

CLAIMS CARRANZA OFFICERS BACKED LEADING RADICALS

Evidence Secured by Senate Shows They Supported Bolsheviki Element.

STATE DRAFT EVADERS IMPLICATED IN ISSUE

Two Hundred Witnesses Summoned Before Senate Committee

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 12.—Information regarded by government agents as evidence that Carranza government officials are countenancing a plan to establish a bolsheviki regime in Mexico and that the radical program is supported largely by American army draft evaders will be given to the Senate subcommittee investigating Mexican affairs at hearings here this week. Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, chairman of the committee, is expected to arrive tomorrow. Summonses for over 200 witnesses have been issued.

Not all the testimony offered will be unfavorable to the present Mexican administration. Supporters of the Carranza government have placed before the committee the names of many who, they assert, will be able to counter at least some of the statements of special investigators, refugees and ordinary observers. It is expected much time will be given by the committee to an investigation of radicalism as it is manifested now in Mexico and to the existing conditions and relations of the government of Mexico and the United States.

Assertions that Americans who fled to Mexico to escape the draft are implicated in the plan to bring Mexico under the rule of the radicals are based on statements published in the official organ of the communist party in Mexico. American government records and reports of special agents tend to support the statements. According to the Mexican published boast, 30,000 Americans escaped service in the army by flight to Mexico. Most of them have returned to the United States but many remain and the names of a few have appeared in the literature of the Communist and I. W. W. organs as actively engaged in furthering the cause of radicalism.

Documents which will be placed before the committee include the organization of the Communist party of Mexico. The international secretary is George Barreda.

The investigation of radicalism in Mexico has shown it to be widespread, according to government agents. Dr. Atl, an agitator of the early days of Carranza's administration, has appeared in Sonora where, according to American government reports, a co-worker named Lenin, who says he is a cousin of the Russian leader, has been urging workmen to organize for the day when they will drive all foreigners across the border into the United States.

Following is an "appeal," in part, recently published in Mexico by the Communist party and which will be submitted to the committee:

"The Communist party of Mexico appeals to the Communist and left wing Socialist parties of the world.

"The worst bandits in the world—the bandits of internationalism—have been trying for many months to start war between the United States and Mexico.

"Prevent a declaration of war if you can. If you cannot prevent the declaration prevent the consummation. Refuse to fight. Get others to do the same. Without workers to do the master's vile bidding, without soldiers to obey the brutal orders, there can be no war. Act now. Agitate, write, speak, publish, and strike. Communicate with us to ways and means."

Messrs. Flanagan & Evans have moved their law office from Fifth street to Fourth street in the building adjoining Dr. Nobles.

LOCAL BOY KILLED BY SPEEDING AUTO SATURDAY EVENING

Phillip Jefferson Dies Two Hours After Being Struck on Dickinson Ave.

FRIEND MAKES VALIANT EFFORT TO RESCUE HIM

Driver Dimmed Lights and Speeded Up Car, Making Good His Escape.

Phillip Jefferson, 20 years of age, son of Mrs. Ella Jefferson, of Fifth street this city, died at the home of his mother shortly after nine o'clock last Saturday night after being run down by a speeding automobile, on Dickinson avenue, driven by an unknown person, who instead of stopping and ascertaining the extent of the young man's injuries, dimmed both front and rear lights and speeded up the car before being recognized by those witnessing the accident. Pete Gross, a friend of young Jefferson was with him at the time of the accident, and narrowly escaped injuries in an endeavor to drag his friend from the front of the car.

Young Jefferson was rushed to the home of his mother immediately following the accident and regardless of every medical aid, died in an unconscious condition two hours later from a hemorrhage of the lung. The young fellow's body was badly injured, according to physicians in attendance, and while everything was done to alleviate the intense agony caused by internal injuries, a broken collar bone, fractured skull and severe injuries to the lung and other organs precipitated his death.

WAR INSURANCE IS LATELY INCREASED THRU SWEET BILL

Monthly Benefits and Beneficiaries Enlarged by Passage of Issue.

Washington, Jan. 12.—How monthly benefits paid under the War Risk Insurance act have been increased and the class of beneficiaries enlarged by the recently enacted Sweet bill was explained today by its author, Representative Sweet, of Iowa.

