NEGRO EX-CONVICT LYNCHED IN JAIL

Had Attacked Woman They Respected

NEGRO IN PRISON FOR KEEPING

Prisoners Passing His Pen Hear Him Boast of the Crime—They Break Into His Cell and Lynch Him.

RAWLINS, Wyo., Oct. 2.—Convicts at the State Prison today lynched Frank Wigfall, a negro and ex-convict, who late tonight was placed in the prison for safe keeping. Wigfall was arrested on a charge of attacking Mrs. Esther Higgins, aged 78, last Sunday.

Wigfall was arrested at Ft. Steele, 15 miles from here.

Mrs. Higgins, the aged victim of the negro's attack, lived near the State penitentiary and was a favorite with the prisoners.

Last night a mob gathered and made an unsuccessful attempt to take Wigfall from the county jail.

Fearing that the mob might later return, the officers reported to Governor Carey at Cheyenne and received orders to transfer the negro to the state prison.

Wigfall was placed in a cell on the third floor. This morning, as the other convicts passed the cell on their way to breakfast, the negro laughed and boasted about his deed. This incensed the prisoners, who quietly perfected their plans for vengeance.

After breakfast with 150 convicts in the prison yard, about half of them started for the cell house. They overpowered the keeper who was changing the negro into another cell and locked him in a cell.

One of the convicts produced a rope which he had secreted under his coat. A half hitch was placed around the negro's neck and he was dropped from the cell house balcony, a distance of thirty feet.

The time consumed in the lynching was less than five minutes and so quietly did the prisoners work that none but the cell house keeper who was overpowered knew what was happening. The lynchers then returned to their work.

"The first man that squeals is the next man hung," was the warning whispered to all prisoners after the lynching, according to a statement credited to Warden Alston. The official declined to give the source of his information.

Warden Alston at once started an investigation, but it was stated that he had been unable to identify positively anyone. He expressed the opinion that had Wigfall been made upon anyone other than Mrs. Higgins and had he not laughed and boasted about it, the lynching would not have occurred.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The first of the American warships that will take part in the great naval review that will be held here next week has put in an appearance and another week, it is expected, will see all the ships, big and little, swinging at anchor in the Hudson. So numerous will the crafts be that they will form an almost unbroken column extending from a point opposite 23rd street up the river as far as Yonkers. More than 700,000 tons of fighting ships and auxiliaries will be in the display, and of this grand total more than 450,000 tons will be super-dreadnaughts, and dreadnaughts, first-class battleships and armored cruisers.

NOTED BARRISTER DIES IN RALEIGH

STROKE OF PARALYSIS IS FOLLOWED BY DEATH OF ROBERT T. GRAY, A LAWYER

WAS PROMINENT IN THE RALEIGH BAR

RALEIGH, Oct. 2.—Robert T. Gray, for many years a prominent member of the Raleigh bar, died at his residence on North Blount street today following a stroke of paralysis early this morning. He was in his 65th year. Mr. Gray will be best remembered in Raleigh for his many acts of kindness, for his consideration of feelings of others and for a great warm heart that beat within him for his fellow men. No citizen of Raleigh held a warmer place in the affections of the people than he and the news of his death will cause many an eye to fill with tears.

Mr. Gray was born in Randolph county June 3, 1849, his parents moving to Winston, Forsyth county, when he was a boy. He was educated at Bingham school, Mebane, and the University of Virginia and read law under the late Chief Justice Pearson. Mr. Gray moved to Raleigh in 1873 for the practice of law and in 1875 was married to Miss Caro Lilly, of Fayetteville, who with three children survive. They are: Robert L. Gray, a well known newspaper man and magazine writer, and Mrs. Charles Fish and Miss Caro Gray. Besides these he is survived by five grandchildren and four brothers: James A. Gray, Eugene E. Gray and Emery S. Gray, of Winston-Salem and W. T. Gray, navy paymaster, in charge of the Boston navy yards.

Mr. Gray was a member of the board of trustees of Rex Hospital, a member both of the board of trustees and executive committee of the University of North Carolina, a member of the board of trustees of the State Normal and Industrial College, of Greensboro, and a member of the board of trustees of Edenton street Methodist church, Raleigh. In each of these capacities he was faithful to his trust. He was particularly interested in Rex hospital which next to his family and his church, claimed most of his time.

Pitt's Contribution But $1.50 off the Century Mark

Contributions to the Woodrow Wilson campaign fund from Pitt county to date amount to $98.50, or exactly one hundred and fifty cents short of the $100.00.

