"Dog-gonnest" Night on Record Makes Sleep Practically Impossible

RESTLESS CANINES DO MUCH TO HELP THE HEAT

Disregarding entirely the reading of the thermometer throughout yesterday, last night brought no relief to the heat paralyzed Greenvilleans. "Restless, weary, etc." (in the words of the sad song) people tossed about in their sleepless beds last night, whilst a chorus composed of every available canine that paystax in our town, had a regular try out all night long.

"Iron" out and in the stillness of the starry night made a few cracks. Some two or three dead dogs testified this morning to the marksman unerring aim. But as the saying goes, "The King is Dead, Long Live the King!" so was it with the faithful servitors of mankind. If two or three dogs went beyond, twenty or thirty, or at is really sounded to the troubled mind, two hundred or three hundred took up the queu and continued the merry yodling. It was sure the "doggonnest" night ever yet.

SENATORIAL CONTEST IS WARMING UP

AGGRESSIVE CAMPAIGN TO BE MADE BY FRIENDS OF THE THREE CANDIDATES

WILL KEEP UP FIGHT TILL NOVEMBER

Raleigh, Sept. 1.—The senatorial campaign, which was inaugurated last spring when Judge Clark and Governor Kitchin, became active candidates, will open up from now until the election in November and it is expected that the friends of all three candidates will become aggressive. For six months Governor Kitchin has been carrying the campaign into every quarter of the state; Judge Clark has made over a dozen speeches in the last month and Senator Simmons' friends have spoken a score of times. Senator Simmons will not himself get into the fight but his supporters will and Judge Clark who is tied down by the sessions of the supreme court will make week end tours in the interest of his candidacy.

RURAL CARRIERS GET GOOD RAISE

INCREASE MEANS AN EXTRA EXPENDITURE OF OVER FOUR MILLIONS YEARLY

30,000 CARRIERS ARE AFFECTED BY IT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Under authority conferred by the post office appropriation bill Postmaster General Hitchcock today increased the salaries of rural letter carriers on standard routes from $1,000 to $1,100 a year thus affecting 30,000 men, with proportionate increases on shorter routes. The order will become effective September 30.

This will mean an increased disbursement of $4,000,000 a year. It is the second salary advance for rural carriers made in the last four years. At the close of the last fiscal year, on June 30, there were 42,031 rural mail carriers, the aggregate pay being $40,655,740. When the rural delivery system was instituted sixteen years ago 83 carriers were employed, at an annual cost of $14,840, the maximum individual pay being $200 a year.

The increase provides rural carriers adequate compensation for additional burdens to be imposed by the parcels post system, effective January 1. "The parcels post system on rural mail routes can be conducted practically with no extra expenses to the government, except the increased salary allowance to carriers," said Mr. Hitchcock. "In my judgment this additional cost will be more than offset by an increased revenue, thus insuring the maintenance and, from time to time, the extension of the rural delivery system as a self supporting branch of the postal service".

Mr. Hitchcock has directed also that rural mail carriers, on the completion of twelve month's service, be granted fifteen days leave with pay. This will require the additional expenditure of $80,000 a year in the payment of substitutes.

COUNTRY WIDE BOOTH SERVICES

Memorials Held in Practically Every Town

TRIBUTE TO DEAD S. A. GENERAL

Messages From Royalty and Presidents Poured Into the General Headquarters of the Association

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Filled to overflowing with fervent leaders and eager followers, Memorial hall at the National headquarters of the Salvation Army in this city was the official center of services held today at more than 900 Salvation Army posts throughout the country in memory of the late General William Booth. The services were also a part of similar memorials in 9,000 posts and outposts throughout the world, all of which being ordered at 3 o'clock, constituted, in difference in time is considered, virtually a continuous 24 hours service in which millions of followers paid tribute to the late founder of the army.

Services here were preceded by a parade of national and local officers headed by the national staff band. Over 500 men and women were in line.

The day was not only of memorial to the founder of the army but consecration to carry on his work for humanity under oath of allegiance to his succeeding son, General Bramwell Booth. The congregation sang the general's favorite hymns, while tributes which the king and queen of England, President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt, Joseph Choate and many other distinguished persons had paid to the general were read. In the absence of Eva Booth, commander of the American branch of the army, who had gone to her father's funeral, Colonel Peart, of the national staff, delivered the formal address of the day, extolling the character and achievements of General Booth.

