WAKE FOREST OPENS AGAIN

Largest Enrollment in The School's History
ALL AVAILABLE ROOM TAKEN

Wake Forest College Opened Day Before Yesterday With Every Sign of Another Successful Year

WAKE FOREST, N. C., Sept. 4.—Wake Forest College opened yesterday with the largest enrollment in its history. Most all of the old students of the three classes who did not graduate last year have returned to continue their work. The freshman class is the largest by far of any year heretofore and there is yet a number of fellows to come in. Every home, boarding house and dormitory is very nearly filled. Indeed the rooming capacity here is very limited. If the college had more rooming capacity, the number of students would be much larger than it is now. It is not over estimating it, when the writer states the enrollment this year will run close to five hundred. A few more days and the rush will be over, and the men will be right down at it. In every regard this year bids fair to be the best year in this history of the institution.

Dr. Hubert Mc. Poteat, who had a leave of absence for one year took up his active work this week as head professor in the Latin department of the College. Hubert, as we call him, is a much loved fellow by all the boys and it does us good to have him with us. He is a live wire in every phase of college life—athletics, societies, association work, and class room work. He is a genuine man.

The friends of the college will be glad to know of the action taken a few days ago by the trustees of the institution, regarding a new dormitory. This has been much needed for sometime and the trustees have at last heard the cry and are answering it in the form of a $40,000 building. The plans are being made and at a very early date the foundation will be laid for a new modern dormitory which will accommodate at least one hundred and fifty men. Every one is rejoicing over this good news, and before a great while we will have that which we need badly.

The Y. M. C. A. has planned to give a banquet in honor of this year's freshman class on next Monday evening. At this banquet it is hoped that most every man in college will line up for the work the association has planned. It is trying to give to the fellows that which they will most need when they enter the arena of practical life and that needed is character.

Today was the first practice of football. Capt. Holding tried out both the old and the new men. Everything looks hopeful. The whole line of last year's team has returned and most of the back field men. There are quite a number of new men who bid fair to make good and more than fill in the vacancies of the old men who will not return. Coach Thompson will reach here Monday and begin his work of whipping the men into the very best condition possible.

The largest senior class in the history of the college met today and elected the following officers:
President, Sam Long.
Vice president, L. C. Smith.
Secretary, Joe Waff.
Treasurer, N. E. Wright.
Prophet, Frank Smithers.
Orator, W. T. Baucom.
Poet, E. W. Lane.
Historian, J. L. Carpenter.
Executor, L. G. Young.
Stationalian, Henry J. Langston.

ENGLISH AVIATORS FALL TO THEIR DEATHS

THREE MILITARY "BIRD MEN" SUFFER FATAL PLUNGES WHILE MANEUVERING HIGH UP IN AIR

TWO OF THEM ONLY BEGINNERS

STEVENAGE, Eng., Sept. 6.—Two more British army officers lost their lives while flying today.

Captain Patrick Hamilton had taken Lieutenant Steward with him as a passenger in his biplane. The two officers had flown for a considerable time when a strong wind suddenly sprung up and in endeavoring to make headway against it one of the wings of the aeroplane collapsed.

The machine fell to the ground from an altitude of 250 feet and was destroyed. The bodies of the two officers were found in the wreck.

Captain Hamilton had obtained his pilot's certificate only on March 12th of this year. He was an infantry officer belonging to the Worcestershire regiment, but was attached for duty to the army flying corps.

German Novice Killed by Fall
Munich, Bavaria, Sept. 6.—A German military aviator was killed near here this morning during a reconnoitering flight. Lieutenant Steger, of the Bavarian army, had ascended in his biplane to make a report of the position of the opposing force in the local maneuvers. The weather was very stormy and when his machine had reached a height of 33 feet it suddenly buckled and crashed to the earth.

Lieutenant Steger died shortly after he was picked up. He was a novice in aviation, having obtained his aviator's certificate only three weeks ago.

Moonshiner Gets a Long Term

ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Sept. 6.—Abe Bryant was today sentenced to 13 years in the state penitentiary at Richmond for the murder of John Montcastle. The jury was out three hours before deciding on a verdict, several of them at first being for the death sentence.

The crime, committed November 9, 1911, was a cold blooded one. Both men were moonshiners and Bryant suspected Montcastle of telling on him. He met Montcastle and struck at him and when Montcastle fled shot him in the back. Bryant then escaped and was caught last January. His trial consumed four days.

