DIPLOMACY TO SETTLE TERMS

Bulgarians Agree to a Friendly Conference

FIGHTING ARMIES BURYING DEAD

Entrance Into The Turkish Capital Is Averted By The Timely Interference Of The Diplomats

LONDON, Nov. 19.—An eight hour armistice has been agreed to between the Bulgarians and Turks at Tchatalja, so that both armies may bury their dead, according to a news agency dispatch from Constantinople.

SOPIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 19.—The allied Balkan nations today assented to the Turkish proposal to discuss the terms of an armistice and eventual peace.

The reply sent to the dispatch of the grand vizier to King Ferdinand of Bulgaria says:

"The Bulgarian government, after agreement with the allied Cabinets of Serbia, Montenegro and Greece informs the Porte that plenipotentiaries have been appointed with instructions to arrange with the commander-in-chief of the Turkish armies the conditions of an armistice and subsequently to proceed to the conclusion of peace."

Out Of Turkish Base of Supplies

Riaka, Montenegro, Nov. 19.—A combined army of Serbian and Montenegrin troops today occupied the town of Alessio near the Adriatic coast.

Alessio has been the chief source of supply for the besieged Turkish garrison of Scutari. Although only a small place of three thousand inhabitants, its possession is of great importance.

Austrian Courier Fired Upon, Report Says

Vienna, Austria, Nov. 19.—Serious international incidents are reported to have occurred after the occupation of the Adriatic port of San Giovanni Di Medua by the Montenegrins on Saturday, according to the correspondent of the Reichspost at Scutari.

The correspondent telegraphs that the Turkish troops evacuated San Giovanni Di Medua on the arrival of a Montenegrin column and he declares that an Austrian courier from Scutari was fixed upon by the Montenegrin troops.

When the Montenegrin commander General Martinovitch, arrived at San Giovanni Di Medua on Sunday he ordered the seizure of the Austrian mail bags lying there and destined for Scutari.

Summerville-Frazier

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Guests from Washington, Atlanta and several other cities came to Chattanooga today for the wedding of Miss Annie Keith Frazier, daughter of former United States Senator and Mrs. James P. Frazier and Mr. Robert Nugent Summerville. The bride party will make their home in Greenville, Miss., where Mr. Summerville is engaged in the practice of law.

North Carolina M. E. Conference

HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 20.—Clerical and lay representatives of the Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, gathered here today for their twenty-third annual convention. The conference will continue until next Tuesday, with Bishop Collins Denny of Nashville presiding.

Mother and Daughter Fail to Appear Against Johnson

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—A charge of abduction against Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, was dismissed before Municipal Judge Hopkins today, because of the prosecutions inability to prove that Lucile Cameron, the white girl, whose association with Johnson led to his arrest, had been abducted by him.

The girl and her mother, Mrs. Cameron, both of whom were witnesses against Johnson in the Federal action for alleged violation of the Mann white slave act, were not in court when the city case was dismissed.

ROBBERY MOTIVE FOR HIGH DEATH

Premeditation Found in Manner of Crime

NEGRO'S STORY DISCREDITED

Logan Admits That He Struck The Young Man Repeatedly With Iron Rod To Defend Himself

RALEIGH, Nov. 19.—Beaten into insensibility with an iron rod and his clothes saturated with kerosene, Paul A. High, a young man about 25 years old, was found slowly burning to death in a small shanty on West Le noir street. The shanty was occupied by a negro, Logan Green. High was taken to the hospital and died five hours after being found.

Upon his own confession Green is now under arrest charged with the crime.

First knowledge of the crime received by the police was about 4 o'clock Sunday morning when William Holloway, a negro, informed the police that a man had been killed in Greens' home. The officers went immediately to the place and found Green on the outside holding the door. The police asked him what was the matter and he answered by opening the door. The sight was ghastly. Lying upon the floor in the middle of the room was High, wrapped up in an oil soaked blanket with flames and smoke issuing from around him. The officers hastily put out the fire and High was sent to the hospital.

