

INMAN SAYS THAT HE HAS COMPLETE FAITH IN MEXICAN

Declares That Intervention Will Handicap Pan-American Ideas.

WOULD PRESERVE THE RELATIONS PREVALENT

Not in Favor of America Interfering in Behalf of Its People.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Sept. 9.—Investing committee of senators headed by Senator Fall, republican, of New Mexico, which is expected to continue several months, was opened here today when the committee heard Dr. Samuel G. Inman, of New York, an officer of the League of Free Nations, who defended Carranza. Dr. Inman declared his belief that armed intervention would hold back indefinitely development of the Pan-American idea.

Revolutions in Mexico, he thought, had brought to the top young men who had been educated in mission schools. "We therefore have a strong faith in Mexico's ability to work out her own problems if given the proper friendly assistance," he said.

"As to Carranza," he said, "I believe he is an honest man. He has been called a liar and thief, and almost everything a certain part of the press could invent. I believe he is not anti-American. He is pro-American. He has tried to work out a policy of Mexico for Mexicans, and he has gone too far in that."

LABOR CONFLICTS SETTLED IN BARCELONIAN TERRITORY

Barcelona, Sept. 9.—All labor conflicts have been settled. Employers and workers have signed a manifesto calling for the immediate resumption of work.

FIVE STRIKERS KILLED IN BATTLE IN HAMMOND, INDIANA

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 9.—Five strikers were killed and fifteen were wounded in a battle between a thousand former employees of the Standard Steel Car Company and the police.

FURTHER EFFORTS ARE MADE FOR TREATY COMPROMISES

Washington, Sept. 9.—Continued conferences of the senate leaders today indicated further efforts at compromise in the peace treaty controversy. "Mild" clause reservationists used their position as a basis for compromise between the senators opposed to the treaty and those who were willing to vote for it.

BOLSHEVIKS PROPOSE PEACE TO LITHUANIAN TROOPS, SAID

Paris, Sept. 9.—The Bolsheviks have proposed peace to the Lithuanians, according to Polish reports.

MINE WORKERS CONVENTION OPENS IN CLEVELAND, OHIO

Cleveland, Sept. 9.—The United mine workers convention was opened with speeches of welcome by Mayor Harry L. Davis and John M. Jones, secretary of the Cleveland federation of labor. Two thousands delegates were present, and the naturalization of the mines and the ratification of the peace treaty league of the nations will be discussed.

KANSAS CITY MAN ARRESTED MAKING FACES AT PRESIDENT

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 9.—John Lewis Poley, aged 27, who says his home is in Chicago, was arrested during the parade here by Fred Tate, superintendent of the secret service for making faces at President Wilson.

Poley was standing on a corner, when he was arrested and turned over to A. M. Brown, a soldier and taken to the police station. His sanity will be investigated.

BLOCKED TOBACCO SALES CLEARED IN OPENINGS MONDAY

Warehouse Floors Completely Cleared With the Sales During Monday.

AVERAGES CONTINUE TO TANGO WITH THE STARS

Lighter Sales Are Predicted for the Week, Though Sales Good Today.

According to expectations of tobacco men who have been watching the situation on the local tobacco market, the block which has featured the sales from day to day since the opening last Tuesday, was yesterday morning completely cleared away, and consequently, it is expected that the sales this week will be continued without the slightest interruption and that direct disposition of the bright leaf will be made without the usual trying condition which have held sway for the past several days.

Tobacco men are predicting much lighter sales this week, and while of course, there has been no definite promise of such the openings yesterday morning and today appear to indicate the correctness of the conclusion. The sales yesterday, including the block, were conducted rapidly and without the slightest hindrance from any of the sources necessitating delay during the blocks, and although there was only a slight departure from the activities of the week before, work was carried on with unusual haste and was facilitated throughout the day by preparations made for the purpose of clearing the houses at the beginning of the week's sales.

RETAIL QUOTATION DEPICTS DECREASE IN COST OF LIVING

Combination of Retail Prices Show Slight Drop in Prices, Is Said.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The combined retail prices of twenty-two articles of food show a decrease for the United States of less than five-tenths of 1 per cent during June, 1919, as compared with May, 1919, according to the bureau of labor statistics of the department of labor. Thirteen of the forty-three articles for which prices were secured by the bureau for June 15 and May 15 were cheaper in June than in May. Cabbage declined 20 per cent; butter, 7 per cent; chuck roast, 5 per cent; rib roast, plate beef and bananas, 4 per cent each; sirloin steak, round steak and lamb, 3 per cent each; hens, 2 per cent, and pork chops corn flakes and baked beans, 1 per cent each, according to this report.

