

Russia's Championing of Serbia's Interests to Culminate in War With Austria-Hungary, Europeans Fear

MOBILIZATION OF TROOPS IN A LARGE SCALE MEANS THAT AUSTRIA INTENDS TO KEEP SERBIA FROM HAVING PORT ON THE ADRIATIC—RUSSIA BELIEVED TO BE ON WAY TO SUPPORT BALKAN STATE CLAIMS—DIPLOMACY REACHES BREAKING POINT.

FIGHTING IN TURKISH FRONT CONTINUES

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—Relations between Austria-Hungary and Serbia are now so strained that political circles in Vienna have abandoned hope of the preservation of peace, according to the Neue Gesellschaftliche Correspondent, which says it has information from a diplomatic source. Despite official Austrian denials of the reported mobilization of the Austro-Hungarian army the Correspondence declares that five army corps have already mobilized and the reserves continue to be called up in large numbers.

The Austro-Hungarian government it continues, is resolved not to await the return of the Serbian troops operating against the Turks and an ultimatum to Serbia be expected within a few days.

The situation has become more acute through the changed attitude of Russia. Sergius Sazonoff, the Russian foreign minister, after having declared suitable as a basis for further negotiations the Austrian proposal guaranteeing Serbia a free port on the Adriatic Sea and a Serbian railway through Albania, but without territorial rights has now abandoned this standpoint.

Austria is now disposed to push the matter to a decision because if war is inevitable she wants to take advantage of her mobilization being more advanced than that of Russia.

Servians Arming The Belgrade Forts
VIENNA, Nov. 25.—It is reported here that the Belgrade forts are being hastily armed with heavy guns by the Serbian war office. Information has also been received that all the Serbian troops who can be spared from Priserend and Monastir have been recalled to the Serbian capital.

Loss of Warships a Handicap to Turks

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The loss of the Turkish cruiser Hamidieh is a severe handicap to the Ottoman commander in chief, according to special dispatches from the front. The guns of the other Turkish warships are almost ineffective for the purpose of stopping the Bulgarian advance.

The battleship Messadieh, which was formerly employed for the defense of Rodcato and latterly in the left flank of the Tchatalja lines has now been dispatched to the Black Sea in order to strengthen the menaced right flank of the Turkish army. Considerable activity has been observed among the Bulgarians who have brought up some heavy siege guns which are being rapidly placed in position to command the Turkish quarters at Hademkeul.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—A special dispatch from the Turkish headquarters at Hademkeul confirms that the Ottoman troops captured 800 Bulgarian prisoners during the last engagement with the Bulgarian right wing on the Tchatalja lines. The Bulgarians also left six field guns and one machine gun on the field.

Another special dispatch from Antivari says Austria Hungary is mobilizing a striking force at Port Ragusa, to which place a portion of the garrison of the Austrian fortress of Spizza, in Dalmatia, has been sent.

Greeks Near Turkish Fortress

ATHENS, Greece, Nov. 25.—Greek troops today occupied the Samarina road leading to the Turkish fortress of Janina.

The Dardanelles Open to Navigation
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 25.—The Dardanelles straits were still open to navigation at half past ten this morning, despite the reports of an attack by Bulgarian troops on the forts guarding them, the capture of which would permit the Greek fleet to sail through and bombard Constantinople.

Change Itinerary of American Warships

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Realizing

the possibility of rapid and important developments in the Balkan war, the Navy Department has slightly changed the itinerary of the big cruisers Tennessee and Montana, now on the way to the Orient under Admiral Knight. The vessels will be kept in close touch by cable with the department. Admiral Knight, on the Tennessee, instead of going direct from Gioraltar to Smyra has headed first for Malta, while the Montana, which was destined for Beirut, has started for Port Said, at the entrance of the Suez Canal.

The change in the itinerary will make it easier for the cruisers to replenish their coal bunkers, pending the arrival in the Mediterranean of the collier Brutus.

Greeks Occupy Turkish Island

SMYRNA, Nov. 25.—The Greeks are reported to have occupied the large Turkish island of Chios in the Aegean Sea and close to this city. It is one of the richest and most beautiful islands of the Levant with a population of about 50,000.

Jarvis Memorial Church Made Excellent Record For Conference Year

Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, takes up to the annual conference in Fayetteville a splendid record of his work here during the past year. The following notes taken from his report are gratifying to the church and friends:

Number of members added during the year, 30.

Total collections for all purposes, $5,195.74.

A substantial reduction was made in the church debt.

