SECOND DAY OF M. E. CONFERENCE

Educational and Orphanage Institutions Submit Reports

MANY PREACHERS ADVANCED

Orphanage Admitted Thirty-One Additional Children During Past Year—Pracher Must Be Devotee in "Good Year" Report.

FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 28.—The second day of the 76th annual session of the North Carolina conference of the M. E. Church south, was opened at 9:30 this morning with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Andrew P. Tyer, who announced that old familiar hymn "Children of the Heavenly King," which was sung, and offered a fervent prayer.

The minutes were read and approved and the call of question 22 was at once resumed without loss of time. The supernuaries were called, and the following were referred to the committee for continuation in the same relation: M. C. Thomas, T. J. Browning, G. D. Langston, T. P. O'Enner, T. J. Dailey, W. A. Forbes and W. H. Kirton. J. J. Porter, W. H. Puckett and F. A. Bishop having died during the year were referred to the committee on memories. The names of J. Y. Old and D. C. Geddie were placed on the effective list.

The reports of Greensboro Female college, Louisburg college, Carolina college and Littleton Female college were submitted and referred to the board of education.

Who are deacons of one year was called and H. E. Lane, W. A. Stanbury, W. J. Watson, J. A. Martin, M. Y. Self, F. S. Love submitted their reports and they were elected to elders orders.

The following members of the class of the third year were advanced to the class of the fourth year: R. L. Caraway, T. M. Grant, C. B. Culbreth, Walter Patton, Geo. S. Bearden, G. M. Daniel.

John N. Cole, superintendent of the orphanage at Raleigh, made the annual report of the institution. It has been the best year in the history of the orphanage. The children have had better health and the institutional family has been prosperous and happy. Only one death during the year and that was from a non-preventable disease—inflammatory rheumatism. The children are being taught in religion and morals. There were admitted during the year 31 additional children and there are now 160 children in the institution. A number of bequests to the endowment were received during the year and on the whole there has been every substantial and satisfactory progress in all departments. But for lack of adequate facilities the orphanage has had to turn away from its doors more children than there are in the total enrollment. This fact shows an urgent need. The report was referred to the orphanage committee.

Who are admitted on trial was called and there were three from the Elizabeth City district—T. W. Lee, J. L. Midyette, J. H. Miller; Durham district, B. B. Slaughter, H. C. Smith; Fayetteville district, N. M. Wright, G. W. Perry; New Bern district, E. D. Dodd, F. T. Fulcher, W. B. Humble; Rockingham district, E. L. Jones; Warrenton district, R. N. Fitts.

By special order at 11:30 Bishop Denny preached a Thanksgiving sermon. His text was the first two verses of 103rd Psalm. Men often compare gladness with giving thanks, he said but a man may be glad when he commits an evil deed but he cannot be thankful for it if he knows what he is talking about. Contrasting the civilization of China and modern America, Bishop Denny said we cannot despise China. She has something to lack. They tell us her life as a nation runs back to the days of Abraham. Other nations have arisen and fallen but China still lives. They knew many things ages ago that we think we have just discovered still we should thank God that we were born Americans. This is a greater honor than to be born a king. Dr. Coke, once offered a resolution that did not suit the Baltimore conference then tearing up the resolution said: "Do you think yourself as good as I?"

NIGHT RIDERS DESTROY MUCH GEORGIA TOBACCO

$20,000 WORTH OF WEED BURNED IN DECATUR COUNTY ON FLORIDA STATE LINE

LOSS IN FLORIDA NOT ESTIMATED

BAINBRIDGE, Ga., Nov. 28.—Investigation was instituted here today at a meeting of several prominent tobacco growers of the burning of $20,000 worth of tobacco in Decatur county last Tuesday by night-riders. Three large barns were totally destroyed by fire in the Georgia county and two barns of tobacco were consumed by fire across the Florida state line, 20 miles distant. The loss sustained in the latter state is not now known.

