NICARAGUAN REBELS SURRENDER TO U.S.A.

Revolutionary General Mena is A Prisoner

END OF INTERNAL STRUGGLE

American Admiral Sends Rebel General to Panama. He Will Probably be Exiled

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—General Mena, leader of the Nicaraguan revolutionists, is to be sent to Panama under guard of American sailors and marines.

American Minister Weitzel reported to the state department today that Rear Admiral Southerland had accepted the surrender of Mena and 700 followers at midnight, September 24th.

His capture is taken to indicate the collapse of the revolution, and his removal to Panama probably means exile.

Officials here believe General Mena requested that he be permitted to surrender to Admiral Southerland from fear of summary action at the hands of the Nicaraguan Federalists and the Admiral doubtless thought it advisable to get the rebel leader out of the country as soon as possible.

Granada is now completely under control of the United States forces. Conditions are reported pitiful in the extreme. The inhabitants face famine in consequence of their long isolation. Red Cross provisions have been distributed with the greatest haste.

It is not thought that General Zeledon and his forces will attempt to hold out now that the head of the revolution has given up.

Little importance is attached here to the announcement by Juan Irias, former follower of Zelaya of his intention to succeed General Mena.

Irias made known his ambition before leaving San Jose, Costa Rica, several days ago. Nothing since has been heard of his whereabouts.

Entire Mexican Command Trapped and Annihilated in Canyon

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 26.—Trapped on the bank of a canon near Orizaba, in the state of Vera Cruz, a band of seventy rebels, commanded by Maximilian Bello, was practically wiped out yesterday by a slightly superior force of government troops, according to official reports received here today.

The bodies of thirty rebels were found after the fight and some twenty rebels were seen to topple into the canon, say War Department reports.

Although the Federal commander stated that the fight continued two hours he places his own loss at two wounded.

This band of rebels is said to have proclaimed Manuel Calero, Mexican ambassador to Washington, president.

General Aguilar, who is operating in the same section, also has proclaimed Calero president. The ambassador disclaims any sympathy with these movements.

Forty Applicants turned Down At E. C. T. S.

The E. C. T. S. opened its fourth year of work yesterday, with every room available, taken. Not only this, but forty applicants had to be turned down on account of limited capacity.

Beyond the question of a doubt, had the school room enough to take care of another 100 students they would be enrolled, as many prospective students do not even apply knowing full well that their application would be turned down.

Special efforts to organize are being made among the retail clerks in the province of Ontario, Canada.

JAPAN VISITED BY FIERCE TYPHOON

Hundreds of Lives are Lost in Storm

$20,000,000 DAMAGE DONE

Not For the Last Fifty Years Has the Island Empire of Japan Been So Fearfully Wrecked.

TOKIO, Japan, Sept. 26.—Damage exceeding $20,000,000 was caused by the typhoon which swept Japan from end to end on Sunday, while the loss of human life was very heavy and tens of thousands are homeless.

The storm was the worst that has occurred here for over half a century, according to reports which have just reached the capital which has been practically cut off from the rest of the country for days.

Crops suffered severely everywhere, but the greatest damage was done in the neighborhood of the cities of Nagoya, Nara and Osaka, on the island of Honshu, and in Gifu.

At Nagoya every house was damaged and a great tidal wave demolished the harbor and sank three steamers, while several others went ashore. At Gifu 262 people were killed and 283 injured.

The Kioke Maru foundered off Enshu and the whole of her crew and passengers were lost.

At Osaka 20,000 houses were ruined and all the breakwaters and the harbor piers were washed away. At Nara the thousand-year-old Kasuga shrine collapsed into a heap of ruins.

Witness in Allen Case, Relative of Murderers, Sentenced

PULASKI, Va., September 26.—When the case of the Commonwealth vs. Barnard Allen, son of Jack Allen, and a nephew of Floyd and Sidna Allen, was called in the Carroll county circuit court, now in session, it was continued until the next term. He had been indicted for the same offense for which his uncle, Floyd Allen, was being tried when the Hillsville tragedy was precipitated by the verdict rendered against Floyd Allen, that of releasing the Edwards boys from the custody of a deputy sheriff of Carroll county. Floyd Allen was found guilty, the jury giving him a term of one year. Another indictment in connection with this term of the Carroll court is that Green Robinson, one of the witnesses for the defense in the Allen trials, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary on the charge of committing an assault.

Robinson is the witness who testified that the shooting in the courtroom sounded like some one throwing leaves of laurel on a fire.

Three Quarters of Million Still Needed For Wilson Fund

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The Democratic National Committee needs $750,000 to defray expenses during the remainder of the campaign.

Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the finance committee, so declared in a formal statement issued today upon his return from Philadelphia, where he organized a state finance committee.

A contribution of $10,000 from Samuel Untermyer was received by Mr. Morgenthau today.