After doing all they could for High the officers turned their attention to the negro. He stated that he hit High many times, at least a dozen, to prevent High from robbing him. He stated that he was asleep on a lounge and was awakened by the man who had his hand in the negro's pocket. He asked him to get out of the house, but High went to a trunk. The negro then grabbed the rod and hit him. He repeated the blows until the men fell. When asked about the oil soaked blanket and the fire the negro said that the man set himself afire. This was the negro's story.

However, the negro's tale is discredited by the police, who believe that High was first robbed by probably a crowd of negroes, then clubbed. They believe that the negroes in an effort to hide their crime poured oil on the blanket and set High afire.

High was last seen alive by his brother, Lonnie High, at the latter's home on West Cannon street about 11 o'clock Saturday night. At this time the younger High was seen with as much as $11 and his brother thinks he had more probably about $17. Only fifty-one cents was found in his pocket.

Bull Moose Love Feast

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 20.—Leaders of the Progressive party in Indiana are arranging to hold a state rally in this city tomorrow. Former Senator Beveridge and other prominent leaders will address the meeting and plans will be made for maintaining a permanent organization of the party.

New York Attorney Again is Placed on Trial For Woman's Death

GOSHEN, N. Y., Nov. 19.—Introduction of evidence in the trial of Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer, charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, while boating at Greenwood Lake July 16, began today.

District attorney Rogers planned to fix the scene of Mrs. Szabo's death in the minds of the jurors by placing perhaps more witnesses on the stand before proving the fact of her death.

Gibson is anxious for the jury to visit Greenwood Lake and see it for themselves.

Gibson said today he thought there was no need of taking the witness stand in his own defense.

ALLENS TO LIVE A FEW MORE DAYS TO DIE IN CHAIR DECEMBER 13

GOVERNOR MANN GRANTS LEASE OF LIFE OF 21 DAYS TO THE FAMOUS HILLSVILLE OUTLAWS

RICHMOND, Nov. 19.—Governor Mann this morning granted Floyd and Claude Allen a respite until Dec. 13. They were sentenced to death in the electric chair Nov. 22 for their part in the Hillsville Court murders.

That Claude Allen's case would be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, on the constitutional grounds that his life was placed in jeopardy twice for the same offense, was the statement made by the doomed man's attorney, Judge N. H. Hairton, here today.

BROWN-SUMMERELL WEDDING

BRILLIANT RECEPTION AT HOME OF BRIDE'S PARENTS

One of the most important social events of the year was the reception given last night to their numerous friends by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown, the occasion being a pre-celebration of the wedding of their daughter, Lee Moyo, to Mr. J. J. Summerell, of Wilson.

The guests were met at the door by Mr. and Mrs. R. Williams and ushered to the receiving line where stood Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. H. Summerell, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rowland, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ames, of Portsmouth. At the dining room door were Miss Lillian Carr and Mr. L. Ames Brown, and in the line in the dining room, Miss Elizabeth Ames and Mr. Norman O. Warren, Miss Nellie Pender and Mr. Robert Rickett. Delightful ices and cake were served by Misses Bessie Brown, Henrie Long and Helen Laughinghouse. The dining room was tastefully decorated with natural flowers and plants, streamers from the chandelier to the table forming a beautiful effect. Punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Long in the sitting room where the presents were exhibited. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Allen took charge of the guests.

The house was wholly decorated with evergreens, flowers and plants and profusely illuminated.

The animation displayed by the guests did not abate for a second during the reception and the bride and groom were showered with congratulations. The guests departed at 11:30 in order to be ready for this morning's ceremony.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Rowland, of Raleigh; Mr. L. V. Morrill, of Snow Hill; Miss Nellie Pender journeyed from Statesville to be at the reception and wedding.

The Wedding

Shortly after eight o'clock this morning, the Episcopal church, beautifully decorated with evergreens, chrysanthemums and plants, began to receive the guests to the wedding. At the door Messrs. L. Ames Brown, brother of the bride, H. A. White, Norman O. Warren, W. B. Wilson, Jr., of Greenville; B. B. Plyler of Wilson and Robert M. Rickett, of Statesville, the ushers received the guests and conducted them to their seats.

