

DAYLIGHT LAW TO BECOME EFFECTIVE TWO A. M. SUNDAY

Daylight Saving Will Become Effective in 33 Towns and Cities of Nation

CLOCKS TO BE SET AHEAD ONE HOUR AFTER TONIGHT

No Confusion is Anticipated in Making Law Effective in Many Centers.

New York, March 27. — Daylight saving will go into effect at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning in at least 33 American cities and towns...

The cities and towns which have adopted daylight saving ordinances are as follows:

- New York City, Buffalo, Cohees, Troy, Utica, Syracuse, Yonkers, Gloversville, New Jersey, Camden, Plainfield, New Brunswick, Hoboken, Jersey City, Massachusetts, Clinton, Lynn, Worcester, Marlboro, Pennsylvania-Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Corry, Allentown, Harrisburg, Bastera, Connecticut-Hartford, Putnam, Maine, Portland, South Portland, New Hampshire, Manchester, Michigan, Detroit, St. Joseph, Colorado, Denver, Ohio, Columbus Delaware, Wilmington.

We do not anticipate any confusion said Marcus M. Marks, president of the organization which has been fighting for daylight saving. The time adopted by New York City, for instance, will be automatically observed by all cities and towns within a radius of 50 miles or more of the metropolis.

The State-wide daylight saving bill, recently passed by the New Jersey assembly and which is now before the senate for consideration, is reported to have been endorsed by nearly 300 municipalities and is also said to have the approval of the city commissioners of Newark, Paterson and Elizabeth.

STRUGGLE FOR SUFFRAGE CONTINUES IN DELEWARE

GREENVILLE GIRLS LOSE TO BELHAVEN FIRST GAME

A telegram was this morning received from Belhaven stating that the girl's basketball team of this city lost out to Belhaven in the first game of elimination series of the eastern part of the state being staged between the two places. No score was given in the message, but judging by past records established by the girls from this city, playing must have been tense and interesting. Belhaven will play here next Monday night, and if it loses, another game will be made necessary in order to decide which of the two teams will participate for championship to be played by representative teams from each part of the state.

Independent Ball Will be Played If League Is Not Formed Pretty Soon.

It has not been fully determined just what kind of ball club Greenville will be able to place on the diamond this season but if enthusiasts give present promoters proper encouragement by generous donations it is very probable the aggregation will be one of the fastest in this part of the state...

The following men are now canvassing the city soliciting funds: Charles Adams, Dave Whitchard, Richard King, O. L. Joyner, Jr., Willis Fleming, Tom Kennedy, Simon Moxe, Robert Star, H. W. Renfrew, V. E. Staton, W. H. Dall and Hugh Ragsdale.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY WINS APPROVAL IN FIRST APPEARANCE

Popular Play to Appear in This City at White's Theatre, April 7th.

One of the best attractions staged here this season, or in many seasons, was "America First," presented by home talent in the High School, last night, for the benefit of the Boy Scouts.

Miss Helen Joyner as "America" the Spanish girl, was indeed a star, and Dink James as Montrose, her American lover, while a true lover was equally true to this flag and country.

CONGRATULATES CLUB UPON RECENT ACTIVITY

Mrs. Hook Outlines Endeavors of State Organization for Current Year.

On Friday afternoon the members of the Woman's Club were privileged to have as their guest, Mrs. Chas. Hook, of Charlotte, the president of State Federation.

The meeting, which took the form of an informal reception, was held in the Model School. The entrance hall and class room where the meeting was held were beautifully decorated with daffodils and violets.

Mrs. Hook first congratulated the Greenville club on its growth and progress and recalled her former visit to the city nine years ago when the State Federation for the current year.

She then outlined the work of the State Federation for the current year, which has been divided into three sections, 1st. America's action, 2. Thrift, (Continued from page one.)

IN MABEL'S ROOM PLEASES AUDIENCE IN ATLANTA HOUSE

"America First" by Students Greatly Enjoyed by Audience Last Night.