Flour, rolled oats, canned corn, canned peas and sugar were the same price as during May. Articles which increased were: Potatoes, 15 per cent; prunes, 9 per cent; onions and coffee, 5 per cent each; lard, 4 per cent; rice 3 per cent; evaporated milk, oleo-margarine, corn meal and raisins, 2 per cent each; bacon, ham, fresh milk eggs, bread, macaroni, navy beans, canned tomatoes and oranges, 1 per cent each, and canned salmon, nut margarine, cheese and tea, less than five-tenths of 1 per cent.

On June 15 the cost of twenty-two articles of food was 14 per cent higher than a year ago. In the year period coffee increased 41 per cent; potatoes, 31 per cent; cheese, 28 per cent; eggs, 26 per cent; butter, 24 per cent; lard, 23 per cent; sugar, 16 per cent; milk 15 per cent, and flour, 12 per cent. Onions and prunes increased 133 per cent and 53 per cent, respectively. Corn meal decreased 6 per cent, chuck

PUBLIC HEALTH IS INVESTIGATED FOR FUTURE INTERESTS

One Hundred Experts of Civic and Social Endeavor in Investigation.

COMMUNITY BETTERMENT CHIEF OBJECT, IS SAID

Prominent Men Are Interested in Extending the Movement, Is Said.

New York, Sept. 9.—One hundred experts, representing many branches of civic and social endeavor, for more than a week have been engaged in investigating the "social unit laboratory" in Cincinnati, Ohio, with a view to its possible extension to other cities according to an announcement made here today by Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, one of its founders. The project, which is one of community betterment, has been in operation in a congested section of Cincinnati for two and one half years.

Among the sociologists and others interested in the spread of the ideas of "Americanization, public health and community organization" and who are making the investigation are John Lovejoy Elliott, Bailey Burritt, Rowland Haynes, Charles Stielze, Robert E. Chaddock, Ella Phillips Crandall, John P. Frey, Marcus E. Ravage and Dr. Haven Emerson of New York; Frederick Almy of Buffalo, N. Y., Sherman Kingsley of Cleveland, O., Frank Wing Milwaukee, Wis., Ira W. Jayne of Detroit, Mich., Prof. Irving Fisher of Rochester, N. Y., H. O. Berg, of Yale, Dr. William and Dr. Charles Mayo of Rochester, Minn., and Dr. William Welch of Johns Hopkins Medical College, Baltimore, Md.

According to the statement, the investigators will evaluate the results of (Continued on page four.)

PARIS SAVED FROM FAMINE BY QUICK TELEGRAPH WORK

Vigilant Operators Saved City in Moment of Distress, Is Stated.

Paris, Sept. 9.—Vigilant telegraph operators in the central office here saved Paris from a possible famine during the recent food crisis precipitated by the profiteers.

Following disorders around the central markets where consumers raided the stands, and overthrew them, scattering vegetables, fruit, fish and other food to the ground because of the high prices, a number of commission merchants sent urgent telegrams to producers outside of Paris telling them to hold back their goods till further orders. Many of the despatches indicated that, owing to a general decline in prices, the merchants were withholding their goods from the market.

The telegrams numbered about one thousand. They had gone past the operator who was working one of the wires to Brittany noted a batch of them cancelling orders for butter. Now he had paid ten francs for a pound of butter that morning. He consulted with colleagues operating wires leading to fish, vegetable, fruit and other centres and their tables were loaded down with similar telegrams. None of the messages was sent.

In a statement issued last night the government said that it took the responsibility for the action of the telegraphers.

INVESTIGATIONS CONTINUED BY SENATE AGAINST MEXICO

Washington, Sept. 9.—The city subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation continued hearings today when Dr. Samuel D. Inman, official of the Free Nations association, was to testify.

SEVERAL CASES IN EXTENDED SESSION OF COUNTY COURT

Pitt County Superior Court in Middle of Three Weeks' Civil Session.

NO SESSION NEXT WEEK RESULT SUPREME COURT

Term Will be Resumed on the 22nd of the Month, However, It Is Said.

