ANSWER WILSON'S ADRIATIC NOTE TO ARRIVE TOMORROW

Answer to Note Has Not Been Made Public But Will Rest
With Wilson.

FEELING IN LONDON STRONG AGAINST WILSON

Feeling at Italian Headquarters in London Strong Against President Wilson.

London, Feb. 17. — The American embassy is engaged tonight in coding and forwarding to Washington the reply of the supreme council to President Wilson's Adriatic note, which will be in the hands of the Washington government tomorrow.

The council made it known in its daily semi-official communication to the newspapers that it does not propose to make public the correspondence, so that the question of whether the text of the notes will be given to the world rests with President Wilson.

Since the main facts are public property, namely, that the President strongly objects to the solution of the Italian-Jugo-Slav problem by the application of the treaty of London thereto, and objects so strongly as to contemplate America's withdrawal from the Versailles compact as a possibility, and that the council objects to the re-opening of the question, the undecided point is whether the arguments exchanged shall be published while the controversy is hot on the anvil.

The statement from Washington confirming the first reports that the President had intimated that rejection of his policy might be followed by diplomatic reprisals furnished another surprise to the politicians and the public, who, out side of a small but important circle which meets twice daily in Downing street and the advisers in the confidence of this group, experienced the greater surprise because it came close on the heels of other Washington messages intimating that only America's retirement from its part in policing the Adriatic was intended.

The council issued an emphatic denial on its own behalf of French newspaper reports that it was prepared to modify and soften the first draft of the note to President Wilson by intervention exercised by Viscount Grey, Lord Robert Cecil and Austen Chamberlain chancellor of the exchequer.

The feeling at Italian headquarters in London with respect to the President's action is strong. Unofficially it is spoken of as an attack upon Italy and his memorandum is described as an ultimatum. The Italians also feel that Italy's claims to consideration for her part of the war and the sacrifice made have never been quite appreciated by her allies.

The feeling in the Jugo-Slav camp is equally strong, but has the element of elation that the Slavs have a strong champion. They feel that they are at a disadvantage because Minister Trumbitch is outside the council of the powers and like the Italians, have their own grievance in that they consider that the fact they were in the war from the start and that their country was virtually ruined is not to be given the weight it deserves.

HARDING CLUB WAS ORGANIZED LAST NIGHT IN THIS CITY

Large Number of Citizens Met
in Court House to Organize a Harding Club.

HON. H. W. WHEDBEE IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

Executive Committee Was Instructed to Prepare a Circular at Once.

A considerable number of citizens met in the court house last night to organize a Harding Club and take such steps as were deemed best to advance the candidacy of our distinguished countryman for lieutenant governor.

The meeting was called to order by ex-Judge H. W. Whedbee, was made temporary chairman, and J. A. Arthur and D. J. Whichard were elected temporary secretaries.

The court room being unheated and therefore quite uncomfortable, it was deemed best to eliminate any speech making, and on motion the meeting proceed at once to organization of the Harding Club, the following officers being elected:

President—H. W. Whedbee.
Vice President—F. G. James.
Secretary—H. A. White.

On motion the president appointed a committee—C. C. Pierce, S. J. Everett, H. A. White, K. W. Cobb and D. M. Clark—to retire and select an executive committee and a finance committee. The following were recommended and unanimously elected:

Executive committee, all of the Pitt county bar with C. C. Pierce, chairman, L. W. Tucker, K. W. Cobb, A. G. Cox, W. H. Dail, J. L. Little, E. G. Lanagan, J. T. Thorne, W. J. Boyd, J. B. W. Hadley, J. A. Stator, R. E. Lanson, D. J. Whichard, J. A. Arthur, I. H. Wright, S. B. Underwood, C. W. Wilson and J. J. Gentry.

Finance committee—F. J. Forbes, T. Moore and P. L. Clodfelter.

On motion the executive committee was instructed to prepare a circular setting forth the qualifications of Mr. Harding for lieutenant governor and end these throughout the state presenting him for nomination.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

156 NEW CASES INFLUENZA WERE REPORTED TUESDAY

Out of 156 Cases 13 Cases of Pneumonia Have Developed in County.

