

SAYS FREEDOM OF PRESS AND SPEECH REALLY ESSENTIAL

Vice-President Marshall Gives Views at Associated Press Luncheon.

SAYS FOREIGNERS HAVE NO RIGHT FOR CHANGES

American Citizens Do Have Right of Alteration by Constitutional Means.

New York, April 20.—Vice-President Marshall was appointed by members of the Associated Press at their annual meeting today when he advocated freedom of speech and press as guaranteed by the Constitution, but favored "soaking it to the fellow who causes trouble in the American republic by what he says."

He drew a distinction as to rights of free speech between those who were born in the country and others. Native-born, he said, had the right to advocate alteration of the government by constitutional means to socialism or a monarchy, but those who sought a haven in this country had no right to propose a change in the system of government.

The Vice-President was the chief speaker at the luncheon of the members in connection with the annual meeting, at which the retiring five directors were re-elected by acclamation and nominating committees were chosen and advisory boards and auditing en.

After deprecating the great amount of publicity given to crime and suggesting that newspapers pour oil on the troubled waters of unrest by speaking of the fine things in American life, Mr. Marshall told the meeting what he thought would be real news, namely "a clarion call from every newspaper in America for men to stand for justice, for freedom, for right, for the maintenance of the old Constitution and the old principles upon which the republic was founded."

"There are a great many people," he continued, "who think we are going back to where we were before August 1, 1914. We are not going back there, gentlemen, I would to God it were possible to go back to 1914, but we live in the year of grace 1920, and we are not going back. And you know and I know, whether we close our eyes to it or not, that ten million men did not agonize and suffer and die upon the far flung lines of Flanders and France that the world might be what the world was."

"The problem for the Associated Press is a sto whether it is to act as a mere machine or whether with the opportunities and the privileges the Associated Press has, it will assume the responsibilities for bringing peace and quietude, and good order at least to America if not the world."

The Vice President counseled against being discouraged at high prices. He recalled the days after the Civil War when he said flour sold for $20 a barrel, quinine for $20 an ounce and calico for 80 cents a yard.

"Let's get down from the theory," he said, "that we must either make all the money we can today, for tomorrow we may, or we must spend all the money we have today for fear there will be none tomorrow. Let us understand that American prosperity cannot continue if the farms and factories of this country are to produce less and people are to increase and consume more. And what is the use of talking about congress, or courts, or any other human instrumentality setting aside the plain laws of nature?"

SEVERAL CASES IN CRIMINAL SESSION OF COURT TUESDAY

ALLEN NOT GUILTY OF BURNING COUNTY STORE

Unusual Number of Larceny Cases Continued Until the Next Term.

Several cases were disposed of in yesterday's session of criminal term of Pitt county superior court and many cases were continued until next session owing to inability on the part of court officials to reach the issues this term. Three or four of the issues heard throughout the day were long drawn out and required some little time in finally disposing of and necessitated deferment of other matters.

It is expected that the remainder of the work's activities will be featured consideration of several other important matters, although it is possible some tedious controversy will hinder work to no little extent. So far remarkable progress has been made and every effort is going to be made for a continuance of the good work until the term is concluded.

Judge Connor and officials have been alert to practically every issue so far given consideration and have displayed mighty fine sentiment in every way. This fact will have much to do with remaining cases on the calendar and assure prompt and rapid disposition wherever this may be possible.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday, mention being made of (Continued on page six.)

DR. HURT DRAWING LARGE CROWDS AT BAPTIST REVIVALS

Third Sermon Last Night of More Than General Interest Throughout

Dr. John Jeter Hurt, who is conducting the series of services in the Memorial Baptist church preached his third sermon to a large and appreciative audience last evening. He took for his subject, "If Christ comes to Greenville will he find room?" using a part of the seventh verse of the 2nd chapter of Luke for his text, "for there was no room in the inn for them." He brought out and developed the following question, "If Christ comes to Greenville will he find room?" If Christ goes into your business will he find room? Is there room for Christ in your church, your home and in your own heart? He said that the saddest thing in the life of Christ, the man of sorrows and acquainted with grief, was that when he came into the world there was no place for him. He spoke in a beautiful way of the life of Christ, how he lived and died that others might be saved, how he was turned away from his own people who refused to receive him. "He came into his own and his own received him not." Is your home ready at all times for Christ, or would you have to hide things and cover up faults, before he could enter? He brought out these points so forcefully, that all present went away with them still on their hearts.

