

REBELS EXPECT TO CAPTURE CARRANZA WITHIN FEW HOURS

Capture of Deposed President Considered Matter of Short Time Now. OREGON APPARENTLY HAS THE UPPER HAND

El Paso, Tex., May 14.—With the fate of President Carranza still in doubt, Mexican telegraph officials from Juarez to Mexico City tonight were said to be making strenuous efforts to handle the almost overwhelming mass of government and press messages presented to their offices for transmission.

The latest official word received up to a late hour today was from General Obregon, former candidate for the presidency of the republic, who reported to Luis Montes de Oca, revolutionary comal here, that President Carranza's capture was only a matter of hours, and that a train of six hundred soldiers of the president's escort had been captured by forces under General Guadalupe Sanchez, said to be one of Obregon's strongest supporters in Vera Cruz.

Although General Obregon's message gave no details, it was presumed that the capture was made near Rinconada, Puebla, where the Revolutionary leaders yesterday reported that a battle had been in progress during the last few days. General Obregon said that the states of Colima and Jalisco were entire in the hands of the Revolutionists, who had 12,000 men operating in that region. These included the forces formerly under General Manuel M. Dieguez, Carranza commander in the north, who has been reported captured, it was announced.

Antonio Fernandez Ferrer, Carranza minister to Cuba, has announced his adherence to the revolutionary movement, Senor De Oco said.

Further indications that Pablo Gonzalez and Alvaro Obregon, formerly candidates for the presidency and now jointly occupying Mexico City, are working in accord was contained in a report to the State Department today. Both have published statements endorsing Antonio Villareal for Provisional President. An extra session of the Mexican congress has been called to name a provisional executive who, under the terms of the published program of the revolutionists, will supervise the election of a President and serve until December 31, when the new President should assume the office.

Adolfo de la Huerta, preliminary chief of the Revolution, was expected to arrive in the capital next week and take charge of affairs until the Provisional President is named.

The support given Villareal's candidacy, was of peculiar interest to American officials because of its possible indication of the character of the proposed government.

BANDIT INSTANTLY KILLED BY RIFLED BAND OF OFFICERS

Train Robber Cornered in Apartment House Battles Until Killed. $100,000 LOOTED FROM MAIL CAR LAST NIGHT

Chicago, May 14.—One of the most daring train robberies in the middle west in recent years ended this morning in the death of a bandit, who last night looted a mail car of the Illinois Central New Orleans Limited of currency estimated to total about $100,000. The money was recovered.

One policeman shot by the bandit died later in a hospital. Another policeman was wounded dangerously. The bandit was identified as Horace Walton, aged 32, of St. Joseph, Mo. He fell with four bullets in his body after barricading himself in his apartment and fighting with more than 100 police, including several picked rifle squads.

According to reports received by the police, the robber boarded a passenger car on the train at Gilman, about 50 miles south of Chicago, and worked his way forward to the mail car, where he compelled one of the five mail clerks to tie the hands and feet of the others.

The shooting of the policeman attracted a squad of patrolmen, who cornered the robber in an apartment building not far away. A rifle squad was summoned, and after two hours of sniping by both sides, the robber was killed.

During the exchange of shots which followed the attempt of the two policemen to search the robber, he dropped the satchel containing the money taken from the mail pouches. At the Hyde Park police station it was found to contain packages of currency of

SENATE PLANS TO VOTE ON PROPOSED RESOLUTION TODAY

Adoption and Subsequent Veto by President Has Already Been Assured.

Washington, May 14.—Arrangements for the Senate's vote tomorrow at 4 p. m. on the Republican peace resolution were completed tonight, with its adoption and a veto later by President Wilson foregone conclusions, according to leaders of both parties.

Democratic estimates were that the resolution would have a majority of from five to seven votes, depending on whether another Republican joins Senator McCumber of North Dakota, in opposition. At least one Democrat was expected to vote with Republican for adoption.

The President's veto message is expected to define more clearly the campaign issue on the question of peace and the treaty of Versailles. Democratic leaders tonight predicted that the treaty would not be returned to the Senate with the veto message but that the President would outline more extensively his position in the veto message and thus let matters go to the country.