All of the tobacco barns destroyed were owned by members of an association formed three years ago by large growers to hold tobacco until a suitable price was offered for it by manufacturers.

Two Million Asked in North Carolina for Improvements

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 28.—

The estimates submitted by the war department engineers for the rivers and harbors appropriations to be made at the short session of Congress which meets on Monday asks $2,316,940 for the work on North Carolina waters. The estimates for the state are as follows: Cape Lookout harbor or Refuge, for improvement, $1,100,000; Beaufort harbor, for maintenance, $5,000; Beaufort inlet, for maintenance, $10,000; Morehead City harbor, for maintenance, $2,000; Fishing Creek, for maintenance, $1,500; Bay River, for maintenance, $1,000; Neuse and Trent Rivers, for maintenance and improvements, $12,000; Swift Creek, for maintenance, $500; New River, including inland waterways between New River and Swansboro and between Beaufort harbor and New River, for improvements and maintenance, $5,000; North-south river, Black River and Cape Fear River above Wilmington, open channel work and maintenance, $12,000; Cape Fear River above Wilmington, locks and dam for civil sundry bill improvement Wilmington, improvement, $52,940; inland waterway from Norfolk to Beaufort inlet and improvement, $800,000.

Old Nelson Reed arose and said to Bishop Asbury, "We not only think ourselves as good as Dr. Coke, but as good as Dr. Coke's king."

One of the greatest characteristics of this country is the tendency to self respect, said the bishop. General Lee impressed upon his soldiers that they must respect themselves if they would be respected. Our country is one of religious freedom and a land of tolerance. There is not ten square miles of space on this earth where a woman is safe outside of Christianity. I wonder how often we remember that the great privileges we enjoy are because of the life of Christ? Let us not forget all his benefits.

There were business meetings of all the boards and committees this afternoon and tomorrow's session of conference will be an unusually busy one.

"What do you mean by a good year?" asked Bishop Denny of one preacher when he repeated the old stereotyped phrase, "We've had a good year, bishop." "I've heard that all my life," said the bishop, "and I've been floundering about trying to find out what it means. I wish we could be a little more definite and specific. 'Good' is a term that is interminate and indefinite, while the word 'large' for instance in saying this is a 'large animal,' means that it may be large for a mouse but small for an elephant."

Bishop Denny is a delightful presiding officer and adds to the interest of the routine business by many interjections of wisdom, wit and humor. This does not at any time partake of levity, but creates many a smile, usually produced by sheer force of intellectual brilliancy.

Carolina Receives Goose-Egg At The Hands of Virginia

Tar Heels Get a Muddy Walloping of a 66 to 0 Score in Richmond. While in Norfolk, Washington and Lee Defeat the A. and M. Warriors 16 to 6

OTHER RESULTS OF THE DAY

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 28.—North Carolina met crushing defeat this afternoon at Broad street park at the hands of Virginia, score 66 to 0. The result of the annual football contest between these old time rivals proved a bitter disappointment to the host of Tar Heel sympathizers, who while prepared for defeat, did not expect it to be so crushing.

Only once did the lads from Chapel Hill have a chance to score. That was early in the game when by a series of line plunges, aided by a forward pass or two and a five-yard penalty exacted or Virginia, they succeeded in landing the pig skin within a few yards of their opponents' goal. There they met a stone wall, the oval going to Virginia on downs. It was then kicked to the center of the field after the Orange and Blue's backs had bucked Carolina's line twice in vain.

Even Tillett, the redoubtable, failed to show his customary form, though it may be that the sloppy field from which three inches of snow were removed earlier in the day, may have dampened his nerve. However, some of his tackles bordered on the sensational and more than once he saved Carolina's goal.

As the game progressed Virginia's backs went through Carolina's line at will for good substantial gains, though the running was anything but easy. Both sides worked the forward pass time and again, sometimes successfully, but more often otherwise. Not once was a goal from the field attempted.

