At Their Meeting of Last August, North Carolina Farmers Drew and Offered Golden Set of Resolutions

The North Carolina State Farmers' Convention, in annual session assembled Aug. 27-29, 1912, through its committee offers the following resolutions:

- 1. We recommend that the next legislature pass an act authorizing a state wide dog-tax, the proceeds of which to be appropriated to the school fund.
2. Resolved, That we favor a state wide stock law for North Carolina.
3. That we favor the discussion of scientific marketing along with scientific production at the Institutes.
4. Resolved, That we desire to express our appreciation of the co-operation between the State Department of Agriculture, the A. and M. College, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture and we further recommend a thorough unanimity of action on the part of these institutions in all things that pertain to the agricultural development of our great state.
5. Resolved, That we desire to go on record as being in thorough sympathy with the Girl's Tomato Clubs and Boy's Clubs that are doing such great work in our state.
6. Resolved, That the action of the Southern Commercial Congress requesting each state to send two representatives to Europe to study the subject of agricultural credit was wise and timely.
7. Resolved, That this Convention appoint a Committee to confer with the State Department of Agriculture and see whether the Farmers' Institutes can in any way better meet the needs of the people of the state in their various localities.
8. Resolved, That this Convention go on record in our legislature to not divert the inspection tax from uses to which it is now applied; but that the same be left in the hands of the Board of Agriculture to be applied by them to the uses and needs of the farmers of the state along agricultural, horticultural and stock raising lines.
9. Resolved, That the same committee appointed to confer with the board of agriculture in reference to Institute work confer further with that board in reference to eradicating hog cholera.
10. Resolved, That the farmers and their wives and their children endorse the movement to erect a suitable memorial to Dr. S. A. Knapp who did so much for the farmers of the South.
11. Whereas, Good Roads are necessary for the development of any county, and, Whereas, there is a great awakening in the improvement of our highways throughout the state, Therefore, Be it Resolved, That it is the sense of the Farmers' Convention of North Carolina that the convicts of the state should be put to work on our roads, instead of working in competition with free labor.
12. Resolved, That we request the General Assembly to authorize the Department of Agriculture to send two representatives to Europe to study the question of agricultural credit.
13. Resolved, That we reaffirm our interest in an endorsement of the Torrens system of land registration and that we hereby recommend the passage of such an act at the next session of our legislature.

Republican Speaking On Thursday Hon. Thomas Settle, Republican candidate for governor and Hon. H. Blair, candidate for attorney general, will speak in the court house here.

WOMAN WAS NOT MRS. SZABO'S MOTHER

GIBSON SAYS THE WOMAN IS CRAZY

MRS. GUERRA TESTIFIES THAT SHE WAS SIMPLY POSING BECAUSE ATTORNEY ASKED HER

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Rose Guerra, who was brought from Wilkes barre, Pa., Saturday night as a witness in the case of Burton W. Gibson, the lawyer charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, is being held in close custody by Assistant District Attorney Murphy. He regards the astounding story she told of acting as the alleged tool of Gibson as having an important bearing upon the case.

Gibson, in the Goshen jail, declares that the woman's startling allegations are those of a "crazy woman," but he will have nothing further to say regarding them for the present, he declared.

The woman witness is declared to have told Mr. Murphy that she posed as Mrs. Szabo's mother in connection with Gibson's alleged manipulation of Mrs. Szabo's will; that she has known Gibson for fifteen years and that "under his influence" had acted not only in connection with the Szabo will, but in other cases.

This outline of her startling story will be presented by the state prosecutors to the grand jury at Goshen, to which Gibson has been bound over on the Szabo murder charge.

