

SIMS IS BRANDED AS SUPER EGOTIST IN AMERICAN NAVY

Congressman Byrnes, of South Carolina, denounced Attitude of Officer.

SAYS ADMIRAL THOUGHT PERSHING WOULD FAIL

Assignment to England by Secretary Daniels Considered Big Mistake.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—Brand- ing Admiral Sims as a "super egotist" and declaring in dramatic style that the lone mistake of Josephus Daniels as Secretary of the Navy was the assign- ment of Sims to England in a confi- dential capacity, Representative James F. Byrnes, of the second South Caro- lina district, today denounced that naval officer on the floor of the House of Representatives and insisted that if he revealed confidential instructions of a superior officer he should be given a dishonorable discharge from the navy.

By far more startling than the Sims fiasco a few days ago when he chestily told the senate that he was cautioned not to let the British pull the wool over his eyes was the revelation by Representative Byrnes of the admiral's libel of the American army and his de- preciation of the navy at the most crit- ical stage of the war.

"While in Paris on October 30, 1918," said Mr. Byrnes, "Admiral Sims told Representatives Glass, of Virginia; Whaley, of South Carolina, and me that the armistice asked for the enemy would have to be granted because of the failure of Pershing to break through the German ranks due to disas- trous breakdown in transportation behind the American lines.

"With pathos in his voice," contin- ued the South Carolina member, the gal- leries in the meantime rapidly filling, "he pictured this failure of the army at a critical moment. We visited the headquarters of the service and supplies and found that only a few days pre- vious Pershing had written the S. O. S. congratulating them upon their won- derful work in supplying the forces in the field. His statement was false and for his inexcusable slander he must an- swer to the American toughboys."

That the Admiral depreciated the work of the navy, Representative By- rnes conclusively showed by reading from a copy of the London Times, of October 11, 1918, quotations from a Sims speech delivered the day previous at the Criterion Restaurant:

"Another idea was some times in the American mind, that the American navy had been doing the bulk of the business over here, at least a half. That was not correct. There were about 5,000 anti-submarine craft operating day and night and the American craft numbered 100, or three per cent.

Again, according to the London paper, Admiral Sims said: "Americans seem to regard it as a miracle that they had gotten a million and a half troops over here in a few months and had protected them on the way. We didn't do that. Great Britain did."

"This same speech" said Mr. Byrnes, "he made day after day. He made it to us in Paris and again when we saw him in London. It was false from the beginning to end. Records of his office show that instead of there being 5,000 anti-submarine craft engaged there were not more than 2,000 that could properly be so described. He counted every English bottom afloat in order to decrease the American percentage."

"The statement that Great Britain did that, was false," declared Mr. By- rnes, reading into the record depart- ment figures showing that the American Navy carried 40.25 per cent of the American troops overseas.

CHANGE IN TENNIS RULES METS WITH DIRECT OPPOSITION

Changes Proposed by National Association Not Approved by President.

PREFERS CONSULTATION WITH LEADING PLAYERS

Robert Wrenn, Former Presi- dent, Also Opposes Change in Present Rules.

New York, Jan. 28.—Opposition to changes in the playing rules proposed for action at the annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Ten- nis Association in this city February 6, is expressed by George T. Adee, the association's president. While he doubts the wisdom of some of the changes themselves, his principal objection is based upon his belief that such changes should be made only after con- sultation with the other tennis play- ing countries of the world. The resump- tion of international tennis in 1920, with the prospect of increased activity in coming seasons, emphasizes the desirability of having uniform playing rules, and, in Mr. Adee's judgment, makes it extremely unwise for the United States to make the changes proposed now.

In this belief he is supported by Robert D. Wrenn, former president of the association. Mr. Wrenn, besides pointing out defects in the proposals, also recognizes the importance of uni- form rules for international play. He thinks it would be a "grave error" to change the rules in the United States without consulting the tennis associa- tions of other countries.

So far as the rules are concerned, the principal objections relate to the

WILSON WINS OUT OVER GREENVILLE BASKETBALL TEAM

High School Team of that Place Beats Greenville by a Score of 44 to 22

Last Friday night the Greenville High School Basket Ball team was de- feated by the Wilson High School team the score being 44 to 22. The game was not really so one sided as the score would seem to indicate. The locals put up a strong fight but they were out- weighed twenty-five pounds to the man. The Wilson team was also a good deal taller and these handicaps were too great for the local team to overcome.