The largest number of cases of influenza yet reported to the county health officer were reported yesterday when the list contained one hundred and fifty-six cases. This shows that the epidemic is increasing in the county. Out of these cases, thirteen have developed into pneumonia. The report up until noon today contained only twenty-three new cases. Although things look dark, the people are still advised to be optimistic, as there is no need of alarm. Fear doesn't stop the epidemic but causes it to be worse. People are still warned of the danger and are urged to be just as careful as possible with coughing and sneezing. The epidemic is receiving the attention of physicians all over the state, and very thing known to medical science is being done to check its spread.

The smallpox epidemic seems to be well in hand and only four cases were reported yesterday.

ALLIED RATE DELIVERED.

Berlin, 17.—The allied note to Germany on the extradition question was handed to the government at noon today. In the absence of Premier Bauer, who is in the Ruhr district engaged in negotiations with the miners, the note was presented by Lord Kilmarnock, the British charge to foreign minister

HON. F. C. HARDING.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR COMPROMISE ARE IN TANGLED SHAPE

The Result Was a Muddled
Situation of Party Leaders
on Both Sides.

Washington, Feb. 17. — The peace treaty compromise negotiations got into such a tangled state today that, despite claims in some quarters that the lines on both sides are weakening, the treaty's best friends in the Senate minimized the possibilities of agreement.

"It looks as though we might come out at the same hole we went in," said Senator Hitchcock, the Democratic leader, after another effort to obtain Republican aid in modifying the Article Ten reservation adopted at the last session of congress. He added that the Republicans apparently had rejected all compromise proposals on the subject, and that he was certain the treaty never could be ratified unless they did compromise.

At the same time some Senators in the mild reservation group of Republicans indicated their belief that the Democratic proposal might command considerable Republican strength, while some Democrats predicted that enough Democrats to insure ratification would break away and vote for the Republican reservation as its stands.

The result was a muddled situation in which the party leaders on both sides appeared uncertain as to what might be the next development.

It generally was agreed, however, that there would be no show-down immediately, and that the debate which began yesterday would be permitted to run on for the present without any effort to hasten a ratification roll call.

Forty Democrats had been pledged tonight for the alternate Article Ten reservations, presented by Senators Hitchcock, and he said he hoped eventually to have the support of one or two more. It would take 49 votes to make up the simple majority here to substitute one of these reservations for the Republican draft, and to the seven or more Republican votes required for this operation fifteen more would have to be added to insure final ratification by a two-thirds vote.

It was pointed out, however, that the Republican leaders might be placed in an awkward position should a majority displace the Republican reservation with one drawn up by the Democrats. How many Republicans then would swing over on the ratification vote is problematical.

The senate made no progress today toward a vote on the first of the proposed modifications in the Republican reservations, the entire day being occupied by debate on other features of the treaty.

GREAT BRITAIN IS INDIGNANT OVER WHISKEY QUESTION

Says That Prohibition Propaganda of America is Not Desired.

London, Feb. 17.—Some British newspapers have been stirred to indignation by receipt from the United States of a report that prohibition organizations there were going to use $10,000,000 for prohibition propaganda throughout the world, but chiefly in Great Britain. A few have expressed resentment at what they characterize as outside interference with "the right of the Englishman to drink what he likes."

"A subscription to buy up the Atlantic would have as much chance of success," says the Saturday Review. "But there arises the question why, when everybody is harassed with post-war problems, we should allow our peace to be disturbed by a band of Yankee fanatics with never so many millions to scatter. It is a most unwarrantable intrusion on our domestic life at a time when we are in no mood to be trifled with."

Referring to disorders that recently attended a prohibition campaign conducted in Wales by an American the paper adds: "We really think the government might ask the permission of the permission of the Washington cabinet to repatriate these meddlesome maniacs, and to forbid, at all events for the next year or two, their landing on these shores."

