AMERICAN CONSUL DEMANDS RELEASE

Wrong Man Has Been Imprisoned Six Months

ACCUSED OF KILLING A MEXICAN

Although Someone Else Had Confessed to the Crime, the American Subject Is Still Held Prisoner

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 21.—Ignoring the usual channels of diplomatic intercourse, the American Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson, has made a peremptory demand upon Governor Matias Guerra of the state of Tamaulipas, for the immediate release from the jail at Tampico of W. C. Nichols, an American fruit grower. Nichols was arrested six months ago on a charge of having killed a bandit, Calabos, whose apprehension the authorities had attempted for many months.

The embassy was authorized by the administration at Washington to employ whatever means were considered necessary to bring about an amelioration of Nichols' condition. Ambassador Wilson says he will secure the release even if it be necessary to land marines from the cruiser Des Moines, at Tampico, with 280 marines aboard.

The American ambassador regards the treatment of Nichols by the Mexican authorities as persecution. In support of this belief he points to the fact that a Mexican confessed in court to being the slayer of Calabos. This confession was disregarded by the court which said it was promoted by belief that a reward had been offered for Calabos dead or alive. The Mexican was not arrested and the process against Nichols was continued on an appeal.

The jail in which Nichols is confined is filthy and overcrowded. Ambassador Wilson had been treating the matter for several months diplomatically but has met with delays and accomplished little. In his note to the Governor the ambassador reminded him that his message was not official but that it was to be considered none the less authoritative.

DECLARES WILL NOT TAKE "BLOOD MONEY"

FATHER OF WESLEY EDWARDS' SWEETHEART TO REFUSE $500.00 OFFERED TO HIM

HIS PART OF REWARD FOR CAPTURE

ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 21.—Baldwin detectives were informed today that Frank Iroler, of Mount Airy, N. C., father of the sweetheart of Wesley Edwards who led the detectives to Des Moines and caused the arrest of Edwards and Allen, Hillville "outlaws" will refuse part of the reward offered for their capture. Iroler was to receive $500 for "tipping off" the detectives to Edwards' retreat through his daughter.

Maud Iroler, Edwards' 18 year old fiancée, is said to figure in her father's refusal of the reward. She is reported to have begged her father to refuse what she declares "blood money."

Arraignment of Edwards and Allen is scheduled for Monday in the Hillville court house where five persons were killed by the clan last March. They were taken from jail here heavily manacled and guarded although no attempt to rescue them at Hillville is anticipated. Dozens of the Allen family and other mountaineers are expected to crowd the courtroom for the arraignment.

After the prisoners plead "not guilty" before Judge Staples they will be returned to jail here to await early trials. The two defendants are having difficulty in securing counsel however several attorneys having refused to undertake their defense.

Antietam Commemorated

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The fiftieth anniversary of the battles of Antietam was celebrated today in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, under the auspices of the War Veterans and Sons' Association. Preceding the literary exercises there was a large parade in which surviving veterans of the fifty-three New York regiments that fought at Antietam took the leading part.

FIRST GLIMPSE OF FLORIDA AT LAST

GREENVILLE TRAVELERS SEE GARDEN SPOT OF STATES AFTER MANY MILES OF JOURNEY

MET IN TAMPA BY OLD FRIENDS

(D. J. Whichard).

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 19.—Passing over the Southern boundary line of Georgia, Wednesday afternoon, gave us the first glimpse we ever had of Florida. For years we had possessed the desire to see this land of perpetual flowers, but not until now was this desire gratified. Much has been said and written of Florida's wonderful development in recent years and while one usually does not expect to find verification of such reports, it is true in regard to Florida. The progress of the state is really going forward by leaps and bounds. As to some of her resources, naval stores production, both in which South Carolina and Georgia once ranked high but has now practically exhausted, is just at its prime in Florida, and this state is now furnishing more than 60 per cent of the country's supply, and her phosphate mines yield fully 80 per cent of this product. Her citrus crop for this year is estimated to be worth approximately fifteen million dollars, with the agricultural and manufacturing interests of the state large.

