SALVATION ARMY'S ENDEAVORS HIGHLY PRAISED BY PUBLIC

Lieut.-Gov. of Pennsylvania Tells of Organization's Strong Hold. SAYS ARMY GIVES EVERY SERVICE ASKED BY POOR

Says Organization Gives Service Instead of Asking Idle Questions. Atlanta, Ga., April 10.—That the Salvation Army's strong hold upon the public is due in large part to the fact that it asks no questions but gives help wherever and whenever it is needed is the opinion of Frank B. McClain, former lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania and chairman of the Pennsylvania public welfare commission.

Governor McClain was chairman of the Pennsylvania committee for the Salvation Army 1919 Home Service fund and was offered the same position this year, but because of the press of duties was unable to take active management of the campaign but has accepted the honorary chairmanship.

In his letter accepting the honorary chairmanship Governor McClain says: "Last year our campaign was made principally on the record of the Salvation Army overseas. This year the field of local usefulness which the Salvation Army occupies, a field that has on every occasion warranted the praise that has crowned the efforts of the Salvation Army, will make the most heart-felt appeal.

Reaching, as it does, a class of people that would not accept help from organized charity because of the publicity that attaches to the offer of help, the Salvation Army is doing a work that occupies a field covered only by this organization. "The Salvation Army, in my observation, does not ask questions. They don't want to know the reason why when they find somebody in need of help. They give the help. Because people are in distress, due to his or her own fault sympathy or minimize their effort to lift that person up and to try to make him or her a useful member of the community. They don't have to tell the story of their past life. The Salvation Army only sees that he or she needs a friend, and the Salvation Army is their friend."

PARAGUAY IS LAND OF BIG OPPORTUNITIES

Buenos Aires, April 10.—Paraguay is a land of wonderful opportunity for North Americans, says W. L. Schurz, United States trade commissioner who has just completed a seven months' investigation of its resources. Ten million dollars in American money has thus far been invested in the little republic but in the opinion of Mr. Schurz, millions more of American capital would find a profitable return there.

Nearly the size of the state of Missouri and with less than 1,000,000 inhabitants, Paraguay has untouched resources of amazing variety and possibilities, Mr. Schurz told a correspondent of The Associated Press.

"Over half the country is forested with the finest hard woods in the world," he said. "Its soil climate are capable of raising anything under the sun, including wheat and bananas. Experiments have proved that more cotton to the acre can be raised on Paraguayan soil than on any other soil where cotton is cultivated at present. It is good for tobacco and sugar, it is good for anything.

"Oranges in Paraguay grow wild. You would not believe that only one out of every 100 oranges produced in Paraguay ever is eaten. But it is so. Billions of oranges lie on the ground and rot.

"There are deposits of manganese and iron of unknown extent that have not been worked since the Paraguayan war ended in 1870. It is waiting for a railroad to be built to it. There is also copper.

ROBT. BROWN SHOT AND KILLED BY SON SOON THIS MORNING

County Farmer Meets Death Result of Words With 18 Year Old Son.

NO CAUSE FOR SHOOTING HAS BEEN DISCOVERED

County Officers Are Searching for Murderer in This Territory.

Mr. Robert Brown, aged 50 years, was shot and instantly killed early this morning at his home, four miles from Greenville by his son, Ashley Brown, aged about 18 or 20 years. Ashley, it appears slept later than the other members of the family, coming out of his room about 8 o'clock. Mr. Brown met him and asked for the barn key. Receiving no answer he asked again, but still received no answer. Ashley passed out of the back door and started around the house to the front. Mr. Brown went out the front door, and as he reached the middle of the porch, the son fired, the fatal shot taking effect in the forehead. Mr. Brown, is one of Pitt's successful farmers, and for several years served as a rural mail carrier. He is survived by his wife and two sons.

Ashley is still at large, but officers are on the lookout for him.

LEGION POST WILL MEET HERE DURING SUNDAY AFTERNOON

American Legion Members to Assemble in Court House at 3:30 P. M.

The American Legion stands for one hundred per cent. Americanism. The purpose of the organization is to keep alive in the minds of the people the deeds and sacrifices of man and woman during the Great War, and to look out for the interests of those who are in need. The Legion can be made and will be made a very vital organization in Pitt county. The Post of this county has just been born, and of wonders. But if the plans and purposes of its founders carry out Pitt county, to date has accomplished no county will have one of its most uplifting and influential organizations in the Legion. It is non-political, and no member of it is seeking any personal or political advancement. It is bound to be powerful, because its membership will be made up of those who fought for an ideal, and who still believe in the rule of right as opposed to the rule of might, and corruption.

The meeting of the ex-service men on Sunday will be for the purpose of perfecting the organization, and to make plans for the future. From the reports that have come in it is very evident that every section of the county will be represented. So far whenever the Legion has met, it has been at night and it was practically impossible for the members from the outlying districts to be present. Hence the meeting was called for such a time as would make it possible for all members to come. The matters to be discussed at the Sunday meeting are, the proposed one dollar and half per day bonus, the welfare of wounded soldiers and their dependents; the welfare of the families of the deceased soldiers, plans for the great memorial day celebration to be held on May 10, and the memorial hospital proposition.

LAWYER LONG DIES FOLLOWING ATTACK OF HEART TROUBLE

Prominent City Attorney Drops Dead at Home Late Yesterday Evening.

