WILSON CAMPAIGN FUND HAS ANOTHER BOOST

PEOPLE FROM COUNTY ARE REQUESTED TO ADD THEIR NAMES TO THE LIST AND MAKE PITT'S CONTRIBUTION LARGER

A few more names have been added to the list of contributors to the Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund. We expect to have this fund from Pitt county reach the century mark before Mr. C. C. Pierce sends it where it will do the most good to the Democrats in the coming election.

Mr. Pierce also wishes to say that contributions are by no means limited to Greenville people. This sum to be sent by him should be represented by every good Democrat in the county who can afford to help elect a Democratic president. Contributions from the county should be sent to Mr. C. C. Pierce or The Reflector.

GREENVILLE PEOPLE SPEEDING SOUTHWARD

FLORIDA EXCURSION BEING ENJOYED TO THE LIMIT BY TRAVELLERS FROM THIS CITY

N. CAROLINA BETTER AGRICULTURALLY
(D. J. Whichard)
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 18.—We are this far and still going southward.

With the present day conveniences of travel, it is not surprising that supper can be taken in one state to be followed by breakfast next morning hundreds of miles away in another state, for unlike those of flesh, the "iron horse" slacks not his speed day nor night and the passenger, tucked away in a snug berth behind, sleeps peacefully while his journey goes on unbroken.

Pulling out of Rocky Mount at 10.30 last night on the Atlantic Coast Line's "Florida and West Indian Limited," with a reservation through for Tampa without change, we were soon oblivious to all surroundings except the occasional "rocking the boat." The service of the Atlantic Coast Line on this train is superb, hence it is no wonder that the line is so popular with travelers between North and South. Even now, right in warm weather when travel is expected to be light, the train is a long one and every coach is filled.

Early this morning found us nearing Charleston, the earthquake city, and that being as far southward in the immediate coast region as we had ever journeyed before, we up and dressed ready to see whatever might present itself through the car windows from there onward. And we must say, that so far as the country is concerned, this wasn't much. We had got the idea somewhere that South Carolina and Georgia are great farming states, but the eastern section of the states crossed today is just not in the race with eastern North Carolina. Almost the whole section is flat and swampy, with not much cultivable land in sight. We looked in vain for what impressed us as a fine farm, but the day did not show one that we would give half of the "Avon," the Peebles place, or "Cottondale" for. However, the old saying comes to mind that railroads especially in making as near air lines as possible, run through the poorest looking sections of country and we feel sure that the interior of both these states makes a far better agricultural showing than the coastal plain.

Some thirty miles south of Savannah the turpentine plantations began showing up, and this was at least something new to us, even though much heard about.

We have heard many a time of "painting the town red," and saw a red town sure enough today. It is Ludowici, Ga., a town of good proportion in which nearly every building has a red roof. The secret of this is that a tremendous roof tiling plant is located here. It brings out the idea that the Ludowici people believe in home enterprises and use the product of home manufacturers. A good example, too.

So much for observations along the road. Next time we will tell something about Florida, the objective point of our journey and which is looked forward to as this is being written.

The temperature along the road today is about the same as that left at home which means plenty warm.

NICARAGUA REBELS INTERCEPT MARINES

TRAIN LOADED WITH SAILORS CARRYING FOOD TO THE STARVED TOWN OF GRANADA

LOYAL TROOPS ARE STILL FIGHTING
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Sunday, Sept. 15, via San Juan Del Sur, Sept. 19, (delayed in transmission).—For the last three days the Nicaraguan government forces have been attacking Masaya, the revolutionists, about twenty miles from the capital.

The troops have succeeded in reaching the outskirts of the city, forcing the rebels to retire to the fortress on Barranca Hill.

Major Smedley D. Butler, commanding a battalion of American marines, left Managua this morning to open the national railroad to Granada on Lake Nicaragua and to do this it was necessary to pass through Masaya.

As the train approached Masaya it was fired upon by the insurgents and the engine came to a standstill. The firing continuing the train backed out of range of the rebels guns.

Major Butler sent a note to the insurgent commander stating that his object was to open the railroad and that he desired to do it peacefully. The note added that is no answer to the message was received by four o'clock in the afternoon the marines would advance. General Zeledon, the insurgent commander, agreed to meet Major Butler and talk over the situation tomorrow morning.

The train bearing the American marines is also carrying a quantity of Red Cross supplies for the relief of the people of Granada, who have been reduced to the last stages of starvation.

Advices received at Washington from Nicaragua on Monday last said that American bluejackets and marines had been called upon by the American minister at Managua, Mr. Weitzel, to rescue from famine the pupils of the college for girls at Granada, who had been isolated for forty days. The college is a French institution.

Michiganders Brave Rainy Weather To Listen To Democratic Nominee

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWDS GREET WOODROW WILSON IN TRIUMPHAL TOUR. DELIVERED SPEECH AT DETROIT LAST NIGHT. HANDSHAKING FEAST

"Subjects to be Discussed in Present Campaign Are Tremendous"
WILSON LEAVES CAR TO SHAKE HANDS WITH HIS ADMIRERS

Roosevelt Takes Time to Vote Wilson Into Club

TRINIDAD, Col., Sept. 19.—A denial of statements attributed to Governor Woodrow Wilson in regard to the Progressive party's attitude toward trusts was made by Colonel Roosevelt in a speech here today. He said Governor Wilson had made statements which were not in accordance with the facts. Governor Wilson, he said, in his speech at Sioux Falls, S. D., stated that the method now proposed by the Progressives to regulate the trusts was suggested by Messrs. Gary and Perkins before the House committee which investigated the steel trust.

"And he stated it was done to save the United States Steel Corporation from the necessity of doing its business better than its competitors," declared Colonel Roosevelt.

"Neither of these statements is in accordance with facts. Not once only but again and again, in messages to Congress and in speech after speech while I was president I advocated the method proposed by the Progressives for handling the trust question which is practically the principle applied in the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"The overwhelming majority of men who control both the steel Corporation and the Harvester Trust are supporting either Mr. Taft or Mr. Wilson. They are certainly opposing me. Indeed, as far as I know, the only man connected with either organization who is supporting me is Mr. Perkins himself.

"Mr. Wilson further said that under the Progressive platform the corporation would control the market for labor and stated that the only chance for labor is in competition. He says that the legislation we propose would put the workingman in the power of the big industrial concerns.

"There is a very simple way of testing the worth of this statement. Has the interstate commerce law put the workingman more in the power of the railroads? Let Mr. Wilson answer this question. If it has, then it is his business to advocate commerce law. If it is not, and no man with an atom of sense imagines it has, then Mr. Wilson should in frank and manly fashion at once admit that he has made a rather absurd mistake and that there is not the least particle of ground for fear expressed.

"Mr. Wilson is a believer in the outworn doctrine of the benefits of unlimited and rickless competition. As a matter of fact every wise leader of labor and friend of labor knows that such unlimited rickless competition spells ruin for the majority of the wageworkers. That is why in the Progressive platform we advocate the really practical measures for giving to the average wage-worker a living wage."

Colonel Roosevelt spoke at La Junta before reaching Trinidad.

Missionary Union to Meet Here.
The Woman's Missionary Union of the Roanoke Association will meet with the Greenville Baptist church Sept. 23rd and 24th.

On Monday night at the opening exercises Rev. Livingstone Johnston, secretary of the state mission board, will preach the introductory sermon. The public is cordially invited.

The ladies of the church are urged to be present at both the morning and afternoon sessions of Tuesday. Miss Dickson, the Meredith Club organizer wishes to meet all former Meredith students on this occasion.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 19.—Governor Woodrow Wilson campaigned in the rain today as he traveled across the state for a speech here tonight. Every where en route where his train stopped, the governor was greeted by crowds who stood huddled under umbrellas while the candidate talked politics under trying conditions. The governor's speech here tonight was his principal speech of the day.