Probably half a dozen cases or more have been tried since the resumption of the civil term of Pitt county superior court which convened in this city yesterday morning for the remaining two weeks' session of the three week term as recently enacted by the state legislature, and while work continued rapidly throughout the entire session yesterday court was forced to adjourn this morning owing to the fact that enough witnesses were not present to justify a continuance of the cases scheduled for hearing today. Judge J. H. Kerr, who presided at the beginning of the term in August is again on the bench, and it is believed that much good is going to result from the extension of the civil term as recently receiving favorable action on the part of officials of the state organization recognizing necessity for an increase in activities, thereby relieving the usual congestion featuring the other terms during the season.

It was expected that the term would continue through the remainder of the session without the slightest interruption whatever, but owing to the fact that supreme court will be in session next week requiring the presence of a number of attorneys of the local court, it has been found advisable to adjourn (Continued on page eight.)

AYDEN WON FROM PETERSBURG TEAM IN GAME MONDAY

Ayden Aggregation Took Game from Visitors by Score of Eight to Seven.

The Ayden baseball club yesterday afternoon won out from the Petersburg league team by the score of 8 to 7. The game was possibly one of the best played in this section in several years, as both teams were about evenly matched and showed signs of excellent seasoning before the contest. Several out of town players played with Ayden, but this fact did not detract from the determined way in which they went after the game for the town. Petersburg, however, was not outclassed at a single part of the game for the playing on both sides was featured by swiftness surprising to the big number of people who attended the game from afar.

The remaining two games, it is believed, are going to draw hundreds of people from various parts of the country, and the fact that the first contest went in favor of the home boys has produced much enthusiasm which will make the following two games of more than ordinary interest to those interested in the team. The leaguers have the goods, and their defeat came as quite a surprise to those in attendance.

SHERIFFS AND GUNNERS GUARDING KNOXVILLE JAIL

Knoxville, Sept. 9.—Machine gunners and deputy sheriffs are guarding the jail to prevent the release of fifty prisoners held on charges growing out of the rioting when unsuccessful attempt was made to get Morris Mayes, the negro accused of murdering a white woman.

SENATOR SIMMONS SAYS CONCESSIONS SHOULD BE MADE

Senior Senator from State Explains His Position as to Peace Treaty.

POSITION IN LEAGUE IS STILL THE SAME

Strong Opposition for Lodge Resolution, Although Reservation Considered.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Marked indications of a compromise in the Senate controversy over reservations to the League of Nations covenant, came today from both Democratic and Republican sources after Republican Leader Lodge had announced that the peace treaty would be reported to the Senate Wednesday and probably taken up for consideration next Monday.

Probably the most important development of the day was a statement to the Senate by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, prominent in administration leadership, declaring "some concessions in the way of reservations will have to be made to secure its ratification."

Although utterly "opposing" some of the Lodge reservations, Senator Simmons said he was suggesting a compromise on "conservative reservations of an interpretative character."

Republican Senators continued efforts to compose differences over a reservation to Article 10 of the league covenant. Senators McCumber, of North Dakota; Kellogg, of Minnesota, and Lenroot, of Wisconsin, were said to have drafted substitute reservations which were discussed privately today in lengthy cloak room conferences.

CITY AUTHORITIES URGE CITIZENS TO CONNECT SEWERS

Homes Must be Connected with Sewerage and Sanitary Closets Installed.

City authorities today are urging people of the city that have not yet availed themselves of the conveniences afforded by the sewer lines to have their home connected by the 15th of October or they will directly be subjecting themselves to prosecution by law in not complying with recent enactment of the state. All houses not on the city sewer lines must be provided with sanitary closets on or before the 1st of October, and these must be inspected by the city sanitary officer of members of the county health department. It is urged that the matter be given attention at once, for efforts to improve the sanitary conditions of the state are not only confined to this city, but are occurring in other places where people are compelled to take the same measures provided by law.

OPPOSES LICENSING PACKING INDUSTRY

Washington, Sept. 9.—Further argument against federal control of the packing industry was presented to the Senate agricultural committee today by Dr. J. M. Wilson, president of the Wyoming Wool Growers' Association, who testified he spoke for a number of other producers, and commented adversely on the federal trade commission and its report on the packers.

PEACE PACT WITH AUSTRIANS CANNOT BE CHANGED: SAID

Rumania Must Sign the Treaty Without Reservation, It Is Stated.

MUST EITHER SIGN OR REJECT ORIGINAL TERM

Only One Alternative Is Open to Nation, and Decision Is Necessary.