In conclusion Dr. Hurt said that the saddest thing in the first century was that there was no room for Him, and that now in the twentieth century, after the world has reached the top of the ladder in civilization, education, culture and refinement, that the saddest thing that could possibly happen would be that there could be no room made for Him. Another large audience greeted this (Continued on page six.)

TELLS OF SERIOUS LOSSES RESULTING FROM ELECTRICITY

Electrical Board of New York Explains Fires Resulting from Connections

FIRE COMMISSIONER OF STATE GIVES OPINION

James R. Young Comments on Conditions in Every Part of the Country.

Raleigh, April 21, 1920. In a recent lecture on electrical bureau of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters gave this concrete summary of total losses in the New York district from electrical equipments, with figures showing the immense value of proper inspection by competent authority. Of total losses in 1919 of $344,000 due to electricity $243,000 occurred from installation that had not been approved by the board. Mr. Forsyth further stated that 90 per cent of electrical equipment in this territory had been approved, hence it followed that two thirds of the loss due to electrical devices came from the one percent that was not approved, and only one-third from the other ninety-nine per cent that were and are approved. An equally important conclusion was drawn from electrical iron losses. Of the 32 fires of this class, with a loss of $151,000 thirty one were irons unapproved, and only one from irons with approved installation.

Commenting on the above interesting summary insurance Commissioner Young, makes the following informative deductions; "If all the installations, according to Mr. Forsyth's data had been approved the loss would (Continued on page four.)"

EXPLAINS POSITION OF COMMISSIONERS IN HOSPITAL ISSUE

Chairman White Appears Before Committee as to Maintenance Funds

MAINTENANCE FUNDS TO BE VOTED BY PEOPLE

Commissioners Cannot Make Appropriation Without Vote by the Public.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Pitt County Memorial Hospital Corporation yesterday, Mr. S. T. White stated the position of the county commissioners relative to the maintenance fund of the hospital. Owing to the fact that a petition signed by some of the representative citizens of the county requesting that the commissioners do not grant a maintenance fund without a vote of the people the commissioners decided they would not appropriate any fund to the hospital until the matter had been settled by a vote of the people.

Mr. George Royal, president of the board of directors of the Goldsboro hospital, was present and told how the Goldsboro hospital is maintained. He was very much impressed with the broad organization and plans for the Pitt County Memorial Hospital, and assured the directors that the question of maintenance would take care of itself when that time came just as it did in the case of the Goldsboro hospital.

So the executive committee of the Pitt County Memorial Hospital agreed to carry out the original plan and secure at least $250,000, with which to build and equip a fitting and serviceable memorial hospital to the sons of Pitt. Greenville township has now subscribed $90,000 of this amount. Since this question has been settled it is now desired to secure the subscriptions, in the remaining townships. PHILADELPHIA HAS STARTED CAMPAIGN TO REDUCE RENTS

Campaign for Home Building Started in Many Parts of the City.

Philadelphia, April 21.—A campaign for the building of homes is Philadelphia's answer to the question of how to keep rents down to a reasonable basis. The tenant population is in desperate straits for rents have been going higher and higher and no end seems to be in sight. The scramble for homes in the suburbs is so acute that when one woman moved some of the furniture out of her home, the other day, in order to clean the house 25 persons tried to rent it from her within a few hours.

To stop the profiteering in rents and homes, several organizations are attempting to unite on a program of house building to continue for at least six months or until the shortage has been relieved. These organizations include Associations of Tenants, Trade Unions, representatives of the building trades and mortgaging companies. They have been asked to undertake this work by the department of public welfare.

Meanwhile camping ground accessible by street cars is in great demand. Tent manufacturers say more orders have been placed for tents this month than ever before in Philadelphia's history.

There is an unrecanted amount of building of cheap cottage and bungalows within a radius of 30 miles of Philadelphia to accommodate the rush of tenants that is expected when mild weather comes. Those erected in one community cost about $600 each and are eagerly rented at $350 for the season.