At many places on the trip across the state the nominee stepped down from the train and stood in the rain to shake hands with those who pressed forward to meet him. Several Wellesley college girls were on the same train with Governor Wilson and they came back to the special car to meet him.

At Kalamazoo, Mich., a crowd of collegians gave the governor a cheer. It was there that he made his longest speech of the afternoon.

"I have found that the subjects to be discussed in this campaign are so tremendous that they can hardly be handled in speeches from the rear end of the train," said the governor. "Moreover, the rear platform is not the Democratic platform this time. We are at the front and not at the back. But I must say that since I have got into Michigan I have felt a singular stimulation because we have stopped at several other cities, and everywhere there is the same spirit of hope and confidence.

"I can explain it only this way, that we are genuinely interested in the one subject that lies nearest to my own heart, namely, setting the government free. Because, whether it was done intentionally or not, there is no doubt about it that our government in recent years has been seriously entangled with special interests of various kinds and the men who got it entangled cannot get it disentangled. That is the whole point of the matter.

"There is no time to discuss here how we got into it or how we are to get out of it. But the point is that the people of the United States have made up their minds to get out of it, and there is only one team ready to do business and that is the Democratic team. I am speaking in the terms of a man who has been bred in a football college. I know the third team is not organized. It doesn't even know the signals and the regular Republican team is very much weakened. It has lost some of its principal players. But there have been no losses on the Democratic side. On the contrary, there have been a great many games since that game is familiar to the Democrats that we have to play now."

DUNN, N. C., Sept. 19.—Broken-hearted and despondent because she had been jilted by her sweetheart, Miss Ella Hudson, daughter of Y. B. Hudson, who lives about two miles from here, committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. She was dead when found in her room.

It seems that Miss Hudson was engaged to a young man or that they had been sweethearts for sometime. The supposed lover was married to another girl last Sunday. Miss Hudson heard of it and decided that life would be no more pleasure for her. She was last seen at ten o'clock when she went into her room. Her people called her to dinner and getting no response went to her room and found her dead.

Winston-Salem's to Save A Magnificent Hospital

WINSTON-SALEM, Sept. 19.—The complete plans and specifications for the new city hospital, which is to be erected on the Reynolds' race-track property in East Winston, will be completed within the next thirty days and will be ready for bid at that time. The property on which the new hospital will be located has already been purchased by the city and is capable of being greatly beautified by the landscape gardener's art. It is probable that the board of aldermen will appoint a hospital committee to look after the hospital proposition.

The grounds, containing five acres, and the building and equipment will cost $90,000. Bonds in that sum were recently voted by the city for the erection of a hospital.

The new building will have a capacity of 80 patients, 60 white and 20 negroes. It will have 22 private rooms, with four wards for adults and four wards for children.

There will be a large roof garden about 64x36 feet. Both the elevator and stairway will lead to the roof garden. There will also be a promenade for patients over the pathological laboratory and the morgue.

The latest system of signals by flashlight will be in vogue and the building will be connected with intercommunicating telephone.

Vann Jury Was Completed Yesterday in Elizabeth City

ELIZABETH CITY, Sept. 19.—A trivial case before the court this morning made proceedings in the trial of B. F. Vann, accused murderer of young Oliver Layden, the 16 year old Belvidere lad, late in the beginning. The prisoner was brought in the court room by Sheriff Reid a few minutes before 11 o'clock. Vann was closely followed by his aged mother and two sisters, whom he embraced and kissed affectionately. He talked timidly with his counsel and occasionally exchanged remarks with the members of his family about him.

He chewed tobacco the entire time he was in the court room.

Mrs. Vann shaded her face with her frequently and at such times appeared to be praying. The room was crowded to suffocation and the heat was stifling. Men stood in every available place and pushed within the bar itself. Both sides gave no indication from the questions put to the talismen of any plan they may have formulated of attack or defense.

At 7 o'clock this evening a jury was completed to try the accused, after a special venire of 150 had been exhausted and a venire of 12 had been called by the sheriff from the court room.

Court immediately adjourned until 9:30 tomorrow morning when the taking of testimony in the case will begin.

Up to the Executive Committee Says Locke Craig

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 19.—Hon. Locke Craig has just received Hon. Thomas Settle's challenge for joint debate on political issues and he gave a statement which in effect is that the matter is with the executive committee; that he would be glad to meet Settle if it could be satisfactorily arranged. He said, however, that he could not give his whole time to Mr. Settle, that he would have to recognize the Roosevelt wing of the party as he thinks an overwhelming majority of Republicans will vote for Roosevelt. He has special engagements lasting until October 12. He did not think the people were very much interested in the liquor question. He was very much pleased with the political situation.

Kitchin and Clark Forces Invade Burke County

MORGANTON, Sept. 18.—An acute and complicated political situation and perhaps one unprecedented in the present senatorial campaign was developed here yesterday by the combination of the Kitchin and Clark forces to jointly canvass the county in an effort to reduce the large Simmons majority.

The combination has sent circulars throughout the county advertising dates for speakings under the name of "county Democratic speaking" at the various townships, and only Kitchin and Clark supporters appear on the list of speakers.

Quite a lot of factional feeling has been aroused by the action, and it is being watched with intense interest.

Beef Barons Put Wings to Price of Steers

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Seven dollars a hundred pounds was paid for steers at the stock yards here today, and the steer were not particularly choice at that. For the same grade of animals $10.00 was received a few weeks ago. It was thought then that the top had been reached, but there were some wagers at odds in the yards today that before Christmas one or more lots of steers would command $13 a hundred.

Some of the animals which brought $11 today were branded, which means ordinarily that they were only a medium grade. A year ago, steers of this kind were bringing $8. The increase is 37 per cent.

One consignment of steers from North Dakota that were grass fed brought $9.75 in the open market, which is a higher price than was paid for the choicest animals a year ago.

Foxhall's Star Reaches Highest Average

For a total of 6,224 pounds of tobacco auctioned today on the floor of the Star warehouse, Foxhall's headquarters, the astounding average of $18.08 was made.

Notwithstanding the high prices being paid for tobacco this season, the Star's figures today will probably stand as a record, and should these figures be topped it surely will be at the Star. Of course all customers went home happy. They are all coming back with newer ones to sell their loads at Foxhall's Star.

BRUTAL HAZING IN OHIO

Middleton, O., Sept. 18.—Gordon Kyle, a freshman in the Middleton High School, lies at the point of death at his home at Kyle's station as the result of hazing. It is charged that he was compelled to push a pencil across the floor of the school gymnasium with his nose and while doing so was urged along by being frequently kicked, the result being that his spine was fractured.

GORMAN & GENTRY'S BULLETIN.
Our sale of Thursday was the largest in town. All houses finished by dinner. Prices were better on good tobacco. Our sale of 60526 pounds averaged 17.17. Considering the quality of the tobacco we think this the best sale of the season. All sellers went home happy.

Tar Heel Maid, Grieving Sweethearts Sui-cides

DUNN, N. C., Sept. 19.—Broken-hearted and despondent because she had been jilted by her sweetheart, Miss Ella Hudson, daughter of Y. B. Hudson, who lives about two miles from here, committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. She was dead when found in her room.

SOME TESTIMONY FROM ABROAD

In Holland there are no import duties on food or raw materials, the sole protective element being a tax of 5 per cent on imported manufactured goods. In Germany there is a high duty on food and an excessive tariff on all the necessities of life. A household of six persons can buy for $5.04 in Gelderland (one of the provinces of Holland) the necessities of life which in Germany, just across the frontier, would cost $6.78. As a result a village of 4,000 inhabitants has grown up at Glanerburg, near the German frontier. There German manufacturers have built houses for a colony of their workmen, because they can live more cheaply and better across the frontier in the foreign country, where there are practically no import duties.