(By The Associated Press.)
Paris, Sept. 9.—The supreme council of the peace conference today informed Rumania that she must sign the peace treaty with Austria without reservation or abstain altogether from signing.

The Rumanian peace delegation has not yet reached a decision in the matter.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The Rumanian delegation has sent a note to the peace conference declaring that its intention is to sign the Austrian treaty with reservations. The supreme council this morning took the Rumanian note under consideration. It appears unlikely that such a signature will be permitted.

Premier Clemenceau presided at the council meeting, which also discussed the German reply to the allied demand for suppression of article 61 of the German constitution, providing for Austrian representation in the German parliament. The discussion of this subject was not completed today. The council will take it up again tomorrow.

Previous advice on the subject of the probable attitude of the council with regard to the German constitutional question reflected general opinion among the peace conference delegates that the German reply declaring that the disputed article would remain in the constitution "without legal force" was highly evasive and that the conference probably would insist upon actual elimination of the section from the constitution.

WILL CELEBRATE ARMISTICE WEEK

Richmond, Sept. 9.—Plans for the celebration in Richmond of the signing of the armistice that halted the slaughter of mankind in Europe are well under way, with the announcement that Albert Ritchie, of Concord, N. C., originally from Texas has been secured by the local committee to direct the affairs.

The celebration that will be known as "Virginia's Armistice Celebration First Anniversary, November 10 to 17," is to be State-wide in scope, and as the result of a campaign that is to be launched in a few days, it is expected that 100,000 people outside of Richmond will take part in the occasion.

NOW IS THE TIME SELECT SEED

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 9.—By better methods of farming, such as preparing the soil, fertilizing the crop, and using good rotations, in which leguminous crops like cowpeas and soybeans are planted, farmers of North Carolina have been able to greatly build up the yield per acre of their different crops. According to the experts of the Agricultural Extension Service, this is particularly true in corn.

There is one thing, however, that the North Carolina farmer generally overlooks. This is the importance of seed selection. It has been demonstrated time and time again that corn will yield from one to two and more bushels per acre from seed which have been selected in the field the previous fall, and tested for germination during winter. The same is true of cotton.

With the great acreage devoted to corn in North Carolina, amounting to 1,006,450 acres in 1918, with an average yield per acre of 20.5 bushels, the addition of one or two bushels better yield on every acre would amount to a considerable total in the food producing power of the State. The addition of this extra one or two bushels per acre would also mean that the State could grow more livestock than in the past, which would make farming much more profitable than it is now. This would mean, also, that the fertility of worn-out soils could be partially restored, and year round employment given farmers labor.

The result, therefore, particularly in the selection of good seed corn, means a much more remunerative farm. It means an improvement in the quality of the farm, because corn is the one crop which can be adapted to a large acreage successfully. Through its use as a feed crop for livestock, corn is one of the leading crops in making farming on high priced land profitable.

The time devoted by the farmer to adapting a good variety of corn to his local environments by careful and proper seed selection is almost sure to result in larger yields and greater profits. This is easy for the grower who understands the habits of the plant, because he can work wonders in developing a good variety suited to his conditions.

CHEAP FARM WATER SYSTEMS.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 8.—That efficient water systems can be installed on the average farm with little expense to the owner, has recently been demonstrated by Mr. E. R. Raney, Farm Engineering Specialist of the Agricultural Extension Service, who has recently returned from the piedmont section of the State where he helped to install water systems on two farms. In both cases, the water is being pumped by means of hydraulic rams.

The first of these was at the home of Mr. U. A. Miller, near North Wilkesboro. Mr. Miller has been securing his water supply from a spring about 350 feet from the house, using the pull method. The total expense for labor and installing the plant was only about $125. Mr. Miller is now getting about 40 gallons of water per hour in his kitchen whenever it is wanted. He plans now to put in a tank, and later to install complete bath room fixtures in his home.

The other system was put in the home of Mr. E. G. Suttleyre at Granite Falls. Mr. Suttleyre had two small springs which were connected, as one could not furnish the supply of water needed. Together, the two furnish about 3 1-2 gallons of water per minute. Mr. Raney aided him in installing a small hydraulic ram which is furnishing about 8 gallons of water per hour to the barn through a distance of 300 feet, with an elevation of 60 feet. Mr. Suttleyre also expects to put in a tank and put water into his home. This plant cost him, complete, only $65.

