PEACEFUL PARLEY FAILS TO SETTLE BIG COAL STRIKES

Abrupt End Features Efforts to Settle Question by Peace- ful Agreement.

THANKSGIVING DAY SPENT IN CONSIDERATION

John R. Lewis Scores Government for Present Reduced Percentages.

Washington, Nov. 27.—An abrupt end came late today to all attempts to settle the nation-wide coal strike by peaceful agreement.

Miners and operators spent a bleak Thanksgiving afternoon in embittered debate over the government proposal of a 14 per cent wage increase, made last night by Fuel Administrator Garfield, and rejected it and every other proposal that was forthcoming, and then dissolved, sine die.

Participants went home tonight and where the break left coal strike conditions, no one of them, miner or operator, would say. Likewise in official quarters, there was silence. Acting President John L. Lewis, of the Mine Workers, though refusing to say one word as to the strike itself, which theoretically was called off in obedience to the Federal court injunction holding it a violation of the Lever act for wartime food and fuel control, scored the government roundly at the conclusion of the conference. So did William Green, secretary of the Mine Workers.

Operators, though accepting the government proposal definitely in a letter of explanation to Dr. Garfield which they made public, intimated that the governmental refusal to allow price increases could bear reconsideration.

It was behind closed doors that the coal situation reached its climax today, after involving the full attention of the Federal government for two years previously. There was much heated oratory, but T. W. Guthrie, of Pittsburg, acting chairman of the operators' committee, described the parliamentary procedure sufficiently as he came out. The operators, by a pre-arranged plan, notified the miners' scale committee for the central competitive field of their acceptance of Dr. Garfield's plan.

This the mine workers promptly voted down. In turn, the miners put forward a counter-proposal that Secretary Wilson's suggestion for a 31.66 per cent wage increase be granted, and this the operators flatly refused. For the third time the operators renewed their former offer of arbitration and the miners voted it down. By unanimous vote adjournment was taken.

"The operators are pretending to accept Dr. Garfield's proposal," Mr. Lewis said, manifesting scorn and indignation as he called the newspaper men around him in the filtered and noisy hall that was the scene of the all-day gathering.

"But as they do it they state they are unable to operate many of their mines under it. It would be foolish for us to attempt to make an agreement unless miners are to be given work."

THE CONFERENCE DISBANDS WITHOUT MANY RESULTS

Washington, Nov. 28.—With wage negotiation, the conference has disbanded without having accomplished anything further than bringing down on heads of government officials a criticism from miners and operators. Nobody in Washington today seemed to know, or if they knew would say what the next step would be in an effort to provide the country with a coal supply and head off a threatened famine. The officials of both operators and miners have professed an inability to even forecast what developments. The next forty-eight hours might bring forth and both sides have frankly admitted that they are awaiting the government's next move.

THANKSGIVING DAY PROVED BIG EVENT FOR CITY SCHOOLS

Holiday's Activities Opened Early at The Training School Yesterday

BAND OF SERENADERS IN OPENING ABOUT 6:30 A. M.

Speakings, Games, Dinner and Other Interesting Occur- rences of the Day.

Thanksgiving Day of 1919 was an eventful one at the Training School. It began at 5:30 o'clock in the morning when a band of serenaders went the rounds from dormitory to faculty house singing snatches from songs suited to the day. At 7:30 breakfast was served at the usual hour, but in an unusual way. It was planned and carried out by the Seniors, who were dressed as Puritans and Indians. The shades were lowered and the soft lights of the dark red candles brought out the autumnal decorations of the dining room most effectively. At 8:30 the entire school gathered together in the auditorium for the short Thanksgiving service under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Mr. Patten, of the Jarvis Memorial church, led the service. His talk was very appropriate. Mr. Patten never fails to give the students something that is really worth while.

At 10:30 the all important match game of basket ball between the Juniors and Seniors was called. It was an interesting one from start to finish and showers playing of the usual high class by both sides. The Juniors won by a score of eleven to six. While all the players did good work, special mention should be made of Misses Emily Langley and Orene Hollowell, the captains of the two teams.

Miss Earla Critcher, of Greenville.

CHURCHES OF CITY GAVE FREELY FOR ORPHANS IN STATE

Pretty Good Contributions Re- ported from Thanksgiv- ing's Services.