PUBLIC PROBLEMS BE CONSIDERED BY MANUFACTURERS

Adverse Program to be Principal Feature of Silver Jubilee in New York.

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE TO BE GREAT INTEREST

Platform for American Industry Will be of Unusual Importance.

New York, April 21.—Offering a diverse program and bringing into feature numerous public problems with which industry is co-related, the National Association of Manufacturers today announced the speakers for its Silver Jubilee Convention, which is to be held in this city, on May 17, 18 and 19.

Some of the most important subjects which will be discussed are: "International Exchange," by A. Barton Hepburn, chairman of the Advisory Board of the Chase National Bank; "The Relations of the Government to the Manufacturers," by Dr. R. S. MacElvee, of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Washington, D. C.; "The Open Shop in Its Relation to American Democracy," by Dr. G. W. Dyer, professor of Political Economy of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.; "Practical Certified Regulation of Immigration," by Louis Marshall, formerly chairman of the New York State Commission on Immigration; "What Are the Dangers of Inflation Continues?" by Francis H. Sisson, Vice-President of the Guaranty Trust Company, New York City; "Will Immigration Injure Our Industry or Our Labor?" by Senator Walter E. Edge, of New Jersey; "The Future of the Railroads," by Daniel Willard, President of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad; "Unrest and the Law," by John E. Edgerton, President of the Tennessee Manufacturers' Association, Lebanon, Tenn.; "The Legislative Outlook," by James A. Emery, General Counsel of the National Association of Manufacturers, Washington, D. C., and Professor H. Parker Willis, of the Federal Reserve Bank. (Continued on page four.)

PRESBYTERIANS IN MIDST OF SPLENDID REVIVAL SERVICES

Dr. Walthall and Singer Pardo Doing Excellent Work in Services.

Few sermons of more power and practical grip, have ever been heard in Greenville, than were preached yesterday in the Presbyterian church by Dr. D. K. Walthall, and last night at the close of the service, thirty-one Christians remained and bound themselves together in a Christian workers band, pledging themselves to prayer and to do whatever God's Spirit prompted them to do while these special services continued. Dr. Walthall is a very earnest, quiet speaker, whose messages come out of a deep experience in presenting the claims of Jesus Christ. The singing of Mr. Pardo is very unusual. One never misses the words in his songs, and his beautiful, lyric tenor sings its way into every heart. Hear these men each afternoon at 4:00 o'clock and each night at 8:00 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church.

CUMMINGS CHOSEN AS CHAIRMAN FOR NEXT CONVENTION

Chairman of Democratic Executive Committee to Preside in San Francisco

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE FOR CONVENTION

Chairman Cummings Declares Republican Party Has Lost Its Prestige.

Chicago, Ill., April 20.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, today was selected to act as temporary chairman of the party's national convention at San Francisco next June. The selection was made by the executive committee of the Democratic national committee. Colonel John I. Martin, of St. Louis, for the past 25 years sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic national committee, was chosen sergeant-at-arms of the convention.

The convention late was formed at a luncheon at the Iroquois Club, where the Democratic chiftains later listened with particular interest to a speech in which Chairman Cummings sounded what they said probably would be the main point of his "keynote address."

The Republican party has lost its moral character, he declared, in launching a vigorous attack on the action of the majority in congress in defeating the peace treaty and league of nations and particularly the methods by which control of the foreign relations was held by the Republicans.

"The whole fight on the League of Nations dates back to a corrupt election in Michigan," he said, "and a convicted criminal is the thing upon which Republican supremacy rests." He was convinced that the people of the United States wanted the League of Nations. The Republican congress had debated the peace treaty for eight months and had failed "to pass one constructive piece of legislation."

Turning to the war, he declared that "not chance but brains" won it, and for this leadership he maintained the Democratic party was entitled to credit. "It matters not what they may say of President Wilson," he added. "His fame is immortal and future generations will render tributes of praise and obligation to this great Democrat."

Relation of Democratic women to the party and their part in the direction of its affairs would be decided by the San Francisco convention, the National executive committee decided today.

Meeting with members of the women's advisory board, the committee appointed Mr. Cummings chairman of a sub-committee to draft the program under which the enfranchised women will work. Their findings will be presented to the convention for adoption.