All Members of Carolina Club Sit Up and Take Notice

There will be a meeting of the members of the Carolina Club, in the club rooms tonight. This meeting will be of the monthly variety and should have taken place last night, but owing to the Democratic speaking it was postponed till tonight. Recalcitrant members will not have any excuse for not attending this meeting tonight. The weather could not be made an excuse for absence. It is nice and brisk and invites to such gatherings as used to be last fall and winter. Besides there is a lot to do up in the club tonight. A few new members will have to be voted in. The piano and pinola question should call for the attendance of every member of the club. Other matters are also up for attention and full attendance should result.

Wilson Tells Pueblo People Steel Trust is With Mooser

PLUEBLO, Col., Oct. 7.—That the United States Steel Corporation "is behind the third party program in regard to regulation of the trusts," was the charge made by Governor Woodrow Wilson, in a speech here today. Corroborative evidence of that assertion, the governor said, was coming to him every day.

"It is a very interesting circumstance," said Governor Wilson, "that the United States Steel Corporation is behind the third party program as regards the relation of the trusts. Now, I don't want to say that to prejudice you, because I am not here to indict anybody.

Fine Cattle Monday evening Sheriff S. I. Dudley received by express two fine Holstein cows, 5 years old, to add to his dairy stock. He bought the cows in the northern part of New York, near the Canadian line, paying $250 for them there and the express charges amounted to $88.35, making the cost of the two cows $338.35 delivered. Not long since Sheriff Dudley bought a high grade bull in Ohio that cost him $100. He believes in having fine stock.

Upper grandstand (8,000), at $3—On public sale in advance. Lower grandstand (15,000), at $2—On public sale at grounds only on day of game. At Boston: Fenway Park, capacity 30,000 seats. Boxes, per seat, $5—On sale in advance; tickets must be bought for three games. Grandstand, $3—On sale in advance; tickets must be bought for three games. Temporary stand, $2—On sale in advance; tickets must be bought for three games. Pavillion, $1—For sale on grounds. Bleachers, 50 cents—For sale on grounds. Gates at Polo Grounds will be opened at 10 a. m. on the days of the games and all persons buying tickets will be obliged to pass directly into the park.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Five thousand persons, 500 of whom had remained up all night, stormed the Polo Grounds this morning for the opening of the public sale of the remaining reserved seats for the world's championship baseball series. Twelve thousand tickets in all were put on sale, four thousand for each of the three games scheduled for New York. It Saturday's game is not played the money will be refunded. Each purchaser was allowed two seats for any or all of the three games scheduled for New York. If Saturday's game is not played the money will be refunded. Each purchaser was allowed two seats for any or all of the three games, but the bulk of the crowd bought tickets for the first game, to be played tomorrow. The tickets were handled at three separate windows, so that to buy seats for the series it was necessary for the applicants to fall into three lines. This tended to defeat speculators and divided the allotment over three days in the hands of three delegations of enthusiasts. Tomorrow and on each day a game is to be played in New York the unreserved seats in the grandstand and bleachers will be sold. The gates will be opened at eight o'clock and purchasers allowed but one ticket each, must pass directly into the grounds. At the sale of seats tomorrow only one ticket will be sold to a person. This is an eleven hour rulling, designed to defeat speculators. In the hotel lobbies here are gathered hundreds of men notable in the baseball world, among them President Lynch and President Johnson of the two big leagues, and August Hermann, of Cincinnati, who constitute the "supreme court" of baseball. They had an informal meeting at which they planned a final supervision of arrangements for the big games.

BECKER AGAIN ASKS FOR DELAY

FAMOUS MURDER CASE WILL BE TRIED

JUDGE GOFF WILL NOT PUT OFF TRIAL ON ACCOUNT OF ILLNESS OF ONE OF HIS ATTORNEYS

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Chales Becker, formerly in command of a "strong arm squad" of the New York police department, was placed on trial for his life this afternoon on an indictment charging him with the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal. John F. McIntyre, counsel for the prisoner, fought to the last moment for delay, but Justice Coff overruled his motion and at 1 o'clock the selection of the jury began. The first talesman examined, Philip Herrlich, was challenged peremptorily by the prosecution because he had formerly been a policeman.

