ALLEN AND EDWARDS IN ROANOKE JAIL

Outlaws Met by Big Crowd at Depot

WOMAN COMES WITH THEM

Both Prisoners Declare Girl Was Not Their Betrayer. Pure Accident Was Cause of Their Arrest

ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 16.—Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, arrested in Des Moines, Ia., Saturday evening charged with taking part in the shooting up of Carroll county court at Hillsville, were brought here today, arriving on the noon train, accompanied by G. W. Baldwin, head of the Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency; Detective H. A. Lucas and G. O. Monday, deputy sheriff of Mount Airy, N. C. Miss Maude Iroler, the girl through whom the officers traced the fugitives to the western city also was with the party.

Despite the efforts of the authorities to keep secret the hour of the prisoner's arrival hundreds of people assembled at the station and watched the outlaws as they left the train.

From the station they were conveyed in an automobile to headquarters of the Baldwin-Felts Agency, where they were photographed.

An immense throng of curious people blocked the street outside the building.

Later Allen and Edwards were put behind the bars in the city jail.

Detective Baldwin gave out a statement this afternoon positively denying that Miss Iroler betrayed the fugitives. Mr. Baldwin says most emphatically that she had no knowledge whatever of the fact that she was being shadowed.

Allen Talks About His Home and Family

Cincinnati, Sept. 16.—In passing through Cincinnati, Sidna Allen, heralded as a desperate outlaw, quietly chatted with interviewers and after a grave and brushing up a bit, consented to pose for his picture.

In explaining his reason for wishing to make a favorable appearance when photographed, Sidna Allen said: "You see, I am a man of wealth at home," he said. "I have been a country merchant and am this day worth $50,000 to $60,000. I have a home place I would not sell for less than $25,000. I have two of the prettiest daughters in the South.

"I am glad it is over and will go back without a fight and face the music. I occupy my present position at the head of a band of outlaws because I was forced to it. We had too much whiskey among the neighbors and one night one of our crowd insulted one of the girls of the other crowd. At least they say he did. The sheriff vowed that he would wipe out the whole Allen gang.

"Nothing up to this time had ever been done. No crime had been committed by our boys, save that a chance slighting remark had been dropped. We would have punished the youngster who made the remark if they had left it to us.

"I was in the courtroom when the firing began which resulted in the murder. I know positively that I shot no one. I do not know who did the shooting. I did not lead the assault. It was in self-defense, and I would swear that the sheriff fired the first shot.

My nephew, Wesley Edwards, had no part in the start of the row. He came in later. After the shooting I ran.

"I could easily have stayed in Des Moines forever without being caught, but Wesley persuaded me to let him go back and see the girl. He dropped a letter which gave our hiding place away."

Wesley Edwards' story in the main substantiates that of his uncle.

Daughters of Confederacy

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at 8 o'clock Wednesday night with Mrs. Jarvis. Every member is requested to be present as officers are to be elected and delegates chosen to the state and national conventions.

W. VA. OPERATORS WONT ACCEPT TERMS

GOVERNOR FRIENDLY MEDIATOR

COAL MINERS AGREE TO PLAN SUGGESTED BY GLASSCOCK TO END PROTRACTED STRIKE

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 16.—Shortly afternoon today the coal operators in the Kanawha field under marital law as a result of a strike refused to submit their differences to arbitration as proposed by Governor Glasscock last Saturday.

The miners accepted the Governor's plan.

After the answers of both sides were received Governor Glasscock announced that he would later today issue a call for a general mass meeting of miners, coal operators and business organizations to be held in the capitol at ten o'clock, September 21, to discuss the situation.

This action is taken at the suggestion of business organizations of various West Virginia towns.

Young Man Elopes With Lady His Aged Father Was to Marry

STERLING, Ill., Sept. 16.—Richard Lewis, eighteen years of age, son of a wealthy farmer, eloped Wednesday night with Mrs. Hazel Champlin, forty-five years old.