The other speaker was Dr. D. L. Richie, head of the Theological Seminary at Nottingham, England, General Booth's birth place.

General Booth's three sons were educated in the seminary and Dr. Richie spoke from intimate acquaintance with the family.

T. ROOSEVELT IS FULL OF FIGHT

Gives Out Clapp Letter For Publication

SURE HE HAS ANSWERED ALL

From the Bull Moose Mansion in Oyster Bay, Ex-President Sends Note of Defiance to Bols Penrose

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 1.—In his letter to Senator Clapp, made public today, Colonel Roosevelt believes that he has a complete refutation of any testimony bearing on him that was given before the senate committee that investigated campaign contributions.

"I have answered every question as fully and explicitly as is possible," he said. "I think I have covered the ground. Of course I cannot go on indefinitely explaining the things which always are being brought up. They are brought up five million times and after I have explained them five million times they are brought up again, just as though I had never explained them."

To illustrate his point, the colonel said that his opponents were always saying that the corporations contributed to his 1904 campaign and that he had denied it, although he said, he had denied merely that money from corporations had been accepted in return for promises for favors from the government. In the Democratic text book, just issued, he said it had stated that the U. S. Steel Corporation had contributed $10,000 to his campaign.

"I never said that no such contribution had been received," said he. "I have no knowledge of such a contribution, but if it was made, I suppose it was a perfectly proper one."

Col. Roosevelt returned from Vermont this morning. He reached New York at 7 o'clock and came by automobile to Oyster Bay. He heard upon his return of what Gov. Wilson had to say about him in his speech in Pennsylvania Thursday when he criticized Col. Roosevelt's statement that he favored a more equal distribution of prize money.

The colonel said that he took exception to Gov. Wilson's remarks and would take up the matter in a speech shortly.

Col. Roosevelt will leave shortly on the principal speaking tour of his campaign. After stopping at Hartford from 11 until 2:30 tomorrow he will start for the west pausing for an hour at Springfield Mass. No other stop is scheduled until he arrives at St. Louis at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

Winked at-Defendant, Judge Fines Man

FAYETTEVILLE, Sept. 1.—J. L. Roberson, one of the noted dealers here whose cases have attracted much interest, was tried in criminal court and a mistrial resulted, the jury standing ten for conviction and two for acquittal. Last night Judge Bragow tried the two jurors who were for acquittal on the ground of contempt of court and improper conduct, the action being based on an affidavit of one of the jurors in the case. The juror, John V. Jones, came clear, while the other, H. C. Burke, was fined $50 and costs. An appeal was taken by Burke's lawyer, E. G. Davis.

Judge Bragow at a late hour set aside all other testimony and made his ruling on the evidence that the respondent, Burke, while walking the streets to dinner with the balance of the jury winked at the defendant, Roberson and that Roberson smiled back at him.

Alex Chuelles, a mail clerk, was pinned under the debris for five hours before it was possible to release him. Both hips were broken and he was otherwise injured. It is probable he will die.

General Manager Cantillon, of Chicago and Northwestern railroad, was in his private car with his family, but they escaped injury. He directed the rescue of the injured. The storm which caused the wreck was general throughout northwestern Wisconsin and property loss it reported heavy.

Love Affair Winds Up in Pistol Shooting

WILLIAM EASON A FUGITIVE

Two Revolvers Found Near Body of Willis Harrington, a Negro With a Rather Bad Reputation

At about 8 o'clock yesterday morning the body of Willis Harrington, a negro was found near the house of Mr. J. H. Whitehurst, a farmer of the Bethel neighborhood. Coroner Laughinghouse was summoned and towards eleven o'clock he held an inquest over the deceased.

According to the evidence elicited from the witnesses hastily summoned from the neighborhood, it was ascertained that another colored man, William Henry Eason, had done the fatal shooting and the coroner's report charged him with the killing, together with Susan Williams, the woman in the case.

