please the taste of all. Mother Goose with her many famous characters is booked for a performance. Fancy dances, and many other features also have been planned. Everybody is guaranteed a pleasant evening, so be sure and come.
Watch for date and prices.

THEY HAD A JOY RIDE.

Automobile Trip Covering Several Days.
Messrs. F. J. Forbes and Leon Randolph have returned from a trip covering several days and taking in a number of towns. They left here on the third in Mr. Randolph's car and went via Tarboro, Whitakers and Littleton for Panacea Springs. They left Panacea Springs Sunday and went on a tour to Henderson, Raleigh and Smithfield and Wilson on the way back home. Mr. Forbes says they had a fine trip and saw some good country. The best roads traveled on were twenty miles through Franklin county, where a splendid system of sand-clay roads have been built.

The most novel experience of the trip was when the car got ditched and a yoke of oxen were secured to pull them out. As soon as the car was pulled out, and before they could be unhitched from it, the bovines took a notion to run away and took the car whizzing down the road. It was a joy ride right.

Will Pave Sidewalks
The town is having rock hauled along Evans street southward from Five Points preparatory to having the sidewalks paved as far out as Tenth street. The pavements will certainly be an improvement to call for the gratitude of pedestrians.

With the Boxers
Owen Moran and Jack White have signed for a clash to take place at Vernon, California, July 27th.

Now that he has defeated Joe Mandot, Willie Ritchie believes he should be given another chance at Champion Ad Wolgast.

Jos. R. Burton, former United States Senator, is seeking a seat in the Kansas legislature.

Kansas, Oregon, Michigan, Ohio, Nevada and Arizona are to settle the woman suffrage question this fall.

It is said that the ballots to be voted in some of the Texas counties at the primary this month will be nearly ten feet in length.

OUR NEXT SERIAL WATCH FOR IT!

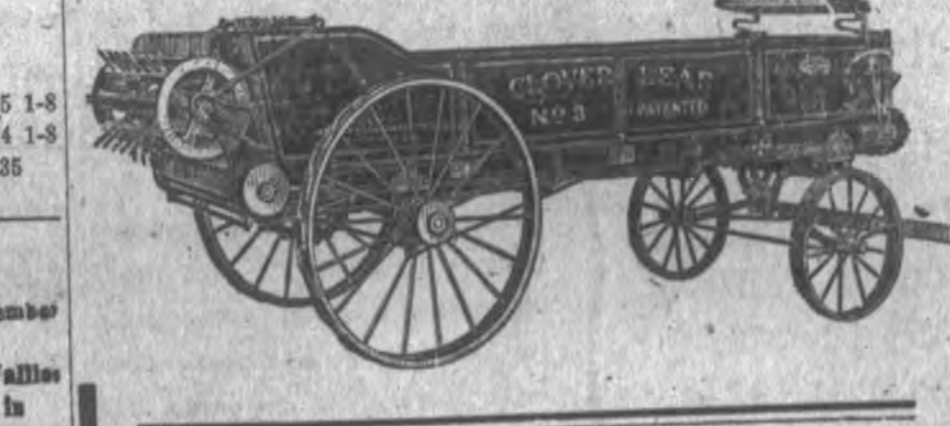

How To Get MORE OUT OF YOUR HAY CROP.

WHETHER you feed or sell your hay, it should be baled. Baled hay takes up much less room and nets a better price than loose hay. It is always ready for any market at top price, while loose hay must be sold near home, at whatever you can get.

I C H HAY PRESSES

have many points of strength, simplicity, and convenience found in no other presses. They are equipped with a compound lever and a toggle joint plunger which gives the great compressing power. A 500 pound pull on the sweep of a 16x18 I C H press gives 76,800 pounds pressure in the bale chamber. The bale reach is only 4 inches high and very narrow. The bale chamber is very low—easy to reach over to tie the bale.

STATE AND COUNTY NEWS

Happenings Around Standard STANDARD, July 11.—The I. O. R. M. gave an ice cream supper Friday night. There was a large crowd present to pass off the evening. It was visited by several of the tribes of Red Men and lots of the young girls and boys of several miles were present to witness the pleasant evening. It was opened by an address of welcome by Mr. G. T. Tyson who of course welcomes every one far and near, at the close of the welcome address he introduced Mr. R. C. Flanagan of Greenville, who made the tribe a fine speech. Of course Mr. Flanagan is a Red Man and is prepared to know more about the tribe of Red Men than lots of men do. About 11:30 all gave thanks to Chesapeake Tribe No. 84, I. O. R. M. and left for their homes saying that they had never spent a pleasanter evening before.

