CAUCUS IS CALLED FOR SELECTION OF LEADER IN SENATE

Senator Underwood's Supporters Resent Action of Nebraska Senator.

PROPOSES DEFERMENT TILL AFTER CHRISTMAS

Contest Between Hitchcock and Underwood Has Bearing on Treaty Issue.

Washington, Dec. 19.—A call for a conference of Democratic Senators Saturday to select a leader to succeed the late Senator Martin, of Virginia, was issued today by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, who is contesting with Senator Underwood, of Alabama, for the place.

Some of Senator Underwood's friends were outspoken in criticizing Senator Hitchcock's call.

"It's an outrage," said Senator Harrison, of Mississippi, who has been active in behalf of the Alabama Senator. "Up to now Hitchcock forces have been urging that the conference be postponed until after the treaty is settled, and also until more Democratic Senators are in town. There are a half dozen of Mr. Underwood's friends absent now who cannot be gotten back in time with this notice of only 48 hours."

A compromise was suggested in some quarters, proposing that Senator Hitchcock be made leader and Mr. Underwood be promoted to Mr. Hitchcock's present position of vice-chairman or assistant leader of the Democratic conference, a position which would give Mr. Underwood management of many measures.

On objection by Senator Underwood's friends to a vote Saturday in the absence of about a dozen Democrats, Senator Hitchcock tonight agreed for voting by all absentees, either by telegraph or arrangements of pairs. This concession, Mr. Underwood's managers said, does not meet entirely their objection and they said the opposition to a vote Saturday would be continued.

In the interest of the Hitchcock candidacy Senator King, Utah, tonight placed his resignation as secretary of the Democratic conference in Mr. Hitchcock's hands for presentation if necessary to meet possible objection that election of Mr. Hitchcock would give the West two conference officers.

Settlement of the contest between Senator Hitchcock and Senator Underwood is the only business to come before the conference. The outcome was said to be in doubt with a very close vote predicted.

Friends of Senator Underwood intimated today that they might endeavor to postpone a vote until after the holidays when the full Democrats membership, including Secretary Glass as the successor of Senator Martin, of Virginia, is expected to be present.

WOOTEN FARM BRINGS A SPLENDID PRICE

The W. L. Wooten farm was sold by the Atlantic Coast Realty Co. this morning and brought $51,508.00. The farm contains 138 acres, and is one of the best farms in the country. Mr. K. W. Cobb, local agent for the Atlantic Coast Realty Co., conducted the advertising campaign and the wonderful success of the sale is due to his efforts to make it so. This is the last sale to be conducted in this section before Christmas. The Atlantic Coast Realty Company is now closing the most successful season of their existence. They set $7,000,000 as their goal for the year and have gone over the $10,000,000 mark. Their success is due to the men in their employ as they only have gentlemen of the highest calibre. Each man this year has made from 75 to 100 per cent bonus, besides his salary. The company believes in a fair and square deal to every one, and when a man in their employ deserves credit, he certainly receives it. The name Atlantic Coast Realty has won an enviable position in this section, and when a man has land to sell he usually calls on this company to assist him.

Something heavy just now are express and parcel post shipments.

EQUALIZATION FOR TRADING IS URGED BY NOTED BANKER

James S. Alexander Explains Depreciation in International Exchange.

AMERICA AND EUROPE MUST USE OLD POLICY

Exports and Imports Must Return to Gold Basis Before Issue Settled.

New York, Dec. 19.—Restoration of an approximate equilibrium of imports and exports between the United States and Europe and a return of European currencies to a gold basis are needed before foreign exchange will return to a normal basis, according to James S. Alexander, president of the National Bank of Commerce and an authority on foreign trade.

Mr. Alexander, officer and director of many important banking institutions, who served as chairman of the committee on credit and finance at the International Trade Conference at Atlantic City, and who is chairman of the executive committee of the national committee on European finance, was asked today by the Associated Press to reduce to plain terms the highly complicated international business problem presented condition of foreign exchange.

