

CHIEF EXECUTIVES PLAN TO ADDRESS COTTON PLANTERS

Governors of Nine States to Attend Convention in New Orleans Soon.

THIRTY-ONE NATIONS TO BE REPRESENTED

Growing and Handling of Southern Product Will be of Much Interest.

New Orleans, Oct. 11.—Governors of nine cotton growing states will preside at the sessions here October 13 to 16 of the World Cotton Conference...

The governors chosen as chairmen are W. P. Hobby, Texas; A. H. Roberts, Tenn.; Charles H. Brough, Arkansas; Theodore G. Bilbo, Mississippi; Thomas E. Kilby, Alabama; Hugh Dorsey, Georgia; J. D. A. Robertson, Oklahoma; Thomas W. Bickett, North Carolina and Ruffin G. Pleasant, Louisiana.

Subjects announced for discussion include growing and handling of cotton; future requirements and new sources of production; storage and insurance of cotton; transportation by river, rail and overseas; buying and selling and world problems of the textile industry.

It was decided by the executive committee that the constructive work of the conference should take form through hearings held and conclusions reached by the chairmen and members of ten committees, each of which would deal with some particular group of problems of basic importance to the industry.

The committees with the chairmen follow: Growing of cotton, seed selection, methods of cultivation and picking E. A. Calvin, Houston, Tex., ginning, uniform baling and compressing, Harvie Jordan, Monticello, Ga., warehousing and country damage, L. K. Salisbury, Memphis; transportation and insurance, M. J. Sanders, New Orleans; buying and selling, equitable tare and net weight, Frederick A. Flather, Lowell, Mass., exchanges, classification, contracts and purchases, Arthur R. Marsh, New York, financing, foreign credits and exports W. P. G. Harding, Governor of the Federal Reserve Board, Washington;

SCHEDULE FOR LIBERTY'S SALES NEXT WEEK

The Liberty has 1st sale Monday, 2nd sale Wednesday and 1st sale Thursday of next week. Carry your next load there and you will get such a high sale you will be sorry that you have not sold all of your tobacco there this season.

JOHNSTON & FOXHALL MARKET REPORT

Sales this week have been much lighter and prices higher than ever before on all grades. We get through every day without blocking and our buyers are anxious for tobacco, as they have all caught up with their work in the factories. Our sales this week have been record breakers and the highest ever made on Greenville market or North Carolina. We sold yesterday 119,450 pounds for $75,302.91 averaging $63.04 for entire sale including scrap and damaged common tobacco. Our average for the week in $59.15 for 477,352 pounds. All who sold with us this week were more than pleased and said they never before got such prices. We look for light sales next week with prices strong and high. Keep your tobacco dry and grade it properly and it will bring you more money. We have 2nd sale Tuesday at No. 2, and 2nd sale Wednesday at Brick warehouse. "We want to sell your next load." STRIKE INQUIRERS HAVE LIVELY TIME IN INVESTIGATION

Members Conducting the Probe in Pittsburgh Strike Have Breezy Time.

SEVERAL MATTERS ARE GIVEN TIMELY PUBLICITY

Pittsburg, Oct. 11.—Senators investigating the steel strike put in a busy day in the Pittsburg district and viewed everything from the incandescent metal in rolling mills to the culinary equipment in the homes of mill workers.

Chairman Kenyon said they wanted to be sure and hear both sides, and volunteer and voluble interpreters made it easy for the foreign born elements among the strikers to get heard.

At Homestead, just before the party arrived, there was an exchange of shots between strikers and an armed workman but the committee did not get up to the front in time to see anything of the fracas.

Chairman Kenyon at Homestead broke his party up into details of one, which resulted in each Senator gathering a crowd running up into hundreds of almost every front porch where he stopped. Senator Sterling of South Dakota with a cluster of youngsters hanging on his coat tails, was taken into two or three houses in one block while one man was acting as usher, would observe at each door. "Here's the way some more of Judge Gary's high paid help has to live."

FOREIGN TRADE IS GIVEN ATTENTION BERLIN TERRITORY

Much Discussed Reformation of Trade Has Been Given Due Consideration

Berlin, Oct. 11.—The much discussed reformation of the Foreign Office has begun with the creation of a Foreign Trade Bureau that is a decided innovation and a radical alteration of old-time methods of doing business.

The whole basis of the Foreign Trade Bureau is that Germany must on the one hand have very exact and accurate news reports of everything concerning foreign trade, from official and private trade reporters. Such information must flow directly into the office of a man trained and fitted to understand precisely the importance of a given piece of news. Men will be trained to study given countries. News from such countries will go directly to the experts of each.

The bureau is headed by an administration board or council of 25 to 30 members, all of them experts in various business lines, and half a dozen imperial officials, likewise experts, will belong to the council. No one, not even the Foreign Office, will have a veto right over the decisions of the council.

SOME PLEASED COON.

Coon Moore, col., who farms with Mr. J. W. Brooks, one of our most prosperous and progressive farmers, sold one barn of tobacco at the Liberty warehouse Friday for $1,486.58 this is another record the old reliable Liberty has broken this season. When it comes to selling tobacco high S. T. Hooker beats them all every day in the week.

HUNS ARE TRYING TO RUN JEWS OUT OF THEIR DISTRICT

Anti-Semitic Campaign Begins With Dangerous Propaganda, Is Said.

EFFORTS MADE TO STOP JEWISH DAILY PAPERS

Pan German Papers Are Behind the Issue in Every Section of Country.

Berlin, Oct. 11.—The Hansa Bund of Hamburg, a mercantile association of the great port, has requested the publishers of the German Officers' Gazette, to publish a demand upon the public, not to read Jewish newspapers. The demand mentions as some of the more prominent German papers owned by Jews the Berlin Tageblatt, the Ullstein papers, Vossische Zeitung, Berliner Zeitung Am Mittag, Morgenpost and the National Zeitung.

This is the latest, and most direct move in the anti-semitic campaign that is growing in Germany. It is another result of the revolution, which in removing the old censorship, removed with it every vestige of control over everything.