Cool drinks and fine cigars at the fountain of Peoples Supply Company. Mr. Clifton Jones of here and Miss Rosa Skinner of near Farmville were visiting in the section of Nobles Town Sunday.

Mr. Leon E. Jones of here is rushing Miss Lula Modie of Roanoke Rapids, who is visiting at Mr. J. J. Nobles. He was Johnny on the spot Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. Wonder where was his Ayden girl, Miss A. D.

Mr. Jasper Jones of here was over in Nobles Town Sunday to see his Clara Bell. Wonder where was Roy Worthington, that he was not there also?

Mr. J. J. Nobles of here who has been with us for nearly two years has moved to Greenville. We are sorry to lose Mr. Nobles, but our loss is Greenville's gain this time.

Little Miss Rosa Lee Willoughby, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Willoughby died Wednesday morning after all that kind friends and loving hands could do for her. She was laid to rest in the family burial ground Thursday evening.

Mr. J. R. Turnage of Ayden was in our town Tuesday evening in his machine.

Mr. J. Arthur Tucker is on the sick list this week, perhaps feeding hogs did not go well with him and gave him a few chills.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wainright has a very sick baby.

Dr. Fountain of Greenville made a professional visit in our town Tuesday afternoon.

Mail Carriers Will Fly

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a most dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." Excellent for coughs, colds or any bronchial affection. Price 50c an 45¢. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Women to Discuss Missions

OTTUMWA, Ia., July 12.—Several hundred delegates from Iowa and Missouri points gathered here today for the opening of the third quarterly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Des Moines M. E. Conference. Many prominent missionary workers of the church are on the program and three returned missionaries will give addresses on the work in China and Burmah.

NOTICE

Of Special Term of Pitt Superior Court

Notice is hereby given that a special term of Pitt Superior court has been ordered to be held for one week beginning on the 22nd day of July 1912, for the trial of criminal cases. All defendants and witnesses take notice.

J. P. QUINERLY, Chairman
Board of County Commissioners,
July 3, 1912. 7 4 15td 3tw

Edward T. Young, of St. Paul, who served 4 years as attorney general of Minnesota, is out for the Republican nomination for governor of that state.

NEW YORK, June 8.—There is an excellent opportunity for economical women just now to replenish their summer wardrobe at comparatively small cost. The shops display a large assortment of lingerie and other summer frocks at quite reasonable prices and attractive gingham morning frocks and an unlimited supply of linen frocks ranging in price from $15 to $150 or even more, according to the fineness of the material and the amount of handwork and lace put in the dresses.

The separate white colored tub skirts for summer wear show more variety than usual, thanks to the popularity of cotton corduroy and of various new heavily corded cottons, which are successful rivals of the traditional piques, reps and linens. Cotton and linen eponges too are much used for separate skirts both in white and in a soft light tan. A popular shirtwaist house shows exceedingly chic skirts in this material as one of its specialties and has sold large quantities of them.

For wear with these heavy skirts any sheer lingerie blouses are all right, but simple yet very daintily made models in fine cotton marquisette trimmed only in fine tucking and made with himstitched turndown collars and sleeves, ending a little below the elbow are meeting with much success. Some of these little blouses have narrow hems of colored marquisette, but while the effect is charming, the all white blouses presents fewer laundering difficulties and will look well and longer than the one with touches of color:

Linen frocks of a simple sort but trimmed with contrasting color or material instead of depending entirely upon smart collars and cuffs and self trimming are numerous, and good effects are obtained with the quaint flowered linen of Jouy design in connection with plain linen.

Linen and sheer lingerie materials are combined in some of the imported models. Fine linen or batiste or marquisette may be used for long for long se mi-transparent sleeve and gulpe with an everybody and a skirt of linen, or the cheer stuff may form a chemisette, collar frills, cuff frills and perhaps some panel or glimpse of petticoat in the skirt. A full length panel of finely cross tucked linen was used with a tucked collar and tucked cuffs on one pink linen and another in a deeper tone of rose had a narrow full length front panel with a tiny box plait in the middle and little plaits or tucks on each side. Down the inch wide box plait were set small pearl buttons which were sewed on with black silk, and a smart little cravat bow fastening the finely embroidered lingerie collar was of black.