There are two games scheduled for this week on the local court at For- bes and Morton's warehouse. One on Friday night with Rocky Mount and one on Saturday night with Washing- ton.

Rocky Mount was defeated by Wil- son by about the same score that Wil- son defeated Greenville. So, if com- parative score count for anything the teams are about on a par. However, the Rocky Mount team has suffered more defeats during the present season than the Greenville team has. Then too, the team playing on its home court has the advantage always. Hence Greenville can be safely picked for a winner on Friday night against Rocky Mount.

On Saturday night the locals will play Washington. One game has al- ready been played between these two teams this season. Greenville winning by a score of 31 to 17. However, Washington has strengthened its team and so a close contest is expected.

Both games will be played at Forbes and Morton warehouse on Dickinson avenue at 7:30 P. M. Skating after the game.

The local squad is composed of the following: Hadley, Bryan, Gaskins, Brown, W.; Brown, M.; Barber, White, West, Lewis, Taylor, Whedbee, Parkerson.

GENERAL PULTNEY APPOINTED USHER THRU KING GEORGE

Appointment Follows in the Wake of Resignation by Henry Stephenson.

$1000 YEAR SALARY AND NOTHING TO DO

Situation is Purely Ornamental With Nothing to do But Draw Pay.

London, Jan. 28.—King George has appointed Lieutenant General Sir W. P. Pultney, as Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod in succession to the late Admiral Sir Henry F. Stephenson. The office is one of those purely ornamental ones which are rather numerous in this country. "Black Rod," as he is called for short, has nothing to do and gets $1,000 a year for doing it, and a suite of apartments, rent free, in the house of Lords.

He is a glorieux messenger of the hereditary legislators. When on duty he is gorgeously attired in court costume with knee breeches and a plumed cocked hat and a dandy little sword by his side. The emblem of his au- thority is an ebony wand but he never does anything with it.

When members of the House of Com- mons are summoned to the house of Lords to hear speeches from the throne or the royal assent given to acts that have been passed, Black Rod, enters the upper house and makes his way to the "woolsack" on which sits the robed and wigged Lord Chancellor. He is told to inform the members of the house of commons that they are want- ed. Then he has to walk half way to the door backwards, making a bow at every few steps and looking very sole- (Continued on page four.)

ANNUAL GAMES OF BASKETBALL WILL OCCUR THIS YEAR

University Announces that Usual Annual Contests Will be Played.

FINAL GAME TO OCCUR IN BYNUM GYMNASIUM

Teams Eligible for Champion- ship Games Must Have Three Games to Credit

Chapel Hill, N. C., Jan. 28. — An- nouncement has been made at the Uni- versity of North Carolina that the sixth annual state championship con- test in basketball for North Carolina high schools will be held this year, with the final game between the cham- pions of the past and of the west to be played in Bynum Gymnasium in March. The contest will be held under the aus- pices of the bureau of extension and the athletic association of the Uni- versity. The committee in charge is com- posed of N. W. Walker, E. R. Rankin, C. T. Woolen, Lester E. Bond and Joe Person.

Teams eligible for the championship series, Mr. Rankin said, included those which by Feb. 21 shall have won three games from teams of equal rank, or if more than three games have been played, shall have won three-fourths of the contests played. After Feb. 23 Mr. Rankin will meet with the eligible teams of the eastern part of the State further elimination games to determine the champions of the east. The same procedure will be followed in the west and the final game for the state cham- pionship will be played in Chapel Hill between the sectional champions. The committee pays half the railroad fare of the teams coming to Chapel Hill for the championship game and provides entertainment.

Winston-Salem won the first State state championship arranged by the University in 1915. Since then Dur- ham and Winston-Salem have alternat- ed each year, with Winston-Salem now having the edge with three victories to Durham's two.