The President's position given in his telegram to Oregon Democrats was attacked today by Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri who spoke for more than two hours in behalf of the peace resolution. Senator Reed indicated that strong opposition would develop at the San Francisco convention against the President's demands.

Senator Reed spoke at length on what he characterized as the "silly doctrine that the President by his word alone can bind the nation."

THINKS SALVATION ARMY SHOULD GET GREATER SUPPORT

Retired Editor Declares Organization Worthy of Consideration. IMPORTANT FACTOR IN DEVELOPING MANHOOD

Atlanta, Ga., May 15.—That the Salvation Army, by reason of the nature of its work, has the right to ask support of the public, is the emphatic statement of Edward Bok, retired editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, who has written a letter to Col. Richard E. Holt, provincial officer of the Atlantic coast province, and in which he indorses the army's second home service fund appeal.

In his letter Mr. Bok says: "When we think over all the problems that confront us today, which, after all, is really more vital than the remarking of a man, setting him on his way and giving him back to his children and wife, or to the community, as an asset instead of a liability? If ever there was a piece of real practical citizenship work it is surely this. It is this work, as I know from personal knowledge, that the Salvation Army does, and that is why when it asks me to my support I give it freely and fully, and why it should appeal in the same way to every American man and woman.

"Here, at least, is one agency of uplift work which overlaps no other, for the Salvation Army reaches men whom the churches and all other agencies combined do not reach with the same sure appeal. The Salvation Army worker knows the man who is down, and the man knows that the worker knows him, and hence there is a mutual feeling of understanding sympathy that is true of no other hand that reaches out to him.

SAYS EXTREMISTS PLAY GREAT PART IN OUR INDUSTRIES

Herbert Hoover Declares Unrest Caused Through Extremists' Position.

Washington, May 14.—Herbert Hoover, testifying today before the senate labor committee on the broad question of industrial peace, declared that industrial conferences with employers on one side and employes on the other contained "a considerable percentage of extremists, and the different views between the two left little hope of arriving at constructive results."

"What was needed, he said, was the more moderate view. He did not believe any revolutionary steps should be taken.

"We have not yet arrived at any definite positive settlement of the problem," he added, "and the only legislative procedure should be on the experience we have gained in recent years."

Discussing the attitude of the President's industrial conference on collective bargaining, Mr. Hoover said his opinion was the only pressure to be brought to make it workable.

"There are some things which underlie the whole relationship between capital and labor," he declared. "I don't believe this relationship can be settled by injunction, as this leads to the jail, as the attempted solution of disputes.

DECREASED VALUE IN RUSSIAN MONEY BECOMES SERIOUS

National Coin One of Cheapest Products of Entire Country. AMERICAN DOLLAR WILL PURCHASE 4000 RUBLES

On Board United States Destroyer, Black Sea, May 15.—Russian money is one of the cheapest of Russian products. It is literally dispensed in bales. The old-fashioned pocket-book no longer is sufficiently large to carry one's daily or weekly supply of rubles, of which one American dollar will buy about 4,000. In normal times the ruble had an exchange value of about half a dollar.

There is a colony of millionaire Russian refugees in Yalta, a Black Sea port, who have to keep their currency in trunks, boxes and barrels.

The kopek has long since disappeared as a standard unit in Russian money. In Yalta, smaller denominations of rubles scarcely exist. People brandish 5,000 and 10,000 ruble notes as though they represented only a few rubles.

A correspondent of The Associated Press who has just made a tour of the Black Sea towns on board the American destroyer, Smith-Thompson, found Yalta to be unique among all the cities on the Black Sea. It is the only place in southern Russia where one does not see hunger nor distress. At one time it was the summer home of the late Emperor of Russia. The Bolsheviks have obtained control of it but have spared the fine Imperial palace with its sumptuous gardens and decorations of regal grandeur.

The weather is at last approaching the summer feeling.

PRESIDENT'S VETO SUSTAINED BY BIG VOTE IN CONGRESS

Democrats Defeat Republican in Legislative Appropriation Bill.

