BALKAN STATES DECLARED WAR

Turkey Is Surrounded by Her Enemies

MONTENEGRO'S DECLARATION

Peace Mediation Having so Far Failed Turkey Faces War From all Sides of Her Realm

CETTINJE, Montenegro, Oct. 8.—Montenegro formally declared war on Turkey this morning. The declaration of war was delivered to the Porte by the Montenegrin chargé d'affaires early today. Heavy fighting is already in progress along the frontier. Nine battalions of Turkish troops which were proceeding from Scutari to Tusi, along the Montenegrin frontier were attacked late yesterday by a detachment of Malissori tribesmen. The fighting began just outside Tusi and continued all night with vigor. The battle was still in progress this morning.

Powers Make Representations.
Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 8.—The Austrian and Russian ministers at noon today made joint representations to the Bulgarian government on behalf of the powers.

They informed the Bulgarian government that the powers strongly disapproved of the warlike attitude of the Balkan states and urged upon them the prompt cessation of the military concentration.

They advised the government to leave to the cabinets of the great powers the task of assuring Macedonian reforms.

Diplomats are Given Passports
Cettinje, Montenegro, Oct. 8.—M. Plamenatz, the Montenegrin chargé d'affaires at Constantinople, has been ordered to leave here today.

The Turkish charge d'affaires here has been handed his passports by the Montenegrin government.

Cross Turkish Frontier
Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 8.—Reports reached here today that Montenegrin troops had crossed the Turkish frontier.

The Servia Parliament today voted an extra credit of $3,900,000 for military purposes and the merchants of this city are making large donations to the funds being raised for the assistance of poor families whose bread winners have been called up for military service.

Premier Pachitch, speaking at the conclusion of the debate in the Servian Parliament, declared that the treatment of the Servians in Macedonia had gone from bad to worse and that the Balkan states could no longer endure the suffering of their brethren across the border. He insisted that the Ottoman government should be compelled to carry out reforms in the provinces of Turkey in Europe.

One Case of Yellow Fever Brought in Recently in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 8.—A well developed case of yellow fever was taken from the British steamer Chaucer when the vessel arrived at Quarantine station at the mouth of the Mississippi river today. The patient is a Greek who boarded the steamer at Santos, Brazil.

The patient was placed in the detention ward of the Marine Hospital and the Chaucer was placed in quarantine for six days. Dr. Corbett, of the quarantine station, stated there were no other suspects aboard the steamer, but that all members of the crew would be subjected to close examinations.

President R. H. Wright of the Training School, returned this morning from a trip to Greensboro and Baltimore.

Mr. C. C. Hook, of Charlotte, and Mr. C. V. York, of Raleigh, architect and contractor, respectively, on the Proctor Hotel, were here today, looking over the work.

KITCHIN-SIMMONS DEBATE IN BURGAW

GREENVILLE LAWYER, MR. ALBION DUNN, ABLY REPRESENTS GOV. KITCHIN IN BURGAW

DUNN SAID TO HAVE MADE VOTES

(A. M. Faison)
BURGAW, N. C., Oct. 7.—Ex-Congressman Thomas representing Senator Simmons and Mr. Albion Dunn representing Gov. Kitchin engaged in joint debate here today. Dunn opened in a speech of one hour. Thomas replied for one hour. Both speakers had fifteen minutes rejoinder. Dunn went fully into the record of Senator Simmons in 1908, 1909, 1910 and 1911, showing how the votes of Simmons upon lumber, coal, iron and reciprocity were absolutely contrary to Democratic principles. He made Congressman Thomas admit that his vote on reciprocity and the ship subsidy steel were contrary to Simmons' vote on these questions. In the course of his remarks he laid down the proposition that if North Carolina is committed to protection Kitchin will be defeated, that if the state, on the contrary is to remain in the Democratic faith and hold to Democratic principles, then Simmons ought to be defeated. He further showed, to the satisfaction of good Democrats, that Governor Kitchin has made a faithful public servant and is needed in the United States Senate to uphold and carry out the program of President Wilson.

