BIG CONTRIBUTORS IN 1904 FUND

Charles Hilles, Taft's Ex-Secretary Assumes the Responsibility For the Direct Accusations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Edward T. Stotesbury, of Philadelphia, banker and associate of J. P. Morgan, was the first witness examined today by the Clapp campaign investigating committee.

Other witnesses scheduled included William S. Edwards, Roosevelt leader in West Virginia; Fred W. Upham, of Chicago, and S. Aronowitz, of New York.

Mr. Stotesbury testified he had collected $165,795.50 in Pennsylvania in 1904 for the Republican national campaign, all the money going to the National Committee. The contributions came from all parts of the state.

Principal contributors to the 1904 fund were: American Banknote Company, $1,000; former Ambassador Charlemagne Tower, $7,500; Drexel and Co., $5,000; Bethlehem Steel Company, $5,000; Cambria Steel Company, $5,000; U. S. Steel Corporation, $12,775; William Cramp and Sons, $1,000; Thomas Dolan, $1,000; G. W. Elkins, $2,500; Midvale Steel Company, $5,000; Pennsylvania Steel Company, $5,000; Philadelphia Electric Company, $2,500.

In 1903, said Mr. Stotesbury, he collected $101,051.67 in Pennsylvania for the Republican national campaign.

The more important contributions to the 1908 fund were: William Diston, Philadelphia, $1,000; Jacob S. Diston, $1,000; Joseph H. Bromley, Philadelphia, $5,000; Frank Diston, $1,000; Joseph R. Grundy, $1,000; John and James Dobson, $2,000; John Broasley and Sons, Philadelphia, $5,000; E. T. Stotesbury, $5,000; Drexel and Company, $5,000.

The greater part of the contributions entered in Mr. Stotesbury account were from $5 to $100.

Mr. Stotesbury said he gave $25,000 this year to President Taft's campaign for renomination.

Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee, was yesterday asked by Chairman Clapp if he gave out a statement in August that the primary fight for Colonel Roosevelt "had cost the Harvester Trust millions of dollars."

"I assume the responsibility for it," he answered.

His explanation was given to the committee in the form of a letter he had just written to George W. Perkins, demanding that Mr. Hilles be called to account for his statement. The letter expressed the opinion that Colonel Roosevelt's pre-convention campaign expenses amounted to not less than $2,000,000.

The letter which Mr. Hilles asserted that witnesses had already testified, that expenses in different states and throughout the country would make the total campaign expenses amount to several millions.

Greenville should prepare to look after the visitors and entertain them while here.

STOKES CO. FARMERS REAP POOL BENEFIT

EXCEEDINGLY PLEASED WITH VENTURE

STORED AWAY MILLION POUNDS OF TOBACCO LAST YEAR. SOLD TO REYNOLDS AT PROFIT

WINSTON-SALEM, Oct. 11.—Eight hundred thousand pounds of tobacco pooled last year by Stokes county farmers and which has been lying in the storage house of the Stokes County Union Warehouse Company at Walnut Cove was sold today to R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of this city. The deal on behalf of the farmers was made by J. Spot Taylor president and W. E. Hartman, secretary of the company. The average price paid is not known, but Taylor and Hartman say it sold at a handsome profit, higher than the same grades were bringing last year when it was placed in the storage house. They say they are much pleased at their first experience in pooling.

During the season of 1911 approximately a thousand farmers placed their tobacco in the warehouse at Walnut Cove, and while a few hog-heads had been sold before, the deal just closed was for the bulk of the tobacco stored.

Farmers last year were not satisfied with the prices and decided to form a pool and wait for better prices. The Warehouse Company advanced 60 per cent of the market value of tobacco and the tobacco was then held until officers of the warehouse felt justified to put in on the market.

The dry prizing will be opened October 21 for the benefit of those desiring to store the weed this year. A large warehouse which will hold two and half millions pounds of tobacco is being rushed to completion. Several counties have discussed the matter of pooling tobacco, but Stokes was the only county that took action.

MILLIONAIRE STEEL MAGNATE WILL SUPPORT MR. TAFT

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11.—Henry C. Frick, who contributed $100,000 to the Republican campaign fund in 1904 announces that he will vote for Taft for president. Frick is a high tariff advocate.

"I came to register so that I can vote next month," said Mr. Frick. "For whom are you going to vote?" he was asked.

"My vote will be cast for Taft. I am a Republican and I believe in the principles of the Republican party. Those principles have worked to the benefit of the American people, and they should be continued. I am going to remain in the Republican party."

Youthful Cowpunchers Parade—Announcing Own Show

To the beating of drums Greenville's latest aggregation of youthful performers paraded the streets this morning to announce a circus performance where some of our boys will show off. The parade in itself was a show. There were cowboys mounted on horses and ponies, clowns with vacillating pillow stomachs, and a wild animal cage, wherein a frightened puppy lay in a heap of straw. A daring trainer had a strange hold on a live, full side snake.

The aggregation had a picture taken by Mr. Parker, to perpetuate the parade. The show will hold this afternoon.

NEW YORK, October 11.—The Boston Americans defeated the New York Nationals by a score of 3 to 1 today in the fourth game of the world's series before a crowd numbering about 40,000 people.

Joe Wood, Boston's pitching star, was invincible when hits meant runs and the New York batters could do nothing with him. Wood did not give a base on balls.

Wagner played a star game at short stop for Boston, taking several hard hit balls that were heading for center field while on the dead run and pinching the batters at first by the fast throws.