EXPLORER DECIDES TO GIVE UP PLANS TO REACH OCEANS

Joseph Bernard for Three years Has Defied Ice to Force Way Across.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 28.—Joseph F. Bernard, explorer and former resi- dent of Los Angeles, is returning from the North American Channel, accord- ing to word just received here, after an unsuccessful effort for three years to force his way from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean, north of the American continent.

Bernard has twice defied the ice fields in a ten ton schooner, the Teddy Bear, accompanied by only one man. On his first trip in 1908 he went to the Siberian coast and was absent for nearly five years. His assistant died on this voyage and the explorer sailed his boat to the ice fields alone.

In 1916 he again sailed north in the Teddy Bear this time in the hope of drifting from the Pacific to the Atlan- tic. Recently David H. Hurley, a friend of Bernard here received word that the Teddy Bear had been cited by natives near Banksland and that Bernard was once again headed south apparently unable to negotiate the passage be- tween the two oceans.

TERRE HAUTE TRIBUTE COMMENTS FAVORABLY

Members of Company Hail From all Sections of the United States.

Ed. Hearne, of our city, son of Mrs. R. M. Hearne is now on tour of the principle cities of the United States and Canada and is with one of the big- gest vaudeville acts in America play- ing only the very best houses as a headline attraction. The following article was taken from the Terre Haute Tribune, Terre Haute, Indiana dated Jan. 1920.

"Gobs from Everything." The "Girlie Gobs" in "Every Sailor" the World, and very entertaining musical burletta which closes the show at the Hippodrome, hail from all parts of the country. Harry Downing, the "Leading Lady" of the troupe, who was aboard the Covington when that ship was torpedoed off the Irish coast, en- listed in the navy from Boston. Roy Lloyd, the manager, is from Minnea- polis, Al Van Lant was in Ume, Alaska when the United States entered the war; and he joined the colors via the navy—Ed Hearne heard the call in his North Carolina home, Eddy Castello and Matty Rowland hail from Brook- lyn, Francis Schultz from Connecticut, Emie McGaffery from Detroit, Kyrie Goble from New Jersey, Taek Kelly from California and Howard Roe from Georgia—one of the prized mementoes of the trip the boys made aboard the George Washington is a program au- tographed by President and Mrs. Wil- son. Eddie Hearne has a personal let- ter of congratulations from General Pershing.

GERMAN EMPEROR NOT WITHOUT BIG NUMBER OF PALS

Former Kaiser of Germany Has Several Friends in Ameri- can Occupied Area.

With the American Forces in Ger- many, Jan. 28.—The former German Emperor is not without his friends in the American occupied area in the Rhineland. A motion recently propos- ed by a Social Democrat in the city council of Coblenz to oust from the council chamber a bust of Wilhelm II which had stood in the hall for years was defeated overwhelmingly.

The Social Democrat who introduc- ed the motion said: "It is our firm conviction that man who has so tramp- led upon the honor and duty of his people and of his own code can no longer have a place among us."

Opposition was immediate from spokesmen of several parties. View ranged from a declaration of allegiance by a Nationalist speaker to the opinion of the Greber party leader that at least the bust was worth while historically. And so the former Emperor's bust, as in the past continues to watch over council sessions of the city fathers of Coblenz from its pedestal in the most prominent part of the great room be- neath which is the billeting office of the American forces in Germany.

ONE MORE LEASE OF LIFE IN TREATY FIGHT IS EVIDENT

Compromise Negotiations Will Be Taken Up by Senate Committee Thursday

DEMOCRATS SUDDENLY CHANGE THE OFFENSIVE

Republican Refusal to Compro- mise Brings on Other Things of Interest

Washington, Jan. 28.—Peace treaty compromise negotiations hovering on the verge of dissolution were given to- day a new 48-hour lease on life. But there was nothing in the development which changed the pessimistic view of senate leaders as to the final outcome.

The Democrats, replying to the Re- publican refusal to compromise on ar- ticle Ten and the Monroe Doctrine, charged at a stormy session of the bi- partisan compromise conference that Re- publican leaders had suddenly chang- ed front after most of the conferees had consented to an Article Ten com- promise in definite form. To this the Republicans opposed a categorical de- nial, declaring no one at all had agreed to the proposed compromise draft.