It was about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when we reached Jacksonville, one of the principal cities of the state, where only a brief stop was made before continuing the journey southward. And here the journey hitherto marked with comfort changed to much discomfort, for two hundred miles of dustier travel is seldom encountered than that between Jacksonville and Tampa, but the pictures along the road and what awaited the end more than repaid for the discomfort.

The Atlantic Coast Line southward from Jacksonville for the first hundred miles gradually diverges inward from the east coast, then diagonally crosses the state reaching the west coast at Tampa. The lover of the beautiful in nature finds much of interest along this route. The country is beautiful with its changing scenes of farms, orange groves, peach orchards, lakes and woodlands. Magnificent palms and stately palmettos mingled with the tropical growth of evergreen woodland, the bosoms of lakes resplendent with pond lilies, the numerous rivers fringed with water hyacinths, with flowers almost everywhere. It is indeed a beautiful country. Darkness shut out the scene about half way, but that portion of the return trip is to be taken by daylight, giving an opportunity to take in more of these beauties.

Reaching Tampa about 11 o'clock we were met and taken in charge by that splendid young man, Mr. C. M. Jones, formerly of Greenville. He and his brother, Mr. H. M. Jones, are both doing well in good positions here the former in the leading dry goods store and the latter manager of a large drug store. That the family might be united they moved their sister, Miss Lizzie Jones and aunt, Miss Etta Jones, to Tampa early the present year, a change their host of friends in Greenville regretted.

Kitchin's Record

We herewith produce the record of Governor Kitchin in the 60th Congress, for which he drew full salary. This, it will be remembered, is the year he deserted Congress to canvass the state for governor. His record as governor is worse than that of congressman, if possible. Here is his record month by month for the session of 1907-8:

December, voting 1.
January, voting 0.
February, voting 1; not voting 3.
March, voting 1; answered present 1; not voting 4.
April, voting 15; not voting 43.
May, not voting 122.
Summary for session—Voted 18 times, answered present 1 time, not voting 172.
How is that for representation? Yet Governor Kitchin in the face of all this asks the voters to return him to Congress.—Oxford Public Ledger.

September is Unlucky Month For Flyers

DEATH RECORD IS BROKEN

With Few Days of September Still On The Calendar The Death Toll Reaches Round Dozen

PARIS, Sept. 21.—"A brilliant month of aviation but most tragic since heavier than air craft were invented," was the verdict at the Aero Club tonight, summing up the events thus far in September. Since September 1, twelve aviators have been killed. Three records have been broken. Military men have acknowledged that war has been revolutionized by the aeroplane—that perhaps war has been rendered impossible for the future.

The record of deaths is as follows:

September 6.—Capt. Patrick Hamilton and Lieut. Stewart killed by fall of aeroplane at Stevenage during the British army maneuvers. Machine overturned by the wind.

September 10.—Lieutenants C. A. Bellington and E. Hotchkiss, killed by fall of aeroplane at Wolvercote during the British army maneuvers. Probably due to petroleum explosion. Lieut. Stegar killed by fall of aeroplane near Munich during the Bavarian army maneuvers. Probably caught in air pocket.

September 11.—Lieut. Siebert killed by fall of aeroplane near Dresden, during the imperial German maneuvers. Machine buckled in the wind. Paul Meck killed at Cicero Field, Chicago, by fall of aeroplane. M. Nikaramanlaks drowned by fall of hydro-aeroplane into sea during flight from Athens to Patras.

September 14.—Howard W. Gill, of Baltimore, killed in collision of aeroplane with George Mestach at Cicero Field, Chicago, during exhibition flight.

September 20.—Russell Blair killed by fall of aeroplane during an exhibition flight, Shenandah, Iowa.

Today.—Lieutenants Berger and Junghans killed by aeroplane falls near Friedburg during cross-country flight, Chemnitz to Berlin. H. J. D. Astley killed by aeroplanes fall at Belfast, Ireland, during exhibition flight.

The Aero Club's records show that seventy-seven aviators have been killed this year, as compared with seventy-three for 1911. Since aviation began 187 have been killed.