FUNERAL SERVICES TO BE CONDUCTED SUNDAY

Has Been Resident of City for Many Years; Prominently Connected.

Come when it may, to any age or under any circumstances, death brings its burden of sorrow and sadness, but when it comes to one in the prime of life and seemingly at the acme of usefulness, and with a suddenness that is appalling, the pangs of grief are intensified. It was so in the death of Mr. William H. Long, which occurred suddenly about 7 o'clock Friday evening at his home on Fourth street. Though Mr. Long had not been in good health in the recent weeks, and only a week ago returned from Baltimore where he spent ten days in a hospital, it never crossed the mind of even those closest to him that his end was so near. He was about the street and in his office through most of the day Friday, attending to business and mingling with friends in his usual genial manner. About six o'clock he left his office and went home, where a little later he undressed and was sitting on the side of his bed when he fell dead. The announcement of his death filled every heart with sadness, for no man in the community was more highly respected.

William H. Long was born near Hertford in Perquimans county 58 years ago. At the age of seven he moved with his father to New Market, Tenn., where he made his home until 1861. (Continued on page five.)

NEGRO MAN KILLED IN SHORT DISPUTE DURING LAST NIGHT

Clegg Smith Instantly Kills Lewis Forbes Through a Mistaken Identity.

J. Clegg Smith, colored, was shot and killed last night at 8 o'clock, by Lewis Forbes, colored, in front of Forbes' home about 5 miles on the north side of the river on the Tarboro road. Forbes accompanied by another negro William James, came to town in the early afternoon and was just returning home when the murder occurred. Another negro, in the neighborhood, had been making threats against Forbes, and prior to the shooting Forbes' wife saw Smith coming towards the house, thinking that it was the negro that had been making threats against her husband, she went to meet Forbes with a shot gun. She met him a short distance from the house, gave him the gun, and told him that the negro who had been making the threats was coming that way. Forbes, who was armed with a pistol, handed the pistol to James and took the gun. Just as they reached the house Smith walked up, and the shooting took place, with Forbes firing the fatal shot and James firing two or three times. The shot took effect in Smith's side, and he died almost instantly. Forbes, after the shooting, went to the house of Mr. Lewis Mayo, told him that he had killed Smith, and had done so in self defense. An inquest was held this morning, and the verdict was that Smith met his death by a shot, fired by Forbes. Forbes was arrested, brought to this city and placed in jail. The deceased had just finished serving a term of two years on the county road, having been accused of killing his wife. He is survived by his mother, a deaf and dumb sister, and several little children. At the time of his death he and Forbes were working together, and seemed to be on the best of terms.

SULTAN OF TURKEY DECLARES MAY 1ST AS MARRIAGE DAY

Issues Imperial Decree Setting Aside Day for Nationwide Observance.

EDICT IS PRINCIPALLY FOR REMOTE LOCALITIES

Modern Dancing Arouses Protest of Member Chamber of Deputies.

Constantinople, April 10.—The Sultan Mohammad VI, has issued an imperial decree proclaiming May 1 as "marriage day" throughout Turkey in an effort to promote the weddings and to arrest the decline in the birthrate. This action was taken on the request of Hazim Bey, minister of interior, who ascribes the decreased number of births in Turkey to the frivolity of young women. In the Sultan's decree, all engaged persons who have been unable to marry earlier are urged to do so on May 1. As an inducement, no charges are to be made for marriages performed on that day, guests at weddings are to make no gifts, the first children of those who wed on May 1 are to receive the names of the children of the Sultan and to receive the gift of a bracelet from the governor of the province in which the child is born.

The Sultan's son is named d'Ertogul and his daughters are Roukie and d'Elke. The edict is especially directed to the province of Broussis, in Anatolia, which has suffered such unfavorable comment in the Mohammedan press because of its greatly reduced birthrate and the tendency of its population to violate the Moslem prohibition of the use of intoxicating beverages. Government officials allege that people of Anatolian villages, men and women alike, indulge what they call "burning nights" of music and feasting.

Indulgence in modern dancing has aroused the protest of a member of Chamber of Deputies from Anatolia who has introduced a bill authorizing officials to prevent women from "participating in the antics and capers of the ball room."

SPLENDID MEETING OF TOWN CHAMBER LARGELY ATTENDED

Chamber of Commerce Meeting Features in Discussion County Progress.

AGRICULTURAL EXPERT DISCUSSES BOLL WEEVIL

Several Business Men Talk of Conditions Now in Ascendancy in Section.

In the assembly room of Carolina Club the Chamber of Commerce of Greenville held its quarterly meeting last night. Invitations had been sent to representative citizens of various sections of the county, with the view of considering together matters of general interest to the county and its development. Unfortunately weather conditions were such that only a few outside the town could come in, much to the regret of the chamber.

A little past 8 o'clock the members of the chamber and guests, after a blessing being asked by Rev. W. H. Moore, enjoyed a delightful supper prepared by the ladies of the Episcopal church.

