WILSON CLEARS IMMIGRATION POINT

Addresses Italian Delegation at Sea Girt

VISITORS ARE GREATLY PLEASED

Next Monday Wilson Will Make a Speech for the Newspaper Men Analyzing all Three Parties Before Them

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 5.—Governor Woodrow Wilson received two delegations of Italians today, one from Jersey City and the other from Brooklyn. He talked about immigration to them.

"There is no sort of visit more welcome to me now," he said, "because I fear that things I have written have been most grossly misinterpreted. I have had frequent occasions recently to meet delegations similar to this and it has been a great gratification to me that they all speak in generous language of appreciation towards myself but also with an extremely broad-minded apprehension of what my real position is and of what my real feelings are.

"That fact of the matter is that America has been enriched by having the aspirations of some of the finest races in the world brought to her shores. I don't know whether we ought to rejoice that other countries are in the same degree impoverished, but for myself, as an American along with yourselves, I rejoice most heartily in the circumstances that men of every European blood have brought to this country their highest aspirations, because they can't bring these aspirations without adding to the aspirations of the country and making the country greater and freer than it would be without them. For myself, I have never felt the slightest jealousy of the right kind of immigration and by the right kind of immigration I mean the voluntary kind. When men of their own initiative come with a preliminary love for or desire for America, to establish homes for themselves here and to identify themselves with the country, the result cannot be anything but good for the country itself."

The governor devoted himself for the most part to his correspondence today.

His next speaking engagement is Monday at the New York Press Club when he will analyze the three political parties, their platforms and aims.

Governor Wilson said tonight he would attend the Democratic state convention at Trenton, on October 1.

Graded Schools Will Open Tuesday, Sept. 24th.

The Greenville graded school for white people will begin on Tuesday, the 24th of this month. The colored school will begin on the 7th of October.

Following is a list of white teachers:

First grade—Misses Irvine and McFadden.

Second—Misses Bennett and Morrison.

Third—Misses Powell and Pike.

Fourth—Misses Olive and Watson.

Fifth—Miss Graeber.

Sixth—Miss Stephens.

Seventh—Miss Campbell.

High School—Misses Cox and Shotwell.

Music—Misses Carr and England.

All the teachers this year are from North Carolina, and all of them have had normal school training, together with from one to four years of successful experience. Of the new teachers, Miss Bennett taught last year in the Wilson graded schools, Miss Powell at Ayden, Miss Pike in Wake county, Miss Watson in Spencer, Miss Graeber in the Orphanage at Oxford, Miss Stephens in Asheville, Miss Campbell in Washington, Miss Shotwell in Kinston and Miss England in Lenoir.

At the colored school, C. M. Eppes, will be principal again. He will be assisted by Mrs. Amy Bowen of Washington and by two other teach-

SOME VALUABLE COTTON STATISTICS

ALTHOUGH MORE BALES WILL BE SOLD THERE WILL BE LESS MONEY THAN LAST YEAR

INCREASE QUANTITY, DECREASE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5.—The cotton crop of the south for the year ending Aug. 31st, according to statistics compiled by H. C. Hester, the secretary of the New Orleans cotton exchange, exceeded that of the previous year by 4,018, 331 bales, yet its money value was $107,074,825 less. This was due as much to the low grade of the crop as to the decrease in the price resulting from production. It was the lowest in grade of any crop for the past 10 years. Mr. Hester says that an acreage in cotton larger than ever before combined with favorable conditions resulted in a crop larger by 2,300,000 bales than ever before recorded. A further important factor, he says, that contributed towards the success of this monster crop was that the boll weevil was greatly reduced in numbers over its entire range, and says that notwithstanding the enormous quantity produced very little old cotton remained in the cotton fields at the close of the season and of that more than one half was held in stock by southern mills. He said approximately the amount of old cotton left over at 516,000 bales.

Colonel Hester states that during the past year there was the heaviest consumption of American cotton on record, exceeded by previous maximum of 08-09 by 1,858,000 bales.