Thomas, in an hour's rejoinder, ridiculed the charges and dodged the issues absolutely failing to explain the conduct and vote of Senator Simmons in upholding the hands of Senator Aldrich in his trust legislation.

On Dunn's rejoinder, he showed that Thomas had refused to meet the issue and proved in the face of the record Senator Simmons bore Congressman Thomas would never be able to explain Simmons' vote on these questions.

Thomas in reply still failed to meet referring to the youth of his opponent and his own vast superiority as a debater. This was amusing to the supporters of Governor Kitchin when they knew that Thomas had refused to speak unless Dunn opened and he was allowed an hour in rejoinder and according to those present the youth was there with the goods and Thomas has yet failed to answer. After the debate there were many favorable comments upon the argument produced by Kitchin's representative and it is currently reported that many Simmons' advocates left the court house Kitchin converts.

Carolina Club Finally Gathers a Quorum and Holds Forth

Though nothing like as many as should have been, enough members of Carolina Club were present at the meeting Tuesday night to inject much interest in the proceedings and four new ones were added to the roll of membership.

The report came from the board of governors that negotiations are on for the purchase of a new piano with player attachment, something the club much needs as the instrument now in use has seen its best days.

There was a partial report from a committee previously appointed to look after the location of a knitting mill in Greenville and the committee was continued with instructions to keep busy.

A committee was appointed to cooperate with the movement to build a sand-clay road from Greenville via Grimesland to the Beaufort county line and another committee was appointed to investigate the cost of publishing a booklet to advertise Greenville's advantages.

The club unanimously adopted a motion requesting the board of governors to arrange for receiving the election returns in the club room on the night of the election.

Altogether this was quite a beneficial meeting and the program committee was asked to stir itself to have something interesting for the next and subsequent monthly meetings during the winter.

MRS. STEPHEN B. AYRES
Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's National Democratic League.

The Women's National Democratic league, of which Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, wives of the leading Democratic candidates, are honorary president and honorary vice-president respectively, and Mrs. John S. Crosby is president, has opened headquarters at 1123 Broadway, New York city, in charge of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Stephen B. Ayres, wife of Congressman Ayres of New York.

The work being accomplished daily by Mrs. Ayres and her corps of stenographers and aids is not for the campaign moment only, but foundation building for the future of Democracy. It is the first strictly woman's national political movement to be organized in the United States and, as such, appeals to thinking women everywhere.

"It has not declared for or against the question of equal suffrage nor should it be expected to do so any more than it would discuss the questions of religion," said Mrs. Ayres from her post as "live wire" of the league. "We are simply good Democrats banded together for the greatest good to the greatest number" of American housewives, who today are required to pay more in this country for American goods than they would have to pay for the same goods in a foreign land."

She is especially interested in the tariff on articles in constant feminine use, and has developed into quite a speaker at the "housewives" meetings of the tariff committee of the national Democratic committee.

Giants Go Down to Defeat in First Game of Series to Marvelous Pitching of Peerless Joe Wood

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Boston won the first game of the world series today. Forty thousand persons saw a pitchers' battle in which Joe Wood, of Boston, turned back the Giants from the plate time and again by his clever box work.

The Giants were the first to take the lead on sharp hitting by Doyle and Murray, whose hits helped in scoring two runs for the Giants in the third inning.

Tesreau, the Giants' pitcher, held the Boston hitless until the sixth inning, when Speaker's triple and an outfielder scored the Red Sox's first run. A succession of sharp hits by Boston netted 3 runs in the seventh inning.

The Giants rallied gamely in the ninth inning, but were only able to score one run on three hits.

RELATIVE OF ALLENS ARRESTED WITH PISTOL

JASPER ALLEN ALLEGES THAT AS A CONSTABLE HE HAS RIGHT TO CARRY GUN.

JAILER FINDS GUN IN VEST POCKET

ROANOKE, Va., Oct. 8.—Jasper Allen, brother of Floyd Allen and Sidna Allen, came to Roanoke Sunday night, accompanied by Victor Allen, son of Floyd Allen, to arrange for counsel for Sidna Allen.