Mrs. Champlin has been the housekeeper at the Lewis home since Mrs. Lewis died five years ago. She was to have married Lewis, Sr. Friday, and elaborate arrangements had been made for the wedding. She is an attractive blonde of the dashing type and the elder Lewis states that he will welcome her home as his daughter-in-law, although he had hoped to make her his wife.

The couple purchased tickets for Des Moines, Ia., where Mrs. Champlin formerly lived and where they are reported to have been married today. Mrs. Champlin has two sons, aged 16 and 19.

Tom Settle Challenges Craig to a Joint Debate

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 16.—Thomas Settle, Republican nominee for governor, today forwarded to Hon. Locke Craig, the Democratic candidate, a formal challenge for a joint canvass of the state. Mr. Settle's letter follows:

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 16, 1912.
Hon. Locke Craig,
Asheville, N. C.,

My dear sir:
The political issues joined between the two parties in North Carolina are of such magnitude and importance, that I feel sure you will agree with me in the opinion that they deserve to be discussed before the people fully, frankly and freely.

With this object in view, I ask that you name a time and place when and where I can meet you and arrange a list of joint appointments covering the state as fully as the time before the election will permit.

With high regards and personal esteem,

Sincerely,
THOS. SETTLE.

Record Breaking Sale of Sheep

WEISER, Idaho, Sept. 17.—Sheep breeders and dealers from many sections of the country gathered here today for the opening of the largest auction sale of sheep ever conducted in the United States. The sale will last two days and will comprise 12,500 thoroughbred and registered sheep, the property of the insolvent Butterfield Livestock Company. The list of animals to go under the auctioneer's hammer includes 500 Rambouillet rams, 900 Delaine-Merino rams, 600 Hampshire ram lambs and several thousand full blood Rambouillet, Delaine and Hampshire ewes.

12 NAVAL CADETS DROWN IN MICHIGAN

YOUNG MEN PREPARING FOR A NAVAL EDUCATION ARE CAST INTO WATERS OF A ROUBH LAKE

ALL BODIES NOT RECOVERED YET

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Three more bodies were recovered from Lake Michigan, near Lake Bluff today, bringing to eight the list of known dead in the accident yesterday when a 36-foot cutter, containing 24 recruits of the United States naval training station overturned while the party was out sailing.

Three boys still were missing. Searching crews under the command of officers of the station, dragged the lake for their bodies.

Included in the bodies recovered today was that of Chief Gunner's Mate W. E. Negus, who died heroically trying to save his companions.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Investigation was renewed at the United States naval training station at North Chicago today to determine the number of apprentice seamen who lost their lives yesterday afternoon in the accident in Lake Michigan off Lake Bluff.

Besides the five identified dead, belief prevailed that five and possibly seven others were drowned when the cutter they occupied was blown over. Privates Caminan, Winkler, Frickson, Shorack and Field cannot be accounted for.

Montreal Dog Show Opens

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.—The annual bench show of the Monareal Kennel Club opened in the Coleisum today with nearly 1,000 entries from Canada, the United States and England. Practically every breed of dog known to the fancier is represented. The show will continue three days.

Want Bull Moose Editorials Stopped

GREENSBORO, Sept. 16.—Superior Court Judge W. H. Whedbee has postponed the hearing of the petition of minority stockholders of the State Dispatch of Burlington, for an order to restrain the paper from publishing editorials favorable to Roosevelt and Johnson.

A majority of the stockholders voted to desert the Taft and Sherman ticket and support Roosevelt and Johnson, whereupon minority stockholders appealed to the courts, alleging the agreement of the corporation has been violated.

Rebels Across Border Losing Ground Against Federal Troops

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 16.—Fighting has ceased at Ojiniga, retaken yesterday by Federals.

Reports from Presidio, Tex., today said the Rebels had retreated to the hills to the south, according to advices received by General Steever, from U. S. army officers at Presidio. The Federals captured 17 rebels at Ojiniga. The Federal loss was given as "light."

Agents of the department of state and justice have left El Paso for Presidio, where U. S. Troops are holding Col Parcular Orozco, Sr., father of the rebel commander.

Col. Orozco, who was captured with Col. Pablo Orozco when they crossed the border Saturday evening probably will be brought to El Paso.