No doubt but that this sum will be completed and probably passed before Mr. Pierce makes the incorporation. As it is, Pitt county has made a good showing, Democrats coming to the front generously. Had all other counties in Democratic states done as well as Pitt county, Treasurer Rolla Wells would not have to say that the fund is still short of something like three quarters of a million dollars. The election is but a few weeks off, and with Democracy throughout the country in the very best shape it has been in for many a moon, funds should not be lacking to ensure a victory which would bring prosperity and good government to us.

Bishop Anderson of Cincinnati, Bishop Moore of Indianapolis, and a number of other well-known church leaders took part in the anniversary.

VARSAITY NEWS DIRECT FROM THE HILL

HAZING EPISODE STILL REMAINS THE TOPIC OF DISCUSSION IN SEAT OF LEARNING

OTHER HAZINGS OF THE SEASON

(By A Winterville Boy)

CHAPEL HILL, Oct. 2.—Dr. Francis P. Venable reported Monday to the executive committee of the board of trustees the findings of the faculty in their investigation of hazing at the university this fall and last spring. Dr. Venable and the faculty ascertained from an examination of many students that there had been three hazing escapades prior to the Rand fatality.

The executive committee was called together two weeks ago by Gov. Kitchin to hear the official report of the president of this institution on the death of young Rand, of Smithfield. As a result of this investigation four have been expelled and twelve suspended for one year from the university. The junior class suffered the loss of several of its members for offenses committed last spring. The juniors were a little indignant at first over the matter and immediately had a call meeting of the class and adopted certain resolutions which were repealed after careful thought and deliberation. The statement published by some of the leading newspapers of the state, that the junior class is indignant at the faculty and much hard feelings toward the president is being felt, is a great mistake. It is truly hoped that the people of the state may not believe such radical statements as are being made just at the present time about the university. Never was there a time when the student body and the faculty were united more closely than at the present time to save the reputation of the university from the attacks of the newspapers.

Dr. Venable has been severely criticized for his act by the papers which he says he is able to bear for the sake of the institution which he loves.

His report to the students in Gerard Hall this morning was very brief. He explained the cause of the expulsion of the sixteen students and asked the aid of both the council and the student body in exterminating the practice of hazing in any form from the college.

It is the rules of the university that any one who is known to be present when hazing is going on and does not try to prevent it, is by his presence aiding and abetting and is considered guilty by the faculty and student council. Twelve of this number were suspended for violating this rule.

The football team is on the field every evening preparing to meet their opponents. A strenuous effort is being put forth to make a better record this year than ever. Only being defeated by Virginia once in its many contests. The coaches are making every effort to have the squad in shape for Virginia at Richmond on Nov. 28. Special rates will be given from here to Richmond to see the ball game.

Honner Military school withdrew, so there was no game last Saturday only between the varsity and scrubs. U. N. C. Football schedule is as follows:

- Oct. 5. Davidson at Charlotte.
- Oct. 7. Wake Forest at Chapel Hill.
- Oct. 19. Bingham School of Asheville at Chapel Hill.
- Oct. 25.—V. P. I. at Raleigh or Winston-Salem
- Nov. 2. Georgetown at Richmond.
- Nov. 9. University of South Carolina at Chapel Hill.
- Nov. 16. Washington and Lee at Greensboro.
- Nov. 28. University of Va. at Richmond

Freshmen Organize

Without the customary 5 a. m. depot meeting on the sly, the Freshmen met in chapel a few mornings ago and held a meeting under the supervision of the student council. Each candidate was named with a great whoop. In fact, it was a very interesting meeting for the new men.

The following officers were elected: Bryce Beard, president. Jos. S. Husks, vice president.

Clifton Beckwith, secretary and treasurer. Besides these Royster was elected manager of the football team and Jat-

RULES FOR GAMES ARE DRAWN

Both Teams in Readiness for World's Supremacy Struggle, Which Begins in New York

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 2.—The National Baseball Commission has announced conditions as well as the revised rules that will govern the world's series between the Giants and Red Sox. That the public has been considered is evidenced by the first statement reading:

"The public is cautioned against paying higher prices for admission than those fixed by the commission which has the hearty co-operation from the municipal authorities of each city in the suppression of ticket scalping. Play will begin on each grounds at 2 p. m.

Some of the revised rules of the commission for the conduct of the series are as follows:

"A scheduled game, postponed for legal cause, called it before it becomes a regulation game or terminating with the score tied, shall, unless the schedule publicly provides to the contrary be played off the ground for which it was scheduled before the succeeding scheduled game for the other city shall be contested and the dates as signed for subsequence g2. Spectators will not be permitted to encroach or stand on the playing field at any point.

The team that wins the world's championship will be required to disband immediately thereafter, and its members are forbidden to participate as individuals or as a team in exhibition games during the year in which such world's series was decided.