In reference to American mills, Mr. Hester says the year's operations has shown greater activity than ever before in the history of cotton manufacturers. After two seasons of unprofitable business, values were readjusted on a more satisfactory basis and with an abundant supply the mills north and south materially exceeded their largest previous consumption.

He puts the world's consumption of American cotton at 14,515,000 bales, an increase over last year of 2,461,000 and over the year before last of 2,761,000. The insect was exterminated in an acre covering about 23,000 square miles in the northwestern portion of Texas and the western portion of Oklahoma.

For middling the average price per pound of 10.16 cents compares with 14.60 cents per pound last year, 14.37 cents the year before and 9.45 in 1908-09.

36 Years of Solitary Confinement

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 6.—Jesse of life prisoners in the United States, Pomeroy, probably the most notorious today rounded out his thirty-sixth year of solitary confinement in the State prison at Charleston. At the age of sixteen he was sent to prison for torturing and murdering little child ren. While solitary imprisonment is the name given to the punishment Pomeroy is undergoing, it does not mean that he never leaves his cell, are at work he is permitted to walk in a small yard where no eye except that of the guard can see him. During his many years behind the bars Pomeroy has educated himself from the books in the prison's large library.

Festival to Exploit Vintages

ST. HELENA, Cal., Sept. 6.—With the coronation of a carnival queen St. Helena today ushered in a four day's vintage festival, intended to exploit the viticultural and horticultural resources and industries of this section of California. The festival includes elaborate exhibits of grapes, wine grape juice, wine making machinery and decorative features suggestive of vineyard and wineries.

Names whose names will be announced later.

The school buildings are undergoing repairs and preparations necessary for the term. At the white school it is expected that the enrollment will be about 550 children. The largest school has yet had. The class of 1911 was the next largest, it numbered fourteen.

CLIENTS DEAD LAWYER SUSPECTED

Foreign Governments Causes Investigation

GIBSON MUST GIVE UP STATE

New York Lawyer Wanted to Give up Widow's Estate by the Austrian Government. Two Deaths One Missing

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Consular representatives of two foreign nations interested themselves today in the case of Burton W. Gibson, a New York lawyer, against whom the Austrian consulate started proceedings yesterday to have him removed as executor of the will of Mrs. Rosa Szabo, a widow.

She was drowned not long ago in Greenwood Lake, Orange county, in company with Gibson in a rowboat. She left an estate of about $10,000.

According to John J. Broderick, the acting consul general for Great Britain, Mr. Gibson was counsel and adviser for John Rice O'Neill, a British subject, who disappeared more than a year ago, after winning a $10,000 damage suit from a railroad company for loss of a leg. The British consulate made efforts several months ago to trace O'Neill, but without avail.

In 1906 Gibson was counsel for Mrs. Alice Kinnan, who was killed in her home in the Bronx. The murder was never solved. On the recommendation of the coroner's jury Gibson was held in $25,000 bail pending investigation of the case, but he was released, on a habeas corpus writ, and the matter was dropped. He subsequently brought suit for false arrest.

Mr. Gibson appeared at his law office in downtown New York this morning and said that he had no statement to make.

Kinston Youth Tries to End Life

KINSTON, Sept. 5.—U. S. Marshall Smith yesterday brought from Goldsboro and lodged in the county prison here to await trial at the fall term of federal court in New Bern, John Hinson, an 18 year old white youth of that city. Young Hinson was in a bad shape when he reached Kinston. In the station house in Goldsboro, dependent over his predicament, having been arrested by the federal officer for retailing, the boy savagely set about to end his life and all but succeeded. Hinson stabbed himself in the thigh several times, near the femoral artery and only the smallness of the incisions made by the penknife which he used prevented his making wounds which it would have been impossible to close. He bled profusely before medical attention was had.

Hinson's case is pitiable and it is

MUCH TOBACCO IN THE MARKET

Last Friday's Record Will Be Probably Eclipsed As Sales Are Expected to Continue All Day—Four Warehouses Completely Full

HIGH AVERAGES CONTINUE TO BE THE FEATURE

When that high figure was reached a week ago today in the Greenville Tobacco Market, few were those that expressed a belief that within a week that record might be shattered. Optimistic as we might always feel when it comes to predicting something good for "Our Greenville" we did not dare express the hope that close to half a million pounds would be sold in our market in one day.