BIG LUMBER DEAL THROUGH IN KINSTON

NORFOLK PEOPLE INVEST TO THE TUNE OF OVER $300,000 WORTH OF TIMBER LAND IN N. C.

TOBACCO MARKET GOING ON HEAVY

KINSTON, Sept. 6.—A transaction involving more than $300,000 was completed here when a transfer of the property of the Ellington-Bryant Timber Company and the Kinston Manufacturing Company was made to J. S. Deal and Sons, Ray and Thurman Deal, of Norfolk, Va. Prior to the transfer of the Ellington Bryant company's holdings to the Deals its property, which consists of some 125,000 feet of standing timber in Lenoir, and Jones and Duplin counties, was transferred to the Kinston Manufacturing Company and by the latter to J. S. Deal and Sons. After the transfer of the property had been completed a new company was organized and incorporated with J. S. Deal president; Thurman Deal vice president, and Ray Deal secretary and treasurer, and G. V. Cowper, esq., president director. The new concern will operate the large lumber plant heretofore operated by the Kinston Manufacturing Company. The mill is one of the most modern and best equipped of its kind in eastern Carolina and has a large daily capacity.

Big Event Coming Off in Thomasville

THOMASVILLE, Sept. 6.—An enthusiastic and well attended mass meeting of the citizens of Thomasville and community was held in the opera house last night for the purpose of perfecting an organization for Everybody's Day, a day set apart in each year in Thomasville. This year the celebration will be held October 5 and present prospects point to the biggest and best day that has been held yet. The mass meeting formed a permanent organization with the following officers: President, Mayor C. G. Hill; vice president, B. W. Barham; secretary, Charles R. Thomas and treasurer, J. A. Morris. Committees were appointed for the various stunts to be pulled off that day, such as parades, amusements, decorations, poultry, exhibits and others for the handling of the finances and other necessary ends to the day.

FIND FRAUD IN BLEASE'S NOMINATION

EVEN BEFORE INVESTIGATION IS BEGUN SEVERAL CASES OF BALLOT BOX STUFFING REVEALED

UNEARTH SCANDALS IN MANY COUNTIES

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 6.—The call of John Gary Evans, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, for funds to conduct the investigation of alleged election frauds, is bearing fruit. The call was not made until yesterday, but the fund is already substantial and it is believed it soon will become large enough to execute the entire investigation.

Some of the late information of fraud in the election is surprising. From counties where no rumors of corruption had escaped are now reporting specific instances. Darlington and Greenwood counties are the latest to unearth scandals.

In Greenwood county one of the boxes had 24 more votes in it than there were names on the registration list, another box had 18 more and still another had ten more than lawful.

In Darlington it was found that 58 names appeared on the list in the voting precincts that were not on the registration list and that in many instances one man was allowed to vote more than once.

Guilford Talks to Guilford County Voters
FAVOR THE REAL TAXPAYERS

Locke Craig Specially Invited Those Republicans Seeking Purity in Government to Join Democracy

GREENSBORO, Sept. 6.—Locke Craig, Democratic candidate for governor, spoke to the voters of Guilford county at the Grand Opera house last night, the burden of his speech being an attack on the Republican party for the industrial evils which he charged the party with allowing to creep into the life of the nation. He touched lightly on matters of particular state concern, dealing with the national question which he considered the people of this state should be concerned over very strongly.

He called upon Republicans who desire justice and freedom and national purity to join the Democratic party, always the party of progress since the nation began. Mr. Craig said the Republican party had been broken into fragments that will never become united again.

He spoke for more than an hour while the crowd which well filled the opera house, and in which were many women, withstood the heat. He drew frequent applause, particularly as he attacked the opponents of Democracy and the creators of the evils in the land.

Congressman Stedman presided and presented Mr. Justice to introduce the speaker of the evening.

Congressman Stedman said many years ago he was attracted by the personality of a certain young man, about whom he spoke then prophetically. Today, he said, he is the candidate for governor of this state and he ought to carry the state by a great majority, though it behooves every Democrat to go to the polls and vote. His name is Locke Craig and he will be presented by E. J. Justice.

His Counsel Implicates Mayor Gaynor

According to Hayes Mayor Gaynor Tied His Hands in Proposed Raids to Illicit Resorts in Gotham

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude formed the basis of a relentless cross-examination undergone by Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector suspended on charges of making false statements reflecting on the commissioner.