It seems that Susan who does general housework for Mr. Jim Taylor and who lived with her parents had been carrying on a love affair with one of the men. Probably the other negro interfered or tried to, and the result was last Sunday morning's shooting. The three parties in the crime had got together Saturday evening at a dance in the neighborhood and together they returned to the Williams home in the small hours of the morning. William Harrington, unbraid Susan Williams for paying attention to Eason and this led to the quarrel in which Harrington found his death.

Several witnesses testifying before the coroner had heard the shooting towards four o'clock in the morning one of them especially, John Crandfall, who lives about 200 feet from the spot where Harrington's body was found, distinctly heard five shots fired, 3 in rapid succession and two a little after.

Moore, together with Geo. Johnson made an examination of the ground surrounding Harrington's body and close to him they found an Iver Johnson whilst 40 feet from the body, Johnson found a 32 Smith and Wesson hidden in a clump of bushes.

On being questioned, Susan Williams told that Eason killed Harrington, but that she took no active part in the killing. She was brought back to the local jail yesterday, where she is being held, whilst a thorough search is being made in an effort to capture Eason, who had made his escape before the murder had been discovered.

THE NATIONAL TICKET

POPULAR GOVERNMENT

In his speech of acceptance President Taft said the great issue before the people was the retention of "popular constitutional representative government". It never occurred to Mr. Taft that the greatest period of unrest in this country since the war days has been brought about by the millionaire trust owners, who, while shouting about popular government, have made a farce of common, every day justice. The Payne-Aldrich tariff tax, which Mr. Taft signed, did more than any other one thing to make the people dissatisfied with the particular brand of "popular constitutional representative government", that Mr. Taft and his aides have administered.

SUGAR PLUMS

The ownership of one half interest in the Western Sugar Refining Company netted the Havemeyer interests $12,950,000 in 21 years. In one year, 1898, this concern paid the Havemeyers six hundred thousand dollars. When the company was organized the Havemeyers put in a million dollars capital and the Spreckles people another million. Two years later this money was returned to the investors, so that all the profit they subsequently took out was "velvet". Thus the tariff on sugar is shown to be a good thing for the millionaire owners of the sugar trust.

CARNEGIE AND PEACE.

Andrew Carnegie is raising a hubbub because somebody praised Pittsburgh's part in the manufacture of equipment for fighting ships. "Pittsburgh's triumphs are those of peace," writes Andrew. Strange he was not so wrapped up in peace in the years gone by when he was piling up millions out of the manufacture of steel for Uncle Sam's warships. Wasn't it Carnegie's hirelings who shot down the Homestead strikers in cold blood when they tried to organize a union at the steel mills? He wasn't so peaceful then.

MEAT PRICES HERE AND ABROAD.

On Friday, August 24, prime sirloin of beef sold in London for 19 1-2 cents per pound and in New York for 28 cents per pound. Just at present prices are higher in this country than ever before, while the identical cuts that bring such high prices here are sold in London for about two thirds as much. This despite the water haul of 3,000 miles and the two rail hauls, first from Chicago to the Atlantic sea board and from Liverpool to London.

If the people of Pitt county have not considered the seriousness of the county senatorial question, it is time they were doing so. In the primary held on August 17th, there was no nomination for this office and a second primary will be held next Saturday to make a choice between the two highest candidates in the former primary. The people must choose between the two, hence it is important that they go to the polls next Saturday and vote for the best interests of the county.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

Majority Leader Underwood, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the House of Representatives, estimates that the American people would have saved just $650,000,000 next year had the Senate and the President approved the tariff revision bills sent up to them by the Democratic House.

WHEN THIEVES FALL OUT.

Senator Penrose and the Third Termer have a violent quarrel. And while they are snarling and hurling epithets at each other the public learns that the Standard Oil trust contributed $125,000 to the Third Termer's former campaign fund.

Hon. E. L. Daughtridge, Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor who is a Nash county farmer, contributed the proceeds of his first bale of cotton this season to the Wilson campaign fund. The bale sold for $52.20.

No sentiment is growing faster in North Carolina than that for good roads. There are a few moss backs yet who find more satisfaction in hauling a load through a mud road than over a hard surfaced road, but their number continues to grow less.

