Reports of Campaigns Closing in Every State in the Union Means of Prediction of Democratic Victory

New York Press Agrees That Wilson Will Be Our Next President

TIDE OF DEMOCRACY TO SWEEP COUNTRY FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN, THE ST. LAWRENCE TO THE GULF

PEOPLE HAS BEST CHANCE NOW

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The vote cast for president at today's elections throughout the United States will exceed all previous records, if yesterday predictions are fulfilled.

Reports from all states indicate intense partisanship as the election draws near; an unusual activity on the part of campaign leaders to get out the vote; and developments in the three-cornered presidential contest which indicate a determination to bring every voter to the polls.

Colonel Roosevelt, in a statement from Oyster Bay today, made the direct charge that the New York Republican leaders are urging voters to support Wilson, to make the defeat of Roosevelt certain. This statement was met with general denials from the Republican state leaders.

From Governor Wilson and his New York headquarters came further admissions to Democratic leaders to get the voters to the polls so that the maximum Democratic vote should be cast.

The extent to which the Socialist party with Eugene V. Debs as its presidential candidate, will cut into the vote of Taft, Roosevelt and Wilson has become a matter of lively conjecture in the committee headquarters of the latter candidates. The Progressive leaders assert that the Socialists will poll a heavy vote, drawing large from the Republican and Democratic ranks.

In the majority of states the polls opened between 5 and 7 o'clock this morning. Reports will not be available from any sections until after 5 o'clock (eastern time) in the afternoon and comprehensive returns from any states or congressional districts will probably not be had before 9 or 10 o'clock tonight.

The presidential candidates have prepared to receive returns from state and local leaders in all sections of the country.

THREE PARTIES CLAIM NEW JERSEY

Newark, N. J., Nov. 4.—Except for the two addresses to be delivered at Passaic and Patterson tonight by Governor Woodrow Wilson, the campaign in this state is practically at an end. There will be a few scattered meetings this evening and the leaders will devote themselves to arranging to get out the vote tomorrow.

The fourteen electoral votes of New Jersey, Governor Wilson's home state, are claimed by Democrats, Republicans and Progressives alike. Who will succeed Governor Wilson when he lays aside the governorship if chosen president, also will be determined tomorrow. The Republicans now have a majority of one in the state senate. The president of the senate will become governor of the state in case Mr. Wilson is called upon to lay down his office.

DEMOCRATS FIGHTING TO FINISH IN OHIO

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—With the arrival of President Taft in this city the preliminaries to probably the most strenuous presidential campaign that Ohio has ever endured will come to an end while the state campaign will wind up with Democratic gubernatorial nominee, James Cox, addressing a meeting in Toledo.

The other state leaders as well as nominees for governor, R. B. Brown, Republican and A. L. Garford, Progressive, are either at their homes or on their way to vote tomorrow.

Both the Republican and Progressive National and state campaigns practically came to an end Saturday night and with the exception of a few minor meets here and there these 2 parties will do nothing today but play a waiting game.

The Democrats, who announced that they would continue the campaign up to the very minute that the polls opened, are fulfilling their announcement.

COL. ROOSEVELT CLOSING CAMPAIGN

New York, Nov. 4.—The last word in the presidential and gubernatorial campaigns in this state is being spoken today and the eve of election finds the 3 candidates for the head of the state ticket winding up their canvasses with speeches in and about this city.

All sides make claims of victory, and with a forecast of fair weather for election day it is predicted that a heavy vote will be polled.

Colonel Roosevelt spent the forenoon at his home in Oyster Bay and later in the day went to Mineola, where he addressed a meeting there.

NEW YORK PAPERS SEE WILSON VICTORY

New York World (Democratic)—Wilson and Marshall will carry 39 of the 48 states, with a total of 484 out of the 531 electoral votes.

President Taft will carry seven states with a total of 32 electoral votes.

Colonel Roosevelt will carry two states with a total of 15 electoral votes.

The Democrats will surely win three senate seats and have an overwhelming majority in the House.

New York Sun (Non-Partisan)—"The election of the Democratic nominee seems to be a foregone conclusion because of the terrific dissension in the Republican party in almost every state in the union.

New York Times (Democratic)—The Democratic prospect, as indicated by reports from the Democratic leaders through the country, is that the Democratic victory will be so substantial as to carry with it enough Democratic legislatures to insure Democratic successors to paccancies in the United States senate, thus making a Democratic majority in the national senate.

DISCOVER ALLEGED FRAUD IN INDIANA

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—The fermenting out of more cases of alleged illegal registration and the perfecting of plans to get out the entire vote of the state tomorrow was the order in the camps of the three political parties in Indiana today.