The Pan German papers of course are behind the anti-semitic campaign, becoming bolder and bolder week by week until some virtually plead for programs while others content themselves with earnest hopes that all the Jews will leave Germany go to Palestine—or anywhere else in the world than Germany.

The agitation began, as The Associated Press correspondent had ample opportunity to see, in Bavaria shortly after the armistice and the revolution. It was at first inspired by opponents of Kurt Eisner and the other Jews who constituted of the government of the first republic in Bavaria. It

MUCH TOBACCO IS SOLD IN THIS CITY DURING THE WEEK

Sales Somewhat Lighter Than Preceding Weeks but Prices Were Good.

The Greenville tobacco market this week sold 1,901,248 pounds at an average of $54.33, making a little over one half a million dollars paid out during the week.

Sales were not congested at any time during the week, and as a result, warehouses and factories have been enabled to handle the bright leaf without any trouble. The warehouse men are looking for good sales next week, with a continuance of high prices.

The average made this week exceeded the average made last week, which goes to show that the Greenville market gets higher all the time. Farmers from other counties who sold their tobacco here stated that they were never better pleased than with the prices obtained on the local market.

Governor Writes Sheriff Dudley, Explaining Misleading Statements.

GIVES OUT FEW POINTS OF INTEREST IN CASE

Nebraska Senator Attacks the Shantung Settlement, Continuing Today.

State of North Carolina, Governor's Office, Raleigh, October 10th, 1919.

Sheriff E. R. Dudley, Greenville, N. C., My Dear Sheriff:

It is the settled policy of this department not to make any reply to criticisms. When I am satisfied I am right I am always content to let time justify my action, and during my entire administration I have not, heretofore, made any public explanation of my executive act.

But in the case of T. H. Bowen I am convinced that I made a mistake, and candor forces me to admit it. This case was first called to my attention by the defendant Bowen, himself, who, in company with one of the jurors, came to see me. He stated that never before had he been indicted for violating the liquor laws of the State, that he had absolutely nothing to do with the whiskey that was found on his place, that he had tried to be a good, law-abiding citizen. This statement was corroborated by the juror who was with him. It also appeared to me that he was a successful farmer, and had a family of nine children. I took no action on the case at that time. Some days thereafter the attorney for Mr. Bowen appeared before me, in company with the defendant himself, and submitted a petition signed by quite a

FAIR PRICE MARGIN IS GIVEN OUT FOR THIS PART COUNTY

County Fair Price Committee Makes Known Recent Decision in Matter.

Under instructions of the department of justice, the Fair Price Committee of Pitt county establishes the following margins as a guide in determining whether the law against profiteering has been violated:

Meat, sugar and flour, 5 per cent to the wholesaler, 15 per cent to the retailer, on all other food articles, 10 per cent margin to the wholesaler, 25 per cent to the retailer. There can be no resale within the trade, one manufacturer or producer, one wholesaler and one retailer.

On all other articles of trade, including shoes, wearing apparel and articles necessary for industry building and agriculture, the maximum margin of 33 1-3 per cent on actual cost or invoice of goods.

S. I. DUDLEY, Chairman Fair Price Committee, Pitt County.

All reports in writing will be given proper consideration.

SMITH & SUGG MARKET REPORT.

We have 1st sale Monday. Sales were lighter last week with prices stiffer on all grades. Our entire sales averaging each day between 50c and 60c. Friday's average was $58.07 for every thing on the floor and we had a large quantity of scrap and damaged tobacco. Those who saw the sale say it was the highest they had ever seen made. Keep your tobacco dry, bring it to the Star and get more dollars.

NORRIS CONSUMES DAY IN THE SENATE DEBATE OF TREATY

Brief Reference to the League of Nations During the Morning Hours.

LONGER HOURS ADVISED FOR SENATE IN FUTURE

Washington, Oct. 11.—All of the time set aside by the Senate today for consideration of the peace treaty was taken up by Senator Norris, Republican, of Nebraska, with a three-fold attack on the Shantung settlement and half an hour's reading of the printed text.

When the Nebraska senator halted for a moment, with his speech only two-thirds through, Republican Leader Lodge gave him a breathing spell by suggesting that the senate shift to the reading. Senator Norris will conclude tomorrow. Senator Lodge also may speak and the senate will meet an hour earlier than usual in the hope of speeding up the treaty consideration.

The agreement for eleven o'clock opening was taken to indicate that the senate will begin next week to put in a longer working day with the hope of clearing away the big speech-making program. At the suggestion of Senator Lodge the senate also adopted an agreement to take up the Shantung amendments Wednesday, but this does not mean that they will be considered under the five minute debating rule then, or that a vote is any nearer than it was yesterday. Senators explained that this procedure would enable the body to revert to the section embracing the Shantung provisions, as the reading by Wednesday may be way ahead of it. But if Senators want to keep on speaking that day and thereafter, they will have the right.

You will feel more like having done the right thing if you attend church tomorrow.

CITY PROPERTY TO BE SOLD HERE IN BIG AUCTION SALE

Greenville Heights Property to be Sold Atlantic Coast Realty Company.

One of the most interesting land sales ever conducted in this city will take place next Saturday, October 18th, at 10:30 A. M. when the Atlantic Coast Realty Company will sell at auction several lots on Greenville Heights.

A large crew of workers have been busy for the past few days dividing this land into small lots, and by the sales day will have everything in readiness.

The property is located in West Greenville, on Four and Third streets, six blocks from the business section of the city and one half mile from the depot, and is some of the most desirable property in this city.

Mr. K. W. Cobb, the publicity representative of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company has almost completed his advertising campaign for this sale and feels confident that the lots will sell well.

SAYS DECREASE IN FREIGHT RATES IS REALLY ADVISABLE

Burnside Submits Reduced Scale for Application Between Carolinas.