Converted insurance may now be paid in a lump sum or in installments for 36 months or more at the option of the policyholder, Mr. Sweet said, while the policies may be made payable to any of the following:

Parent, grandparent, step-parent, parent through adoption, husband, wife, child, grandchild, stepchild, adopted child, brother, sister, half-sister, half-brother, brother through adoption, stepmother, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, any person who was in the relation of a parent to the insured for one year before the insured's enlistment, the children of such person, and parent through adoption of the insured's wife or husband.

"The monthly compensation paid under the new law," said Mr. Sweet, "is more than double—almost treble—that paid in the past. This increase, which is permanent, will add $80,000,000 a year to the amounts paid by the government to the disabled ex-service men and their families.

"By the retroactive provisions of the law, all payments of compensation will be increased to the new basis. Payments now being made by the War Risk Bureau to make up the difference between the old rate of compensation and the new one. This is an immediate and direct benefit to 822 veterans, among whom $14,500,000 is being distributed. For instance drawing $30 a month for the last year will receive $6000 at once, the monthly compensation by the new law being increased by $50 in his case."

INDIANS IN MEXICO COMPLETE PAYING HOMAGE TO SAINT

Fifty Thousand Indians From All Parts Mexico Attend Celebrations.

CEREMONY MARKED 388TH TRADITIONAL OCCURENCE

Manifestation Has Resulted in Conversation of Several Thousand Indians.

Guadalupe, Mexico, Jan. 12.—Fifty thousand Indians from all parts of Mexico have just completed their week of homage to their patron saint the Virgin of Guadalupe and their pilgrimage to the shrine of the Virgin here, as sacred a journey as ever was made by Mohammedans to Mecca or Hindus to the river Ganges.

This ceremony marks the 388th anniversary of the traditional divine manifestation which resulted in the conversion to Christianity of virtually all Indians in Mexico and led to the erection here of a magnificent cathedral chapel and the shrine. It has been a week of prayer, church-going and fiestas for the Indians.

The incident from which the ceremony had its origin transpired, according to tradition, in 1531 when an Indian is said to have met on the present site of Guadalupe village the apparition of the Blessed Virgin who imprinted her image upon the cloth jerkin the Indian was wearing. This miracle impressed the Indians that a shrine was erected here and later the cathedral and chapel. Through the succeeding centuries, this has been the Mecca to which nearly all Indians of Mexico turn for the one week during the year.

The jerkin bearing the imprint is still preserved in the shrine, encased in silver, gold and gems.

"Guadalupe Days," as the celebration is called, is a strange combination of devotion and unbridled hilarity on the part of the Indians. Guadalupe is within easy access from Mexico City and the festival always attracts many foreign spectators from the capital.

TARBORO MINISTER CONDUCTS VESPER SERVICES SUNDAY

Rev. R. A. Lapsley Conducted Exercises at Training School Last Night.

The Y. W. C. A. was fortunate in having Rev. R. A. Lapsley, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Tarboro, to conduct their Vesper services on Sunday evening. He chose "The Woman Mary," as his subject. He showed her at Jesus's feet, first as a learner of spiritual things, next as a mourner she comes to him for comfort and last as a servant, willing and anxious to serve. She gave her best to the master. He exhorted the young women to follow her example, and held forth the promise that they would be happier by giving their best to Christ. His message was delivered with force and charm.

The special music was a piano solo by Miss Alice Best and a special number by the choir.

NUMBERS OF DEATHS ARE REPORTED BY MEXICO CITY

Mexico City, Jan. 12.—Flames still are being omitted from the new volcano at San Miguel, the volcanic dust floating twenty miles. Refugees tell of numerous deaths reported from Coahuila. The report says that 72 deaths and almost all buildings at Jalapa have been damaged. Relief measures are progressing very rapidly, it is stated.

Mr. C. S. Carr, of Norfolk, is visiting relatives in this city.

NEGRO IS THROWN OFF RIVER BRIDGE IN AUTO COLLISION

Jim Carr Thrown from Buggy Over Bridge Railing, Sustaining Injuries.

BUGGY BADLY SMASHED BUT AUTO UNINJURED

Vehicles Come in Contact at Northern End of Bridge Saturday Night.