TO INVESTIGATE STUDENT'S DEATH

University Authorities to Make Probe

BOY BADLY HURT LAST YEAR

Will Mean Stop Once And For All To The Senseless Habit Of Hazing in North Carolina College

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 16.—A sweeping investigation is to be made of the tragic death of William Rand, a student who died Friday morning at the University of North Carolina after being hazed by a number of sophomores, four of whom are under arrest.

It is rumored that young Rand was stabbed during the scuffle incident to the hazing, but this report is emphatically denied. It is charged that hazing has been practiced at the university for years, one boy being badly hurt last season.

When the executive council meets to begin the inquiry President Venable will make a formal report on the tragedy.

Rand's Funeral

Smithfield, Sept. 16.—The remains of "Billy" Rand upon arrival here were carried to the Methodist church where the funeral services were held they being conducted by Rev. A. S. Barnes, of the Methodist church; Rev. T. H. Spence, of the Presbyterian church and Rev. J. B. Jackson, of the Baptist church.

The pallbearers were classmates of the deceased in the Baraca class.

The body was laid to rest in the city cemetery under a bower of flowers. The remains were accompanied from Chapel Hill by the father and brother of the dead boy, Mayor Wellons, Professors Noble and Patterson, representing the University, and several of the university students, mostly the Smithfield boys.

Dr. Potent Deplores Tragedy.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., Sept. 16.—Great concern is felt in Wake Forest over the tragedy enacted at Chapel Hill.

In chapel Dr. Potent called attention to the deplorable affair in its relation to the practise of hazing, which seems to be still indulged in more or less extent in North Carolina colleges. He voiced a hope that that this affair would put a stop to this phase of college life. While admitting that the death of young Rand was not premeditated, yet was it not for the hazing the accident would never have occurred. He extended the sympathy of the school to the faculty and students of Carolina, to the bereaved parents and to the unfortunate young men who so unwittingly caused the tragedy.

Lake Level an International Problem.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn., Sept. 17.—The International Joint Commission on Waterways, composed of representatives of the United States and Canadian Governments, met here today for a hearing in connection with the question of the levels of the Lake of the Woods and tributary waters. The commission will determine whether it is desirable to fix the levels of the lake, which is on the international boundary. The decision will be of much importance, since it will affect the dams and other works in the Rainy River, which empties into the lake and the Winnipeg River, which drains it.

Italy and Turkey Agree to End Over Possession of Tripoli

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The terms for peace between Italy and Turkey have been practically arranged with the exception of a proposed loan to Turkey of between 500,000,000 and 600,000,000 francs, concerning which Italy is now communicating with French, English and Belgian financiers, according to a telegram received today by the Paris Temps from Rene Paux, one of its editors at Geneva.

GANGMEN REFUSE TO TALK ROSENTHAL DEATH

IMPORTANT LETTERS WERE SECURED

GYP THE BOOD AND LEFTY LOUI REFUSE TO MAKE ANY STATEMENT IN CONNECTION WITH KILLING

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Harry Horowitz, alias "Gyp the Blood," and "Lefty Louis" Rosenweig, whose arrests on Saturday night completed the round-up of the gun-men indicted for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, were arraigned this morning before Justice Goff in the Supreme Court.

At the request of counsel for the prisoners, pleading was adjourned until September 18.

Former Magistrate Wahle, on behalf of the prisoners, asked to enter tentative pleas of not guilty with leave to withdraw, but decided to wait until next Wednesday before pleading.

The wives of the prisoners and Max Kahn, the alleged pickpocket arrested in the flat occupied by them, were held in $2,500 bail each, as material witnesses.

Horowitz and Resenwiz took a keen interest in the proceedings. They had no statements to make.

Horowitz and Rosenweig evinced no more disposition to give information or make any admissions than they did yesterday, when Assistant District Attorney Moss grilled them for three hours regarding the night when Rosenthal was shot down near the Hotel Metropole.

The two prisoners declined to talk about the murder until after they had conferred with counsel.