Yet, to judge by the filled up warehouses and the amount of tobacco still being unloaded this morning, it seems certain that a new record will be set up today. Since four o'clock this morning, the warehouses were the centers of activity without limits. Clerks had not

SAYS HE CAN OUST WALDO

Ex-Inspector Hayes Threatens Commissioner

RESIGNATION TO FOLLOW STORY

Hayes, Dismissed by Waldo For Implication in Graft Scandal, Is Going to Tell About "System"

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Rhineland Waldo, New York's commissioner of police, incensed by statements attributed to Cornelius G. Hayes, deposed inspector, that Hayes would air departmental scandal and cause Waldo to resign, issued a drastic order today commanding Hayes to report at headquarters at once and state in writing whether he did or did not threaten the commissioner.

This further involves the police situation in that Hayes already accused of making false statements involving the commissioner, may now be tried on further charges.

Supreme court Justice Goff today granted a motion of District Attorney Whitman for the summoning of a special panel of talesmen from which to choose a jury to try Lieutenant Becker.

Mr. Whitman is back in town today after his conference of yesterday with Governor Dix and during the day will probably have another talk with Thomas D. Thacker, counsel for Cornelius G. Hayes, the demoted police inspector.

It is now definitely established that Hayes' chief reason in going to Mr. Whitman was to forestall any action against him by the grand jury pending his departmental trial on charges of making a false statement relative to Commissioner Waldo's attitude toward disreputable resorts.

The former inspector is quoted today as having said to the District Attorney:

"Let me alone until I'm through with my police troubles. It's certain that I'll be broke. Waldo can't do anything else, but if I'm put on the stand I'll tell a story that will cause Waldo to resign his job instantly. Yes, and it will go further and cause a sensation in the Mayor's office. I want to be free from any handicap that the grand jury might put on me."

Commissioner Waldo said that he had nothing to fear from Hayes and added that the former inspector would have ample opportunity to talk all he wanted to at his trial, which will be held at police headquarters tomorrow.

said that in addition to his self inflicted wounds he is the victim of a malignant disease. In the sick room of the jail here, he is doing well and is said to be in no danger from his cuts.

PRIMARIES ARE KILLING THE BOSSES

TEDDY ROOSEVELT CONTINUES TO PROMISE "GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE BY THE PEOPLE," ETC.

TALKS ABOUT THE FALLEN BOSSES

Minnesota State Fair Grounds, St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 5.—The nomination of Woodrow Wilson at the Baltimore convention was assailed by Theodore Roosevelt as the work of the Democratic bosses in an address today at the Minnesota State Fair Grounds to one of the largest crowds that has heard him during his present campaign.

In his campaign for the Republican nomination Colonel Roosevelt said the bosses were dethroned one after another in States in which there were direct presidential primaries.

"We beat Franklin Murphy in New Jersey, Senator Penrose in Pennsylvania and Senator Lorimer in Illinois," he said, "but no Democratic boss was beaten in his own state.

In most of the Democratic primaries the vote had been against Mr. Wilson. In most cases they were carried by Mr. Clark. In no case in the primary vote was a Democratic boss beaten in his own state. The bosses of the Democratic party were enthroned in power by the result of the Baltimore convention. The fundamental difference between the Democratic and the Republican bosses was that the Republican bosses knew that our triumph in the Chicago convention meant their death knell and in the Baltimore convention it was the bosses themselves who arranged the outcome because it perpetuated their rule.

"The nomination of Mr. Wilson was arranged by Mr. Taggart, of Indiana, and Mr. Sullivan, of Illinois, with Mr. Murphy, of New York, finally joining in."

Colonel Roosevelt denounced the Canadian reciprocity act as a "jug handled arrangement under which the farmer paid the freight."