An automobile driven by Roy Faithful, a young white man of the Bethel district, collided with a horse and buggy driven by Jim Carr, colored, on the northern end of the river bridge Saturday night, resulting in Carr being precipitated over the railing of the bridge to the ground fifteen feet below, sustaining a dislocated hip and other injuries from which he is not expected to recover. The buggy was badly smashed up, but the horse escaped without being injured to any great extent. Mr. Faithful was not injured and the car was only slightly damaged.

From all information obtainable, it is stated that Carr was driving his horse over the bridge at a reckless speed, the buggy swerving from one side to the other, affording little space for another vehicle to pass without striking some part of the outfit in some way. The automobile came in contact with the horse and buggy a short distance from the end of the bridge, the momentum of the compact causing Carr to lose his balance being thrown over the railing to the ground below.

So far no arrest has taken place, and no information has been secured as to whether Carr was under the influence of whiskey. From all available evidence he was entirely in fault, as the automobile could not possibly have passed without coming in contact with the buggy. It is believed that lack of sufficient light probably prevented the driver of the automobile from stopping in time to prevent the accident.

Carr was rushed to physicians in this city and received every medical aid, and while there were little prospects of his recovery at the time, it is now thought he will survive, although chances are slight.

SEDITION WILL BE FULLY DEALT WITH IN UNITED STATES

House Judiciary Committee Agrees Upon Bill Similar to Senate Issue.

BOLSHEVIKI ELEMENT TO RECEIVE ALL ATTENTION

Activities Against Government Will be Include in Death Penalties.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Speedy enactment of a stringent sedition bill by congress was preaged today when following passage yesterday in the senate of the Sterling bill, announcement was made that the house judiciary committee had reached an agreement upon a similar measure and probably would report it tomorrow. One of the purpose of the bill was said to be eradication of "parlor Bolsheviki."

The house measure, a combination of Attorney General Palmer original bill introduced by Representative Davey of Ohio, and revisions made by Representative Graham, of Pennsylvania, contains extremely stringent penalties for violations of the sedition laws. Included is the death penalty, which the bill would have inflicted, upon the recommendation of a jury, on persons whose activities against the government lead to destruction of life.

The measure also would close the mails and express companies, to seditious literature, prohibit the exhibition of the red flag in connection with mass meetings, deny persons the right to refuse to give testimony on the ground that it might tend to incriminate them, and provide in certain cases for disenfranchisement and deportations.

The section of the measure, which provides for the death penalty, follows: "That whoever invites, sets on foot, assists, or engages in any insurrection or rebellion against the United States or the authority or laws thereof or whoever sets on foot or assists or engages in the use of force or violence with intent to destroy or cause to be destroyed or change or cause to be changed or to overthrow or cause to be overthrown the government of the United States and the death of any person or persons is caused or results directly therefrom, shall be guilty of a felony and on conviction shall be punished by death or shall be imprisoned not more than 20 years or fined not more than $20,000 or both, and shall forever be debarred from holding office under the United States: Provided, however, that the death penalty shall not be imposed unless recommended in the verdict of the jury."

Other sections of the measure would prohibit any person using any "writing, printing or any sign, symbol or caricature with the purpose of resisting or destroying the government of the United States or the governments of the several states, the distribution, writing, printing, publishing or transporting of seditious matter, the importation or transportation between states of seditious matter."

Measures to combat seditious organizations also are included. All such organizations teaching the use of force against the government are declared to be unlawful and persons would be prohibited from engaging in their activities, contributing money to them, or even renting their property in which to carry on their work. The "giving, loaning or promising of anything of value" to such organizations is declared to constitute affiliation with such associations.

Miss Leah Hines, and Mrs. Oscar Greene, of Kingston are visiting relatives in this city.

MONDAY, JAN. 12TH, 1920.

QUESTION NO. 20.

What Pitt county newspaper has for thirty-eight years been a favorite paper with the good women of the county, not only because it gave them the social news, the club news, and other interesting matter they wanted to read, but also that they have recognized it as a clean, reliable family newspaper, always fit for themselves and their children to read? Ask Mrs. R. R. Udden, the first president of a Pitt county woman's club.

If this is not made the best year: Greenville and Pitt county ever had, whose fault will it be?

Whenever a fellow's ability is recognized through the cold cash way, then, of course, satisfaction is general.