Miss Ellie Brown, presiding at the organ preceded the entrance of the bridal party with a beautiful rendition of Trumrel. Promptly at nine o'clock and to the strains of Lohendelbra wedding march the bridal party entered the church. Miss Bessie Summerell, of New Bern, a sister of the groom, was the maid of honor and was becomingly attired in a white cloth dress and hat to match and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bride's maids, Misses Jennie Brown Morrill, of Snow Hill; Elizabeth A. Ames, of Portsmouth, and Nellie Pender, of Greenville, followed the maid or honor up the aisle and directly after the bride leaning on her father's arm and charming in a blue cloth traveling suit and carrying a white prayer book, entered the church. At the altar the bride was met by the groom who was led from the vestry by Mr.

BECKER'S GUNMEN ALL FOUND GUILTY

GANGMEN WILL BE SENTENCED TODAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—After being out for an hour and ten minutes the jury in the case of the four gunmen charged with murdering Herman Rosenthal returned a verdict finding all of the defendants guilty of murder in the first degree.

Justice Goff finished his charge to the jury at 1:35 and the jurors immediately retired to consider their verdict.

Justice Goff in charging the jury said: "If the state's informers committed the crime, as the defense contends, was it reasonable to assume that the informers would invite the gunmen as witnesses?"

"If Jack Rose had lied, he said, in swearing that the gunmen did the shooting why then did he not go further and swear that he actually saw the shooting at the hands of the defendants. "These are circumstances for you to consider," cautioned the court.

As in the charge to the Becker jury Justice Goff ruled that Rose, Vallon and Webber were accomplices.

Justice Goff remanded the prisoners until 10:30 a. m., tomorrow, when he will fix the day for pronouncing sentence.

The entire proceedings in court after the jury came in occupied only seven minutes. The gunmen were brought in by four prison wardens and a uniformed policeman. They heard the verdict with faces unmoved, staring straight ahead.

On the way back to their cells the gunmen, except "Whitey" Lewis walked erect. Lewis went with bowed head. The crowd in the court room received the verdict without demonstration, and the news caused no visible excitement when it reached the thorough outside the building.

Frank S. Hassell, of Wilson, the best man.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. N. H. Summerell, of New Bern, father of the groom, and was assisted by the Rector, Rev. Dallas Tucker.

The attendance quietly followed the solemn ceremony that made Miss Lee Moyo Brown and Mr. J. J. Summerell man and wife.

From church the couple went directly to the Norfolk Southern depot and at 9:40 left for the bridal journey to New York, Washington and other northern cities.

No prettier morning wedding ceremony has been performed in Greenville, the prominence of the families of the contracting parties calling for a great deal of interest both in this and other communities.

The Presents

That a special and separate mention of the presents should be made is nothing, but fair to its number, value, beauty and practical purpose. On the other hand it would be nigh near impossible to catalogue them and describe them. Yet some here were which must be mentioned individually.

The silver pieces were innumerable and of the most artistic workmanship, making one wonder what two young people could do with so many silver spoons, forks and other branches of the silverware family as were represented. Cut glass for a variety of uses too numerous to mention. Two centre-table silver pieces of superb lines. And so on line upon line could be written about the beautiful collection of presents. Many other objects of art, china, candelabra and several pieces of linen beautifully embroidered. If wedding presents are an expression (and they are) of the friendship and well wishing, the young bride was well remembered.

The wonderful array of gifts, languished in their several places this morning waiting for careful hands to pack them and forward them to the new home in Wilson.

Roosevelt's Assaulter is Pronounced Insane by Court

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 19.—A commission of 5 alienists today reported to Judge Backus finding John Schrank, who shot Colonel Roosevelt, insane.