"Up in Mabel's Room," one of the bedroom gems of farces and in very many respects the best of that type of theatrical entertainment, returned last night to the Atlanta theater for its second engagement of the current season.

When the many adverse local conditions are considered—no street cars, other attractions, etc., it really speaks volumes for the reputation the show made on its previous visit to consider that there was quite close to a full house to greet the players.

The performance last night is identical with those given during the previous visit. There isn't a single change in the cast and, unless some of the performers are using different costumes—the writer never can remember details about feminine raiment, circumstance—there isn't a change to be noted.

It is, as will be recalled, a screamingly funny farce the entire plot of which centers around the struggle of newly-made benedict to recover a certain very personal article of lady's lingerie, which, in a moment of sentiment, he had presented to another lady other than his wife. Before he had a wife of course. Said garment is embroidered with a tender sentiment, just like a Christmas card; in fact, the embroidery includes the names of both the recipient and the donor of the gift.

It is built for laughing purposes only and the man or woman who can see it without laughing is beyond hope. They ought to be put out of their misery at once. It will be with us for the balance of the week, with a Saturday matinee—Atlanta Constitution.

RED CROSS HELPS RELIEVE EPIDEMIC IN MANY SECTIONS

Distressing Epidemic of Influenza Combattd by Nurses in Southeast

IGNORANCE OF PEOPLE CAUSES DILIGENT WORK

Nurses of Southeast Report Situation Much Better Than Lately Stated

Atlanta, Ga., March 27.—So distressing were conditions in many places in the southeast during the height of the influenza epidemic that, in one town, a nurse entered a home where three children were ill in bed with the body of a baby that had been dead for several days, other members of the family being unable to remove it or to notify neighbors because all were down with "flu."

This was one of the more greswome incidents mentioned in a statement made public today at southern division headquarters of the American Red Cross, declaring that the influenza epidemic has subsided greatly throughout the southeast and should be over soon, and giving a vivid picture of some of the tragedies, difficulties and hardships encountered by Red Cross nurses in fighting the disease.

The statement revealed that the seriousness of the situation was increased in many cases by the ignorance and superstition of the poor victims, who had been taught that fresh air was fatal to recovery, that baths should never be taken when one had fever and that such medicinal methods as blistering the breast and then applying cold collar leaves from the garden, were the best cures.

"We are thankful to say that nearly all of our nurses report the situation is much better now," says the statement.

THE MASCOTT WILL BE GIVEN BY CLASS OF LOCAL SCHOOL

Senior Class of Training School to Present French Opera at Eary Date.

REHEASALS INDICATE UNUSUAL PRODUCTION

Exact Date of Play Has Not Been Announced Because of Conflicting Dates

If the way the Senior Class of the Training School is enjoying the rehearsals of the French opera, "the Mascott," is an indication of the way the public will enjoy it, this production will be the greatest success the school has ever had.

The opera will be given somewhere about the middle of April. The exact date has not been announced because of the danger of conflicting with some other dates in the town, but the announcement will be made very soon.

The annual Senior play has become an event in this part of the State. Each year the play has been better and better, and each year the public has known its appreciation more and more. For two years past there has been a capacity house, and this year there should be no less than that.

The opera requires much more work and expense than any class has ever given to a play, but they feel that the support the public has given in the past warrants the additional effort and cost.

Mr. John L. Horne who for eighteen years has been connected with the store of Frank Wilson, the king cloier, has resigned his place there to take effect April 3rd. Mr. Horne's reason for giving up his position with the Wilson store after such long service there, is to go in business for himself and he will open a large clothing and mens' furnishing business in one of the best locations on Dickinson avenue. TOBACCO CROP OF STATE RANKS WITH BEST OF COUNTRY

Over Third of a Billion Pounds Produced in State for Past Season.

TOTAL CROP VALUED AT SOME OVER $161,038,878.00

Greenville's Seven Warehouses Gives it First Place in High Prices.