President Wilson through the voice of the press has made it plain that in refusing the league of nations the United States would do nothing more than indirectly invite Bolshevism into the ranks of its working classes, bringing dissension and social unrest in its wake. The advice is timely, and coming as it does from the chief executive of the nation, there cannot be the slightest doubt concerning the truthfulness of the statement. This is one thing which the nation will be compelled to combat in the days to come, and now while everyone is apparently carried away with what is termed as reconstruction problems the opportunity of the propagandist is more promising than ever. Action, immediate action, is absolutely necessary, therefore, in being in the close confidence with the most powerful nations of the earth, American people will be better able to ward off the slightest attempt of disseminating such disquieting factionalism in this territory.

Saying that Japan is bound to expand territorially as it has in population a writer of that government says that it is now necessary for the nation to endeavor to purchase the Philippine Islands from the United States and the Dutch East Indies from Holland in order to meet the unintermitted growth throughout the entire country. Japan's population at this time is approximately 57,000,000 souls, and it is estimated that in another fifty years the growth will have exceeded the 114,000,000 mark. The facts appear convincing, and while the acquisition of the two island countries would undoubtedly to Japan much good, the question now arises, would Holland and the United States contemplate selling? Whether they would or not, it is to be hoped that if the exchange will give the nation any consolation for the future that the trade will be consummated at an early date so that the Japs will have plenty room for expansion.

Those New Yorkers who yesterday joined in welcoming General Pershing back to his native land no doubt felt a peculiar enthusiasm sweep over them when thinking of the remarkable career of the noted and distinguished American general. In fact, there are very people throughout the entire county who do not appreciate his great and magnificent efforts in saving the world for democracy, and, while of course, the expenditures of the great army were enormous, General Pershing merely carried out the dictates of the American spirit, for he won the war, and won it quick—that's what we wanted. There are no reproaches in store now, there should be nothing but the very greatest honor which the people of this nation are capable of bestowing as recognition for his services in their interest and in that of his country.

Have you put in your word for the gas plant. The chamber of commerce is doing everything possible to make the project materialize, therefore, it is up to the progressive business and progressive business and professional man to join in and make the proposal a sure thing. Help Greenville grow; get behind progressive movements fairly and squarely, and results are certainly sure. That's the way small centers have been created into mighty fields of commerce, and everytime you speak an encouraging word in behalf of the city, you are helping that much to make the community exactly what broad-visioned men are trying to make it at this time. Boost—it won't hurt, in fact, it will give you a pretty good idea of how the optimist feels.

Greenville is now possibly facing one of the greatest building periods in its history, and for that reason, it is absolutely imperative that the business man do everything in his power to encourage the erection of more residences. Negligence along this line of improvement will certainly have its effect eventually because it directly prevents expansion along every line and holds back any great increase in population owing to the fact that the working man is not given a change of providing a nice cozy little home for his family. Get behind the investor, and tell him of the direct advantages opened up through increasing the number of residences for renting purposes.

Chairman Lodge has announced that the treaty of peace will be presented to the senate next Wednesday at noon. Naturally the loquacious statesman should make such an announcement in advance, notwithstanding that he has already been presented with some mighty sound logic as to what the American people all intending doing about the treaty. Truthfully, now, it certainly seems that Mr. Lodge would eventually tire of his prattlings against the peace treaty, for he has already said enough to convince the people that what he knows would amount to very little compared to the things presented by the president.

Now that the senate committee has begun an investigation of the Mexican situation it is more than probable that some more exciting news may be coming from that immediate vicinity at some early date. If, however, any new evidence regarding the past infringements of the government is going to be brought out it is to be hoped that it will not be so palliated that the red-blooded people of this nation may not be able of divining the real truth at the bottom of the situation.

With the Rumanian delegation ready to sign the peace treaty with proposed reservations, it now appears that little more difficulty is going to be incurred in the transaction than contemplated. The supreme council, evidently, is not in favor of accepting the signature, and while of course, the complications are decidedly discouraging, it is assured that the situation cannot continue much longer as it is now.

ROTARY CLUB IS ORGANIZED HERE BY BUSINESS MEN

The Business Men of This City Organize a Rotary Club.

Last Monday night, September 1st in the Pythian Hall, the business men of this city organized a Rotary Club, to bring about a better understanding between the business men and to bring the town forward, so it can measure up with the surrounding towns.

A Rotary Club is limited to one active member from each line of business, in a city, and it's object is to push a city forward.