The different churches of our city, on yesterday had Thanksgiving services at which quite a large amount was given for the different orphanages of our state. The Presbyterian church had its service Wednesday night. Rev. Phillips preached a beautiful Thanksgiving sermon at the close of which $100 was given for the Barium Springs Orphanage. Rev. W. H. More, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church, preached a most helpful Thanksgiving sermon at 11 o'clock yesterday, and $403.83 was given for the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville, N. C. This amount will be increased Sunday, as several members of the church were absent, and they will be given an opportunity of making an offering. Rev. C. H. Bascom, rector of the Episcopal church conducted two beautiful services in that church yesterday at the close of which $256.65 was given for the Thompson orphanage. At the Methodist church Rev. Walter Patten, pastor of the church preached on the spirit of Thanksgiving and $70.00 was given to the Methodist orphanage in Raleigh. There were no services in neither the Immanuel Baptist nor Christian churches on account of the absence of their pastors. The Christian church had already made their offerings several weeks ago, and went over the top, with the amount raised. The Immanuel Baptist will make their offering next Sunday, and it is a certainty that this church will raise a large amount for the Thomasville orphanage.

These offerings speak well for the different denominations of our city, and they show that Greenville

FUR COMPANY HAS CURTAILED SUPPLY IN CANADA REGION

Hudson Bay Company Slightly Alters Policies for Future Activities.

CHAIN OF DEPARTMENT STORES ESTABLISHED

The Company Is Still Greatest Fur Trading Concerns in the World.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 28.—The Hudson's Bay Company has altered its policies with the rapid advance of civilization that has curtailed the production of furs in its territory and has become one of the great merchandizing corporations of Canada. With two centuries and a half of history behind it, the company just now is closing out to farm settlers the land that represents the last vestige of its former empire.

A chain of department stores extending across western Canada has been established. The company now has stores in Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver, Edmonton, Lethbridge, Macleod, Kamloops, Nelson, Vernon, Victoria, Qu'Appelle and Yorkton. Those in Calgary and Vancouver are comparable to the great department stores of the United States. The company is now planning to build in Winnipeg the largest department store in the Dominion.

The company is still one of the world's greatest fur traders. It has 142 fur posts and still sends to England and annually millions of dollars worth of raw furs. But with the wonderful growth of its business as a general merchant, it no longer has need of and.

Under its charter granted by King Charles II in 1670, the Hudson's Bay Company became virtually sole owner and ruler of three-fourths of North America.

UNDERWOOD HEADS TEACHERS OF THIS STATE THRU YEAR

Pitt County Educator Chosen Head of Assembly in Raleigh Today.

ELECTION FEATURED BY UNANIMOUS VOTE; NOON

State Assembly This Year Is Largest in History of Or- ganization.

This afternoon Superintendent H. G. Swanson, of the Greenville Graded Schools, and who is in Raleigh attending the Teacher's Assembly wired the following telegram to this paper, "Underwood made president by a unanimous vote. The assembly largest in its history." This was to state that Superintendent S. B. Underwood superintendent of public education of Pitt county, had at the present session of the teacher's assembly of North Carolina, which is being held in Raleigh and by an unanimous vote been made president of the Teacher's Assembly for the ensuing year. Supt. Underwood is well prepared for the honor which has been conferred upon him. He has been superintendent of the schools of Pitt county for the past five years, and has proved himself an efficient, capable and far seeing superintendent. Under his administration the Pitt county schools have made a most wonderful progress. He is interested in all phases of education and in electing his president the teachers of the State have in the opinion of every one chosen the right man. The Greenville people have grown to love him during his stay here, and they today feel highly complimented in having him as a resident of this city.

The man who attends to his own affairs has no time to laugh at the mistakes of others.

LUKE HEMBY SHOT ON HUNTING TRIP THANKSGIVING DAY

Man of Beaver Dam Section Ac- cidentally Shoots Him- self Yesterday.

Mr. Luke Hemby, of Beaver Dam township, this county, accidentally shot himself yesterday while out hunting, and died a short while afterwards.

Mr. Hemby with several friends decided at an early hour yesterday that they would go out for a little sport, hunting being the result of their sports. Just what hour the tragedy occurred and how it happened has not been ascertained, but it was some time after dinner, and near the time of the train's arrival in Bell Arthur. The car load took effect in the right hand. Medical attention was immediately given to the dying man but, he was seriously wounded, that he died on his way to the Wilson hospital.