Colonel Roosevelt replied to Governor Wilson's speech on the tariff in New York yesterday saying:

"If the tariff plank of the Democrats is not telling the truth, of course I need not discuss it with them. If it is telling the truth, and should be put into effect, it would plunge this country into a period of commercial disasters such as we have not seen in a lifetime."

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MET MONDAY

The board of county commissioners were in session on Monday, 2nd, with all the members present.

The following aggregate sums were drawn on the treasurer for current expenses: For outside paupers, $230; county home, $221.56; superintendent health, $62.50; jury tickets, $58.25; witness tickets, $328.70; judge, $100; clerk court, $94.35; solicitor, $26; stenographer, $31.50; sheriff, $43.25; constables, $21.90; justices peace, $19.50; mayors, $9.49; conveying prisoners, $9.10; court crier, $10; court expenses, $7.15; court house, $607.86; jail, $4.21; janitor, $25; register deeds, $13.70; ferries, $36; coroner, $121.80; printing and stationery $15; commissioners, $80.15; miscellaneous $20.10; general roads, $1,001.73; Beaver Dam roads, $2.83; Bethel roads, $226.37; Contentnae roads, $58.08; Falkland roads, $67.01; Farmville roads, $129.88; Greenville roads, $11.66; Swift Creek roads $6.26; county stock law, $41.25; officers salaries, sheriff, $333.333; register deeds, $250; clerk, $250; treasurer, $100; auditor, $50.

The reports of officers for the past month were approved. These showed collections as follows: sheriff, $313.89; register of deeds, $155.70; clerk, $500.65; treasurer, $96.49.

J. L. Harris, constable of Greenville township, tendered his resignation which was accepted and W. L. Patrick was appointed to fill out the unexpired term.

A petition was presented asking the board to lay out and establish the boundary line between Bethel and Carolina townships. The board of supervisors of the two townships were ordered to meet with the commissioners on October 7th, for this purpose. It was ordered that the commissioners of Pitt county join with

BULL MOOSE CONVENTION ADJOURNED

Mr. Waiser Will Lead The Moose Herd

HAD HOPED FOR TAFT UNION

Ditch Too Wide Now and Breaking up of the Party in North Carolina Has Been Accomplished

CHARLOTTE, Sept. 5.—When the Roosevelt Republican convention adjourned at an early hour this morning there was a feeling among those who had participated in the deliberations that they had performed a splendid day's work. The Roosevelt men during the eventful session of the Taft Republican committee, presided over by Chairman Morehead, soon reached the conclusion that further time spent with the Taft followers was wasted and in this state of mind set about to map out their plans for the future. The ticket as put out was the result of careful thought on the part of the convention members and the committees. Only on one thing was there a disagreement—that was on the question of a candidate for governor. The committee suggested two names to the convention—Chas. H. Cowles, of Wilkes, and Zeb V. Waiser, of Davidson—both of whom entreated the convention to give it to the other. Mr. Waiser was finally chosen, but before the final selection was made a plan of nominating Cowles for governor and Waiser for state chairman was presented but Mr. Waiser's friends wanted him to lead the "Bull Moose" cause.

Second only in importance to the convention will be the meeting of the grand committee of the Roosevelt Republicans at Greensboro next Tuesday when the question of a platform will be taken up and the proposed plan of uniting with the Progressives on a single state and electoral ticket in all probability perfected. Little trouble is anticipated in reaching an agreement since the action at Charlotte was taken only after conferences with Progressive leaders and an examination of the Charlotte ticket shows the names of a number of Progressive leaders as candidates of the Roosevelt Republicans. The electors put out by the Progressives were acceptable to the Roosevelt men and earlier in the day the convention had voted to accept Dr. Cyrus Thompson of Onslow, the Progressive candidate for governor, but Dr. Thompson refused to make the race on account of private affairs.