He prepared a statement in which he explained that foreign exchange is a commodity and the present demoralized depreciation in rates from sterling and other European exchanges is a normal expression of the law of supply and demand. The statement follows: (Continued on page five.)

COUNTY AGENT TO PLAY GREAT PART IN FARM ACTIVITY

Skilled and Trained in Agriculture, Their Future is of Importance.

Raleigh, Dec. 19.—Preparatory to closing his work in eastern North Carolina, Mr. N. B. Stevens, District Agent of the Agricultural Extension Service, has collected a sample list of the questions asked the county agents by farmers during one week's time. He compilation shows that during this week 211 different queries were made. Of this number there are some questions which would stagger the best informed agricultural men of the country. Some of them have an important relation to every day farming operations, and some bear on future plans for the farm. As a whole, the questions show that the farmer of today is a much more progressive individual than the farmer of the past. They indicate also that he is thinking about improved agriculture, and better marketing facilities, and that in planning to improve conditions on his farm, he needs the suggestions and help of a trained agricultural man who is constantly in touch with the latest developments and findings of the different experiments stations of the country.

Many farmers do not know just what constitutes a county agent. In appointing a man, the Agricultural Extension Service tries to get the best and most suitable person available, whether in North Carolina or some other state. This man must have scientific and practical training in agriculture, which means that all new appointments now are graduate of an agricultural college, and have considerable farming experience, as well as the natural qualities of initiative and leadership.

The services of this man are free to the farmers. The Extension Service especially desires that he be used as much as possible to aid in progressive farming. The same thing applies to the women agent in her relation to the efforts of the housewife to better conditions in the isolated, rural homes of the State.

MANY NATIONS TO OBSERVE PROGRAM PILGRIM FATHERS

Historical Pageants to be Widely Employed in General Celebration.

STON WILL BE MAIN CENTER IN THIS NATION

Foreign Visitors Will Participate in Observance of Day in America.

New York, Dec. 19.—The 300th anniversary of the Pilgrim Fathers, tentative plans of which have just been announced here, will include celebrations in England, Holland and the United States and will continue from May to December 1920.

A four day program in Leyden, Amsterdam and Rotterdam, whence the Pilgrims sailed three centuries ago to the American wilderness where they might find "freedom to worship God," will start on August 30, when committees from the United States and England will be received at the University of Leyden. Addresses commemorative of the occasion will be delivered by scholars from the three countries, including the rector of the university, Dr. Bendel Harris of Manchester, Eng., Viscount Bryce and a famous American who has not yet been designated.

The next day, August 31, the birthday of the Queen of the Netherlands, will include, beside a Congress in the Town Hall, a religious memorial service in the Pieterskerk in which the Rev. John Robinson, who led the separatist from the Church of England (the Pilgrims) to Holland in 1609, was buried.

One of the features of the holiday at Amsterdam on September 1, will be a memorial window in the Bagijnkerk and a reception. The next day there will be an aquatic pageant in Rotterdam, the visitors traveling in the morning from Leyden to Delfshaven, if possible, by boat along the way the Pilgrims went. Then there will be trips to the religious havens of Rotterdam, a memorial service in the church at Delfshaven and at 7 p. m. the English and American contingents will depart for Southampton.

The celebration in England will start in May 1920, with meetings in Scrooby, the home of Robinson, Austerfield, Boston and Sheffield. From August 4 to September 20 there will be ceremonies in Cambridge, London, Southampton and other places, culminating in the sailing of the new Mayflower, which (Continued on page four.)

VISCOUNT GRAY IS NOT TO RETURN TO WASHINGTON CITY

Lord Reading Probably Will be Next Ambassador to the United States.

London, Dec. 19.—The belief is growing in diplomatic circles that Viscount Grey will not return to Washington British Ambassador although there is no intimation of this officially. Speculation is beginning as to who will be the next ambassador and Lord Reading's name is mentioned frequently.