Monday, Jasper Allen was arrested, at the jail door by Jailer W. C. Allen and locked up on the charge of carrying a pistol, which he denied having until he was searched by the jailer and his attendants. He has been in the jail Sunday night, but was not searched.

Jailer Allen, during the night could not sleep well and dreamed he searched Jasper Allen and found a gun on him. He dreamed the same thing several times and this morning reported the matter to Judge Staples, who warned him to search the visitors when they came back to see their kinsman.

When Jasper and Victor Allen arrived at the jail and requested admittance, Jailer Allen informed them that they would have to be searched for weapons. Both submitted, though Jasper Allen protested that he had no pistol.

When his breast coat pocket was reached he flinched and grabbed his pocket, but the jailers were too quick for him. They covered him with their guns and a .38 calibre Smith and Wesson was found concealed in a leather wallet in his breast pocket. Allen claims that he is a constable and as such a conservator of the peace, which gives him the right under the law to carry a gun.

Allen was later arraigned before Justice Berkeley for carrying concealed weapons and his case was continued until next Saturday to give him an opportunity to secure a court certificate, showing that he is a state officer. He was bailed in the sum of $100. Attorney R. H. Willis is his security.

Local Campaign Managers "Stung" by their Own Device

It happened some days ago, but it is not yet too old for the telling to be without relish.

It was this way: A circus came to town. A staunch admirer of a certain senatorial candidate thought he would make a scoop and get a monopoly of advertising his man in connection with the circus. There was a dicker with one of the runners, the price of $17.50 was agreed on and handed over and the bargain stipulated banners for the candidate on the elephants in the parade, said banners to be strung in the big tent later, and a spiel in behalf of the candidate by one of the sawdust artists in the ring. Then the purchaser of the deal retired with inward feelings of joy over his imaginary scoop, and awaited developments.

In the meantime the circus runner is out for dough. He strikes an equally ardent admirer of another senatorial candidate, there was another dicker with banner and spiel stipulations, and after handing over $20 this man was tickled with joy at the thought that he had scooped everybody else and had a monopoly of the job. He likewise quietly withdrew to await results.

In due time along came the parade, when behold, one elephant wore a banner for one candidate and another elephant for another candidate, and so on through the herd. Likewise in the tent these same banners alternated from one side to the other, both candidates standing out in glaring letters, but during the performance not a word of spiel was said for either.

There were at least two disgusted auditors though neither gave his scoop (or how he had been scooped) away with a squeal. But the thing leaked out.

The two noted lightweights, Metchell and Trotter, have been matched to meet in Winnipeg Oct. 15.

GOVERNOR WILSON WILL WIDEN MARKET

In Kansas, He Favors the Labor Alliance

THE TRUST UNION'S ENEMIES

Aim of the Interests is That of Controlling the Labor Market and Imposing Their Price

NORTON, Kas., Oct. 8.—That the "very men who have been most successful in building up the trusts are also the very men who have been the most successful in preventing the organization of labor" was the contention of Governor Woodrow Wilson in an address here today devoted largely to what he characterized as pervasive power of the great interests which now dominate our development.

"Don't you know," he asked, "that one of the objects of their combination is to control the labor market? And do you imagine that they have ever set deliberate plans for giving the workman anything comparable in the way of wages to the proportion of the profits which they themselves pocket? They do not have to give the laboring man any more than he can get in the competition of the market. And they do not give him any more. As a matter of fact, some of the most highly productive industries in this country pay very much lower wages than the unprotected industries. And some of the most highly protected industries pay wages that are below the living scale, at the same time that the prices they are making are so great that they can build new factories out of their surplus every second year. It is one of the grandest pieces of bluff and humbug that has ever been known in the history of political deception.

"I want to widen the market for American labor. I want to see conditions exist in which men will compete for American labor. I want again to see a time come when we shall realize that the highest priced labor in the world is the cheapest labor in the world, that what is produced by brains and intelligence and skillful touch is a great deal cheaper than what is produced by stupidity and dullness and the whip of the master.