GERMANS ADMIT TARIFF INCREASED PRICES

When the German government introduced its tariff law of 1902, it published with it, as is the custom in Germany, a printed explanation of the reasons for its introduction. This official document which squarely declares that import duties raise the cost of living, reads, in part, as follows:

"Inland prices are raised," so far consideration of the circumstances of the last 10 years will allow to judge, in proportion to the duties precisely this way the tariff increases the cost of the necessities of life in the life of the United States.

TARIFF TAX ALWAYS ADDED TO COST OF ARTICLES

In France, Italy and some other European countries a part of the municipal revenue is raised by duties on goods entering the towns. At the gates of such towns there is an official who collects this tax and it is found that the difference in prices of articles purchased outside of the towns and within the towns is in nearly every instance exactly the amount of the duty. The same happens in trade between nations.

WOOL TARIFF ROBS WOMEN

When a woman purchases $10 worth of woolen dress goods $4.87 of that $10 represents the actual value of the goods and the remaining $5.13 of $10 the amount of the tariff. In other words, should the same purchase be made in England where there is no tariff on woollens, the women would receive the same amount and quantity of dress goods for $4.87 that she pays $10 for in this country. This is because of the Payne-Aldrich ad valorem tariff of 105 per cent on this class of goods.

This is My Birthday

Kathleen Parlow

Miss Kathleen Parlow, the famous violinist, was born in Calgary, Alberta, September 20, 1890. As an infant she was taken to San Francisco by her parents at the age of five years she commenced the study of the violin. When sixteen years old she went to St. Petersburg, Russia, where she continued her musical studies under the direction of Leopold Auer. Miss Parlow made her public debut in 1908 and has since played in nearly all of the principal countries of Europe and America. She has appeared before the Queen of England, the German Emperor and numerous other members of the European royal families.

AN INSTRUCTIVE ZOOLOGY DISPLAY.

The menagerie and wild beast exhibit offered by the Sun Brothers World's Progressive Shows this season is a distinct feature. Here will be seen on exhibition the choicest selections of the zoological creation. They are all exhibited in massive and commodious cages and so arranged that all visitors to the shows can get an unobstructed view of them.

Uniformed keepers will be in attendance to explain the different characteristics and habits of the animals. The wild beasts are looked after with the tenderest care, both on account of their extraordinary value and the fact that few can be duplicated at any price.

This exhibition is not a collection of wild animals such as are commonly seen in zoological displays. Each is a splendid specimen of its kind and treated with the utmost tenderness and care.

The performing section of the Big Top performance as it is known in show parlance, is all new this season. An imperial program lasting two hrs. in duration is offered by artists of international reputation, including ring performers, clowns, aerial artists, sensational specialists, performing horses, trained elephants, acrobatic dogs, educated ponies, trained lions and leopards and various other features of human and animal nature, some familiar but most exclusive. The Royal Court Japanese Acrobatic Company, the renowned Cevece Troupe, the Electrique De Zamora the Mexican Juan De Zamora Aerial Troupe from the city of Mexico, the Great Barnetts; Miss Adele Dutton, the Equestre Queen, are among the star headliners in this big diversity of good things.

The show will spread its tents on the grounds at Greenville, Tuesday Oct. 1st one day only, afternoon and night.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Greenville People

One kidney remedy has known merit.

Greenville people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Greenville testimony proves it reliable.

Mrs. Joseph Fornes, 111 S. Washington street, Greenville, N. C., says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with the most satisfactory results and I know that they are a good kidney medicine. About a year ago I was troubled by symptoms of kidney complaint. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and I also had headache and pains through my kidneys. Dizzy spells annoyed me and I noticed that the kidney secretions were unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. brought me prompt relief and a short time ago when I again used them, they acted as effectively as before. I know that this preparation lives up to the claims made for it."

A CONSISTENT RECORD OF TRUE DEMOCRACY

NEVER FALTERING OR WAVERING A HAIR'S BREADTH.

The Democrats of the Fifth District honored themselves yesterday in unanimously renominating Hon. W. W. Kitchin for Congress for the sixth consecutive time. Mr. Kitchin, while one of the youngest men in Congress, is the oldest in point of service of any North Carolina member either in the House or Senate, and no man of his years in either House is an abler or more capable servant of the people. He was first elected in 1896, when the whole State was in the hands of the Fusionists, and he owes his first victory to a magnificent campaign in which he championed the cause of the whole people and handled without gloves the trusts that feed on the people, not forgetting to show how the tobacco trust, with headquarters in his district, was robbing the people. During all the years he has been in Congress, without faltering or wavering a hair's breadth, he has stood for fundamental Democratic principles just as his distinguished kinsman, Nathaniel Macon, did, against monopolies, and special privilege and the like. He stands firmly on Democratic ground. He does not fight special privileges in New England and be silent while the tobacco trust robs the farmer of his State. He does not declaim against the iniquitous ship subsidy and then vote for a more iniquitous subsidy to the Southern Railway because it runs through his district. He stands for principle and makes no exceptions or saving clauses for the trusts of his own State. It is because Mr. Kitchin's record has been so consistent and he has championed old-fashioned Democratic principles so ably that he has held the confidence and enthusiastic support of his constituents.

Four years ago, when some timid Democrats doubted the wisdom of "standing pat" on the Kansas City platform, Mr. Kitchin made a speech in the Democratic State Convention that has been equaled only once in this decade, and that was by the speech of Mr. Aycock in accepting the nomination for Governor. During the recent session of Congress Mr. Kitchin made several important speeches, the most notable being a masterly speech against the subsidy for the so-called fast mail of the Southern Railway and the L. and N. That speech exposed the pure subsidy of the sugar-coated proposition, and though able men sought to find plausible excuse or reason for supporting the subsidy—or "steal," as Ben Tillman calls it—no argument could answer Bill Kitchin's terrible onslaught upon it. He was powerful and effective because he stood upon the solid ground of an eternal principle. When he had finished the subsidy majority, that had formerly been large, "swunk" to one majority, thus foretelling its unhonored doom. While Mr. Kitchin does not belong to that class of statesmen who measure usefulness by getting "pork" for their districts—though securing appropriations for needed improvements is an important while the least service of a statesman—he has not failed to get money for public buildings for his district and for Guilford Battle Ground, and the Fifth District has more public buildings than any district in the State.—Raleigh News and Observer, July 3, 1906.

KITCHIN'S POSITION IN GUBERNATORIAL CAMPAIGN OF 1908.

(Extracts from speech of W. W. Kitchin delivered in Raleigh, June 4, 1908.)

"The Democratic party is in favor of regulating the natural monopolies, but you can not regulate trusts, for trusts are unnatural monopolies. I have found no intelligent man who thinks that we can fix the price of trust products. You can hedge them around as much as you please, but so long as they fix the prices they will plunder the people. But they will not plunder the farmer to the extent that they will kill the goose that lays the golden egg. They intend to pay the farmer enough to give him a profit, but they will fix the lowest price that will still keep him producing the products. When you find that you can not regulate them you are driven to the position that trusts are iniquitous and should not exist.

"When the monopolist fixes the price, a fine is no punishment on him. He will get it back out of the people. You must let the human beings back of them know that it is better to obey the law than to violate it, to let them know that if they hold the law in contempt and break it at will, they will be put behind the prison bars.

