HAZING FATALITY CAUSING DIFFICULTY

Junior Class Resent Recent Sus- pensions

DEMAND THEIR REINSTATEMENT

President Venable's Action Censured at a Mass Meeting of the Students in Chapel Hill

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 28.—The vigorous investigation of the hazing situation at the university which has been inaugurated since the death of "Billy" Rand and which probing developed such a sensation in the expulsion of sixteen students yesterday revealed no additional expulsions today, consequently President Venable's report to the called meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees in Raleigh on Monday will in particular account for the expulsion of the sixteen students that have already been dismissed and since so much resentment has been expressed by friends of the parties that have been expelled it is likely that a few of the students expelled will appear before the executive committee of the trustees pleading injustice on the grounds of being dismissed for acts of hazing engaged in last session. At least one student who has been suspended emphatically states that he will contest the legality of his expulsion, pleading that the charge brought against him is infinitely small and for conduct last session.

The junior class further outspokenly expressed its resentment of the expulsion of eight of their members when a second meeting was held this afternoon. The meeting further emphasized their opinion of yesterday that members of the class should not be expelled for conduct of last year and attached blame to President Venable for not investigating the shooting up of Pickard's hotel annex last session. The class in its last analysis went on record by a vote of two to one that they were with members of the class that were expelled and passed a resolution to draw up a letter to that effect.

AVIATION CLAIMS OFFICER'S DEATHS

Scott and Blackwell Lose Their Lives

GLOOM SPREADS OVER CAMP

Aviator And His Passenger Are Dashed to Death in Army Avia- tion School in Mary- land

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Two more lives were sacrificed to aviation at the United States army aviation field, College Park, Md., near here today when an army aeroplane suddenly fell 35 feet to the ground instantly killing Corporal Frank S. Scott and so seriously injuring Second Lieutenant Lewis C. Rockwell that he died a few hours later. Hundreds of people, including fellow army officers attached to the aviation school, breathlessly witnessed the tragic accident. When they reached the scene Corporal Scott was found dead several feet from the wrecked machine while Lieutenant Rockwell was nearby, fatally injured and unconscious. He was rushed to the Walter Reed army hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness.

Lieutenant Rockwell had started up with Corporal Scott as a passenger to make a test flight in his trial for a military aviator's license. They had been in the air about eight minutes, ascending to a height of 500 feet, then gliding down were about 35 feet above the ground. At this point the aviator turned the machine upward again and something went wrong. Instantly the aeroplane buckled and crashed to the ground being reduced to a heap of wreckage. Scott was hurled several feet from the machine while Rockwell lay a few feet away from him. Brother officers, acting as judges of the flight, carefully picked up the two men. Scott was found to be lifeless, his clothes torn from him and his bones broken. Rockwell, his head partly buried in the earth, still showed signs of life but was unconscious.

Tot Luckily Escapes With Her Life After a 15 Foot Fall

WINSTON-SALEM, Sept. 27.—The six year old daughter of Mrs. Annie Phillips fell from the second story window of the Alsbaugh building, on Liberty street, about noon today and her escape from death is regarded as miraculous by the attending physician and those who witnessed the accident. Mrs. Phillips and her daughter are boarding with a family on the second story of the building and she had started to leave for her work, when she suddenly turned around and saw her child going headforemost out of the window. It happened that a negro man was passing at the time and the child struck him on the shoulder, thereby breaking the fall and possibly saving her life. She fell a distance of fifteen feet.

PROGRESSIVES PUTTING UP DESPERATE FIGHT

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The New York Herald this morning contained a comprehensive poll of the nation and forecast of the result of the presidential election in November. The Herald's canvass indicates a strong lead for Governor Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic nominee; a great loss to the Republicans and a heavy Progressive vote. The colonel is placed second on nearly all of the states canvassed. The Herald also says that "thirty-six days before the election shows the Democrats united in all sections, Progressives fighting desperately and the Republicans apathetic." The Herald's forecast in part follows:

"With the Republican party from one end of the country to the other torn asunder by the activities of the Bull Moose candidate and with the Democrats working in complete, almost blissful, harmony, indications at the present time—thirty-six days before election—point to Democratic victory at the polls in November.

