

RAILROAD STRIKES ABOUT CONCLUDED SERVICE RESUMED

Officials Report Return to Work Except in Isolated Territories.

DEMAND TO BE TURNED OVER TO LABOR BOARD

Walkout Loses Effectiveness in Chicago District, Officials State.

Washington, April 19.—The nationwide railroad strike apparently has collapsed.

Except in a few isolated sections, railroad officials reported last night the bulk of the men who followed the leadership of John Grunau, a Chicago trainman, had returned to work.

Normal passenger service was virtually restored, they said, while substantial progress had been made in moving the vast amount of freight that has been accumulated through the country, especially in the east during the past three weeks.

Many of the strikers went out without presenting any grievances and later announced that failure to receive increases in wages granted to other railroad men prompted their action. The strikers, who acted in defiance of the railroad brotherhood chiefs had generally returned without any definite promises of more pay.

In many cases, however, they have been assured their demands will be presented to President Wilson's labor board which is empowered under the Federal Transportation Act to settle disputes between the railroads and their men. The board is now sitting in Washington.

In Chicago, the original strike center, railroad officials reported the strike had lost its effectiveness, while brotherhood chiefs declared action would be taken today towards revoking the charters of locals whose members refused to return to work by midnight Saturday. Not more than 2,000 men are reported to be out there by railroad officials although these figures were disputed by Grunau who claimed the strikers ranks were unbroken and that a meeting of "outlaw" union heads from all sections of the country would be held there today to make plans for continuing the strike. In the New York district it was apparent most of the strikers whose numbers were variously estimated from 4,000 to 20,000 had returned. Two thousand employees of the Hudson Tubes, which carry thousands of commuters into New York daily from Northern New Jersey points, were the only united and important hold outs. The Tubes have been closed to passenger traffic since the men walked out, April 9th.

In Detroit an attempt will be made today to resume switching operations with volunteer crews recruited from the ranks of idle factory workers. In Cleveland all local freight terminals with the exception of the New York Central, Cullenwood Yards and the Erie Railroad, were still tied up, passenger service through the Union station was normal.

The return today of several hundred striking Baltimore and Ohio trainmen of the Connellsville-Pittsburg division is expected to mark general resumption of freight service in that district. A few Pittsburgh terminal men are still out.

Virtually normal conditions were reported in the Buffalo, Toledo and Philadelphia districts where the majority of strikers had already returned to work. Strenuous efforts were made last night to break up the strike in Columbus, Ohio.

FLYING SQUADRON HELPING TO CURB HIGH COST LIVING

Department of Justice Officials Eliminating Exorbitancy in New York.

New York, April 19.—A. W. Riley, chief of the "Flying Squadron" of the Department of Justice, whose campaign so far has resulted in the conviction of 107 profiteers with fines ranging from $50 to $2,500 and imprisonment from one day to two years, has uncovered a number of surprising commodities for which dealers are said to be asking exorbitant prices. Complaints of alleged "gouging" in almost everything from pickles to rouge and from lemonade to whiskey are being reported to Mr. Riley by New York consumers. One man who had paid $1.15 to a restaurateur for a tiny steak and six small pieces of French fried potatoes, didn't stop to eat them but glancing at his check, took a newspaper he had been reading, wrapped up his "meal" and brought it to the federal prosecutor.

Some of the letters of complaint were amusing, others pathetic. All, however, showed the seriousness of the present era of high prices. One indignant citizen wrote: "You ought to investigate—fish market in Brooklyn. He's a modern Jesse James. What do you think of 90 cents a pound for salmon and 60 cents for sea bass?"

The chief of the "Flying Squadron" has received complaints of such examples of alleged profiteering as follows:

Drug store whiskey at $5 a pint and $2 more for doctor's prescription; canary birds $20 to $25 and $3 to $18 for a cage; lemonade, served at a hotel dance and said to have been "weak" $1 a glass; rouge $1 to $3 a box for "imported" brands; that fish during Lent rose from 20 cents to $1 a pound in some New York markets; prunes, three for 10 cents in a popular restaurant; peanut oil, sold as "olive oil," $4 a quart; anthracite coal $15 instead of $9.50 a ton in Nyack, N. Y., because the miners were granted a wage increase of 50 cents a ton.

Consumers complain to Mr. Riley that they have to pay 50 cents a pound for the same brands of coffee that retailed for 21 cents a pound before the war and that wholesalers paid 71 cents a pound for some of these coffees three years ago and are now paying 15 cents. Milk they charge costs 10 cents a glass in restaurants which buy it for 12 cents a quart; that they have to pay 35 cents for linen collars costing at wholesale $2.50 a dozen; pickles cost 6 cents each; cabbage 40 cents a head; 75 cents a bunch for asparagus and 35 cents a head for lettuce.