The Liverpool Post, commenting on the proposed fund says: "It argues a poor appreciation of the character of the British people and of the conditions in this country that such a madcap scheme should have been evolved. Such 'pussyfoot' tactics on the scale now threatened open the door to international ill-feeling that might prove very mischievous in the present state of the world."

"America has chosen prohibition for itself. It is not absolutely inconceivable that Great Britain may some day follow the example. But it will not be as a result of American methods, the more likely effect of which might be to discredit the prohibition idea, and even to regard temperance progress as lines that are likely to appeal to the British temperament."

"We should be so much obliged if our good, kind friends in America would refrain from doing us good," says The Globe in an editorial. "Unregenerate creatures that we are, we do not like it, and we have a sort of idea that they might find enough to occupy them at home. The fox which has lost his tail is generally quite willing to assist in the decapitation of the rest. All the same we do not think the plan will be successful."

HOLLAND WILLING TO GUARD FORMER EMPEROR CLOSELY

Says She Will Not Give Up
Former German Emperor
to the Allies.

HOLLAND WILL ANSWER SECOND NOTE OF ENTENTE

Will Reiterating Her Original Position and Will Send Note to This Effect.

The Hague, Feb. 17.—Holland will answer the second note sent by the entente with regard to the status of former Emperor William by reiterating her original position, refusing to surrender him, but acquiescing in the request to guard him closely, it was declared here today.

The Dutch answer will be despatched within a few days.

Germany has been informed she may try men accused by the allies, while Holland may intern William of Hohenzollern and satisfy the allied powers. Note to this effect have been sent to Berlin and The Hague by the supreme allied council.

Trials of Germans under charges preferred by the powers will be under close surveillance of the allies, who will not waive their rights in case there is suspicion of unfairness or of a miscarriage of justice.

The powers will not intervene physically in the conduct of the cases against the accused Germans, but will leave their disposition in the hands of the supreme court at Leipzig.

Holland is rebuked for her failure to express in her first reply to the allies her disapproval of the crimes committed by the former emperor, and is reminded she must assume responsibility for Count Hohenzollern and his family and for dangerous propaganda that may be carried on from Dutch soil.

"WAACS" NO LONGER A PART OF BRITISH ARMY

London, Feb. 17.—Queen Mary's army Auxiliary Corps, known as the "Waacs," the khaki-clad army of intrepid women, who served during the war, ceased to exist as a military organization with the ending of the year.

LABOR CLAUSE OF THE RAILROAD BILL HAS BEEN REVISED

Revised So It Can Meet Such Troubles as Have Developed Recently.

Washington, Feb. 17. — Upon the signing today of the final compromise agreement on legislation for the return of the railroads to private ownership two movements for the settlement of the railway wage dispute will be under way. Coincident yesterday with the announcement that the house and senate conferees had practically re-drafted the labor section of the bill so as to provide for compulsory arbitration, Director General Hines sent a request to President Cuyler, of the Association of Railroad Executives, for a conference here with him of a committee representing the railroad corporation heads to discuss President Wilson's proposal for the creation of a joint commission to hear the union employees demands.

The railway legislation as agreed to and which the conference chairmen hoped would take shape for presentation to both the house and senate tomorrow was re-drafted so as to meet such labor troubles as developed recently through the wage demands of employees' brotherhoods. Instead of a federal board of five appointed by the president to deal finally with wage disputes the provision as re-written would create a board of nine members whose decisions would be binding. MUNFORD MAKES ANSWER TO MAYOR CLARK'S ARTICLE

Says That He Only States Facts
That Can be Proven in This Article.

OFFERED LOT AND STREET FREE TO THIS CITY

Town Has No Title to the Property as They Spurned the Offer Years Ago.

In Mayor Clark's article in yesterday's papers he invites public expressions on the matter of Carolina street. As my name was mentioned in his article as being the party who "built a house in a portion of said street" and as I took the liberty to protest as a citizen against the action of the board, in an article published in both of our daily papers of February 9th, I feel called upon to uphold my protest further and also to vindicate myself in the matter of building a house in the street as the Mayor states. In this article I am going to state only facts that can be proven and steer clear of personalities as far as possible.