Washington, May 14.—President Wilson's veto of the legislative appropriation bill containing an infringement of executive authority was sustained in the house today against the effort of the Republican majority to override it.

Though aided by a handful of Democrats, the Republicans failed by 28 votes to obtain the necessary two-thirds majority to repass the bill over the President's disapproval. The measure then went back to the appropriations committee for elimination of the section objected to and will be returned to the house on Monday for passage in its modified form.

The Republicans rolled up 170 votes to overcome the veto, but the Democrats cast 127 votes to sustain the President. The vote carried with it a denial of opportunity for the senate to attempt off-setting the veto, for the re-drafted measure will elave the house without the provision relating to powers of the joint committee on printing, at which the veto was aimed.

While the house was considering the question, Senator Smoot, of Utah author of the provision and chairman of the joint committee, told the Senate that the President had been misinformed as to the effect of the provision which would have given the committee control of all government publications. Roger Babson, formerly connected with the committee on public information, had others attacking the joint committee, were accused by Mr. Smoot of having misled the President.

GREAT MEMORIAL DEDICATED TODAY TO ALL CONFLICTS

Splendid Amphitheater Unveiled in Honor of Heroes of All Wars. CEREMONIES ATTENDED BY MANY OLD VETERANS

Washington, May 15.—To the memory of the soldiers and sailors who fought the battles of the United States in all wars, a great Memorial Amphitheater was dedicated today in Arlington National Cemetery.

The ceremonies were attended by veterans of three wars, members of the diplomatic corps, cabinet, senate, house and other government officials and a large gathering of people. A procession of army, navy and marine corps detachments, veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and allied organizations, Spanish war veterans and world war veterans led by Major General Nelson A. Miles (retired) preceded the ceremonies.

The dedicatory exercises were under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic to whose efforts credit is given for the inception of the memorial and for 18 years of work for it. Secretary Baker, Secretary Daniels had charge of the construction of the Columbus, O., commander-in-chief of memorial, and Colonel D. M. Hall of the Grand Army of the Republic, were the principal speakers.

The great structure of which marble, built by the government at a cost of $825,000 stands in the southern part of Arlington National Cemetery amid the graves of thousands of the Nation's dead. Near it are the Maine Memorial, where the battleship Maine's fighting top stands sentinel over the graves of the men who lost their lives (Continued on page four.)

WASHINGTON NEWS SAYS CHOWAN DID LIKE IT EXPECTED

Thinks Greenville and Elizabeth City Were Game for College.

From Murrefressboro comes the announcement that the trustees of Chowan College have decided that, after all, it would be better not to change the location of the college just at this particular time.

Two or three months ago the Daily News carried an editorial stating that Chowan College never intended to move and that cities which were making such active bids for the new site for the college might just as well spare themselves the trouble.

Greenville, Elizabeth City and Hertford were among the towns that "bit" at the Chowan College advertising scheme. Rocky Mount, at the time of the announcement was made of Chowan's proposed change, offered the college every possible inducement. The offer was not accepted. Rocky Mount then paid no further attention to the college. Not so with Elizabeth City and Greenville, however. They didn't give up until the last moment. Now they're a sadly disappointed bunch of people. They have learned their lesson.—The Washington Daily News.

HUNS TO IGNORE THE SPA CONFERENCE

London, May 14.—The German cabinet, after a full discussion with the ministers of the federal states, decided unanimously that Germany should not send representatives either to Spa or Brussels conference.

HOOVER DECLARES SUGAR SHORTAGES OF LONG DURATION

Former Food Administrator Says World Shortage to Continue Three Years. TELLS COMMITTEE NOT TO EXPECT ANY CHANGE

Washington, D. C., May 14.—Herbert Hoover, former food administrator and candidate for the Republican nomination for President, gave his views to congress today on the sugar and industrial situations.

Appearing before a House committee investigating the sugar situation, Mr. Hoover declared that the world shortage of the product was likely to continue two or three years. The pressing need was rationing, he said, with immediate government action to control the supply through commercial, not legislative methods.