CAUSES OF DIVORCE TO BE INVESTIGATED

MATRIMONIAL ARRANGEMENTS
SUBJECT OF STRICT PROBE
BY CONGRESS NEXT
GATHERING

"TECHNICAL CAUSES, NOT REAL"

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 26.—Technical causes on which divorces are granted are seldom the real causes, declared Rev. Dr. Samuel W. Dike, secretary of the National League for the Protection of the Family, in speaking today to the fiftieth international congress on hygiene and demography. There is great difficulty in getting the truth of divorce, Dr. Dike asserted, where there is no reliable statistical information on the subject. Ambition for dress and social pleasures he classed as a leading cause of divorce, with unwillingness to bear children, influence of sex vices, influence of property and quarrels over its distribution, inadequate wages and innutritious food as other causes.

The vital statistics section of the congress decided to present to the congress as a whole a recommendation that all countries make an effort to have accurate marriage and divorce information gathered.

"If alcoholism were the cause of mental diseases we would all be imbeciles today," asserted Dr. Maximilian P. E. Crossman, director of the National Association for the Study and Education of Exceptional Children, for our ancestors drank excessively and took big 'night caps' and he added, "all the Germans would be imbeciles, whereas, they are a nation of strong-minded artisans and scientists."

Tobacco Market Will Only Close One Day Next Week

It has been finally arranged that the Greenville tobacco market will only close one day during the coming week. This day to be Friday, October the 4th, when The Howes Great London Shows will be here with their circus and other stunts.

Another big break took place today, when four of the five warehouses were crowded with tobacco. The Star which had last sale did not even attempt to unload, although it also had a generous support from its many customers.

It is more than probable that the sale will be blocked and continued over till tomorrow morning. Prices continue reaching high and the farmers are wearing that kind of smile that means entire satisfaction at the treatment accorded them in this, the best Eastern North Carolina market.

TAFT GIVES WARNING AGAINST DEMOCRACY

PLACE WILSON IN THE
WHITE HOUSE

SPECIALLY INJURIOUS TO BUSINESS

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 26.—Business unrest will result if the Democratic unrest will result if the Democratic election, in the opinion of President Taft as expressed in a telegram sent to H. W. Dearborn, chairman of the executive committee of the Commercial Travelers' Sound Money League now in session in New York city. The president declares that it is of the utmost importance that the league's influence should be exerted in the present campaign "on the issue of which largely depends, in my judgment, the continuance of the great era of prosperity, high wages and good profits, which is just now opening to the people of this country."

"I ask the business men of this country," continues the president, "what encouragement they will find and what new investments they will feel like making, if they arise from their beds on the sixth of November, next, and learn that the Democratic party will after the fourth of March, 1913, be in absolute control of the executive, the senate and the house of representatives."

N. Y. REPUBLICANS LOOKING FOR LEADER

Many Names Suggested, None is Accepted

WHITMAN ONE OF MENTIONED

District Attorney Whitman in Receipt of Many Inquiring Telegrams as to Acceptance of Nomination For Governor

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—When District Attorney Whitman reached his office today after returning from Hot Springs, Ark., he found on his desk a sheaf of telegrams from friends at Saratoga who inquired whether he would permit the use of his name before the Republican state convention as a candidate for governor should conditions warrant.

Mr. Whitman did not reply to the messages. It is understood that he had not made up his mind definitely on the subject.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 26.—A candidate to head the Republican state ticket is expected to emerge today from the tangle of speculation that has beset the state convention ever since the delegates began to gather here last Monday.

In their efforts to test sentiment the leaders have suggested one man after another without stirring up any convincing show of enthusiasm.

Unless the Republicans repeat the experience of the Progressives at Syracuse and find their leader in an unexpected outburst of harmonious approval the nominee seems likely to be selected by carefully weighing the strength of the various men proposed and choosing the one who can make the most convincing show of the strength.

For the moment State Senator Harvey D. Hinman, of Binghamton, is foremost among those whose availability is being discussed and until the question of his candidacy was settled there seemed to be the little hope of progress toward any other possible nominee.

The convention, when it met at 11 o'clock today, effected a permanent organization and made State Senator Edgar T. Brackett, of this village, permanent chairman.

The subcommittee appointed to consider the planks suggested for the platform was in session until after three o'clock this morning and planned to make a report to the full committee before the convention met today, but at 9 o'clock there being no prospect of a report, the full committee adjourned.

The name of Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University, was gossiped about the hotel corridors today as a possible candidate for governor.

If there were any doubt that the convention intended to adhere closely to Republican doctrines it was dispelled in the speech of State Senator Edgar T. Brackett, while devoting his address chiefly to state issues, took occasion to speak of "some formerly of our own household."

"To those in doubt," Senator Brackett said, "who are seeking the right, are groping, I would say no word to offend. For such it is the time to reason together."