"These special interests will not pick me out as the nominee of the Democratic party if they have the power of naming the nominee. Don't understand me to say that the men who are not with me are under the railroad and trust influences—many are; don't understand me to say that Craig and Horne would not make good Governors.

"If they (the special interests) thought I was a bad man they would gladly present the evidence. I have incurred their hostility because I have always had the courage to stand for the rights of the people and have not acquiesced in their wrongs, because I have always stood for the interests of the people and have not courted the favor of the railroads and the trusts.

"Suppose they (the special interests) can defeat me in this campaign. Will they not say to your State officials and to your Congressmen and Senators, 'Behold the fate of Kitchin! Do you remember him? Kitchin's severest critic never accused him of deserting the people, of bowing before the public service corporations, and the people deserted him and retired him from public life. Now, Mr. Public Servant, you had better listen to us or we will turn you out of office.' They play politics all the time. Every corporation that seeks special advantages over the people plays politics all the time. Wherever they can secure a paper, or a clique, or a special influence, they have secured them already, for they never sleep, but always play politics.

"They say Kitchin is a dangerous man. I defied my critics to name one vote or act in all my career that was dangerous or unsafe, and they have never answered, and being unable to answer set about to mislead you and misrepresent me.—Raleigh News and Observer, June 5, 1908.

A PROPHECY FULFILLED.

When Hon. Chas. W. Tillett nominated him for Governor he said:

"If he is elected Governor, then he will be Governor. If he is elected Governor, then there will be no power behind the throne. If he is elected Governor, there will be no clique nor ring formed around where he sits. Historians tell us that the intrepid and independent Cato the Younger plunged a dagger into his heart rather than have a king rule over him, and I will tell you of a truth that if W. W. Kitchin has the alternative put before him, he will suffer his head to be severed from his body rather than have a boss rule over him.

Yet with all his boldness and independence of thought, I defy any man to lay his hand upon a single act of his that can properly be called revolutionary or dangerous. The pages of the Congressional Record will be searched in vain for a single vote or a single utterance hostile to the Democratic party or inimical to what he, in the exercise of an intelligent conscience, conceived to be for the best interest of his country. I do not deny that he has been bold and aggressive, but I do deny that he has done anything to frighten any persons except those whose consciences have made cowards of them.

My countrymen, the man I represent thinks that the evils which oppress and grind the face of the people should all be destroyed, but I promise you this, that in his effort to cast out the devils from the body politic, he will use no wand except that simple shepherd's staff of Democracy—"Equal rights to all and special privileges to none." No man that is engaged in any legitimate business will be disturbed by any agitation of his, but on the other hand, he will use every power that God has given him to conserve and preserve the magnificent resources of the State. Afraid of him? I tell you verily he will not break a bruised reed of a struggling industry nor quench a smoking flax of honest toil. Down from the humble farm where labor, in the sweat of their faces, "the man with the hoe" and the woman with the broom, all the way up to the gilded palace, where rest in luxurious ease the man with the bonds and the woman with the diamonds, he believes in absolute justice and equal protection for all. If you will make him Governor I will underwrite his bond and get ten thousand solvent freeholders of the State to sign it with me to the effect that when he has closed his four years' career it will be recorded in the annals of the State that the Commonwealth never had a Chief Executive who did more for the upbuilding of all its worthy enterprises of labor and commerce.

If we turn to the argument of party service, I yield to no man. I have heard it said that there were some others who did more for the establishment of white supremacy. Why, gentlemen, the man I offer you was born and bred in Halifax County, and he sprang from the loins of a man who bore a name that helpless children and defenseless women and timid men conjured with in the dark days of the Black Peril. And in our epoch-making contest for the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment not one upheld it with more zeal and ability than he, and the astute chairman of the Democratic State Committee caused over eighty thousand copies of his speech on the subject to be circulated all over the State.

TRUSTS SHOULD BE DESTROYED.

(Extract from Governor Kitchin's Inaugural Address of 1909 on Trusts.)

The man who by foul means willfully and needlessly takes the life of a rival, under our law forfeits his own. The corporate monopoly that by foul means willfully and needlessly destroys its rival by wrong-doing for the purpose of exacting unjust profits from the public, should forfeit its existence. All the power of the State in all of its departments should be exerted to destroy every unnatural monopoly, every industrial trust that commits wrong upon the people and their industries. And the fixed policy of regulating the natural monopolies, the public service corporations, should be maintained.

INSISTS ON PLATFORM DEMAND.

(Interview of Governor Kitchin in News and Observer, February 2, 1909.)

I consider our platform was a direct endorsement of the famous subsection A, which failed to become a law at the last Legislature, and in my judgment this Legislature ought to amend our existing law by adding the substance and effecting the purpose of that section.

STRONG AGAINST TRUSTS.

(Extract from Special Message of Governor Kitchin on Trusts, February 10, 1909.)

It is needless to repeat at this time facts and arguments showing the evil of private industrial monopolies commonly called trusts. Few advocate them, and fewer, perhaps, think them right.

The opportunity has come to make such conspiracies criminal and to prescribe punishment for such conspirators. You are face to face with the duty of obeying the mandate of the Democratic Convention.

A mere statement of the proposition that a conspiracy by purchasers to put down the price of an article produced by the labor of others is wrong, is so clear and convincing in its simplicity that it would seem idle to argue its justice to any American legislative body.

The universally acknowledged principle of self-defense, applicable to States as to individuals, would destroy a conspiracy so damaging in its effect and so general in its blight. The duty of repressing wrong and protecting those who can not protect themselves requires the lawmakers to put the whole power of the State against such conspiracies. I therefore recommend that the General Assembly comply with that declaration, because it is right and ought to be the law, and because the dominant party is pledged to its enactment; and I also recommend that the putting down or keeping down by purchasers of the prices of articles produced by the labor of others in pursuance of such conspiracy be made criminal.

Fear of the wrath of those who violate a moral principle, and who threaten, if the Legislature of the State of North Carolina complies with the wish of her majority, to punish the communities already in their grasp, rather than obey the laws, should not affect the judgment or paralyze the efforts, as it can not nullify the duty of those whom the people have chosen to do their will.

UNDIMINISHED HOSTILITY TO TRUSTS.

(Extract from message of Governor Kitchin to Legislature of 1911.)

Legitimate corporations and joint stock companies are beneficial and greatly develop the State, inspiring an enterprising business spirit, and no one can speak other than words of praise concerning them, but private monopolies are tyrannical and intolerant. A free people desiring justice and hating oppression should exert their entire governmental power to destroy them. Under our dual system of government the Federal law has sole jurisdiction over interstate commerce, while the State is supreme over commerce wholly within her territory. It behooves the government of every State to exert its entire power in contributing to the destruction of monopoly, the restoration of competition in industrial life, in limiting trust evils, in protecting her people, and in compelling compliance with and in punishing violations of her laws. I have endeavored to obtain from the several solicitors, who have in the last two years represented the State in the various judicial districts, definite suggestions which in their official experience or otherwise have occurred to them as proper amendments to strengthen our law. One of the ablest has suggested that the words "article or thing of value" used in said law probably included only tangible things and would not include telephone and telegraph messages. Although the Corporation Commission has the power to regulate their charges, I recommend that you consider the language used in the statute with the view of including practices which are prejudicial to the rights of the people, and for the purpose of including rates and tolls.

I also recommend that subsection "g" be added as follows: "For any person, firm, corporation or association to contract, to combine in the form of trust or otherwise, or to conspire with any other person, firm, corporation, or association in restraint of trade, commerce, or manufacture in this State."

I further recommend that an additional subsection "h" be added as follows: "For any person, firm, corporation or association to monopolize or attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person, firm, corporation or association to monopolize any part of the trade, commerce or manufacture within this State."