This is one of the saddest occurrences of this nature, in our county. Mr. Hemby was a prosperous farmer, a man of sterling qualities, and possessed a host of friends throughout the county. He married Miss Maggie Kittrell of this county, and she with one son, Mr. Earl Hemby survives him. He also leaves brothers and sisters to mourn his loss.

The interment will take place this afternoon in Ayden.

JAPANESE DEMAND INCREASED PAY IN VARIOUS CENTERS

Protest Is Made to Government Against the High Cost of Living.

PROCRASTINATION NOW MEETING WITH DISFAVOR

General Public Disapproves of Spirit in Evidence in Many Centers.

Tokio, Nov. 28.—Protests against the high cost of living and demands for increased wages are as emphatic in Japan as in other nations. The newspapers attack the government charging it with maintaining a policy of procrastination in dealing with these economic problems. From all parts of the country, from offices, factories and schools come urgent appeals for advances in wages to meet the mounting cost of everything.

Japanese laborers have started a popular movement to secure a reconstruction of the cabinet, believing that a ministerial change is necessary to secure economic reforms. The newspapers deal lengthily with a visit that seven laborers made to Marquis Okuma, the venerable former premier. The delegates included two coolies, three printers, a factory hand, and an iron-smith, all attired in homespun dress. Some members of the delegation attributed their economic distress to the lack of government action and denounced the cabinet for alleged failure to halt the mounting costs.

Marquis Okuma also asserts that the difficulties under which the nation is suffering are largely due to the fact that the cabinet has taken no effective remedial steps. He says he fears that unless some important reforms are undertaken there is danger of a popular uprising. To this he adds a vehement denunciation of the luxuries of the rich.

GOOD PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN AT THE TRAINING SCHOOL

President of Baltimore College Will Speak During Satur- day Night.

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock there will be at East Carolina Teachers Training School a very interesting program to which the public is invited Mr. E. H. Norman, president of Baltimore Business College, will deliver an address on "The Teacher's Opportunity and Responsibility". There will be an unusually attractive musical program prepared by Miss Muffy and the students.

Mr. Norman says falls to give something to the school and says what he has to say in a most interesting manner. For years Mr. Wright has tried to get Mr. Norman to Greenville to visit the school, but hitherto something has always prevented. He considers himself fortunate that he has at last been able to secure this distinguished Baltimorean to speak to the students and the people of the town. Hearing him would be sufficient treat, but the musical numbers will make the occasion a double attraction.

MEXICAN REFUSE TO HEAR APPEALS IN JENKINS' CASE

Official Communication Received in Washington, Not Yet Published.

STATE DEPARTMENT IS NOT READY FOR VIEWS

Diplomatic Refusal in Legal Form Sent to Mexican With Warning.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Mexico has replied with an argumentative diplomatic refusal to the American government's demand for the immediate release of William O. Jenkins, the consular agent imprisoned at Puebla.

The official note was delivered here today, but not made public. There is no reason to doubt that it agrees with the copy given out last night by Mexican Consul General at El Paso.

No comment was forthcoming to indicate how the State Department regards the answer to what was considered one of the sharpest warnings yet sent to Mexico and neither was there any indication of what the government's next step would be.

The Mexican reply, which, according to its text, was prepared at the direction of President Carranza, argues in the main that the Mexican government cannot order the release of a prisoner while his case is under adjudication in the civil courts of one of its states and contends that the American government's demand for the consular agent's release had no foundation nor precedent in international law.

Some new angles of the Mexican view point on the Jenkins case, hitherto unpublished in the United States are revealed. The tendency of the Mexican argument is to separate the Jenkins case into two phases. First the situation in which the consular agent was kidnapped by bandits and held for ransom and last his subsequent arrest and imprisonment by the civil authorities of Puebla on a charge of having "connived" with the bandits. The note at hand deals with the latter phase exclusively.

It points out that Jenkins was first held under what is known to the Mexican penal code as "preventative imprisonment." This provision covers a situation in which a person is suspected of complicity in a criminal act. He subsequently was held under a provision covering "formal" imprisonment, which under the Mexican penal code applies when a magistrate believes there is sufficient evidence to establish that a crime has been committed.