More than a dozen cases of alleged illegal registering were reported by the agency from Anderson last night and at the same time it became known that employes of the same force had been at work in Terre Haute, where cases were alleged to have been found last week.

Only a few speaking engagements were on the program for today, the leaders giving most of their time to bringing voters to the polls. The Oats bring all the voters to the polls. The Progressives purpose to carry the campaign on almost until the polls open with a number of neighborhood meetings.

PROGRESSIVES CLAIM VICTORY IN MICHIGAN

Detroit, Nov. 4.—Except for a few scattering rallies throughout the state the presidential campaign in Michigan is closed. Campaign committees of all parties today devoted their energy to perfecting their plans for getting out a full vote. Registration has been heavy and with favorable weather a record poll is anticipated.

Chairmen of the Democratic, Republican and Progressive committees predict victory for their respective candidates with the Roosevelt men claiming the largest plurality.

VIRGINIA WILL BREAK ALL RECORDS, BYRD SAYS

Richmond, Nov. 4.—Virginia will give Woodrow Wilson, its native son, more than the usual Democratic majority, Speaker Byrd having thoroughly organized the state with the object of breaking all records.

There is strong hope that Rufus Ayers will defeat Bascom Slemp for Congress, making the state's delegation solidly Democratic.

NORTH CAROLINA BULL MOOSE ARE OPTIMISTIC

Charlotte, Nov. 4.—Progressive managers declare they will have a large share of the big vote that North Carolina expects to poll tomorrow.

The state wide primary for United States senate with three candidates in the field eclipses interest in the national ticket.

TENNESSEE

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Concluding their campaign with rallies throughout the state today Democratic leaders said Tennessee would align itself in the Wilson column tomorrow. While the three active presidential tickets and Congressional contests have had a bearing on the three cornered gubernatorial campaign yet it was declared the result was between Governor Hooper, Republican candidate and Benton McMillin, his Democratic opponent.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 4.—Campaign managers in South Carolina today are ready to close their headquarters. The Socialist, Democratic, Progressive and Republican tickets are in the field.

MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 4.—Adherents of the Progressive party declare today that the normal Democratic majority in Mississippi will be generally reduced in tomorrow's election.

ARKANSAS

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 4.—Democratic managers claim that Arkansas will give their ticket its usual large majority tomorrow. Leaders of other parties are making no claims.

FLORIDA

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4.—Indications point to a heavy Democratic vote in Florida tomorrow for the presidential electors, congressmen at large and the state ticket.

GEORGIA

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—The national campaign was practically closed in Georgia Saturday night and few if any political gatherings are being held today.

Cotton Seed Crusher and Distributor

The Cotton Seed Crusher and distributor which was put on exhibition at the fair by Mr. J. A. Gardner, one of our farmers, attracted much attention. This is a most wonderful machine and is a most valuable farm implement. Mr. Gardner is making arrangements to have this machine manufactured.—New Bern Sun. Mr. Gardner is a Pitt county farmer and his machine will be exhibited at the Pitt county fair next week.

Morning Paper Tomorrow

Instead of issuing tomorrow's Reflector in the afternoon as usual, it will come out early in the morning and contain telegraphic news of the election. The force will work all night tonight in order to get the news quickly to our readers.

Memorial Colleges for Booth

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A national "tag day" was conducted by the Salvation Army in many of the principal cities of the country to raise funds for the erection of memorial colleges in honor of the late General William Booth. The colleges will be located in New York and Chicago and will be for the training of men and women workers in the Salvation Army.

INTEREST IN THREE CONTEST INCREASES

More Names Added to List of Candidates

ATTENTION CALLED TO RULES

Without A Careful Personal Of The Rules Disappointment May Result For The Thoughtless Contestants

Since yesterday quite a few names have been added to the list of thirty young ladies that are about to avail themselves of the opportunity offered in the three contests, the first one of which will come to a close Nov. 16. And not only that. Contestants are already hard at work in their different communities and it is easy enough to prophesy that the very first race will be a close one.

Whilst what The Reflector wants is a renewal of all old business, new subscriptions are by no means undesirable. Therefore remember that where you have a chance to make a new Reflector reader you are putting yourself a few more points nearer the prize or prizes.

People are coming in daily to renew their subscriptions. They are doing it of their own accord. Why not suggest to some of them that you want the points their renewals would mean to you? If these people come to The Reflector office unbid, their renewals count for nothing, and some candidate whose neighbor the man who comes in to renew may be, has lost a good many points.