Several weeks ago when the matter of the organization was under consideration it was decided that an invitation be sent to Wilson inviting some of their members to be present at the organization of this club. In compliance with this invitation the Wilson club sent six representatives, Messrs. W. A. Edgerton, president of the club, T. F. Pettiss, Nick Patrick, G. T. Fulghum, G. W. Stanton and J. W. Welsh, Jr.

The address of welcome to the visiting Rotarians was delivered by Mayor D. M. Clark, of this city and was responded to by President W. A. Edgerton, of Wilson.

Several short talks were made by the other Wilson representatives.

The following officers were elected for the local club. Dr. C. J. Ellen, President, Prof. S. B. Underwood, Vice President, Alex Blow, Secretary and Treasurer and Messrs W. H. Dail, Jr., J. E. Winslow and P. L. Clodfelter, were appointed as the board of directors.

After all business had been transacted a two course luncheon was served.

Just before departing the Wilson club extended an invitation to six members of the Greenville club to be present at the meeting to be held in Wilson next Thursday night.

A club of this nature will mean a great deal to our city, and with the present officers at the head, it will be a great success.

the senate today, replied to statements of President Wilson in his speech-making tour. Several Republican senators made arrangements for speeches in several western cities in reply to the President, while Senator Harding, of Ohio, and other prepared to reply soon to Mr. Wilson from the Senate floor.

Referring to the President's challenge to the league opponents to "put up or shut up," Senator Poindexter said the substitute for the league offered by its opponents was the declaration of independence and Lincoln's government "by and for the people." In reply to the President's declaration that the league would end the use of American soldiers abroad, Mr. Poindexter called attention to the sending of American troops to Siberia and the reported plans to send others to Silesia and Armenia.

DISCOVERS A NEW DIAMOND FIELD

Amsterdam, Sept 9.—Information reached here that a new African diamond field had been discovered by officers of the British geological survey in the Gold Coast. The stones are found in shallow quartz gravel 65 miles northwest of Accra, capital of the colony. About 600 gems have been found by panning during the preliminary operations.

ORDINANCE.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to operate a public dray, truck or any other vehicle used for the purpose of transporting goods, ware or merchandise from place to place without first having obtained license to so do from the town clerk. No person, firm or corporation shall be issued draymans license unless the owner, manager, operator or driver thereof shall have first given a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) indemnifying all persons against the loss of property while in transit, or while in charge or in the control of a person, firm or corporation operating said dray. Both the bond and the applicant for the draymans license shall be approved by the mayor of the town before license shall be issued.

All draymen shall wear affixed in their caps or hats in conspicuous place, so as to be easily seen, a number corresponding to the number designating the particular drayman in the license at the time the same is issued. To become effective the 1st day of October, 1919. Passed by the Board of Aldermen in regular session September 4, 1919.

SILVER TUBE BECOMES FAIRY WAND FOR DISABLED SOLDIER

Washington, Sept. 30.—It makes you feel about two feet, two inches high when you have been kicking about your troubles and you suddenly get reminded of somebody who really had some, like Job, or a Belgian baby, or, just to get down to America, Paul R— first class private in the American flying corps.

This young American was pegging away at the book publishing business when the war gave him an opportunity to get into aviation, and after that you couldn't keep that boy's feet on the ground at all. He tucked the book publishing business away in his trunk, and began to think in terms of clouds and Liberty motors.

He had just got on to the technical terms and learned to fly without expecting to fall overboard when the accident happened. One day when they were about two hundred feet in the air something went wrong and Paul R— was lying doubled up on the dead grass of a field. After the first stunned feeling had passed he began to look for wounds. Nothing seemed to hurt except his throat, and just about that time he got tired, awfully tired, and stopped thinking for about a week.

There isn't any one who goes around being glad because he can breathe, is there? Paul R— has set the style. He found when he came to one day after it all happened that there was a silver tube in his throat which would probably be there indefinitely. He found that he couldn't breathe at all without it, and so he decided that there was something to be glad about anyway. It takes more than that to down a good man.

When he got back to the United States with that tube still in evidence, he got the Federal Board for Vocational Education to go over his assets and see what the future held for him. After the advisers got a line on what he had been doing before he left for France, and found out that he had always hoped to be sent to foreign countries for the trade, they suggested that he take a course in a business school, and follow it up with a course in foreign trade, and then go to it.

That is what he is doing now. He is still under treatment and there is hope that he will get well, but whether he does or not, there is a position open with one of the big New York City banks just for him, and it leads to South America and the islands of the sea.