"Consensus of opinion seems to be that the Bull Moose sentiment has reached its highest point and that the Taft movement in many sections is on the rise. In some sections the indications are that the Wilson tide has reached its flood. In others it seems to be rising steadily.

"It is too early to make an iron-clad prediction. The Herald will not at this time attempt to do so. Conditions in many parts of the nation are very much unsettled. Chaos only describes the situation in a few sections. Furthermore, it has been demonstrated many times that only the most daring would venture a prophecy as to the result of a presidential contest more than a month in advance of the election. Conditions can change overnight. Whole presidential canvasses have, in fact, changed overnight. Anyone of many, many factors might unexpectedly enter into the situation, setting at naught all opinions and deductions.

"Straw votes point to the election of Governor Wilson. They indicate that President Taft will run third in many states. Personal canvasses made by the Herald's experienced political correspondents in every corner of the country indicate that sentiment at the present time favors Governor Wilson. They show keenest activity on the part of the Democrats and Bull Moose campaigners and in many of the shorter routes.

sections listlessness and indifference on the part of the Republicans. "In undertaking the most elaborate presidential canvass ever made by any newspaper the Herald instructed all of its canvassers and all of its correspondents to "get the truth." For more than a month reporters have been working from coast to coast and the results of their investigations, as well as the work of the men assigned to take test ballots, are set forth in this section. From now until the close of the campaign the Herald will continue to publish, without favor, color or bias, the exact situation throughout the country, as indicated by its staff reporters, special correspondents and canvassers.

"Straw votes were taken in 11 states and while they shed an interesting light on conditions, they cannot be offered as an unerring index of what might be expected throughout the country. But it is a fact of importance, however, that the reports from practically all the political reporters—from Oregon to Southern California, from Maine to Colorado and from Northern Michigan to Kentucky—bear out in large measure the returns from the straw votes. It is a further important notation also that the reports of practically all the correspondents agree. Some of them intimate that conditions are gradually changing—that President Taft is gaining here, that Governor Wilson is losing there—but the majority of the reports indicate that the Democracy at the present time is away in the lead.

British Steel Institute Meets.

LEEDS, Sept. 30.—A delegation of American iron and steel manufacturers are attending the annual meeting of the British Iron and Steel Institute, which met here today for a four-day session. On Thursday the visitor will be entertained by Lord and Lady Alredale at a garden party at Gledhow Hall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The 2nd salary advance for rural carriers made in the last 4 years went into effect today. Under the new schedule the pay of carriers on standard routes is advanced from $1,000 to $1,100 with proportionate increases in the salaries of carriers on the shorter routes.

Roosevelt Calls it Now "A Direct Reverse of the Truth"

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 28.—Governor Woodrow Wilson was charged by Colonel Roosevelt here tonight with making a statement in regard to his position which was "not merely an untruth, but the direct reverse of the truth."

Speaking before a large crowd here tonight the ex-president took up recent statements of the Democratic candidate tonight and denied them flatly. He said that Governor Wilson did not believe some of these things and knew that Colonel Roosevelt had never said them.

Colonel Roosevelt spent the day in campaigning across Alabama and Georgia. In spite of a rain which fell steadily until the day was almost done, he was received at the larger places by crowds which cheered him as the bands played "Dixie".

At Macon, where he spent an hour this afternoon, he spoke to several thousands persons. Colonel Roosevelt reached Atlanta this evening and will remain here over night.