When I owned the land referred to my previous article as Clark's Old Field, I tendered the Town of Greenville a deed for all the streets (including Carolina Street) laid out on that property. To make possible the extension of Carolina Street, to Clark Street, I purchased from Mr. Oscar Hooker the Sam Bryant lot facing Clark Street and running back to that part of Carolina Street that extends from Atlantic Avenue towards Clark Street. I offered this lot, along with Carolina Street, to the town free of charge so as to make possible the continuation of Carolina Street. This offer of mine, though gratis, was turned down flat by the board of aldermen. After their action I then erected a tenant house on the lot purchased from Mr. Hooker so that the property would bring in some revenue as the board's rejection of my offer left the lot a dead loss on my hands.

Now, the Mayor undoubtedly feels that he has taken the side that what he terms is best for the public interest, but he hasn't been a citizen of this town many years, and before passing his opinion on this question it would be well for him to familiarize himself with the history of the entire affair, which is a matter of record but took place a long time before he was one of us. Now Mr. Clark, also in his article refers to King's Row. Now it looks as if our town "Pap" doesn't even know his children for there is no such street carrying with it the official designation of King's Row. He must be referring to Pamlico Avenue, which was a part of the original Clark's Old Field, and was named Pamlico Avenue long before Mrs. King purchased the property from me, and erected the houses that the name King's Row is derived from. And incidentally I might state that her deed calls for Pamlico Avenue and all city maps show Pamlico Avenue, but no such place as King's Row. With his unfamiliarity with that section of town shown, it is just as reasonable to believe that he is totally unfamiliar with the past history relative to Carolina Street.

Now the town cannot give a deed to the Imperial Tobacco Company or any one else for Carolina Street, as years ago they spurned my offer and therefore they have no title to the property. If the property owners interested in the maintenance of this street are willing for it to be closed, then I contend that that portion of Carolina Street reverts to me and not to the Town of Greenville. But my first position is for the public interest, therefore, I think the street should remain open and continued on through to Clark Street as were the original plans.

It is useless for me to comment on the rest of his article as in my article of February 9th, I stated my position clearly in the matter and I do not feel that anyone will accuse me of being an obstructionist as I am in favor of all things for the municipal benefit and industrial growth of our town.

EDITORIAL

In several towns of the State banks are falling easy victims to swindlers who are making the rounds. Everybody should be on the lookout for members of the slick profession.

Judge W. P. Stacy, of Wilmington, recently tendered his resignation as one of the superior court judges of the State, and Governor Bickett has appointed Hon. H. E. Crammer, of Southport, to succeed him.

At an election held in Missouri the other to fill a vacancy in congress, a Democrat who is an ardent advocate of the League of Nations was elected over a Republican who opposes it. This is a pretty good indication of sentiment among the voters of the country.

The allied countries have acceded to the suggestion of Germany that the Germans who are being sought by the allies for prosecution for their crimes in connection with the war, shall be tried in Germany. In making this suggestion the Germans agree that there shall be no attempt to shield any one from prosecution, but that every charge shall be investigated impartially and decided upon its merits. In accepting this suggestion, the allies while making no interference with the progress of the trial will see that just punishment is meted to every one convicted of crime. After all this may be the best way to settle the matter, for it will give the German people a chance to show their sincerity in atoning for crimes committed by their former rulers.

TWO PLATFORMS.

Between the platform of Colonel
Bryan and that which Vice President
Marshall will take to San Francisco,
we are inclined to the belief that we should stand by the gentleman from Indiana. The majority of the "wants" of the Nebraskan are already in the Democratic National platform—and some are not, included being the Colonel's broad application of the principle of public ownership. There are some things in the Nation which should be left to private control—there are some rights which must be established for capital. Colonel Bryan's labor platform is entirely in accord with Democratic principles, and President Wilson is even a tithing time diligently engaged in an effort to establish the privilege for labor of collective bargaining and the creation of machinery
by which labor disputes may be adjusted, to the prevention of lockouts or strikes.