The decision of the doctors was unanimous and means that Schrank cannot be tried for the attempted assassination of Col. Roosevelt, but will be committed to the Northern Hospital for the insane at Oshkosh.

Schrank may remain in the asylum for the rest of his life as he cannot be released unless it is shown that he is completely cured and will not be subject again to an attack like the one which caused him to attempt the life of Col. Roosevelt on the night of October 14.

The commission of alienists finished its work yesterday afternoon, and its report which will be made to the court some time this week is being dictated today by Dr. Richard Dewey, chairman, assisted by the other four doctors of the commission.

Judge Backus denied that the commission of alienists has finished its work, adding:

"The commission at 11 a. m., is continuing the examination of Schrank in my chamber. If any member of the commission has given out advance information to the effect that Schrank has been held to be insane I shall adjudge him to be in contempt of court."

It was learned from another source that the information that Col. Roosevelt's assailant has been found insane came from the district attorney's office.

Blaze on Roof

This morning the roof of the kitchen at the home of Mr. L. C. Arthur on the southern boundary of the town caught on fire. Mrs. Arthur happened to be up stairs and looking out the window saw the blaze on the kitchen roof. Help from the premises was called in and with a few buckets of water the fire was put out before it could do much damage.

Mrs. Arthur telephoned in an alarm and the old gong at the city hall was rung, but the fire whistle at the station did not blow.

Negro Boy in Pactolus Victim of Shot Gun Accident

As the result of the accidental discharge of a shot gun, a little negro boy, Jasper Daniel, about ten years old, lost his life early this morning. The boy had been left in a kitchen to look after another little negro boy, when a shot gun hanging from a nail on the wall fell and was discharged, the load hitting Jasper in the head and carrying away part of his skull and face.

Coroner Laughinghouse went to Pactolus this morning and held an inquest, his jury rendering a verdict of accidental death.

NORLINA, N. C., Nov. 19.—Six men were killed and six others badly injured in a head-on collision between the northbound and southbound Florida-Cuba Specials on the Seaboard Air Line Railway, one mile south of the Virginia-North Carolina state line shortly after 4 o'clock this morning.

All those killed or injured in the wreck, so far as reports now show, were members of the crews of the two trains and express messengers.

The cause of the wreck has not been determined. The northbound train, known as No. 84, was due at this place, eight miles south of the wreck at 2:40 a. m., but did not pass until nearly 4 o'clock.

The southbound train No. 81 was due here at 4 o'clock. The two trains met just outside the yards of Granite, a small station near the state line.

Relief trains were hurried to the scene from Norfolk and from Raleigh, carrying surgeons, nurses and officers of the railroad company. The badly injured were taken back to Raleigh for treatment. The cause of the wreck has not been determined, but information received here indicates that Engineer Beckman, on the southbound train, confused his orders for the meeting of the northbound train.

Hugh W. Stanley, assistant general manager, and A. J. Poole, superintendent of motive power, were among the officials of the Seaboard Air Line who came to the scene of the wreck on the relief train this morning. They were met at Granite by division superintendents and other officials and the surgeons of the system who are working under the direction of Dr. Burke, of Petersburg, chief surgeon.

Raleigh Sends Relief Train

Raleigh, Nov. 19.—A wrecking train with three surgeons were rushed from Raleigh to Norlina this morning to relieve the injured in the wreck. Norlina is sixty miles north of Raleigh on the line between Virginia and North Carolina. Telegraph wires this side of the scene of the wreck are all reported down.

A relief train bearing four persons who were injured in the wreck arrived here about noon. Another relief train is en route to Raleigh. No passengers were reported seriously injured.

Messenger Rountree is suffering from internal injuries.

The bodies of Engineer Faison, Express Messenger Priddy and the two negro firemen, Ruffin and Gray, were brought here on an extra train this afternoon. The three injured trainmen are getting along favorably with the exception of Rountree whose injuries are serious.