Although the hearing related primarily to the action of Attorney General Palmer in approving a maximum price for the Louisiana crop, it reached out into a broader field after Mr. Hoover said he could give only an "off-hand" opinion as to that proceeding. Mr. Hoover said, however, that the government should have bought the Louisiana crop last year, pocketing the loss or else selling to the luxury trade at an advance.

Earlier in the day Mr. Hoover, who was a member of President Wilson's second industrial conference, told the senate labor committee he did not believe that the relationship between employers and employes could be settled by any form of legal repression, whether it be by injunction, compulsory arbitration or industrial courts. He said labor unquestionably had been affected by reports of the excessive profits of some employers, although he was emphatic in asserting that unlike Europe, the United States had not been threatened by any attempt by labor leaders to use the strike as a political weapon.

While a large audience heard Mr. Hoover's views before both committees, the greatest interest was displayed by crowds that sought enlightenment on the shortage and high price of sugar, with its resultant tax on the family pocketbook. Answering a multitude of questions bearing on the Louisiana crop and price situation, Mr. Hoover explained that he had no knowledge of his own on the subject but that it, influenced Cuban producers to stimulate prices, and that except for it, the rise in prices would have been less rapid.

Mr. Hoover frankly disagreed with the policy adopted by the Attorney General, saying that if he had been in the latter's place he "certainly would not have attempted such an operation." Prices never could be fixed by threats of jail, he said, adding that the proper course was through commercial processes.

In making reply to members who wanted to know what should have been done to keep the present high sugar cost off the people, Mr. Hoover reiterated that the government should have bought the Cuban crop as well as the Louisiana crop and that even now there was a chance to help by limiting the supply to non-essential industries. In this connection he told the committee that prohibition had stimulated the use of sugar in manufacturing of sweet drinks, and thus had added to the drain on stocks needed.

SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1920.

Carranza is endeavoring to escape to other sections of Mexico, but if we see right it would be advisable to clear out of the country altogether.

A moving picture censorship will soon begin in Greensboro, so it is understood, which goes to show that this city is taking quite a lead in a matter that should be of greater consideration in other territories of the state too, as we see it.

Socialists of the nation evidently are in favor of Eugene Debb's candidacy for president, for they have given him the fifth nomination and still reiterate that he will represent the party. It that's the way they feel about it there should be little opposition as long as prisons still have plenty of room.

It is to be regretted that Mr. W. E. Hooks, of Ayden, who recently announced his candidacy for the House of Representatives, has been forced to withdraw from the race on account of ill health. He would have made a splendid executive in the interest of this section of the state, for he is progressive, upright, energetic and resourceful and could serve the people with more than ordinary intelligence. Mr. Hooks will be succeeded by Mr. R. R. Cotton, who will go through the remainder of the campaign inspired by the thought of winning honor for himself and the candidate who unfortunately has been ruled out by physical disability.

Admiral Sims has been cornered to such an extent now that it may be sometime before he regains freedom. His statements concerning the convoys to Europe, in which he presented telegrams from the secretary of navy approving such action, has brought about unexpected developments which may lead to something serious in the course of the investigation. Secretary Daniels denied that he signed any such telegrams and presented facts in support of his statement, therefore, it is easily surmised how the admiral must feel now that he has been defeated in a most daring and audacious scheme to humiliate the navy department.

The senate will vote on the Republican peace resolution next Saturday evening, according to latest information from Washington, and very naturally hundreds of people will await the decision in expectancy, although there is little anxiety of its successful passage. The negotiating separate peace with Germany by President Wilson is the chief object of the resolution, and as many of the executives realize that peace is a matter of impossibility through senatorial action it is only natural that a separate pact should be desired. The final outcome of the resolutions will show convincingly that people are with the nation's chief representative and that the Republicans are not so much in majority as they seem.

NEW SERVICE BULLETIN.

A bulletin entitled, "New Provisions for Compensation and Medical and Surgical Care and Supplies Under the War Risk Act," and officially listed as "LD-30," is announced by Director R. G. Cholmeley-Jones of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance as ready for distribution.

