KITCHIN DEFERS NAMING ADJUTANT

Governor is Off to Boost His Own Campaign

TO APPOINT WHEN HE RETURNS

The State Has Offered a $250 Reward For The High Point Sender of The Infernal Machine Some Days Ago

RALEIGH, August 26.—An appointment of an adjutant general to succeed the late General Leister was expected to be made this evening but, was at the last minute deferred pending the campaign trip that will take Governor Kitchin from the city for several days. He left tonight, indicating that at least for the present he will continue Major Gordon Smith as acting general; also he has been advised and elsewhere wish to appear and urge the appointment of Major Glenn Brown, of Greensboro, and they will be heard. The appointment seems to lie between Major W. W. Pierce, of Goldsboro, Major J. J. Bernard, of Raleigh and Major Glenn Brown, of Greensboro.

Governor Kitchin this afternoon offered a reward of $250 for the arrest of Ed McIntyre, the High Point man who is charged with sending an infernal machine through the mails and causing the serious injury of two men. The machine was meant for a popular young woman of High Point, it was said and created wide interest. Immediately after the crime McIntyre disappeared and efforts to locate him have been unsuccessful.

Governor Kitchin has granted a reprieve until September 19 to Thomas Cox, who was convicted in Lee county last November of selling liquor and sentenced to two years on the roads, the action being taken on the recommendation of the trial judge, the solicitor assisting attorney, sheriff and others. The reprieve is conditioned on good behavior.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner returned to his office today after an absence of several days in the eastern part of the state in the interest of education. He spoke at Newlands, Pasquotank county Friday in support of a local tax and high school combination and on Saturday delivered an address at Wilson's Mills.

A charter was issued today to the Benson Fertilizer Company of Benson, Johnson county, the object being to manufacture and deal in fertilizer, etc. The authorized capital is $50,000 with $10,000 paid in by Alonzo Parrish, J. H. Godwin, W. D. Boon, J. H. Boon and R. T. Spence.

The Ellis Carriage company of Kingston is chartered with $100,000 authorized and $40,000 paid in by J. H. Ellis, L. M. LaRogue and Horace West.

Alleging that the Wake Water Company had violated its franchise in serving its patrons unfiltered water, a warrant was served on the officers of the company this afternoon and they will answer the police justice to the accusation. For two years the water situation in this city has been critical and this summer, it will be recalled, conditions were such that consumers were requested to use sparingly of the water. The board of aldermen took the matter up with the water company, who in turn said they would place the situation before their bondholders, in the hope of remedying conditions, but nothing was done.

The mayor and water committee, believing that he water was being sent to the customers in an unfiltered condition, made an investigation today with the result that the warrant was served this afternoon.

William A. Lamb, a veteran of three wars, died at his home, 323 Pace street Sunday morning at the age of 85 years. The funeral was held from Epworth Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, interment following in City cemetery. Mr. Lamb was born in Montgomery county August 30, 1827, and had lived in Raleigh for many years.

Mr. Lamb's first military service was in the Mexican war. At its close he was with the United States army in Indian campaigns in the Dakotas and took part in several skirmishes with the Red Men. When the Confederacy issued its call for soldiers Mr. Lamb again took up the musket and rendered valiant service for the south.

SECRETARY LOEB TO CLEAR T. R.

Former President's Secretary A Witness

ROOSEVELT APPROVES ACTION

Loeb States That Harriman Never Signified Willingness to Contribute to Roosevelt's Fund

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., August 26.—What Colonel Roosevelt knew and did in the matter of John D. Archbold's $100,000 contribution to the Republican campaign fund in 1904; what President Roosevelt said to the late E. H. Harriman and what Mr. Harriman said to President Roosevelt about Harriman's $260,000 contributions are matters to which William Loeb, Jr., formerly Roosevelt's private secretary, is prepared to testify before the Senate committee investigating campaign contributions, according to an announcement made here today by Colonel Roosevelt.

"Mr. Loeb told me last night that he had seen statements that he was to be brought down before the committee," Colonel Roosevelt said today. "He wished to come and tell me about these rumors. I told him that if he was called he was to go, of course and testify to everything."

Colonel Roosevelt was greatly pleased at the prospect of Mr. Loeb's taking the witness stand before the committee.

"While under no circumstances would I have ever asked Mr. Loeb to testify," said Mr. Roosevelt, "I am more than pleased that the committee chooses to do so."