Virginia sprung a surprise at the first kickoff by toeing the oval slightly to one side so that one of her own men kicked it for a run of fifteen yards. Less than three minutes later, Mayer had rushed it over the line and Carter kicked an easy goal. In the second quarter, Todd broke through Carolina's line for a 70-yard run, while the major portion of the crowd of 8,000 cheered him to the echo. The half closed with the ball in Carolina's territory. Score 34 to 0.

Though Carolina was expected to take a brace in the second half, the expected failed to materialize. Both teams came back freshened by the test and the addition of subs, but the result was the same as before. Home-wood, who had given way to Long, was again noted as Carolina's right end, tackling like a fiend, though it availed naught. Moore, right half, was knocked out towards the close of the first half and did not return. He was not seriously hurt. His place was filled by Tayloe. As the content drew to a close, Virginia substituted Randolph for Gooch at quarter and also gave its regular backs a rest. Carolina likewise gave the remaining of its sub force a chance, realizing that nothing short of providence itself could change the tide.

Virginia used Malden to boot the ball over the bar after Carter, the heavy weight, went to the bench. Though Malden was scheduled to play long tackle for Virginia, he did not actually get in the game until the latter part of the third quarter. "Little Abbie," as Carolina's right tower of strength at most of the critical stages and so did his side partner, Jennings, right tackle.

The defeat in the worst which Virginia has ever administered to Carolina, a score of 48 to 0 way back in the 90s being the nearest thing approaching it.

In fact, so rapidly did Virginia roll up the figures that very few of the rooters and spectators came away with the exact result fixed in their noodles. Some thought Virginia's total was as high as 70, while others, including a Richmond sport writer, had it put down at 59.

When Richmond awoke this morning and found several inches of snow on the ground with the fleecy flakes still falling, there was gloom, great gloom of it, in the ranks of football-dogs, but this was soon dispipated when old Sol came out and the lowering clouds drifted apart. Toward noon came the announcement that a force of 100 men had cleared away the snow at the park and although the ground was still soggy it was in sufficient shape for a gridiron battle.

W. and L. Defeats Farmers

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 28.—The Washington and Lee eleven closed a very successful season here today by defeating the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical college, 16 to 6.

The touchdowns and a field goal spelled the total score for the Generals, while the Tar Heels scored but one touchdown. The game was played on a wet field under conditions far from ideal, before one of the smallest crowds of the season. Washington and Lee would have shut out the Carolina boys but for a fumble by Captain Miller at the close of the first quarter.

In the opening period, after each team had found the other's line, impregnable and hal exchanged kicks, the Generals forced the Aggies to their thirty-yard line. Just before this Jeffrey had bucked through left tackle for twelve yards. On the next three plays the Tar Heels were unable to score, losing five yards on an off side play. Jeffrey tried to punt, but Washington and Lee's forwards broke through the defense and blocked the ball. Heat pounced on the ball and with no obstacle in his way jogged twenty yards for the first touchdown.

The Aggies made their touchdown after the ball had escaped the outstretched hands of the burly captain of the Lexington boys, and rolled ten yards behind him. It was recovered on the Washington and Lee ten yard line, Sykes deliverig it. On the first play Jecrey slipped around left end for the only touchdown scored by the Aggies. Hurtt missed the try for goal.

Odd Fellows District Meeting Largely Attended Here Yesterday

In spite of the big snow and inclement weather, the Odd Fellows of the second district held their meeting here on Thursday as planned, and while the attendance was smaller than it would have been with good weather, the meeting proved very interesting and beneficial.

The Grand Lodge met in the hall of Covenant Lodge at 10 o'clock, and in the absence of the Grand Master was called to order by the Grand Warden, W. F. Evans. The Grand Lodge degrees were conferred upon eight Past Noble Grands entitled to receive these degrees.

In the afternoon they assembled again in the lodge room and marched in a body to the court house where the public exercises were held. The address of welcome was delivered by Dr. D. L. James and responded to by Mr. Norris of Washington.