Bryan Says Wilson Will Win Everywhere

RENO, Nev., Sept. 26.—"I don't concede a single state to either Taft or Roosevelt," declared Colonel William J. Bryan here today. "Wilson and Marshall will make a clean sweep and will carry every state in the Union."
Colonel Bryan entered Nevada today for three speeches.

"TRUSTS ARE NOT INEVITABLE"—WILSON

Roosevelt's Argument is Now Answered

GOV. TOURING MASSACHUSETTS

People Filled the Streets of Springfield to Give the Democratic Nominee a Hearty Welcome

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 26.—When Governor Woodrow Wilson reached Springfield at noon today the streets were filled with cheering crowds. Governor Foss welcomed the presidential nominee. The theatre where the candidate spoke was crowded and a throng was unable to gain entrance.

"Both the regular Republicans and the irregular Republicans," said Governor Wilson, in his speech, "are regular upon this point—neither of them falls to stand pat on the tariff and neither of them proposes to remedy the evils which are created by the trusts. They propose a remedy that perpetuates the diseases."

"I have been reading the messages which Mr. Roosevelt sent to Congress in which he adverted to this theory when legislation on this subject was being considered."

"In almost every instance, he said—and still says—trusts have come about through a natural development of business conditions and that it is a mistake to try to oppose the process by which they have been built up and that the only thing to do is to accept them as inevitable arrangements and make the best of it by regulation. I answer that that results from a confusion of thought. Big business on a great scale is inevitable and desirable but it is a different matter from the development of trusts. The trusts have not grown but have manufactured by the deliberate will of men more powerful than their neighbors in the business world. I deny and they claim the trusts are inevitable."

The Governor was in Springfield just an hour, leaving at 1:15 p. m. for Barre.

Fall Millinery Openings Well Attended by the Ladies

The flutter of expectancy that always precedes big events in the ladies' world, ceased to flutter to day when Greenville milliners opened their doors for the exhibition of fall goods.

Hats and other things that are not up to mere man to even mention (lest he blush) were there in full evidence to the delight of the shoppers who from early morning began to make their pilgrimage to the shrines of Dame Fashion.

It really makes a man think that after all women may perhaps be entitled to a vote. The assurance with which they walk into the array of pretty things and critically survey the exhibits, makes a man feel small. Can you picture a man walking into a store crowded with pretty things, trying twenty-five or thirty hats on and then walking across the street to repeat the performance and never buying any? No sir, it takes the weaker sex to do the stunt.

However, getting away from the comparison line. This fall seems to have gone one and a half better on the last. Everything exhibited is attractive and apparently useful. It would be sacrilegious for us to attempt a description of what we saw. Suffice it to say that from our very low pedestal, when it comes to things feminine, we declare them all beautiful and thank the powers that be that this is Greenville, N. C., and not Utah, or Salt Lake City.

And, on the square, the Mrs. I. F. Lee and Company and W. A. Bowen are selling as fast as they can.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—William J. Harahan was today elected president of the Seaboard Air Line to succeed N. S. Meldrum, who was retired at his own request.

WILSON ON FARMER PROTECTION

The theory, doctrine and claim that protection advantages the farmer, upon which the Republican party has so persistently and insistently rung the changes, never met with more complete annihilation than they suffered at the hands of Governor Wilson in a speech he made in Pennsylvania the other day. The American farmer, Governor Wilson asserted, has never needed protection for the reason, which constitutes "an economical fact," that he has never needed protection, since his grains have been sold at prices established by the prices which his produce commanded in foreign markets.

The prices the farmer receives, he continued, in further impressing his position as to the controlling relation of "an economic fact," to the question, are not established by protection. They are established by your (the farmers') abundance, which you ship to foreign countries. From recognition of the absolute cogency of this reasoning and the unassailability of the conclusion there is no escape.

But Governor Wilson did not stop there. Turning to the disadvantages to the farmer involved in "protection"—high tariff—he affirmed that meantime everything used on the farm, everything the farmer needs, a great deal of what he eats but does not himself produce, including meats, bears a heavy duty, "which brings about the interesting result that you (the farmers) are paying for the wealth of the United States and getting nothing equivalent, so far as the tariff is concerned. A bomb, verily, of concentrated fact and logic Governor Wilson hurled into the protection camp in the above exposition. He not only proved that the farmer is not protected, but demonstrated, to the contrary, that he was mercilessly preyed upon to the benefit of the favored few; that the agricultural interests, considering their immensity, have been and are being made the chief source for glutting protection vampirism.

His proof on the one point and his demonstration as to the other refute in a nutshell every contention that has been advanced in exploitation of protection as the "farmers' friend". They are so clear and convincing that it is impossible to comprehend how any farmer gifted with even the most elementary ability to grasp them can fall of understanding that the tariff is his worst enemy. It is difficult to conceive how he can fail to recognize that just in proportion as he accepts the high tariff doctrine he becomes the dupe and the tool of the special interests and engages in cutting his own purse and throat and the purses and throats of the masses. —is guilty of economic suicide.