After most of the morning session had been taken up with the selection of the extraordinary grand jury which will hear all the phases of the Rosenthal case. Becker and the men indicted with him were brought into court. District Attorney Whitman moved that the trial of Becker proceed separately. His motion was granted. Mr. McIntyre moved for an adjournment of one week on the ground that John W. Hart, counsel of record for Becker was ill with laryngitis. He produced a doctor's certificate to this effect, but Justice Goff denied the motion, as well as a perfunctory motion to quash the indictment.

Mrs. Becker was in court when the proceedings opened. The room was jammed to suffocation and a great crowd surged through the corridors. The two hundred and fifty talesmen from which a jury will be picked reported early at the criminal court's building and curious crowds swarmed through the corridors and waited to see Becker brought across the Bridge of Sighs from the Tombs. How long it will take to get a jury is a matter of conjecture.

Mr. F. C. Harding, recently made elector for this district, as only he himself knows how to, introduced Mr. Gardner in a few but well chosen phrases. The speaker began his talk directly calling his audience's attention back to the times when boken down and broken hearted North Carolinians returned to find their homes and properties wrecked by the struggle of brother against brother; the invasion of the state by "bushwhackers", like birds of prey, sweeping into the devastated country to establish through the weakened condition of its natives, that reign of maladministration which almost obliterated our native state; the noble struggle of North Carolina to regain their soil from their sullied hands and finally when carpetbaggers regained possession and again set to squeezing the good of the state for their own benefit. Later on the reassertion of North Carolinians and from then on to the present day the marvellous forward march to progress. Mr. Gardner vividly described all that, all the while dealing body blows to the Republicans ever planning the wreck of the state. Names he mentioned which we recall coupled with the worst deeds of administration the state has known. And strongly did he condemn all those named. From state to national evils under the Republicans the speaker passed on dwelling upon historical facts which should be a source of constant shame to those that bear the name of Republicans. Specially was Mr. Gardner strong in referring to that arch-traitor, that supreme product of machine and boss ridden politics. The Bull Moose chief was put through the X-rays of Democratic politics and under the potent light of those rays shown to be made entirely of one selfish thought: I! Not a new party does the Bull Moose represent in this campaign, but a decayed branch of the old Republican party, cast aside by this party to dry, die and rot, and barely kept alive by its chief. Mr. Taft did hardly fare better under the scorching denunciation. The tariff, that rock against which the Republican craft will plunge and be wrecked in the coming election, strangely enough was being supported "up" by the navigator of this craft. The tariff, that ingenious device by which honest American voters have been wheeled by the Republicans, has been ably analysed by the Democrats and the American people see at last the fallacy of this protection for the few and not for the many, as Messrs. Taft and Roosevelt shout to the four corners of this vast country. From the tariff and its evils Mr. Gardner took his audience over to one of the best states of the Union: a state that for years groaned under the influence of bossism and protected interests. The good state of New Jersey had long been too busy to look after its own government, but suddenly woke up to the corruption

Real Estate Dealer Shoots and Kills Wife, Attempts Own Life

CALGARY, Alta., Oct. 7.—John C. Davis, a realty dealer, today shot and killed his wife, fatally wounded Miss Mildren Dixon, a private detective, and then ended his own life. The tragedy occurred at Miss Dixon's apartments here and was the culmination of domestic troubles. Davis had employed Miss Dixon to follow his wife, but the sympathies of the detective went out to the shadowed wife and she gave Ms. Davis quarters in her own apartments. Davis rented rooms directly across the street and watched the women until apparently he became convinced he was the victim of a cross plot.

According to unofficial reports received here, a shell exploded before a breech block gun had been closed.