These two sections recommended are the substance of the two most important sections of the Federal Anti-trust Law.

I recommend that the use of coupons in packages of merchandise or other articles of value be forbidden in this State.

I also recommend that in purchasing goods, wares or merchandise for the use of the State or any of its institutions that it be provided that preference shall be given to the products of independent manufacturers and dealers.

The Constitution places the control of all criminal prosecutions in the Superior Court in the hands of the district solicitors.

I recommend that the Governor be authorized to employ special counsel to assist Solicitors in prosecutions under our anti-trust law, and to employ special agents to investigate the facts upon suggestions from a Solicitor that such investigation is desirable in any case of supposed violation of such law, and that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the compensation and expenses of such counsel and agent out of the public Treasury upon the Auditor's warrant issued upon the Governor's approval. I also recommend that said law be amended so that 40 per cent of the fines collected by virtue of any prosecution thereunder be paid to the Solicitor, such special counsel assisting him, and the private prosecutor or prosecutors, if there be any, in such proportion as the trial court may adjudge. I also recommend that it be provided that any violations of our anti-trust law shall subject the offender to a penalty of one hundred dollars a day, which may be recovered by any citizen of the State, and that any person, firm, corporation or association injured by its violation shall, upon having his actual damages legally assessed, have a judgment against the defendant for three times such actual damages.

ATTITUDE TOWARDS TRUSTS UNCHANGED.

(Governor Kitchin, replying to News and Observer, July 20, 1911.)

My attitude toward trusts has never changed. I am as anxious to aid in the destruction of private monopolies and the punishment of offenders as I ever claimed to be. I never said that I could destroy the American Tobacco Company or any other trust operating throughout the United States, if elected Governor. And yet you have tried to make your readers believe that I never promised the people to usurp the powers of the Legislature or the judiciary. I have always regarded the great trusts as pillaging plunderers of our progress, and I shall do what I can to relieve the people from their oppression under the Constitution of this State and the United States. These commercial pirates I have fought from my youth up to this day. I have always thought and still think rich and great offenders should be punished as well as others.

The Governor of North Carolina is the only Governor in the United States that has no veto power, and the Governor, without the power to veto legislation, can have little power beyond the reason of his messages, in securing legislation. You have constantly opposed giving the Governor the veto power. A striking comparison of the powers of Governors is found between the Governor of this State and the Governor of New Jersey, who has the veto power; who has the power of appointing the Secretary of State, the judges of the Supreme Court, the Clerk of the Supreme Court, the district judges, the Attorney-General, and the district attorneys. A Governor with this power, disposed to use the "big stick," can be very effective in legislation; and yet the Governor of New Jersey has not driven the American Tobacco Company—one of its chartered institutions—from its borders.

ANSWERS DEMAND OF THE PROGRESSIVE SPIRIT IN THE PARTY.

(Interview of Hon. A. H. Eller in State Press, August 21, 1912.)

Upon being asked what he thought of the senatorial contest, Mr. A. H. Eller said in effect:

Governor Kitchin is making another victorious campaign. This is hard for some people to realize, but it is plain enough to those who understand and sympathize with the aspirations of the Democratic masses.

There is and has been a considerable number of men in and out of the party who would shape and prejudice public sentiment against him, no matter when or to what public position he aspires—these men always have him "beat" until the people are heard from.

His services to the public and to the principles of Democracy stand out in brighter and bolder light the more they are carp at by his critics, or contrasted with the records of those who have opposed its platform and its policy.

The progressive spirit in our party today is a manifest purpose of the people to have leaders and public servants responsive, not to special interests, but to the general good. W. W. Kitchin answers this demand.

No vote or act of his, contrary to the declared principles of his party, will ever call for labored defense or expert explanation. A discussion of his public record will never be construed by his friends as reading him out of the party. Where he leads the rank and file can follow with confidence. He is able, true and courageous; his heart is pure and always with the people, and they are not tired of honoring him.

"Indeed, he seems to me None other than an ideal leader, Who reverences his conscience as his King."

WELL EQUIPPED.

I was a supporter of Governor Aycock, but since his death I am for Governor Kitchin. I have known Governor Kitchin well and favorably for many years. His long service in the House of Representatives and his general equipment well fit him for the duties of a Senator.

W. T. CRAWFORD.
Waynesville, N. C.

SPLENDID VICTORY VAST BENEFIT TO THE PARTY.

The writer recalls vividly the hard fight W. W. Kitchin put up to redeem this district when he began his political career, and what an incentive his victory was to the Democrats of North Carolina, especially this western section. The writer was a resident of Winston-Salem at that time, and in this district everything else went Republican from President down. "The only bright spot" was the election of "Kitchin," and it was celebrated every night during the week in Winston-Salem by about 1,000 young men, who marched through the streets. Your election at that time was of vast benefit to the party.

O. W. KERNER.
We heartily concur in the above.
FRANK F. KERNER.
R. P. KERNER.
JNO. G. KERNER.

EXPERIENCE—ABILITY—PRESTIGE.

If Governor Kitchin is sent to the Senate the people may rest assured that they have sent no new hand at the business, but one of experience, ability, and prestige. He served twelve years in Congress as a member of the House of Representatives, and he will have been absent only four years. Many with whom he served are still in the House, and quite a number of them are now in the Senate. If there ever was a time when a man's influence in the Senate was measured by his length of service instead of his ability and the things he stood for, that time is happily past. It must be remembered that the successful resolution to oust Lorimer from the Senate was one of the first acts of a brand new Senator.

W. D. TURNER.
Statesville, N. C.

THE OLDEST EDITOR'S ESTIMATE.

"The candidates for Governor now (1908) may not equal some of the candidates of the past for that high office, but in ability, character, training, experience, and personal worth, I recall none in sixty years I would place above W. W. Kitchin, and I am not a politician or office-seeker."—Dr. T. B. Kingsbury in News and Observer, June 21, 1908.

A DEMOCRAT IN EVERY ESSENTIAL.

In my acquaintance and association with the public men of North Carolina in the last thirty years I have not known a more conscientious, patriotic or cleaner public man than Gov. W. W. Kitchin. While a member of Congress with him for two terms he was beyond question the best debater and the most influential member of our delegation. He is an able man, a splendid speaker, well and favorably known in Washington, and I believe if elected to the Senate will exert an influence in our national affairs which can not be surpassed by any member of the present delegation. And, best of all, he is a Democrat in every essential of that term, and is much needed at this juncture of our public affairs when the principles of our party should be enforced, rather than be discarded and obscured as they are by some of our public men.

JOHN D. BELLAMY.
Wilmington, N. C.

FAIR IN POLITICAL DISCUSSION.

I consider Governor Kitchin one of the fairest men in political discussion I ever heard speak. I have heard the speech he is making in his present campaign for the Senate, and it is perfectly legitimate from every standpoint. He makes no personal attack on his opponent, but confines his remarks entirely to his public record, made up of his public acts and utterances. While his speech is bold and forcible, it is in no sense bitter or abusive. So long as the people are expected to rule, it is not only proper but necessary for public questions and the records of public officials to be discussed before the people.

NEY McMEELY.
Monroe, N. C.

IN ACCORD WITH WILSON.

Any one who has read carefully the speech of acceptance of Woodrow Wilson and caught the spirit of that great utterance must realize how well Governor Kitchin fits into the splendid scheme of government as outlined by the next President. Few men can be found whose life and political creed show them to be so well suited as he to serve in the Senate and help work out the program outlined for the new era.

O. MAX GARDNER.
Shelby, N. C.

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE PEOPLE.