GENERAL ADJUSTMENT IS PROBABLE LATER

Says Recommendation of Burnside Breaking Up of Unjust Rates.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Today saw the beginning of the end of the pending fight for better freight rates in North Carolina. Examiner C. V. Burnside, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, filed this afternoon the tentative decision in the case of the Corporation Commission of North Carolina against the Director General of the Railroads, the Atlantic Coast Line and other carriers operating in the State, and recommended a scale of reduced rates for application between North Carolina and South Carolina, pending a general adjustment later.

In this report, Mr. Burnside observes that "rates for the shorter distances between North Carolina and South Carolina are found to be unreasonable; and rates between North Carolina, on the one hand, and South Carolina and the Southeast, on the other hand, are found to be unduly prejudicial to North Carolina, and preferential to the Virginia cities."

That is the milk in the coconut, the thing the Corporation Commission started out to show the Interstate Commerce Commission and in which they were joined by a dozen or more commercial organizations in the State with the single purpose of removing discrimination in freight rates in order that North Carolina business interests would have a better chance to thrive.

In analyzing the scale of horizontal reductions recommended by the examiner, J. Howard Fishback, who represented the commercial organizations, made the following illustration to show how the new rates proposed by the examiner between North Carolina and points south would be applied, the reduced scale being intended to apply to distance in the state of North Carolina as well as inter-state shipments in South Carolina.

CONFIRMATION OF REPORT BEING AWAITED IN LONDON

London, Oct. 11.—A confirmation of newspaper reports that German forces have captured Riga, is being awaited here but if disparity of rival forces is as great as reported the success of attack wouldn't be surprising. TOWNS FALLING IN LINE WITH

STATE SANITARY, L. C.

Already about twenty-five towns have taken definite action toward the eradication of all insanitary privies under the direction of the State Board of Health, according to a statement made by Mr. H. E. Miller, director of the bureau of sanitary engineering and inspection. Until very recently towns have hesitated to pass local sanitary ordinances for fear they might conflict with the state law. But the Attorney General has passed on this subject and has given his ruling, which sets all such doubts at ease. The Attorney General points out that towns not only have the right to pass local ordinances adopting some particular type of privy approved by the State Board of Health and excluding others, but that it is their function and duty to do so, in order to insure some systematic operation in each community, and that the cost to the individual may be materially reduced. Every town should adopt some one privy as a standard within its limits. In fact, this is an absolute essential to satisfaction, economy, and success, and it is important for each town, before taking such action, to become informed as to the type best suited to the local needs and conditions. The special privy bulletin of the State Board of Health is proving of great assistance in this direction, but the towns generally are waiting for the arrival of the sanitary inspector, who can give them full and final advice. Indeed, Mr. Miller states that it is preferable for a town to do this, unless it can determine without doubt what is the best plan of action to meet its own individual problems and conditions.

GIN HOUSE BURNS IN AYDEN LOCAL FIRE CO. CALLED TO GIVE ASSISTANCE

This afternoon about two o'clock a fire broke out in the gin house on the suburbs of Ayden caught on fire and the local fire company was called upon to give assistance.

The gin was so far from the water supply in Ayden that that city wasn't able to put it out. Several bales of cotton and a large quantity of cotton seed were completely destroyed. The fire was caused by some friction of the belt, and the total loss will amount to about seven thousand dollars.

BICKETT EXPLAINS PRINCIPAL REASON FOR LATE PARDON

A large number of representative people, among them being an ex-solicitor who was in the court house when the case was tried, but was not connected with it in any way. This petition says: "Thos. Bowen has never been guilty of a violation of the law in any other way, so far as we know, but has had a weakness for whiskey, which has been his stumbling block, other than this, has been a faithful and law-abiding citizen." The attorney of the defendant again represented to me that Mr. Bowen was a man of good character, that this was his first offense, that he was a hard working and successful farmer, and was at the head of a family of nine children. On this showing I felt that it would be a mistake to allow a man of this standing, character and previous good conduct to go to the chain gang for his first offense.

Since granting the commutation to a fine of $200 upon condition of the future good behavior of the defendant, I have received numerous letters from highly respected citizens of Pitt county, and these letters convince me that the defendant Bowen was not a man of good character, and that he has for some time been engaged in the whiskey business, that the belief is well nigh universal that he has been connected with blockade stills, one way or another, although this is the first time he was caught. Being convinced of my mistake, I want to say it publicly, and you are authorized to give this letter to the newspapers in Pitt county.

Before this incident arose I had been impressed with the magnificent work that you and your deputies and the good citizens of Pitt county are doing to suppress the liquor traffic, and I had written you letters commending your work. I think that it is unnecessary for me to say that I am in the keenest sympathy with the work that you are doing, and propose to lend you every aid possible. To this end I want it understood in Pitt county that hereafter no petition for the pardon of men convicted of violating the liquor laws of the State will be entertained unless these petitions are signed by the Judge, and Solicitor, and the county officials who are in charge with the enforcement of the law.

Sincerely yours,
T. W. BICKETT,
Governor.

GERMANS PLANNING TO RUN JEWS OUT OF THEIR DISTRICT

was furthered chiefly by the officer caste, which found thousands of sympathizers among the real Bavarians who joined the movement in dislike if not hatred of the foreign element that had invaded Bavaria during the war.

Thence it spread with ever-increasing rapidity, and blazed out in northern Germany, where it had always existed but had been more or less dormant because of governmental restrictions. It has achieved greater headway because some members of the present government are Jews.

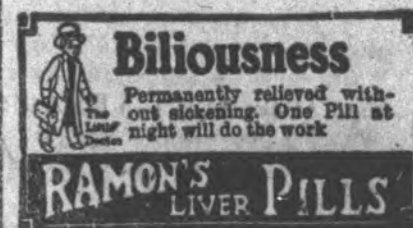

Minister of Defense Noske recently took steps to prevent a threatened pogrom, which evoked a letter from a Pan German who complimented him on his attitude towards pogroms. Officers of troops in the east repeatedly are accused of deliberately furthering an oppression of their Jewish soldiers. All in all, the life of the Hebrew is one of the most uncomfortable in Germany.