Raleigh, N. C., March 27. — When North Carolina produces almost a third of a billion pounds of tobacco worth half a dollar for each unit, it is time for the world to take notice. According to the State's Co-operative Crop Reporting Service, in a statement just issued giving the season's sales, it is estimated that 359,559,643 pounds of all sales were made by 151 warehouses of which 323,371,242 pounds were producers' sales that brought an average of 49.8 cents per pound, making our crop worth $161,038,878.00.

These figures show that the state produced over thirteen million more than the 310,240,000 pounds estimated in the December Tobacco Crop Report. The additional amount at the government's estimate of 53.6 cents average, would give North Carolina's tobacco crop a value equal to Kentucky's Crop as estimated. The Kentucky crop, more than North Carolina's, has fallen in price. Their December estimate of 53.2 cents per pound would have to be reduced but three cents per pound for the North Carolina crop to rank first. We believe their crop has averaged more than three cents, and until contrary evidence is presented, we claim first rank in value, in spite of their 456,500,000 pounds produced. The bright leaf tobacco is King just now.

Additional information in this official report shows that the Tar Heel state had actual certified reports of within one per cent of the sales estimated for the state. These averaged over fifty cents. There are 240,000 pounds of producers' sales expected to be sold after March 1st. Practically all of the 2,000,000 pounds grown in the Madison county territory go into Tennessee, due to the heavier type grown and no market there. The Danville market attracts more than eight million pounds of farmers' sales out of our state; so it is reasonable to estimate that 7,000,000 pounds first hand sales are exported in excess of imports, including the Robeson county territory.

The most remarkable features for the season shows the Wilson market as having the largest sales, namely: 32,507,552 pounds producers' and 42,716,183 total sales, with Lenoirville selling least or 178,949 total pounds. Winston-Salem was second with 27,731,311 first hand and 33,036,024 pounds total sales averaging $49.33. Greenville third with 27,318,962 producers' and 30,115,431 pounds total sales averaging $50.22.

Greenville's seven warehouses give her first rank in number. Youngsville averaged highest with $60.90 and Rowland lowest at $19.72 per hundred pounds. The counties having best records are: Pitt first with 33,688,683 pounds producers' and Wilson first with 42,816,183 pounds total sales. Alamance county averaged $60.75 per hundred, it having the best average county price. The sixteen warehouses in Wake County rank her first in the number operating in any county.

SATURDAY, MAR. 27, 1920.

Newberry probably feels too ripe to stand in further pulling just now.

Saving, generally speaking, is the keynote to the thrift habit, but it's one not easily acquired.

The barefoot boy certainly will hold an enviable position in life this year, considering the price of shoes.

That Richmond man who found time to give Greenville a boost certainly knew what he was talking about.

Increased cost of production and material causes both employer and employee to wonder who is the "goat."

Railroads of the nation are running so smoothly that even the operatives have forgotten the ever-present desire for a raise.

President Wilson may be slightly off, as some people like to express it, but he certainly keeps an eye on the senate just the same.

Tailors needn't worry so much about changing the style of men's clothing this season for a decline in price would be more directly appreciated.

Yes, dear heart, the smallest kind of hat without any trimmings at all will pull you for ten dollars or more. Better economize and go bareheaded.

The daylight saving law to go into effect in this country within the next several hours will prove rather a dark issue to certain states in event it does not get through the legislature.

Two bell boys of the Yarrowburgh hotel in Raleigh were arrested on the charge of selling whiskey. The same stunt be pulled off in at least ninety five percent of the hotels that have bell boys.

Numerous candidates for political honors are spending some little time in reaching the goal of their ambition, but like Senator Newberry, after getting there they are likely to be recalled and have to worry about climbing the ladder again.

North Carolina went right off the reel after the new secretary of state, Bainbridge Colby, and has secured his acceptance of an invitation to deliver the commencement address at the State University. Nothing like being in the lead when it comes to getting good things. But that is North Carolina's habit.