The players' pool shall be restricted to 60 per cent of the receipts of the first four games, after the deduction of the commission's 10 per cent thereof, regardless of whether one or more of such games shall result in a tie.

Boston, Oct. 2.—With Fenway park extended to its utmost seating capacity, the broad surface of the diamond protected by canvas and 7,000 letters containing 21,000 reserved seats ready to be mailed, Boston's preparations for the world's series in this city are nearly completed.

Tickets were quoted on Stock Exchange lines today at $8 and $10 was asked for reserved seats.

The Red Sox rule the favorite in the betting at 10 to 7, and even 2 to 1.

Mexican Government Anxious to Come to Agreement

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The Mexican government apparently is making no secret of the fact that it is now negotiating with Zapata for peace, according to reports to the state department.

The strong representations made to the Mexican government by Ambassador Calero at the instance of President Taft is said to be having a powerful effect upon the Madero government.

It is believed that if pending peace negotiations are not speedily successful the government will renew the war upon the rebels on a scale far more formidable and extensive.

Talesman Afraid His Business Would Suffer is Excused

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 2.—Questions whether they feared for their personal safety if they served as jurors were asked veniremen today in the selection of a jury for the trial of the accused "dynamite plotters".

One man was excused by Judge A. E. Anderson as a "coward" because he said he feared serving would ruin his business.

The putting of these questions developed a dispute between District Attorney Charles W. Miller and United States Senator John W. Kern, counsel for the defense.

"Well, it has been shown here that one man didn't want to go on the jury because he feared for his personal safety," said Mr. Miller.

Bert F. Raynes, owner of a store at Linton, Ind., said he did not care to serve on the jury.

"Are you afraid it would hurt your business?" asked Mr. Miller.

"Yes."

Mr. Miller—"Your honor, we don't want such men on the jury."

The Court—"No; if he is such a coward as that he may step aside."

In one instance Mr. Miller said, "Labor unions are not on trial here."

"I think I know what's on trial here," interposed Judge Anderson. "Labor unions are not on trial, but individuals are. It is competent to question a prospective juror as to his relation with unions because the relation of the defendants with the labor unions is likely to cut a big figure in this case."

Tobacco Market Closes Up To-morrow to See the Circus

Silence will prevail tomorrow in all of the local tobacco warehouses. The circus, so widely advertised, will be here to show evening and night and the market people are to have a rest and enjoy the entertainment.

Some two weeks ago this would have been a fine piece of news to the overcrowded warehousemen. As it is just now sales have been light and nobody around the houses feels entitled to the holiday.

For some days past light sales have been the order of the day, invariably seeing the close of the selling day easily within dinner time. Today was no exception to this rule and a rather small amount of tobacco was brought to market.

Prices continue to hold firm, houses making good averages with small houses.

Probably the cotton picking now going on all around is responsible for these light sales. Quite a number of bales of the staple being rolled into town daily.

September Sales

During the month of September 5,137,191 pounds of tobacco were sold on the Greenville market, for $870,795.20, which gives a general average of $16.85.

(These figures furnished by Mr. R. Hyman, Secretary Tobacco Board of Trade.)

GENTRY & GORMAN'S BULLETIN

Our sale today was the largest in town and the best of the week as to prices. Everybody highly pleased and some who had been selling elsewhere, this being their first load with us, said they were sorry they had not come to Gorman's New Brick before.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—George R. Shelton, former treasurer of the Republican national committee, testified today before the Clapp committee that in 1904 the Standard Oil Company contributed $100,000; J. P. Morgan and Co., $100,000; H. C. Frick, $100,000 and Geo. J. Gould, $100,000.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Senator Dixon, Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager, today told the Clapp committee he had been reliably informed that Thomas F. Ryan and A. H. Plant, auditor of the Southern Railway, had contributed heavily to Oscar W. Underwood campaign; that Jos. E. Davis spent $30,000 in Governor Wilson's pro-convention campaign; that Charles P. Taft had spent $600,000 for his brother, the president and that "leading financiers of New York had spent large sums for Governor Harmon."

Senator Dixon renewed his charge that the investigation was being directed at Colonel Roosevelt more than any other candidate and challenged the committee to call Charles P. Taft, Thomas Fortune Ryan and other men whom he named, who he said has been informed had made heavy expenditures for either Wilson or Governor Harmon.

Senator Dixon said he had kept no accurate record of his expenditures. He said $25,000 had come from George W. Perkins, $25,000 from Frank A. Munsey, and $25,000 from Dan R. Hanna and that whenever he got desperately hard up he went back to Perkins.