Alabama Good Roads Convention

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 8.—The crusade for improved highways in this section of the South is likely to receive a renewed impetus as a result of the sixteenth annual convention of the Alabama Good Roads Association. G. ELLIS GARDNER RAPS REPUBLICANS

Bull-Moose Chief Gets Oratoric Spanking

TAFT GETS HIS SHARE LAURELS

Select, Though Small Crowd Gathers to Hear the Elector at Large. Honorable G. Ellis Gardner

Whatever ills Republican administrations ever did for North Carolina, they were given their change last night in the court house, when Hon. G. Ellis Gardner, elector at large for the state, made his announced Democratic speech.

It was rather unfortunate that a larger gathering did not attend the speaking, as Mr. Gardner proved himself to be fully worthy of the honor conferred on him as elector at large. Pleasant of manner, clever in approaching and reaching his point, in possession of a voice with much carrying capacity and owner of a bottomless well of entertaining anecdotes and a happy memory for historical facts of a political dye, the speaker easily commanded the attention of his audience throughout the short hour of his speech.

Mr. F. C. Harding, recently made elector for this district, as only he himself knows how to, introduced Mr. Gardner in a few but well chosen phrases.

The speaker began his talk directly calling his audience's attention back to the times when boken down and broken hearted North Carolinians returned to find their homes and properties wrecked by the struggle of brother against brother; the invasion of the state by "bushwhackers", like birds of prey, sweeping into the devastated country to establish through the weakened condition of its natives, that reign of maladministration which almost obliterated our native state; the noble struggle of North Carolina to regain their soil from their sullied hands and finally when carpetbaggers regained possession and again set to squeezing the good of the state for their own benefit. Later on the reassertion of North Carolinians and from then on to the present day the marvellous forward march to progress. Mr. Gardner vividly described all that, all the while dealing body blows to the Republicans ever planning the wreck of the state. Names he mentioned which we recall coupled with the worst deeds of administration the state has known. And strongly did he condemn all those named. From state to national evils under the Republicans the speaker passed on dwelling upon historical facts which should be a source of constant shame to those that bear the name of Republicans. Specially was Mr. Gardner strong in referring to that arch-traitor, that supreme product of machine and boss ridden politics. The Bull Moose chief was put through the X-rays of Democratic politics and under the potent light of those rays shown to be made entirely of one selfish thought: I! Not a new party does the Bull Moose represent in this campaign, but a decayed branch of the old Republican party, cast aside by this party to dry, die and rot, and barely kept alive by its chief. Mr. Taft did hardly fare better under the scorching denunciation. The tariff, that rock against which the Republican craft will plunge and be wrecked in the coming election, strangely enough was being supported "up" by the navigator of this craft. The tariff, that ingenious device by which honest American voters have been wheeled by the Republicans, has been ably analysed by the Democrats and the American people see at last the fallacy of this protection for the few and not for the many, as Messrs. CHURCHES TO DENOUNCE CURE FRAUDS

From thousands of pulpits in all parts of the United States, fake cures for consumption will be exposed and denounced on Tuberculosis Day, October 27th. This is part of the program for the movement announced by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Literature giving information on fraudulent and alleged "cures" for consumption will be sent to clergymen all over the country and an organized crusade against the traffic in these drugs and devices will be instituted. The literature will be sent to ministers either directly from the National Association office in New York or through the many state and local anti-tuberculosis associations scattered throughout the country. It is estimated that over 100,000 clergymen will be reached in this way.

From actual records on file in the office of The National Association, it is estimated that the volume of business done annually by the various concerns who sell fake remedies for tuberculosis amounts to well over $15,000,000. The number of these remedies now being used as so-called "cures" is over 500.

Three classes of "cures" are distinguished by the National Association. In the first class are included hundreds of devices and drugs which can be bought for any sum ranging from ten cents to five dollars at a drug store. The second class of "cures" includes the "institutes," "professors," or companies of "doctors," who for a consideration guarantee to cure consumption by some secret method of which they are the sole proprietors. There are nearly one hundred-fifty of these institute frauds in the United States, cheating the people out of millions of dollars annually.