It is not known whether Lord Reading would abandon the Chief Justiceship for the ambassadorship, but it is well known that he is particularly fond of America and Americans and there are some who believe that he would like the post.

Viscount Grey, whose early return to England has been announced, has never formally presented his credentials at Washington, and it is assumed, therefore, that he never turned over Lord Reading's letter of recall.

The possible retirement of Sir Robert L. Borden from the premiership of Canada recalls that during the peace conference it was reported that he might be the next ambassador to the United States.

FINLAND NOT ABLE TO RESIST STRONG BOLSHEVIK FORCES

American Tells New York League Why Country is in Helpless State.

FINLAND MUST CONFINE HERSELF TO FRONTIERS

Fear of Bolshevism in Many Territories, However, is Not Considered.

New York, Dec. 18.—Finland need not be counted upon for aggressive action against Bolshevism, according to H. Montagu Donner, an American who has just returned from a two months' visit to the new republic in the North.

Mr. Donner, who is President of the Finland Constitutional League of America, said that the chance to enlist the active cooperation of the Finnish army in the campaign against Petrograd was lost this summer, when Admiral Kolchak, General Yudenitch and the other anti-Bolshevist Russian leaders neglected to give timely recognition to the independence of Finland and the Allied governments refused to give assurances of financial support without which Finland could not venture to enter upon war with the Soviet government.

At that time, he said, the morale of the Bolshevik army was low and the capture of Petrograd by the combined Russian, Estonian and Finnish armies would have been easy. Now, with the collapse of the Yudenitch campaign, Finland must confine herself to holding her frontiers and protecting eastern Karelia, which he had been invited by the inhabitants to occupy.

Fear of Bolshevism in Finland itself, he said had entirely disappeared, even moderate Socialists having assured the existing coalition government of their support in case of a revival of the "Red" insurrectionary movement which was suppressed with so much difficulty a year ago. Fear has disappeared too of a repetition this year of the famines under which Finland has suffered so severely during the war, because the harvest has been exceptionally good. Food is abundant in Helsingfors and throughout the country and supplies promise to last through until the next harvest without resort to "bark bread" and other famine substitutes of which the Finnish population has such unhappy recollections.

ENDING OF STRIKE WAS VICTORY FOR THE GOVERNMENT

Palmer Says Settlement Was An Unusually Great Victory in Every Way.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The termination of the soft coal strike was not a settlement, but a victory for the government, Attorney-General Palmer today told the senate sub-committee investigating the strike that the government has won its fight, and Palmer also stated there was no settlement in actuality and that men and union officers have complied with demands and returned to work.

The machine is one of the first introduced in this section of the state, and is something out of the ordinary to those who have never seen one in operation.

GERMANS BELIEVE THEY MADE GRAVE MISTAKE IN FACTS

Manifesto Justifying Nation's Course in War Considered Tragic Mistake.

PROFESSORS BELIEVE THEY WERE MISTAKEN

Many Adhere to Former Opinion that Facts Were Correct in Issue.

Berlin, Dec. 18.—Thirty-nine of the German servants and professors who signed on October 11, 1914, the famous manifesto attempting to justify Germany's course in the war, now realize that they made a "tragic mistake" sixteen, however, adhere to their belief that the manifesto was drawn up in accordance with facts.

This has been disclosed by canvass of the 78 living exponents of German culture who signed the manifesto. This has just been conducted by Dr. Hans Wehberg.

Dr. Wehberg reports that 39 signers of the celebrated documents have admitted to him that today by no means all of the assertions therein made could be maintained. Many of them, he says, insist that they did not correctly read or understand the paper when they affixed their signatures to it or allowed them to be attached.

Some of these 39 already expressed their regret that they signed the statement and eight of them have withdrawn their signatures since Dr. Wehberg began his investigation. These eight are Lujjo Brentano, Felix von Weizsacker, Herbert Eulenber, W. Fo (Continued on page eight.)