Forty or more letters and postcards found in the rooms of the two men, may furnish important information to the state's attorney.

Detectives ransacked the apartments from ceiling to floor.

Beneath the boards of the floor and tucked under carpets correspondence was found which Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty says is of importance to the prosecution.

Assistant District Attorney Moss was prepared today to make a demand upon the police department for these letters. Mr. Moss said he was unable to understand why the news of the finding of the letters had been withheld from him.

Boy Scouts Avert Serious Accident

ELIZABETH CITY, Sept. 16.—T. S. Only and wife had a narrow escape when their horse became frightened and ran down Main street, which was crowded with shoppers. Fortunately two "Boy Scouts," Ralph Barton and Lee Jackson, happened to be near, and caught the runaway horse, before he had injured both Mr. and Mrs. Only quite seriously.

Mgr. McCort's Consecration

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 17.—The Right Rev. Monsignor John J. McCort was today consecrated auxiliary bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Philadelphia with the title of Azotus. The ceremony took place in the cathedral in the presence of a large assemblage of bishops, clergy and laymen. The complete ritualistic ceremony of the church was carried out in the consecration. Archbishop Prendergast officiated as chief consecrator and the Right Rev. Monsignor McDewitt preached the consecration sermon.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Through Ohio and Indiana Governor Woodrow Wilson did some impromptu campaigning today that was as vigorous as it was unexpected.

No previous arrangements had been made for speeches and the train schedule was twisted by delays early in the day, but crowds gathered along the route and Governor Wilson made nearly a dozen speeches from his car.

He replied to former Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, who charged in a recent speech that Governor Wilson, if elected would be boss-controlled. State senator Fred Kistner and Mayor Fickle, of Logansport, Ind., boarded the train and told Mr. Wilson about Mr. Beveridge's speech so that when the Democratic candidate reached Logansport he hit at Mr. Beveridge to a large crowd.

"I understand that in a speech made last Saturday night," said Governor Wilson, "a very much esteemed friend of mine, namely, Senator Beveridge, said that he entertained a very serious fear about me, that if I were elected president I would be controlled by the bosses. I never suspected before that Senator Beveridge was a humorist; because if he did not know that was a joke, he ought to have known that it was a joke. When did you ever hear that I had changed all my political habits?"

"The way you can tell whether a man is going to be controlled by the bosses or not is to judge whether he is in reach of a boss or not. Do you know what a boss is? A boss is a political agent of certain special interests, who see to it, through him, that people they can control are put in office and that laws they don't want are kept off the statute books and the men who do that are the men who are interested in the great monopolies of this country.

"I am sorry to observe that whereas the Republican party has practically fostered the trusts and the Democratic party proposes to prevent monopoly in this country the third party, represented by Senator Beveridge, proposes to take the monopoly into partnership with the government by accepting it as an inevitable necessity and bringing it under the regulation of law; that is to say, making it a legalized institution of the country. And when the men who have created monopoly are accepted partners of the government do you suppose they are going to dispense with the men who are their necessary agents, namely, the bosses who determine who are to occupy office and what the legislation is to be?"

"Who created monopoly?" interrupted a man in the crowd, and he repeated his question several times.

"The men who created monopoly, my friend, to answer your question," continued the governor, "are the men who have taken advantage of protective tariff to get together to make great combinations of industry to shut out competition and to make sure that the prices are in their own control. And every Republican leader in our generation has been in league with those men."

"Who are they?" broke in another voice and the governor's reply brought cheers.

"They are the men who have set up the great trusts," he said. "Everybody knows the list of them. These men are the heads of the steel trust, of the tobacco trust, of the Standard Oil trust, and of all other trusts—that everybody knows. I am surprised that you didn't know the names of them before. These men have supported those who have controlled our government in the last 15 years and they are supporting them still. And I for my part do not entertain any hope of the government of the United States being freed from the control of trusts and control of bosses who are the agents of trusts, through the instrumentality of the adoption of the trusts into the care of the government itself."

HOW ABOUT THE SCHOOLBOY?