At night the degree team of Covenant Lodge conferred the initiatory degree, and this was followed with several short addresses for the good of the order by both home members and visitors.

At the conclusion of exercises refreshments were served in the hall. Sladesville, Hyde county, was selected as the next district meeting place on the first Thursday in April.

Called Meeting

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will have a called meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ed Smith on Dickinson avenue. Every member of the church is requested to be present to make their final arrangements for the bazaar which takes place December 4th and 5th.

STATE DEBATING UNION MEETING WITH SUCCESS

MOVEMENT LAUNCHED A FEW WEEKS AGO BY LITERARY SOCIETY OF UNIVERSITY

OTHER NEWS FROM CHAPEL HILL

(G. H. COX)

CHAPEL HILL, Nov. 26.—The movement launched by the literary societies of the University of North Carolina a few weeks ago to form a state wide debating union of the high schools of North Carolina has thus far met with admirable success. The plan which provides for the formation of a net-work of schools for stimulating debating in the secondary schools has already been responded to by 43 schools of the state. The list includes the schools of Raleigh, Charlotte, Salisbury, Statesville, Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Washington, Hendersonville, Oxford, Lenoir and other foremost schools of the state. The committee promoting this debating union have been active in arranging the query to be debated, the prize that is to be awarded, and other technicalities towards making the union a thorough-going one. The prize, nominally the "Ayecock Memorial Cup," will be a contribution of the local chapter of the Tau Kappa debating fraternity, which chapter is composed of intercollegiate Carolina debaters.

The North Carolina Drainage Association will be in session at Raleigh on the dates of November 26-27. The University will be represented by Prof. William Cain, professor of mathematics. He is interested in the furtherance of work of this nature and his advice on the subject will be altogether worthy of consideration at this meeting of the drainage association. He will address the association on the subject "The Relation of the University to the Public Works of the State."

The debating union of the University has recently consummated a year for a triangular debate, during the month of April, between the universities of North Carolina, Virginia and Johns Hopkins. Any new schedule of debates by the University of North Carolina recounts its notable achievements in the field of debate. In the same total of thirty debates with noted universities from Pennsylvania to Louisiana, Carolina has lost only 9. This is a record unsurpassed in southern universities.

In a race contest held by the track department of the University last Wednesday, a member of the freshman class won the medal as the swiftest mile-clipper against seven competitors. The winner made the mile run within 4:58 3-3, of time.

The advanced classes of the pharmacy department have organized a society for the purpose of furthering pharmacy in North Carolina and for the purpose of discussing subjects of interest to druggists. The society has been fittingly named in honor of one of North Carolina's pioneer pharmacists, of several years ago, the late Mr. William Simpson, of Raleigh. Rev. Lewis S. Chafer, of the Scofield Bible School, of New York city, has, during the past week, conducted a Bible Institute in the Presbyterian church, of Chapel Hill.

President F. P. Venable was honored with the office of a member of the executive committee of the National Association of State Universities at its annual sessions in Washington, D. C., this week.

Largest Woman in World Becomes Insane and Dies

MONTREAL, Nov. 28.—Justice Mason, who weighed 780 pounds and is said to have been the largest woman in the world, died here today.

Several months ago she became insane and was taken in charge by the assistance publique. In the institution she became notorious for exploits of strength when in a frenzy. Even the walls of her room failed to restrain her and it was necessary to build a round house outside the main building, especially for her.

FOUR KILLED; FIFTY INJURED

Eight Cars On Cincinnati Express Go Over Embankment

BROKEN RAIL SUPPOSED CAUSE

Heavy Train Was Being Carried At Speedy Rate By Two Engines. Impossible To Identify Many Passengers

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 28.—Four men were killed and many more than fifty persons were injured on the Pennsylvania railroad at Glenloch, twenty miles west of here, last midnight when the Cincinnati express was derailed eight cars going down a high embankment. The dead: L. D. Fitley, a passenger, Pittsburg; J. A. Balwin, sleeping car employe; E. R. Jones, New York, sleeping car employe. Unidentified man.