GOVERNMENT NOW HAVING DIFFICULT INSURANCE TASKS

Collections from Former Soldiers Causing No Little Trouble Lately.

The Government, through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, wrote approximately $40,000,000,000 of insurance upon the lives of more than 4,500,000 service men and women. This is a larger volume of insurance than is in force in the old-line insurance companies in the United States. Approximately 90 per cent of the men in active service during the war were protected by War Risk Insurance, and the average protection was $8,700.

While the men were in the service it was easy to collect the insurance premiums by deducting the amount due each month from their pay. Now the men have to look after the payment of their own premiums, and the situation is further complicated by reason of the fact that the addresses of hundreds of thousands of them are no longer known to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. Col. R. G. Cholmeley-Jones, Director of the Bureau, does not consider it surprising that so many former service men have not continued to make regular monthly payments of their War Risk Insurance premiums. He says:

"In the first place, very few of them realize that the Government insurance, as well as compensation and allotments and allowances, is paid by the Treasury Department through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance; neither do they realize that after their discharge from active service their checks or money orders for insurance premiums should be made payable to 'The Treasurer of the United States,' and sent to Premium Receipt Section, Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C. Again, it will take considerable time for the former service men to get on their feet and get their bearings, even though they are healthy and strong.

Many have not yet decided into what business activity they will enter or even where they intend ultimately to live. Lots of boys from the farms will locate in cities and many city boys will move into the country.

SENATE FAILS TO REACH DECISION IN RAILROAD ISSUES

Grave Doubt Entertained in Many Circles that Measure Will be Passed.

FIFTH NIGHT SESSION CONCLUDED BY SENATE

Agreement is Reached Between Senate and House for Christmas Holidays.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The Senate held its fifth night session on the railroad bill tonight with grave doubt in the minds of leaders that the measure could be passed in time to permit beginning of the holiday recess Saturday.

The labor-clauses, including the anti-strike provision of the Cummins measure were under discussion during the day, culminating in the rejection by a vote of 25 to 46 of the proposal of Senator Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky, to eliminate the whole section. Efforts toward a compromise ensued.

During the debate an agreement was reached by Senate and House majority leaders not to permit a holiday recess until the measure is through the Senate and sent to conference. At their conference, however, Senator Lodge and Representative Mondell agreed to suspend House business Saturday to permit members of the lower body to go home for the holidays even if the Senate is held by delay on the railroad bill. Beginning Monday, House sessions will be perfunctory under a "Gentleman's agreement" to transact no business until January 5, but to adjourn from day to day until the Senate recesses.

The anti-strike provisions were in turn attacked and defended today while conferences were held looking to a compromise by modifying the harsh imposing criminal penalties for strikes and lockouts.

After defeat of the Stanley motion to strike out the entire labor section, Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, offered a substitute plan, similar to the Canadian system, to prohibit strikes for sixty days after decisions of the adjustment board and requiring decisions from the board within ninety days.

Senator Thomas, Democrat, Colorado supporting the Cummins labor proposal, declared railroad strikes to be intolerable in their effect upon the general public. Opposing the anti-strike section, Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, said that criminal penalties for strikes would not accomplish their purpose. The Cummins plan he characterized as "repressive, unfair and unjust."

"Strikes among certain classes of employes are unjustifiable and among these are railroad employes," declared Senator Walsh, "but we cannot chain them to their posts like gally slaves." Congress, the Massachusetts Senator held, should remove the incentive and causes of strikes by enactment of arbitration legislation without banning what he declared to be the inherent right to strike.

On a vote of 31 to 31 the substitute of Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, for the anti-strike provision was rejected and Mr. McCormick gave notice that he would ask for another vote later.

MILLIONS ARE SAVED BY SMALL DEPOSITS

Banks of Country Have Twenty-Seven Hundred Thousand Accounts Figures Announced at Convention Show.