For nearly an hour Thomas Thacker, Hayes' counsel, sought to read into the record the mayor's speeches and utterances on the vice problem. Thwarted in his efforts by Terence Farley, assistant corporation counsel, appearing for the police department, the lawyer finally gained recognition from the trial commissioner, Douglas I. McKay, this declaration:

"I am merely trying to prove that Mayor Gaynor's policy was one under which the social evil was recognized as an unconquerable problem which had to be endured, but that the evil had to present a front of outward decency; that in the failure of Inspector Hayes to raid disorderly houses he was merely reflecting this policy, and that any orders issued to him by Police Commissioner Waldo were directly in violation of that policy."

Mr. Thacker was then permitted to proceed with his cross-examination along the lines he desired.

Does not Mayor Gaynor direct your policy toward vice? he asked Waldo.

He does not, snapped the commissioner.

Have you ever observed the mayor's views on the excise question?

The mayor's views, Mr. Waldo replied, almost before the question had been asked, "were given to the police in General Order No. 17 in 1910. That order is still in force.

Don't you know the mayor's views on vice are that we have to suffer this evil?

I don't know anything about the mayor's views except what he told me; he never told me anything like that.

Has Mayor Gaynor ever instructed you how to deal with disorderly houses?

He has never given me any instructions on that subject.

As a matter of fact, you didn't expect Hayes to raid disorderly houses within his district did you?

I expected him to raid every disorderly houses as to whose operations he could obtain evidence.

You knew, didn't you, that disorderly houses had flourished for six months in Inspector Hayes' district; that these houses were operating every day and that they were not being raided?

Yes, I knew it. I knew that disorderly houses had been flourishing in that district for a year. But I presumed that Inspector Hayes was making every effort to close them up.

Commissioner Waldo was a refractory witness. His replies were long and couched in general terms and he had frequent encounters with Mr. Thacker.

The district attorney's office expressed satisfaction today in the discovery of a Salvation Army lassie, who had rooms near the Hotel Metropolitan and was an eye witness to the murder of Rosenthal.

It is said that she can identify several if not all the men involved in the shooting and will make a valuable state witness. Another witness, a member of the Elk's Club here, has been traced to Tryon, N. Y., and an assistant district attorney was dispatched thither last night.

Russia Remembers Borodino

MOSCOW, Sept. 7.—Modern Russia looks backward 100 years to-day in bow to the warriors who met the French legions in the sanguinary battle of Borodino, the fight which greatly weakened the strength of the invaders and led later to the disastrous retreat of Napoleon from Moscow. The battle was fought 100 years ago to-day near the little village of Borodino, not a great distance to the west of Moscow, where an elaborate program of festivities was carried out today in celebration of the centennial anniversary.

CONTROL OF DISEASE IN THE TROPICS

Whatever influence the demonstration of the value of modern scientific medicine in the control of disease in the Panama Canal may have in this country, it is certainly having a good effect in tropical countries where the tendencies and ravages of tropical diseases are known. President Luco of Chile, in a recent interview in a New York paper, after describing in glowing terms the effect of the opening of the Panama Canal on commercial and financial conditions in South America, said: "The spread of plague and preventable disease has been one of the worst handicaps of tropical America. With sanitation such as that of Panama, there is no reason why South America should not maintain a vast population and support nations as advanced as any in the world. The Panama Canal opens the gateway to the western coast of the continent and the elimination of disease from the Isthmus renders an even greater service to all Central and South America. . . . We have decided that we would request Washington to lead us several sanitary experts from Panama, the men whose services won for your country such undying fame at least in South America. I personally would like to have the services of one of Dr. Gorgas' experts". Colonel Gorgas prophesied some time ago that the control of tropical diseases, making tropical countries a safe place of residence for white men, opened up an almost inconceivable field for the civilization of the future. Civilized man now has the knowledge necessary to make him free from many contagious diseases. Those diseases about which exact knowledge is lacking are rapidly being investigated. When the history of the present era is written, the most important facts to be recorded will not be those with politics or international relations. The historian of the future will regard as the most important event of the present period the acquisition, beginning about 1870, by civilized men of the knowledge and control of preventable diseases. The extermination of plagues and epidemics will naturally be pressed most vigorously in tropical countries where the danger has been the greatest. The Journal of the American Medical Association says that it behooves us in temperate zones and civilized communities to bestir ourselves, lest those nations which we regard as backward outstrip us in the race for better health. That nation which first learns to utilize all the knowledge of modern science for the prevention of disease will rapidly improve, physically, commercially and financially, and will take a long step toward the front rank among nations.