After the feast of food President H. A. White took charge and introduced Dr. H. Robbins of A. and E. College, Raleigh, who spoke on tick eradication and the development of live stock industry. With the use of charts and pictures Dr. Robbins brought out many facts of interest, showing first the imperative need of raising more and better cattle, and the impossibility of having good stock unless the animals are kept free of the fever producing cattle tick. Cattle cannot be raised successfully and profitably in unhealthy surroundings. It is for this reason that the government and state are helping to remove the obstacles to stock raising and are building vats in which to dip the cattle and destroy the ticks. Opposition to the dipping of cattle and the destruction of vats that have occurred, is due to the people not understanding the great benefits offered them by using the vats.

Dr. E. Heinz, who is in charge of tick eradication in Pitt county, also made some remarks of this subject and the work being done, and joined Dr. Robbins in requesting the moral support.

MASCOT COSTUMES ARE IN READINESS FOR SCHOOL SHOW

Everything Being Placed in Readiness for Training School Play.

The costumes for "The Mascot" have arrived and the Senior Class of the Training School is now giving a full dress rehearsal every evening. The costumes are very effective. The scene of the opera is in Italy during the fifteenth century. The peasants are dressed in picturesque costumes of gay color. The soldiers wear glittering armor and helmets. The people of the court are handsome in rich velvets and brocades.

Miss Alice Whitehurst, of Greenville, is Bettina, the Mascot, Miss Gertrude Chamberlain, of Washington City, is Flametta, the princess; and Miss Myrtle Moore, of Elizabeth City, is the princess, Miss Julia Rowe, of Stonewall, is Prince Lorenza, the leading comedian of the opera. Miss Orene Hollowell, of Chowan county, is Pippo, the shepherd, and the successful lover of the Mascot. Miss Harriet Thomason, of Granville county, is Rocco, the farmer who is drawn into strange adventures by the Mascot, who turns his bad luck into good luck. These principals are supported by excellent minor characters, and very strong choruses.

SWANSON DELIVERS FINAL ADDRESS TO TEACHERS OF CITY

Superintendent of City Schools Speaks Before Young Women E. C. T. S.

PERSONALITY OF TEACHER OUTLINED IN TERSE WAY

Says It Is Fault of the Teacher Because They Have Not More Money.

In the third and last talk by Supt. Swanson to the students of the Training School on the "Qualifications of a teacher," he spoke of the "professional qualifications," the "how" and the "why" of teaching. Personality and scholarship are well enough. "No one is a good teacher who does not know the reasons for what she teaches and the reason for the reasons." "A teacher must know her children, know her subject, and know how to get the subject across to the children." "No higher obligation rests upon the teacher than to be professional in her work." He must get grounded in the ethical and professional sides of the work.

He gave types of the unprofessional teachers; "trousseau teachers," girls who are using teaching only as a resting place until they get married, and in the meantime making some money for the trousseau; teachers who are out the school building before the pupils are, those who teach only for the end of the day, the end of the week, the end of the month, and the end of the year; those who use it as a stepping stone to something else.

It is in part the fault of teachers that they have not more money, he said because there have been so many unprofessional people among them. This is being changed. He said that he was glad that he had come to North Carolina because this state is taking the lead in putting teachers on a professional basis and taking a stand will attract to teaching the kind of people who should be in the schoolrooms and will hold them there. He said that he expects to teach school a long as he lives, and so long as he lives he will never consent to have teachers go into a union to force more money, but he will never cease to work to educate the people to the point where they will see that they will have to pay good salaries in order to get the right kind of teachers.

He spoke of the great responsibility of the teacher for the results of his work. He referred especially to the primary teacher and the quick results one can see from her work when it is good, the little child starting to school and learning to read and write in a few weeks. He gave an illustration a child in the Greenville schools who started to school in January in less than six weeks was saying, when some one offered to read his lesson to him, "I'll let nobody read for me now," I'll read for you."

He impressed upon the students that the sole reason for the existence of this school is to teach people how to teach, to fit them professionally. "The whole business should be child study" she must know how to adopt what she knows to the different children. It does not do for a teacher to try to teach all children alike any more than it does for a man in a shoe store to fit all people alike.

He begged the young women before him to be faithful and true workers at their profession, and never to use it as a mere stepping-stone to other things, but to take interest in the results of their work.

GIVE ME SOME WAR SAVING STAMPS

MANY PERSONS HELD BY HYPNOTIC SPELL

Erroneously Imagine That Value of Money Lies Within Itself and Not in Those Things It Will Buy.

Thousands of Americans are under the hypnotic spell of money. With distorted viewpoint they have come to regard money as a great treasure in itself whereas money has its real significance only in what it buys for us. A man's reward for his work does not depend merely on what he earns. For the true reward of labor is the service the worker is able to obtain with the money he earns.

It is evident that a man may earn twice as much as he once did in money and yet be no better off if the goods he needs cost twice or three times what they formerly cost. But it is apparent to all that apart from increase or decrease in wages as expressed in money, there is a wide difference in the real value earned by persons receiving the same in actual cash.

What a person gets out of the world in return for what he gives it, depends finally on the choice made in disposing of his income. One man by wise buying, careful and consistent saving and safe and profitable investment in such securities as War Savings Stamps, Treasury Savings Certificates and Liberty Bonds, may transform the reward of his labor into all the necessities and comforts of life that he requires and even its luxuries. Another, gaining exactly the same sum in actual cash, may, through waste, extravagance and failure to save, find himself unable to secure even the necessities.