Today's session was said to be the first in which women have had representation on the National executive committee.

Plans for the convention were virtually completed today, with the selection of the temporary officers. Besides Mr. Cummings and Mr. Martin, these officers are: E. G. Hoffman, national committee man from Indiana, secretary; W. R. Hollister, of Missouri, assistant secretary; J. J. Hughes, of Oklahoma, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Colonel Martin, who has been sergeant at arms of the national committee for the past twenty-five years, has officiated at four previous conventions.

TORNADO SWEEPS MISSISSIPPI ALABAMA, AND TENNESSEE

Birmingham, April 21.—One hundred and eighty two are dead, scores injured, property and crops damaged running into millions are the estimated toll of a tornado which yesterday swept parts of Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee. Sixteen bodies were brought into Hamilton, Ala. Red Cross relief parties and special trains rushed to the stricken sections carrying doctors, nurses and food.

WEDNESDAY, APR. 21, 1920

WHY MORE CAPITAL IS NEEDED.

In three years inventories of eleven leading manufacturing and retailing tobacco companies show an increase of 114 per cent, says Tobacco, of New York.

These increases afford an explanation for the additional capital that has been going into the tobacco business. Larger inventories are, to some extent, accounted for by increased production of the companies which necessitates carrying larger stocks, but to a large degree are attributable to higher prices for tobacco.

The average farm price for tobacco as of December 31 was 39 cents. This compared with 28 cents in 1918, an increase of 39 per cent and with 24 cents in 1917 a gain of 62 per cent.

"Evidence of the confidence which tobacco manufacturers have in the outlook for their industry is the increase in their productive capacity made during the year just ended or which will be made in the near future," declares the Wall Street Journal.

The demand for tobacco and its products is steadily growing both at home and abroad. United States in 1919 produced 1,380,458,000 pounds of tobacco. There is reason to believe that efforts will be made to increase the crop in 1920. In the Connecticut Valley preparations indicate a 20 per cent larger acreage. In Lancaster County, Pa., shortage of labor may result in a smaller acreage, but in Virginia and the Carolinas farmer are making ready to plant additional acreage to tobacco.

High prices make tobacco cultivation profitable. To protect themselves against reaction in price on the 1920 crop, growers and dealers in Kentucky have formed an organization and will seek to include planters throughout the country in its membership.

High prices are not attributable solely to an increased domestic demand. Foreign buying of American tobacco advanced in leaps and bounds. In 1919 the excess of exports of unmanufactured tobacco over imports was 679,074,358 pounds or 48.9 per cent of the crop. This compared with 320,357,100 pounds or 22.2 per cent of the crop in 1917. This tremendous increase is due to the recovery of the European manufacturers since the armistice.

HITTING HIGH PRICES.

A young woman protested after having paid $3 for a bag at a department store "bargain sale" which, she discovered later, cost 75 cents to manufacture. She said that many big business houses were not satisfied with 100 percent profit but were making, in some cases, 150 to 200 percent. She suggested a "remedy" as follows:

"Do not buy anything in the first store you visit. Ask the price and, if it seems at all excessive, say you will not pay it and walk out. Then go next door and you buy it for less. At any rate these profiteers need to know that the public is wise to them. A tremendous volume of refusals to buy would make such merchants realize they must stop overcharging if they would not precipitate a general business boycott."

Obviously the "Flying Squadron" is working with the utmost secrecy and names of complainants are withheld. Several big New York corporations, which have been accused of making unjustifiable profits on foodstuffs and clothing, are now reported under investigation. According to Mr. Riley, one convicted profiteer blamed the public for much of the high prices.

"It's so easy to get what you ask for," the merchant confided to the chief investigator, "that few business men can resist the temptation to raise prices. If I put two garments in my store window of exactly the same cut and materials but with a $50 tag on one and a $55 tag on the other, most one. It's a strange freak of human nature. People nowadays don't seem to concern themselves any more about what a thing costs."

Protests against profiteering are reported pouring into the Federal building here from all over the country. When a complaint is received it is indexed and forwarded to Federal prosecutors and "flying squadrons" operating in the United States judicial territory where the victim resides. Investigation follows and, if the facts warrant, arrests are made. The campaign, initiated by Attorney General Palmer, will go on according to H. L. Van Sicker, in charge of the New York office for Mr. Riley, "until prices of food, clothing, fuel and feed for livestock are brought to more normal levels."