In the third class of "cures" are placed a number of home-made remedies, which either through ignorance or superstition have been advanced as treatments for tuberculosis. Some of these are onions, lemons, rattlesnake poison, coal dust, lime dust, pigs' blood, dog oil, milk "strippings," and even alcohol.

None of these remedies will cure consumption, declares The National Association. No drug, gas or other material has yet been discovered, which, when eaten, inhaled, or injected into the system will kill the germs of tuberculosis without doing serious injury to the body. The only real cure of tuberculosis recognized by The National Association consists of the combination of fresh air, good food and rest taken under the direction of a competent physician.

Remember that tomorrow, October 9th, is set apart as fire prevention day. Look after the stove flues and chimneys about your premises, clean them out, remove trash and litter, and take any other steps that will remove the danger of a conflagration when the weather gets cold enough to build fires. A little precaution now may be the means of saving much property later.

The Home Building and Loan Association will open a new series of shares, the 14th, on the first Saturday in November. It will be a good time to take shares if you have none, or to increase the number you already hold. The association is doing a beneficial work to the community.

Another enterprise we hear mooted for Greenville's near future, is a big supply store. Let the good things keep coming this way.

Hazing is just one of the bumps that come in the rough road to knowledge, but one that every college should eliminate.

Ask those business men who are using the space liberally if advertising in The Reflector pays.

The nickles that escaped the circus will go to the carnival.

The dopists will soon be turning from cold drinks to the hot kind.

Even the Republicans, if they bet at all, are putting the odds on Wilson.

The tribe of the Bull Moose will be extinct after the fifth of November.

Greenville is a good place to come to and grow with the town.

We, Us & Co. is the Roosevelt platform.

Autumn is taking on her gorgeous tints.

JUDGE CLARK DEMANDS THE REPEAL OF THE TOBACCO TAX

Judge Clark spoke on Saturday at Bains Store in Saswell and at Mebane and at Burlington. At all three places he earnestly advocated the repeal of the 8 cents per pound tax upon tobacco. He said in substance:

We owe to the farmers and the working men everything we eat or wear or use, yet the entire weight of government is made to rest upon them and they receive none of its favors. There is an especial discrimination made against the farmers in the tobacco section of North Carolina. When the illegal tobacco trust was formed at Durham and which has been operated ever since in open and contemptuous defiance of law, both state and national, the tobacco section of North Carolina was the most prosperous on the planet. Lands were Naturally you'll expect such footwear to be high priced as well as high class. That's where you will be pleasantly disappointed.

going up and the people had more money than they knew what to do with. That Trust was formed and blight fell upon this section worse than war, famine or taxes. The chief means by which that Trust has maintained its strangle hold upon farmers has been maintaining the unjust and discriminating tax upon tobacco.

No other agricultural product pays any tax. Corn, wheat, hay, butter, cotton, are all free. There is a bonus on sugar. There was a tax of 3 cents per pound on cotton but it was removed as unjust. The tax on tobacco was removed once from 8 to 6 cents.

But the Trusts promptly sent enough Senators and members to Congress and a sufficient lobby to put the tax back to 8 cents. At Creedmore recently when I spoke there, a prominent farmer told me that taking all kinds of tobacco and the prices, the average sum received since the Trust was formed the average price has been 8 cents per pound. The manufacturer therefore, has been paying an average of 16 cents per pound for tobacco, 8 cents to the farmer who takes all the risks of the seasons, of labor and of the prices and 8 cents to the government who thus practically has worked on shares with the farmers getting one half of the proceeds of the tobacco crop without paying one cent. This has been done not out of any love that the Trusts bore the government but because by means of it the government was practically made to forbid any manufacturer of tobacco except by the Trusts. A farmer who made $1,000 worth of tobacco at an average of 8 cents per pound could not raise another $1,000 in cash to pay the government tax. The result was to break up all manufacture and sale by the farmers. Suppose the tax of 8 cents per pound on cotton had been laid and the farmer before he could gin and sell his cotton had been compelled to pay it. A cotton mill Trust would have been speedily formed which would have controlled the cotton of the south and the farmers would have been getting on an average of 4 to 5 cents per pound for cotton, or any other price that they thought would have been sufficient to induce the farmers to make another crop. This is what they have been doing to the tobacco farmers. Suppose a tax of 50 cents per bushel has been laid on wheat and corn, an elevator Trust would have been formed that would have kept the price of those articles at the dictation of the men who would have had the capital to control the business.