The circular which is addressed to former service men and a copy of which may be obtained from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, sets forth the warning that a certificate of injury from the Bureau, within one year from the date of discharge or resignation, is necessary to preserve eligibility for compensation on the part of anyone who received injury or contracted disease while in the service.

To quote the bulletin: "No compensation is payable unless the disability or death can be traced to an injury or a disease incurred in the service."

"Many persons, however, have received injuries or contracted disease in the service and the ill effects thereof do not appear until some time after their discharge or resignation. If the disability resulting from the injury or disease contracted in the service does not occur before one year after discharge or resignation you may be unable to obtain compensation, for the law provides that when such disability or death occurs as shown by the medical evidence after one year after your discharge, a certificate of injury must have been obtained from the Director of the Bureau, within the year from the date of your discharge in order that the government may pay you, or your dependent."

"If you were injured or contracted disease while in the service, even though the injury or disease was of a minor character, be sure to apply for a certificate of injury before one year after the date of your discharge or resignation, in order to protect yourself and your dependents. Act now."

"Do not fail to get this certificate if you sustained injury or disease in the service, which, even though it may not bother you now, may become aggravated hereafter. Apply to the nearest District Supervisor of the Public Service, or write to the Chief Medical Advisor, Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C., giving your full name, serial number, and organization, and rank at the time of discharge or resignation."

The Compensation and Insurance Claims Division of the Bureau has approved 147,081 claims for compensation on account of disability through service, and now is making payments thereon each month to the extent of $4,488,058.31.

Political issue are beginning to warm up in this part of the country just now as the primary draws nearer, and even those who heretofore have appeared disinterested are really alive and active after all. There are many matters under consideration, or will be under consideration, that will be interesting to most anyone so it is safe to say other silent parties will begin howling soon.

Members of the Baptist convention in session in Washington this week have asked that both political parties incorporate certain provisions in their platforms tending to more directly support the prohibition amendment in every part of the country where such is necessary. The request is a very natural one in every way, but it could have been more forceful if blind tigers could be taken away from some of the good supporters of both parties.

Senator Harris, of Georgia, in refuting certain charges against his state regarding its opposition to President Wilson's position in the peace treaty issue, declared that Georgia is for the president and has no desire to offer opposition to an issue of such importance to the entire country. The statement was made merely to set Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, right for, it was through his utterance that it gained circulation throughout the country. The sentiment of Georgia is similar to that in many other states where people for many months have realized the necessity of ratification and condemned those who participated in its defeat.

In announcing my candidacy I wish to state to the voters of Pitt county that the work to be done in the legislature is not new to me. I know every detail. I was engrossing clerk of the senate of North Carolina for six years, from 1909 to 1915 and the experience I received in this position will be worth lots to me as a member of the house of Representatives. Pitt county is a great county, one of the richest in North Carolina, and as such is entitled to recognition. DR. W. W. DAWSON,
S. T. WHITE.

TO THE VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY.

It is with regret that I come before the people of Pitt county in a newspaper announcement and withdraw my candidacy for the House of Representatives. Actuated by a desire and an ambition to serve my people in the legislature I announced my candidacy through the columns of the several papers in the county several days ago. At the time of my announcement my family physician was out of town and did not know of my intentions. Since his return he has advised me that my physical condition was such he didn't think I was strong enough to stand the strain of a campaign, and in this opinion he is joined by a near relative who knows my condition thoroughly and who thinks it would be very unwise for me to enter politics at this time. In withdrawing my candidacy I am doing so against the wishes of my best friends but I realize that my health is my first consideration. I am very much interested in Pitt county and want to see the county go forward. We have lagged long enough and I hope the men we send to the next legislature will have the manhood to let the people know where they stand before they are voted on. This is not a time for side stepping. Let the men who are in the race come out flat-footed and say what they stand for.
Thanking each and every one of my supporters for their consideration, I am,
Most respectfully,
W. E. HOOKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democratic voters of the Fifth Judicial District:
I have entered the Primary for the office of Judge in this District.
I have practiced law for the past 18 years, during which time I have assisted in the prosecution of the Federal docket for about 7 years. Since entering my name for the Judgeship I have resigned the office of Assistant U. S. attorney.