But Vice President Marshall sums up the whole thing in his yearning for a return to and a perpetuation of "a few ancient and time-honored Democratic doctrines." The country must get again firmly upon "the only sure foundation for a stable Republic," resting upon
"the Jeffersonian right to life, liberty and to the pursuit of happiness." Marshall's platform of purpose and accomplishment is one which will make appeal to the common sense of all Americans. The articles of faith which he proposes to present to the platform makers at San Francisco are strong enough and sensible enough to insure the election of any candidate who should stand for them. He has outlined something for which admiration

will grow with study.—Charlotte Observer.

NO LONGER A COTTON FOOL.

Doctor Knapp argues that the cotton crop of the South cannot be largely increased this year, mainly on account of the scarcity of labor, and he is right.
There is small prospect of a larger acreage this season, although those interested may safely count on no appreciable reduction. The cotton "patches" have been laid out on paper according to the resources in labor the farmer
may be able to command, and as a general thing the Southern planters can count on the same labor they had last year. The movement from the rafms showed some decrease during the latter part of 1919, while in a few instances some sections have been largely re-populated. The labor supply, therefore, will be about what it was last year, and while insufficient, it will be no worse. The farmers, likewise, will have a care for the production of foodstuffs, in which endeavor they had such encouraging results the past year, and they are not deluded by the apparently high figures of 40-cent cotton, for they know that 40-cent cotton now is about the equivalent of eight cents when compared with prices of the necessities of life. They are going to hold to their usual cotton acreage, but at the same time they will go more largely into dairying, cattle-raising, hog production, wheat and corn. The Southern farmer is no longer a cotton fool.—Charlotte Observer.

SPRINGS SURPRISE ON SOCIALIST ASSEMBLYMEN

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 17.—To the astonishment of counsel for the five suspended socialist assemblymen being tried by the assembly judiciary committee on charges of disloyalty, the prosecution, which last week announced it "rested," took the floor at the opening of today's session. The ord documents which he claimed supported the charges that the socialist party not only urged its members not to participate in the war, but called on them not to produce munitions of war.
The defense objected on the ground that the alleged appeal ante-dated America's entrance into the war.

CHANDLER SIX Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

If You Don't Want to Wait
Next Spring, Order Now

LAST year's production of the Chandler Six was of record volume and this year's production will double it; but if you don't want to wait for your new Chandler next spring, we would suggest that you order it now.

This year's automobile shows have attracted crowds greater than ever before, partly perhaps because hundreds of thousands of Americans were unable to secure new cars last year. And these great crowds of motor enthusiasts have found no better value in the whole exhibit of six cylinder cars than that which Chandler offers.

Chandler leads so distinctly in the medium-priced fine car field
because it does offer such splendid value; because of its really marvelous motor developed through seven years of production in the Chandler plant and seven years' service on the road in the hands of a host of owners; because of its sturdy, dependable mechanical construction throughout the entire chassis; and because of its attractive and comfortable body.

Compare them all, all the sizes, then pick out yours.
It will be a Chandler if you ask Chandler owners.

SHOWER AND ST. VALENTINE PARTY.

Bellarthur, Feb. 14. — Miss Mattie Smith delightfully entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon at an attractive Linen Shower in honor of Miss Trilby Smith, whose wedding to Mr. Walter G. Sheppard is to take place in March.

The parlor and dining room were tastefully decorated for the occasion with cupids, hearts, ivy and cut flowers to carry out the Valentine idea and color scheme of red and white. The dining table was especially pretty with its miniature Valentine baskets with mints and center piece of a large cupid.

After all the guest were assembled a very interesting contest was enjoyed. The first prize which was won by Mrs. Jack Moxingo, and the booby which was won by Mrs. T. E. Robinson was presented to the bride-elect, Miss Smith.

Then Master C. D. Smith, Jr., entered pulling a wagon which was heavily laden with numerous linen gifts which he amusingly presented to the bride-elect.

The guests were then shown into the dining room by the hostess where delicious cream and cake were served.