There are 27,000,000 savings bank depositors in the United States, according to figures published at the convention of the American Bankers' Association here. In compiling these figures due allowance was made for duplications. Investigation by the bankers has proved that these saving bank depositors are, with few exceptions, people of small means, but they are the people who absorbed in large measure the war issues of government securities, Thrift and War Savings Stamps, Savings Certificates and Liberty Bonds AND ARE KEEPING THEM.

Not only did they buy and hold government securities, but those investments led to additional savings, consolidated the habit of thrift and increased bank deposits throughout the entire nation. These 27,000,000 depositors now own $10,573,971,000 of savings.

This is the money which has built up the railroads, municipalities, homes and industries of the nation. These savers financed the war successfully, and on their continuation of the production of new capital, through savings, rests the solution for financing reconstruction and for the increase of production necessary to check the high cost of living, bankers agree.

The government savings securities and Liberty Bonds offer ideal means for the production of this new capital. They are adapted for investment of all sums no matter how great or small. They are the safest security possible. They are profitable and readily convertible into cash should necessity arise.

Just a stamp, just a stamp,
Just a stamp onward;
Into the valley of life
Go many hundred.

Stormed at by costs and bills,
Boldly they faced their ills,
Bravely cut out all frills,
And bought a hundred.

High cost to right of them, high cost to left of them,
High cost behind them volleyed and thundered,
But they kept saving on, just as they had begun
Till they'd a hundred.

When will the high cost fade?
O, the wild charge they made!
All the world wondered.
So let us fight the scamps
With more War Savings Stamps,
Stamps by the hundred.

The armistice cleared the sea of U-boats but your financial craft can be just as effectively sunk without trace by foolish investment in wild-cat stocks. Government securities, War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds are safe.

The armistice ended the war but like typhoid, the after effects must be given close care and attention. Wise financial physicians prescribe the strong tonic of thrift and the regular absorption of War Savings

DEATH IN COTTON INDUSTRY.

From an industrial standpoint, death at less than old age means a fixed and definite loss; the worker has at each age a certain expectancy of life, varying according to certain factors, but still definitely calculable, which makes his death the loss of so much potential industrial activity. In Bulletin No. 251, entitled "Preventable Death in the Cotton Manufacturing Industry," just issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor, is shown the real death hazard, by age groups, for wage earners, especially for those engaged in the several processes of cotton cloth manufacture, and also what factors have been especially active in cutting off the lives of wage earners during age periods which are normally of greatest productive activity.

In this report, which is supplementary to an earlier report upon the subject, the death hazard, by age, sex, and race of the entire operative population of Fall River, the leading cotton manufacturing city in the United States, is contrasted with the corresponding hazard of the non-mill operatives of the city, for the five years, 1908 to 1912, inclusive, and a study is made of the death rates of workers in the different rooms within the cotton mill, i. e. the card room, spinning room, spooler room, and weave room.

By a comparison of death rates, by sex, of the whole Fall River population, aged 15 to 44, it is shown that females have appreciably the higher death hazard. From tuberculosis their death rate exceeds that of the males by 12 per cent, from non-tuberculous causes by 5 per cent, and from all causes combined by per cent. Yet while this is true of the population as a whole, it is untrue of that portion of it 61 per cent which does not work in cotton mills, for among these three-fifths the male death rate exceeds the female by 14 per cent.

The total death hazard of the native born exceeds that of the foreign born by 9 per cent, though the native born are less liable than the foreign born to die from tuberculosis, the difference between the death rates being slight, however—less than one per cent. The Irish and French Canadians show the highest death rates among the different racial groups.

In Fall River married females between the ages of 15 and 44 are much more liable to die, both from tuberculosis and from all non-tuberculous causes than the single, while among the males the single are almost invariably far more liable to die early than are the married of the same age.