"It is curious to see," he said here tonight, "how Messrs. Taft and Wilson are drawing together in their hostility to the Progressive party and its principles. On the great issues of the day the Democratic and Republican platforms are in fundamental sympathy, for in reality the difference between the two old parties on these issues is a mere difference of sound and fury in declaration, there being no difference whatever in action and hardly a real difference even in proposed action. In their attitude toward the group of questions dealing with labor and with social and industrial justice and in their attitudes toward the trusts Messrs. Wilson and Taft stand on the same ground. They neither of them have one practical proposition to make looking toward the betterment of a single evil in our social and industrial life.

Henderson Tobacco Market Reports Some Busy Sales

HENDERSON, Sept. 28.—Tobacco breaks on the Henderson market are exceptionally large these days. Thursday the breaks were so large that all day was consumed in making the sales on the floors of two of the local warehouses and no sales were consequently made at the Cooper's warehouse. The banks, in order to accommodate the farmers and let them have their money for their tobacco, kept open until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

DIVORCE THE PHILIPPINES

One tremendous expense now being borne by American taxpayers that will be lifted in the event of the election of a Democratic president and Democratic House is the cost of governing the Philippine Islands, which is being done against the desire of 95 per cent of the Filipino people. Ten years ago Senator Hoar stated in the Senate that up to that time the cost had been $600,000,000. Since then we have kept in those islands an average of 12,277 troops. It cost the government $1,500 annually to maintain each soldier. The cost alone of maintaining the military forces in the Philippines last year was over $26,000,000. It is safe to affirm that the sum which would be annually saved were the United States to relinquish sovereignty over the Philippine Islands, would not fall short of $50,000,000. Democratic success means the divorcing of the islands and Republican success means their retention.

FACULTY WINKED AT FORMER HAZINGS

Hazing is wrong and college students who engage in it ought to be expelled. But we think President Venable and the faculty of the University acted very wrong in going back to offenses committed last session and dismissing students connected with them along with those who participated in the recent hazing that cost young Rand his life. If the hazings of last session were known right then was the time to investigate them and deal with the students accordingly. It is evident from bringing up the old ones at this late day that they were known to the faculty but concealed from the public and the people would have continued in ignorance had not the last hazing caused such a tragedy as to incense the state.

BOTH ARE RIGHT

Theodore Roosevelt, candidate for a third term as president, said recently: "Taft now represents the boss and the Republican party is composed of them and the vested interests of the country".

And President Taft said: "Roosevelt is not a Republican, but represents a one-man party whose chief advisers are the harvester and steel trust magnates." Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, also a Republican, says both Taft and Roosevelt are telling the truth about each other. And La Follette has had enough experience with both Messrs. Taft and Roosevelt to know what he is talking about.

The answer is: Win with Wilson.

SENATOR CLAPP TESTIFIES

Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, says: "You will hear it said constantly with reference to something on which the price has been advanced, 'Oh, that isn't in the tariff at all. That increase has nothing to do with the tariff'. But the fact is that the tariff reaches all along the line. You can't raise the cost of living to a man who is producing something to sell without forcing that man to raise correspondingly the price of what he has to sell."

QUERY FOR PROTECTIONISTS

If our protective system is not the "substantial" explanation of the abnormal increase in the cost of living in the United States, how does it come that British prices, under free trade, increased but 7.7 per cent in ten years, while American prices, under protection, increased 34.3 per cent?

TARIFF TAX EXTORTIONS

Here are some figures showing the tariff tax paid by the average American family which tell their own story: Wage earner's family $82.00 a year. Salary earner's family $140.00 a year. Professional man's family $140 a year.

There are a hundred counties in North Carolina, and if each had subscribed as much to the Wilson campaign fund as Pitt, the total would be $10,000. Pitt's contribution so far is about $100, while the whole state has not reached quite $5,000. Yet North Carolina is doing well.

Unless President Taft waits until after the election to write his Thanksgiving proclamation, he will have to do some guess work. And if he waits the election will doubtless not leave him anything to be thankful for.

Said a man of the road to The Reflector man Saturday "I have recently traveled every town east of Raleigh and Greenville is the best town of them all." Right.