In the ordinary acceptance of the word I do not consider Governor Kitchin in the light of a politician. He seems to be in partnership with the great body of the people and he boldly lays his cause before them, scorning the cheap tricks of the ordinary politician to flatter and fool and use the people. He has unbounded confidence in the intelligence and patriotism of the people and of their ability to govern themselves. He is a Democrat in the highest and best sense of the word.

RODOLPH DUFFY.
Jacksonville, N. C.

DEVOTION TO DUTY.

The indications in Mitchell are that Kitchin will receive at least two-thirds of the votes cast in this county, and his strength is materially increasing.

What I specially admire in the life and character of Governor Kitchin is his devotion to duty. His chief concern seems to be not whether a thing is expedient or popular, but whether it is right. The rule of right is the only safe rule to follow in statesmanship as well as in the ordinary affairs of life.

V. R. BUTT, M.D.,
Supt. Co. Board of Health of Mitchell County.

CLEAR MENTAL VISION AND SOUND JUDGMENT.

During all the years I have known W. W. Kitchin—and I have known him from his boyhood—I have detected no weak spot in his life or character. His poise and self-control are conspicuous characteristics. While he is alert in mind and body, he is never rattled or excited. On the floor of Congress, in the hurly-burly of a State Convention, in a joint debate on the hustings, in the office of Chief Executive—everywhere, he has carried the same poise and self-control and evidenced the same clear mental vision and sound judgment.

W. F. MARSHALL.
Raleigh, N. C.

LOYAL TO HIS FRIENDS.

One of the dominant traits of character in Governor Kitchin is his loyalty to his friends. He makes them few promises, but he never forgets them. This they know and they do not ask or expect promises. He went into the office of Governor without a pledge or a promise to any man, and if he is elected Senator it will be in the same manner. He is not now parceling out collectorships, clerkships, postmasterships, and the like, and promising them secretly to friends in return for services in his campaign. They know that if elected he will have a fair chance and a square deal, and they know he will not forget them.

LUTHER M. CARLTON.
Roxboro, N. C.

TRUSTS STILL AGAINST HIM.

It is a noteworthy fact that while the great majority of the people of Granville County are favorable to Governor Kitchin for the Senate, every American Tobacco Company man in the town of Oxford is opposed to him. His well-known hostility to the trusts is ample explanation of this fact. During his whole political career he has fought the trusts, and they have always fought him in return. They are fighting him probably harder in this campaign than they ever did.

T. N. BURWELL.
Oxford, N. C.

FINE TYPE OF PUBLIC SERVANT.

For nine years I have known W. W. Kitchin as Governor, Congressman, and man. I have a sincere admiration for him. He is a fine type of public servant. I believe he always endeavors to realize the high saying that "public office is a public trust." No purer man ever set foot in the nation's capitol. Eloquent, magnetic, forceful, fearless, with a heart beating for humanity, he would greatly serve and honor his State in the exalted office of Senator of the United States.

WHITEHEAD KLUTZ.
Salisbury, N. C.

ABLE AND PROGRESSIVE.

I have been familiar with Governor Kitchin's record while a member of Congress and since he has been Governor of North Carolina, and while he displayed conspicuous ability as a member of Congress, he has shown even greater ability as Governor. He has managed the affairs of the great State so wisely and so well that the people have made their greatest progress without turmoil or strife.

JOHN A. BARRINGER.
Greensboro, N. C.

NOT PURITANICAL.

While the life of Governor Kitchin is one of unusual purity, he is in no sense puritanical. He accepts men as they are made, knowing that some are weak and some strong, that some must be condemned, but not in bitterness, that some must be judged in charity, but that all are entitled to consideration. As a result all classes and conditions of men are his friends.

D. C. PARKS.
Hillsboro, N. C.

DEMOCRATIC AND PROGRESSIVE.

I regard Gov. W. W. Kitchin as one of the cleanest men I have ever known in politics. A man of his intelligence, of his undoubted democracy—being always progressive—and of his unflinching adherence to Democratic principles and platforms, should be our next U. S. Senator.

No person ever doubted where he stood on any question, and no person who knows him will ever conclude that he believes platforms are made to get in on.

My admiration for him is profound, and I sincerely trust that the people of North Carolina will learn in time, for the good of their own interests, that no better man for the position he seeks can be found in the State.

E. F. WATSON.
Burnsville, N. C.

A FOE TO SPECIAL PRIVILEGE.

Governor Kitchin's life has been in entire harmony with the best and highest conceptions and practices of the Democratic party both in State and nation. His record is so clean in both private and public life that his bitterest enemy can not attack it and there is, therefore, no need for his friends to defend it.

His long career in public life as Representative in Congress and as Governor has been one long, loud, persistent and consistent protest against class legislation of all kinds, and in him the protective tariff heresy, mail subsidies, the trusts and all privilege seeking interests have found an implacable foe.

The present progressive movement in the Democratic party as expressed in the platform of 1912, and as expounded by Woodrow Wilson, is the logical outcome of his life along advocacy of correct Democratic principles, and Governor Kitchin's supporters for the Senate naturally find themselves at the forefront of the Democratic procession, and in thorough accord with the spirit of Democracy.

MARK MAJETTE.
Columbia, N. C.

STRONG WITH THE PEOPLE.

At this time the whole country seems to be turning from the sordid policy of tariff for protection. It is unfortunate that any Democrat should sound a false note on this question. To protect the industries at home is all that any Republican desires to do, and home to him is his own district and his own State. Tariff for revenue only will triumph in the end and it will be a long time before the Democratic party will permit any man or set of men to commit it to a policy of protection. When it does, it will die and deserve to die.

In this crisis the party is fortunate in having leaders who sound the note of warning, and few there are who more ably expound the Democratic doctrine and hold to its fundamental principles with greater ability and tenacity than Governor Kitchin. He defends the party against the insidious attacks of special privilege with a power and conviction of right that makes him strong with the people.—Greensboro Record.

KITCHIN FOR THE SENATE.

We shall support Governor Kitchin because we believe he will best represent the progressive, militant Democracy of this State, and because of his ability, experience, and loyalty to the principles of his party, which demands equal and exact justice to all people. As a young man he withstood the temptations and pitfalls of Washington, and in his mature years he will not forsake the cause of his people.

The lamented Aycock was known as the Educational Governor, Glenn is known as the Prohibition Governor, and Kitchin should be known as the Progressive Governor, because the State has made more progress in almost every line during his administration than in any like period in its whole history.—The Clayton News.

EARNEST SUPPORT OF KITCHIN.

We believe Governor Kitchin measures up to the high standard set by the people, and like the immortal Vance, his heartbeats will be in unison with the throbbing heart of the great common people, and his official acts, if elected Senator, will express the will of the party, outlined in the Democratic platform, and therefore we give him our earnest support.—Warrenton Record.

THINGS KITCHIN HAS DONE

(ADVERTISEMENT) A Remarkable Career of Achievement and Fidelity to Duty

TRUE TO PRINCIPLE.

He has kept the faith. He has fought with his party and not against it. He has rejoiced in its victories and bravely shared its defeats.

HAS STOOD FOR THE PEOPLE.

He has stood for the people and not the special interests. He has fought greed and graft and special privilege in every form. His constant aim has been to lift the burdens from the people and not to favor a few at the expense of the many.

A SUCCESSFUL WORKER.

At 18 years of age he was successfully editing a Democratic newspaper. At 24 he was Democratic Chairman of his county and carried it for his party for the first time in many years.

He has made as many speeches in behalf of Democracy as any man in the State and more speeches in joint debate against Republicans. He has always been in the thickest of the fight for Democratic principles.

REDEEMED FIFTH DISTRICT.