Following the shower a St. Valentine party was given Saturday night. Fruit punch was served in the hall by Misses Ruth Smith and Mr. Joe Eason, of Farnville. A dainty ice course was served.

Music and dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening. It was one of the most attractive occasions of the season.

HUDSON-TUCKER.

This afternoon the Methodist church, in Simpson, was the scene of a beautiful wedding when Miss Leona Pearl Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tucker and Mr. H. A. Hudson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the bride's pastor, Rev. Spence. The church was artistically decorated with ivy, palms and ferns, with an arch of ivy. Mrs. Roy Davenport, of Winterville, presided at the organ and prior to the entrance of the bridal party rendered a musical program. She then played Mendelssohn's as a processional, Lohengrin's as a recessional, and "To a Wild Rose," during the ceremony.

The bridal party entered in the following order, first, the ushers, Messrs. Roscoe Cox, Delma Cox, Madison McGowan and Milton Tucker, brother of the bride. They entered down opposite aisles, crossed at the altar and took their places on the right and left of the arch. They were followed by Miss Ethel Tucker, sister of the bride as maid of honor. She wore a beautiful gown of pink Georgette Crepe and satin, silver slippers, a large black and pink hat, and carried white roses. The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a going away suit of navy blue tricot with accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and sweet peas. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. J. C. Galloway. Immediately after the ceremony, they motored to Greenville, and left by the Atlantic Coast Line for a tour of Florida.

Miss Tucker is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tucker. She is a native of this county, and is well known throughout Eastern Carolina, having taught school in many sections. She possesses a host of admiring friends.

Mr. Hudson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hudson, of the Grimesland section. He is a young man of sterling character and is one of the most successful farmers in Pitt county.

Upon their return they will make their home on his farm, near this city.

MRS. SCALES ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. W. M. Scales delightfully entertained the members of her bridge club and a few other friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. N. S. Fulford, on Tuesday evening. Four tables were placed in the drawing room and library for bridge. Mrs. S. L. Bridgers, making the top score was awarded a beautiful vase. Mrs. Percy McMuller, of Hertford, house guest of Mrs. Fulford, was presented a serving tray and Miss Nell Pader, who will be married in April, was presented a pretty collar and cuff set. After the games, Mrs. Fulford and the hostess served an elegant salad course. The club members present were Mrs. Scales, Mrs. L. H. Bowling, Mrs. S. L. Bridgers, Miss Jamie Bryan, Miss Rubelle Forbes, Mrs. H. M. Phillips, Mrs. T. A. Galbreath, Miss Nell Pender, Miss Hennie Whichard and Miss Patti Weotn. EARL READING WILL NOT SUCCEED GREY

London, Feb. 17. — Premier Lloyd George has offered the ambassadorship at Washington to the Earl of Reading, the former ambassador there says the Paul Mail Gazette today, but he has declined the appointment.

We have all heard of the man who was killed by kindness—but the proof is lacking.

MRS. PINK IRVIN DIES AT THE AGE OF 40 YEARS.

One of the saddest deaths in the county was that of Mrs. Pink Irvin who passed away at noon Wednesday at the age of 40, leaving her husband and nine children, ranging in ages from two months to 17 years, four of them boys and five girls.

Mrs. Irvin had been suffering for some time with leakage of the heart but was apparently overcoming this trouble and had been on a visit to relatives on Sunday, when she developed influenza which was the immediate cause of her death. Mrs. Irvin before marriage was Miss Lizzie Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hampton Simmons. She was a beautiful woman, a devoted wife and mother; active in church work and possessed many other noble traits of Christian character.

The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon by Rev. D. G. Washburn and the interment was at Zion where she held her membership. A large crowd attended the funeral and a rich floral offering testified to the high esteem in which she was held in the community. Surviving besides her husband and nine children are her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Frank Simmons, of Paris, Texas; Tom Simmons, of Rocky Mount, Lawrence Simmons, of Greenville; Fred, Dullie, and Wilbur, of this county, Mrs. Thurman Horn, of this county and Miss Kate Simmons, who is teaching school at Cherryville.—Cleveland Star.