William J. Bryan, who came to Raleigh yesterday on the train operated by Engineer Beckman, paid the latter's widow a visit this morning after learning of the accident. He was accompanied by Josephus Daniels. Both expressed their sympathies.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1912

COTTON

The burden of our defective banking system falls upon no section of the country more heavily than upon the South, because the South is pinched and bled annually in the movement of the cotton crop.

In the thirteen cotton-growing states, including Kentucky and excluding Missouri, there are 1461 national banks with a combined capital stock of $159,927,430.

The total value of cotton raised annually in the Southern states is about seven and a half billion dollars.

When the capitalization of the Southern banks is considered in connection with the value of the cotton crop, it is at once obvious why they must call on New York and on Europe for help when that crop is to be moved from the producer to the manufacturer.

It should be mentioned in the beginning that the local cotton business is done in cash. Hence a buyer, or cotton factor, will arrange with his local bank to obtain funds if he wishes to purchase cotton. He gives as security his note, with warehouse, or compress, receipts, or the railroad bills of lading covering a certain number of bales of cotton. Conservative banks do not advance on this form of security more than their capital stock and surplus and so the movement of cotton is costly and difficult. When the cotton factor buys 1000 bales and gets a loan, for, say $60,000, the local banks know that within three or four days it will be called upon for $60,000 in currency, which must come out of its resources or be sent to it from the reserve city banks. Approximately $200,000,000 of currency is sent annually into the south to help finance this crop.

Who gets the profit? New York bankers and brokers. They reap in this way several million dollars a year. The South pays the bill.

And, in addition, the mere cost of shipping the currency costs country banks in the south, it is estimated, $40,000 a year, aside from the interest which must be paid for it.

The first reason for this expense is the lack of actual currency. Another is the use of actual cash where credit exchanges might be more generally used. Still another is the inelasticity of our currency system. A discount system would make it possible to coin the cotton crop at once into currency. Thus the enormous wealth brought out of the soil would make for instant prosperity instead of creating financial stringency. It would enlarge credit, instead of crippling or hampering it.

A uniform discount rate, effective only in rediscounts for banks, would tend to equalize interest rates throughout the country. At present these vary from 2 3/4 and 3 per cent in New York to 12 and 15 per cent in rural districts. Proper reforms in our banking laws would enable a rate to be fixed which would be uniform throughout the country, so that the local banks in Mississippi could get at a much smaller price than is possible now. The rates throughout the country probably would vary somewhat, but the variation would be nothing like what it is now; and the small banks would profit equally with the farmers and merchants they serve.

Proper revision of our banking laws would work for the greater prosperity of the south and would aid materially in the easy movement of its great staple, cotton. It would make it possible for the banks of the south to take care of the South's business. It would provide abundant funds when they were needed and would convert into cash at once the South's greatest source of wealth.

No, we are not going to shut off talking for Pitt county, either, that is as long as we have breath enough left to talk

On the train or off the train, anywhere you see people near by, they are talking about Pitt county.

It is taking them a long time to decide in California.

Rev. C. E. Madrey at E. C. T. T. S.

Rev. C. E. Madrey, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, Raleigh, conducted assembly exercises at the E. C. T. T. S. Tuesday morning. He made a talk that rang with optimism and prophesy. He said that the Southerner, who had been an alien to his own house for 50 years, was now coming back into his own. The conservatism, optimism and individualism of the South will save the nation. The opening of the Panama canal will make the south the greatest highways, the Gulf will become the Mediterranean Sea of the World. All big railroads are looking for an outlet to the sea through the South. North Carolina, half way between the two sections, is in a position to take a great part in the things that are to be. The Anglo-Saxons are destined to be the missionaries of the world. The Grecian gave the world thought; the Roman organization; the German individualism and the Anglo-Saxon to all these adds aggressiveness. The South has the purest Anglo-Saxon blood. We, as Southerners and North Carolinians should be proud of our heritage and opportunity.

Mr. Madrey has a strong place in the memory of the school as he preached the first commencement sermon.