Reports emanating from Berlin are to the effect that former Emperor William of Germany gave monetary support to the revolt occurring in that territory this month, and as a result, Dutch officials acquainted with the Kaiser's financial standing are much amused, knowing as they do, that he is completely "busted" in every way. He probably might like to participate in some revolt, but as for giving money to support such a movement, Bill couldn't do very much.

WHAT IS LENT?

(By REV. O. H. BASCOM.)

It is, first of all, a fact. Lent is some 1800 years old. It will be kept this year, with more or less devotion, by some three hundred and fifty out of the supposed four hundred million Christians in the world. Its aim is the development of Christian character, Christian means: 1. The power to make a sharp, clear distinction between right and wrong, between obedience and disobedience, between righteousness and sin. 2. It means self-control and self-discipline. 3. It means loyalty to the character and purpose and aim of Jesus Christ. 4. It means charity toward men. 5. It means love and reverence toward God. 6. It means growth away from that which is earthly, sensual and dying, and growth toward that which is high, spiritual, godly and immortal.

Lent is a call for the development of such a character, and a time when the Church deliberately sets herself about its development. It is a revival of the Christ-man within us. The lessons of Lent are of inestimable value. We all need them. They will help us to discern the things of real value in life, to subdue and control our selfish and sinful impulses, and if we learn them aright they will bring peace to body, soul, and spirit. If real Lent were universally observed, and its lessons learned, war discord would speedily end, the gulf that divides labor and capital rich and poor, great and lowly, would be bridged by the bond of heavenly love: every man would be a brother to his fellow, and strive to promote the happiness and well-being of all humanity.

It is rumored that a number of candidates will be in line for county offices within the next month or so, and there is expected to be some little competition in evidence. However, if some of the boys could see the work before present incumbents they would probably change their minds and stop before starting out in the race for political honors.

Captain Palmer, appearing before the senate committee investigating Admiral Sims' charges against the navy department, says that Secretary Daniels was principally responsible for the shortage of personnel in the navy during the war, and that through his prostration the department was subject to a great handicap. It is certain that such testimony will have little weight, for by this time the investigators are no doubt fully convinced that such accusations are groundless and are produced more through malicious motives than at first contemplated.

An official estimate by the state department this week placed the number of Americans in Germany at about 8,000, of whom approximately 400 are women. They were given an opportunity of leaving the city while recent disorders were in progress, and while many of them did so, a majority still remain, probably trusting to luck to carry them through safely. Surely these people have forgotten the freedom of their home country or they wouldn't be living in such a dangerous climate where even the air must be contaminated by dissension and social unrest.

HOOK WORM DISEASE.

Hook worm disease has been prevalent in the southern states since the slaves were brought over from Africa. In Pitt as well as in many other North Carolina counties hookworm infection is still prevalent. Hookworm disease is contracted through contact of the skin, usually the bare feet, with soil that has been polluted with human filth, producing what is known as "ground itch."

Insanitary privies and the lack of privies are the agencies through which hookworm disease is spread.

Hook worms are small worms that vary in size from one-eighth to one-half inch in length and are about the size of number eight sewing thread. These worms after gaining access to the body through the skin their way to the intestines where they attach themselves and draw about one drop of blood a day, inject a small amount of poison and lay eggs. The life of a hookworm is from eight to fifteen years.

Hook worm can be prevented by the following means:

1. The use of shoes in rainy weather thus preventing the damp, polluted soil from sticking to the feet of children who may be barefoot.
 2. The construction and use of sanitary privies, thus preventing soil pollution.
 3. Treatment of all suspected or known cases. Hookworm disease is one of the easiest diseases known to cure.
 4. "Ground itch" insanitary privies and hookworm disease are to be avoided.
- Let every householder in Pitt county get busy and construct a sanitary privy and protect your children against hookworm infection. See your county health officer and secure plans for your sanitary privy.