"For instance, when I made my statement about Mr. Harriman in Mr. Harriman's life time, I let it rest only on my written letters, yet as the committee has chosen to listen to hearsay gossip by Mr. Odell and Mr. Archbold as to what Mr. Harriman said took place at that interview, I shall be glad to have them to listen to Mr. Loeb, who was present at the interview."

"Mr. Loeb heard Mr. Harriman ask me to get Mr. Bliss or Mr. Cortelyou to contribute funds to himself and Mr. Odell for the big campaign (neither Mr. Harriman nor I ever so much as spoke of Mr. Harriman contributing to my campaign) and Mr. Loeb himself telephoned to either Mr. Bliss or Mr. Cortelyou transmitting Mr. Harriman's request of me."

"Mr. Loeb also telephoned to Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou about the alleged Standard Oil contribution, making in my behalf the same request that I had made directly in the two letters and telegrams that have been published and receiving the same assurance that I had received that no Standard Oil money had been received or would be received."

Concerning the statement made by William Randolph Hearst yesterday in London in which Mr. Hearst urged him and Mr. Archbold and Senator Penrose to tell the "full story" Colonel Roosevelt had this to say:

"My attitude to the Standard Oil Company was precisely the same before election as after election as anyone can find out by turning to the files of the newspapers at the time of the passage of the bureau of corporations bill before I was nominated or elected when the Standard Oil opposed the law and I got it through by making the telegrams of the Standard Oil people opposing the law and showing their activity."

"As for any connection of mine with the Standard Oil people before or after election, any human being is welcome to make anything public about it of any sort, kind or description and if I had appeared before the committee today, I would have testified to every feature of it which I had any recollection or knowledge and submitted from my letter books and letters of mine dealing in any shape or way with the matter; and I should have been delighted to have Mr. Loeb who has been my private secretary, appear and give every particle of information that he has."

Colonel Roosevelt said that he had received today a telegram from Senator Clapp advising him of the inability of the committee to have him testify today. He said the telegram said that if he should testify it would have to be at a considerable later date.

CONGRESS HAS FINALLY ADJOURNED

Penrose Resolution Marks Close of Session

ONE OF LONGEST ON RECORD

Contrary to Expectations no Opposition Was Offered to Resolution Offered by Pennsylvania Senator

WASHINGTON, August 26.—Both houses of Congress adjourned sine die at 4.30 p. m. o'clock.

With Senator La Follette holding the threat of a filibuster that would indefinitely prolong the session, they passed without a roll call the Penrose resolution to have the Clapp committee investigating campaign funds inquire into correspondence or financial transactions between John D. Archbold, George W. Perkins, Colonel Roosevelt and members of Congress.

The scenes of Saturday night and early Sunday morning when every parliamentary usage was put forth to keep the Penrose resolution from coming to a vote, were in no way repeated today.

Leaders of both sides declared this forecasted an adjournment today. The only other possibility of delay was on the general deficiency bill, but leaders reached an agreement to leave the disputed state claims out of the measure until next session. This was agreed to by the House.

Senator Chamberlain who had threatened to keep Congress in session unless the claims were included in the bill this year, gave way to this plan.

Senator Martin of Virginia, explained the withdrawal of his opposition.

"We might defeat this bill," he said, "but that would not pay our claims. He might get the revenge that would come from defeating the measure, but I am unwilling to take that course."

The House practically had no business under consideration and only waited on the Senate.

As finally amended, the resolution authorizes the Clapp committee to probe the following points:

The statement of Senator Penrose made in the Senate regarding the Standard Oil Company's campaign contributions to the Republican National Committee of 1904.

Expenditures and contributions in the campaign for Presidential nominees this year.

Financial transactions and correspondence relating thereto, between John D. Archbold and members of the Senate and House.

Financial transactions and correspondence relating thereto, between George W. Perkins, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and members of the Senate and House.

On motion of Senator Warren, the Senate recessed from its amendments to the general deficiency bill, thus meeting the last apparent obstacle to adjournment.

This action struck from the bill the claims of Oregon, Virginia, Maryland and Texas and provisions for a month's extra pay for employes at the Capitol.

Senator Clapp, chairman of the special committee investigating campaign expenditures stated after the passage of the Penrose resolution that his committee probably would not meet again before September 30.