"One of North Carolina's crying needs today is the medical inspection of schools and school children," said a prominent health authority recently. "Why?" he was asked. "Because it is a wanton waste of time, energy and money for parents and the state to endeavor to educate children when they have to dig their education out while laboring under a lot of physical defects or handicaps. Did you know," he added, "that taken the state over about 22 per cent of the school children have defective eyes, over 50 per cent have defective teeth, 10 per cent have diseased tonsils and from 30 to 40 per cent have hookworm disease. To say nothing of those having defective hearing, bad nutrition, skin diseases, lung diseases, etc.? Furthermore, it is a crime against the innocents to send them to school to study under such handicaps."

Further inquiry brought out the following facts: Not one fond parent in a dozen realizes that there is anything wrong with his child. This is because many of these minor physical ailments have come upon the children so gradually that they are unnoticed by parent and child alike. Frequently one child will be found having several easily remedied defects. Many of these apparently minor ailments become serious defects or handicaps on the pupil's physical and mental ability if let go unheeded. Removing adenoids, fitting glasses to the eyes, treating hookworm disease, etc., frequently makes dull, backward children the brightest in the class. When such handicaps are removed children frequently advance in three years as far as they formerly advanced in four or five. Very few parents will permit such handicaps on their children when they once learn that they exist. The ideal remedy would be the medical inspection of every school child in the state at least once a year. The medical inspector and teacher to notify the parents of any defects found. The parents will then, in most cases, have these defects remedied at once, and the child will be restored to his normal vitality and given an equal chance.

But not all of our school and health authorities are fully awakened to the importance of medical inspection of school children. Many of those that do appreciate its importance are not backed by public opinion. In a number of places in the state they already have medical inspection and this number is rapidly increasing every year. In the meantime, the best that most parents can do is to take their boys and girls to their family physician, with the request that he examine them carefully for defective teeth, eyes and ears, as well as for tonsils, hookworms and all other physical defects. When such defects are found, they should of course be remedied at once.

GOOD ROADS TO BEAUFORT COUNTY LINE

There is a movement on foot to build a sand-clay road from Greenville via Grimesland to the Beaufort county line. We are told that people along the proposed road have already subscribed $1,500 for that purpose and a meeting will be held in Grimesland next Monday night to enlist the interest of the people of that section in the movement. Of course Greenville should take part in building such a road, and it was expected that the matter would be brought before Carolina Club Monday night, but the club failed to have a meeting. Such a road would benefit a large section of the county and there is hardly a doubt that Beaufort county would take it up and carry it on to Washington.

There is usually a woman in it. The arrest of Sidna Allen and Edwards was due to a lost letter to the letter's sweetheart and that of the two leaders in the Rosenthal murder was due to the carelessness of their wives.

Good Roads sentiment and state wide sentiment are two things that are growing in North Carolina. The next legislature will be expected to do something along both of these lines.

Carolina Club failed to meet Monday night, hence missed an opportunity to help build a good road.

GRADED SCHOOL NOTICE

The Greenville Graded Schools for white people will open Tuesday, September 24th, at ten o'clock. All residents who will be six years old by Nov. 1, and who are not twenty-one years old, may attend free of charge.

Registration

Admission to the grades will be by card. Excepting the beginners or first grade children, all persons who expect to enter the Greenville schools for the first time, all who have lost their promotion cards, and all who have examinations to take should come to the office of the school next Saturday or next Monday between the hours of nine and one. These two days are set apart for classifying, examining and assigning to the grades. None of this work can be done Tuesday morning.

Music

Persons desiring to register for music should call on or write the superintendent. It is not well to postpone attending to this. Those who register first frequently get the best advantages.

Tuition

All non-residents are charged a tuition fee. For the primary grades the fee is $1.50 per month; for intermediate, $2.00 and for high school grades, $2.50 per month.

For music the fee is three dollars per month. If more than one person in a family takes lessons, the rate is two and a half dollars per month.

I wish to insist that all persons who wish to see me about any school matters call Saturday or Monday. Do not wait till Tuesday.

H. B. SMITH,
Superintendent of Schools.