The tax upon any agricultural product is odious and unjust and it is especially so when one article is singled out for taxation. Tobacco is as legitimate an article of commerce as any other product. There is no cause to discriminate against it and it would have long since been repealed except for the enormous power exerted by the Tobacco Trust and its allied industries over national legislation.

I have been told by men who know that before the Trust was formed that in Granville there were 157 tobacco factories and now there are none except under the control of the Trust. I have been informed by men who know more about the business than I do that putting the average price of tobacco at 8 cents and the tax at 8 cents that the cost of manufacture is a cost of 3 cents, a total of 19 cents and the manufactured article is sold at an average of between 40 and 50 cents. The difference between the two account for the $200,000,000 that Buck Duke owns and for the hundreds of millions held by others who belong to that great Trust. The loss to the farmers is even greater than these hundreds of millions which the Trust has made because there is the 8 cents per pound on tobacco which the government has taken as its share and the restriction upon production by reason of the business having been made unprofitable to those who raise tobacco.

Some will say that the government must have revenue and therefore there must be a tax on tobacco. If this were true and the government must raise money upon raw products why not the burden shared and 2 cents put on sugar, 2 cents on cotton; 20 cents on the wheat and corn of the northwest and $5 per ton on their hay? But a tax on production is the most unjust of all taxes because it falls upon the farmers and working people who already pay far more than their fair share of the burdens of government, because they are less able to organize and to resist oppression of the taxation thrown upon them by the classes who are better able and ought to pay taxation. The truth is this very taxation of 8 cents per pound can be replaced three times over if the tobacco tax is repealed by putting it on those who ought to pay it. There are two sources to which we should turn.

1. In England where they have a graduated and inheritance tax one third of the revenue of the government are raised from that source. This tax ranges from one per cent on small estates and incomes up to 15 per cent on larger. If Rockefeller was to die in the United States the government would receive no inheritance tax from his $1,000,000,000. On his annual income of $200,000,000 per year in the United States he pays to the government not one cent of income tax. If he were living in England he would pay his $30,000,000 of income tax and he is but one of over 1,000 men in the United States who own between $5,000,000 and $1,000,000,000. Indeed the graduated income and inheritance tax would produce more here than in England because by reason of the control of our national legislation by the Trusts since the war we have a far larger aggregation of the wealth of the country in a few hands than in any other country in the world.

Indeed I should favor not only substituting this tax for the tax on tobacco and the burden of other taxes which falls upon the wealth producers of the country, but I should make the graduation much steeper for I believe that when a man's income exceeds $10,000,000 per year or the bulk of his estate exceeds $50,000,000 the taxation ought to be 100 per cent for every man knows that these vast sums could not be acquired honestly but that they have been accumulated by the dishonest control and manipulation of legislation in the interest of the few and against those who created that wealth and to whom it should properly be returned by a heavily graduated system of taxation that would discourage and end such wholesale injustice against the great mass of the people.