The allegation against Jenkins is that he signed conflicting statements regarding his kidnapping and therefore was "guilty of falsifying judicial declarations."

The note says Jenkins has opportunity to be released on bail in the sum of one thousand pesos, the equivalent of five hundred dollars in American money if reckoned in coin rather than Mexican bank notes, and that Jenkins has refused to avail himself of it, although he has been requested to do so.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT RECEED FROM THE JENKINS CASE

Washington, Nov. 28.—Although further investigation of government has no intention of receding from its position in the Jenkins case, administration officials said today, that the government has declared prepared for the next step which may be an ultimatum. Officials indicated that negotiation with Mexico would not be prolonged if unsatisfactory. That the government has decided upon the course of action it is prepared to carry it out if necessary.

GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO SEIZE COAL MINES

Washington, Nov. 28.—The seizure of soft coal mines where the owners do not show a disposition to co-operate in increasing of production and in the use of troops to protect miners who were to work, was decided upon by the government in an effort to end the coal strike that is stated today. In mines that use soft coal, the present wage advance was agreed upon by the miners, to be put into effect immediately. It was taken.

TAYLOR-WARREN WEDDING.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the church of the Good Shepherd, Grace, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Warren, 205 Johnson street, was given in marriage to Mr. Benjamin Franklin Taylor. The time old ritual of the church of England was beautiful, sacred and impressive. The bride chose for the processional and recessional two wedding hymns, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden That Loveliest Wedding Day," and "Lord Who at Cana's Wedding Feast Didst as a Guest Appear." These were under the direction of the efficient church organist, Mrs. Raikes, accompanied by Miss Fern Wilson on the violin. Mrs. Raikes Choate, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ. The choir sang the Lohengrin bridal chorus, as the wedding party entered the church and grouped themselves about the altar. The flower girls chosen were little Misses Adabelle Evans and Kate Griffith. Exquisite were these petite blondes in dresses of yellow tulle, very beruffled with butterfly sashes of yellow tulle. They carried dainty French baskets filled with rose pees. Marshal Evans Warren, the brother of the bride acted as ring bearer and carried the mystic band. The snowy depths of a gorgeous spotless chrysanthemum. This little fellow, clad in white velvet corduroys, assumed a very dignified bearing and proved himself an ornament to the occasion.

The bride entered attended by Miss Esther Rodgers. The bride wore a Havana brown suit of dyvntine with accessories to match. She carried a wonderfully arranged bouquet of brides roses with cascade shower of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor favored an afternoon dress of turquoise blue tulle and tulle with large black velvet Gainsborough hat. The groom was attended by Harry Warren, brother of the bride.

Acting as usher, with Guy Parrish, a close friend of the family, was the second brother, James Warren.

The Rev. Mr. Meyer of Hillsboro, came especially to Terrell and was the celebrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left on the afternoon train for different points in Texas. Owing to the illness of the bride's mother they will be away but a short while, returning to Terrell for Thanksgiving. After leaving Terrell they will visit relatives of the groom in different parts of North Carolina, finally going to their own home at Tarboro, N. C., where the groom conducts a prosperous business.

Miss Warren is a Terrell product and we regret to give her up not alone to another town, but a far away state. However, no matter what people receive and welcome her they will find pure as gold and as "the polished corners of the temple."—Terrell Daily Transcript.

MISS ALLIE ESTELLE GREENE ENTERTAINS.

Complimentary to Miss Mary Smith, Bride-Elect.
On Thanksgiving day at her home on Third street, Miss Allie Estelle Greene most delightfully entertained at a miscellaneous shower complimentary to Miss Mary Smith, who will on December 3rd, become the bride of Mr. G. G. Cooper. The house was beautifully decorated with carnations, chrysanthemums and potted plants. Upon arrival the guests were welcomed by the hostess and the bride-elect, and shown into the parlor and library where tables had been arranged for rook and auction bridge. The place cards carried out the suggestion of Thanksgiving by having Thanksgiving ideas painted on them. Mrs. A. M. Moseley, being the successful contestant, was awarded the prize, and Miss Smith was presented with a beautiful piece of lingerie. After a salad course, served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Eva Spears and Betsy Greene, was enjoyed, the guests were invited to play. The table was beautifully decorated, with a large mound covered with holly in the center of it. The bride-elect was invited to explore the mound, and in so doing she found every article necessary for the completion of her trousseau, into the dining room where the shower had been arranged. The dining room besides several other useful articles.