The country is about to open its eyes to vice following in the wake of social evils. In many cities the churches are waging warfare against these evils.

If you know a hotter day than Sunday, do not try to point it out. Services will be held each night this week in the Methodist church.

The Bull Moosers made a poor showing here Saturday and if they got beyond selecting a chairman we did not hear it.

It looked like Taft had the Republican county convention here Saturday.

This is Labor Day, at least for the rest of us. The bill collector did not take today off.

The oyster is about ripe for the stew, this being the first month with "r" in it.

WILSON STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels of Democratic National Committee Wants Voters to Make an Investigation.

WILL WIN LEGION OF FRIENDS

Slander is Not to Play a Part in Democratic Campaign, Declares Publicity Chairman.

New York, Aug. 8.—Josephus Daniels, Chairman of the Publicity Committee of the Democratic National Committee said to-day:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York and being a member of the Democratic National Committee I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton,' and a half dozen others of the works of the then republican nominee for President, I wondered whether or not I had gotten into the right place. I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures, and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writings of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers; nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath."

"Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land,—the farmers."

"They (workmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality."

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country."

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and, of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country."

Rural Route Directory

The Reflector has just turned out a rural route directory for Mr. L. A. Harper, who compiled it. This directory contains an alphabetical list of persons being on the respective mail routes and also the advertisements of many business houses. It is a handy book for reference when the address of persons in the country is desired.

The Men Who Succeed

As heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run down half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. After years of suffering with rheumatism liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Must Believe It

When Well-Known Greenville People Tell It So Plainly

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Greenville the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every sufferer of kidney backache and every man, woman or child with kidney trouble will do well to read the following:

Mrs. L. Mangum, 416 Dickison ave., Greenville, N. C. says: "Doan's kidney pills are by no means a new remedy to me. I have used them on different occasions and have found that they are a preparation of great merit. Kidney complaint and backache made me miserable and it was not until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from the John L. Wooten Drug Co., that I found relief. Recently I again got a supply of this remedy and it helped me as promptly and effectively as before."

THE HAPPENINGS IN WINTERVILLE

WINTERVILLE, Aug. 31.—Miss Esther Johnson is visiting relatives in Greene county this week.

Just call at A. W. Ange and Company's and look over his new fall stock. Bargains are in store for them who come early.

Mrs. E. F. Tucker, our hustling milliner, returned from Baltimore Wednesday where she has been to purchase her new fall stock. Watch The Reflector for an ad telling about her line of millinery.

Mr. J. W. Harper and Miss Pattie Sutton were happily married on last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. J. Jenkins, near Greenville. Both are very prominent in our town and have many friends here who wish them a long and happy life on their matrimonial sea.

R. W. Dall's market is headquarters for fish, beef, barbecue and sausage.

Miss Venitia Cox returned from a several days visit to friends at Gold Rock Tuesday.

Miss Maud Louise Keehn of High Point, who has been spending some time with her old school mate, Miss Venitia Cox, is having a jolly good time at Gold Rock visiting a friend. Those bright eyes always win for her the friendship of her associates in whatsoever clime she may reside, as they did in Winterville, but sometimes her baggage is left behind which causes considerable trouble. Here's hoping her a glorious visit.

Harrington, Barber and Company are now in a position to save you one and all, money on your purchases in the way of dry goods, shoes and notions.

The Reflector Publishing Company are quite fortunate in securing the services of Mr. G. N. Johnson, who will be correspondent for Winterville and vicinity. I ask for him the hearty co-operation of each citizen in order that he may be able to get the news of our city and report same.

Harrington, Barber and Company's stock of goods are arriving daily; come and see them and save money they will convince you that it will pay you to do so.

We are glad to note that Miss Blanche Cox is home after a successful operation for appendicitis at the Kinston hospital.

WANTED: 50 more good beef cattle and hogs at R. W. Dall's market. Shoes, blankets and rugs at A. W. Ange and Company's in abundance.

Mrs. J. L. Rollins and brother, Jasper Taylor, made a trip to Greenville today.

Misses Venitia and Olivia Cox and Helen Smith made a flying trip to Greenville today.