Whether or not a worker earns a sum which fulfills his estimate of what should be his just reward for labor, the responsibility for the way he spends what he gets remains with him and with him alone and cannot be transferred to any other person. Prices of necessities and wages may ebb and flow like the tide but the fundamental fact remains unchanged that apart from the nature and volume of his earnings every man can, within limits, determine the richness of the reward of his labor. He can accomplish this by the amount of restraint and intelligence he exercises in spending what he has to spend and in saving and investing what he has to save.

SCALPER OF WAR SAVING STAMPS ARRESTED.

From every Federal Reserve District in the United States information is being received by the Treasury Department in Washington that a determined war is being waged against persons, who, by preying upon the unwary, are trafficking in War Saving and Treasury Certificates.

The latest information regarding the activity of the "Scalpers" comes from St. Louis, where two arrests have been made by Deputy United States Marshals. Both prisoners were released on $5,000 bonds and are now waiting for a hearing before the Federal commissioner.

One of the men is said to have altered registered numbers on War Savings Certificates, it being alleged by St. Louis postal authorities that in the course of his operations he found $275 in War Saving Certificates from which the registration numbers had been removed.

It is charged that the other man, who is also a resident of St. Louis, had been engaged in the same line of work. The scalper is charged with the sale of altered certificates to the public.

WHY CERTIFICATES ARE SO ATTRACTIVE

Unusual Features Make New Government Securities Splendid Medium in Which to Invest Savings.

Details of the features which make the new Treasury Savings Certificates of $100 and $1,000 maturity value attractive investments have been compiled in pamphlet form by the Savings Division of the Treasury Department. In addition to the regulations governing the sale of these "baby" securities, the pamphlet contains the rulings of the Secretary of the Treasury on various questions concerning the new issue.

One of the interesting features of these certificates that make them unique investments is that they may be issued and registered in the name of an infant. Every certificate is issued and registered as a means of absolute protection to the purchaser. Certificates may also be issued and registered jointly to two persons and may be made payable to either of the two purchasers or to both.

Rulings governing payment of certificates to deceased owners are also contained in the pamphlet, with special mention made for each legal requirement according to laws of various states regarding wills, etc. At discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, in event of no other legal obstacles, payment will be made in the following order of classes:

First, husband, wife, next of kin or other person who pays the reasonable funeral expenses of the last illness or other preferred claims against the decedent's estate; second, creditor for funeral expenses, expense of last illness or other preferred claims; third husband or wife, child or children, father or mother, any other of the next of kin of the deceased.

UNCLE SAM SAYS HERE'S LIBERTY BOND'S BROTHER.

Treasury Savings Certificates are a new issue of United States government securities. They are of $100 and $1,000 denominations. They run for five years and bear 4 per cent interest, compounded every three months.

They are little brothers of the Liberty Bond and big brothers of the War Savings Stamp.

A $100 Savings Certificate costs $84.40 this month. It will be worth $100 January 1, 1924. It is cashable any time with accrued interest at any postoffice on ten days' notice. It is a government obligation.

A $1,000 savings certificate costs $844 this month. It will be redeemed by Uncle Sam January 1, 1924, for $1,000. It is cashable with accrued interest at any time at any postoffice on ten days' notice.

Treasury savings certificates are registered in your name, thus insuring against loss.

BRITISH NOW SAVING LARGE SUMS OF MONEY

In spite of the exigencies of war the volume of saving deposits in England has grown tremendously in the last five years according to the comptroller of the British Post Office Savings Bank. Only twice, the comptroller states, was the flow of savings deposits interrupted: once by the war loan of 1915 and once by the 5 per cent loan of 1917.

Total deposits increased despite the fact that depositors transferred over $1,000,000,000 from their postal savings to the various issues of the government. The recent figures show a further increase in the volume of saving in the British savings bank. The amount of deposits in the savings bank has now reached $1,000,000,000. It is estimated that the savings bank will reach $1,500,000,000 by the end of the year.

FIVE PERSONS ARE UNDER ARREST FOR TROUBLING MEXICO

Pretentious Plots Discovered for Revolution in Mexican Centers.

OTHER ARRESTS EXPECTED TO FOLLO IMMEDIATELY

Revolution Was to Have Been Started from Lower California Valleys.

El Paso, April 8.—Five persons were under arrest today and the federal grand jury had evidence which might lead to other arrests in connection with what federal officials said was one of the most pretentious Mexican revolutionary plots ever conceived on the border.

But for the arrest by military forces in the Big Bend district of a boy and a girl carrying messages to Francisco Villa, officers admit the plan for the seizure of Lower California and simultaneous campaigns against Sonora, Sinaloa and Chihuahua might have developed into serious proportions.

The messages, carried by Andres H. Villegas and Concepcion Perez, the latter said to be a niece of Villa, furnished information which led to the arrest at Los Angeles of Colonel Lamberto Chavez, of Villa's army, on a charge of attempting to smuggle arms into Mexico, and at Mexicali the arrest of A. Borboa and his aids on a similar charge.

Chavez is said to be a colonel in Villa's army and Borboa had in his possession a proclamation naming himself governor of Lower California and naming his aide as chief of the army.

According to details of the alleged plot, made public yesterday, the revolutionists were to cross into Lower California from the United States, seize arms and ammunition of which there is a big supply, and conduct simultaneous campaigns against Sonora and Sinaloa, while Villa launched a vigorous campaign in Chihuahua to divert federal troops from the other two commonwealths.

SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1920.

Admiral Wilson disagrees with Sims also, so it really looks as if the navy opponent is going to have to back water sooner than expected.

With superior court in session and two carnivals going at full blast it really looks as if Greenville will be in a flurry all next week.

A special session of the state legislature is requested for ratification of the suffrage amendment, and for that reason it is natural to expect that a few days are to follow.

Three hundred mill workers of Rocky Mount struck because an employe was transferred to another department. That was certainly clinging to union principles but not to good common sense.

Attorney-General Palmer says the peace treaty was defeated by most. That's something new, of course, for everybody thought it was rejected principally through efforts of the Republican majority in the senate.

This is the last day of Greenville clean-up" campaign, so we are going to urge all persons who have not cleaned up their premises to do so at once in order to avoid the unpleasant sensation of knowing they have not done their duty as good citizens.

Judge Ben Lindsey made a lasting impression on his recent visit to this city, and the good argument he made in the interest of properly training children while they are children will probably be of great benefit to the many parents who had the pleasure of hearing the distinguished official.

Statements say that King Albert will send a detachment of Belgian troops into the Ruhr district just to show his appreciation to France. It's a mighty nice way of expressing appreciation, but not very advisable if considering the disturbed state throughout that section of the country.

Villa is again operating in Mexico. This time he attacked trains of the Mexican Central railway but without any reported success. Strong bands of followers are co-operating in the new endeavors so it is perfectly reasonable to expect other news before they hunt the hills again.

An increased appropriation of $8,000,000 has been voted for river and harbors work for 1921 by the senate commerce committee, so it is said, and as a result a very pleasant extension of this great work will be in evidence during the approaching year. The committee also approved the lump sum appropriation plan instead of specific divisions, therefore, it is only natural to expect that regions requiring such appropriations will realize more direct benefit than expected through the old plan.

SUPPLYING THE ARMY.

The plans to the War Department for the allocation of regiments of the regular army to states for localization is to hold permanently after the National Recruit Drive is over this month, according to announcement made from the District Recruiting office at Greensboro, N. C. While the brunt of the big drive is over the campaign to fill the regiments allocated to the State of North Carolina will be continued. It is the intention of the War Department to have this arrangement so permanent that in the course of a few years there will be one regiment in each branch of the service that will be in word and deed North Carolina's own, for as time lets out of the ranks the old personnel, the new ranks will be filled with the "down homers" who go to the service to better their education learn a trade, or take the advantage of military training.

This paper has had a good deal to say about the regiments of the regular army that are assigned to this state, and has pointed with pride during the drive to the fact that these veteran outfits were none other than those of worthy men and honorable record in the history of the nation.

The states own regiments are: The 28th Infantry, the 6th Field Artillery, and the First Engineers of the First Division now stationed at Camp Taylor, Ky.; the 8th Cavalry, stationed at Marfa, Texas and the 51st Coast Artillery stationed at Camp Jackson, S. C., the Artillery Units located at Camp Bragg, N. C., and the Tank Corps of Camp Meade, Md.

North Carolina representatives at the national capital yesterday loomed up rather conspicuously in the debate over the resolution for declaring peace, and in the final windup Representative Poulson emphatically declared that the resolution had been proposed simply to embarrass President Wilson and to make political capital for the next campaign. That was putting the issue rather plainly, but that's the way with Tar Heel representatives, they always smear it on until it sticks, and then they are through unless called upon in the future.

That chamber of commerce meeting last night, in which live stock was discussed at considerable length, with a splendid supper on the side, gave one the idea of what this organization is doing for the upbuilding of the county, and not Greenville alone. The chamber is alive to every important question coming before the people, and what it has already done is enough to justify belief that it will become one of the most vital mediums for promoting progressive ideas than any other single institution throughout this section of the country.

Compulsory military training for this county has been hopelessly doomed by the senate, according to late advices from the national capitol, and supporters have been forced to change tactics in order to get recognition if possible. It is hardly conceivable that the bill will be successful although voluntary training may be decided upon. The world has seen enough military activity in the past, therefore, it is hardly probable that compulsory training, even for a short duration, will be considered by members of congress.

Railroad operating revenues during the month of February, the last month of Federal control, fell $8,654,000 below operating express, according to statements just made public. The report only covers about eighty per cent of railway lines of the country so it is easy to guess that with a continuance of such deficits the government might have been forced into bankruptcy without the people's knowledge.

The Argentine still retains a certain affection for the national tango despite the introduction of the American "jazz" in his territory, so statements say. But, on the other hand, America couldn't be quite so staunch in sentiment, it is believed, because anything with a slightly "foreign" sound quickly finds a receptive place with those who like inter-polations regardless of music.

SPLENDID MEETING

LARGELY ATTENDED

port of all business interests in awakening the people to the benefits of the work.

Dr. M. B. Smith of the State Department of Agriculture, was next introduced, and made a talk on another pest that is threatening the farmers of this section, the boll weevil. He pointed out how this pest can be checked and insisted that farmers should not lose their heads if the boll weevil appears on their farms, but act intelligently to get rid of the pest.

President White referred to the Pitt county fair to be held here in September, and urged the support of the chamber to this enterprise.