ROYSTER'S FERTILIZERS

Have stood the test

Because---

I maintain three very extensive chemical laboratories in which all materials are thoroughly tested. No harmful materials can ever enter into Royster goods. Our home and foreign markets are picked over for the choicest raw materials; then I formulate them in just the proportion which my life-time experience has found to be best for each crop for which the fertilizer is intended. The results of all this care is, naturally, a complete mixture which is really the "last word" in fertilizer. So, you see, I am justified in feeling proud of the Royster Products, which come from our fifteen up-to-date plants.

STORES IN WINTERVILLE FOUND OPEN EARLY TODAY

Every store in Winterville, with the exception of one, was found open this morning when the merchants went down to open up for the day's business. One store, upon investigation, was found to be minus of one suit of clothes, and the bank, which was also opened had been robbed of eight dollars. So far as could be ascertained up until noon today, nothing else was found missing. The officers of the county immediately secured blood hounds and traced the robbers to Ayden, where it was found that they had boarded the morning train for parts unknown. This is the second episode of this breaking into stores as the first occurred a week ago in Grifton. Just why the thieves break into every store, and only take a few minor articles way, is beyond understanding. It seems as if they are practicing their chosen profession, in view of larger gains.

IS TOWING DISABLED STEAMER INTO PORT

Beaufort, N. C., Feb. 16.—The coast guard cutter Itasca reported by wireless today she was one hundred miles east of Cape Lookout lightship towing a disabled steamship into port.

An unidentified schooner also was reported in a sinking condition thirty miles southwest of the lightship. A steamer offered to take the crew off, but they refused, declaring the schooner would make Cape Lookout Cove before light. The wind off the coast is moderate.

There would be fewer spinsters if girls would be more careful about their makeup.

THE ERECTION OF MONUMENTS TO RECEIVE ATTENTION

London, Feb. 17.—Whether relatives shall be permitted to set up any sort of individual memorials they desire on the graves of soldier relatives in France or the present policy be continued of permitting only the rude wooden crosses with name and identification number attached is the nub of a controversy which has arisen in England.

Lord Robert Cecil has been acting as spokesman for those who desire the privilege of erecting individual memorials on the graves of their soldier dead.

They are opposed by a large number of bereaved relatives who argue that most of those who have gone to look at a friend's name on one of the thousands of little oak crosses have felt that his grave received dignity from the reticence of its quiet uniformity with those of all his fellow soldiers.

"At present our war cemeteries in France are the most beautiful and moving places in which men ever collected their dead," declared one American father of a soldier buried in France after a visit to his grave. "The contrast is enormous between their nobly expressive simplicity as monuments of unselfish brotherhood in arms and the average civilian cemetery in France or England with its restless, jumbled individualism. That fine contrast would soon be lost if all relatives might do as they chose. In getting their way they would irreparably mar the resting place of their friends' comrades."

Why More Small Cars Come Equipped With Goodyear Tires

Last year, more small cars, using 30 x 3, 30 x 3½, or 31 x 4-inch tires, were factory equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

This is plainly a result of the high relative value produced in these small-car tires by Goodyear's enormous resources and scrupulous care.

They represent the same intense endeavor to supply utmost satisfaction in tires that has laid the basis for the marked preference which exists everywhere for Goodyear Tires in the larger sizes.

This real Goodyear value in tires is available for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other small car, at our nearest Service Station. Go there for these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $20.00
 30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag. $3.90

AN OLD CONFEDERATE SOLDIER 77 YEARS OF AGE VICTOR, AFTER 35 YEARS OF WAR

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am an old Confederate Soldier seventy-seven years old. Have suffered with Rupture for thirty-five years. Wore a truss most of this time. Could find nothing else to do until I heard of Dr. Dunn of New Bern, and his wonderful treatment. I decided to try his treatment, and to the astonishment of all, the treatment seems to be a success. I carried out his instructions to the letter, and when I put off the truss I began to feel like a different man. I really believe I am perfectly cured. It is wonderful.