The Roosevelt Republicans had hoped there would be no necessity of a final parting of the ways between themselves and the Taft people but when pressure was brought to bear on Chairman Morehead to stand firm to the Mott resolution—and when nine members of the executive committee, not a majority of the entire committee of 21—proceeded to read out such lifelong Republicans as Cowles, Greene, and the other four, the Roosevelt men saw the handwriting on the wall. The Roosevelt men lost the chance of their lives to control the state machinery when they hesitated in the Raleigh convention last May to remove Chairman Morehead and elect a Roosevelt man as chairman and a Roosevelt committee. But they left a valve open and the reverse was applied to the steam roller, more coal put to the fire and the Roosevelt men either had to climb on the Taft machine or get out of the way. There were many and loud complaints by the Roosevelt men at what they termed outrageous treatment of them. Late in the afternoon the resolution which declares "we decline any further political relations with the adherents of Mr. Taft", was put through the Roosevelt gathering. This declaration of independence was made on about the same spot as the Mecklenburg declaration.

WAT MUTSUHITO ACCOMPLISHED FOR JAPAN

In July, 1912, in Tokyo, died a man who was at once famous and unknown. So utterly unknown was he, especially to the Occident, that he was called by the obsolete title of "the Mikadd". The Japanese have ceased to call their sovereign "Mikaddo" for fifty years past.

There is many a public character who must be bolstered up with adjectives and man made titles. Then there happens along, once in a Blue Moon, a doer of things to whom it were the height of impertinence to add a single stitch of embroidery, save a catalogue of his own achievements. Nobody thinks of calling Washington President Washington, none insults Napoleon by calling him General Bonaparte. Even so with Mutsuhito. And these are some of the things he had done:

Forty-four years ago, when he ascended the throne, Nippon was a house divided against itself—about as sadly as the new-born Republic of China is today. Out of the warring tangle he brought forth a race which on one occasion at least compelled a standard dictionary to revise the definition of "loyalty".

Mutsuhito found his people a semi-barbarous nobody amongst the nations of the world and gave them a place which is not so very lowly even in the eyes of John Bull and the German Kaiser.

From a collection of picturesque junks gay with crested sails and streamers and shining with spearheads and with no guns at all, to the 27,500 ton battle-carrier Kongo armed with eight 14 inch and sixteen 6 inch guns (with no spearheads and crested sails at all) is certainly a far cry. Yet that is precisely the distance which the Japanese navy traveled under the strenuous guidance of the Emperor.

This monarch who had been reared in the purple twilight of the Kyoto, in the bosom of absolutism, gave to his people the first, the only bloodless magna charta known to this history of the world.

At his death, the Emperor left his country a little wider than he had received it from his august ancestors—the dominant power in the Far East, the only Asian state which can rank with the first rate nations of the earth.

Alas, poor Marlon Butler. In Charlotte he left the Elephant wing of the Republican bunch and went over to Bull Moose headquarters with a view of becoming leader of the herd and the latter turned him down. Maybe he will have to go off and make another party composed of himself and Brother George.

It strikes us that we have heard that name, Thomas Settle, and seen it on a Republican ticket before. And like as before, putting it on the ticket will practically be the end of it until ticket making time comes again.

The Elephant and Bull Moose crowds are very far apart now, each having full separate tickets. But watch them have a trimming out and get together when election time comes.

Good for the Wilmington doctor who discovered an alcoholic distillation of the long leaf pine that will kill flies. It will exterminate the flies and at the same time make our pine straw valuable.

A Florida Democrat sent a young alligator to Governor Wilson with instructions to "feed it on stand pat Republicans". He must want to nauseate the 'gator.

The Republicans in their convention came out flat footed for local option. They always would ponder to the baser element. But anything in the hope of catching votes.

Congressman John H. Small made a big hit at the meeting of the waterways association in New London, Conn. His speech created more interest than any other delivered there.

North Carolina is going to lose another of its big preachers, Dr. Hutten, for seven years pastor of the First Baptist church in Charlotte, having accepted a call to Oklahoma city.

An exchange practically keeps the figures of its tobacco market standing at 300,000 pounds at an average of 15 cents. Of course anybody sees that such round figures are mere guesswork.

The Greensboro News says "The fool killer has had a long vacation". Still he could have found plenty to do had he not been loafing on his job.

You do not have to go away from home to find the best school. It is right here in East Carolina Teachers Training School.