Another matter discussed was the consideration by the aldermen of the town to secure additional cemetery facilities. Interesting talks were made on this subject by Aldermen C. W. Hearne and C. D. Tunstall and Mr. W. L. Hall. On motion of Mr. W. S. Moya a committee of five was appointed to co-operate with the aldermen in helping to secure a desirable site for a new cemetery.

President White stated that the publicity committee of the chamber was moving on the publication of an illustrated booklet setting forth the advantages of Greenville and Pitt county. He also referred to the wisdom of selecting representatives to the coming legislature who are in sympathy with the continued progress of Pitt county.

Mr. B. B. Sugg read a clipping entitled "My City and I" that was very appropriate, and this led to opening the meeting for general suggestions.

Dr. Laughinghouse spoke of the American Legion, referring especially to the failure to have a roster of the soldiers of Pitt county. He read several telegrams of endorsement of the carnival to be held here next week for the benefit of the Legion, from which it is contemplated to get a fund that will help the Legion begin its work in perpetuating the memory of the soldiers of this county.

Several new comers to Greenville's citizenship were called upon for remarks, with responses by Mr. Judson Blount and Dr. W. P. Shambart.

Mr. C. D. Tunstall referred to the recent organization of the Clark-Trip Amuzu Company for the development of the Forbes' mill property into a place for recreation and offered free site and facilities for the establishment of a country club. The chamber expressed appreciation and support of the movement to provide this recreation, and also to the promoters of the Pitt county fair.

Rev. Waler Patten made some remarks relative to the proposed Memorial hospital.

Rev. W. H. Moore called attention to simultaneous services to be held in the several churches of the town beginning on the 18th. He also suggested the advisability of inducing the Norfolk-Southern railroad to back its passenger trains into the local station. There was a motion that the secretary have the transportation committee take up the matter with railroad officials.

Before adjournment a vote of thanks was extended Carolina Club for the use of its hall for this meeting, and to the ladies for the supper they had served.

Altogether it was a most interesting meeting, and the topics discussed shows the activity of the membership on matters of progress and development.

London, April 9.—The Russian Soviet government has threatened to put the workshops of the northern railways under martial law to put an end to what it calls the "crime" of the workers in wasting time in holiday-making according to a wireless message from Moscow. The government asserts that 1,000 working days were thus lost in one month and that "the railway men are arranging to have two rays of idleness each week at a time when millions of people are hungering and when it is impossible to transport bread, owing to lack of railway engines." It notifies the idlers that they will either have to make up for the time "of which the republic has been robbed" or receive full penalty under martial law.

The message issued by the government is headed "Shame comrades," and declares that Russia cannot await salvation from foreigners but must fight her own internal blockade in order to "end the ruinous condition of things, conquer hunger and save the Soviet Republic."

when he moved to Greenville and spent the remainder of his life here. He attended the university of Tennessee, also the university of North Carolina, graduating from the latter just before coming to Greenville. After coming here he studied law under the late ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis and was licensed in 1893. In 1901 he was elected mayor of the town and served acceptably for two years when he declined a re-election.

In June 1898, he married Miss Jennie Williams, the wife and two daughters, Misses Hennie and Anna Long, surviving him.

If Mr. Long had an enemy it was not known, for to every one he was always cordial and friendly. He had faith in Greenville's progress, made liberal investments, and at the time of his death was one of the largest property owners in the town.

The funeral service will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The active pall bearers will be Messrs. L. C. Arthur, R. L. Carr, C. T. Munford, H. A. White, G. E. Harris, B. W. Moseley, T. T. Let Me Take The Risk

There isn't a week goes by in this town that some car owner doesn't have his car or his tires stolen, his car burned up, smashed-up or a collision, or cause an accident to some pedestrian or fellow driver. If insured I settle all damages without trouble or expense to the owner. If not insured you dig deep down into your bank roll to pay the claim.

Why take such chances when a few dollars will shift the burden and the expense over to me? You may be out of luck tomorrow. Today is the time to shelter yourself with Auto Fire Insurance, Auto Theft Insurance, Collision, Property Damage or Liability Insurance. I write it all.

CHRISTIANIZED FOREIGNERS PROVE LOYAL TO FLAG OF UNITED STATES

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS FIND THAT NO EVANGELIZED PERSON FROM OTHER COUNTRIES HAS PROVED TRAITOR TO HIS ADOPTED LAND—LARGE WORK IS BEING DONE AMONG THEM.

A group of large boys of foreign parentage reached and made happy by a Baptist Good Will Center.

Patriotism and religion go hand in hand in the work which Southern Baptists are doing for the foreigners in their midst, declare the several workers in the field who have found that wherever a man, woman or child of foreign birth or parentage has been won to the Christian religion, that one stands foursquare for the flag, laws and institutions of the United States.

Work in evangelizing and Americanizing the 4,000,000 people of foreign birth and parentage residing within the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention has been carried on by representatives of the Home Mission Board and the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention and the various state mission boards for several years, but this work will be enlarged and intensified as a result of the larger proceeds made available for it through the 75 Million Campaign.