Berlin is flooded with anti-semitic literature. The west end of the city is the particular stamping ground of those who distribute it. The antagonism to Jews extends to almost every stratum of the German population. Magazines, weeklies and monthlies, devote columns to the subject.

"Greenville Heights"

Subdivided into Beautiful Residential Lots, Located in West Greenville N. C., on Fourth and Third Streets, To Be Sold At Auction

Saturday October 18th

AT 10:30 A. M.

We all believe in the future of Greenville. Just stop for a minute and think what a remarkably healthy growth it has shown during the past five years. It is growing more rapidly today than ever before. New enterprises are being organized every day by substantial men who insure their future which means a Greater Greenville.

Residential and business properties are increasing in value very rapidly. The increase within the next five years is going to be greater than within the past five years. You can possibly name a dozen or more residential or business properties which could have been bought five years ago for a mere song. Today the same properties cannot be bought for double their value at that time. Now, while you have the opportunity, make an investment that will pay good returns and be glad.

Mr. Investor and Homeseeker, think this over. Where can you put your money into anything safer than valuable real estate? Ask the folks who have succeeded in life what they think of business or residential property in a growing city as an investment. They will tell you there is nothing better. Attend the sale of residential lots at auction SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18TH, AT 10:30 A. M., and buy a lot.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY TO BE OFFERED

Beautiful residential sites, Greenville Heights. Property located in West Greenville, N. C., on Fourth and Third Streets, six blocks from the business section of the city and one-half mile from the depot. All conveniences that you can possibly desire are practically at your door. Greenville is especially noted for its fine schools and business institutions. They are among the best in the state. Stores, schools and churches, banks and business institutions of all kinds are within one-half mile of these lots to be offered. The A. C. L. R. R. and the N. S. R. R. furnish convenient railroad connections to all points, as well as good freight and express service. These residential lots to be offered are all high and dry, in one of the best sections of Greenville, N. C. This property is at present the only available, desirable residential property. After these lots are sold at this sale home sites in this vicinity are going to be scarce. A part of these lots are at present furnished with concrete sidewalks, water works and sewerage, electric lights are near the property and can be installed very easily.

Look these beautiful lots over today. They are certainly of a class that will appeal to you. If you buy one of these lots and build you will be just as well located as anyone else in the city. Pick out these lots which you desire to purchase and meet us at the sale SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18TH, at 10:30 A. M., and make a purchase. Your price is going to do the buying on very easy terms, terms which place these lots within your reach.

THE COST OF LIVING.

Economic experts estimate that some years must elapse before the cost of living is reduced to the basis which obtained before the war. Prof. Frank Taussig of Harvard, former chairman of the United States Tariff Commission, fixes that period at ten years.

The various departments of the government are using every effort to reduce both the high prices and the period through which they must obtain. To make the work of the department effective they must have not only the co-operation but active assistance of the country. President Wilson has pointed out how that assistance can best be given, through thrift, saving rigid economy coupled with increase of production and elimination of extravagance and waste.

Opening of retail stores conducted by the Army Quartermasters Corps for the sale of army stores at low prices has just been announced from Chicago, St. Paul, Columbus, San Antonio and New York. At Chicago, fifty thousand shoppers assembled before the store at 9 o'clock on the morning of the opening. At San Antonio on the first day, sales of $2,892 were recorded from the time the store opened at 10 o'clock until it closed that evening.

In New York, "rolling stores" mounted on trucks for the sale of eggs at reduced prices proved a decided success and the State Market Commissioner followed this success by sending out trucks selling army meat and other foods.

These are some of the things federal and state authorities are doing to reduce the cost of living, but along these efforts will not suffice.

The National Association of waste material dealers estimates that America throws away $700,000,000 worth of food each year. If only one ounce of food is wasted or spoiled in each of the 20,000,000 homes of America, the total loss is 1,300,000 pounds a day. As much coal is wasted annually as all the mines of the country could produce in two weeks.

Thrift and saving are needed not only in materials but in labor and money. Each added individual effort will tend toward the increase of production and consequent fall in price of necessities but physical idleness is no less an obstacle to the reduction of living costs than financial idleness. There are millions of dollars idle in the United States through lack of proper investment which should be working for the common good. These sums if put to work would constitute the new capital so urgently needed to tide over the period of reconstruction.

Tremendous needs for such capital exists in one item alone the problem of adequate housing. In an address to the New York and New England Brick Manufacturers' Co., Allan Beals announced that the United States needs 1,300,000 homes 450,000 factories, 5,000 schools, 55,000 apartment houses, 20,000 theaters and churches 120 freight terminals and 14,000 railroad stations and freight sheds.

Capital is needed for these projects and the projects if financed would go far toward solving not only the housing but the employment and wage problems of the country. This capital can be produced only by the people of the United States. It can be most readily and quickly produced through thrift, saving and safe investment in government securities. War Savings Stamps, Treasury Savings Certificates, Certificates of Indebtedness, and Liberty Bonds. Therein lies your part.

THE LYCEUM SINGERS.

Everybody likes to hear a good male quartette. There is a fascination about their singing that is found in no other organization. We don't know what that "something" is, but we must all admit that it does exist.

In planning the organization of the Lyceum Singers two things were kept in mind. First, to secure four fine vocalists, artists of experience who could sing together, making their ensemble numbers a real feature. Second, to build a program that would be essentially of a Lyceum character. That is, it must have quality, and a good measure of variety, so as to make it appeal to all classes that make up the average Lyceum audience.

The vocal part of the program is emphasized, with the instrumental features in second place, and used to give variety and novelty, though the members of the quartette excel in their instrumental work.

There will be lots of action, plenty of fun, and enough variety to suit the taste of the musically educated and the casual concert goer.

It is all right to talk houses, but to build them will give more people homes in which to live. Greenville's population would reach 10,000 in a few months if the people who want to come here could get houses.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 9 1919.

The man with the largest head does not always have the most brains under his hat.