It was a most enjoyable occasion and will long be remembered by all attending.

Some men's wives, like their sins, are sure to find them out.

THANKSGIVING DAY PROVED BIG EVENT FOR CITY SCHOOLS

was the referee. Miss Critcher is an excellent player herself, having received her training, while a student of the Greenville High School.

Dinner was served at one o'clock. The dining room never looked more festive. Mrs. Jetend out-Jetend herself for the dinner was a lovely one. A fruit salad was served at the beginning. This was followed by the turkey with its usual accompaniments, and then an ice frappi. During the dinner, many toasts were given by the students representing the four classes, and Dr. Laughinghouse, the school physician. His toast, "To Our Flag," was a little gem. He describes Thanksgiving Day of last year as he can it was in Paris. His interpretation of the meaning of the flag carried conviction with it, because if service he rendered it.

The visitors of the school were the faculty families. At eight o'clock, the Edgar Allen Poe Literary Society presented a most charming one act play, Six who Pass While the Lentils Boil by Stuart Walker. The young women who composed the cast were:

- Memory—Ruth Deans.
- Prologue—Irma Fuqua.
- Device Bearer—Helen Elliott.
- The Butterfly—Alice Whitehurst.
- The Boy—Ethel Southerland.
- The Queen—Elizabeth Bass.
- The Minne—Louise Smith.
- The Milkmaid—Margaret Hayes.
- The Blind Man—Helen Bohson.
- The Ballad Singer—Ethel Pittman.
- The Dreadful Headsman—Julia Rowe.
- You (in the audience)—Lois Bynum.

These young women reflected great credit upon themselves and their society. The play will be repeated on Saturday night and the Friends of the Training School are most cordially invited to see it.

The day closed with a dance in the dining room given by the girls to themselves. Of all Thanksgiving Days in the history of the school none was ever more delightfully spent than that of 1919.

There are too many men in the world who are not content with wasting their own time.

Read what Mr. J. C. Galloway has to say about the Fordson Tractor.

Chicod, N. C., Sept. 25th, 1919.

The John Flanagan Buggy Company,
 Greenville, N. C.,

Gentlemen:—

I have your inquiry requesting me to advise you how I like the Fordson Tractor, McKay Disc Plow, Oliver No. 7 and Roderick Lean Harrow which I recently bought from you.

I am pleased to advise you that the Fordson Tractor is every thing you representd it to be. It was not my intention to plant any clover or vetch this fall, but after I bought the Tractor from you, it took me such a short while to break up my land and harrow it, I decided to plant my land in winter cover crop.

I have broken up a considerable amount of land and planted some already in winter crop and the Fordson Tractor and equipment bought from you far exceeded my expectations. I have broken up land that has never been turned before, land that had a large amount of vegetation which would have been impossible to turn with any kind of plow drawn by mules.

I am well pleased with the Fordson Tractor and feel I have made a safe investment from a financial standpoint and I also expect to raise my crop with much less expense than I would if I had not bought this outfit.

My advice to every farmer who wants to properly prepare his land so it will be easier for him to attend his crop, is to buy a Fordson Tractor, Plows and Harrows that are sold for this Tractor.

With very kindest regards, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. G. GALLOWAY.

Sell At Gorman's

All sales finished Wednesday. Gormans finished before four o'clock, yet to influence wagons to leave our house some of our competitors, or their employees, were telling that we would not sell before Monday, causing us to lose a number of wagons, some having stayed a part of the night in our house. Gormans sold Tuesday and Wednesday (blocked sale).

230,448 pounds for $159,325.75, averaging $69.13
Scrap and common 34,150 pounds for 4,022.35, averaging 11.78
Leaving 196,298 pounds for $155,303.40, averaging 79.11

Note the scrap and common tobacco cuts our average about $10.00 per 100 bear in mind that this common tobacco comes from a barn of common tobacco and that the best from this same barn cuts our average still more. No house can or does get more for any grades than Gormans. We protect each and every pile sold on our floor, are not afraid to buy, as we have a steam plant to handle and connections to dispose of all of our purchases.

Gormans has 3rd sale Monday, 2nd Tuesday, 1st Wednesday.