See the Union Mercantile Company when you want your fall and winter underwear. Work shirts, overalls. They will make prices right.

New goods coming in daily. Your attention is called to the fact that our prices are right. Come and see us. Union Mercantile Company.

We have just received a naby up to date line of hats and caps. We have them to suit any man or boy. Prices low. See us before buying elsewhere. Union Mercantile Company.

Mrs. A. D. and H. B. McLawhorn returned Friday from a business trip to Chase City, Va.

The Philocean Literary Society of Winterville High School met Friday afternoon and the following officers were elected for the fall term:

President, Masie Snow.
Vice President, Helen Leary.
Secretary, Lillie Dickens.
Treasurer, Flossie Strother.
Chaplain, Carrie Ytherton.
Supervisor, Lorena Dickens.
Critic, Miss Thompson.
General Directors, Mrs. Wyatt and Miss Dora Cox.
Chairman of Program Committee, Clyde Chapman.

Press Reporter, Olivera Cox.
Hall Committee, Selma Everett, Harriet Leary and Leta Tripp.

The directors and the program committee met immediately after adjournment and planned a special program for next Friday evening when the new members will be enthusiastically received into the society.

With The Boxers

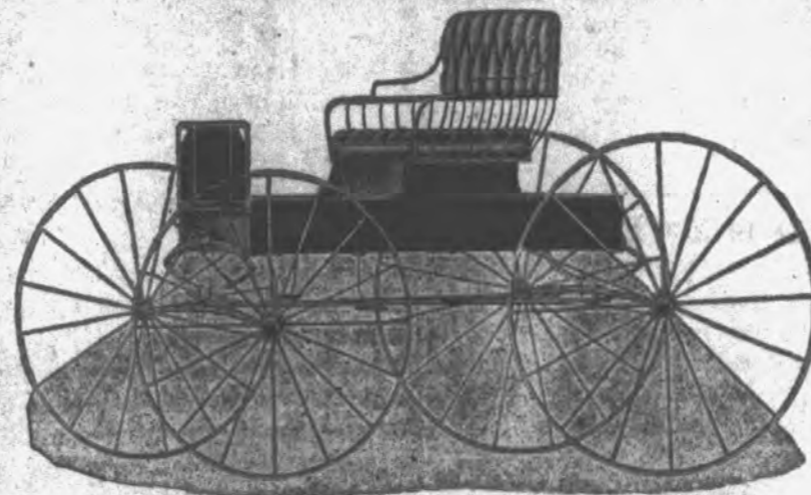

Rawhide Kelly, manager of Frank Picato, is trying to match Picato against Matty Baldwin.

Tommy O'Toole's next bout will be a clash with Tommy Dixon in Philadelphia, on Sept. 20.

The Gardner A. C. of New York would like to stage a 10 round bout between Champion Kilbane and Johnny Dundee.

Mike Gibbons' young brother Tommy is going to break into the boxing who is said to be a clever middleweight game next month.

"A man can sell his reputation once; after that he couldn't give it away". The same result will follow when a factory fails to give you value for your money. The rapidly increasing demand for Hunsucker Buggies, Tar Heel Waggon and other implements manufactured by the

A. G. Cox Manufacturing Co., goes to prove that they have won a coveted reputation in their line; and, believe me, they have no idea of selling out. Call on them and they will show you, by their works, why they hold the reputation they have.

The conduct of Colonel William J. Bryan at the Baltimore convention and since, has been of a character to excite the admiration of the country. Those who would withhold from him the credit for having been mainly instrumental in bringing about the nomination of Wilson, are simply so blinded by prejudice that they can not see the truth. The generalship displayed by Bryan was admirable. It bore the indiction on its face that Bryan was working for the good of the Democratic party and the country, with Bryan's ambitions and personal interests eliminated. This has been followed by a display of good judgment on the part of Col. Bryan in selecting the Western States, where his influence is greatest, as the scene of his campaign work in the half of Wilson. Whatever may be said of Bryan's mistakes in the past, he has made none this year, nor is he likely to make any. He occupies the position today of a public man whose usefulness to the country will be generally admitted.—Charlotte Observer.