TO THE CONGREGATION OF ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

Through this letter I desire to express my exceeding great regret in not being able to open St. Paul's Church during the wonderful week of Prayer and Gospel Preaching, owing to important Diocesan duties which necessitate my being away from the Parish a week or more. Services all this week at 8 P. M. will be held in all the Churches in Greenville and I sincerely hope and pray you will attend these special services and give your loyal support in every possible way. I urge you to attend these meetings. These series of services have my hearty endorsement and earnest prayers that God may bless the Speakers in their work, that souls may be quickened to a higher spiritual life the careless and indifferent aroused, backsliders turned again to the life of righteousness, and many added to the Church from that great body of those who are without God in the world.

God grant that the meetings may, indeed, prove a blessing to you, dear people, and that you may freely give yourselves up to the influence of the Holy Spirit, God grant that its results may be seen in an encouraged Rector, a quickened congregation and an awoken Parish.

Faithfully and affectionately your rector and pastor.

SHAMHART LEADS SUNDAY EXERCISES AT LOCAL SCHOOL

Pastor of Christian Church Gives Instructive Talk to Y. M. C. A. Members.

Rev. W. P. Shamhart made an impressive talk last night at the Y. M. C. A. services at the Training School on the text "Walk on the Lord". He used the story "In the Desert of Waiting" by Annie Fellows Johnson, very effectively, giving the adventures, the disappointments, the hardships of the traveler journeying toward the "City of the Heart's Desire," his finding of the "Garden of Omar," his toil in his attempts to find the perfect perfume, and his final success. As he went through the story he applied it to life experiences, bringing out the beautiful lessons from the allegory.

"Wait, but do something while you are waiting," do not fret and fume because things do not go your own way. "gather something from all life's experiences," were some of the personal lessons he gathered for the students. He asked the pertinent question, "Are you preparing for a profession or to live a life?" While preparing for a profession one should gather many things that should lead to a broader life, and should enrich life. He brought out strongly the point of the text, interpreting it so that one could see that it meant trusting in the Lord when things seem to be going wrong, and being willing to follow His guidance.

Miss Alleen Jones sang beautifully "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

REVIVAL SERVICES MAKE GOOD START IN CITY YESTERDAY

Simultaneous Meetings Well Attended in Practically All Churches.

The simultaneous evangelistic meetings began in all the churches yesterday, and from the large congregations in all of them it is perhaps safe to say that never on a previous Sunday were more Greenville people in church. From this it is seen that the preparation for the meetings has brought results, and it is hoped that the greatest spiritual awakening Greenville has ever known will come during this week and next. The people are united and urged to attend services in one of the churches every day. There is able preaching and good music in all of them.

He is survived by his wife and several children. The interment will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

HOMES ARE BEING CONSTRUCTED FOR PITTSBURG LABOR

Large Corporations Financing Home Operations for Employees.

Pittsburgh, April 19.—Important industrial corporations in the Pittsburgh district are financing home building operations by their employees to relieve the house shortage in mill and mining communities. For the general public, trust companies have adopted similar plans, and are now accepting what they term "installment mortgages" to encourage house erection.

The most ambitious program of the lot is that of the United States Steel Corporation. Under this plan an employee, who is willing to make an initial investment of ten percent of the total cost, is permitted to select from a large number of plans the kind of house that will suit his family. He then picks out a lot, usually near his place of employment, and the corporation's architects and builders do the rest. When the house is completed, it is turned over to the employee who pledges himself to pay for it in monthly installments covering a period of ten years, the total cost being just what the cost has been to the corporation. Although the plan is scarcely a month old, the bureau in charge of building is already swamped with applications.

The Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company also has a building plan, and has just completed and sold to employees 50 houses at cost. They too are to be paid for on the installment plan. Another and much larger program is in preparation.

The merit of these plans, builders say is that materials can be purchased in large quantities, and the saving passed on to the workman buyer, who thus gets a much better home for less money than if he had bought the material and erected the house as an individual.

Moving day, which is May Day, is expected to prove a trying time to many persons, according to real estate and renting agents. Rents have advanced steadily during the past two years until now they are from 25 to 100 percent higher than in the early days of the war.