MONTENEGRIN SOLDIERS SUCCEED AGAINST TURKS

FIGHTING IS STILL GOING ON

FOLLOW CAPTURE OF TOWN BY DEFEAT AND CONQUEST OF GARRISON DEFENDING FORT

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 11.—Fighting between the Turkish and Montenegrin troops was still in progress this morning in the region of Tushi, to the north of Scutari. No further details have reached here.

Podoritz, Montenegro, Oct. 11.—The Montenegrin troops followed up their success in capturing Detchitch by taking late last evening the Turkish fort which dominates the town of Tushi from Schipcinck Hill.

The Turks offered a stubborn resistance, but the Montenegrins succeeded in rushing the position after several furious assaults that the Turks repulsed. Both forces suffered heavy losses in killed and wounded. The fighting lasted over four hours.

The road to the Turkish town of Tushi from the north is now open to the advance of the Montenegrin army.

Constantinople, Oct. 11.—(Wireless from a steamer in the Dardanelles to Kustendje).—No fewer than 140,000 Turkish troops from Asia Minor will it is estimated, be concentrated within a week in European Turkey. This will bring the effective force of the Turkish army there up to 400,000 men.

Turkish officials say that the day of trial has found the military depots full of stores and the army equipment complete and of good quality. If the Bulgarians are counting on the superiority of their organization and the greater rapidity with which their army can be mobilized to give them a material advantage they will, according to Turkish officials, receive a disagreeable surprise.

The Ottoman authorities for months past have been gradually strengthening their defenses and concentrating troops in the important zone comprising Adrianople and Kirk Killesch, just south of the Bulgarian frontier. Since the general mobilization was ordered a great stream of men has been pouring into the district at the rate latterly of 20,000 daily.

EXPRESS MESSENGER BRAVE

Merrill Burgett Bravely Refuses to Reveal the Hiding Place of His Valuable Express Packages

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 11.—Four bandits bungled the hold-up of a northbound Southern passenger train between Heffield and Mena, Ark., early today.

One was wounded and captured and the other outlaws escaped after a battle with Express Messenger Merrill Burgett, of Kansas City, Mo., in which Burgett exhausted his ammunition and was badly beaten. Burgett shot the robber who was discovered an hour later after his companions had deserted him. The robber is being conveyed to Mena. Fifty or more in an armed posse are pursuing the bandits Burgett is in a hospital at Mena. He will recover.

The train known as No. 2 left Hatfield, Ark., about 2 o'clock. While Burgett was working in his car he saw the bandits clambering up to the side door. Then they smashed the glass with their revolver butts. Burgett sprang to his most valuable packages and hid them, despite the hail of bullets which the bandits poured into the car. Once, the messenger says, a bullet pierced his shirt. The packages hidden. Burgett turned his attention to the invaders, who now had abandoned for a time their firing into the car.

As Burgett fired at them the robbers reached through the smashed windows and loosened the catch which held the door from the inside. Then they opened the door and sprang into the car, one by one, firing on Burgett as they advanced. The messenger leaped behind the baggage and met the robbers firing shot for shot. The train had attained a speed of about thirty miles an hour and apparently none of the train or locomotive crew knew that a hold-up was being attempted.

THE FOLLY OF TREATING

If it were not for the treating habit there would be much less drinking. It was so in the days of the whiskey saloon and it is likewise true in the days that the dope has largely succeeded the inebriating beverage. We noticed three men walking up the street together. Passing a place where there is a fountain one of them remarked, "Let's go in and get a cold drink." Both the others declined the invitation and they walked on. By declining the man who offered to treat was 15 cents in pocket and all three of them saved their stomachs from a swill of dope that they did not need. It is more than likely that even the wold-be host did not want a drink, but the custom of being social took hold of him as they happened to be passing a place where drinks are sold.

This silly custom of treating accounts for the greater part of drinking that is done. Instead of the person wanting a drink going on alone and taking it, other friends are invited to join, whether they want a drink or not and usually they accept rather than seem discourteous. This was where one of the greatest evils in connection with liquor saloons, when they existed, came in. Men who did not even want a drink would take it because invited to do so by a friend in plenty of cases would get drunk when there had been no intention of doing so and it would not have occurred but for the treating habit. Many first drinks were taken just that way and not infrequently led to ruin.

If a man goes to buy a pair of shoes, a hat, a necktie, a handkerchief or anything else, he does not ask everybody standing around to "come up and take one," and there is not any good reason for his doing so if he goes to take a drink. The treating habit is a silly one and it ought to be abandoned.

Colonel Roosevelt is going through the West criticizing Governor Wilson. He will wake up on the morning of November 6th to find that his criticism, instead of doing harm, made friends for the newly elected president.

This has not been such a big week on the quantity of tobacco sold, but it has been up in the air on prices.

Roosevelt declares that "I am a man of peaceful disposition". Yet it would be hard to find a man who has stirred up more strife than he.

As soon after arrival as the cars are placed the work of unloading the horses and wild animals will commence. These will be taken to the grounds and housed, fed and watered. Then Monday morning all the other show property will be unloaded and by 7 p. m. Monday night everything will be a readiness for the grand opening. The grounds will be illuminated with 1,000 lights, making it as bright as day; the royal Italian band, the musical feature, will give a grand concert on the street Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Which will, no doubt, be a great treat to all lovers of good, high class music as the Johnny J. Jones band has a reputation that is world wide.

Saved by His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live and it completely cured it." "A quick cure for coughs, reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists."