Gov. Johnson to Take the Stamp.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 27.—Gov. Hiram Johnson, the Progressive candidate for vice president, starts today on a campaigning tour that will probably last two months and will cover a large section of the country. The most attention will be given to the east. Governor Johnson expects to deliver his first important speech at the New York State convention of the Progressive party early in September.

Frank Wilson, The King Clothier, left this morning for New York, to purchase fall and winter novelties in clothing and mens' furnishings. Await his return as he will be sure to have something new and up to date to show you. 1td 1p

S. CAROLINA WILL DECIDE TODAY

Gubernatorial Campaign Comes to an End Tonight

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 26.—South Carolina Democrats tomorrow will vote to nominate candidates for all state offices, for the United States Senate, for house of representatives, for half the state senate, for all county offices and for all members of the lower house of the state legislature. Nomination is equivalent to election. The preliminary campaign has been very hard fought.

The chief issue has been between the candidates for governor. Cole L. Blease the incumbent, is seeking reelection and Ira B. Jones, of Lancaster, formerly chief justice of the state supreme court, is opposing him. Judge Jones resigned from the bench to make the race.

Senator Benjamin R. Tillman has two opponents, N. B. Dial and W. Jasper Talbert.

For lieutenant governor C. A. Smith has no opposition, R. M. McGovern, secretary of state, J. E. Swearingen state superintendent of education, A. W. Jones; comptroller general and T. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture, have no opposition.

For attorney general there are four candidates, J. Frazier Lyon, the incumbent, Thomas J. Peebles, J. R. Earle and B. B. Evans.

For state treasurer the candidates are S. T. Carter and D. W. McLaurin.

Three candidates are seeking the office of railroad commissioner. They are John G. Richards, Jr., the incumbent, James Canisler and J. A. Wharton.

In the first congressional district Representative Legare is opposed by H. Leon Laisey. In the second Harry D. Calhoun is running against Representative Byrnes. In the third Representative Aiken is opposed by F. S. Evans. In the fifth Representative Finley has two opponents, G. W. Ragsdale and W. P. Pollock. In the sixth Representative Ellerbre is opposed by J. W. Ragsdale. Representative Lever in the seventh and Representative Johnson in the fourth have no opposition.

It is thought the record vote will be polled.

MAY START WORK IN GUILFORD COUNTY

Federal Road Scheme to be Launched Immediately

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—When Speaker Clark's gavel fell this afternoon announcing the adjournment of Congress of the 394 members of the House of Representatives, just 28 were present to see the end. North Carolina contributed two members to this gathering, Representatives Godwin and Stedman. Representative Webb left for home last night after having been here all the summer and believing congress would adjourn this morning. Most of the other members left for their homes either Sunday night or a few days before. Mr. Page left last week. He will return to Washington in a few days to take charge of the capital's national headquarters. Major Stedman laughingly remarked tonight before leaving for Greensboro that he and Godwin were too young to be worried about the heat in Washington. Mr. Godwin will leave for the state tomorrow morning driving his automobile through the country.

Director of Public Roads Walter Page told Senator Simmons today that he would send experts to North Carolina to make arrangements for constructing roads under the Simmons bill as soon as he received the proper information from the state as to what counties have made appropriations for road building. It is understood that Guilford county is one of the counties which comes under the provision of Mr. Simmons' bill and it is more than probable that the work will be started at some point in Guilford.

"BLUE LAW" PASSED BY CONGRESS KILLS SUNDAY MAIL DELIVERY

WILSON TO SPEAK ON LABOR

Must Get It out of His System, He Tells Friends

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 26.—Governor Woodrow Wilson's plan for making only a few scattered campaign addresses and no stumping tours met with the approval of the members of the campaign committee with whom the governor conferred at national Democratic headquarters in New York today.

I am only to speak on particular occasions announced Governor Wilson, and there is to be no stumping tour.

In his announcing his itinerary for the next three weeks the governor revealed his intention of concentrating his attention on New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey with a speech on Labor Day in Buffalo.

"I have a speech in my system about workmen," said the governor, "which I have intended to get out for some time."

The governor is to speak outside of New Jersey for the first time when he addresses the State Grangers at Williams Grove, Pa., on Thursday of this week.

The governor said he had talked about campaign finances with National Treasurer Wells and Messrs. Morgenthau and Crane of the finance committee. He was in conference just two hours and had to rush to the Pennsylvania station in a taxicab to catch a train.