HORN'S DAIRY MAKES GOOD SHOWING IN MILK ANALYSIS

Dr. C. J. Chester, of the department of health, stated yesterday that city dairies are doing every thing possible to comply with sanitary laws, and that all milk delivered to city patrons is several percent superior to what it used to be. Recent analysis of milk from Horn's dairy showed that it contained 4 1-2 per cent fat, which is exceptionally good and shows that owners are fully alive to the importance of increased service. Improvements are being made by Mr. Horse and in a short time he will have one of most complete and best kept dairies in this section of the state. Patrons are given a cordial invitation to visit his place at any time and judge for themselves as to its sanitary appearance and adequate equipment.

IN MEMORIAM

Is there a sense of gratitude to the young men of Pitt county who were taken by the hard hand of the law from the college, the store, the farm, their business and profession, hurried into camps, subjected to a living hell, sent across seas to suffer the pangs of battlefields, living in trenches of mud, vermin and death, ordered to charge belching cannon, fire-spitting machines, death-dealing gattling guns; stifled, burned, suffocated by gases of horror; bereft of reason, blinded for life, suffering the loss of arms and of legs, and finally giving up their mortal lives, for what? For our homes, for our business for our principles of government and our principles of religion, for all the liberties of our civilization? Yes, there is a sense of gratitude in hearts of our people and we will crystallize this gratitude into a house of mercy as a perpetual memorial to the sufferings and sacrifices of these men. Subscribe liberally therefore to the Memorial Hospital fund.

COMMITTEES BUSY RAISING FUND FOR LOCAL BALL TEAM

mailed or that some solicitor may be notified to come and get the donation. The next week or so will decide conclusively whether Greenville will have an independent club, and soon as this decision is reached and equipment arrives training will begin immediately in preparation for opening games to be scheduled within a short time after the club is completely organized.
It is hoped that league ball will become possible here during the season.

but as yet this cannot be definitely decided owing to indecision on the part of Goldsboro and Williamston. With either of these two places a four club league will be made a surety as Tarboro and Washington already have indicated their willingness to join if another town joins. A letter was received from Tarboro promoters yesterday, stating that everything is in readiness there for the proposed league and that they are ready to join any time. With such spirit prevailing, it is hoped the league will be made possible, but nothing can be done until another town is heard from.

Greenville is going to play ball this season whether the league becomes possible or not, and persons who want to support this team will do will by giving generously to the cause within the next several days during the campaign for funds. Material has already been ordered, and soon as preliminary plans are complete training will begin in preparation for opening games to be announced later. Be sure and do your part by the club, and assist in making the hot summer days more pleasant by anticipated ball games in the evenings.

CHARLOTTE WOMAN DELIVERS ADDRESS TO WOMAN'S CLUB

3. Community Service. The first two have been undertaken at the request of the government; the third covers the regular work of the club along lines of Health, Education, Civic, Social Service, etc.

She spoke of the difficulty all clubs complain of in getting a good attendance of members of the regular meetings, and urged the women to cultivate a feeling of individual responsibility for no program can be successful, however well planned, unless the members help in carrying it out.

She referred to the importance of the work of Americanization of our own ignorant white people and negroes, as well as the few foreigners in our state.

Woman's work is becoming a more and more important factor in national life and men are recognizing her power and influence and seeking her help as never before.

The state Federation will meet at Charlotte April 29-30 and May 1st, and for the first time will be an independent convention, delegates paying their own expenses at hotels. Clubs are urged to send their presidents and pay their expenses. No matter if the presidents are millionaires. Then precedent is established for those less wealthy. When the meeting adjourned, another social time was enjoyed and ice cream and cake served. Mrs. Hook left on the 4 o'clock train. The Greenville women consider themselves most fortunate to have had this charming woman as their guest.

LORD HALIFAX

TO select clothes on a basis of cheapness alone is an error that cheats one of fully half the joy of living.

Sadly enough, it is the pit in which a great many good resolutions are trapped.

Fewer clothes and better. No matter what price limitations, dignity and good taste may be had if one is discreet in shopping.