Strange as it may seem, a falsehood suits the purpose of some people better than the truth.

A Springfield, Ill., cow ate two pair of pants that were hanging on a clothes line. Right expensive cow feed in these times of high cost of living.

Greenville has the folks and the business that makes a good town, and everybody who comes this way is a Greenville booster.

With a charter granted for Greenville's storage warehouse work is expected to begin on the building at an early day. Just one more bit of evidence that Greenville is going forward.

Some people demand shorter hours for themselves yet complain that others do not work overtime just for their accommodation. The other fellow does not come in for much consideration in these days but the great majority on the selfish idea.

Quite an advertisement for Jacksonville, Fla., that it was the only one out of fifty important cities investigated that showed a decrease in the cost of living since July. And Jacksonville got on the right line to attract folks. The worst knock any town can give itself is to charge people to death.

Twelve new brick stores and a bank building now going up in Greenville speak right well for the addition of business houses to the town. If as much could be said for additional dwelling houses it would speak that much better, for business houses would find occupants faster if people could first get a house to live in.

WOMEN IN Y. M. C. A. WORK.

Possibility of the use of former overseas women workers of the army and navy Y. M. C. A. in civilian city associations and other parts of the local Y. M. C. A. work under the expansion program, is a thing which is deeply engaging the attention of Y. M. C. A. leaders in all parts of the country.

It is expected that the south-wide campaign for the expansion of the Y. M. C. A. civilian work in this and twelve other states of the Southland, as well as the District of Columbia, October 20th to 30th, will create places for large numbers of comparatively new Association workers.

Before the last war, the work of women in the Y. M. C. A. was largely confined to the organization of a "women's auxiliary" of the Association which usually did admirable work in a volunteer way in preparing suppers and social events peculiar to the skill of women. But their use as employees was generally discouraged except as office workers in the capacities of cashiers or stenographers.

However, the war in its imperious Martin way insisted on the participation of women in it. Several hundred women were sent to France and their work was probably more consistently successful than any other part of the "Y" war work in France. Many of those women have come back fired with a desire to continue in "Y" work in America. Most experienced leaders are in favor of it.

Some City Associations have already placed women on their payroll to do much the same kind of work that they did in France for two years without remuneration. The "Mother's Corner" at the Palais de Glace in Paris will be a place that a lot of sight-seeing doughboys will visit in days to come when they return to the scenes of war. That is because it always held a woman "Y" workers who was always ready to listen to a soldier's trouble or mend his socks or sew buttons or divisional insignia on uniforms.

Many of the large City Associations have hundreds of boys living in dormitories. The "Y" building has been made as home-like as male hands could make it, with varying success. So it is felt quite naturally that experienced women's hands could give that final touch of comfort that has been sometimes curiously lacking. She would be the "hostess," the Y. M. C. A. boys' "Mother."

In the proposed great expansion of the work to the rural communities after this campaign, the possibility of the use of women workers holds an interesting prospect. For in the rural communities, the "Y" work will of necessity touch the women and children as well as the men. So this campaign will open up an entirely new vista of service work "Y" women workers and benefit to those women and little ones who lead more or less lonely lives off on the highways and byways, away from the great cities.

Washington, Ga., Oct. 6.—At one o'clock this morning a mob of more than a thousand persons that had been waiting in the courthouse square for the arrival of Sheriff Kelly, of Lincoln county, was growing restless. The mob had demanded that Jack Gordo negro slayer of Deputy Sheriff Red Freeman, of Lincoln county, be turned over to them, but were persuaded by cooler heads to await the arrival of the Lincoln sheriff.

No word had been received from Sheriff Kelly, who was said to have left Camack about 10:30 o'clock to night. It is more than an hour's ride by automobile, over a hilly section, but the roads are paved most of the way.

Whether Sheriff Kelly had been warned of the danger of the negro being taken from him after his delivery by Sheriff Gallaway's deputies is of course not known here.

The crowd did not lessen in size and its members threatened to stick to daylight or longer if necessary. Many of them had been hunting for the negro, Gordon, throughout Sunday.

PLANT NOW!

EARN MORE INTEREST ON CONVERTED BONDS

Government Will Receive Older Issues in Exchange for Newer Securities Yielding Higher Rate of Income.

More than $900,000 in increased interest will be paid within the next six months to owners of bonds of the Second Liberty Loan and the First Liberty Loan Converted, if they present their holdings at once for conversion into 4 1/4 per cent bonds. This announcement, which of course applies only to those bond holders who have not converted their securities already, has just been made by the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. Government statistics show that there are outstanding in the United States about $750,000,000 of these bonds which have not been converted, a block of no small size being owned, it is believed, in this state.

Owners of bonds of the Second Liberty Loan should have them converted before November 15, 1919. Bonds of the First Liberty Loan Converted ought to be presented for conversion before December 15, 1919. These securities will be received by local banks in exchange for either coupon or registered 4 1/4 bonds. The new rates of interest will begin on the dates given.

However, unless the bonds are presented for conversion before November 15, and December 15, respectively, the 4 1/4 per cent rate of interest will not begin until May 15, 1920, in the case of the Second Liberty Loan and not until June 15, 1920 on the bonds of the First Liberty Loan Converted. In other words, by waiting until after November 15 and December 15, respectively, the holders of the converted bonds, as indicated, would lose six months interest at one-fourth of one per cent, which on all the unconverted bonds outstanding of the issues named would amount to more than $900,000.

Bonds of the First Liberty Loan originally paid 3 1/2 per cent. Bonds of the Second Liberty Loan carried interest at the rate of 4 per cent. Holders of the First Liberty Loan were therefore allowed to convert their 3 1/2 per cent bonds into 4 per cent securities known as First Liberty Loan Converted. A great many subscribers took advantage of this offer. Now those who did so and all holders of bonds of the Second Loan may again increase their interest return by converting their holdings into 4 1/4 per cent bonds, this being the interest rate of the Third and Fourth Liberty Loans.