Greenville appears to have designated "success" as its goal of endeavor in bringing about the establishment of Chowan College here.

Travelers report that the German government has been overthrown. That should have been long before this time.

The tariff commission declares America uses more cotton than any other country, but even then we are not soft enough to stop producing.

The fact that North Carolina is suffering from poorly paid teachers is nearly as bad as suffering from an epidemic of influenza. The effect will be similar in the long run.

"Billy Sunday" appears to be waking things up in Norfolk. At least, he has gone so far as to say Virginians are history-makers. And naturally "Billy" ought to know.

The difference between "dissatisfied and lukewarm Democrats" is in the former having an ax to grind and the latter wanting to do some splitting after he has been to the grindstone.

Gas and oil prices have taken another jump. Possibly many automobilists will feel like disposing of all rolling stock on hand if this should continue for several successive times in the future.

The United States leads the world in pig iron output, according to the National Bank of Commerce of New York. If she can do that good looks like we might lead the world in scaring away radicals.

The tragic death of a young man Saturday night by being run down on our streets by a speeding automobile, is what this paper has predicted would come if reckless driving was not checked. Until the authorities exercise such vigilance as will cause the arrest and punishment of every automobile driver, regardless of who it may be, who is seen exceeding the limit of the speed law, tragedies may be looked for.

AUSPICIOUS INTERFERENCE.

Although the difference of opinion between Mr. Bryan and President Wilson regarding the treaty of peace has created more than general interest in various parts of the country, it is hardly believable that anything serious will result from the occurrence, either now or in the future. The position taken by the former speaker of the senate might have been justifiable, or fair to himself, under ordinary circumstances, but it is indubitably plain that regardless of persuasion from influential source some few people are going to give the president the bitter gall to swallow while Mr. Bryan will gain greater notoriety.

The peace treaty and league of nations have been assailed from many different sources that it is rather a difficult matter for the general run of American people to keep fully enlightened as to every detail, but to those who need not doubt the president through knowledge of severe opposition, feel perfectly safe in following him it matters not which way the tide of public sentiment may swerve. Being the leader of the party, naturally the president's argument concerning every issue at hand should have great weight, but since his return from Europe opposing elements have waged such unremitting campaigns against everything nearest the executive heart that at times they get results, although not with the public.

Every political party must have its followers, and every party must have within its ranks a certain number of fellows always ready to doubt the indisputable for the sake of mere argument. This may have been the case with Mr. Bryan. But whether it was or not, it is safe to say there are an innumerable number of luke-warm Democrats who persistently acknowledge that the league and treaty situation is as stated. They cannot be counted as opponents; no one would ever designate William Jennings Bryan as being an opponent to anything vital to his country, but in this instance, it must be admitted that he has fallen short of Democratic serenity of thought.

Senate leaders predict nothing serious will come of the split between two of the most powerful leaders of the party. And this may be so, but it would be contrary to logical reasoning to expect that opposition such as Mr. Bryan's, within his own camp, will not eventually have an effect very undesirable indeed. The situation only can be sustained in one way, and that is for faithful followers of the president to rally solidly behind him in the future, and regardless of conflicting thoughts, do by him and the country as he has done by one of the greatest nation's on earth throughout his administration.

The future is solely dependent upon action of Democratic leaders, and if they stand firmly behind the issues of the party, of which the president is a resolute, determined exponent, there is little fear but that the peace treaty and league of nations will play an ascendant part in America as in other nations belonging to the alliance. The split was an unfortunate occurrence, but it can be made an auspicious one if present day doubters are drawn closer within the ranks of Democracy through experience gained by differences of opinion recently expressed by national leaders.

KEEPING UP THEIR INSURANCE.

The government, through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, wrote approximately $40,000,000,000 of insurance upon the lives of more than 4,500,000 service men and women. This is a larger volume of insurance than is in force in the old-time insurance companies in the United States. Approximately 90 per cent of the men in active service during the war were protected by War Risk Insurance, and the average protection was $8,700.