After two hours of wrangling, during which the Democrats threatened to transfer the whole subject to the open senate, the conference agreed to meet again Thursday in another effort to bring the negotiation to a successful conclusion.

A few senators professed to see some ray of hope in the situation but to most of the leaders the outlook appeared far from promising.

Numerous private conferences on both sides followed with the leaders feel- ing out sentiment carefully as they ap- proached the final showdown, that may come at Thursday's meeting. In some quarters it was believed that in the interval President Wilson would take a hand to stiffen the resistance of the Democrats but White House officials were silent and Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, the acting Democratic leader of the senate, declared he was proceeding without knowledge of the President's views on the specific com- promise reservation discussed.

During the day a plea for imme- diate ratification either with or with- out reservations, was presented to Senators Wadsworth and Calder, of New York, by a delegation from New York City, headed by William Church Osborne and representing the League to Enforce Peace, the League of Na- tions Association, the New York Fed- eration of Churches, farm organizations the State Chamber of Commerce of New York and Daughters of the Ameri- can Revolution. Spokesmen for the delegation expressed the belief that the time was ripe for composition of dif- ferences over the treaty.

The whole treaty negotiations, it was said by Senate leaders, were hung up on Article Ten and the Monroe Doc- trine, tentative agreement having been reached on all other points of differ- ence. Some of the Republican reserva- tions, it was declared, had been accept- ed without changes by the Democrats, while numerous changes of wording had been made in others, an dtwo of them had been rewritten entirely. It was emphasized, however, that the conferees on both sides were acting only in an advisory way, and that their decisions demand no one.

About
Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. QUESTION NO. 32.

What Pitt county newspaper went for thirty-eight years without changing its subscription price, though it was worth more all the time? And now that the high cost of production makes it necessary to advance the price, who can say it is not the best paper for the money that can be had? Ask any reader.

N. B.—All who want to take advantage of paying a year in advance at the old price should be quick about it, as it is going to $4 on April 1st. Well worth it, too.

If Bill Hohenzollern were in Belgium the supreme council could bet its last dollar on his future.

The farmers who look well to raising plenty of grain and meet this year will have the safest feeling next fall.

Prohibition opponents may prate about the unfairness of the dry atmosphere, but, them, better days are in store—in Cuba.

It's just about time for base ball enthusiasts to start the ball rolling in this section of the state. But, more so, in this city.

The weather man probably did his best for us in the past, but he's certainly making a mighty poor attempt in our favor just now.

After the senate really gets through talking about the peace treaty the allies no doubt will be ready to begin another war.

Congress seems to have drifted entirely away from matters affecting the interests of the country, and is only playing politics.

Help Greenville go forward by boosting its chamber of commerce—one of the dominant factors to community progress.

With the hotels full every night and people having to be turned away, it becomes more evident that Greenville is in need of more housing room.

Of course it cannot be known in advance what population figures the census is going to disclose; but when the count is made up Greenville is going to have her share of folks.

Dr. Rupert Blue has retired as head of the public health service of the country. The change is sudden, but it is to be hoped the successor will not be a Red.

LATIN AMERICAN TRADE.

The foreign commerce of our Latin American neighbors aggregated nearly or quite $5,000,000,000 in 1919 against slightly less than $3,000,000,000 in 1913. Their aggregate population is nearly 100,000,000, and the area of the Latin American countries $287,000 square miles.

Latin American trade during and since the war period has shown greater fluctuations, says a statement by the National City Bank of New York, than that of most other parts of the neutral world. Prior to the war the chief exports of the 20 countries so designated were coffee, cocoa, fruits, india rubber, tin, copper, nitrates, wheat, meats, wool, and sugar. The war cut off much of the European markets for the coffee and cocoa and fruits and rubber and tin, while on the other hand it increased European as well as American demands for the other products, meats, wool, sugar, copper, and nitrates. As a consequence, the grand total of exports of Latin America made but very slow growth during the first half of the war period, and the imports during that period actually declined. The total exports of the 20 countries classed as Latin America were in 1913 $1,503,000,000; in 1914 $1,552,000,000; in 1915 $1,671,000,000; and in 1917 $1,838,000,000. Then in 1918, when the ability of Argentina, Uruguay, southern Brazil, and Chile to supply meats, wool, and nitrates became fully recognized, the exports jumped to $2,378,000,000, and in the first year of peace, 1919, the continued demand for meats and wool, coupled with the great advance in prices of coffee and sugar and cocoa, brought the grand total of Latin American exports up to nearly or quite $3,000,000,000, as against $1,500,000,000 in the year preceding the war.