The Sunday School has been graded and interest largely increased. The Philathea class has 100 members and the Baraca 72. There are ten other classes making a total of over 400 in the Sunday school.

The congregations have steadily increased.

Mr. D. D. Overton has tendered a lot to the church on condition that a parsonage be built on it. The pastor says Mr. Overton has as well made the deed, as the parsonage will be built.

On account of the condition of Mrs. Hoyle's health, Mr. Hoyle had been thinking of asking for a transfer to the Western North Carolina Conference, but about fifty of his members got together and offered to pay her expenses in the mountains four months next summer if he would consent to remain here. This shows the great esteem of the church for their pastor and his family and our people generally hope the conference will return Mr. Hoyle to Greenville and keep him here the full time.

Impromptu Dance at Carolina Club Last Night

The young people of Greenville had an opportunity last night to enjoy an impromptu dance at the Carolina Club. Through the courtesy of Mr. J. W. Ferrell, president of the Atlantic Coast Real Estate Company, the company's band which was here yesterday to attend the Shelburn Farm sale, made music at the Club from nine to eleven.

Many couples attended and a "good time" was had.

Mrs. White to Greenville

Mrs. Hazel White has returned from a visit in Philadelphia and will leave today for Greenville to join Mr. White, who is now in business there. The departure of this popular young couple has been a cause for regret by their many friends and they carry with them to Greenville the best wishes of all. During her stay here Mrs. White has been a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Minnetree.

REAL ESTATE SALE WAS BIG SUCCESS

Atlantic Coast Realty Co., Impresses by Thorough Business Methods

LAND SOLD IN 45 MINUTES

ATLANTIC COAST REAL ESTATE COMPANY IMPRESSES BY ITS THOROUGH BUSINESS METHODS

The advertised land sale of the Shelburn farm by the Atlantic Coast Real Estate Company, took place yesterday and was attended by the successful characteristic of all sales conducted by this splendid auction sale company.

The Shelburn Farm contained about twelve small tracts all of which were knocked down within forty five minutes. Bidding was very keen on all tracts and much interest was manifested throughout the transactions.

The Atlantic Coast Real Estate Company's own band was on grounds and enlivened the proceedings, whilst an oyster roast of generous proportions added another feature to the sale.

What most impressed the attendance was the method employed, by the company to dispose of the land. In it people saw an organization perfect in every detail; a series of efforts to redound in the benefit of the man disposing of the property and in the parties acquiring it.

This Real Estate Company has a field organization equalled by few concerns of its kind, bettered by none. It employs ten advertising experts, four engineers to prepare the property, carries its own band and has the two best auctioneers in the south. Mr. J. W. Ferrell, the president of the company as well as its treasurer, Mr. W. Morton, are always to be found at the sales and the home office here in Greenville is under the efficient guidance of Mr. Hazel White. The success of this company is due to just this: "It does business in a business way."

The company has a sale every day and apart from the benefit Greenville derives from being advertised by such a concern, as all financial matters are attended to from the home office, our town grows financially.

Tar Heel Seeks to Recover Biggest Claim From Southern R. R.

WINSTON-SALEM, Nov. 25.—What is perhaps the largest damage suit ever instituted in Forsyth county has been brought by Kerner Bros., of Kernersville, trading as the American Hosiery Mill, against the Southern Railway Company and John Snider, where it they are suing for $99,950.

The plaintiffs allege that the building in Kernersville occupied by the American Hosiery Mills was set on fire by sparks from an engine owned by the Southern Railway Company of which John Snider was the engineer. They further allege that the machinery and manufactured goods, and goods in process of manufacture, together with merchandise in the building, were worth $80,000 and that the building was worth $19,950.

Slick Artist Deprives Preacher of His Watch in Church

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 22.—Just after he had dismissed his congregation last night and had stepped down from the pulpit to shake the hands of those who remained after services to speak to the pastor, as is the custom, two strangers stepped up to the Rev. Dr. W. G. Starr, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, pretending that they wished to speak to him and engaging him in conversation, cut his silk watch guard and relieved him of his watch.