SEVERAL BIG LAND SALES TO BE HELD IN CITY TOMORROW

The first sale will begin at 10:30 o'clock, when the House and Adkins property just off Dickerson Avenue, will be sold to the highest bidder. After this sale the Tom Moore property, between the fertilizer factory and Cotton Mills, on the Norfolk Southern railroad will be sold. Immediately after these sales and at 12:30 o'clock, the J. S. Tunstall's new houses, on Grand Avenue, will be offered for sale. This property consists of four nice lots and houses located in one of the most desirable parts of Greenville. The houses are modern up-to-date, with all city conveniences. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the Tom Meade lots will be sold. This property is located on Fourth, Davis and Ward streets, and adjoins the new home of J. B. Harding. One of the most attractive and rapidly growing residential sections of the city, only five blocks from the depot all city conveniences, city water, electric lights, sewerage, paved streets, side walks, etc. This promises to be a big day for Greenville, and especially for those who are thinking of buying property. Music will be furnished by a splendid band, and presents will be given away.

STATE INSURANCE GETS BIG AVERAGE DURING PAST YEAR

Total Estimate for Year Shows an Increase of 290 Per Cent.

Raleigh, April 19.—In a recent estimate of the total new life insurance written in North Carolina last year Insurance Commissioner, James R. Young, reported it to be $237,000,000, 90 more than that for 1918, an increase of 290 percent, while the estimated average increase in the United States was 66 percent. State Agriculture Commissioner, W. A. Graham recently issued two most important reports of the cotton and tobacco production of last year, the total cash value of the two crops, including cotton seed, being $326,206,000.00. Examining these two reports, as statistician for the Insurance Department, I soon located the reason for the enormous insurance increase of last year in the eastern section of the state. Investments or savings I prefer to consider it, in the counties of Wilson, Edgecombe, Martin, Pitt, Nash, Johnson, Greene and Lenoir in the insurance tables were inexplicably larger than the average of Agricultural counties.

After examination of Major Graham statistics of cotton and tobacco, the fact that these counties were both large cotton and tobacco growing counties supplied the explanation for computing the actual cash paid producers for these two crops, the larger percentage of increase of insurance in these cotton and tobacco counties was easily accounted for. Pitt County farmers I found, exchanged cotton and seed and tobacco for hard dollars to the tune of twenty-four and a half millions. Owing to the fact that Nash and Edgecombe are so interwoven in tobacco markets of these two counties $24,600,000 Whitakers and Battleboro splitting these towns, making both cotton and tobacco sales reports confusing, I have worked unit totals for them. Together they sold from the farms in the markets of these two counties $24,600,000 worth of tobacco cotton and cotton seed. That represents intelligent toil fertile soil, favorable climate and deserved prosperity. I also find the decrease in cotton and tobacco production last year from the year before, at 1919 prices per pound, to total $4,288,215 for Nash and Edgecombe and $3,470,950 for Pitt. It occurs to me to send these facts for dissemination among your progressive business men and farmers. I can't resist suggesting that if the same amount of money wisely invested in these three counties in insurance, was corralled out of that huge $50,000,000, 1919 cotton and tobacco crop, and applied to harnessing Tar river, it would save millions each year in property, many people from disease and death, and evermore prevent as great a loss as $8,000,000, in any one year. It would cost not over $2000,000.00 and the State and Federal government would be glad to help.

Respectfully,
ANDREW JOYNER.

TURK PEACE PACT TO BE DISCUSSED IN PEACE MEETING

Supreme Council of Allies to Hold Initial session During Today.

AMERICA WILL NOT SEND REPRESENTATIVE BODY

Great Britain Represented by Three Premiers at San Remo Meeting.

San Remo, April 19. Questions in connection with the peace treaty with Turkey will comprise the first business to be taken up by the Supreme council of the allies at its first formal session here tomorrow. This was decided upon at a conference today in the Duvachan Palace, where the sessions are to be held attended by Premiers Nitti, of Italy, Lloyd George, of Great Britain and Millerand of France. It was agreed that daily communications should be issued, as upon the occasion of previous sessions of the council.

It developed definitely today that the United States would not be represented at the conference.

The Prime Ministers of the three great powers—Nitti, Millerand and Lloyd George, have expressed very decided regret that the United States government was taking no part in what is regarded as one of the final acts of the peace conference.

As far as it can be sensed, the feeling here is that the absence of America is only a temporary one and that the reason for her present detachment are likely to disappear.

For the present, however, the prime ministers, foreign ministers and Ambassadors of France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Belgium and Greece at the meeting are occupied with problems particularly affecting themselves and there is no disposition to dwell unduly upon the lack of American participation.

The first meeting of the conferees will be opened at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Another subject which has not been much mentioned as yet, but which will be brought before the council before its close, will be the condition of international exchange and the position in which Italian industry has been placed by lack of coal. The Hungarian treaty will have to be passed upon finally, with the prospect ahead that the present Hungarian government may refuse to sign it. Then there is the vastly important question of compelling Germany to fulfill the treaty of Versailles, regarding which an early declaration by the conference is expected.

Sessions will be held morning and afternoon, with the possibility that evening meetings also may be arranged for.