The grille or filet mesh linen is much used in combination with plain linen, and there are soft, heavy, loose woven cottons which have filet weave to match. These cottons are flecked with white in pepper and salt fashion and are very good looking in the cool grays and tans, though it seems possible that the loose woven stuff might stretch and pull out of shape. Some very likable frocks and suits are made up in gray linen, of which there are many lovely shades this season and these are best relieved by lingerie of the yellowish, antique tone, though frills and collars, etc., of pure white sheer stuff are pretty with the gray.

Many lingerie blouses are made plain without tucks or hand work of any description, but are enriched by collars, cuffs and a few insets of heavy lace, such as Milan or Russian. An attractive model is a long sleeved kimono waist, made of sheerest linen lawn, with collar, cuffs and V shaped yoke of heavy Point de Vincé lace, outlined with a full plaited ruffle of thin, hemstitched white net.

A blouse of striped mull and ratine has the front and back set in half inch tucks, which are hardly visible, as the stripe is not affected. The small round collar is of rose ratine of the same color as the stripe and this is edged with a narrow, hand made ruffling of white batiste scalloped in white, with tiny dots of the rose. This effect, elaborated by a row of pearl buttons, is carried out on the strip down the center front. The sleeves have a small cuff of ratine, finished with the embroidered ruffle and held together by two pearl buttons used in place of cuff links. This blouse launders unusually well.

9241—A SUITABLE, ATTRACTIVE DESIGN—GIRL'S DRESS, WITH THE BODY AND SLEEVE IN ONE, AND HAVING A FIVE-GORE SKIRT.

White linen was used for this model, embroidered in blue. The closing is at the side, but may be made at the center back if desired. The skirt has five gores, with inverted plait in the center back. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. It requires 2 3/4 yards of 36-inch material for the 8 year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

The Carpet from Bagdad
A NEW STORY by HAROLD MACGRATH

BRILLIANT tale of the Orient, full of color and with never a dull moment, is the new serial we have secured and which we will print in installments.

The Carpet from Bagdad

is probably the best and most fascinating story that has thus far come from the pen of Harold MacGrath. The plot, starting with the theft of a rare and holy rug by an American adventurer from its Moslem owner and sold to an American collector, is MacGrath's most salient stroke of originality.

You will enjoy following the fortunes of the little group of Americans who meet dangers amid the strange surroundings of the Near East, and who come home only to be involved in more dangerous and remarkable complications.

Jack Flynn, the former Pittsburgh-Washington first baseman, is playing right field for the St. Paul club.

The McKeesport O. and P. League team has a nifty pitcher in Bauer. He has come home a winner 15 times out of 13 starts.

Marty O'Toole of the Pirates is a hard luck pitcher. He has lost a number of games this season in which he pitched like a champion.

Heinie Zimmerman of the Cubs has a good start for the home-run record of the season, having 12 circuit hits to his credit.

Pitcher Harry Krause, formerly of the Athletics, now with Toledo, won the first game he pitched in the American Association.

The five-year agreement between the clubs of the Carolina Association expire this season and a new Virginia Carolina League may be organized.

In a recent game against Lowell, second baseman Howard, of Brocton, who has been sold to the Highlanders, made ten assists without an error.

The Washington team has been able to hold its own with everything on the American League circuit except Connie Mack's hirelings. The Athletics seem to have it on the Senators.

Evidently George Mullin does not intend to quit the big show this season. Detroit asked wavers on him, when he jumped in and pitched a five-hit game against the Naps.

It is about an even break in baseball between the New York and Boston teams. The Giants have won 13 out of 14 played with the Braves, and the Red Sox have copped 14 of the 15 games against the Highlanders.

George Pierce, the Scranton southpaw, struck out 22 Wilkesbarre batsmen the other day. Pierce has spent a short time with both the Giants and the Cubs and now looks to be ripe for another trial in fast company.

George Brown, recently released by the Philadelphia Nationals, has done some traveling during his big league career. He has been a member of the home team in New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Chicago, Washington and Philadelphia.

Lima and Newark share the record of playing the most sensational game ever played in the Ohio State League. The summary reads: 24 bases on balls, four batters hit, four wild pitches and a balk, one hundred and three batters toed the plate and 412 balls were pitched during the nine innings. Newark won 9 to 4.