About the most disgusting thing politically that North Carolina has been up against, is the senatorial campaign.

Sir Charles Villiers Stanford, a musical composer whose works have long been regarded with the deepest respect, was born in Dublin, Sept. 30, 1852. REPUBLICANS' EXTRAVAGANCE

Government Cost More Than Doubled Under Roosevelt.

DEMOCRATS' GREAT RECORD

Startling Figures Which Show That the Cost of Our National Existence and the High Cost of Living Must Be Reduced.

Under a proper downward revision of the Republican tariff schedules the people of the United States would save $2,000,000,000 each year, or over $100 per family on manufactured goods alone.

President Taft's vetoes of the wool tariff bill and the steel tariff measure passed by a Democratic house COST THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES ABOUT $650,000,000 PER ANNUM.

The cost of conducting the federal government MORE THAN DOUBLED between the close of President Cleveland's second administration (Democratic) and the beginning of President Roosevelt's second administration (Republican).

As the DIRECT RESULT OF HIGH REPUBLICAN TARIFF SCHEDULES the people of the United States pay a tax FROM NINE TO SEVENTY-EIGHT PER CENT on food and ordinary household articles used in the home by every family, rich and poor.

The total cost of running the federal government in 1869 was $55,000,000.

The amount appropriated at a single session of the Sixty-first congress for the fiscal year 1911—$1,027,133,446.44—was more than double the amount—$954,496,055.13—appropriated for the fiscal years 1897 and 1898 at both sessions of the Fifty-fourth congress, the last congress of the second Cleveland administration.

Only eight years elapsed between the close of the second administration of President Cleveland and the beginning of the second administration of President Roosevelt and yet the amount appropriated during the four years of the latter—$3,842,203,577.15—was more than double that appropriated in the four years Mr. Cleveland was at the helm—viz. $1,871,59,857.47.

For 1910, the last fiscal year provided for in congress under President Roosevelt, the high water mark in appropriations—$1,044,401,857.12—was reached.

President Taft's estimate to the last session of congress for government support for the fiscal year was $1,040,648,026.55.

In other words, governmental expenses for the FOUR YEARS of President Cleveland's administration (Democratic) were only $30,861,551.92 more than President Taft's (Republican) estimate of the amount necessary to cover the expenses of ONE YEAR of President Taft's administration.

Congressman John J. Fitzgerald of New York, a Democrat and chairman of the committee on appropriations, in addressing the house Aug. 26, 1912, on the subject of appropriations said, "Thoughtful men have watched with alarm the rapid increase in the cost of government in the United States." He further said that two causes seem responsible for many present evils:

"One, the UNFAIR AND UNJUST SYSTEM OF TAXATION by which an undue share of income by those whose circumstances in life are not considered more than reasonably comfortable is taken through our customs laws for the support of our government; the other, the difficulty or inability to readjust our system of taxation and to remove many taxes from the necessities of life, so long as the GOVERNMENT IS EXTRAVAGANTLY CONDUCTED, or the instrumentalities provided for the conduct of the public service, are either inefficient or are not utilized, so as to render the most effective and comprehensive results."

Mr. Fitzgerald then called attention to the fact that the Democratic party pledged itself if entrusted with power to do two things—REDUCE TARIFF DUTIES AND RETRENCH PUBLIC EXPENDITURES by eliminating waste in administration and the abolition of useless, inexcusable offices.

The Republicans talk about tariff revision, and yet when a Democratic house in fulfilling Democratic promises to the people reduced the tariff, a Republican president vetoed the measure. "By their works shall ye know them."

Democrats in every state of the Union should organize and prepare for polling a record breaking vote Nov. 5. Be it remembered that no matter how certain victory seems, overconfidence is always dangerous.

Is there any reason why the Democratic party should go out of existence simply because Mr. Roosevelt has taken up the Progressive measures adopted by the Democrats eighteen years ago?—W. J. Bryan.