The week has proved monoplanes more reliable than bi-planes, that the British war office has ordered the use of the former discontinued. In French military circles, it is held that for war purposes the monoplane cannot be disregarded, on account of its superior speed.

New York Democrats Are Hot After Boss Barnes

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 21.—The Republican state convention to meet here next Wednesday promises to be unboasted. Whether due to the general mix-up of the national situation or not, the delegates will be confronted from the start with a fight for every place on the state ticket and for control of the resolutions committee. The advance guard of the delegates arrived tonight, among them being many old time leaders. Others are due in the morning and conferences will continue until the convention opens.

Williams Barnes, Jr., chairman of the state committee, has declared that he will suggest no candidate; that every aspirant can get into the game and the best man can win. He will have one of the hardest fights he has had since he has been in politics. Many of the progressive republicans blame him for the troubles the party now has on its hands and reports that the same combination which two years ago put Barnes followers into the discard and gave Colonel Roosevelt control of the convention, would work together next week in deposing Barnes.

Wilson Keeps His Eye in Jersey State Against Jim Smith

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 21.—Governor Woodrow Wilson proclaimed tonight in a speech on the New Jersey senatorial situation that the only condition upon which the Democratic party can gain the confidence of the nation is "that it should have itself through and through absolutely committed to progressive policy."

The governor spoke here and at Hoboken in opposition to the candidacy of former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., and in behalf of Representative Hughes for the office of United States Senator to be voted on in the state primaries next Tuesday.

The governor declared at the outset that it was his duty as spokesman of the Democratic party in the state to warn the people that James Smith, Jr., was not a progressive, but a reactionary. He declared that it was no personal contest and that if Mr. Smith was his "dearest friend and held the same opinions that he does," the governor would feel obliged to oppose him.

"I have never been aware of any personal feeling on my part in any political contest against any individual," said the governor. "The United States is not choosing men now by their private characters merely, it is not choosing them for their likeability, it is not choosing them because they are fine fellows—but it is choosing them because they understand the interests of America at this present moment. And many a man bred in the old school of politics is being rejected now, not because he does not hold his convictions honestly but because he holds convictions from which the country has turned away."

"We are at a critical juncture in the history of America and at a very critical juncture in the history of the Democratic party. There is only one condition upon which the Democratic party can gain the confidence of the nation, and that condition is that it should have itself through and through absolutely committed to progressive policy. Just so certainly as it turns back, just as certainly as it makes any other choice, it will be rejected now and need have no hope whatever of being chosen for our generation."

Hendersonville Supporters of Justice Clark Form A Large Club

HENDERSONVILLE, Sept. 21.—Judge Walter Clark delivered an address here today to a large audience, after which a Clark Club was organized with Capt. J. W. Wofford, president; V. C. V. Shapard, secretary, and T. J. Shipman, treasurer.

The executive committee is composed of J. Press Lane, W. A. Smith and T. J. Shipman. There was a good sprinkling of Confederate veterans in the audience.

HIGHEST AVERAGE OF THE SEASON

20 Cents Average Made at the New Gum

Not counting the small resale the entire break of more than 20,000 pounds, averaged today (Monday) at the New Gum warehouse a little more than 20 cents. This is the record breaker of the season so far as reported.

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—William H. Rice, wealthy quarryman of East Milton, today was indicted in connection with the alleged dynamite "planting" in the Lawrence textile strike. The grand jury, in returning the bill against Rice, reported to the court that it had completed its investigation. It is charged that Rice sold dynamite to Ernest Pittman the mill builder who committed suicide several weeks ago after being served with a grand jury summons. The grand jury had indicted three others, charging them with being instrumental in planting dynamite to discredit the Lawrence textile strikers, as follows: William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen Company; the Woolen trust.

Frederick Eatteux, head of the textile mills. Daniel Collins, Cambridge dog fancier.