People cook with gas and warm buildings with hot air, but the kind some of the candidates get off is fit for neither.

Democrats should not cast a vote in the primary tomorrow that they will regret.

If the vagrant law was more rigidly applied there would be more pickers for the cotton patch.

Craig bids fair to get the largest majority ever given a governor in North Carolina.

Because the other fellow does not see it your way is no reason that he is not as near right as you are.

In this state the Elephant and Bull Moose did not lie down together.

President Taft must be living pretty high, as the gout has struck him.

This is My Birthday

Yves Guyot
 Yves Guyot, noted economist and former minister of finance in France, was born at Dinan, France, September 6, 1843. After holding various public offices he was appointed a member of the Hirard ministry in 1889. Previously, as a municipal councillor, he attracted a great deal of attention by his attacks on the prefecture of police. These cost him six months in prison, but ultimately resulted in the resignation of the prefect of police. M. Guyot is probably the best known publicist in France. He has been connected with various newspapers, among them La Lanterne, Rappel and Le Siecle. He has published a number of works on economic political, and municipal subjects, as well as several satirical romances.

AYDEN, Sept. 6.—The infant of Mr. W. G. Smith was buried at Hancock's church Tuesday.

Miss Dorris Brown returned Monday from a visit to Rocky Mount.

Little Mary Alice Smith entertained a host of her friends Wednesday evening by celebrating her sixth birthday anniversary.

Our streets are thronged with strange faces of boys and girls and you can hear their merry laugh as they hurry to J. R. Smith and Bros. to get their school supplies.

The school at the seminary opened Monday under the most favorable circumstances; every train brings in new students. They have made other improvements on the school building. The floors in the auditorium have been elevated and the interior has been painted. Prof. J. E. Sawyer is principal and Dr. R. F. Pittman assistant and Miss Cora Sasser teachers of primary department.

If you want hardware, mill fittings, guns, pistols, cartridges, cook stoves, seed rye, lime, cement and plaster. J. R. Smith and Bro.

Mr. H. G. Munford lost a fine Jersey Bovine last week that cost him $125.00 with a disease commonly known as hollow tail.

Eterna vigilance is the price of success, is a true maxim and lots of times people mistake difficulties for impossibilities and those who sit on the corner, whittle, squirt tobacco juice and meddle with other people's business usually have two deep empty pockets in which to put their hands and curse the world for their lack of having spending money.

Mr. Robert Lester Jones, son of Monk or Wyatt Jones, who has been in the U. S. army for four years and has won considerable distinction for heroism is home on a furlough.

Mr. Grover Hardy and Cake Atkinson brought in the first bale of cotton. J. R. Smith and Bro. were the buyers and it weighed 462 pounds and sold for 11 1-4 cents.

Mr. A. G. Coward of Grifton made our sanctum a pleasant call Thursday. Mr. Coward is one of those who reflects in his life the image of him in whose likeness man was formed.

We have a car of No. 1 hard brick and lime to go with it. J. R. Smith and Bro.

Mattie and Pency Jones, two dusky maidens were up before his honor, Thursday and were given their choice, banishment or 30 days in jail and three days to meditate on it. The charge was vagrancy.

Mr. Richard Wingate has returned from the west with a car of horses.

Mr. Walter Gardner, who has been sick so long is slowly improving, while we learn his wife has developed the fever.

The graded school opened Thursday with entirely a new force of teachers.

Messrs. Walker and Willingham, of Durham, representing the American Tobacco Company, were here Wednesday and seemed pleased with the Ayden Tobacco market and predicted for it to soon be one of the leading eastern markets.

Plays And Players

Lucy Daly is to have a pretentious act in vaudeville.

Laura Hope Crews is to appear in a new play by A. N. Thomas.

Maude Adams' next tour will begin in October in Charlotte N. C.

Ben Hur will make a long tour of the English provinces this winter.

Maggie Holloway Fisher has been engaged for Pomander Walk, for next season.

Arthur Alsworth has just been engaged for the leading role in The June Bride.