Don't put off for tomorrow that start that means so much to you. By this time candidates will have already received the receipt books. Write to the Contest Manager for whichever list you want. Return post will bring it to you with a word of advice as to the best advantages you can put that list to. After all, if you tackle this matter in a business like way, the result will also be business like. Success will be yours.

Whatever you do, don't hold back. We said it yesterday and we repeat it here. During all three of these contests there will be no extra offers. Nothing but three straight contests to be won on points by the candidate doing most work from start to finish.

DEATH IN THE HOUSE SIMPLIFIES ELECTION

HOUSE UP TO THEN EVENLY DIVIDED

With A Probable Democratic Successor To Representative Utter Electoral College Democratic

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The death of Representative George H. Utter, of Rhode Island, apparently breaks the deadlock in which the House of Representatives would find itself if it were called upon to elect a president.

To the time of Mr. Utter's death the House was equally divided. Representation of twenty-two states was Democratic twenty-two Republican and the delegations of our remaining states were equally divided between Republicans and Democrats.

Rhode Island was one of the states in which the delegation was equally divided and Utter's death, should this place not be filled by a Republican to fill out the remainder of his term, would throw Rhode Island to the Democratic column.

Throwing Rhode Island to the Democratic column, however, would not permit an election by the House because the constitution requires a majority of the states. This would be 25. Mr. Utter's death, however, does break an equal division between Republicans and Democrats.

Invitation to Ladies Recalled

The Reflector was misinformed in the statement made a few days ago that members of the Carolina Club could invite their lady friends to the club rooms to hear the election returns tonight, and what was said in regard to the ladies being invited is withdrawn.

CHARLES WEBB

SURE OF STATE

Chairman of Democratic Committee Confident

CRAIG TO GET GREAT MAJORITY

Asheville Man, The Nominee For Governor To Be Given A Majority Of 110,000

RALEIGH, Nov. 4.—Discussing the outlook in North Carolina for the general election Tuesday, Charles A. Webb, chairman of the state Democratic committee, said, before leaving for his home in Asheville, to remain until after the election:

"We are on the eve of the greatest Democratic victory in the history of the nation and the state. Governor Woodrow Wilson's election to the presidency is as certain as any unforeseen event can be. The glorious fact should make the heart of every North Carolinian swell with pride. Again the south is to assume its place in the forefront of the nation. Born in old Virginia, reared and schooled in our own Commonwealth, it is a matter of the greatest pride to every patriotic North Carolinian that our great leader, statesman, friend and champion of all the people, this splendid son of the south, is soon to administer the affairs of the greatest government in the world.

"Wilson will not only sweep the entire country, but North Carolina will give him the greatest plurality and the greatest majority ever given a candidate for the presidency. His plurality over either Taft or Roosevelt will not be less than 100,000 and his majority over both will not be less than 60,000.

"Locke Craig will be elected governor by the largest majority ever given a candidate for that high office. His plurality over either Mears or Settle will be at least 110,000 and the entire Democratic ticket will carry the state by a similar vote.

"We will send a solid delegation of ten members to congress. Every district is absolutely safe."

Foot Injured

Mr. Earl Forbes, who works in a tobacco factory at Wilson, was brought home Monday evening with a crippled foot. His foot was caught in an elevator and the big toe badly mashed.

Quebec Legislature Opens

QUEBEC, Nov. 5.—With the usual ceremonies the session of the Quebec legislature was opened this afternoon. Escorted by a military guard, the administrator of the Province arrived at the Parliament Buildings, a salute being fired from the Citadel. The speech from the throne was not an exceptionally long one. It was moved and seconded by Messrs. Tesler and Scott, both new members of the House.

De Ore to Defend Title

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Admirers of the game of pool in this city, and, in fact, all over the country, are interested in the contest for the world's champion title between Alfred De Ore he present holder and his old rival, Frank Sherman of Washington, which begins at Doyle's Academy tomorrow night. For the first time in a challenge match in this city the new "open break" will be tried out. Each frame will consist of only 14 balls, the fifteenth being left on the table and not tried for until the other 14 are racked.

BALKAN WAR

TO CONTINUE

Europe Thinks it is Best Not to Interfere

DESPICABLE TURK WIPED OUT

Allied Armies Are Almost At The Walls Of The Ottoman Capital With Full Force

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Turkish Ambassador here has been directed by the Ottoman government to inform Great Britain of Turkey's willingness to receive assistance in bringing about a suspension of hostilities with a view of arriving at a peace settlement.

Tewfik Pash immediately on receiving the communication from Constantinople went to the foreign office and conferred with Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Minister, for two hours.

The Balkan nations and Greece will persist in their determination that Turkey must arrange directly with them the terms of peace without the intervention of the European powers.