QUAKER ACROSTIC

(Read both ways)

The man who saveth money
Hath his future guaranteed.
Remorse o'er substance wasted
Is unknown to him, indeed.
Fortune smileth on him.
Things he hath, as he may need.

The man who spendeth wisely;
Hath no idle, wasted hour;
Ruleth cities—even nations—
Interest for him doth flower,
For he learneth as he liveth
Thrift succeedeth—THRIFT IS POWER.

Thrift is the surest and strongest foundation of an empire; so sure, so strong, so necessary, that no nation can long exist that disregards it—Lord Roseberry.

It is true that many loans, money, and cups of sugar, are forgotten or unpaid, Uncle Sam, however, gives a bond for our little loans—"lest we forget" he even pays interest on it to make it interesting.

TEXT BOOKS WILL BE FURNISHED TEACHERS

Two Courses Are Issued by Treasury Department and Will be Sent Free Upon Request.

To further the teaching of thrift in the schools the United States Treasury Department has issued two text books, copies of which may be had by any teacher desiring them. One is designed for use in elementary schools. It gives a suggested outline, the purpose being to shape the habits and character of the school child in the formative period of his life. The second book known as "Fifteen Lessons in Thrift" is to be used in the high schools and naturally is more advanced in the treatment of the subject.

The books are being handled in this district by William R. Timmons, director of the Educational Division of the War Loan Organization, at Richmond, Va. Mr. Timmons will be glad to send copies of the books free of charge to all principals, teachers and instructors who are interested in the subject.

In both pamphlets the lessons are sufficiently flexible to permit the introduction of such local material as has particular interest and value.

Thrift and the principle of saving are now being taught in hundreds of schools throughout the country, having been incorporated in the regular work and assigned a place on the schedule ranking with other more important subjects, it being now recognized that the study of thrift is becoming more and more necessary in order that the pupil may be better equipped for the problems of life.

MORE THAN ONE WAY TO PRACTICE SAVING

There are ways and ways of barring the door against the wolf. But until six months ago David Broderick, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., had never learned how to slip the bolt into place. Convicted of a minor offense last January he was placed on probation, and ordered to take $12 a week to the probation officer.

Broderick protested, saying that it was impossible for him to pay so much, but agreed to try when he realized that a jail sentence was the alternative. Each week since that time he has paid in his twelve dollars, and at the expiration of the six months term he was handed $330.50 worth of War Savings Stamps, the result of his saving.

When the justice entered his court room the next day he found on his desk a cigar wrapped in the following note signed by Broderick: "You're a friend of mine. Good luck, Judge. Broderick is now under a voluntary probation period of indefinite length, promising to bring in $10 a week to continue his savings investment."

WHAT BEN DID

Ben Franklin was a thrifty man,
To this you'll all agree;
Instead of squandering what he got
He used frugality.

His wealth increased from year to year.

He won fame and position,
But not alone did he succeed
In gaining his ambition.

To smooth the way, to help him on
There stood his saving wife,
And 'twas this partnership of thrift
Gave him a happy life.

Some folks attribute wealth to luck
'Tis fortune's known foundation—
His luck to find a thrifty mate
Was Ben's interpretation.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . ."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

COTTON CAMPAIGN ASSUMES DEFINITE SHAPE.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 10.—The campaign to organize North Carolina cotton growers as an efficient part of the American Cotton Association is now rapidly assuming definite workable shape, shows state campaign manager, S. G. Rubinow, in a survey made of the activities in this state during the past month.

During this time the personnel of the State organization has been perfected and sufficient funds secured to meet its obligations up to date. In addition to organizing the headquarters at Raleigh, field organization is also progressing nicely. Nineteen counties are now lining up for the county organization, with good, live, energetic business men as county chairman of the campaign. Forty-five field meetings have been scheduled to aid in the organization of the other counties. In addition to this work, wonderful cooperation has been given by the State daily and weekly press in the matter of publishing stories.

The Association is now planning to do some advertising at regular space rates, and at this time is arranging with the papers for prices. Most of the work of the Association to date has been handled through correspondence, and their records show that twenty-six circular letters, with an issue of several thousand each have been sent to various parties interested in a fair price for cotton. Twelve other circular letters are now in course of preparation, and approximately 1,000 dictated letters have been sent in answer to queries about the purpose and work of the Association. Fifty-one prominent men have been secured in the state to give part of their time to assisting the organization, and in making addresses and lectures about its work.

The receipts show that there has been enough money secured to carry the Association thus far, and it is believed that the farmers will organize in sufficient numbers to enable it to live and be of value to them in the future. After organization, the main thing before the Association is the work of getting warehouses organized, the storage of cotton under shelter to prevent damage, and the holding of cotton for the minimum price which is 36 1-2 cents for October.

ONE SUBSTITUTE FOR COTTON.

Sea Island cotton may be doomed by the boll weevil. That, at least, is the opinion of the United States Department of Agriculture, based on the very rapid decline in production during the past two years. For the ten years ending in 1916 the average annual production of Sea Island cotton was about 90,000 bales. The production in 1918 was only about 40,000 bales, and the estimates for 1919 are as low as 20,000 bales.

Without Sea Island cotton, many industries will be seriously crippled if, indeed, they are not destroyed, and many planters will lose the major part of their income—unless some other variety of cotton of equally long staple and high quality and more nearly immune from boll weevil attack is generally accepted and grown in the Sea Island districts of the southeastern United States.

There is such a variety of cotton. It is known as Meade cotton, and was

KRYL'S ORCHESTRAL SEXTETTE.

Practically every year for some time past, Bohumir Kryl, the famous bandmaster and cornetist, has organized an important musical company for the Redpath Bureau. These companies have invariably achieved wonderful success.

This year the Redpath management again has a Kryl company—Kryl's Orchestral Sextette, and Mr. Kryl states that it is one of the best companies he has ever organized.