John Drew's new play, The Perplexed Husband, deals with the problem of woman's suffrage.

Edgar Atcheson Ely will have a prominent part in a new comedy Our Own Peculiar Style.

Charles Klein's dramatization of Rex Beach's novel, The Ne'er Do Well, will have four actors from Panama in the cast.

Among the last of this year's productions will be The Money Burners, by Glen McDonough and Raymond Hubbell.

It is said that William Gillette will be seen in new plays some time during the next winter, but no definite announcements have been made.

According to recent announcements, both Henry Bernstein, author of The Thief, and Haddon Chambers have written plays for Ethel Barrymore.

Adrienne Augarde, who appeared last season in The Rose Maid, is to have a season in vaudeville and will present a playlet called Dick's Sister.

F. C. Whitney has engaged Marguerite Wright for the prima donna role in The Little Friend. Miss Wright had the part of Angel in The Pink Lady, last season.

Rae Selwyn, the sister of Edgar Selwyn, actor and playwright, is soon make her debut on the stage in My Best Girl, by Channing Pollock and Renold Wolf.

At Proctors Fifth Avenue Theatre in New York, the other day Jeff De Angelis made his debut in vaudeville. The skit he selected for this occasion was a farce called All at Sea.

A. H. Woods has added Sallie Fisher to the cast of The Woman Haters Club, to play the principal role of the widow. Later Miss Fisher may be seen in one of three musical plays M. Woods has in mind, The Lady in the Limousine, The Purple Domino, or The Lady in Red, all of which he hopes to produce this season.

Charles Dillingham's first bold stroke of the season will be the production of a musical play entitled The Lady of the Slipper. The piece is by Anna Caldwell and Lawrence McCarty, the lyrics by James O'Dea and the music by Victor Herbert.

Montgomery and Stone, Elsie Janis and Joseph Cawthon will act the principal parts.

Randleman Mills Visited By Fire

RANDLEMAN, Sept. 5.—The dye house, a part of the Deep River mills plant, was burned this morning about 6 o'clock. The damage, including building and machinery will reach about $15,000. Expert machinists had just finished placing a lot of new machinery in the building which was destroyed. The fire will not cause the mills to stop. The authorities announce that the mills will resume operation at noon.

This is the 1st time we can remind you to vote right in the primary tomorrow.

To Inspect Irrigation Works

CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 6.—Leaving this city tomorrow, the Duke and Duchess of Connaugh and their party will enter upon week of travel that will embrace much interesting sight-seeing and carry them into the heart of the Canadian Rockies. The first important stop will be at Gleich, where their royal Highnesses will inspect the great irrigation works and the huge dam that is being constructed by the Canadian Pacific across the Bow River. A short stay will also be made in Cochrane, in the foothills, after which the royal train will proceed to Banff, which point will be reached one week from today.

Taft at Waterways Meet

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 6.—President Taft visited New London today and delivered an address before the convention of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association. The address was delivered at historic old Fort Griswold, on Gronton Heights. The president arrived on the yacht Mayflower and was greeted with a salute of 21 guns from the battleship Illinois now in the harbor. A detail of Connecticut military acted as escort to the Hotel Griswold, where the President was entertained at luncheon.

No Real Hold Up Man This One

OSAGE, CITY, Kan., Sept. 5.—A masked man boarded a Missouri Pacific passenger train here early today and robbed the conductor, the ticket auditor and six men in the smoker. After obtaining only $20 the robber jumped from the train when it stopped at a water tank and escaped into a corn field. The conductor said the bandit was a "rank amateur".

Well Known Aviator Suffers Fall

OLEAN, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Bud Mars, the aviator, is in the Olean General Hospital with dangerous injuries, the result of a fall while he was making a flight at the county fair yesterday. His biplane, after rising from the half-mile track, suddenly dipped and crashed into the fence.

Pitt Ahead of Everything

Mr. H. T. King, who attended the Republican state convention in Charlotte tells us that along the way he kept his eye open as to crop conditions. He says that after getting out of Pitt county he did not see any crops at all that will in any way compare with what can be seen in Pitt.