Chicago Ill., Aug. 26.—Roger C. Sullivan, of Chicago, former National Democratic Committeeman from Illinois, said Governor Wilson would make one speech in Chicago during the campaign.

Mr. Sullivan also said that Governor Wilson would speak at Kansas City, St. Louis and Lincoln, Neb.

Used Time to Advantage in Jail

NEW YORK, August 26.—Joseph G. Robin, who is in the Tombs awaiting sentence following his conviction for grand larceny in connection with the wrecking of the Northern Bank, is said to have made another fortune through speculation which he carried on while a prisoner.

With a view that Robin could furnish valuable information in the case now pending against former City Chamberlain Hyde the former president of the North Bank was not sentenced after his conviction, but was kept in the Tombs and during the day time, it is reported, he occupies a room in the criminal courts building, which is equipped with a telephone and typewriter. Here it is said, he has rebuilt his wrecked fortune.

One of Final Acts of Long Drawn Session

ALMOST WITHOUT A WARNING

Better Get Out of That Sunday Habit For Your Mail Will Not Even be Distributed During Sundays

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.—Without warning and apparently without knowledge the national Congress in dying hours enacted a piece of legislation which, it is now established, absolutely prohibits the delivery of mail, either letter or newspaper, on Sunday unless accompanied by an extra 10 cents under the guise of a special delivery fee. The act is perhaps the most stringent enacted since the days of the Puritans; it makes our recent alleged Sunday "blue laws" look like meek child's play and it puts congress in the attitude of having slept peacefully while Minority Leader Mann slipped through a piece of legislation which will make the average national legislator the laughing stock of his constituency when he comes home fresh from self-acclaimed honors of statesmanship and lawmaking.

Perhaps the first intimation of the law they had passed was given many members of Congress by the newspapers of yesterday. The first inkling of the law came in the form of instructions to postmasters from officials at Washington Sunday morning. Instructions to postmasters:

"The postoffice appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, provides:

"That hereafter postoffices of the first and second class shall not be open on Sundays for the purpose of delivering mail to the general public, but this provision shall not even prevent the prompt delivery of special delivery mail.

"Under this law you will close the general delivery carriers' window and lock boxes and discontinue all deliveries by carriers on Sundays. You will note, however, that special delivery mail is expected and you will therefore arrange to have on duty a sufficient force to handle this mail matter promptly.

"The department desires to reduce the Sunday work to the minimum so that as many of the employes as possible may enjoy a complete day of rest on Sunday. You should therefore require only a sufficient number of clerks to report for duty on that day in order that transit mail and the mail collected for dispatch may be handled without delay. If no mail is dispatched on Sunday a very early collection should be made Monday morning and the mail for local delivery distributed before the carriers leave for their first trip."

and towns in North Carolina affected by the law are:

- Asheville, Burlington, Chapel Hill, Charlotte, Concord, Durham, Elizabeth City, Fayetteville, Gastonia, Goldsboro, Greensboro, Henderson, Hendersonville, Hickory, High Point, Lenoir, Kinston, Lexington, Laurinburg, Lumberton, Monroe, Morganton, Mt. Airy, New Bern, Oxford, Raleigh, Reidsville, Rockingham, Rocky Mount, Salisbury, Sanford, Statesville, Tarboro, Thomasville, Washington, Waynesville, Wilmington, Wilson, Winston-Salem, Greenville.

Horrible Experience of Parents

GREENSBORO, Aug. 26.—Standing outside their burning home at White Oak Mill Village, two miles from Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. John Terrell, heard the dying moans of their five year old daughter and saw the flames envelope her body, unable to render assistance.

The family of father and mother and three children were awoken shortly before midnight by neighbors crying fire. The mother caught the baby in her arms while the father carried a 7 year old son from the burning structure. Terrell attempted to return for the sleeping daughter but was driven back by the flames.

Social and Personal

Courage.

She has not need of sword or spear.
She shelters in no guarded place,
She watches danger drawing near,
And front it with a smiling face.

Not hers the dull, unseeing eye,
Blind fury, and the lust of blood,
Across her soul no tempests fly,
No passion surge, in angry flood.

But clear as that great dome above
Which frames the sun and hides the star,
And quiet as the words of love
The motions of her spirit are.

And ever following in her train
Come two glad figures fair as she,
One with his foot on vanquished plain,
And one the foe of tyranny.

Where the sons of men are found,
And hearts aspire and deeds are done,
There Courage walks on holy ground
With joy attained and Freedom won.