MORE DEMOCRATS FROM THE NORTH

Beat the Southerners by Even Dozen

FIRST TIME SINCE CIVIL WAR

152 Democrats From The North Against 140 From The South Will Seat In The House

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—When the Sixty-third Congress assembles in extra session in the spring Northern Democrats will have, for the first time since the Civil war, a majority in the Democratic members of the House. The line up of the Democrats sectionally will be: Northern states 152; Southern states 140. By states the representation follows:

Northern states: California 3, Colorado 4, Connecticut 5, Delaware 1, Illinois 21, Indiana 13, Iowa 3, Kansas 5, Maine 1, Massachusetts 7, Michigan 2, Minnesota 1, Montana 2, Nebraska 3, New Hampshire 2, New Jersey 11, New York 32, Ohio 19, Pennsylvania 12, Rhode Island 2, Wisconsin 3. Total 152.

Southern states: Alabama 10, Arizona 1, Arkansas 7, Florida 4, Georgia 12, Kentucky 9, Louisiana 8, Maryland 6, Mississippi 14, New Mexico 1, North Carolina 10, Oklahoma 6, South Carolina 7, Tennessee 8, Texas 18, Virginia 8, West Virginia 2. Total 140.

The argument might be offered that Arizona, New Mexico and West Virginia are not southern states. If that holds, the representation of the southern states would be less.

In the present congress most of the committee chairmanships are held by southern Democrats. In fact there are only two committees of consequence headed by northern Democrats—Appropriations, headed by Representative Fitzgerald, of New York and Foreign Affairs, headed by Representative Sulzer of New York. It is expected that a southern Democrat will succeed Mr. Sulzer in the next congress as chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

John Schrank, Roosevelt's Assaulter, Committed to Asylum

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 25.—John Schrank, who shot Colonel Roosevelt, was taken to the Northern Hospital, for the insane near Oskosh today, Judge Backus having committed him to the institution on Friday after a commission of alienists adjudged him insane.

Schrank has not changed in demeanor since sentence was pronounced. His disease pronounced chronic paranoia and probably incurable, may result in his spending the rest of his life in the asylum. However, should he ever be pronounced cured he will be returned to Milwaukee and tried for the attempt on Mr. Roosevelt's life.

EXTRA FINE CORN

An Average Yield of Fifteen Barrels Per Acre

A field of corn on Mr. O. L. Joyner's farm, about three miles west of Greenville, attracted much attention and comment during its growth. It was on the roadside and grew and grew. Various estimates were placed upon its probable yield. It was on good land that had been in clover. There were ten acres of this corn.

Mr. Joyner recently harvested this corn and measured the yield of one acre. The yield was an even sixteen and two-thirds barrels, which would make one hundred, sixty-six and two-thirds barrels for the ten acres.

Mr. Joyner also had thirty acres of low land in corn which he thinks better than the ten acres upland. But he put a reasonable estimate of an average of fifteen barrels per acre for the entire forty acres which would mean six hundred barrels.

That's good corn farming, and Mr. Joyner does other farming likewise.

The boys are laying aside their popcracker money.

The mornings are bringing forth ice.

PANAMA CANAL ONE OF THE JOBS

Dynamiters Were Going to Destroy Giant Ditch

SCOPE OF OPERATIONS GREAT

McNamara Wanted McManigal To Proceed To The Isthmus And Blow Up The "Whole Works"

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 25.—Witnesses at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today testified concerning "whole-sale explosions" which the McNamaras were alleged to have contemplated but which were prevented by the arrest of the dynamiters at Detroit and Indianapolis in April, 1910. One of the explosions contemplated, as told by the witnesses, were to blow up the locks of the Panama Canal.

Ortie E. McManigal resumed his confession on the witness stand.

"Tell what, if anything, you and the McNamaras said about blowing up work on the Panama Canal," said District Attorney Miller.

"In April, 1911, shortly before we were arrested, J. J. and J. B. McNamara and myself had a talk at the Ironworkers' headquarters in Indianapolis as to the campaign after blowing up four jobs planned for Detroit," said McManigal.

"J. J. said the McClintic-Marshall Construction Company, a non-union concern, had two year's work on the Panama Canal and he wanted me to go there. He said I should go to Panama and promptly enlist as a soldier, as I already had served in the Spanish-American war. I asked him if he expected me to take nitroglycerine to Panama. He said, 'No, the McClintic-Marshall people have great stores of dynamite down there. You can watch your chance to steal it. Put a wagon load in each lock'.

"I didn't take much to the Panama idea and told J. J. so, but he insisted he would take it up later.

Canal Conference Postponed

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 25.—Announcement is made that the Panama Canal Conference, which was to have assembled in this city tomorrow, has been postponed until next month. The postponement was made in order to insure a larger attendance of business men from all of the South Atlantic and Gulf States.