Before beginning the practice of the law I had fourteen years experience in business, beginning life as bank book-keeper at the age of 16 years.
I shall not make a canvass of the district for the Judgeship. My conception of the duties and responsibilities of the high office of judge is such that in my view a canvass, and the methods of the political campaign, usual and perfectly proper for other offices—purely political, tend to cheapen and lower its tone. I would rather lose the nomination and never hold the office than lower it a hair's breadth from the high plane of honor and dignity on which our fathers have played and kept it in North Carolina.

I shall appreciate the support of all democrats in the district; and if by their suffrages I should be elevated to the Superior Court bench, I assure them that its high traditions shall be upheld, and in the administration of the office justice shall be meted out to all men alike.
This April 28th, 1920.
ERNEST M. GREEN.

$5,000 each, whose total approximated nearly $100,000, according to police.
Chief Clerk Elmer F. A mail pouch from Decatur had been taken on at Gilma, where the bandit is believed to have boarded the train, according to mail clerks, but whether it contained the big shipment of money is not known. The wounded policeman, who was knocked over when his companion fell mortally wounded, chased the bandit into an apartment house nearby, wounding him once and recovering the money, and from there into another building, and where the robber is said to have been living. During the siege the robber was shot through the head and several times through the body.

Music was furnished by the Uriel-Davis orchestra, formerly the Meyer-Davis orchestra, and this too went to no little extent in making the event of pleasure to the many couples participating.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN

REFLECTOR NEWS COLUMNS

If anyone else in the city is desirous of obtaining an O. Max Gardner button we will be glad to order same from campaign headquarters to supply the demand, but we must ask all to please refrain from telephoning the office claiming the button lost at the court house Thursday night following Cameron Morrison's address and advertised in these columns yesterday. The button in question already has been returned to the rightful owner, if telephone messages count for anything, it is evident that several persons must have either misplaced or lost their buttons at the same time. In either case, however, it goes to show that advertising in The Reflector columns pay.

SOCIAL SERVICE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

It came cooler after the rain.

This rain made a nice season for setting out tobacco plants.

FALSE ALARMS ABOUT MEN'S SUITS AT $125

are flying about it seems, in every neighborhood. And the man who hasn't bought new clothes for some time—hears them, and decides to lengthen his fast until things slow down.

Spring Clothes; Good all wool hand tailored, 1920 model suits for men and young men are NOT flying as high as hearsay says they are.

At $45 we are showing wonderful assortments. At $50 you have carte blanche at the tenderest morsels on the menu and at $60, well—there is nothing more desirable this side of a well stocked trout stream.

So cease worry and enjoy yourself while you are young.

Miriam Cooper in "SHOULD A HUSBAND FORGIVE?" A shadow is cast across the lives of some people and over the threshold of others because a good wife assumes that husbands do not forgive. The shadow lengthens when years later the woman's son, infected with the virus of propaganda gives up the girl he loves because appearances are against her. See the answer to this great question.

GREAT MEMORIAL

DEDICATED TODAY

TO ALL CONFLICTS

when the vessel was sunk in Havana harbor, and the Confederate Memorial surrounded by the graves of southern warriors. Besides commanding a view of the cemetery, the memorial overlooks the Potomac river and the city of Washington. It contains a chapel and seats 5,000 people.

Fifty-six years ago yesterday Arlington National Cemetery was first used when President Lincoln personally witnessed the burial there of 12 soldiers who died in the hospital on the Arlington estate abandoned by General Robert E. Lee's family at the beginning of the civil war and bought by the United States at a tax sale for hospital purposes. Later the government paid the

Lee heirs $150,000. Soldiers' Home cemetery was filled and Quartermaster

Melgs, with President Lincoln's consent, ordered the soldiers buried in Arlington. That was the beginning of Arlington National Cemetery which has become one of the shrines of the Nation's soldier and sailor dead.