The "Side Table Talk" man of the Charlotte Observer has this to say of a Greenville citizen who attended the Republican convention in that city:

"How is it that Colonel Harry Skinner grows handsomer as his head grows whiter? His eyes are even more lustrous than of yore and as quick to kindle with the flash of anger, or sparkle with the humor of a hidden good nature. Skinner and Tillman would have made a great pair when the latter was in the height of his physical and mental vigor"

The "full dinner pail" racket has long since served its day and now the Republicans of this state hope to catch votes with the promise of a full tickler.

The Republicans want to overthrow prohibition in North Carolina, but they will never see the day it is done.

French Maneuvers Begin

PARIS, Sept. 7.—One hundred thousand soldiers, forming the greatest body of French troops ever assembled in time of peace, are participating in the grand maneuvers which began today in the valley of the Loire, near Tours. The troops are divided into opposing armies, one representing an invading force, and the other forming the army of defense. One of the most interesting features of the maneuvers will be the work of the new auxiliary of aviation, consisting of several score of aeroplanes and dirigible balloons, the first named to be used for scouting purposes and the balloons for transmitting instructions and orders by wireless.

Pietro Mascagni, the famous Italian composer, 49 years old today.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. P. J. CHENEY, & CO., Toledo, Ohio. The Republican convention which assembled in Greenville Saturday, August 31, 1912, adjourned to meet again on Saturday, September 14, 1912, in the court house in Greenville, at 12 o'clock, at which time a full county ticket will be nominated. After assembling this convention will resolve itself into a mass meeting and all who attend will be entitled to vote in naming a county ticket to the end that a good ticket may be named. We invite all good citizens, irrespective of past or present party affiliations who agree with us:
First. In retrenchment and reform and a more economical county government.
Second. Who are opposed to the passage of any stock law without submitting the same to a vote of the people affected.
Third. Who oppose the issuing of county or township bonds for the construction of public roads without submitting the same to the people.
Fourth. Who favor the building of a proper county home in keeping with the progressive spirit of the age.
Fifth. All those that believe in the essentials of local self government are cordially invited to attend this mass meeting and unite with us in nominating a competent, honest and clean county ticket for the next ensuing two years.

Notes From The Labor World

The International Convention of Operative Plasterers will meet in Milwaukee on September 30.

During the six months ending June 30 the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators organized forty-eight new local unions, the organization now having 944 local unions in good standing.

In Berlin several offices have been opened where women workers may lodge complaints as to the sanitary conditions of the buildings in which they work, without necessarily giving their own names.

The International Brotherhood of Bookbinders has sent out from the general office in Indianapolis the statement that the conflict which has been on for two years between the local unions in New York and the main organization has been settled.

A case involving the right of unions to execute their laws was taken to the courts in Tocoma, Wash., recently. A member of the local union of American Federation of Musicians began legal proceedings to compel his reinstatement in the local union without a corresponding compliance with laws in force in the local union. The court dismissed the petition, thus sustaining the local union in its position of interest on the enforcement of its laws.

Synopsis of the Petition Filed in the Above Cause

The petition in this proceeding for partition alleges that the plaintiff, Thomas Argall Vick, is seized as a tenant in common with the defendants in a certain parcel of land, containing 33 acres, lying in Pitt county, town of Greenville, which piece or parcel of land was formerly owned by T. R. Cherry and J. R. Cherry and which was known as the Brown Land.

The petition further alleges that the the plaintiff is entitled to an undivided one-eighth interest in said property.

The petition further alleges that a part of said 33 acres of land has been recently divided up into smaller lots and sold off to various ones of the defendants, other than J. B. Cherry and Mangie James and husband, and is not known as Perkins-town or West Greenville; and that the defendant, J. B. Cherry, is entitled to an undivided seven-eighths interest for life in that part of said tract of 33 acres, which is not now embraced in Perkinstown; and that Mangie James is entitled to an undivided seven-eighths interest in fee in said part of said 33 acres.

The petition prays a partition of said land or a sale for partition. The summons in this action was issued on the 12th day of August and is returnable on October, 3rd, 1912.