DIRE DISTRESS

It is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Greenville Readers.

Don't neglect an aching back. Backache is often the kidneys' cry for help.

Neglect hurrying to the kidneys' aid. Means that urinary troubles may follow. Or danger of worse kidney trouble. Here's Greenville testimony. Mrs. W. Gardner, 113 Contanch St., says: "I was bothered for several years from kidney trouble and at times the pains were so bad, I was down in bed. I couldn't move from one side to the other and I was terribly nervous and had awful headaches. Different medicines I took brought me no relief and I was pretty bad off. Someone recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me so I bought a box from the Warren Drug Co. Doan's entirely cured me of this complaint and I am glad to give this endorsement."

NEWS STORY BRINGS $1,500,000 TO MARSHALL

Menominee, Mich., April 21—A small news story on inventions has brought $1,500,000 to Marshall Burns Lloyd, an inventor.

Several months ago Mr. Lloyd invented a new method for producing baby carriages, woven furniture and baskets. It was the only change in the method of weaving wickers since Jobbed, mother of Moses, wove a basket in which Pharaoh's daughter found him him on the River Nile. Soon after Mr. Lloyd invented a loom which weaves wickers into any shape and does so thirty times faster and better than the fastest hand weavers.

The stories of these inventions was printed in patent journals and copied by a trade paper in Milwaukee known as "Packages." A New York representative of Lusty and Sons, London, England manufacturers, read the story investigated and reported to his clients. They came here last week and left with Mr. Lloyd $1,500,000 richer. This huge sum entitles them to extensive British Empire rights. Permits have been sold by the inventor in Canada, New Zealand and Australia.

Mr. Lloyd began life as a fish peddler in Menford, Canada, although born in St. Paul, Minn. He was a hotel waiter, street hawker of soaps and cheap jewelry, mail carrier by dog train and mail manufacturer. During his idle moments he tinkered away at invention, but never had money enough with which to produce big things until he sold a wire weaving device for bed springs, door and table mats. This was followed by a new method and machinery for making steel tubing. He was dismissed as an "insane inventor" when he tried to sell his patents to the steel corporation. Later independent firms which have since been absorbed by the steel corporation paid Mr. Lloyd enough money for American rights so that he could develop his wicker weaving ideas.

If you are looking for bargains we have them. Coburn Chain of Stores.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

I have been to the City Clerk's office three different times to pay my taxes and Mr. Farmer said his books were not ready yet, my property was advertised for non-payment of taxes. There is something lacking somewhere. I don't care to be published this way when I have made efforts to pay what I justly owe. I called at the city clerk's office again this morning but no one was in.

HOUSE SHORTAGES SERIOUSLY AFFECT EVERY TERRITORY

Delay in Relieving Shortage Greater Than Any Other Construction.

New York, April 20.—Delay in relieving the housing shortage all over the country is greater than in any other form of building construction, according to a review of contracts issued today by the F. W. Dodge company. Public works, industrial buildings and public utilities are being constructed much faster than residences and are less affected by high prices, high wages and shortage of material.

Contracts awarded for residential buildings in the first three months this year vary from 14 to 29 percent of total building contracts in different sections of the country. Normally residences account for about 30 percent of the contracts, and in view of existing needs, the review says, residences should represent about 40 percent of the total construction.

In New York state and northern New Jersey 14 percent of the contracts in the first quarter of the year represented residential buildings, "a matter of serious concern," says the review, "as it is probable that the housing shortage is more acute in this territory than anywhere else."

In the territory east of the Missouri river and north of the Ohio residential construction was 19 percent of the total, in New England 23 percent in the district of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington 28 percent. In the Pittsburgh district 19 percent in the central west 18 percent and in the northwest 20 percent.

In no district is contemplated building construction as high as 30 percent.