He redeemed the Fifth District for Democracy by defeating Hon. Thos. Settle, when every other Democrat on the State and National ticket went down in defeat. So ably and successfully did he represent his people in Congress that he was re-elected for five successive terms without Democratic opposition.

HIGH RANK IN CONGRESS.

In Congress he became ranking Democratic member of the Naval Committee and established a reputation as a ready debater of conspicuous ability.

RAILWAY FAST MAIL SUBSIDY.

He was a leader in the fight which destroyed the railway fast mail subsidy, thus saving hundreds of thousands of dollars of the people's money.

ARMOR PLATE TRUST.

He was a leader in the fight against the armor plate trust which forced a reduction sometimes of nearly $200 a ton on armor plate. This reduction on the armor plate since purchased by the Government amounts to over $25,000,000 of the people's money saved.

CRIMINAL PROSECUTION OF TRUSTS.

He fought the trusts vigorously and urged in speeches of great power the enforcement of the Federal Government of the criminal clause of the Sherman Anti-trust Law.

UNDESIRABLE IMMIGRATION.

As early as ten years ago he was active in the effort to exclude undesirable immigrants and helped to pass a restrictive educational test, which was defeated in the Senate.

THOROUGHLY PROGRESSIVE.

He has always been thoroughly progressive. He favored and voted for election of United States Senators by the people and for an income tax long before these measures became as popular as they now are.

PEARSON-CRAWFORD CONTEST.

He helped to defend the seat of Hon. W. T. Crawford when it was contested by Hon. Richmond Pearson, and he discharged this duty to his own credit and the satisfaction of his party associates.

THE CRUMPACKER BILL.

He was a leader in the successful fight against the Crumpacker bill to reduce Southern representation in Congress.

JUSTICE FOR HIS DISTRICT.

During his term his district got more appropriations for public buildings and more rural free delivery routes than any district in the State. This was because his district was entitled to them and not because he had any "pull" with the Republican majority in Congress.

WHITE SUPREMACY.

With the exception of one paragraph he drew the platform on which we won the great white supremacy victory in 1898. When the methods by which this great victory was won were attacked in Congress he promptly and successfully defended our people.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

When our Suffrage Amendment was attacked in Congress it was he who defended it in a speech of such unanswerable logic and power that 85,000 copies of it were circulated in this State by the State Executive Committee to help pass the Amendment in 1900. In addition to this he made many speeches on the stump in behalf of the Amendment.

BRYAN AND NATIONAL PLATFORM.

In the State Convention of 1902 he was the chief factor in saving Bryan's Kansas City platform from being repudiated, making one of the most remarkable and successful convention speeches ever made in this State. In the State Convention of 1906, in an equally notable speech, he aided in the movement which resulted in the endorsement of Bryan for the Presidency two years thereafter.

NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.

In 1908 he was nominated for Governor in one of the most notable contests the State ever witnessed. By appealing directly to the people, in whom he has always had the utmost confidence, he overcame an opposition which many of the oldest politicians thought invincible.

A PROGRESSIVE ADMINISTRATION.

For nearly four years he has been the Governor of this great State, faithfully and fearlessly discharging his duties and observing the limitations placed upon him by the Constitution which he

W. W. KITCHIN

He hates deception and spurns sophistry; he is frank and straightforward in his dealings with individuals and the public. He is a statesman rather than a politician, and calls to his aid no political "machine." * * * He has been true to every pledge and faithful in every relation of life; he is fair to his foes and loyal to his friends; he is just to all men. * * * He has made right and not expediency the rule of his life. In a speech in Congress he expressed this splendid creed:

"I believe there is a spirit of universal right that binds together the good deeds and worthy enterprises of the world, and inspires noble conduct and virtuous living among men, that resists vice in private and corruption in public life, that lifts up the fallen and protects the weak, that cheers the upright and confounds the wicked, that creates liberty and destroys tyranny, that engenders hope, and honor, and sympathy, and love, and teaches all mankind to reverence the mercy and goodness and wisdom of Almighty God."

He has lived the simple life of a democratic citizen, the useful life of a faithful public servant, the clean life of a Christian gentleman. Even his enemies deny him no title to greatness except a failure to usurp functions denied him by the Constitution.—CAREY J. HUNTER in The Carolina Democrat.

took an oath to support. He has made more recommendations to the Legislature than any Governor the State ever had and more of them have been enacted into law. His messages have been thoroughly progressive and his administration rich in achievement. A partial enumeration is sufficient.

EDUCATION.

He recommended increased expenditures for public education, the common schools to have the first consideration; and the annual expenditures for public education have been increased during his administration $750,000. This is the greatest annual increase ever recorded in the history of the State.

WEST CAROLINA TEACHERS' TRAINING SCHOOL.

He recommended the establishment of the West Carolina Teachers' Training School, the same not to interfere with the Cullowhee and Appalachian Training Schools.

FARM-LIFE SCHOOLS.

He recommended the establishment of farm-life schools in order that life on the farm might become happier and more useful.

SCHOOL FOR THE FEEBLE-MINDED.

In accordance with his recommendation a splendid school for the feeble-minded has been established at Kinston, which will be of great economic value to the State and prove a blessing to humanity.

LABOR.

He recommended that factories be made subject to State inspection, that proper sanitation and health conditions be required and that the maximum hours of labor be fixed at 60 hours per week. Following his recommendation a law was passed fixing the maximum hours of labor at 60 per week. He has ever been mindful of the workingman, and in Congress favored reducing the hours of labor of railroad and other employees.

LEGALIZED PRIMARIES.

He recommended legalized primaries for the nomination of United States Senators as well as other officers.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

He recommended a liberal increase of appropriations for pensions to Confederate Veterans and for the maintenance of the Soldiers' Home.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX.

For years he has favored a Federal Income Tax. He recommended that the proposed income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution be ratified, and this was done by the last Legislature.

JUDICIAL SYSTEM.

He recommended the extension and improvement of our judicial system, a reduction of challenges in criminal cases and better criminal and divorce statistics.

LEGISLATIVE REFORM.

In line with the policy pursued in the progressive States he recommended various constitutional amendments to relieve the Legislature of its great mass of local and special legislation, to the end that general legislation might have more thorough study and debate, and that local legislation might be brought closer to localities affected.

STATE BUILDING.

For years there has been recognized a need for a new State building to provide for the various departments and to care for the State's valuable documents and other property. Following his recommendation one was authorized and an elegant fire-proof building, a credit to the State, will soon be completed.

GOOD ROADS.

He recommended legislation for the building of good roads. In line with this recommendation much legislation has been enacted and during his administration about 1,700 miles of good roads have been built in the State, being more than was previously built in the whole history of the State.

DRAINAGE.

He recommended legislation for the drainage of swamp lands. Legislation in accordance with this recommendation was enacted and over 800,000 acres of swamp land have been drained, or are in process of being drained, in his administration.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

He recommended that the annual appropriation for public health be increased from $4,000 to $26,500. This was done and the usefulness of the Department of Public Health has been greatly multiplied. Yet more than the entire appropriation has been saved to the people by reducing the price of antitoxin from $2 to 50 cents a dose. Who will dare to estimate in dollars the lives and the heartaches saved by bringing this mysterious elixir of life, this wonder of the age, in the reach of the poor man? This is but one of the many ways this department is saving the people money, and at the same time protecting their lives and increasing their happiness. It is estimated that the department is saving to the people annually $125,000 and between 500 to 1,000 human lives.

RAILROAD RATES.

He recommended that every power of the State be exerted to abolish and prevent discrimination against our cities and towns in the matter of freight rates.

He also recommended the enactment of legislation requiring mileage books to be pulled on the trains.

The concerted and powerful effort of the railroads to increase passenger fares was met by him with such a firm stand in behalf of the people that the present rates have been preserved without confusion or strife.