Miss Irene Stotofsky is leader of the sextette and both its director and as an individual artist, she is competent indeed. She has a splendid position among the younger violinists of the country. Her repertoire embraces the literature of the old masters as well as the virtuosi of modern composers. Miss Bernice Arthur is another artist of the sextette whose work stands out prominently. She is the pianist of the company but she also features with the accordion. In addition, with her brother, Edward Arthur, who has been a drummer with the Kryl band for a number of years, she appears in a marimbaphone duet.

While the ensemble work of the sextette is always a delightful part of the program the work of the artists in solos, duets, trios and quartettes is equally notable.

The program is carefully selected and consists of popular and classic music in enjoyable proportions.

Meade seed? Upon the answer to that question, in the opinion of the department of agriculture, depends the solution of the problem.

Of the 3,000 acres of Meade cotton growing this year, not more than 500 acres can be safely reported as pure stock. In order to keep it pure, no other variety of cotton must be planted in the same neighborhood.

A COLD BIRTHDAYThe Story of a Successful Career.

February 10th, 1910 was a cold, raw morning, just one of those mornings for which February is famous for keeping folks in-doors; but the people of Bethel, Pitt county, N. C., didn't seem to mind the bad weather, for several young men with enthusiasm to burn and determination that knows nothing short of success, had been telling them of the opportunity which was to be theirs on that day.

Yes, the people braved the cold—and bought lots in the Blount place—where splendid homes now stand. Every man in the Atlantic Coast Realty Company loves to pass that property, and when they see it they seem to swell up with pride as they direct your vision to the first property ever sold by their company. That very sale was the starting point of one of the largest and most successful land-selling organizations in the United States today.

Those young men who were so enthusiastically telling the people of that section of the advantages of those lots are the President and two Vice Presidents of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company today. They have guided the destiny of their organization to its present high place in the business world, because, by their enthusiasm, determination, honesty and desire to render service unequalled, the Atlantic Coast Realty Company has gained the confidence of the people of the fourteen states in which it has operated.

This splendid organization sells some land some place practically every week day of the year. They are going to conduct a sale in this community at an early date and the people will doubtless turn out in large numbers to buy the land they offer, for that same spirit brought the people out in the cold at Bethel, N. C., on February 10th, 1910, still predominates, and the people have learned well the fact that the land that they buy at the sales conducted by the Atlantic Coast Realty Company increases in value as years go by.

SPLENDID SMALL FARMS, JOE JOHN DIXON FARM, SUBDIVIDED, ON DIXON RAAD, FOUR MILES FROM GRIMESLAND, N. C.

Friday, October 17th,

AT 10:30 A. M.

Description of the property to be offered: Splendid small farms. Joe John Dixon Farm sub-divided. Located on Dixon Road, 4 miles from Grimesland, N. C. Good neighborhood, schoolhouse almost at the property, a church within one and one-half miles, and railroad connections furnished by Grimesland, N. C., which is 4 miles distant, to all points. This farm is practically all level and is well drained, with very little waste land. There are about 549 acres of which considerable is cleared and in an excellent state of cultivation. The balance has some timber on it and an unlimited supply of cord wood. Cord wood as you well know is at a premium at this time. The soil is light loam top soil with clay subsoil and is adapted to any and all crops grown in this section. Fine tobacco land. There are three sets of buildings in good condition, with barns, pack houses, tobacco barns and all necessary outbuildings.

Look these small farms over today. This is a good section in which to buy either as a place to live or from an investment standpoint. Your price is going to do the buying on extremely easy terms to be announced at the sale on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17TH, at 10:30 A. M.

INDUSTRIAL TRAINING GAINING GREAT INTEREST IN MANY PARTS IN LONDON

London, Oct. 10.—Educational training in the British army, which was begun among the forces occupying the Rhine not only is to be continued in the new army but it will be virtually compulsory. It is an army order states, "to be regarded as an essential element in the making of a soldier and an army." Steps have been taken to continue educational training for all soldiers going over seas.

An official told The Associated Press correspondent it was understood that the three cardinal divisions of higher commercial and technical education, which were taught on the Rhine, will be retained and developed.

According to President H. A. L. Fisher of the board of education, "The mere recognition of the fact that education is hence forward to be an essential part of army training is one of those great steps forward in the social progress of the world for which the war has been responsible."

"Inevitably," the correspondent's informant pointed out, "the spread of education in the army will ensure an increase of efficiency which will be a great gain for the army itself. A military movement must in the future depend even more than at present upon the intelligent initiative of the private."

"Life in the army for the common soldier will be far more pleasant. Educated young men will give to barracks life a good tone. They will maintain a high standard of decency and cleanliness, and they will bring about an increase in that esprit de corps and social spirit which make life at schools and universities so attractive. In fact, there is no reason why the army should not come to be regarded as the people's university course. The influences of this military university upon national character will be of incalculable value."

THE NORTHERN STATES HAVE ADOPTED THE 56" AUTO TRACK WAGON

Neither too Wide nor too Narrow but Standard 56-Inch Auto-track

WEBER

Bought by Farmers Because of Its Known Qualities

REGARDLESS of all other considerations—the 60-inch wagon does not fit the road. Any advantages it might possess are offset by the fact that it is a stranger on its own roads. It rides the ridges, which causes broken axles, wheels and other parts, and the tongue whips about which is hard on the team.

The justly famous Weber wagon is built only in 56" auto-track because this is the standard approved tread of automobiles—and the automobile makes the ruts in mud or soft roads. If the farm wagon is not made to follow the same path it is out of date for road service. Automobiles are increasing among farmers because they are a time-saving necessity, and every farmer who hasn't an automobile intends to procure one at the earliest opportunity.

The Weber 56" auto-track wagon will do everything that the old 60" wagon would do. It will haul cotton bales as easily as the wide track wagon and the team can draw the load without having to pull every inch of the way. It lends itself just as readily to all kinds of farm work and in addition it fits the prevailing road tracks.

Besides the auto-track feature the new Weber has the patented Fifth Wheel and the "Safety First" Swivel Reach Coupling—two advantages that are worth $20 apiece to the user during the life of the wagon.