EFFORT BEING MADE TO SECURE

CHAIR CAR ON N. S. RAILROAD

An effort is being made to secure a chair car on the Norfolk Southern railroad to run between Washington and Raleigh. As a result of this effort, which has been on foot for quite while, representatives from Washington, Wilson and Raleigh will meet in this city tomorrow in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, to draw up resolutions to submit to the corporation commission. This will be quite an addition to service on this road, and make traveling so much easier. The Chamber of Commerce is to be congratulated upon the interest which they have taken in the matter, and it is hoped that the undertaking will be a successful one.

Railway Labor Body Will Proceed With Dispute as to Wage Demands.

Washington, D. C., April 19.—Undeterred by the refusal of the Railroad labor board to hear them today, Representatives of the railroad strike announced that they would present written complaints together with demands for a "living wage" to the board which tomorrow will begin formal hearing of the big wage controversy.

The board flatly declined to "receive, entertain or consider" complaints from strikers, declaring it would only hear those who were adopting every reasonable means of avoiding interruption of railroad service.

The board will proceed with the wage dispute involving claims of nearly two million men which failed of adjustment when the bi-partisan board ceased to function April first. Heads of the four brotherhoods and the chairman of the association of railway executives, all of whom were present today, will attend.

Timothy Shea, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen and Enginemen, said tonight that speedy settlement would be urged. Refusal of the board to hear strikers, Shea, said, would have effect of sending all of the strikers back to work, many of whom had been led astray by thought in the belief that the board might recognize them.

Delegations claiming to represent railroad men of all crafts in various cities who have "quit work" appeared at the offices of the board today demanding assurance of a "substantial guarantee of increased wages," which they said would send strikers back to work. They composed an unorganized association, they said, known as the "Railroad Workers of America," insisting that they still retained their membership in the recognized unions, since they had not struck, but had only "gone on a vacation."

After adopting rules of procedure for hearing disputes, the board admitted several delegations.

Immediate protest was entered by W. N. Donk, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who contended that the officers of the 18 railroad organizations present, represented the men unless they had quit their jobs in which case they were no longer employees of the railroads, or members of the recognized unions.

Any Man Can Be A Capitalist

Some philosophers go to great lengths explaining why money is not the only thing to work for in life.

And their contention is a good one.

It is true that some wealthy men are miserable, but no man need be unhappy for having money. A man with money is an influence in his community. He can live well and die happy.

Poverty and misery go hand in hand. Choose your own fate—be a capitalist or a pauper.

Savings placed in The Home Building and Loan Association make it possible for wage-earners to acquire riches by saving a portion of their wages every month and investing it in our stock.

Allied Premises Are Considering Occupation of Ruhr Basin Region.

FRANCE AND BELGIUM DEPRIVED OF GUARANTEE

Millerand Says Governments Should Support France Against Germany.

Paris, April 19.—Allied occupation of the Ruhr basin in Western Germany is being considered by allied premiers gathered at San Remo, says the Petit Parisien. Premiers Lloyd George, Millerand and Nitti held a brief meeting last night and agreed in principle on the necessity of forcing Germany to disarm, the newspaper declares, but were not agreed as to the best means of procedure.

There was a certain coolness between M. Millerand and Mr. Lloyd George at the opening of the meeting, but it vanished in a short time and utmost cordiality prevailed at the close, according to the Matin.

Demands that the allies, during the San Remo meeting, resist all attempts to revise the terms of the Versailles treaty with Germany are made by Raymond Poincare, former president of the French republic, in an article published by the Matin.

France and Belgium have been deprived of guarantees by the failure of Great Britain and the United States to put the tri-partite convention into operation, he says, and the league of nations is as yet without means of action.

Premier Millerand is congratulated by M. Poincare for the wisdom he showed in pursuing a "wise policy in view of the necessity of stopping the fatal movement leading the allies to the precipice.

M. Millerand says the allied gov-

POLITICAL CLASH NOW CONSIDERED IMMINENT

Factions Discontented and Display Unusual Spirit of Belligerency.

Washington, April 19.—Mexico is experiencing a recurrence of the trouble that started the present era of revolution ten years ago. After a reign of three decades of peace under Porfirio Diaz, the latter assumed to use his presidential office in the elections of June, 1910, to defeat Francisco Madero and the country took up arms and drove out the dictator.