The last indictment today was secret but Rice was soon taken into custody on a capias. He said he was very much surprised and refused to discuss his arrest. Pittman who was a contractor and built the Wood worsted mills at Lawrence, went to the rear of his garage in Andover, Mass., August 27 and shot himself. It later was learned that District Attorney Polletier had caused a grand jury summons to be issued for the builder.

It is now alleged that Rice sold the dynamite to Pittman and that Pittman placed it in the hands of John J. Green, Lawrence superintendent schools, who was hired to do the actual planting. Green was arrested, but failed to take the stand and was fined $500.

Shortly after the death of Pittman Wood, who came to this country as an immigrant, was indicted and arrested. He pleaded not guilty, vigorously protested his innocence of the alleged plot and was released on bond. Preparations today were under way at Salem for the trial September 30 of Ettler and Giovannitti, the Italians held many months ago in jail, charged with the murder of a woman in the textile strike. The industrial workers of the world have raised a $50,000 defense fund and William Haywood, national organizer of the I. W. W., himself under a $1,000 bond to answer a charge of conspiracy in connection with the strike, has ordered a general strike of all I. W. W. sympathizers on the day set for the trial.

ASHEBORO, Sept. 21.—Senator Simmons spoke here tonight to an audience which filled the court house auditorium and gallery. Dr. Frank H. Wood of Trinity, presided and made a talk, congratulating the people of the state on the wisdom and justice of Democratic rule in the state and paid a handsome compliment to Senator Simmons.

Mayor Spence introduced the speaker, praising his loyalty and devotion to the people's interests. Senator Simmons' speech gained for him hearty applause, when he held up the magnificent record of the party in state and nation. His speech was a presentation of the principles of Democracy and rang with earnestness and eloquent appeals for the election of state, national and county tickets. His own election to the senate, he declared, was merely incidental and secondary.

Democrats from many parts of the county were in town to hear him.

MORE DOLLARS FOR THE WILSON FUND

SLOWLY BUT SURELY ROLLING THE TOTAL TO THE CENTURY MARK, PITTS CONTRIBUTIONS COME TO TAKE PLACE IN DEMOCRATIC LIST

Still other names are added today to the growing list of contributors to the Wilson Campaign Fund. The list is to remain open a few more days, still this should not keep from contributing at once, those that intend to send in their's and have not done so to date, as the amount may be called for at any time.

With the showing that Ayden made last Saturday we have still to hear from the other good Democratic towns in Pitt county, Winterville, Farmville, Bethel, etc., all should send a representative amount to this fund.

Address communications to Mr. C. C. Pierce or The Reflector office. They will be acknowledged at once.

Wilson Marshall

THE SUPPORT OF HISTORY

The Sioux City (Ia.) Journal says: Mr. Bryan's Lincoln indictment of Theodore Roosevelt has the support of political history. The colonel is more a forger than a leared. The Chicago platform of his party is sufficient proof. His speeches during the past two years are utterly lacking in consistency. He has gathered from Mr. Bryan and from Mr. Debs. His frantic endeavor this year is to destroy the Republican party, no matter how.

Two years ago as temporary chairman of the New York Republican state convention he gave to Taft and to his administration unequivocal indorsement. The platform adopted by the Saratoga convention had his full approval.

Listen to this:
"The Payne tariff law reduced the average rate of all duties 11 per cent. By increasing the duties on some luxuries and articles not in ordinary use, making, however, no increase on any common food product. Under its first year of operation the value of imports free of duty was the greatest in our history by $109,000,000, and the average rate of duty was less than under the Wilson law. Unlike that Democratic law, its greatest reductions of duty have not stopped industry or deprived labor of any part of its hire. It gives free trade with the Philippine islands and it establishes a customs court. Its maximum and minimum rates give us for the first time equality of opportunity with other nations in our foreign trade."

In his speech at Sioux Falls that same year the colonel said:

"I think that the present tariff is better than the last and considerably better than the one before the last."

Turn to the speech Roosevelt delivered to his excited new partyites, gathered in Des Moines:

"I have remained attached to the doctrines the Progressives taught three years ago. I don't believe in free trade. On the other hand, I don't believe in a stand-pat Republican tariff. I believe there are a great many shams in the Payne-Aldrich bill. Among the shams and humbugs was the tariff law."