Thus, says the bank's statement, the exports of Latin America in the first year following the war, 1919, are about double, in stated value, those of war, 1913, or in other words, will appear the year immediately preceding the parent aggregate about $3,000,000,000 in the calendar year 1918 against $1,500,000,000 in the calendar year 1913.

Imports have shown a similar fluctuation, a decline in the opening years of the war, a slow recovery in the second half of the war, and a sharp advance in the first year of peace, 1919. The total imports of the 20 countries were $1,403,000,000 in 1913, then dropping to $978,000,000 in 1914, and $867,000,000 in 1915, advancing to $1,510,000,000 in 1918, with a probability that the 1919 totals when received will show nearly or quite $2,000,000,000, this sharp increase in 1919 being due to the increased purchasing power resulting from the high prices and popular demand for the coffee of Brazil, the sugar of Cuba, the cocoa of Ecuador, Santo Domingo and Brazil, and the wool and meats of Argentina, Uruguay and Chile.

When the United States federal court gets through with Senator Newberry he will certainly feel like that he has been through a successful probe, anyway.

The fate of compromise negotiations of the peace treaty is in doubt, according to certain news writers. No one has ever given the senate credit for being certain about the issue.

Authorities of this county have certainly taken the spirit out of the illicit whiskey traffic. Anyhow, the evidence of monkey rum is hardly what it used to be.

Wonder if members of the American Legion will favor compulsory military training. An expression along this line might be appropriate at this time owing to action in the senate.

The senate military committee favors compulsory military training for young men of this country. Or at least, it has taken steps which may eventually cause several young fellows to believe they like it anyway.

The influenza epidemic is causing no little alarm in many parts of the country just at this time, but in Greenville and Pitt county the malady has made little headway. It is to be hoped physicians may be able to hold it in check, for although in a light, mild form, the "flu" still holds inexpressible terror for lots of people.

President Wilson will ask congress to authorize a loan of one hundred and fifty million dollars to Austria, Poland and other European countries in need. And someone told us congress has been trying to cut expenses.

After the senate gets through with numerous investigations in progress in many different lines we trust no delay will be incurred in the yet to be proposed investigation of Africa's diamond production.

Slims appears to have a majority of people with him in criticising naval awards as suggested by Daniels. But the majority, you know, never has made itself apparent, only in controversy.

The suspension of certain rules regarding the sealing of whiskey on foreign vessels while in this port may cause some of the wets to become jubilant before they get a taste of first success of the decision.

Wonder what Senator Lodge eventually will be forced to do with certain reconcilable members of his party, particularly those opposed to mild reservation in the peace treaty. His recent effort to get reservations through were of such an unsuccessful nature that we are inclined to believe he will do well to abandon the treaty for a short time if no longer.

Readers of the Daily Reflector will do well to renew their subscriptions one year before the advance in subscription rates beginning April the first. New subscribers will be granted the privilege of entering their names for one year in advance, too, therefore, we feel that everyone is being given the same opportunity of enjoying a larger, better paper when contemplated improvements become effective.

THE NAPOLIANO'S DOUBLE-COLOR FOUNTAIN PENS

In this period of renewed renaissance we present to the international public our wonderful double-color fountain pens, real evolution of modern writing. We will not try to praise them or to speak at length about them, since every one may easily realize at once their merit, in knowing that they are the only ones of the kind and may be used, with the greatest advantage. We beg to thank the many newspapers, and magazine editors, who have praised our pens, describing at length their useful qualities. We are sure that no one will use any longer the one color pen, but only ours far superior to all others. It seems indeed impossible to realize that we could succeed to make such a pen, but we have truly done it, and so our double-color pens is the result. Our double-color fountain pens, are used by some of the greatest genius of the world. Gabriel D'Annunzio, the greatest poet warrior of Italy, worthy of the great, ancient genius who sang the beauty of Beatrice and of Laurice, by kings and emperors including President Wilson. They have already obtained large and splendid success in many countries and are well known to the American public. Our pens will be sent insured to all parts of the world for $5. WAR RISK INSURANCE