It is hard to get a good laugh nowadays unless you know where to get it. But it's easy when you know how. The book of "Fun" issued each week with the New York Sunday World is the thing. There are a thousand laughs in "Fun" and it is easily obtainable by subscribing for the great Sunday World.

Look at these two men. They have been to market their cotton. One put his money in the bank and the other one didn't. They were held up on the way home. The silly fellow who wanted to take his money home had to "deliver" to the robbers. The other was able to "give them the laugh." —His money was in the bank.

Take a lesson from this—put your harvest money in this bank like all other successful farmers. It is the safest place—withdraw it whenever you please.

Overflowing With Values:-

NEVER BEFORE--- in the history of this store, have we been in a position to offer you the values in Men's and Boys Clothes as we are today, and the public's estimate of it was clearly shown by the business we did last week.

Suits and Overcoats

$10 $12.50, $15,
$20.00 and $25

We wouldn't say so much about values, but there's a value in every Suit we have to offer you. Our $25.00 Suits and $20.00 Overcoats look mighty good for the price--look like they are worth more money than we ask.

I guarantee all garments to be just as represented--and if any garment does not prove to be as sold your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Shoes, Hats, Men's Furnishings and the things for the men and little men, look this store up.

C. S. FORBES

THE SHELBURN FARM

TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION (PART OF THE OLD J. B. LATHAM FARM)

FIFTEEN SMALL FARMS

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25

These farms are situated on the north side of Tar River, on the Greenville and Tarboro road, about four miles from Greenville. Each tract consists of about twenty-five acres, and is beautifully laid off, so that there is a splendid road frontage to each farm that will be offered. On some of the tracts there are good dwellings and plenty of out-houses; and the purchaser will have nothing to do but move in and begin farming on January 1, 1912.

We do not claim that this is the best land in Pitt County, and we do not expect it to bring the price that the best land in Pitt County would bring: we do claim, however, that there is no better tobacco and peanut land to be had, and at the present time, we know of no two farm products that are selling as well as these.

We wish, especially, to call your attention to the house tract on which there are two tobacco barns and pack houses, in addition to other necessary buildings. In this tract, there are twenty-five acres, and the two tracts adjoining can also be added to this tract, which will make a total of about sixty acres. The present occupant of this special tract raised eight acres of very fine tobacco this year, which he sold at a most excellent price.

The terms of this sale will be in reach of any man who desires to own a small farm, namely: one fourth cash, and the balance in six yearly installments to come due one, two, three, four, five and six years from date, with six per cent interest; or, if the purchaser prefers, a cash payment of $100.00 on the day of the sale will be accepted, and an additional $100.00 on or before December 20th, with the six yearly payments as above mentioned.

Promptly 10:30 O'clock A. M.

This Sale will take place ON THE FARM and not in front of the Courthouse, and will start

It matters not whether you are an investor, home-seeker or tenant, this is a splendid opportunity to buy a farm which will pay for itself. The money that you are now using to pay the rent on land that you are cultivating, can be applied to payments on this property; and, we have no doubt that a great many tenants can make the payments on one or more of these farms, and still have money left from that amount which they have had to pay as renters here-to-fore. If you are a man who has been renting land all your life, and have paid enough money to own a valuable farm, take advantage of this opportunity to mend that mistake. It is never too late, and it makes no difference whether you are old or young, you cannot possibly make a mistake in trying to own your own home.

At the expiration of six years, you will own a piece of property that will have been paid for with money that has never benefitted you (all the time making the same living that you were making as a renter); and in addition to the fact that you have paid for a farm, you will have received the benefits of the increased valuation of the property, which will be about one hundred per cent, if history repeats itself in real estate, as it has done for the last six years. We have no reason to doubt this, on the other hand, we have every reason to believe that farm lands will advance more rapidly in the next five or six years than ever before, in the same length of time.

There will be an OYSTER ROAST given to those who attend the sale, absolutely free; and music by an excellent band. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

This sale will be open to both white and colored people; and each tract will positively be sold, regardless of price. We only make the terms, and the purchasers make the price.