Senator Dixon charges that the committee was investigating Colonel Roosevelt's expenses and intended to let those of Taft, Wilson and Harmon and Clark go until after the election brought out bitter exchanges with members of the committee. Chairman Clapp took the charge as a personal reflection upon himself, "the only member of the committee friendly to Colonel Roosevelt."

Senator Dixon finally demanded that Charles P. Taft be summoned to tell whether he had spent $600,000 to secure President Taft's renomination and the committee agreed to consider the suggestion.

The $96,000 Senator Dixon said, was in addition to the $141,000 Mr. Hooker told of yesterday, handled by the Roosevelt headquarters in New York; the $52,000 Hooker and handled for the New York local campaign and the $102,000 William Flinn said he had given for Pennsylvania.

REASONABLE TESTS FOR ADMISSION TO COLLEGE

The first step toward true reform will be the abandonment of the certification plan of admitting to college. This plan, as it works out under our system, makes college matriculation at once too easy and too difficult. It is too easy for those who are drawn up, cog by cog, through twelve years of school attendance marked by the performance of no really difficult intellectual feats but only an infinity of "small jobs". It is too difficult for those who, though abundantly able and eager, have the misfortune to be obliged to walk part way instead of holding their seats in the educational car.

By substituting for the present plan an examination whose object, like that of the new Harvard examination, is not alone to test the candidate's acquirements in a minimum number of requisite studies, but especially to find out the quality of his mind, we would correct both these evils at one stroke. Such an examination should be mainly but not wholly oral; it should be conducted by a committee of say three persons who vary sufficiently in their points of view to make a test a fair one. This committee should secure in advance as complete a description of the candidate as possible from the school he has been attending or from other sources. Should this prove favorable on all points—his moral character, intellectual habits, the studies he has pursued and the degree of proficiency attained in them—a very short examination would suffice. More doubtful cases would require correspondingly minuter treatment, until, with the man who should present himself an entire stranger, with meager credentials, the process would become very searching.

A RECREANT DEMOCRAT

Evading no responsibility which his post as "party leader in the nation as well as in the state" puts upon him, Governor Wilson gives a reason of national importance as well as a reason of state importance why James Smith, Jr., should not return to the senate.

The New Jersey reason for refusing Smith this undeserved honor is that he is the opponent of the progressive course upon which the manhood of the state is embarked and that his election would mean the return of the machine of which he is the humbled boss.

The national reason goes back to the time when the Wilson tariff-revenue bill was being burked in the senate. Says Governor Wilson.

"Mr. Smith was one of a small group of senators calling themselves democrats who at that critical and hopeful juncture in our politics utterly defeated the program of the party. His election now might bring the party face to face with a similar disaster and disgrace."

Smith, Brice and Gorman were the malevolent three who, with some help from Edward Murphy and one or two others, betrayed their party in the senate. New Jersey owes it to Democrats in other states as well as to their own self-respect not to arm him for another betrayal.

The indications are that the state Democratic executive committee will get together again and somewhat amend the recent ruling on eligibility to voting in the senatorial primary.

President Venable of the University is not making the situation any better by scoring the newspapers for publishing the news in connection with the hazing.

If a man has had seven years of uninterrupted opportunity to do some thing and didn't do it, what hope have we that he will do it if given another chance?

All the other good things getting on the bill of fare this time of the year does not stop Bob Phillips' call for pie.

It's time some of the boys were talking about putting 'em on. These chilly mornings are bringing a shiver.

The election is only a month off. Then the agony will be over and some people may have to go to work.

The bellow of the Bull Moose did not cause much flurry in North Carolina.

Come to Greenville and boost with the town.

Coal and stove talk is the thing now.

A Pounding

On their return home last Friday night Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Hoyle found their dining room literally filled with all good things to eat. Never before in all his experience as a pastor, declares Mr. Hoyle, has he had such a bountiful expression of appreciation and he wishes us to say to all those who participated that "thanks" does not express the deep heartfelt appreciation of himself and wife, but that prayers for God's blessings upon every generous heart and kindly hand shall constantly ascend a throne of grace.

The Men Who Succeed

as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run down half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. After years of suffering with rheumatism liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

"It don't take more'n a gill uv effort to git folks in a peck of trouble" and a little neglect of constipation biliousness indigestion or other liver derangement will do the same. If ailing, take Dr. King's New Life Pills for quick results. Easy, safe, sure and only 25 cents at all druggists.

Bank Business Growing

In a quarter page advertisement The Bank of Greenville shows total resources on Sept. 30th of $390,940.08. The deposits of this bank increased over $100,000 in the last thirty days. Such growth of business reflects credit upon the institution and also upon the community.