It males that silver tube sound like the wand in a fairy story. And his courage is the kind that killed the dragons, and earned the fortune.

PUZZLE FOR LEARNED MEN

Figures of White Horses, Cut in English Cliffs, Have Never Been Satisfactorily Explained.

Every now and then, naturally enough, a little wave of popular interest eddies around the mysterious white horses cut in the hillsides in various parts of southern England. Sometimes, owing to the encroaching habits of the brush, the chalk which constitutes the lines of the animals fades from view and almost from memory. This process had well-nigh happened to the Westbury White Horse at Bratton, Wiltshire, when the clearing of the bushes laid it bare, and revived inquiries as to its origin, and solicitude for its preservation, as well as for the upkeep of its various counterparts elsewhere.

Well-known authorities have it that the horse was cut out to commemorate the victory of King Alfred over the Danes at Ethandune, the site of which is not far distant. Uffington, however, has a better specimen as white horses go, though abnormally lean and scraggy in proportions. In size it is nearly 350 feet in length and the same in breadth. It is mentioned in the records of 1571 and was long the scene of annual festivities known as the "scouring" festival. The existence of these and the other white horses with which may be included the Cerne Abbas Giant and the Long Man at Wilmington, have been the object of much learned and largely unfruitful discussion.

ENRICO CARUSO'S SON COMES TO AMERICA

New York, Sept. 8.—On board the S. S. Giuseppe Verdi, which arrived here September 3, among the most prominent passengers were Enrico Caruso, the noted tenor, accompanied by his wife, the former Miss Dorothy Park Benjamin, and Enrico Caruso, Jr., son of the tenor, by a former marriage. The young man will attend school in this country. This is his first visit to the United States.

BLONDES DYING OUT IN AMERICA

Big Wars Gradually Eliminate
Northern Types, Says
Ethnologist.

DAY OF BRUNETTE AT HAND

American Women Are Tending to Neutral Type, With Brown Rather Than Golden Hair and Brown Eyes Instead of Blue.

New York.—The blondes are doomed as a result of the world war! They will be swallowed up—racially—by the brunettes.

Real blonde Americans are becoming fewer. American women are tending to a neutral type, with brown rather than golden hair and brown eyes instead of blue. This foreshadows the triumph of the still darker brunette type in America, where the old strains of northern European blood are being swallowed by the later immigration to this country. Soon a blonde beauty will be an exception, and "American beauty" will mean the Spanish, French or Italian type.

Such is the prediction, expressed in scientific language, of course, of Madison Grant, trustee of the American Museum of Natural History and councilor of the American Geographical society, who has made a study of the effect of the war, superimposed on centuries of slow progression on the part of the brunette, in his book, "The Passing of the Great Race," published by Scribner's.

Makes Matters Worse.
The world war, he says, has made matters worse for the blonde because it is the blonde Nordic element in all peoples that invariably makes the greatest sacrifices in war, while the less energetic brunette element emerges from each world struggle stronger in number than before.

Up to the middle of the nineteenth century the native American, Mr. Grant points out, was the almost purely Nordic. The Civil war destroyed a large part of the breeding stock of the blonde races, and the immigration since then has been largely from the Mediterranean basin and the Balkans.

Mr. Grant believes that the destruction of life of the blondes in the present war has been so immensely greater than that of the brunettes that a great step has been taken in wiping out the blonde type.

"The world war will leave Europe much poorer in Nordic blood," he says. He points out how the blonde race has been absorbed by the brunettes all over the world, and cites the Aryan conquerors of northern India, who imposed their language and customs on the natives, but were swallowed up in the darker stream of blood.

He thinks that the same thing will happen in the United States, and that the only hope of a relatively pure type of blonde community is in northwest Canada, which because of its climate is suitable for the blonde types and unsuitable for the brunettes.

BRIDES' PASSPORT RUSH ON

Officers at the American Embassy in French Capital Are Working Overtime.

Paris.—Passport officers at the American embassy are working night and day providing papers for the French brides of American soldiers who are about to leave for the United States.

Many of the brides are accompanied by their khaki-clad husbands, some bring their mothers with them, and many are alone. In the daily queue at the embassy are French girls from nearly all the provinces. There are large girls and small girls, beautiful girls and plain girls, simple country girls unassumingly gowned and girls in the rakish hats and short skirts of the Paris boulevards.