Important Centers Named.
Among some of the more important centers in the South and Southwest where work of this character is carried on are Richmond and Norfolk, Virginia; Baltimore, Maryland; Louisville, Kentucky; Tampa, Florida; Birmingham, Silver Hill and Mobile, Alabama; Meridian, Miss.; New Orleans and Church Point, La.; San Antonio, Laredo, El Paso and Fort Worth, Texas; Krebs, Okla., and East St. Louis, Herrin, Christopher, Harrisburg, Granite City and other points in Illinois.

Aims That Are Sought.
Indicating the aims that are sought in this work, they may be briefly summarized as follows:

1. To reach the little children that their feet may be started in the upward path.
2. To inspire the older boys and girls with ideals that will help them to improve their environments and give them strength to cope with temptations.
3. To interest the young people in sane and wholesome pleasures that their energies may be rightly directed.
4. To help the women to be better home-makers, more careful wives and mothers and better Christians.

RURAL CHURCH WORK WILL BE DEVELOPED

BAPTISTS PLAN TO REACH 15,000
COUNTRY SUNDAY SCHOOLS
THIS SUMMER.

PROVIDE BETTER TEACHERS

75 Million Campaign, With Assistance of Sunday School Board, Makes Extension Program
Possible.

DR. I. J. VAN NESS
Corresponding Secretary Baptist
Sunday School Board.

In what is believed to be the most extensive campaign for the development of rural Sunday Schools that has yet been undertaken by any single denomination, the forces of Southern Baptists especially interested in Sunday School work will undertake to reach 15,000 or more rural Sunday Schools of the South and Southwest this summer, announces Dr. I. J. Van

5. To give Christ and an exalted citizenship to the neighborhood.

In addition to the nurseries and playgrounds maintained for the children, clubs and classes are held daily for young and old, the neighborhood houses being open during the winter months from 3 to 6 in the afternoon and four nights in the week from 7 to 9. In addition to the English courses, cooking, sewing, first aid and nursing are taught girls, manual training and other useful courses are given the boys, along with practice in debating; while for the mothers there is instruction in housekeeping, care of the sick, sanitation and food selection. Through the mission Sunday schools, vacation Bible study classes and otherwise a knowledge of the Bible is afforded and the way thus opened for a personal surrender of lives to God.

Life of Communities Changed.

And in every community where a Good Will Center or other social work has been established by the Christian workers there has come about a marked transformation in the lives of individual members of the community and in the appearance of the homes and general premises. Cleanliness has superseded dirt, happiness has taken the place of sorrow, and hope has come to lighten the faces that were formerly overshadowed by depression and doubt. Little tots who previously wandered through the streets now find pleasure and helpful entertainment in the games, stories and Bible lessons provided at the settlement houses; aimless boys and girls have been fired with zeal and ambition to become useful Christian citizens; mothers burdened with handicaps of heavy work and poverty have taken a new lease on life when they have found that there are those in the world who want to help them to a higher life; and the fathers noting the improvement of the members of their families, have yielded to the refining and uplifting influences that have been thrown about them in the home and the community. The viewpoint of the whole community has been changed and better citizens, from both the patriotic and the religious viewpoint, are the result.

Ness, corresponding secretary of the Baptist Sunday School Board at Nashville.

The work is made possible by the larger funds available from the 75 Million Campaign and will be carried on by the forces of the eighteen states of the Southern Baptist Convention in cooperation with the Sunday School Board. Additional workers will be put on in every state and a large number of Sunday School institutes will be held in the hope of reaching a great majority of the rural Sunday Schools in every state. Normal Sunday School institutes will be held in fifty counties of Tennessee, for instance, and over 500 rural centers will be reached with the better system of Sunday School teaching and methods of administration. Similar methods will be followed in all the states.

Every State Enriches Work.

Over $300,000 a year will be expended on Sunday School field work in the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention, it is announced, and every state organization will greatly enlarge its Sunday School force, giving special attention to the development of the rural schools.

In order that an adequate number of instructors may be available for carrying on this larger program, a thirty day normal school will be held in Nashville, beginning May 31, in the instruction in which a large regular faculty of Sunday School experts and many special lecturers will be employed.

The Sunday School Board at Nashville has just established a department of Sunday School administration which will deal with all questions of Sunday School organization and equipment. This department will be in charge of Arthur Flake, who has been a member of the field force of the Sunday School Board for quite a while, and who was formerly superintendent of the Sunday School of the First Baptist church of Fort Worth, Texas, said to be the largest Sunday School in the South.

Build Better Church Houses.

Another department of the Sunday School Board is giving attention to the encouragement of better church houses and pastors' homes in the rural districts, furnishing architects' plans for this purpose and detailed instructions without cost to churches which contemplate buildings along these lines.

TELLS OF GRAVE NEEDS OF AUSTRIAN REPUBLIC

Austria Now Is Totally Different from What It Once Time Appeared.

London, April 8.—After a long conference which the French Ambassador, Paul Cambon, had with Premier Lloyd George today, and a full discussion of the French-German incident by the cabinet council, at which the French view was fully explained to the British ministers, an authoritative statement was issued to the effect that France acted entirely on her own initiative in deciding to occupy German towns; that Great Britain, the United States, Italy, and Belgium were all opposed to the plan and that France's action has caused a delicate situation.

The matter is under discussion of the British and French governments and the hope is expressed that the situation may be eased.