The Jugo Slavs are not represented here and it appears doubtful if the Adriatic question will be taken up.

DAY SERVICES BEGIN 4 O'CLOCK IN IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Beginning tomorrow at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the Immanuel Baptist church will conduct day services throughout the series of services which started yesterday. The public is cordially invited to all these services.

STATE ACID WOOD SALE.

Plans are being made by the District Forester here for the sale of approximately 150,000 cords of chestnut acid wood stumpage in the Nantahala National Forest in western North Carolina. The timber lies in Macon county, North Carolina, along the Nantahala river and about 15 miles distant from Andrews, North Carolina. It is about the same distance to the east.

On privately owned land adjacent to this body of government timber there is estimated to be approximately 200,000 cords of acid wood. This in connection with the timber to be sold to the Forest Service, would be sufficient to maintain a moderate-sized tannic acid plant for 25 years. The Forest Service, of course is offering for sale only the timber owned by the Government. Approximately 15,000 acres of Government lands are involved, of which 10,500 are heavily timbered.

The topography for all lumber operations and work may be carried on practically through the year. A privately owned standard gauge railroad parallels the tract for some distance. Sufficient labor to operate a moderate-sized plant is said to be available from local sources.

In accordance with the usual procedure governing sales of timber on National Forests the stumpage will be advertised and sold to the highest bidder. Purchasers will not be required to pay for the entire body of timber at one time, but will be allowed to make advance payments on a basis of three or four months' cut. A prospectus giving the details of the chance will be issued by the District Forester here, and the Forest Supervisor at Franklin North Carolina.

SHAKESPEARE DAY IN THE SCHOOLS.

Schools throughout the United States are again planning to observe April 23

as Shakespeare Day according to reports received by the Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior, which has just issued an official publication containing suggestions for appropriate school celebrations.

Acting of Shakespeare plays by the children themselves is advocated by the Bureau's publication as one of the best ways to celebrate the day.

"My ideal of a Shakespeare Day," says H. G. Wells, the novelist, who is quoted in the Bureau bulletin, is a day on which, in every school, Shakespearean plays are acted by the children themselves.

The one person, the only person who ought to speak for Shakespeare on Shakespeare day is Shakespeare himself. So let Shakespeare be read and played for our Shakespeare Day celebration in the schools, and let the rest of us keep silence while he speaks.

Whatever plans are made for Shakespeare celebrations in schools they should be pleasurable, asserts Professor Caroline F. E. Spurgeon, of Bedford College, London, now on a lecture tour in the United States.

"Let the day be one of enjoyment," she says. "The reason why children do have unpleasant associations with Shakespeare is that the study of him is made lifeless and dull. He is not to them the most laughter-loving, the most sympathetic of human beings, but he is some one who wrote a large number of intolerable notes in order to explain the obscure words and strange phrases and faults of grammar and spelling in which he seems to have delighted. I believe that the institution of a day like this might sweep away some of these misconceptions if it were arranged so as to be a living thing in which there would be acting and singing, the children themselves taking part."

MISS ARGENT QUINERLY ENTERTAINS.

On Friday evening from 9 to 11 o'clock Miss Argent Quinerly delightfully entertained the Senior class of the Greenville High School at her home on Third street.

The house was lovely in its decorations of jonquills, snap-dragons, cornations and ferns. Those receiving the guests were Misses Argent Quinerly, Anna Bell Quinerly, Edith Quinerly and Margaret Cone Tucker. Serving punch were Misses Elizabeth Quinerly and Florence Martin.

After the guests arrived the hostess presented each with a card on which were questions to be answered with the names of automobiles. Misses Thelma Shamhart and Mary Louise Langley were asked to cut for the prize. Miss Langley, the lucky one, was awarded a "Kiss-me-Kid."

The guests were then taken into the library, given pencil and paper and asked to write all the slang they could. Miss Lillian Joyner having written the greatest number, was asked to read her paper, much to the amusement of the guests. She was then presented with a box of candy. Immediately after this each guest was given a peanut tied with yellow and green ribbon. On being opened they were found to foretell the future of each. Why talk of the H. L. of Clothing when our stock is brimming full of wearables at prices far below that asked at other places?

Any Man Can Be A Capitalist

Some philosophers go to great lengths explaining why money is not the only thing to work for in life.

And their contention is a good one.

It is true that some wealthy men are miserable, but no man need be unhappy for having money. A man with money is an influence in his community. He can live well and die happy.

Poverty and misery go hand in hand. Choose your own fate—be a capitalist or a pauper.

Savings placed in The Home Building and Loan Association make it possible for wage-earners to acquire riches by saving a portion of their wages every month and investing it in our stock.