The body was clad only in night clothes and there is no means of identifying it. The face is badly disfigured.

The heavy train, known as the Cincinnati express was hauled by two locomotives. It is the belief of road officials that a broken rail was responsible for the wreck. Passengers in the cars that had remained on the rotd bed hurried to help persons caught in the plunge of the other coaches. The injured were cared for in nearby farm houses until the arrival of relief trains which were loaded, then hurried back to West Chester or Harrisburg.

Commercial Teachers at Omaha

OMAHA, Neb. 29.—The annual convention of the Missouri Valley Commercial Teachers' Association, met in Omaha today for a two day session. Many members are in attendance from Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Iowa and Nebraska.

Teachers' Meeting

WYOMING, Wyo., Nov. 29.—With Dr. P. E. Johnson, United States commissioner of education, heading the list of speakers, the annual convention of the North Western Teachers' Association met here today for what promises to be the most successful gathering since its organization. More than 200 teachers, including numerous school superintendents and other educational workers, are in attendance.

Notice to Contestants.

All those who are in the contest for the $2,000 automobile at Basnight's Pharmacy will take notice that voting coupons issued in November must be deposited in the store not later than next Monday, or they will be void. The color of coupons will change for December and two colors cannot be out at the same time.

The standing of contestants will be published by number only as soon as the November coupons are in and counted. Each contestant must count their votes, do them up in a package and write the number plainly on the outside of the package.

Those friends of contestants who are working for them but keeping the coupons themselves, must hand these in, properly counted and labeled by Monday, with instructions who to vote them for.

While votes are transferable, these transfers cannot be made after the votes are registered at the store. Any transfer from one contestant to another must be made before the votes are recorded.

Observe all these instructions carefully to avoid confusion. In the near future semi-monthly prizes will be awarded the contestant registering the most votes in two weeks. These prizes, 42-piece dinner sets can be seen at the store. Winning one of these special prizes does not reduce the credit of the contestant for the automobile.

It is not too late to enter as a contestant and be a winner. Get in the race and hustle.

In addition to the grand automobile prize and the semi-monthly prizes above mentioned, second and third grand prizes will be awarded at the end of the contest. This increases the chance of every contestant to win a valuable prize.

If not interested yourself get busy and help out a friend. Basnight's Pharmacy. 2td Fri & Sat. 1st page adv.

WHY AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS IS NECESSARY

Mr. Wilson announces that he will call an extra session of congress to convene not later than April 15—so soon as he becomes president. The session will be held for the purpose of revising the tariff.

We have never urged upon Mr. Wilson the necessity for an extra session because there seemed to be no doubt of its course. To have waited until the congress elected with President Wilson convenes in regular session, 54 weeks from now, would have been to postpone the inevitable tariff revision until the spring or summer of 1914—the year of the next general election for congress. The fate of the Harrison congress that made that mistake with the "McKinley bill" and the fate of the Cleveland congress with the Wilson bill, are sufficient warning against procrastination.

If the people wished to "stad pat" they would have elected Mr. Taft. If they wished to wait for a new tariff commission two or three years hence, they would have adopted that course by electing Mr. Roosevelt.

But they voted for Mr. Wilson and for action. They expect something to be done. Among other things, they hope for prompt, judicious and discriminating modification of the tariff in a way carefully calculated to benefit all the people of the United States—employers, producers, laborers and consumers.

All the active members of the present congress who took part in framing the moderate tariff bills on which the Democratic party appealed to the country one year ago—the bills which President Taft vetoed—are members of the new congress. They can revise their own work in the light of later information and in accord with newer estimates of revenue required by the government and a carefully revised bill should pass the house by May 1 next. The senate will be slower, but as a majority of the present senators voted for the bills signed by Speaker Clark in the house last year, there is no reason to doubt that the more Democratic and more progressive senate will act with reasonable expedition.