State Springs Surprise in the Gibson Case—Juror Approached

GOSHEN, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Charges that Henry Tweddle, juror No. 5, in the case of Burton W. Gibson, accused of the murder of his client, Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, had been approached by persons friendly to the defendant since the adjournment of court last Friday, were placed before Justice Tompkins before the trial was resumed here today.

The charges were preferred by Isidor Wasser-Vogel, counsel for the state. The justice took the matter up in his private chambers.

Mr. Tweddle was called in and remained for ten minutes, returning with Justice Tompkins.

Mr. Wasser-Vogel explained that he had been informed that Tweddle had been engaged in conversation Friday afternoon by a man who has been much in company of witnesses for the defense. As Mr. Elder began to sun up, Justice Tompkins called District Attorney Rogers to the bar and engaged him in whispered conversation, after which Mr. Elder, for the defense, addressed the jury.

"This," he said "is a case based entirely on circumstantial evidence. No one saw anyone kill this woman." He described his client as a man "hounded and persecuted by yellow imaginations."

Justice Tompkins interrupted at this point to say that the state's case would have to stand or fall on the charge of strangulation.

With Mr. Elder's address unfinished a recess for luncheon was taken.

SEN. ISIDOR RAYNOR DIES IN WASHINGTON

Maryland Representative Active Figure in Convention

BEEN ILL SINCE THAT EVENT

MARYLAND REPRESENTATIVE IN THE SENATE WAS AN ACTIVE FIGURE IN CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Senator Raynor, of Maryland, one of the leading Democratic members of the United States senate and a man whose name was offered to the Baltimore convention by William J. Bryan as a suitable candidate for the presidential nomination, died here early today at the end of a long illness resulting from continued attacks of neuritis.

Senator Raynor had been in a camatose state since last Wednesday, with only one or two slight rallies. His severe illness covered a period of about six weeks, dating from the efforts he made in the joint political debate with Bourke Cockran, at Baltimore, late in September.

Physicians compelled him to retire from the campaign immediately after that and he returned to his Washington home where he died at 6:20 o'clock this morning.

For over five years Senator Raynor had been a sufferer from neuritis, the attacks often making his work in the senate arduous and painful.

This Week the Limit

About five weeks ago The Reflector notified those of its subscribers who were more than a year in arrears that notice had been given by the government postoffice that we could not continue mailing them the paper unless their subscription was brought up within the time specified by the postal laws. We at once mailed a notice to all subscribers a year or more in arrears and each week since attention was called to it in the paper. Many have responded and paid their subscription, but there are yet others who have not done so. This week will end the time that the paper can go to those who have not paid. If you find this notice marked or a mark by your name on the paper it is to call your attention to the date and notify you that your name must be dropped unless you pay this week. We prefer not to stop sending any paper, but the postal laws compel us to do so unless the subscription is paid within the prescribed limit. But stopping the paper does not cancel the amount due and we shall take steps to collect out of those who force us to drop their names from the mail list.

Virginians Cast Heavy Vote For Commission Government

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 25.—Following is official vote cast in the constitutional amendments:

Commission government, section 117—For, 60,176; against, 16,202.

City commissioner of revenue, section 119—For, 58,496; against, 20,900.

City treasurer, section 120—For, 57,884; against, 20,723.

RICHMOND, Nov. 25.—The state board of canvassers met in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth this morning and canvassed the returns of the recent general election in Virginia. Governor Mann is chairman of the board.

Governor Woodrow Wilson polled 45,267 more votes than both Taft and Roosevelt. He also polled 7,366 more than were cast for Bryan in 1908. As compared with the vote for Bryan and Taft in 1908, the Republican vote shows a shrinkage of 7,508.

THE STORY OF SERVIA, AUSTRIA AND DURAZZO

Servia is a little kingdom of the Balkan states. It is about twice the size of the state of New Hampshire, and has, all told, a little over half the population of New York city.

It is shut off absolutely from the sea, without a single port and its commerce and development and prosperity have been shadowed and threatened by the Turks through a hundred years.

Servia has fought heroically and split her blood generously in the battle against the common enemy of the Balkans and civilization. It has taken Uskub and is battling side by side with the Bulgars at Adrianople and Tchatalja.

When all is over and the heroic little Balkan states have conquered in one of the noblest and bravest wars of history, Servia wishes to emerge from the shut-up and hemmed-in environment of centuries and enter into trade and commerce with other peoples.