TRUSTS.

He has recommended to the Legislature the most progressive and drastic anti-trust law ever recommended in this State. As a result but not to the extent of his recommendations our laws on the subject have been greatly strengthened. Authority has been given the Governor to supply special counsel to assist the solicitors who under the Constitution must prosecute for the State in all actions in the Superior Court. Every one violating the statute is now, in addition to other punishment, liable to a penalty of $100 a day, which may be recovered for his own use by any one suing for same, and for the first time there has been enacted into law the demand of the Democratic platform that "conspiracies by prospective purchasers to put down or keep down the price of articles produced by the labor of others should be made criminal." He opposed repealing the old law, but recommended that it be strengthened and perfected by amendment and the addition of new provisions.

FIRE INSURANCE.

He made public the fact that the people of this State are grossly discriminated against in fire insurance rates and in commissions paid the agents for securing the business. By way of illustration he cited the State of New York where, for example, frame dwellings outside of fire protection have a rate of 30 cents on the hundred while such dwellings here have a rate of $1 on the hundred dollars; and yet the agent there gets 20 per cent for getting the business and here only 15 per cent. He denounced this and other unjust practices, and recommended that the Legislature order a thorough investigation of the subject. A resolution to investigate passed the House, but was defeated in the Senate through the determined efforts of the fire insurance interests.

STATE'S CREDIT.

Twice during his administration has the State been threatened with suits by other States on account of the old fraudulent carpet-bag bonds, which they had received as donations. In each case he handled the matter so wisely that the effort was fruitless and the good name and credit of the State did not suffer.

When nearly $3,500,000 of the State's debt had to be refunded and the new bonds could not be sold in the usual markets, owing to the financial stringency, he avoided an extra session of the Legislature by an appeal to the bankers and other business men of North Carolina, who promptly responded and saved the credit of the State by buying the bonds, which were sold to the highest bidders.

IN SYMPATHY WITH WOODROW WILSON.

His whole character and career has been a protest against boss rule, machine politics and special privilege. His supreme effort has been to establish the rule of right and justice among men, and to accomplish what Woodrow Wilson described as "the desire to set up an unentangled government, a government that can not be used for private purposes, either in the field of business or in the field of politics; a government that will not tolerate the use of the organization of a great party to serve the personal aims and ambitions of any individual, and that will not permit legislation to be employed to further any private interest."

He has met every opportunity and been equal to every emergency. What other man forty-six years of age can show greater achievements?

Wilson Opens Ohio Campaign

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 20.—Amid the blare of brass bands, the stirring strains of martial music and the buzz of enthusiastic crowds, the Democratic campaign in Ohio was opened today with Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, the party's choice for president, as the stellar attraction. The gathering, in point of numbers of enthusiasm, was equal to any demonstration of like character held here in many years. During the forenoon every train brought in delegations of visitors from points all over Ohio and from Toledo, Cincinnati, Cleveland and other large cities. The big feature of the day was the meeting in Memorial Hall this afternoon. Governor Judson H. Harmon presided. Next to Governor Wilson the chief speaker was Congressman James M. Cox, of Dayton, the Democratic nominee for governor of Ohio.

Paoli Battle Anniversary

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 20.—On the monument grounds near Malvern the customary exercises were held this afternoon in commemoration of the conflict which historians of the American Revolution have termed the "Massacre of Paoli". Today marked the one hundred and thirty-fifth anniversary of the event. On the night of September 20, 1777, the troops of General Anthony Wayne, while retreating from the battle of Brandywine, were surprised by the British general, afterwards known as "Flintless" Gray. The British general forbade his men to fire a shot and to make sure of it, took away their flints, whence came the name "Flintless". The night was intensely dark and the Hessians fell upon the Americans, without a moment's warning and bayoneted them. Only the genius of Gen. Wayne prevented the destruction of the entire body of troops.

Jews Observe Yom Kippur

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—With the setting of the sun this evening the most solemn, important and strictly observed of all Jewish holidays, Yom Kippur, the day of atonement, is ushered in. It is the tenth day of the month of Tishri and the end of the ten penitential days.

The holiday is strictly observed by orthodox and reform Jews alike. During the twenty-four hours no devout member of the faith eats or drinks or transacts any business of any kind, while the Jew, with his family, devotes his time to prayer and penitence.

Industrially Pennsylvania occupies the foremost rank in the Union. Of a total population of about eight million, more than one million men, women and children are wage earners, earning their livelihood in the coal mines, shops, mills and factories.

National A. A. U. Championships

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 20.—Amateur athletes of renown, including Olympic victors and the star performers from colleges schools and clubs in many parts of the country, streamed into Pittsburgh last night and during the early hours this morning. Before noon today a thousand men and youths, representing the cream of America's athletic talent, had assembled at Forbes Field to participate in the annual national track and field championships of the Amateur Athletic Union. Following the usual program the junior events were carded for this afternoon, with the championships in the senior class reserved for tomorrow. In the number and high class of the entries the meet this year eclipses all of its predecessors. Persons who have followed closely the athletic performances during the past year predict that several records will go by the board before the meet is concluded.

Charles H. Grosvenor's Birthday

ATHENS, O., Sept. 20.—Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor, for many years a conspicuous member of the national house of representatives, entered upon his eightieth year today. Since his retirement from Congress five years ago Gen. Grosvenor has taken no part in public life, though his interest in politics is as keen as ever. During the years of his activity he enjoyed a wide reputation as the principal election prophet of the Republican party. That the old habit of farming election forecasts still clings to the former Congressman is evidenced by the fact that he has recently prepared a formidable array of figures to show that President Taft is certain to win the battle of the ballots next November.

BETHEL, Sept. 18.—On Tuesday, September 17th, Albert Crannel, a darkie living on the farm of Jas. H. Whitehurst, three miles from Bethel, while picking cotton in a little field near his house, discovered the home of some stinging snakes, around an old stump. He at once set to work to destroy them. He succeeded in killing one of the old ones and fourteen young ones. The other old one got away.

In Massachusetts there are 270,775 women wage earners, one-quarter of the entire female population of the commonwealth. Of this number 91,000 are married women, three quarters of whom are mothers with families averaging four children.

Many Driven From Home

Every year in many parts of the country thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs, make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

To Celebrate Reciprocity Defeat.
MONTREAL, Sept. 20.—Acting on a suggestion of Premier Borden, the Liberal-Conservative Association of this city is preparing for a public demonstration tomorrow night in celebration of the first anniversary of the defeat of the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States. The demonstration will take the form of a political meeting which will be addressed by several Conservative party leaders of national prominence.

GRADED SCHOOL NOTICE

The Greenville Graded Schools for white people will open Tuesday, September 24th, at ten o'clock. All residents who will be six years old by Nov. 1, and who are not twenty-one years old, may attend free of charge.

Registration

Admission to the grades will be by card. Excepting the beginners or first grade children, all persons who expect to enter the Greenville schools for the first time, all who have lost their promotion cards, and all who have examinations to take should come to the office of the school next Saturday or next Monday between the hours of nine and one. These two days are set apart for classifying, examining and assigning to the grades. None of this work can be done Tuesday morning.

Music

Persons desiring to register for music should call on or write the superintendent. It is not well to postpone attending to this. Those who register first frequently get the best advantages.

Tuition

All non-residents are charged a tuition fee. For the primary grades the fee is $1.50 per month; for intermediate, $2.00 and for high school grades, $2.50 per month.

For music the fee is three dollars per month. If more than one person in a family takes lessons, the rate is two and a half dollars per month.

I wish to insist that all persons who wish to see me about any school matters call Saturday or Monday. Do not wait till Tuesday.