Our one concern is not that Congress will delay—we do not see how it can. Our fear is that it will neglect reciprocity and neglect preferential duties—both cardinal Democratic doctrines—and that it will, by foolish radicalism or old stock free trade arguments, delay the return of general prosperity now due.

The house will have a greatly increased Democratic majority. The fallacies of the Bryan men will have to be voted down just as the ways and means committee wisely rejected the exploded theories which Mr. Bryan quarreled with Speaker Clark and Representative Underwood for refusing to inject into the recent tariff measures.

Everything will depend upon the prudent and patriotic leadership of Mr. Wilson. He has now the extremely difficult task of translating the warm but indefinite winged-words of eloquence into the cold, exact terms of statutes.

There will be held in Washington, North Carolina, December 4th and 5th, the annual convention of the North Carolina Fisheries Association. The object of this convention is to discuss ways and means of saving the fishing industry of the state from its present great decline and it will discuss and recommend certain legislation to the incoming General Assembly. Dr. H. F. Moore, of the United States Bureau of Fisheries has been detailed to assist the convention in its deliberations. Dr. Moore is a man of wide experience and eminent ability and has already visited the state a number of times in the interest of this great phase of conversation.

While the Thanksgiving snow to some extent curtailed the outdoor pleasure of many, it may have been a blessing. There is no telling how many accidents it prevented in keeping people from going hunting.

The "dry" North Carolinians found things too "wet" for them in Norfolk and Richmond.

The court house tower clock got on a jag Thanksgiving morning and has not moved a hand since

Co-Operation

One is perfectly safe in making the assertion that no great achievement has ever been accomplished without co-operation in some form. It is true that the necessary assistance has often been attained through force, hire or patriotism, yet without this co-operation, no matter what the incentive was, the final goal would never have been reached.

Often when great objects are undertaken both hire and patriotism are the methods of bringing about the necessary co-operation. Wars are prosecuted and great cities built by the proper use of these elements. But as in our case in Greenville and Pitt county, should the money prove to be lacking, then it must be substituted with patriotism and the hope of future reward.

We happen not to have just now, the necessary funds with which to build immediately the much needed roads, so necessary to the development of Pitt county, therefore in our case we must resort to patriotism and county pride to give us the co-operation which will eventually mean good roads and the realization of our ambitions. Other cities and towns have grown large and prosperous through this co-operative spirit. Other counties have waged good roads campaigns and built their roads with nothing more to begin with than co-operative organization and a determination. We have the best people on earth in Pitt county, the best climate to work in, and the finest crops to market, yet the poorest roads, and why? It does not take a Burn detective to solve the problem, individual knocking and utter lack of co-operation stand out prominently as the prime causes. What others have done through organization surely we can do. Why not try?

Would not a central good roads organization in Greenville, with like organizations in each township to co-operate with Greenville, do much towards moulding sentiment and awakening the people to this greatest of all needs?

Carolina Club was re-organized and placed on a social and business basis for the purpose of developing and advancing the interest of Greenville and Pitt county. The organization partly served its purpose when it created interest in a new hotel. It aroused enthusiasm and put its members to work and now the hotel is under construction. The hotel is a great step towards a greater Greenville.

Frank Wilson
The King Clothier

yet the organization has but begun what it undertook to do. What the Club did towards getting Greenville a new hotel, it can do towards getting good roads for Pitt county. It can at least start a co-operative movement for good roads. However, if there be any interested who are not members of the Club or if there be members of the Club who object to the Club undertaking such a movement, then why not an independent good roads organization consisting of Club members and non-members alike who are willing to do something that Pitt county might progress?

Those individuals who are in positions to do and would like to do things to advance good roads in the county need an organization to co-operate with and encourage them.

Suggestion submitted,
D. M. CLARK.