Upon what ground are the people to place trust in Roosevelt? Are they to pin faith on what he said yesterday or upon what he may be saying today?

IN CALIFORNIA

The San Francisco Star reproduces an interview with Senator John D. Works, Progressive Republican. In this interview Senator Works says: "It will be a close fight between Roosevelt and Wilson in California, and I rather think Wilson will win. "Not only will all the Democrats vote for Wilson, but so will a very considerable number of Progressive Republicans like myself.

"Besides that many Taft men will be for Wilson, knowing their candidate has no chance.

"Wilson has a very good chance, I think."

Democrats should not be too sanguine of the prospects of victory confronting them in the coming national election. To be imbued with too much certainty of success might cause such inactivity as to bring defeat at the last moment. It will not do to place our confidence in the present divisions in Republican ranks and underestimate the strength of that party. This apparent division may be only a Republican scheme to throw Democrats off their guard and make them indifferent about going to the polls, thinking there will be enough votes to elect Wilson anyway. At any rate we make the prediction here and now that right on the eve of election such pressure will be brought to bear upon Roosevelt and his followers as to make him withdraw from the race and that the Republicans will line-up solid for Taft when they vote.

Woodrow Wilson at Scranton

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 23.—A host of Democrats from every section of Pennsylvania rallied here today to attend the meeting for the notification of the candidates on the state ticket and, to listen to an address by Governor Woodrow Wilson, candidate for president. Congressman Palmer presided at the notification meeting this afternoon. Governor Wilson delivers his address in the Armory tonight.

Emancipation Semi-Centennial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—The negroes of the national capital have completed elaborate arrangements for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the issuance of the emancipation proclamation by President Lincoln, September 22, 1862. The celebration will begin tomorrow and will continue four days. In connection with the celebration there will be held an interdenominational religious conference of national scope and a two day's session of the National Congress of Colored Educators.

United Irish League Meeting

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 23.—Unbounded enthusiasm over the prospects for the future of the Emerald Isle appears to be the keynote of a great gathering of distinguished Irish blood now in the city. Delegates are arriving from far and wide to take part in the annual convention of the United Irish League of America, which has its formal opening tonight in the Academy of Music. The regular sessions will begin tomorrow and continue over Wednesday and Thursday. Because of the belief that Home Rule for Ireland is a certainty, the convention likely will be the last big assemblage of the league.

BASEBALL NOTES

Pitcher Bedint, of the Boston Red Sox, has won 15 of the 22 games he has pitched. Pretty good work for a youngster.

In their last four games at Philadelphia the Pittsburgh Pirates made 34 runs, 62 hits and only one error in 150 chances.

Maranville, the Boston Braves' new shortstop looks like a genuine find. His playing has made a big hit with the Hub fans.

Larry Cheney is pitching fine ball for the Cubs and looks to be the West Siders' hope in the Chicago Championship series.

Manager Clark Griffith proposes to fix up a little bonus for his Washington players for the good work they have done this season.

President Gaffney, of the Boston Nationals, has put a taboo on all exhibition games. Wonder what town it was that wanted to see the Braves. Manager Eddie McLane, of the Brooklyn League team, has quit the game for good and taken a position as traveling salesman for a shoe concern.

After leading the International League for some time during the present season, the Jersey City team has dropped down among the coal bins and gas meters.

Hal Chase has had a poor season in stick work. The Highlander star has been unable to break into the 300 circle, but is still there with the fancy stuff at first base.

Pitcher Eddie Crotte, of the White Sox has won from Philadelphia, Washington, New York, Detroit and Cleveland, but has not been able to down his old pals, the Red Sox.

The Cleveland Naps have been playing like a house afire of late. It's the same old story. After some team has cinched the pennant each season, the Naps start in and play their heads off.

SUN BROTHERS CIRCUS

Fine One Ring Show in Goldsboro
October 7th

If there be any one thing that circus lovers crave to see it is an old time one ring circus, where you don't have to "rubber" and create cervical friction and incident headache trying to see what is going on in all three rings at the same time.