The statement recites various expedients suggested for dealing with the Ruhr situation, among others, the sending of allied officers with the German troops to supervise the German withdrawal. Another alternative was that the decision should be left with the German government, with the situation that unless the status quo was sufficiently restored the allies themselves would occupy German points to enforce their demands. The statement proceeds:

"The German government appears to have acted precipitately and France to have responded by adopting a plan which was only intended a last resort method and even then to have been the affair of the allies and not of any one of them simply."

Great Britain, Italy, Belgium and the United States, it is declared, all felt that the task of restoring order should lie with Germany; and all were opposed to their regular forces being called upon except as a last resort, to undertake what was virtually police duties. It is pointed out that France feared some ulterior motive on the part of Germany and doubtless acted in good faith, but, adds the statement, "the immediate result is that responsibility for her action cannot be shared by the allies as a whole, and certainly there is no intention on the part of the British government to allow British soldiers to act as police between hostile German factions and incur all the odium of such a position, to say nothing of its risks."

HOEY FOR RATIFICATION; OVERMAN SOLID AGAINST

Session Starts in Afternoon After Adoption of Committee's Reports.

Raleigh, April 8.—The Democratic State convention last night adopted a plank in the party's platform recommending that the Democrats in the special session of the legislature in July ratify the proposed nineteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution giving women the right to vote.

Suffrage sentiment, after a trial skirmish earlier in the afternoon yesterday, had won by three to one a place for Mrs. John S. Cunningham, of Durham, as honorary delegate to the national convention. But the lines were not drawn and the issue was not presented until the report of the platform committee brought before the convention a plank calling upon the legislature to reject the Susan B. Anthony amendment and to submit to the voters of North Carolina in the November election an amendment to the State Constitution, giving women the right to vote in North Carolina. Two minority reports, one of them presented by instruction from the Fifth district convention, started the fight. It was not until after a long wrangle and much parliamentary discussion that F. P. Hobgood, of Greensboro, one of the earliest champions of the cause in the State legislature, proposed a substitute for the minority reports and the platform plank. The roll call by counties piled up a vote for the substitute of 585 to 428 1-2.

While Miss Sue White, representing the national suffragist headquarters in Washington, was busy distributing suffrage literature about the convention, two anti-suffragists, representing the Woman's Rejection League, spread some anti-suffrage dodgers among the delegates. Both the anti-suffragist agents were from Virginia, Miss C. P. Davis, of University, and Emma Wilson Morris, of Richmond. They stated that they had come into the State at the instance of Miss Mary Hilliard Hinton and North Carolina anti-suffrage association.

The Democratic platform in addition to the suffrage plank is devoted to a lengthy discussion of State and National issues. It endorses the national and State administrations and includes a separate paragraph about the administration of the navy.

Any Man Can Be A Capitalist

Some philosophers go to great lengths explaining why money is not the only thing to work for in life.

And their contention is a good one.

It is true that some wealthy men are miserable, but no man need be unhappy for having money. A man with money is an influence in his community. He can live well and die happy.

Poverty and misery go hand in hand. Choose your own fate—be a capitalist or a pauper.

ITALIANS RECEIVE INVVOY OF AUSTRIA IN KINDLY MANNER

AN UNUSUAL SITUATION RESULT OF OCCUPATION

Troops Were Sent in Good Faith, but Contrary to Treaty Provisions.

Rome, April 8. — Means of meeting grave needs of the Austrian republic and establishment of rapid communications with the United States through Trieste, are objects which have brought Dr. Karl Renner, Austrian chancellor, to Rome. He told the Associated Press yesterday he hoped to arrange important commercial relations with America and that Austria desires to resume cordial intercourse with Italy.

"I am at the Italian capital," he said, "representing the new Austrian democratic republic, which has nothing to do with the empire and nothing in common with the traditions of the Hapsburg monarchy. My visit here is of interest to America as I am aiming at the re-establishment of safe and rapid communications with Trieste, our outlet toward the United States, with which I hope to arrange important commercial relations. We are in such condition as to need assistance from all countries, whether near or far and must trust to the generosity of the American nation.

"The Austria which I represent is totally different from what Italy knew in the past. There are no differences between us and Italy, since the Adriatic question now concerns Italy and Jugo-Slavia. In fact, no Austrian minister when the empire was allied with Italy, was received as cordially as I have been, although I represent a former enemy. The loss of Southern Tyrol is a painful wound for us, but I trust time will heal it, hoping that as relations between the two countries become more intimate it will be easier to solve the question."

ARGENTINE STILL FAVORS

HIS NATIONAL TANGO

Buenos Aires, April 9.—The Argentine has retained its affection for his national dance, the tango, despite the introduction of American "jazz" music and syncopated melodies in the programs of Argentine balls and dances. This was shown during the balls held in a recent carnival when tango tunes outnumbered the fox-trot and one-step in a proportion of three to one. Several American waltzes, however, are very popular. The Argentines call the syncopated music "Ya-qui" tunes.

Some native musicians have grown rich composing tangoes. One of the most popular here is called "Pan y Agua" Bread and Water. The title of another is translated as "Flower of the Mud."

"The more simple the style, with greater luster does beauty appear."

TO select clothes on a basis of cheapness alone is an error that cheats one of fully half the joy of living.

Sadly enough, it is the pit in which a great many good resolutions are trapped.

Fewer clothes and better. No matter what price limitations, dignity and good taste may be had if one is discreet in shopping.