This attitude is emphasized in a statement from official sources, which says:

"The Turkish proposal of peace is satisfactory in so far as it shows a desire to prevent further bloodshed. As regards foreign intervention, however, there seems to be no chance of the Balkan states listening to any foreign counsels while treating for the arrangement of conditions of peace. These must be settled between the Balkan states and Turkey direct.

"It may at this stage be declared that the whole campaign was prearranged and has so far been carried out entirely in accordance with the program. For a considerable time an officer of the Greek military staff Colonel Dousmanis, was engaged at Sofia preparing the military while the political program was largely if not entirely the work of Premier Venizelos, of Greece.

The union of the Balkan states at this moment is more close, hearty and intimate than it has ever been, for it has been welded by blood and common sacrifice. There is not the least danger that any disagreement as to the division of territories or the positions of the frontiers will disturb it. It may be assumed that inasmuch as the details of campaign were arranged with the greatest care, the same procedure will be followed both as to the conclusion of hostilities and subsequent political considerations."

Those powers thus far consulted have responded to Turkey's appeal for mediation by declaring they could not make any proposals for peace and could not approach the Balkan nations with a request for an armistice.

Some of the governments have pointed out that Turkey's proposal for a cessation of hostilities—in other words an armistice—would offend the Balkan victors.

Other governments take the position that it would be an infringement of international law for the moment.

The war, therefore, must continue, and the Turkish armies which the Porte has at last admitted have been beaten, must keep on with their unequal struggle against the victorious invaders.

It is hoped and believed still that the powers will soon find a formula under which they can offer their good offices. Their terms of peace themselves are a matter entirely for the belligerents to settle, but Bulgaria having again affirmed no interference from the outside will be tolerated. In this she has the support of her allies, who settled the political as well as the military aspect of the campaign before the war was undertaken.

The negotiations which were taking place among the powers when Turkey sprang the surprise of asking for mediation were not over-successful. The European governments had not even agreed upon the preliminaries for an offer of mediation. The suggestion made by France, to which both Russia and England subscribed, met with nothing but criticism in Austria, and she of course was backed by Germany and Italy, the other two members of the triple alliance.

THE NATIONAL TICKET

Wilson Marshall

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1912

The splendid work done in the campaign in this county by Mr. C. C. Pierce, chairman and Mr. F. M. Woolen, secretary of the Democratic executive committee, shows that the committee made no mistake in placing these gentlemen at the head. Directing a campaign is no small undertaking and much hard work has to be done. The thanks of the party are due these gentlemen.

The days just preceding the election have given The Reflector force something of a rush, working them day and night. But they have stuck to it faithfully in order to give our patrons the best service possible.

This issue of The Reflector is somewhat of a go-between—too late to say anything to help the election and too soon to give any news of the result.

Election bets will be payable in the morning. It is a silly custom, yet there are people who will bet on elections and think it adds strength to their side just because they bet.

Governor Wilson got a bump on the head while riding in an automobile, but his head will feel all right when he gets the election news tonight.

When President Taft recovers from the shock he can write his Thanksgiving proclamation.

Makes no difference who's elected, most folks will have to go right on working for what they get.

And just think—in only two years there will be another one, even if not as large as this one.

It is refreshing to know that the campaign and election are over.

Some of them are already getting sorry for campaign utterances.

There has been something doing with ballots today.

Many millions of ballots went in the boxes today.

Nicholas Longworth, representative of the First Ohio District and son-in-law of Colonel Roosevelt, 43 years old today.

Reports of Campaign

TEXAS

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 4.—The 1912 campaign in Texas has been unusually quiet, according to party leaders, who are inclined to anticipate a light vote. Democrats, Republicans, Progressives, Socialist-Labor and Prohibitionists have tickets in the field.

LOUISIANA

New Orleans, La., Nov. 4.—Louisiana is conceded to Wilson in Tuesday's election. Interest in the balloting here centers in the contest over proposed changes in the tariff system.

ALABAMA

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 4.—Interest in the 1912 political campaign will result in a record vote tomorrow, according to indications today. The state is conceded to Wilson. Republicans and Progressives have waged a hard fight in the 7th Congressional district.

MARYLAND

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—With the campaign in Maryland brought to a close last Saturday night the different party managers today devoted their efforts to the completion of plans for bringing out the vote tomorrow.

WEST VIRGINIA

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 4.—With favorable weather predicted for tomorrow, election day is expected to see an enormous vote polled in West Virginia. Roosevelt men predict a landslide. Wilson men are confident he will carry the state. Taft adherents are working hard to bring out his full strength.