While the men were in the service it was easy to collect the insurance premiums by deducting the amount due each month from their pay. Now the men have to look after the payment of their own premiums, and the situation is further complicated by reason of the fact that the addresses of hundreds of thousands of them are no longer known to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. Col. R. G. Cholmeley-Jones, Director of the Bureau, does not consider it surprising that so many former service men have not continued to make regular monthly payments of their War Risk Insurance premiums. He says:

"In the first place, very few of them realize that the government insurance, as well as compensation and allotments and allowances, is paid by the Treasury Department through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance; neither do they realize that after their discharge from active service their checks or money orders for insurance premiums should be made payable to 'The Treasurer of the United States, and sent to Premium Receipt Section, Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C. Again, it will take considerable time for the former service men to get on their feet and get their bearings, even though they are healthy and strong. Many have not yet decided into that business activity they will enter or even where they intend ultimately to live. Lots of boys from the farms will locate in cities and many city boys may move into the country. In the interim isn't it too much to expect that the matter of payment.

William Jennings Bryan has a peculiar way of disturbing things. Think of a man toting his grievances around for several months just to have the satisfaction of springing them on the public in a time when "bad politics" and alien enemies are doing their worst.

Labor problems and the newsprint situation is one of the principal issues of the North Carolina Press Association in session in Greensboro, today. And if the boys solve these two matters they've certainly accomplished enough to retire them from service with honors.

Germany at last has signed the protocol which establishes peace-time relations with allied powers. However, reports from Paris appear to indicate that the Boche has made no move since ratification to resume peace relations with France. More definite action must come and Germany will find that it will be safe to become peaceful and reconciled, anyhow.

New Bern aldermen installed time clocks and passed an order that police officers should punch the clocks at regular intervals. The police made a protest against the clocks and threatened to resign. In other words the police are in the class who do not want it known how little they are on the job. If marriages are made in heaven, the shipping clerk makes some awful blunders.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

To Our Customers and Friends

We take this method of announcing to you that we have sold our business, which for twenty-five years, we have been conducting in the town of Greenville. We want to thank you for your valued patronage of the years past and assure you that your faithful and loyal co-operation has been highly appreciated by us at all times. The business will be conducted under the name of The Blount-Harvey Co. Mr. Harvey is a very prominent business man of Kinston, N. C., and for many years has conducted a most successful business there. Mr. M. O. Blount needs no introduction to Pitt County people. He is a member of the Board of Education, and has for twenty-five years been a leading merchant at Bethel, in this county. Besides these, many of the leading men of Greenville have taken stock in the concern, among whom is Mr. E. B. Ficklen, president of the E. B. Ficklen Tobacco Co. We feel perfectly safe in transferring your interest into the hands of these gentlemen, for we believe that they will be cared for in the same manner in which we have always endeavored to do it. They have our entire good will, and we trust that you will give them the same unfailing co-operation which you have for so long shown us.

Yours very truly,

DR. DUNN RAPIDLY GAINING FAME

Well Known Osteopath is Making
Some Wonderful Cures.

Dr. Dunn has just completed a wonderful year for himself.

Of nine and one-half years' practice he has just had his best year, and had about all the work he could attend to, and he is thinking seriously of getting an assistant. Dr. Dunn has in the past made reputation as examiner, making more examinations than any doctor in North Carolina, examining for eight large insurance companies, and up to recently he examined practically all over the Eastern part of the state, for one Company. In 1917 Dr. Dunn went to Chicago to learn a Bupture Cure, and he has been making a speciality of that work since.

He was doing very well with that up to the time he had to break up to go to the army. Since his return he has been very busy. He had planned to go to Philadelphia to live last September knowing full well that he could get more work in a large city, and he was going but the Doctor who had promised him to come and take his work here failed him, and Dr. Dunn figured that he had too much work to give up here. He also says that he knows that there are plenty of people in the eastern part of the State alone who needs his treatment, and will take it when they learn of it, they would all come. Dr. Dunn still intends to go to Philadelphia some day, but he doesn't know just when, and he expects it will be some time off, perhaps next fall, provided he can get some doctor to take his work here. As it is though, Dr. Dunn is fast gaining reputation, and is becoming known all over the state as a specialist.

He has had a patient from Black Mountain, and two from the coast and straight below Morehead, and he is expecting a patient this week from Norfolk. So it looks to us like he is making such a reputation and getting so much work to do that he will not be able to move away, and we hope that this will be the case; and we wish him a better year in 1920. Adv.