Mr. Roosevelt stood as a guarantor for Mr. Taft. Mr. Bryan says, "Now, when Roosevelt has failed so utterly in his judgement of men, I ask can he correct judgment on himself?"

THIRD TERMER'S JOKE ON LABOR

Brandeis Shows Right to Organize Is Not Recognized.

THE PLATFORM IS SILENT

Noted Lawyer Exposes the Filmmess of Promises Made to Workingmen by Perkins and His Candidate, Who Stands for Private Monopoly.

"The new party pledges itself to social and industrial justice and specifically to 'work unceasingly for effective legislation looking to the prevention of occupational diseases, overwork, involuntary unemployment and other injurious effects incident to modern industry,' but nowhere in that long and comprehensive platform can there be found one word approving the fundamental right of labor to organize or even recognizing this right without which all other grants and concessions for improvement of the condition of the workingmen are futile. The platform promises social and industrial justice, but does not promise industrial democracy. The justice which it offers is that which the benevolent and wise corporation is prone to administer through its welfare department. There is no promise of that justice which free American workingmen are striving to secure for themselves through organization. Indeed, the industrial policy advocated by the new party would result in the denial of labor's right to organize.

"The new party stands for the perpetuation and extension of private monopoly from which the few have ever profited at the expense of the many and for the detronement of which the people have, in the past, fought so many valiant battles. That cursed product of despotism, the new party, proposes to domesticate in our republic, proclaiming, 'We do not fear commercial power.' Certainly organized labor has had experience with the great trusts which should teach all men that commercial power may be so great that it is the part of wisdom to fear it."

The above declaration was made by Louis D. Brandeis before the convention of the American Federation of Labor, Massachusetts state branch, at Fitchburg, Sept. 18.

Of Supreme Importance.

He urges a careful study of the new party platform, particularly its effect upon labor, noting not only WHAT IT CONTAINS, but WHAT IT OMITTS, adding, "When you make that examination you will find that there is a significant omission and that this skillfully devised platform TAKES FROM LABOR MORE THAN IT GIVES."

Labor Record of Trusts.

Mr. Brandeis then lays bare the labor record of the trusts, declaring that "great trusts—the steel trust, the sugar trust, the beef trust, the tobacco trust, the smelter trust and a whole troop of lesser trusts—have made the extermination of organized labor from their factories the very foundation stone of their labor policy. The ability to defeat labor's right to combine seems to have been regarded by the trust magnates as a proper test of the efficiency of their capitalistic combination."

Mr. Brandeis shows that in 1899, during the Colorado smelters' strike, the American Smelting and Refining company closed its mills where the strikers had been employed and transferred the work to other mills, thus breaking the strike. The United States Steel corporation had similar success in 1901 with the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. Had the association been dealing with competing employers the result would have been different. The United States Steel trust was prompt in introducing this plan. June 17, 1901, six weeks after it began its operations, its executive committee passed this vote, which was offered by Charles Steele, a partner of George W. Perkins in the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co.:

"That we are unalterably opposed to any extension of union labor and advise subsidiary companies to take firm position when these questions come up and say that they are not going to recognize it—that is, any extension of union in mills where they do not now exist."

Union Men Not Wanted.

The result was that the bulk of American union laboring men in the iron and steel industry were made to understand that they were not wanted at the works of the United States Steel corporation. Places once filled by American laborers loyal to their union were given to others, and, as the Stanley committee found, "Hordes of laborers from southern Europe poured into the United States." Hence about 80 per cent. of the unskilled laborers in the iron and steel business are foreigners of these classes, the profits going to the steel corporation. Mr. Brandeis declared that "the immediate and continuing result of the steel trust's triumph over organized labor has been an extensive system of espionage and repression."

There has been no disturbance of business interests during this presidential campaign. Why? Confidence in the integrity of the Democratic nominees and right purposes of the party.

The Y. W. C. A. at the Training School

The Young Women's Christian Association is one of the most important factors in the student life of the Training School.