Fall River cotton operatives between the ages of 15 and 44 are about one-half (46 per cent) more liable to die, from all causes combined, than are non-mill operatives of the same age, their hazard from tuberculosis being 100 per cent and from all non-tuberculous causes of death, 20 per cent greater than the hazard of all others persons. As to workroom hazard it appears that the spinning and weave rooms are the two workrooms showing the greatest peril for male workers, the death rates, both of single and married men, from all causes being greater than the corresponding rates of non-mill operatives. For both single and married females the spinning room is the room of greatest peril, a fact which is important because the spinning room females are a youthful group, 70 per cent being under 25.

Within industrial groups tuberculosis is by far the commonest single cause of death, the tuberculous deaths being 35 per cent of the total deaths, both of male and of female operatives aged 15 to 44. The death rate from tuberculosis among male operatives. Among married women aged 15 to 44 parturition occurring within 30 days of death, which is largely preventable, is exactly as prevalent a cause, either principal or contributory, of fatalities (2.08 per 1,000 population) as tuberculosis is among all Fall River persons of both sexes of the same ages.

Herbert Hoover says there are from fifteen to twenty millions of people facing starvation in Central Europe at the present time unless some quick means can be discovered for their assistance. EQUALIZATION FOR TRADING IS URGED BY NOTED BANKER

 "Depreciation of the foreign exchanges is primarily only a reflection of deeper problems in relation of exports and imports between America and Europe. The problem may be simply stated as follows:

"When exporters sell to foreign buyers, they draw checks, drafts, etc., on those foreign consignees or their banks for the amounts due. These bills are drawn in foreign money, preponderantly pounds sterling—that is, on houses in London, long the world's international clearing house. Americans drawing these bills sell them in the foreign exchange market for what they will bring, which under normal conditions fluctuates within narrow limits of face value. The total volume of such checks and drafts coming into the foreign exchange market constitutes the supply of foreign exchange in existence at that time. The foreign exchange market consists of foreign exchange houses whose function is to buy and sell it there for collection or the establishment of balances.

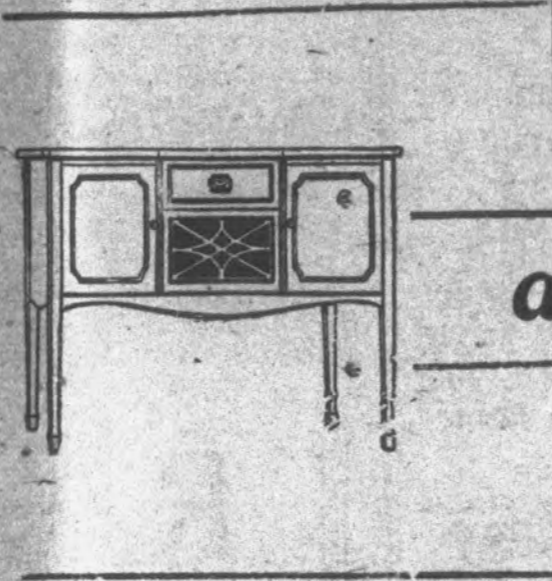

"Ordinarily, at the same time, Americans are selling goods to foreigners, foreigners are selling goods to Americans who therefore have remittances to make abroad. They therefore buy from the foreign exchange dealers drafts or checks against the balances those dealers have established abroad, through the purchase of foreign exchange.

Be Sure To See Them

A BIG CHANCE FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Special ruling allows all former service men, no matter when discharged to reinstate their insurance on or before December 31, 1919, on statement in their applications that they are in as good health as at the date of discharge or at the date of the expiration of the grace period for the payment of premiums, whichever is the later date, and payment of two months' premiums on the amount of insurance to be reinstated. After December 31st, the privilege of reinstatement will be limited to the period of 18 months following the month of discharge, or 12 months following the month of lapse.