GOVERNOR WILSON IN NEBRASKA

A New York dispatch, carried by the United Press, says: The first meeting between Woodrow Wilson, Democratic presidential candidate, and Colonel William J. Bryan, who made Wilson's success in Baltimore possible, will be at Lincoln, Neb., on October 5. The governor made that announcement and stated that he and Bryan will address a big meeting in the Nebraskan's home city on that date. The governor will go to Lincoln from Indianapolis, where he will address the national conservation congress on October 3, instead of October 4, as had been previously arranged. Other engagements are to be made for the trip and if possible speeches will be made by Wilson in both Omaha and Des Moines.

For a year and a half Greenville has been entitled to free mail delivery, but the service has not yet been established and there is nothing definite as to when it will be. The delay, however, is not with the government, but with Greenville. The postal authorities are ready any time to begin the service when Greenville is in condition for it to be done. For months and months the aldermen have had the matter before them of improving the sidewalks, numbering the houses and putting up names of the streets. Great improvements have been made to the sidewalks in the meantime, but the houses and streets are yet unnumbered and unnamed. The latter must also be done before the free delivery service is installed.

Representatives of commercial bodies from several towns recently met in Greensboro to organize a state chamber of commerce with a view of promoting the general welfare of the state. Some of the purposes of the organization are to reform the tax laws of the state; to improve health conditions; to build good roads, and to prohibit discrimination in freight rates.

Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young has designated October 9th as fire prevention day, the object being to get the people of the state concerned in the matter of using more care to prevent fires. It is stated that fire losses in North Carolina amount to $4,000 a day, much of which is due to carelessness and could be prevented.

A Salisbury woman paid dearly for making war on mosquitoes. She climbed up on a trunk to swat one, fell off to the floor and broke her arm.

Pitt county is crowding the hundred dollar mark in the Wilson campaign fund.

Wonder how many votes the Bull Moose expects to make by his ten minutes car platform talks on a run through North Carolina.

Here comes the fellow predicting that the coming winter is to be a hard one. Somebody swat him.

HOW WOULD BRYAN VOTE?

WHAT DOES HE THINK OF WALTER CLARK?

Hon. Thomas J. Pence sent out the following statement in the summer of 1911: "The name of Chief Justice Walter Clark is brought forward by Mr. Bryan in an editorial in the Commonwealth, as available for the Presidency and Senator Pomerene of Ohio as vice presidential candidate on the ticket. Mr. Bryan takes the position that he is not prepared to decide for himself the question of relative availability of Democrats for the Presidential nomination but he gives a list of those he deems fitted for the honor and Judge Clark is prominent in the list." It will also be recalled that Hon. William Jennings Bryan strongly endorsed Judge Clark in 1904 for the presidency.

WHAT DOES BRYAN THINK OF F. M. SIMMONS?

The following editorial comment by Mr. Bryan appeared on the first page of the last issue of his paper. "The Commoner does not take part in contests between Democrats excepting where a principle is involved. In North Carolina, where Senator Simmons is a candidate for re-election a principle is involved. He (F. M. Simmons) is not a progressive and it is a mystery to the outside world why a state like North Carolina has tolerated him so long." Mr. Bryan has not given any opinion about W. W. Kitchin.

HOW WOULD BRYAN VOTE FOR SENATOR?

FARMERS' CO-OPERATION

Ayden, N. C., Sept. 25, 1912.

My friend, A. J. Moyer, writing for the Progressive Farmer of recent date, stresses co-operation among the farmers. Wonder if he "hews to the line, let the chips fall where they may." If I am not mistaken, he holds stock in the Consolidated Tobacco Company and does he sell all his tobacco with the company. If not he is not practicing what he preaches. Oh, he lives so near that market that has the money and pays so much more for tobacco than Greenville, if one is fool enough to swallow all the hot air the warehousemen blow out from that little market, that I suppose he sells his tobacco there. My friend Moyer must know co-operation is impractical with our system of tenant farming. It's so hard to get folks who will stick and who know the right thing and will do it.

Nearly one fourth of the 100,000 cigarmakers in the United States are owners.

Societies affiliated with the British General Federation of Trade Unions have 900,000 members.

Section Hand Killed

Mr. Jesse Colville, son of Mr. Wright Colville of near Greenville who was employed as a section hand on the Norfolk Southern railroad, was run over and killed by a train near Middlesex Wednesday night, and the remains were brought here Thursday. Mr. Colville had been at work with the railroad only a short time. It is said that he went out and placed a torpedo on the track to warn an expected train, then sat down on the end of the cross ties and went to sleep.