Committees from the association were among the first to arrive. They met the trains, assisted the new girls in registration and introduced them to the routine of the school life, thus greatly assisting officials as well as making the new girls feel at home.

On Saturday evening the association gave a reception to the whole school, in honor of the new students. The recreation hall, on the third floor, was made bright and attractive. The decorations were golden rod and other fall flowers.

Pres. and Mrs. Wright, the faculty advisory members and the Y. W. C. A. cabinet were in the receiving line. Each young lady present was labeled with her name and home address so that formal introductions were unnecessary.

This, the first social event of the year, was a delightful occasion.

On Sunday evening, at the first religious service of the year, Pres. Wright made a forceful talk on the true conception of Christianity, giving an excellent interpretation of the verses beginning: "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden." He also read the Sermon on the Mount. He stressed the need of organized Christian work in a school of this nature, a school that is multi-denominational. He attributed much of the splendid spirit of the school to the Y. W. C. A.

The young women of the association have begun the year with the determination to do even greater work than they have done in the past.

Greenville People Receiving the Full Benefit

There have been many cases like the following in Greenville. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

James Hardison, 411 Fifth street, Greenville, N. C., says: "I had trouble from my kidneys and the kidney secretions passed too frequently at night. In the morning when I got up, there was lameness across my loins and I also suffered from backache. Doan's Kidney Pills which were procured from the John L. Wooten Drug Co., relieved all these symptoms of kidney complaint and restored my kidneys to a normal condition." (Statement given January 14, 1908..)

No Trouble Since

Later Mr. Hardison said: "I take pleasure in confirming my former statement in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy made a permanent cure in my case."

EVERY TIME HE THINKS HE SMELLS SMOKE the uninsured man is scared stiff. Not alone for his personal safety, but also because of the knowledge that the burning of his home means ruin for him. If he had a policy in the company we represent the latter fear wouldn't enter into consideration if a fire struck his place.

Invulnerable Warship Launched.

TOULON, Sept. 30.—Within less than 12 months from the time her keel was laid down, the battleship Paris which is designed to be the most formidable warship ever built for the French navy, was successfully launched today. The distinguished feature of the new vessel is her armor plate, which is made entirely of new metal of French invention, which will be expected, render a battleship less vulnerable to shell fire, and mark a new epoch in shipbuilding.

The armament of the Paris will be 12 guns of 305 millimetre calibre and four guns of 47 millimetres. Her tonnage will be 23,500 and her contract speed twenty knots.

National Irrigation Congress in Utah.
SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 30.—With delegates present from many states the 20th annual meeting of the National Irrigation Congress assembled here today. The sessions will continue until Friday, and during the time much important action is expected to be taken looking forward to the reclamation and development of the vast unsettled territory of the West.

Big Game Season Opens.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 30.—Maine's big game season will open tomorrow, when deer shooting will begin, extending to December 15. The open season on Moose will begin two weeks hence. The hunting prospects this year are said to be good, and hundreds of sportsmen have gathered in the northern and eastern portions of the state, where the wild game is more plentiful.

Foreign Delegation Begins Tour
BOSTON, Sept. 30.—The foreign delegates who have been attending the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce in this city left Boston today to begin a tour of the eastern half of the country. The cities to be visited include Worcester, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Washington, and Philadelphia and New York.

Lancaster Man Gets Two Years For Crime Committed in N. C.

CHARLOTTE, Sept. 28.—Claude Blackwell, of Lancaster, S. C., was this afternoon found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for the killing of Dr. Fred Misenheimer in a room at the Ruford hotel May 25. Evidence in the case was to the effect that Blackwell and Misenheimer and several other men had been drinking, playing cards and otherwise carousing and a fight followed. Misenheimer, so it is claimed by the defense, attacked Blackwell with a plumber's plunge stick and Blackwell stabbed Misenheimer, death resulting 10 days later.