By all means see our Weber wagons before you buy. We can offer you something that will save you money and give you service.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The attention of English industry is focused on speeding up production in order to restore the balance of trade, and there are indications that England will be able to continue to manufacture many lines of goods more cheaply than the United States, according to H. G. Brock, acting assistant chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, who has just returned to America after fifteen months' residence in England, where he was commercial attaché.

"It is more or less of a commonplace to say that there is an awakened interest in England as to the desirability, indeed the necessity of an increased export trade," Mr. Brock said. "The diminished production of coal, in that country, however, coupled with the recent decision to add six shillings a ton to the price have served to especially focus the attention of Englishmen on the difficulties of the export situation. In pre-war years England's ability to export coal had of course been an important factor in the development of her foreign trade.

About Our Furs

Any one can say that their Furs are made of "carefully selected skins, skillfully fashioned, and smartly designed" yet few assertions of this sort carry any assurance of credence from the reader. Pretty phrases without a reputation to back them up are worthless, with the support of a reputation they are unnecessary. The most significant characterization we can give our Furs is "they are the best values for the money that the market affords."

ASKS CONFERENCE TO APPROVE PLAN FOR ARBITRATION

Gompers in Favor of Bringing About Settlement of Nation-Wide Steel Strike

Washington, Oct. 10.—Concrete proposals designed to bring about better relations between employers and their employed were laid before the National industrial conference today by members of the various groups making up the gathering. The proposals included:

Arbitration of the nation-wide steel strike with return of the men to work pending settlement; an industrial truce starting immediately and continuing three months; creation of an arbitration board by the President and congress and including among its members all ex-Presidents; and a comprehensive plan for adjudication of industrial disputes through boards of arbitration in the various industries.

The conference today also took its first concrete action in adopting a resolution, offered by Thomas L. Chadbourne, a representative of the public, providing that a committee consisting of three members from each of the groups of Employers, Labor and the Public be appointed to investigate the high cost of living.

Budapest, Oct. 4.—Thousands of tons of American medical supplies, captured in Rumania by the Hungarian army in 1917-1918, and recaptured by the Rumanians upon their occupation of Budapest, will soon be on their way to Bucharest, the Rumanian capital.

The supplies, consisting of a trainload of huge cases, were shipped via Vladivostok in 1916, this being the only route then open to Rumania. Many of these supplies belonged to the American Red Cross, which was driven out of Rumania by the Austro-Hungarian invasion of 1917. The remainder were sold to the Rumanian army by American drug firms. Despite the fact that the typhus was raging in Rumania at the time and these supplies were desperately needed by the civilian population, the Austro-Hungarians loaded every case, particularly American instruments and hospital goods, on their "booty trains" which left Bucharest almost daily. Together with these supplies went the equipment of every hospital and pharmacy in Rumania, the population being left to get along as best it could.

Upon the discovery of these supplies, in warehouses in Budapest, the part that belonged to the American Red Cross was immediately turned over to it by the Rumanian army. Captain Melvin M. Knight, an American Red Cross man, of Worcester, Mass., who was with the Rumanian army became custodian. They are now being shipped back to Bucharest.

GREAT LAKES STRING QUARTET.

The Great Lakes String Quartet, which entertained President and Mrs. Wilson on two voyages across the Atlantic on the U. S. S. George Washington, is a notable musical attraction. On their visit here they will be assisted by a pianist.

The quartet was organized at Great Lakes Naval Training station, Great Lakes, Ill., where all the members of the organization belonged to the same company and regiment. By special permission of the navy department the quartet made a coast-to-coast tour of the United States in behalf of the Navy Relief society, the entire proceeds going to the relief of families and dependents of sailors and marines.

The organization appeared in the leading universities, educational and musical centers of America and its fame grew rapidly. The tour had progressed well into the eastern cities when by a special request of the secretary of the navy the quartet was ordered to accompany President Wilson on his first trip to France.

Many programs were given by the members of the quartet on board the president's ship, the U. S. S. George Washington, for the presidential party and their art was highly recommended by the president. The members made six transatlantic trips on the George Washington between America and France. They were mustered out of service in the late winter of 1919.

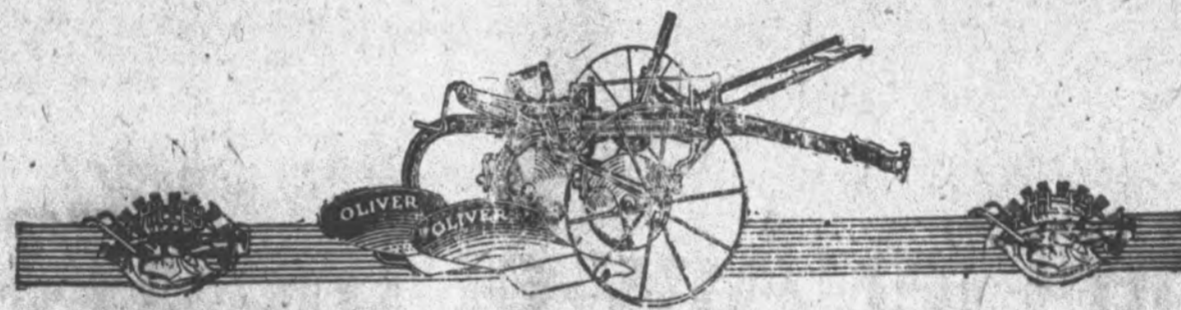

The concert given by the quartet will be delightful both to those who are students of chamber music and those who "just like music." The program includes works of the best modern composers as well as those of the old masters.

Opportunity

1200 acres of fine land, about equally divided between high tobacco land and black corn land. Being on the county road from Washington to New Bern, which road will shortly be hard surfaced. Has N. S. siding on land. 20 acres ready for tobacco. Good house, two cottages, commissary and stables. Beautiful pine grove in yard. A fine developing proposition. Torrens title. Will make a special price to November 1st of $15.00 per acre. Large part of it can be carried on mortgage. This is a great money maker. Inquire