To the end that God may help those who help themselves, Servia has pushed her conquering arms through opposing Turks in the Province of Albania toward the seaport of Durazzo on the Adriatic Sea. This port and a little strip of surrounding country, all belonging to Turkey, Servia wishes to take for her own as a spoil from the unspeakable Turk. She absolutely needs it for any sort of commercial development. She has gloriously won it by her heroic battles against the common enemy of Austria and Europe and of humanity.

But Austria, which has done no fighting and split no blood and has allowed the Turks to run riot in butchery for hundreds of years, has sent Servia word that no matter what she has won she shall not have Durazzo. Under the veiled language of diplomacy, Austria's message to Servia means: "If you, who have no yard of sea coast on all your hampered territory, dare to take the necessary seaport which your brave soldiers have won, I, Austria, will send my more numerous soldiers and shoot your fewer soldiers to death and overrun your people and perhaps seize upon some of the ocean territory you now possess!"

Austria is big and rich and great. It has nearly 50,000,000 people and it has a territory of 242,000 square miles. It is rich in a coast line of 500 miles on the Adriatic and has two famous ports in Trieste and Fiume.

But little Servia, with her fighting blood running red and high in her veins, lays her hand upon her smoking cannon and refuses to be bulldozed by the bigness of Austria-Hungary. She moves calmly and resolutely on to Durazzo.

And brave Bulgaria, with the laurels of Adrianople and Tchatalja resting on her victorious arms, halts at the gates of Constantinople to tell Servia that she is right and that Bulgaria will stand by her heroic ally in her just demand.

It is to be hoped that the public sentiment of Europe, as expressed in diplomacy, which is generally the herald and evangel of arms, will take care of little Servia and see that she is neither bullied nor bruised by her bigger brother in this wrangle over a little prize so nobly won.

Let the just arrangements of diplomacy give Austria the protection she may deserve in the entrances of the Adriatic Sea. But by every justice known to nations, let Servia have Durazzo and the territorial strip that it requires.

Greenville does not need any more hangers on, but there is plenty of room for the man who will put his shoulder to the wheel and help move things along.

Now in the Time

The Greenville Reflector is agitating in favor of erecting a monument to Confederate soldiers on the court square. Such a monument ought to adorn every capital square in North Carolina. During the past week Scotland and Gaston counties have unveiled monuments to Confederate heroes and if Pitt takes hold of the matter, as it undoubtedly will do, it will be carried through and a monument will stand in the capitol square of that county, worthy of the distinguished men who went out from that county to follow Lee. Pitt people are more prosperous now than ever before and the time to raise the money for the monument is now. "Strike while the iron is hot."—Raleigh News and Observer.

This is My Birthday

Frank E. Beatty
Captain Frank E. Beatty, U. S. N. was born in Aztlan, Wis., Nov. 26, 1853 and graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1875. His early career was spent in service on various ships of the old navy. From 1888 until 1892 he was on duty at the library of war records office in the national capital. His first command was the historic old frigate Saratoga. Subsequently he commanded the gunboat Gloucester and the cruiser Charleston. He reached the grade of captain in 1908 and the same year was given command of the battleship Wisconsin in the memorable around the world cruise of the American fleet. Since 1910 Captain Beatty has been in command of the navy yard at Washington, D. C., and superintendent of the naval gun factory.

Next week congress will come back to the bat.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs. I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Thedford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron." This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Thedford's."

it stands equal to if not larger than any other bank in the entire First Congressional District.

The best part of this lies in the fact that the larger portion of the Bank's Deposits have been placed there by FARMERS; the majority of its customers are FARMERS; and the majority of its stockholders are FARMERS, and whatever advances the welfare of the farmers, helps in the upbuilding of the whole community.

We strive not only to earn dividends for our Stockholders, but to use the bank's resources for the greatest benefit to the community.

Come with us, we want your business.

Flagged Train With Shirt

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in a bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at all druggists. adv

SHOES MADE TO MAKE GOOD

WHEN YOU BUY SHOES HERE, YOU have the satisfaction of knowing you are getting the very best quality you can possibly procure anywhere for the money.

Many a cheap, shoddy shoe hides behind a nice appearing, pleasing-to-the-eye style, but a few days' wear will prove the inferiority of the quality of the materials used and the carelessness exercised in their making.

We look to quality first of all—see to it that the leather is right, the linings substantial and the general construction the best procurable anywhere. We depend upon you for our business, and you depend upon us for square dealing, we are in duty bound to give it to you—and will.

Our new season's styles for ladies and gentlemen, and boys and girls are ready for your choosing.