2. A tariff for revenue only means such a rate of tariff that will produce the greatest revenue for the government. That would mean a moderate rate that would permit articles to come in such quantity as would produce revenue. It requires, of course, some skill and experience to fix that rate on each article. But that is what ought to be done honestly and fairly. What is really done is that the tariff barons by their control of legislation fix the rate on such articles as they see proper so high that almost none of those articles are brought in and thereupon the tariff barons add that rate to the price of their goods. They form Trusts to prevent competition among themselves, the high tariff prevents competition from abroad and the result is that while the government gets about $300,000,000 per year from the tariff, the tariff barons are said by experts to receive six times as much or $1,800,000,000 from the American people in the added price of their goods. Put down the tariff to a revenue basis, without any protection and the government would still continue to receive $300,000,000 and the people would save $1,800,000,000 which they are now paying annually to the tariff barons and the higher prices given by protection.

Take off 8 cents on tobacco and the farmer would not merely receive 16 cents instead of 8 cents on an average, but he would be free as in former years to manufacture and sell his own tobacco either by himself or by forming companies in each neighborhood and get a large part of the difference between the 16 cents and the 40 odd cents which the tobacco Trust now takes for its profits.

Even if you look at the consumer as paying the tax or a part of it is grossly unjust for tobacco is taxed without regard to quantity. A millionaire consumes about the same quantity a year as a man in overalls with the result that Pierpont Morgan who smokes cigars at $1 a piece pays exactly the same tax per year as a laborer using the same number of the cheapest quality of tobacco. Ought such a tax to stand? Such a tax would not have stood if one of you who raised tobacco or myself who have never used it but knows what justice means had sat in the senate for the last twelve years. If I had sat in the House for 12 years as a member from the finest tobacco district in the known world, I would not have been silent at this injustice. It is urged that Mr. Simmons is in the Senate and he ought to remain there. It is because of such records as this that other states are rapidly retiring their members and putting new ones and the sooner you do it here in North Carolina and can put a man in the Senate who will stand for the interests of those who till its fields, the better it will be for the state.

Repeat this iniquitous tobacco tax and set the cultivation of tobacco free and you will have the most prosperous farming section in all the world. Your lands will go up to four times their present value. Every farmer or at least every neighborhood can manufacture their own tobacco as they used to do and get the profits of manufacture as well as of raising tobacco. A no loss benefit will be that the graduated tax upon income and inheritance if graduated heavily enough will stop the manufacture of millionaire and payers—a consumption most devoutly to be wished for.

THE FARMER SOWS WHAT HE EXPECTS TO REAP. IF YOU WISH A COMFORTABLE OLD AGE, PLANT SOME MONEY IN THE BANK NOW

In 1623, a copy of Shakespeare sold for $5. In 1886 Oliver Wendell Holmes was offered this same book for $4,000. But had $5 been put out at compound interest [4 per cent.] in 1623, it would have amounted in 1886 to $160,000.

Mr. R. J. Cobb went to Grimesland today.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Moore and Elder J. S. Corbett returned last night from Norfolk where they attended the Primitive Baptist association.

For Bicycle Riders
In a notice published elsewhere in this paper Chief Police J. T. Smith calls attention to the bicycle ordinance prohibiting riding on the sidewalks and gives warning that from now on this ordinance will be strictly enforced. Many violations have occurred lately, especially by children and parents would do well to give heed to the notice if they want to avoid paying fines for their children riding on the sidewalks.

Forty-four new agreements have been made by locals affiliated with the International Association of Machinists during the last year.

Numbering Houses

The proper numbering of houses in town is now being made, in preparation for the free mail delivery to be put in effect. Mr. W. A. B. Hearne is supervising the numbering.

The Bumper Bumped

There is such a thing sometimes as bumping too hard. That seems to be the experience of a Norfolk Southern box car at the local station. The box car was backed on the track end bumper and bumped the bumper so hard as to practically demolish the bumper and untruck one end of the car.

Saved by His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live and it completely cured it." A quick cure for coughs, reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Fortunes in Faces

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at all druggists.

Winterville Items.