TILL HOLDS GOOD

To relieve any confusion that may exist in the minds of former service men on account of the special provision of lapsed war risk insurance which authorized reinstatement up to December 31, 1919, regardless of date of discharge, announcement is made by Director R. G. Cholmeley-Jones of the bureau of war risk insurance that the provision for reinstatement of lapsed or canceled insurance, within 18 months from date of discharge, upon payment of only two months' premiums on the amount of insurance to be reinstated, provided that the insured is in as good health as at the date of discharge or expiration of the grace period whichever is the later date, and so states in his application, still hold good.

The provision that discharged service men are permitted to reinstate at any time within three calendar months following the month of discharge by merely paying the two months' premiums, without making a formal application or statement as to health is also still in force.

The provisions for reinstatement do not protect a man until he actually reinstates. If he waits he may not be in as good health as he was at the time of discharge and consequently may not be able to secure reinstatement. Don't put off reinstatement. Do it now.

CHANGE IN TENNIS

new foot fault rule, scoring system and method of conducting handicap events. Their views are set forth by Mr. Ade in part as follows:

"I feel very strongly that these changes in the rules could not be adopted. The game has always been played under the present system of scoring, which is known and understood the world over. In the present system there is a distinct difference between the point score of each game and the score of the games of each set, so there is no possible chance of a misunderstanding. In the proposed system the scoring of points and of games is exactly the same, with the consequent chance of a mix-up. To my mind it is a mistake to change the traditions of any game unless there is a absolutely vital necessity for the change. The growth of tennis and the position the game has taken among the sports of the world, is proof positive no such change is necessary.

"The proposed handicapping rule would change the principle of handicap matches from the winning of sets to the winning of points. It would be impossible to tell who is ahead until the match is over.

When he arrives within a few yards of the door of the house of commons the Sergeant-at-arms of that body who is on the lookout for him, shuts the door in his face. Black Rod has to suppress his feelings and knock humbly at the door.

Then the Sergeant-at-arms opens a little panel in the door and asks him what he wants, or something to that effect, and Black Rod tells him what he already knows. Then Black Rod is admitted. This little bit of comedy is supposed to indicate that the house of commons does not take any orders from the house of Lords. Then Black Rod, with chastened mien, advances to where the speaker sits in state and in Norman French delivers his message. This is the performance he will have to go through for the first time when Parliament opens on February 10.

General Pultney has served in many campaigns, having joined the Scots Guards in 1881, and has been the recipient of a large number of honors. During the great war he commanded the Third Corps in France.

ARRIVED TO OCCUPY PULPIT
8th ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Dr. William P. Shamhart, of Petersburg, Va., has arrived in this city to occupy the pulpit of the 8th Street Christian church, it having been made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Lee Sadler. The church is indeed fortunate in securing the services of Dr. Shamhart as he has established a splendid reputation as a most able preacher of the gospel. The Christian church during the past few years has made wonderful progress in the advancement of the work of Christianity in this city, and has grown from a small to a large interested and splendid membership. Only a short while the members of the church erected one of the most beautiful houses of worship in this city. Dr. Shamhart and his family will receive a most cordial welcome to our city. They will make their home with Miss Sallie Joyner Davis on 8th street. He will preach his initial sermon Sunday morning and it is hoped that a large crowd will go out to hear him.

END OF THE CENTURY CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. Hortense Moyer delightfully entertained the End of the Century Club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Evans street. The subject for the afternoon's program was Henrik Ibsen. Mrs. Mark Quinley gave a brief sketch of Ibsen, then she told the story of and read selections from "A Doll's House" the play that was destined to carry Ibsen's name to the remotest parts of civilization. In this play was scolded the key note for the emancipation of woman.

Despite the inclemency of the weather only four of the members were absent and a large number of visitors were present. Mrs. Tom Hooker, Mrs. H. E. Austin, Miss McFayden, Mrs. John Carper, Mrs. Sam White, Mrs. Fred Forbes, Mrs. Leighton Blount, Mrs. C. A. Bowen, Mrs. Tom Moore, Mrs. George Hadley, Mrs. W. B. Lewis, Mrs. Will Bost, Mrs. Patten.