Both parties were prominent in their respective cities and the trial attracted a great deal of interest. Eminent counsel appeared on both sides and the case was hard fought throughout.

FARMER GETS LESS, BUT—

He Has to Pay More for What He Doesn't Raise.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has just announced that notwithstanding the increased cost of living among the people as a whole there was a greater decline in the prices paid to farmers from Aug. 1 to Sept. 1 this year than there was last year.

The average farm prices of the important crops (corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, potatoes, tobacco, cotton and hay, which represent about three-fourths of the value of all the country's crops) declined 7 per cent. during the month, while in that time last year they declined in price only 4.4 per cent., and during the last four years the decline in price averaged 3.8 per cent. The average of farm prices on Sept. 1 was 2.8 per cent. lower than on that date last year.

Prices paid to farmers on Sept. 1 this year, with comparison of prices paid on the same date last year, follow:

	1912.	1911.
Corn	$0.775	$0.859
Wheat	.858	.848
Oats	.350	.404
Barley	.535	.770
Rye	.708	.789
Buckwheat	.766	.740
Flaxseed	1.626	2.036
Potatoes	.650	1.137
Hay	12.140	14.610
Cotton	.113	.118
Butter	.242	.231
Chickens	.113	.111
Eggs	.191	.174

But the prices on tariff nurtured articles of manufacture which the farmer has to buy continue to soar.

Wonder how many votes the Bull Moose expects to make by his ten minutes car platform talks on a run through North Carolina.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 28.—Interesting developments are expected when the subcommittee of the senate committee on privileges and elections reassemble in Washington on Monday to resume its investigation of campaign contributions. Colonel Roosevelt has announced his intention to appear before the committee on Tuesday to tell what he knows of the contributions of big corporations to the Republican campaign fund in 1908. Other important witnesses who have been summoned to testify are J. P. Morgan, George W. Perkins, Henry C. Frick, George B. Cortelyou, William Rockefeller, William R. Heart, former Senator Crales Dick of Ohio and former Senator Nathan B. Scott of West Virginia.

Looming big among the political events of the week will be the Democratic state convention of New York, which will meet in Saratoga to name candidate for governor and other state officers to be voted for in November.

Governor Woodrow Wilson is scheduled to address the Good Roads Congress in Atlantic City on Monday and the next day he will start on his second campaign tour of the west. He will speak before the National Conservation Congress in Indianapolis and later will be heard in St. Louis and Omaha. Saturday night will find him in Lincoln, Neb., where he will remain over Sunday as the guest of William J. Bryan.

Organized labor everywhere will follow the trial of Joseph J. Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti, members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who are to appear in court in Lawrence, Mass., on Monday to answer to a charge of murder. The charge grows out of the killing of a woman in the street riots during the textile strike in Lawrence last spring.

Also of interest in labor and industrial circles will be the trial of fifty-four leaders or others affiliated in less degree with organized labor for alleged violation of the law relative to the interstate transportation of dynamite. The trials are scheduled to begin Tuesday in the Federal court at Indianapolis. The cases are an outgrowth of the Ortie McManigal confession which brought about the arrest and conviction of the Menamara brothers for the Los Angeles Times explosion.

Important conventions of the week will include the first annual American Good Roads Congress at Atlantic City, the triennial meeting of the National Association for the Study of Pellagra, at Columbia, S. C.; the twentieth annual meeting of the National Irrigation Congress, at Salt Lake City; the National Conservation Congress at Indianapolis; the annual conference of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., at Chicago, and the meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States, at Baltimore.

Woman's Golf Championship.

MANCHESTER, Mass., Sept. 30.—The eyes of all women interested in outdoor athletics will be turned this week to the golf links of the Essex County Club of this place, where the annual tournament of the woman's national amateur golf championship was begun this morning with a qualifying round of 18 holes. Match play will begin tomorrow and continue daily until Saturday, when the finals will be contested. A large and representative entry list gives promise of a successful tournament.