KENTUCKY

Louisville, Nov. 4.—Managers of the three major parties in Kentucky today predicted their respective plans for mustering a complete vote in tomorrow's elections and for obtaining early returns from the remote mountain districts. While the heads of each party respectively forecasts success Democratic workers expect a greater victory than in the 1911 state elections.

NEBRASKA

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—The Progressive managers assert that Taft will be third in the Nebraska voting and that Roosevelt will carry the state. Democratic managers continue confident Wilson will win by a large plurality.

OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 4.—With both Democrats and Republicans claiming victory Tuesday's election promises to be closely contested. There are seven Roosevelt electors and three Taft electors on the Republican ticket. The Democrats are not claiming the usual majority for the state ticket but contend that Oklahoma is safe for Wilson.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. it stands equal to if not larger than any other bank in the entire First Congressional District.

The best part of this lies in the fact that the larger portion of the Bank's Deposits have been placed there by FARMERS; the majority of its customers are FARMERS; and the majority of its stockholders are FARMERS, and whatever advances the welfare of the farmers, helps in the upbuilding of the whole community.

We strive not only to earn dividends for our Stockholders, but to use the bank's resources for the greatest benefit to the community.

Teachers Association Meets Saturday, Nov. 9, 1912

The most important meeting of the teachers yet held will meet Saturday, Nov. 12th, at 11 o'clock in the Greenville graded school building. There will be two sessions of the Association that day. Under the new arrangement a large number of teachers will take part in the exercises. The Pitt county fair will be held on the 14th and 15th of this month, Friday, the 15th, will be educational day and every school in the county will be expected to take part in the exercises of the day. There will be a school exhibit and I desire now to ask every teacher in the county to preserve some of the work being done in the school and have this on exhibition that day. Any and every kind of work you are doing will be appropriate to have and you are earnestly requested to have some of the work of your school here. All the schools of the county will close that day and teachers will not be required to make the day's work afterward. You will be expected to get every child in your school here. Your school will assemble here that day instead of in your school room and it will count a school day for you. Full particulars and announcement of program and requests and requirements will be made at the meeting Saturday. I urgently request every teacher in the county to be here that day. Your interest in the work will be shown by your presence. Your want of interest will be known by your absence. Don't forget or neglect this important meeting.

At the Training School

The members of the Edgard Allon Poe and Sidney Lanier Literary Societies of the Training School gave to their new members a most delightful Halloween party on Saturday evening from eight to ten-thirty. The new members of both societies were first invited to a bon fire just back of the school. On the way out the old members disguised as ghosts, black cats, red and black devils, witches and mother goose gave them a merry chase. From the fire the party tramped to the recreation halls of the school.

The only means of reaching the halls was through a hoghead especially constructed at the second landing. Snakes, rubber rolls, goblins and such were of little importance when just ahead you were to shake hands with your future husband, hear your fortunes told by gypsies, see the many costumed figures representing most every person thought of but for apples bite at the swinging fruit and dance at nine-thirty a hot goblin menu was served.

All the decorations of the evening were of a ghostly style. Corn-stalks, pine bushes, grey moss, pumpkins, jack o'lanterns and cats and witches prevailed.

Perhaps the most novel feature of the evening was the appearance at the bonfire of an Italian leading his bear. They followed the crowd thru the evening at regular intervals furnishing fun for all. The Italian would play his accordion sweetly while the bear danced or passed the hat thru the crowd.

An Explanation

The following letter is self-explanatory as far as removing the blame for last Saturday's accident from the good Bethel Blounts. Here's The Reflector's explanation of the mistake.

Bethel, N. C., Nov. 4, 1912
Prof. H. B. Smith,
Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:

I was indeed sorry to hear and see in the Saturday Daily Reflector that you had been struck by an auto driven by one Master Blount of Bethel, N. C. I am glad you are improving and was not badly hurt, but I want to say that whoever gave the driver's name and address were mistaken. We are the only Blounts in Bethel township and it was not any of us and we think we are due a correction in the same paper as I assure you 90 per cent of the readers think it was some of my boys. Therefore, I think it is fair to have the correction made. I am,

Respt. yours,

M. O. BLODNT.

Mr. Whichard, the report was current here Friday evening and Saturday that "Master Blount, of Bethel" was the driver of the car that ran against me. I do not know how it became current. I did not know the boy, and have never heard any one state positively what his name was. When Mr. Lorente called Mrs. Smith Saturday morning, she told him she understood the boy's name was Blount.

I turn Mr. Blount's letter over to you at your disposal.

Very truly yours,

H. B. SMITH.