Now after five years of painful reconstruction under Venustiano Carranza, the presidential elections are again scheduled and this time the supporters of General Alvaro Obregon, one of the principal candidates, and a hero of the revolution, are outspoken in their charges that President Carranza is manipulating the machinery of the government in the interest of Ignacio Bonillas, his candidate.

The secession of Sonora—General Obregon's home state—from the Mexican union is a symptom of widespread revolt, thought not necessarily conclusive evidence that civil war and bloodshed will follow. The people in Mexico don't want another era of destruction, and the effort to conduct a fair election will be supported by all the business elements as well as the influential citizenry who are not under the thumb of the government officials or candidates.

The realization that the cards have been stacked against Obregon has driven his supporters to extremes. Stories of high-handed tactics in suppressing electoral freedom have reached here and done no end of damage to Mexico, for there is always a party in our national capital who accept every cloud that hangs over Mexico as justification for American interference. Friends of Mexico have not lost hope that she will go through the election crisis without a revolution.

But from Mexico City itself come advices that a manifesto has been issued to the nation, signed by forty-eight members of the House of Deputies and sixteen members of the Mexican Senate, bluntly charging President Carranza with having exceeded his constitutional powers and with

(Continued from page 1) have been but $102,000, and if none had been approved, it would have been a total of $24,300,000. As it was the loss of $101,000 for the ninety-nine per cent approved devices; and of $243,000 for the one per cent not approved shows that it all had been approved there would have been a saving of $241,980 in property alone. And if none had been approved, the loss would have been $24,300,000, instead of $243,000, a saving of $24,057,000. A study of these figures, clearly shows the wisdom and foresight of the progressive steps taken years ago in North Carolina by giving the State Insurance Commissioner authority to employ a first class electrical expert, who supervises electrical installations in all public buildings, and also aids local electrical inspectors, with power of the State Commissioner to approve or disapprove their rulings. In this matter North Carolina is today a pioneer in such protective work. And she leads all other States, being the only one with a state inspector under control of the Commissioner. What this has saved the state can be realized better by contrasting the United States and the state loss by electricity in 1916, the only official statistics convenient of access. The electrical loss of the United States was $16,559,433. North Carolina's proportion of this was $215,272. Her actual fire loss was $61,441.00 or only one per cent of the whole.

PUBLIC PROBLEMS TO BE CONSIDERED BY MANUFACTURERS

Will speak on financial problems of the several states.

Probably the session of the most pressing public importance will be on Tuesday, May 18, when there will be submitted to the convention for open discussion, "A Platform for American Industry," which is now in the process of formulation. This is being drawn up by committees from the various states, forming a national committee. Should the convention adopt the platform in its entirety it will then be submitted to the Republican and Democratic conventions which are soon to meet. The manufacturers are receiving from all parts of the country, not only editorial approval but strong support from individuals who believe the time has come when organized industry can help the country out, if it determines upon a real, definite platform that will lead to some specific end.

HOTEL OF GOD.

The French people often apply the name "L'Hotel de Dieu," the Hotel of God to a hospital. How suggestive that name is! The sick who come to be healed are the guests of the Almighty. Those who come to prescribe, to nurse, to cheer, to comfort, to help be fellow hosts and hostesses of God himself. Did you ever think that hospital and hospitality are the same word?

It is in hospitals that one often learns that God is good and kind and that mankind after all is not wholly a bundle of selfishness. There is a great chance for the people of Pitt county to follow our Lord in His healing ministry; and perhaps it is included in what He meant when he said "Greater works than these shall ye do, because I go to my Father." We are not without deep pathetic interest in the physically sick in our midst, and have we realized that for our souls to be truly healthy and well we must do our full part in building, equipping, and filling with the sacred purpose of Christ's life that Hotel of God that we shall call the Memorial Hospital.

splendid preacher this morning. He spoke of the life of Andrew of the wonderful way that he went out and brought in the sinners. What are you doing to help save the world? Every Christian has a commission. He told of how one little boy, in his own home town, brought a sinner to Christ, and how it converted his mother and father, who was a deacon, and how they brought people in. It was a powerful sermon, and made everyone see that they owed Christ their own lives, and other lives which they should bring in.

Mr. W. F. Taylor is conducting the music, and he is splendid. It is a real treat to hear him.