If reinstatement is made after 18 months following month of discharge, only two months' premiums are now required for reinstatement, a former service man who paid more than two months' back premiums in reinstating prior to July 25, 1919, can, on application, obtain credit for any premiums so paid in excess of two and have the surplus applied toward future premium payment.

The Bureau of War Risk Insurance wants the service men to know what their rights are as to Government insurance and the methods by which this insurance may be retained or reinstated. It is to the interest of every service man whose insurance may have lapsed or been canceled to apply at once for reinstatement. To wait may mean disaster.

Check or money orders should be made payable to the treasurer of the United States and, with the application sent to the Premium Receipt Section, Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C.

NEW EDISON

Nights are growing deeper. Outdoors is getting rougher.

The young people belong around the living-room fire. Get them into the habit of enjoying their evenings at home. Just put the job up to the New Edison.

Do the young folks want to dance? All right—here's the newest fox-trot. Sing?—here's the song that's got all Broadway humming. Learn? all opera opens its pages.

Not mere talking-machine music, mind you! But Re-Created music! The very music, which, given at some notable concert, draws people miles through any weather. The New Edison gives the life, the spirit, the enthusiasm, the soul of the music, gives you everything the living artist can give, excepting his physical presence.

If you'll stop in for a few minutes, we'll show you what a New Edison really is, and how you can have it sent right out to your home.

Carrying the idea of cooperation still further they purchased many pieces of real estate, totalling 92,000 square feet.

First Greenville Store to Install the Measuregraph

Now in Operation in Our Yard Goods Departments

First, as most Greenville people know, to adopt any innovation which experience and the science of merchandising has shown will make for the improvement of the store's service and multiply the conveniences it extends its patrons, we are pleased to announce the installation of the "Measuregraph"—a machine so contrived that it measures pieces of goods accurately, even to the fraction of an inch, and computes the cost before the eyes of the customer—in each of our yard goods departments.

The Measuregraph is made to correct any tendency on the part of experienced salespeople to give short measure or to overcharge.

A Marvel of Accuracy

What the Measuregraph will do for our customers, our co-workers and ourselves is set forth in the following lines:

- Eliminate errors in measurement.
- Eliminate wrong extensions on the sales checks.
- Eliminate errors due to interruption.
- Raise the efficiency of our sales force.
- Reduce the nervous strain to which sales people are subjected.
- Save time for customers.
- Save time for salespeople.
- Make scissors unnecessary, with goods that can be torn. Its use lowers prices by reducing waste.
- Measuring and Computing are mechanical operations purely, and are best done on a machine.
- This new method provides a logical and modern way of doing business.
- And, finally, it inspires confidence, because the measurement and computations are always visible.

The Measuregraph

"More accurate than hands, more dependable than mind"
We invite everybody to see them in operation now on all our piece goods counters. Salespeople will be glad to explain them.

GERMANS BELIEVE THEY MADE GRAVE MISTAKE IN FACTS

erster, Von Kaubach and the theologians Schmidlin Herrmann and Mausbach.

Writing to Dr. Wehberg, Herbert Eulenberg said that the 93 men who signed the manifesto at the beginning of the war then believed that Germany had been attacked underhandedly and that the country merely availed itself of its right of self-defense.

Professor Brentano has declared that he was urged by telegraph to allow his signature to be appended, that he assented only to regret it bitterly after he saw the text of the paper. Felix Weingaertner writes in a similar vein.

Of the 78 living scientists and professors, Dr. Wehberg received replies from 55. Sixteen who stood by their original standpoint include Steudler Wagner, Eduard Meyer, Doerpel and Lenz.

One of the sixteen replied that he had read the manifesto again, sentence by sentence, and had not found a single one which, according to his knowledge, of the situation, could not be signed today. Twenty-three of the signers did not reply to Dr. Wehberg's inquiry.

Every woman will be interested in seeing Claude Tunstall's display of Coat Suits, Dresses and Furs in White's Theatre tonight.