The Y. M. C. A. has received an official rating card from the bureau of records of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A., comparing the work of the local association with all the other colleges in the United States. The rating is based on thirteen different counts. On three of them, operating expenses, united war work, and community service, the local association is graded below the average of the other colleges. On ten counts it is above the average, and on four of those ten it has received the highest grade given that of any association. Those four are number of students in Bible study, number of men engaged in personal work, number of decisions for Christian life, and number of persons uniting with church as direct of association work.

CAPTAIN LYMAN A. COTTEN
PAID TRIBUTE BY THE REAR ADMIRAL WILLIAM SIMS

We are always on the lookout for anything which pays a tribute to our Pitt county boys. In a recent issue of the World's Work, Rear-Admiral Sims in an article entitled "American College Boys and sub-chasers," pays a beautiful tribute to Captain Lyman A. Cotten, the son of Col. and Mrs. R. R. Cotten of Cottontale and a native of Pitt county. Captain Cotten was during the world war commander of the flotilla of thirty-six sub-chasers stationed at Plymouth, England. The base was about one hundred yards from the monument which commemorates the sailing of the Mayflower. The chasers there kept this critical section of the English channel clear of submarines and had many very exciting contacts with the enemy. Rear Admiral Sims in the article congratulates the college boys upon the manner in which they served the country and names Capt. Cotten among one of the most efficient men during the war. He further states that when some one remarked to Capt. Cotten that the American boys would never carry a ship across the ocean, he calmly pointed to thirty-six little vessels lying at anchor in Plymouth harbor and remarked "perhaps they can't," but they have." Just such determination and grit as this won the war over submarines and gave the sub-chasers their place in the world war. Such men as Capt. Cotten is helping to put Pitt county in the ladder of progress and his county is proud of him.

BE BROUGHT TO THIS CITY FOR INTERMENT

A telegram was received by Mrs. W. B. Wilson this morning which stated that the remains of Mrs. B. L. Wilson who on last Sunday died in Baltimore after a severe attack of pneumonia, will be brought to this city for interment. It was at first decided to bury her in Baltimore, and the funeral was to have taken place this morning but for some reason it was decided that it would be better to bring her here. The remains accompanied by Mr. W. B. Wilson will reach here either tonight or tomorrow morning. Just what plans will be made for the funeral haven't been decided upon, nor will not be until Mr. Wilson's arrival.

TREATY SENT BACK FOR MORE TALKING

Irreconcilables Win Out in Clash With Senator Lodge for Reservations.

NO AGREEMENTS APPEAR POSSIBLE AT PRESENT

Democrats Are Going to Accept Gauntlet Thrown Down by Lodge Party.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The irreconcilables won in their clash with Senator Lodge over the peace treaty, and the Senator, through an ultimatum delivered to the Democratic conferees this morning, put a dampener on the hopes of the mild reservationists of his political faith. There is no agreement possible on the reservation to article Ten or on the one affecting the Monroe doctrine, the Republican leader says.

The Democrats are going to accept the gauntlet he throws down and, according to plans that were considered this afternoon, offer the reservations to the Senate tomorrow, which had been virtually agreed upon in the bipartisan conference. One of these reservations was drafted by Senator Simmons, dealing with Article Ten, and leaves to congress the preservation of "territorial integrity" so far as this guarantee requires American troops.

Senator Simmons believes there is yet hope for the treaty. He is a little disappointed that the irreconcilables kept Senator Lodge from the compromise which was almost in the hands of the Democrats. His prediction tonight is that the friends of the treaty on both sides will be able to carry a set of reservations through that will mean ratification.

"Senator Lodge informed us at the conference this morning that he would be unable to agree on anything that involved a change in the reservation to Article Ten or the Monroe doctrine," Senator Simmons said. "We had practically reached an agreement on everything else. Both these reservations, Senator Lodge said, must go as written by him."