Well, Goldsboro is going to have a one ring circus—and one of merit and thrilling features, on October 7—Monday—the first Monday of the month.

It is Sun Brothers Circus, and it is high class in every particular and its proprietors reflect their own personal character in the quality of their great show.

Their press agent, Mr. R. C. Riper, himself a cultured and courteous young gentleman, is in the city today billing the show for the above date and in addition to a liberal advertising contract with the Argus, he has upon the cordial telegraphic endorsement of Messrs. Sun Brothers themselves, which telegram is now before us, authorized the Argus to extend for them an invitation to all the children and officials of the State Odd Fellows Orphanage here to attend the circus on October 7, as the guests of Messrs. Sun Brothers and to this end a special section, seating 200, will be reserved for them.

Such generosity deserves to be known of the public and we are sure it will meet with proper public appreciation in substantial patronage not only here in Goldsboro, but throughout North Carolina, in every town visited by Sun Brothers Circus.

Of course the Argus is happy in thus being able to make this announcement—that the orphan children will see the circus free.—Goldsboro Argus.

To Discuss City Affairs

DUSSELFORD, Sept. 21.—Delegates from many countries are arriving in Dusseldorf for the international congress on municipal affairs, which will meet here Monday for a week's session. A large attendance and an attractive program combine to give promise of an interesting and profitable conference. The principal subjects to be discussed will be municipal construction municipal traffic and the fostering of arts, sciences and public safety in cities.

Canadian Manufacturers

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 23.—More than 500 members of the Canadian Manufacturers Association gathered in this city today for the association's annual convention. The sessions of the convention will continue three days and will be devoted to the discussion of a wide range of questions pertaining to the prosperity and development of Canadian industries.

Washington State Fair

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 23.—The annual exhibition of the Washington State Fair Association opened here today with a busy week in prospect. The exhibits of live stock, horses, poultry, fruit and agricultural products are the best that have ever been seen here and everything points to a most successful fair.

How Bad Backs Had Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected

All over Greenville you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Greenville people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townspeople. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if you feel lame, sore and miserable, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Greenville citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

T. R. Moore, 918 Evans st., Greenville, N. C., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have used them with the greatest benefit. I was troubled by lameness in my back and my kidneys did not do their work as they should. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from the John L. Wooten Drug Co., and I had not used them long before I received relief. I can say that this remedy acts just as represented.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Conference of Catholic Charities

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—The biennial meeting of the National Conference of Catholic Charities began its sessions at the Catholic University today with the Rt. Rev. Mgr. T. J. Shahan, rector of the university in the chair. Notable clerical and lay representatives of the church throughout the country are taking part in the conference, which will last three days. Among the subjects scheduled for discussion are the convict and his family, desertion and non-support, the education of dependent children in public institutions, child labor, mentally and physically defective children, the poor in city environments, the protection of young girls who go to large cities, recreation and the co-operation that should exist between organized societies.

There are three thousand women clerks in the British postal service on salaries which begin at $325 and rise by $25 annual additions to a maximum of $550.

Many Driven From Home

Every year in many parts of the country thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs, make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

What We Never Forget

according to science are things associated with our early home life, such as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains or bruises. Forty years of cures proves its merit. Unrivaled for piles, corns or cold sores. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

Massachusetts Primaries

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 23.—Closing a rather strenuous campaign in which the chief interest has centered in the contests for the gubernatorial nominations, Republicans and Democrats of Massachusetts will go to the polls tomorrow to express their preferences for state, legislative, congressional and county officers. Under the law the new third party has no standing in the primaries. All nominations by the Progressive party in Massachusetts will therefore be made by petition.

Commercial Executives Meet

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—All phases of industrial development and civic publicity are to be discussed at the annual convention of the American Association of Commercial Executives, which met in the capital today for a three day's session. The delegates include the secretaries of chambers of commerce, boards of trade and commercial clubs in many of the principal cities of the United States. Tomorrow the visitors will be taken on a trip to Mount Vernon.