FOCH IS ENJOYING FIRST REST PERIOD IN SEVERAL YEARS

Noted General Is Living Simple Life on His Estate Near Brest District.

Paris, Sept. 8.—Marshal Foch is enjoying the first holiday he has had in five years. On his estate at Morlaix, near Brest, the Generalissimo of the Allied armies is living the simple life, dressed in loose tweeds and wearing a cap, only retaining his leather leggings as a reminder of his uniform.

The Marshal is a great lover of hunting and partridges are thick in the woods of Brittany. But the Marshal disconsolately watches them flutter about with impunity. It will not be open season for hunting in France until September 15. It was open season for the enemy for five years and the Commander-in-Chief of the Allied armies never missed a day. Some newspapers are asking that an exception be made in favor of Foch, one of them adding naively that "as he has rendered slight service to his country, in ridding it of the Germans he might be allowed to deprive its woods of a few partridges."

When it became known that Foch was going to Morlaix, the Mayor and City Councillors at once made elaborate plans for the reception. They assembled at the house of the Mayor and commenced marching down the station when some one remarked that the hour at which the train was due had passed.

"It matters not," said the Mayor, "that Brest train is never on time." They arrived at the station, however, to find that the train actually had come and gone for twenty-five minutes. For once it had been on schedule time. General Foch was aboard and he never brooks delay. And now Minister of Railways Clavelle has lost a few votes in Morlaix for doing his work too well.

MEN OF THE SOUTH MUST PLAN FOR EUROPEAN CREDIT

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Urging that the South organize for the purpose of furnishing credits to Europe to create a market for several million bales of export cotton to be available from this year's crop, Senator Bankhead, democrat of Alabama, issued a statement tonight saying the federal government could not finance the movement of the crop. With foreign loans approaching ten billions he said the government would have to leave the problem of providing a market to enterprises in the South.

500,000 to 600,000 pounds of the bright leaf at the opening this morning, and while prices fluctuated freely as has been noticeable from the beginning of the season, the better grades of the weed demanded high prices with averages lingering approximately near those of the past week. There is much good tobacco on the market, in fact, it is believed by many that the deferment of the opening has had much to do with the splendid production. Farmers were given more time to house their offerings, and for that reason greater attention was given the leave from the fields to the warehouses.

The best grades of the leaf have been inviting inducing prices throughout the entire sales period up to this time, and although the inferior grades have not been so greatly in demand they have been purchased along with the remainder of the offerings making the averages tally close in the neighborhood of 50 cents. The uncertainty of the situation has brought about rather abnormal conditions in prices, and for that reason fluctuations have been in evidence at all times, with the exception of the better qualities, which have drawn handsome prices invariably. This fact has been keeping the farmers in pretty good spirits and averages at a favorable height, deferring any probable depression which might have been engendered on account of the blocks at the opening.

Every person in the whole county are more or less gratified at the final outcome of the situation, and if the expectations of the buyers materialize, there is little reason why good grades of the bright leaf will not be constantly in demand throughout the entire season. In fact, from what can be learned, recurrences such as transpired last week are expected, therefore, there is every reason to be believe that the season will be all that has been anticipated.

at the expiration of this week and resume the term on the 22nd of the month.

Several actions of more or less importance will come up for hearing during the remaining sessions of civil court, and while there will undoubtedly be some little trouble in getting witnesses lined up during the busy season, it is however believed that work will continue with many unimportant actions which have been deferred from time to time without receiving final disposition. The work will continue for a period of one week when session is resumed on the 22nd making the three weeks complete, with interruptions occurring with each succeeding session.

Judge Kerr continues to impress the court with his thorough knowledge of the technical points of law, and while every regard is given each individual case, sentences are invariably in complete accord to the extent of the aggression. Several instances have occurred in which officials have been tested to their utmost in bringing out the technicalities, but with each case the wisdom of the presiding official has been fully adequate in dealing with the problems.

The following cases have been disposed of since the opening yesterday morning: Sallie Brown vs. Robert Brown, colored, divorce absolute.

Atlantic Electric Company vs. E. H. Evans, judgment rendered in favor of the plaintiff.

Theo. Carson vs. Willis Pitt, judgment in favor of the defendant.

W. H. Causey vs. T. B. Thomas, judgment rendered in favor of the defendant.

W. G. Stokes vs. W. R. Moore, judgment in favor of the plaintiff.

Henry Allen and John I. Allen vs. Henry Sutton and wife, case compromised.