"We had just about reached a conclusion on Article Ten when the conference adjourned Friday evening, based on a reservation drawn by myself. Under the terms of this reservation the United States would preserve the guarantees to the other nations, but would assume no obligation to employ its armed or naval forces without the consent of congress."

Senator Simmons does not feel that the ultimatum delivered to the conference committee this morning is necessarily the end of the treaty fight.

"The fate of the treaty is in the hands of the Senators who want a treaty of some kind," he said, "indicating that the Lodge ultimatum is a reflection of the sentiment of the irreconcilables and not of the mild reservationists. Senators Borah, Johnson and Reed are not willing to have the reservation of our rights to the Monroe doctrine changed in any way that might lead to ratification."

Asked as to the next move of the conference, Senator Simmons said:

"We are going to have another meeting tomorrow morning. Senator Lodge does not think the mild reservationists will agree to the modification of Article Ten. We think they will and shall test it out by submitting to the friends of the treaty on both sides the treaty with such reservations as we had about agreed upon in conference."

WHISKEY TRAFFIC IN WEST VIRGINIA

Manufacture and Sale of Moonshine Liquor Continues Extensively.

PROHIBITION OFFICERS WATCHING TERRITORIES

Officers in Many Sections Have Met With Determined Resistance from Men.

Charlestown, W. Va., Jan. 27.—The manufacture and sale of moonshine whiskey in the mountains of Southern West Virginia is claiming the close attention of W. S. Hallanan, prohibition commissioner, who with a large force of deputies continues to raid and arrest almost weekly.

There have been times in the last few weeks when the officers have met determined resistance, and already two men, Preston Mullens, an alleged moonshiner, and John D. Kennedy, a deputy sheriff, have lost their lives in the campaign.

This fight, the most serious in recent years, occurred in the Panther Creek section of McDowell county, on the Virginia border. Panther Creek, the prohibition authorities say, is one of the most active moonshining districts in state. There, according to Mr. Hallanan, have been gathered some of the most famous manufacturers of moonshine from Buchanan county, Virginia. They know all that is to be known about the industry, and some of them are famed for the qualities of their "corn liquors." Usually their stills are extremely difficult to locate, but gradually the prohibition officers are hunting them out and destroying them.

There is another kind of moonshiner in that section who is giving the officers much trouble. He makes his moonshine as quickly as possible, markets it with the least delay, and then moves his still to some other place.

The country is mountainous and rough with many fertile valleys. These valleys, the commissioner has discovered, were this year used to a large extent for the growing of sugar cane, the high prices of sugar having driven some of the old time moonshiners to producing what they needed for domestic and moonshine purposes.

Shanghai, Dec. 27.—Abolition of spheres of influence in China was recommended in a resolution adopted at a recent meeting here of the association of British Chambers of Commerce in China and Hong Kong. This association includes representatives of most important British commercial interests in the far east.

Its action is regarded here as significant because it has long been claimed that Great Britain has been able to obtain a dominant position in trade in China chiefly by reason of the vast extent of British spheres of influence, which is said to overshadow those of all other countries. The conference resolved that the time had come to reaffirm the abolition of the "open door" as an essential commercial principle and that abolition of spheres of influence should be accomplished by international agreement.

The British government was asked by the association to remit a portion of the Boxer indemnity and devote it to the education of Chinese along the British lines.

Returns in 13 years, cash.....	38,946.00
Net yearly income now.....	5,000.00
Sixty-five head pure bred cattle and 140 acre farm all from original invest- ment, besides the cash worth.....	54,000.00

Fox Brothers, of Waukesha county, Wisconsin, started 13 years ago, on a rented farm, to raise thoroughbred Guernsey Cattle. They invested $960.00 for one cow, two heifers and one bull, from this small start they have received returns of nearly $90,000.00.

We show above, from a photo, two of their present herd. They recently sold an unborn bull calf from any one of 4 cows for $600.00.

They have sold a bull for $3,200.00, a cow for $2,000.00.

There are many good breeds of cattle, Guernseys are among the best.

We are trying to show that an investment in pure cattle will pay the farmer better than any "blue sky," even if the promoter's promises would come true. Did any of them ever come true?

We have money to finance a start in pure bred cattle, but not in "promotion stock schemes." Let's talk it over.