WINTERVILLE, Oct. 8.—Mr. J. D. Cox came in Saturday night to spend the week at home. Just received a fine lot of rump pork. R. W. Dall. A crowd of W. H. S. boys were coming from the show Friday night and unfortunately Thomas Stanland fell and broke his arm. We hope it will not inconvenience him very long. A car load of chairs all kinds and all prices at A. W. Ange and Company. Messrs. Walter Cherry and Durwood Tucker of near Greenville were in town Sunday. For meat, flour, lard, sugar and canned goods of all kinds, please see us before buying, as we can save you money. Union Mercantile Company. Messrs. M. B. Bryan and Claude Wilson of Greenville were callers in town Sunday night. For men and boys clothing, overcoats and rain coats see Harrington, Barber and Company. Messrs. J. D. Cox and C. L. McGlohon went to Greenville Monday. The Pitt County Oil Company invites the patronage of those within hauling distance of Winterville when it comes to cotton being ginned, as they are in a position to gin it satisfactorily. Rev. M. A. Adams preached his two regular sermons in the Baptist church Sunday. A new lot of shoes just in at A. W. Ange and Company. Mrs. B. T. Cox and Mrs. B. W. Tucker went to Greenville Monday. Do not fail to see the Union Mercantile Company for neckties, shoes, pants, underwear and all kinds of ready made clothing, at the right price, come and let us give you some bargains. Union Mercantile Company. Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Chapman spent Sunday in the country with their daughter, Mrs. H. C. McGowan. Harrington, Barber and Company have received another car load of Royal flour, fresh from the mills. Misses Cora and Annie Carroll of Cox's Mill were in town Monday. If its cotton seed that you have to offer, take the matter up with the Pitt County Oil Company, as they will help you get the top of the market. Miss Nettie Liles left Thursday for Jonesboro to visit her mother and also to attend the association and she returned Monday night. Everybody says tobacco is selling high and everybody says they get good, fresh goods at a low price. R. W. Dall. Miss Fannie Lee Spier returned home Sunday night from Greenville where she has been visiting relatives. The Free Will Baptists are holding a revival this week. Every one who will attend will be welcomed. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Graves, of Greene county, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Graves father, Mr. M. L. Barker.

G. Ellis Gardner Raps

(Continued from page 1) of its legislators, of its judges, etc., etc., Honest New Jersey people got together to save their state. They looked for a leader everywhere amongst the lawyers, amongst the business men, amongst men of every profession. Their leader could not be found. As a last hope their heads were turned to the schoolhouse. There, salvation for their state was found. The teacher was willing to lead them and did lead them. New Jersey under the leadership of this man from the schoolhouse emerged from the depths of boss despair and gloom and re-constructed and new, an exemplary state. The unselfish people of New Jersey looking out into the other states struggling to throw off the yoke of the interests, through the efforts of Democracy onered their leader to knit all Democrats together and lead them victorious to the government of the country. The noble offer was accepted. The momentous question will be decided next November 4 and on the following March, the American people will see in the White House the peerless leader of Democracy, Woodrow Wilson.

HIS TROUBLE NOT OF HEART

Real Facts in Regard To F. R. Huffman's illness. Relief Obtained By Curing His Stomach Ailments.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mr. F. R. Huffman, of this city, says: "I suffered dreadfully with what I thought was heart trouble, and tried various medicines in vain. After other remedies had failed, Theford's Black-Draught restored me to health. I would not feel safe without Black-Draught in the house. I consider it worth its weight in gold. It cured my indigestion, and by this means I was restored to health. I can not express my gratitude for its benefits." Good health depends on the condition of your digestion. Poor digestion and good health do not go together. Theford's Black-Draught will thoroughly cleanse and set in order your digestive system. It has done this for others, during the past 70 years, and is today the most popular vegetable liver remedy on the market. Try it. Insist on Theford's. Price 25c.

Brig. Gen. John M. Wilson, U. S. A., retired, for many years chief of the engineering corps, 75 years old today.