This is My Birthday

Aaron S. Watkins
Rev. Aaron S. Watkins, who was the Prohibition party candidate for vice president of the United States in the recent election, was born in Rushsylvania, Ohio, Nov. 29, 1863, and comes of Quaker stock. His boyhood days were passed on a farm. He was educated at Ohio University at Ada and Taylor University at Upland, Ind. He was a Methodist clergyman for twelve years after teaching school for six years. He studied law with his brother at Huntington, Ind., and was admitted to the bar. In 1905 he became professor of literature and philosophy at Ohio Northern University. Two years later he was made president of Asbury College at Wilmore, Ky., but after a year returned to his professorship at Ohio Northern University. He was Prohibition candidate for vice president in 1908 and again in 1912.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Greenville People

One kidney remedy has known merit. Greenville people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Greenville testimony proves it reliable. Mrs. Joseph Fornes, 111 S. Washington street, Greenville, N. C., says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with the most satisfactory results and I know that they are a good kidney medicine. About a year ago I was troubled by symptoms of kidney complaint. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and I also had headache and pains through my kidneys. Dizzy spells annoyed me and I noticed that the kidney secretions were unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills, procurer from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. brought me prompt relief and a short time ago when I again used them, they acted as effectively as before. I know that this preparation lives up to the claims made for it."

The Safest place
for your harvest money is in this bank

Look at these two men. They have been to market their cotton. One put his money in the bank and the other one didn't. They were held up on the way home. The silly fellow who wanted to take his money home had to "deliver" to the robbers. The other was able to "give them the laugh." —His money was in the bank.

Take a lesson from this—put your harvest money in this bank like all other successful farmers. It is the safest place—withdraws it whenever you please.

- THANKSGIVING -

FOR PROSPERITY IN ALL SECTIONS OF OUR COUNTY

And that our customers have remembered us with a liberal share of business; for these and many other blessings

We Are truly Thankful

The Bank of Greenville
JAMES L. LITTLE, Cashier

Pitt County Leads The State, in material prosperity, in the good year of 1912, according to reports from men who have traveled the different sections of this State.

Her progress and prosperity are well illustrated in the growth of her largest banking institution.

THE GREENVILLE BANKING AND TRUST CO.

Beginning in 1901 with the modest Capital of $10,000.00, this bank has grown steadily and safely, until now, with it stands equal to if not larger than any other bank in the entire First Congressional District.

RESOURCES - - $650,000

The best part of this lies in the fact that the larger portion of the Bank's Deposits have been placed there by FARMERS; the majority of its customers are FARMERS; and the majority of its stockholders are FARMERS, and whatever advances the welfare of the farmers, helps in the upbuilding of the whole community.

We strive not only to earn dividends for our Stockholders, but to use the bank's resources for the greatest benefit to the community.

Come with us, we want your business.

E. G. FLANAGAN, President. E. B. HIGGS, Vice-President. C. S. CARR, Cashier

Local Briefs.

This is turkey hash day. Red Men meet tonight. There is slush and a plenty of it. There was big demand for oyster shoes Thursday morning. Today seems like Monday again. There was plenty of snow balling sport Thursday. The Boy Scouts will not have a meeting tonight.

Interesting Speaker at Methodist Church

Dr. K. V. Millard will preach in the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church Sunday morning and night. He and his family will spend the winter in Greenville. They spent the past winter in Florida. Mr. Millard has attracted the attention of the scholars of the world by discovering where Noah lived and built the Ark. He is a scientific discoverer and archeologist and has traveled over a great portion of the world to secure evidence that our Holy Bible is reliable, (as to its history and scientific accuracy). His subject for morning service is, Our Prophetic Age and for evening God's Hidden Mysteries.

Possum Feast and Corn Husking

The editor and one of his boys went over in Carolina Wednesday evening to spend Thanksgiving with the family of Mr. E. B. Whichard (the man who makes the undoubted boast of having the finest twins in the county) and had a night and day feasting on oysters, quail and possum, prepared to the "queen's taste". It was a part of the program to have a big hunt Thursday, but the snow cut that short. Wednesday night after supper an old fashioned "corn shucking" at Mr. Arthur Woolard's was taken in. It was an interesting scene to see the neighbors circled around a big pile of corn in front of the barn and as the shucks flew rapidly over their shoulder the ears piled through the barn door.