"I tell you this, that American labor up to date, is the cheapest in the world. I can prove it. American manufacturers compete in foreign markets in the sale of goods manufactured in those markets, near those markets by labor that receives only a third the remuneration of American labor. Now, what does that mean? It means that they can afford to pay American workmen three times as much and still undersell their competitors in the foreign markets, and yet the American workman is told that the amount of his wages depends upon the protective tariff. It doesn't. It depends upon him. It depends upon what is inside his thinking box. And when you once get a system of regulated monopoly, then you get a system of controlled labor, don't forget that. Narrow the lines of competition and you stiffen the lines of labor control. You have not now a free market for your labor any more than you have a free market for your commodities, for under this system of monopoly, regulated or unregulated, the monopolist can determine the amount of goods to be produced, and therefore determine the amount of laborers to be employed and the prices that the goods are to bring.

"As I travel from one part of the country to the other" continued the governor, "I see no essential difference among the people in the different parts of it. The same thing is written in their eyes and it is not a gleam of fierceness. It is a light of self-confidence. They know what they want, and they know they are going to get it. Anybody who supposes that economic questions and political questions are two different things is very much mistaken because these things have been so closely married with one another in our recent political practice that it is impossible to discriminate between them.

Johnny Dundee and Tommy Brennan have signed for a clash to take place in Pittsburg, Oct. 11.

TWO NEEDS LAY PREACHERS WOULD SUPPLY

The country churches are in need of two things especially. They need (1) to worship oftener, and (2) they need greater variety of gifts in their pulpits.

Lay preaching would supply both of these great needs. A live committee could, without much effort, and at little cost, arrange to double the preaching days of most churches, especially if the Laymen's Movement has been launched in the nearby town. A Sunday in the country at some old church rich with memories and traditions, an hour in which to talk to the eager listeners in the pews, is a pleasure craved by many a city man. It would greatly enrich the city man's own soul; it would greatly benefit the church; it would make stronger the tie between the city and the country.

Such an arrangement would give the spice of variety to religion, a subject which has in many communities grown monotonous by being presented in the same old way, for many years. "We paid for dem same sermons last year!" protested the colored congregation when told by their bishop that they must pay their pastor. Too often it is the same old ideas if not the same old texts.

One other suggestion along this line and we are through with this phase of our subject: Sometimes the lay preacher cannot be had. Is there no way, then, to increase the number of the services and add to their richness and variety? We think there is, tho it would be an innovation in most churches and a congregation might have to grow to the method. We refer to what is called lay-reading. It is an Episcopal custom, we admit, but there is no reason why they should hold the copyright on it.

"We have some of the greatest preachers in the world to preach in our little backwoods church," remarked a clever lady one day. "We have them come from all parts of America, from England, from the mission field and even from Heaven to preach to us."

Rub the dust out of your eyes and watch Greenville grow.

KEEP YOUR MONEY IN BANK

The farmers are daily drawing big sums from the banks in payment for their tobacco sales. Not a few of them wad this money in their pockets and take it home with them, subjecting themselves to the danger of being fobbed or losing it in some other ways. There are good banks convenient and they are in position to protect the farmers' money against loss much better than are the farmers themselves and at the same time will pay interest on long time deposits. Tuesday it was reported that a man had lost his pocket book with about a thousand dollars in it, but we could not get the report affirmed and Tuesday night another man was crying the street over having lost his pocket book and money. Do not take such risks with the money that you work so hard for. Put it in the bank where it will be safe and let it say there until you need it.

Farmers down here in the eastern section ought to feel exceedingly thankful. Most of them have raised abundant crops and are getting good prices therefor. The report comes from that section of the northward and southward from Raleigh, that a large number of farmers have not made enough this year to pay for the fertilizers they used, to say nothing of paying other expenses.

There are some large farmers, that is those who own and cultivate many acres and raise big crops. But with the scarcity and unreliability of hired labor, many farmers are learning that it is more profitable not to plant more acres than they can cultivate and gather the crops thereon without having to depend on hired labor. Inability to get cotton picked is a good illustration of this point.