Thanksgiving Snow

A white Thanksgiving Day is very unusual for this section and people were very much surprised when they got up Thursday morning to find everything covered in snow and the flakes still coming down thick. All the morning until nearly midday it continued to fall and reached a depth of four to six inches. It was the largest snow we remember to have seen in November. The sun shone brightly in the afternoon and the snow melted rapidly.

TOM THUMB WEDDING

Little Folks Give Interesting Entertainment in Court House

The Tom Thumb Wedding in the court house Thursday night, under the auspices of Circles One and Four of the Methodist church, was an occasion of much interest to the large audience. The little people participating were dressed like the grow-ups and carried out their respective parts to perfection.

After the audience had been seated by the ushers, Masters Billie Brown and George Hadley, and a song by Miss Mary Bagley Overton, the bridal party entered.

First came the supposed parents of the couple, Master Howard Moye and Miss Francis Taft. Following them came the bride's maids and groom's men in couples: Miss Bruce Tucker with Master Charles Carr, Miss Ruth Hoyle with Master Joe Moye, Miss Francis Agnor with Master William Perkins, Miss Maud Johnson with Master Wyatt Brown, Miss Willie Skinner with Master Frank Brown, Miss Elizabeth White with Master Douglas Ward, Miss Mary Forbes with Master Marion Hoyle, Miss Effie May Winslow with Master James Langley, Miss Mary Alsbrook with Master Harry Brown, Miss Martha Moye with Master Joe Taft, Miss Jane Hadley with Master Harry Perkins.

Maid of honor, Miss Fannie Greene Allen.

Flower girls, Misses Francis Norman, Edith Quinerly, Nell Savage Virginia Perkins.

Ring bearer, Miss Clara Rock.

The bride was Miss Mary Wright and the groom Master Robert Lee Bishop. Master Bert Moye was the parson and performed the ceremony.

So delighted was the audience with the entertainment that it was asked to be repeated and we understand this will be done on New Year's night.

Mr. J. E. King Dead

Mr. John E. King, of Farmville, died quite suddenly Thursday morning. He had been sick a few days with malarial fever and was thought to be convalescing, but just a short while before his death took a sudden change.

Mr. King was about 29 years of age and leaves a wife and one small son. He is also survived by two sisters and three brothers. They are Mrs. B. R. King, of Goldsboro; Mrs. J. L. Fountain, of Raleigh; Messrs. G. B. King, of Washington City; S. V. King, of Indianapolis, and A. B. King, of Goldsboro.

Fiscal Year Ends Monday.

Next Monday will mark the close of the present fiscal year in county affairs and begin a new year. The old board of commissioners will meet to close up their work and turn over the county to their successors. Two members of the old board will continue on the new board and three new men will take the place of the three retiring. The only other change in county officers is the register of deeds.

Flagged Train With Shirt

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in a bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at all druggists. adv

WHEN YOU BUY SHOES HERE, YOU have the satisfaction of knowing you are getting the very best quality you can possibly procure anywhere for the money.

Many a cheap, shoddy shoe hides behind a nice appearing, pleasing-to-the-eye style, but a few days' wear will prove the inferiority of the quality of the materials used and the carelessness exercised in their making.

We look to quality first of all—see to it that the leather is right, the linings substantial and the general construction the best procurable anywhere. We depend upon you for our business, and you depend upon us for square dealing, we are in duty bound to give it to you—and will.

Our new season's styles for ladies and gentlemen, and boys and girls are ready for your choosing.

WITH THE BOXERS

New Orleans fans are willing to lay 2 to 1 that Joe Mandot defeats Joe Rivers in their muss on Thanksgiving Day.

Bombardier Wells is willing to return to America but asserts that he must receive $5,000 before he boxes anyone. Nothing stirring for the Bombardier.