Tuesday night's meeting shows that Carolina Club has not forgotten how to do things. With as many things as the club could do, and as many things as Greenville needs, the organization should be busy after something all the time. There are opportunities for development and progress all around us that ought to be taken advantage of.

The Rocky Mount Telegram has recovered from the effects of the recent fire in its office and is again looking like its former self.

After the senatorial primary is over, some papers will find it hard to adjust themselves to ordinary editorial matter.

Those who have made contributions to the Wilson campaign fund are being presented with handsomely engraved certificates bearing photographs of Wilson and Marshall. The name of the contributor is also written in the certificate.

Those resolutions adopted by the farmers at their late meeting in Raleigh struck the key note of progress. They are in favor of good roads and a state wide stock law, things that the next legislature are going to provide for.

All indications point to a Democratic landslide in the coming election and some folks who could be named should be getting themselves out of the way.

Royal Baking Powder exceeds others in leavening power, in purity and wholesomeness, and is used generally in families, exclusively in the most celebrated hotels and restaurants, by the United States Army and Navy, and wherever the best and finest food is required. Royal is the only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It is admittedly the best and most healthful baking powder made.

This is My Birthday

Charles A. Prouty.

Charles A. Prouty, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, was born in Newport, Vt., Oct. 9, 1853, and was graduated from Dartmouth College in 1875. In the same year of his graduation he was selected by the late Prof. Samuel Langley, for many years secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, as his assistant at the Alleghany observatory. In 1882 Mr. Prouty was admitted to the bar of Vermont and engaged in the practice of his profession until named a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission by President Cleveland in 1896. In January of the present year Mr. Prouty was promoted to the chairmanship of the commission in succession to Judson C. Clements of Georgia.

Look at Your Subscription Date

You people who are getting so much tobacco money along now, ought to be at least evening up with the newspaper man. Look at the date after your name on The Reflector and see if its not time you were coming in or making a remittance. The date ought to be sufficient notice without attention being called to it. There are some who it will be necessary to take from the list if they do not get the date changed soon. Do not force the paper to stop going to you by your neglect to pay. We dislike to consume space to print a notice of this kind, but when the date is printed on the paper after each subscribers name no one should wait to be written to or to be called on personally to pay his subscription.

All Wholesome Attractions Carried by Johnny J. Jones

All the creations of the Johnny J. Jones Shows are new and utterly unlike the attractions of the old style traveling midway.

Instead of repulsive monstrosities snake eaters, muscle dancers, suggestive pictures, living and other performances that are offensive to all persons of refinement and subversive of the public morals, the visitor will see only clean wholesome high class entertainments that will in no way offend the most fastidious.

Information from other cities in answer to inquiries vouch for the truth of the foregoing statement.

The Newberg, New York, "News" said of these shows, "There is no use mincing words, The Johnny J. Jones Shows are the finest as regards quality, moral tone, and good measure for the money spent that this city has ever seen."

As to quality, those of the public who may feel skeptical can rest assured that each and every one of the Johnny J. Jones exhibits are all that the various agents claim for them, no matter to which tent the foot steps lead.

From the quantity point of view they consist of more individual attractions a greater number of meritorious features and infinitely more marvelous free acts than any other aggregation and all are wholesome.

For Bicycle Riders

In a notice published elsewhere in this paper Chief Police J. T. Smith calls attention to the bicycle ordinance prohibiting riding on the sidewalks and gives warning that from now on this ordinance will be strictly enforced. Many violations have occurred lately, especially by children and parents would do well to give heed to the notice if they want to avoid paying fines for their children riding on the sidewalks.

For Lower Express Rate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 9.—This was the date tentatively fixed by the Interstate commerce commission for the express companies to show cause why the new rates fixed by the commission should not now be adopted by them. But as the new parcels post system has raised some complications in the adjustment of the express rates, which the commission as well as the express companies will take some time to straighten out, it is regarded as likely that the hearings on the new rates will go over until December.
